Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to the same issue, I believe this Council and the Mayor acted in good faith a year ago with the Civic Arena Corporation. At that time, there was no mention of an extension after one year. Never was that talked about. I met privately with Mr. Martha and discussed this whole issue in great detail. We all know since that time we're probably faced with losing the soccer team here in the City of Pittsburgh unless somehow or another they can save it with someone buying the team and keeping it locally. We have lost something right there.

If they think they can come out and play hardball and say, "We need more money to stay" after they have met the attendance figures that they indicated they needed to meet, and they have been met in this City, attendance is up with that hockey team, if they think they can come out and play hardball and come to the taxpayer again to get more money, I think they're mistaken. And I know as one elected official, I certainly want to see hockey stay in this community but, at the same time, the community can't pay for it. The taxpayer of this City cannot pay for that franchise to exist here.

We made an effort, I think, in good faith a year ago and for the public to believe that we are going to do it again, and me, as one member of Council going to do it again, simply because the Commissioners have come out and said that there's going to be a one-year extension, that does not mean that this Councilmember is going to support a one-year extension.

Mrs. Masloff:

What are the terms of the one-year extension?

The Chair:

No one knows. That's why I'm saying it's useless for us to talk about it. No one knows. They had to give us a date by May 15th, after one year they would tell us whether they were staying for the whole five years or not. Now they're asking for another year on that. But that's why we have to wait to see what they have.

Now, before I lose this, I need a motion that our Wednesday meeting be at 2:00 p.m. rather than at 10:00 a.m. this coming Wednesday.

Mrs. Masloff:

So moved.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, we had some comments in the very beginning that came as an actual surprise to me when myself and my office had received the First Place Winner of the City Council Challenge '86 Pickup of Pittsburgh. But I could not go by without saying that there are some comments to be made and some of the people that made that possible. Naturally, Linda Noszka from my staff, Aggie Brose and June Coyne were all very instrumental in working very hard to see that come about. We have our Scoutmaster, Michael Murphy from 5530 Keystone Street who brought his troop in there. Assistant Scoutmaster and Coordinator, Thomas McGovern of 5154 Keystone Street. Scout Troop, Three Rivers District, Allegheny Trails Council, Troop 40 was very involved in it. These are young lads.

The point is, and the whole Clean City Committee, is to try to get the youth to change their habits, even if their parents might not change those habits. And these kids, some 12 or 14 of them, were very instrumental and worked for several hours along the Lawrenceville area. Jane Zalewski who is also from Lawrenceville. We have members from the Lawrenceville Development Corporation where we worked at to make them highly aware of what was happening down there and that's Mary Ann Ceoffe. Garfield resident, Larry Coyne and Garfield resident, Michael Hazel.

These are the people that went out there and got the brooms and the shovels and the pitchforks and really cleaned that particular area out. I'd like to bring this group in and make some comments in because part of that competition was to ask the people after they had cleaned up, what were some of their remarks. I think this Council as well as the Clean

City Committee and the Mayor would be interested in what some of these comments were of the young kids and the adults who helped make that part of the City clean. And I'll be very happy to distribute among the people who have worked with me the five litter cans that are at my disposal, the first time the City has ever given me anything other than my paycheck.

Mr. Grabowski:

I move to adjourn until Tuesday, May 27, 1986 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

And on the motion of Mr. Grabowski

People have said to me, "Do you really go to NeighborFair, do you enjoy it?" I would like to say that I do go and what I enjoy about it most is that each community that puts together its own booth, has ten days or two weeks out of the year that they can really hold their heads proud and show what their community has done, to what it's grown, what they're offering the people of the City of Pittsburgh and people moving into the region where to live, and it's just a place where the whole City of Pittsburgh can bask in the glory of being the most livable city.

I'd like to recognize for those that can't see by the cameras that there are significant numbers of the neighborhood residents here. They didn't want to come up but I can see that West End-Elliott is here, Mexican War Streets, Knoxville. So, they're proud of what's happening; I didn't even know that they knew about this presentation today but you should all be proud as well, all the communities that put so much time and voluntary work into this.

So, it gives me great pride to present this to you and also to John DeSantis. And at the risk of alienating about 77 other neighborhoods, I have my Bloomfield painters cap which I bought that day which I'm also going to give to you.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to echo what my colleague had to say that that really was the most fantastic NeighborFair and Home and Garden Show that I have ever seen. I was so impressed that I went three times and I could have gone three more times.

I congratulate Mary Lou, John, your staffs, all the people, all the neighborhoods that were involved and it truly was reflective of what Pittsburgh's all about.

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to tell a story about Mary Lou Daniels. Mary Lou Daniels was directly responsible for my being on City Council. You may want to take the award back now. I had just give 9000 bumper stickers that said GASP Michelle Madoff for City Council to Pa Pit.

Mary Lou Daniels had called me and we had talked about the fact that it was an off-year election because of the new Home Rule Charter and she had applied to the annointed nine who were appointed to select a candidate in an off-year election under the Home Rule Charter to run for City Council. She called these representatives and everyone told her, "You are the most eminently qualified candidate for City Council but you have only one problem" and she said, "What is that problem?" They said, "You're female."

So, Mary Lou Daniels did not run that year but I got angry and I ran. I got 14,000 signatures to get on the ballot. But Mary Lou Daniels ran in a subsequent year and did not win and was removed from her job doing an outstanding job and very much the same kind of work she's doing now, absolutely an outstanding employee, because they said she violated the Hatch Act where other people who ran were not removed from their jobs.

I think this is a very fitting time and at lease someone is recognizing the kind of work that Mary Lou has done for this City. I thought it was important to give a little history, Mary Lou. I am just really thrilled that someone is honoring you.

Ms. Daniels:

I don't want to allow this to sound like I was the only one that did it so I would like to take a few minutes to recognize the folks that are here, particularly the NeighborFair Advisory Committee who helped us plan this year's NeighborFair. Some of them are here and if you're here, please stand. Ed Ackerman from West End-Elliot; Felix Cocco from Bloomfield; Valerie Dreger from Perry Hilltop; Joyce Kozera from Lawrenceville and the Urban Redevelopment Authority; Beatrice Mahaffey from the Hill District; Pat Stewart from Brighton Heights; Dolly Campbell from Point Breeze and the Mayor's Service Center; Tom Coppola from Knoxville; Colette Hucko from Mount Washington and Mellon Bank; Marge Lubawy from Brookline; Bob Murphy from Shadyside and the Department of General Services; and Randy Zotter from the Mexican War Streets.

I'd also like to recognize the people on the NeighborFair team that are my staff and the staff from the Mayor's Office and Mellon Bank that helped plan this every year and that's Donna Chapman Chernoff from the Neighborhoods for Living Center; Beth Marcello from the Neighborhoods for Living Center; Mina Gerall from the Mayor's Office; Mary Zubrow from Mellon Bank; and Sally Mizerak from Action Housing; and Betsy Fitzpatrick who was a summer intern, a part-time intern in our office for NeighborFair.

Those people really helped make NeighborFair and the representatives of 46 neighborhoods that took part as well as 18 City departments and 5 or 6 non-profit agencies including the Board of Education, Neighborhood Housing Services, and a number of others that I can't list.

Just a little background, NeighborFair now has three children. Cincinnati, Ohio just held their first NeighborFair, Roanoke, Virginia held their first NeighborFair in September, and Cleveland, Ohio held their second NeighborFair. All three were patterned after the Pittsburgh show. All those folks came in here to Pittsburgh to learn about the show and went back and imitated it.

We have more than 2000 volunteers during the 10 days of the show; they volunteer more than 1400 hours. This does not count the time in the neighborhoods that they take before the show opens; this is only the 10 days of the show. The value of time donated is close to $75,000. Incurring services donated by major corporations in the City to the show is over $200,000. We raised private cash donations over $40,000. The neighborhoods themselves raised over $46,000 for their part of the show.

I can't take the credit for that. The folks sitting back there and the neighborhood representatives from the 46 neighborhoods from this City have to take the credit for that. That's why it's the best show in the City, that's why everybody is so proud of it.

Thank you very, very much for honoring us.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a problem with that one. Mr. Donahoe is one of my favorite people in the world so I have no objection to his being on the Leasing Authority. As you know, I was appointed to the Leasing Authority; in eight years it's the first time I've been appointed to any commission or authority. I'm probably the only Councilmember in the history of Pittsburgh that was never appointed to anything until this appointment and my appointment runs out at the end of this year, so it's a real long appointment.

But I understand that we must be sworn in. I have not been sworn in. I've been sworn at but I wonder what is happening with this appointment. How can he be appointed, for what term? Do we vote on it?

The Chair:

No. This is just received and filed. The Mayor has proposed to do all appointments. He's just notifying us.

Michelle Madoff:

This is not one that we vote on.

The Chair:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm going to abstain on 496 because I do not know, as I've stated previously, if there is any reason why the Chairman might, as he has for 8 or 12 years, abstain from voting, whether this is one that would come under that category.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bill 500, as you know, for years I voted no on anything for the Zoo because we had talked about having a fee for service charge for non-City residents. Last year it was promised that by this year we would have a fee for service structure in place for the City taxpayers who were picking up the deficits by virtue of debt service for the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservatory. The debt service, so people have some idea, is something like $4000 for three years, that we shouldn't be paying.

I have not seen the amendment, the change made. If there's a will to do it, we can do it. There is a fee when you go to the Wave Pools in the suburbs. There is a system of people coming from the suburbs to use our tennis courts; they have fake identification cards. It would be relatively simple to have non-City residents pay a slightly higher fee than City residents.

On the basis of that, as a protest, I must vote no on Bill 500, and may I please have a letter to Louise Brown go out asking what the status is on the bill.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 613 WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh now has fueling stations for all city vehicles, including public safety emergency vehicles located at 29th Street in the Strip District. This one fueling station is not geographically in a desirable location for emergency vehicles; and

WHEREAS, excessive time is lost with emergency vehicles having to travel excessive distance to refuel. In addition, other factors such as wear and tear on the vehicles, the use of gasoline to get from various points throughout the city to the present fueling location and the fact that many of our personnel aren't within their respective districts during the time that it takes to refuel these vehicles; and

WHEREAS, in addition, the public safety vehicles are out of their respective districts, therefore creating a void in the availability of service within that particular district; and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that the average time that each vehicle is out of service within that district is approximately 30 minutes.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Members of Pittsburgh City Council do hereby recommend that a minimum of five (5) fueling stations be established throughout the City of Pittsburgh in a desirable, geographical location so that emergency vehicles will remain available to serve the public.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to take a moment to point something out.

We have here a map of the City of Pittsburgh and, as everyone can see, we have one fueling location throughout the City. It's at 29th Street in the Strip District. This fueling location is utilized by all City vehicles, not only emergency vehicles, Police, Fire, EMS, but Refuse, Public Works, Parks, Administration, etc.

All vehicles throughout the City operating are here on a daily basis. There are a couple of exceptions; I believe those exceptions are fire trucks and I believe in some instances, refuse trucks.

This map also indicates the nine Police districts throughout the City. The resolution in front of us pertains to specifically emergency vehicles, meaning all Police cars, vans, motorcycles, EMS vans and cars, and jeeps that they utilize, and squad cars and fire trucks. As you can see, at several locations in the City it's very difficult while these vehicles are in service to get refueled without reducing the emergency service in that particular district. At some extreme ends of the City such as Lincoln Place, the distance is approximately 7.5 miles from point to point. The time that it takes for an emergency vehicle to go from here to here and back can be as long as an hour depending on traffic. There are not emergency vehicles replacing these vehicles when they're out of commission.

In addition to the average distance, the average distance is approximately three miles from any point. Other areas are also quite far, Homewood-Brushton, Brighton Heights, Overbrook, Esplan. Depending on the time of day and the traffic, it can even be very difficult to get from West End to 29th Street and back and be back in service in their respective district. Now, it's not to say that the emergency vehicles are out of service. They are not out of service but they are, to a great degree, out of service in their respective district if they are assigned to No. 8 and they're in the Strip District, if they're assigned to No. 5 and they're in the Strip District. This can cause a problem in response of emergency vehicles through the 911 system.

What this resolution is suggesting is that we provide at least five locations geographically suitable throughout the City of Pittsburgh specifically for emergency vehicles. We have at least at any time during the day 100 emergency vehicles that need fueled. Those emergency vehicles need fueled at least twice a day. The Police cars are running 24 hours a day, many times more than that. The emergency vans also need fueled twice a day; they are constantly in operation.

Therefore, what this resolution is suggesting is that if we provide at least five fueling locations, one on the North Side, one somewhere in the West End, one in the South Hills, one in the East End, and one possibly in the Morningside area, we would have fueling locations in desirable geographical spots throughout the City that would reduce the response time of police cars, fire squad vehicles, and also EMS vehicles. In addition to reducing response time, what it could also do is actually reduce the amount of gasoline that is needed. Obviously to get from Brighton Heights to the Strip District, it takes gasoline to get from this point to this point and back again. So, we may be able to reduce the consumption of gasoline by placing a fueling location somewhere in the Northside.

Other possible benefits are the reduction in wear and tear on the vehicle that has to travel this distance that is involved in traffic. It can I think certainly have an impact in that area and in general, I think there can be a financial savings.

But the number one reason why I would like to see Council support this resolution is that the response time of the emergency vehicles is so important and we must keep those emergency in their respective districts. We constantly hear about us not having enough people in terms of police officers, fire fighters, and EMS people. Well, we can actually improve the numbers of people in their respective districts, probably by one-twentieth, if we were to put fueling locations in the right spots around the City.

So, I would strongly suggest that we make a suggestion to the Administration that they support this idea and that we move forward with these fueling locations.

Thank you.

The Chair:

Jack, I have one question and I know a couple of my colleagues do. You're not suggesting building fueling stations because there are existing gas stations and stuff like that where we could have a credit system, where we could have our vehicles refueled in a particular neighborhood, such as we do with the car wash system with some of our vehicles. That's what you're suggesting?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Woods, you're right on target. What I'm suggesting is that we go out to contract at 24 hour stations that are open and find four or five throughout the City where we can purchase gas at a competitive price and utilize those particular stations for emergency vehicles only.

The Chair:

That's good because then we won't have any employees to hire or anything.

Mr. Wagner:

That's right.

Mr. DePasquale:

Obviously I support the resolution but I just want to state as you did, I know in the past, Jack, that City vehicles were allowed to go to private gas stations when they ran low on fuel. Don't emergency vehicles have that same prerogative today? I realize it costs more than fueling at the City station. But if they're, say, down to a gallon or two of gas and they're going somewhere in a hurry, they're certainly allowed to go into a private station. They used to have Gulf credit cards.

Mr. Wagner:

I think there is some stipulation. What it is specifically, I don't know, but I think they can be reimbursed if they do become low, if they're out on an emergency call, and they find out that the amount of fuel in the vehicle is low and they obviously need the vehicle to respond to the next call.

However, you bring up an excellent point, when you're low on gas it can be any time during the day. It can be a time when a police vehicle is in it's greatest demand, it can be a time when traffic is at it's highest point, and you must then venture to the Strip District. You're leaving your district and you're leaving it for a considerable period of time because, obviously, you have to have fuel to be functional.

Michelle Madoff:

I think this is an excellent proposal, Mr. Wagner, particularly in light of the fact that it's just come to my attention from a number of Police Officers that in the evening some of our stations, some of our busiest and largest stations, have only got four vehicles in operation, some two, sometimes only one, because they are not out on the streets, sometimes the vehicle itself is in for service.

I would wonder whether you would consider expanding your legislation to include two items. We would be buying in bulk, obviously, from these 24 hour stations. We should get a special rate, a competitive bid. They'd be happy to get the business and be very happy to even go below the price, and today's energy costs are considerably lower than they have been. But also, I think we should offer some mechanical support during emergency times because the garages don't do it. We do not have sufficient mechanics in our City garage.

So, I would like to see you expand the bill to include that aspect that if a Police car breaks down at night, if a Paramedic vehicle is out of operation because it's happened to me personally, that you could also go in and get, maybe a flat tire or a blowout patched or something, something perhaps not of a tremendous magnitude where you would need to replace the whole chassis, but to do routine emergency maintenance as well as the fuel.

I think your idea is very, very well taken. It would be cost effective, it would give us better use of vehicles, and I would urge you to follow through as you have been on expediting the study coming to Mr. Norton on what kind of police force we're going to need because when we read in the papers that compared to the rest of the nation we're doing so much better, it's like better than what? Lower prices than ever. Lower than what? Maybe we have 10 less rapes but there's still people getting raped and there's still people getting run over and so on. Would you consider that?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, I would consider it. As a matter of fact, it is my understanding that for two or three cents more a gallon you can actually receive the basic services of a gasoline station, such as tire repair, windshield being cleaned, radiator service, battery checked, etc.

The problem is in the City, many of the fueling stations open 24 hours a day are not prepared to offer that service. Some are and some are not. So, yes, if it could be obtained through a contract, I certainly think that's an excellent idea and also I should add to my colleagues, I've discussed this with the various management people and union people and the Public Safety Department, and they support it.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner, do you have another item.

Mr. Wagner:

Yes. Mr. President, I know I discussed this with you and a couple colleagues earlier and I would like to make a floor motion. I suspect it's in the form of a letter, that would be the appropriate way.

The Council of the City of Pittsburgh requests that a formal investigation be initiated by the Allegheny County Department of Elections of all campaign spending reports for City Councilmembers for calendar year 1985.

I would also like to further suggest that we include a time frame for receiving that report from the Election Department.

The Chair:

I want the letter to go out immediately, Mr. Perry.

I need a second.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll second it if you tell me what it's going to say.

The Chair:

In essence that since there was this article in the paper on Sunday, there's a lot of cloud hanging there, we'd like the Election Bureau to come in and look at all of our campaign expenditures the proper way so that there's no misconception that anybody here did anything wrong.

Michelle Madoff:

May I make a recommendation, Mr. President, that you also include what the parameters are of the existing legislation. My understanding is that anything that you do to enhance or help you get elected does not mean you cannot spend money in an off election year.

As Judge Ellenbogen used to say, "You campaign all the time, you don't campaign at election time." And as Cyril Wecht said, "I go out and speak all the time, not at election time." You are running all the time, not just in the year that you're running.

So, I would like to have it very clearly defined what we spend out money for. For example, if I have a meeting with an aide who comes in at 8:30 in the morning, at 10:00 at night responding to a letter to the editor in the Wall Street Journal about election by district, I will put down on my slip who I met with, what the amount was for, and she's certainly entitled to have dinner and I submit a slip. And I think we need that clarified.

The Chair:

What we are asking, Mike, and we'll help you draft it, we want in this letter that they'll look at all of us, look at everything we spent, to see if we were legal by doing it, where it was grey areas, whatever. That way the cloud is lifted.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President. Your point is well taken but what I'm saying is, I don't want this to happen again. But what I'm saying is, let us have it clearly defined for our constituents, for the media, and for everybody. What are the rules? I checked on the rules and I thought I was in complete compliance with the rules. If I'm not, I want to know where I was wrong.

The Chair:

That's what we're going to do.

Mr. O'Malley:

I agree with that; I think it's a good idea. I think it was quite a detailed article that was in the Pittsburgh Press Sunday and I think all of us need some explanation from the Election Bureau. I mean I've been turning my receipts in the same way for six years and this is the first time anybody said anything. I had an audit done of my campaign expenses this morning by a CPA firm and he indicated that he was satisfied that they came in compliance with the law.

But I think we ought to extend this to all elected officials, City elected officials. I'd also like to include the Controller in on this. He's the fiscal watchdog of the City of Pittsburgh and I think his expenses and expenditures should be as accountable as City Councilmembers.

The Chair:

I would suggest that since it was Council that appeared in the paper that we ask that Council be reviewed and I'm sure that since the article the Election Bureau will be looking at everybody else also. I think that we should just deal with ourselves.

Mr. Pollock:

I'd like a similar letter to go to the District Attorney's Office as well.

The Chair:

Fine.

Mr. Wagner:

I agree, Mr. President. I think our motion should pertain to us and to us only and if other elected officials want to solicit the same information they should do so.

I would just like to add, if it's in agreement to Council, that we request a time frame, two weeks, three weeks, because if we don't, this report could come back six months from now and I think it's something that we should move on immediately and we should request that the Elections Department do the same.

The Chair:

Let's say if we get the letter in the mail tomorrow, I'd say within 30 days. There's a lot of us to audit here.

Mr. O'Malley:

Are you saying 30 days to start it or 30 days to finish?

The Chair:

No, no, they should start immediately and have result to us within 30 days.

Michelle Madoff:

I disagree with my colleagues. I think it's inappropriate for us to single ourselves out. If the media wishes to single us out that's their prerogative. They're the guardians of the people's right to know. But the people's right to know goes beyond City Councilmembers. I think that we should request that all elected officials be audited because we are representatives of the public at large and it should not just be City Council.

The Chair:

I believe in fairness the individual that wrote that article will probably take the message and go back and do the job that he supposedly can do on the other elected officials. I think we should just deal with us.

Michelle Madoff:

I wish to amend the motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

Second for discussion. Discussion being that according to the election laws, if an audit is going to be conducted it has to be filed and requested within 90 days which would bring it to April 30th. So, if Council can be audited, that's fine; but if it also says the Mayor or the Controller is going to be audited, that has to be requested before April 30th.

The Chair:

I'm sure that the Election Bureau will do that on their own. I mean, they've taken a little bit of heat on this thing also and I think that we should just deal on an issue like this with ourselves. We are interested in ourselves as an elected body and my own personal opinion, I will vote against the amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

With all due respect, I would ask that you keep an open mind. You are an elected official, you are the President of this Council, you have stature in this community and the public is looking to you for leadership and it would seem to me that we should not be saying we're all being painted with the same brush and that Council is being singled out. I think we should address the broader issue, not the personalities. We should say that all elected officials should be audited because I don't think that anybody has behaved any differently and I think that you should be a leader in this instance and I ask you to do that and to change your vote on it, don't be stubborn, and I would ask my colleagues to expand it to all elected officials because otherwise we look like all we're trying to do is protect our own flanks. That's my opinion.

The Chair:

And my opinion is that if we ask that all elected officials in the City of Pittsburgh then we're saying you did it to us and not to them, you're being unfair.

The article was written here; let's settle it here.

Mr. Grabowski:

Just to clarify the amendment that Michelle made, she has indicated that she would like all elected officials to be audited.

The Chair:

In the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Grabowski:

That's not what she said.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you sir, I appreciate it. I mean in the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Whenever I filed with the Bureau of Elections, I went over before I filed and talked to the Director, whoever it was, whether it was Will Alton or Kenny Dixon or Scanlon. Anything that I thought in my mind was questionable I would ask them and if they said it was questionable or wasn't right then I would take it out or take care of the matter. Never have I been told by anybody at the Bureau of Elections that any of my expenses, as long as they were incurred in regards to my getting elected, were improper or illegal.

The public record is over there and anyone, Schmidt or anyone else who wants to go look at them can look at them. I think that should be the end of it. If they want to conduct an audit or whatever at the Bureau of Elections, that's their business. But to ask them to do it, to me, is sort of asinine.

The Chair:

I respect your opinion, Mr. DePasquale.

Now, on the amendment to include all elected City officials. Roll call vote.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The Chair:

We are going to do that right now.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm talking about my defeated motion. I wish to pursue it privately and I don't know what the ground rules are. Does anybody know?

Mr. Pollock:

Michelle raised a question of not knowing what the parameters were of the election expense law and it's not for the body of City Council to give her this. These laws are set forth in the —

Michelle Madoff:

That's not what I just asked.

Mr. Pollock:

This is what you talked about before. I'm talking about her previous question about not knowing what the parameters were for filing expense reports.

These are set forth in state statutes. If she has any questions, she could have consulted an attorney to have these statutes interpreted for her and I think that it's inappropriate for someone to file something and then afterwards not know what he or she was doing or state that she didn't know what he or she was doing.

The law is set forth; we are all given copies of it. Admittedly, it is in the form of a state statute but these can be easily interpreted by either a Legislator or other elected official or an attorney. I think that the time has come that this body start to look at exactly what its members are doing, what it feels is inappropriate activity for its own members. I think the time has come for our President to start examining some of his appointments to chairmanship of committees and reassess those appointments. And I think that it's time that this body realize that the actions and activities of any members of this body reflect on all of us. —

The Chair:

Mark, let me interrupt you here. We are not talking about behavior of any Councilmember. We are talking about a letter that we are sending to the Election Bureau to go over all of our campaign expenditures and receipts for 1985. I'm going to hold to that and rule you out of order.

Is there anything further on that subject?

Mr. O'Malley:

I think Michelle asked a legitimate question and I think Mr. Pollock is being unnecessarily harsh.

The Chair:

I just stopped that so we're not going to continue.

Mr. O'Malley:

Well, to answer Michelle's question, you have 90 days from the time you file, January, February, and March. You have until April 30 to file by five electors in the City of Pittsburgh to file to have any elected official's campaign audited, Michelle.

The Chair:

On this subject only, this letter.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I deeply resent a friend of mine implying that I did not know about the statute nor read it. I did know about the statute and my personal interpretation with my counsel was that any monies spent in the pursuit of being re-elected was legitimate and I stated that's how I handled it and I itemized it. It is not that I am filing after the fact, not knowing what I am doing and I resent that being on the record.

The Chair:

Everybody is getting off the subject. We're on sending the letter. Mr. Grabowski is the last speaker and we're calling the vote.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, earlier we took a vote on the amendment to include all elected officials and I'd like to make a motion that we reconsider that vote.

The Chair:

I will not honor that motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'm going to change my vote.

The Chair:

No, that amendment was defeated and I cannot honor that motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, we haven't left the room; they can change their votes.

The Chair:

No. That amendment was defeated. It is out of order.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I'd like to challenge the Chair.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

On the legislation you introduced this afternoon, I want to make a motion to hold it until a public hearing is set but before doing that I would also like to ask that before setting the public hearing that the legislation be submitted to the Legal Department so that when we have the public hearing the legislation is in its final form.

The Chair:

Mark, how about just making a motion to set a public hearing and prior to the public hearing that we have the Legal Department look at it? Just like that.

Mr. Pollock:

And if the Legal Department amends it then it will be resubmitted in the amended form and then have a public hearing on the amended form?

The Chair:

No. You're going to ask them to have a legal opinion as it is presently written and that's how we'll have the public hearing. Any amendments can come after that, after the public hearing or whatever.

Mr. Pollock:

But my purpose was trying to save time. If the Legal Department says to amend it and it's resubmitted in amended form, then you might want to have another public hearing on the amended form.

So, I would ask that rather than have two separate public hearings, that let it be presented to us in the final form after the Legal Department amends it and then have the public hearing on the amended form. It makes more sense.

The Chair:

Alright, here's what you do. Make a motion to have a public hearing; I will see that it's sent down prior to that. And before we advertise for the public hearing, that whole amended form will be in the paper.

Mr. Pollock:

Okay.

Also, Mr. President, I'd like to change my vote on the last vote to yes, on the letter.

The Chair:

You can't. I didn't let Mr. —

Mr. Pollock:

I can change my vote.

The Chair:

No. I wouldn't let Mr. DePasquale do it on the amendment. We're off that subject. This is a Monday meeting.

Mr. Pollock:

Alright.

The Chair:

Is there a second to hold this for a public hearing? The bill for testing for drugs.

Mr. Wagner:

I'll second it.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I tried to have discussion on it. I had my hand up for a couple of seconds.

The Chair:

We can't discuss the bill. He's making the motion to having a public hearing, that's all. There's no discussion on it.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. With all due respect, Mr. Pollock made some suggestions and I'd like to add to the suggestion.

The Chair:

And Mr. Pollock was out of order and I said that to him. I said we can discuss that later.

Michelle Madoff:

But you let him make the recommendation. I would like to make a recommendation.

The Chair:

I did and I let you do some other things.

All in favor of setting a public hearing?

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion.

The Chair:

There's no discussion on setting a public hearing.

Is there any other business before this Council?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes. I would like to make a floor motion that we create a line item in the budget for voluntary contributions for victims of the subsidence of the houses where people are going to be wiped out with their entire life savings. They have to pay off their mortgages, they don't have houses. We give to, and I have personally given $200 because I saw the pathos of children dying of starvation in foreign countries. We see the outpouring of generosity in our community where people have come out with food. You yourself have done some outstanding work, Mr. Woods, on giving out food to the needy.

I think there is enough concern and warm-heartedness in our community that people would be willing to equitably give to those people —

The Chair:

I can't even honor your motion to begin with, Ms. Madoff. The only reason I can't, it's not really a floor motion. You're talking about a budgetary item. You're saying, setting up a line item in the budget. Please put it in written form and we can do it next Monday.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond? When I introduced a floor motion to have voluntary contributions from suburbanites that came to $3000 until the Administration called it the Laughing Tax instead of the Commuter Tax and we were getting money from people who said, "My kid spends $10 a week on Pac Man", my services from the City are worth more than $10. People are giving voluntary contributions to the general fund which are tax write-offs. That does not require anything but a floor motion.

We already have precedent. My precedent establishes the fact that I may legally request, and we can get the Parliamentarian to rule, just a creation of a line item. As a matter of fact, we had an 8 to 1 vote at that time for people who wish to make voluntary contributions to that fund which is tax deductible. That has been established and you are going against precedent if you rule me out of order and make me put it in writing. It is a floor motion and a floor motion does not have to be in writing.

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, I am going to rule you out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

You always rule me out of order.

The Chair:

Let me finish. I listened very politely to you. We discussed this, I believe in our first meeting in January, that all motions of this type would be in written form 48 hours prior to coming to this meeting. We are going to abide by that. I'm not ruling you out of order; I'm just saying that I do not accept that motion.

Michelle Madoff:

May I have a ruling from the Parliamentarian?

The Chair:

No. We set these rules in Council. The Parliamentarian — I'm not going to accept that.

Michelle Madoff:

You allowed a floor motion the other day.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, you have the floor.

Mr. Pollock:

With all due respect to my colleague, I don't think that the City Administration, the City Controller and the Treasurer's Office, need to be getting involved in something like this. These kinds of things are set up all the time with banks as charitable trust funds. You go to the bank and set up a trust fund for mine subsidence victims. The media covers it, the television stations advertise it, and the money gets sent right to the trust fund. I don't think we have to have a budgetary line item that's a permanent budgetary line item.

The Chair:

All I am asking is that if, Ms. Madoff, if you want to do something like that, please put it in writing and we can honor that next Monday, vote it up or down at that time.

Michelle Madoff:

May I have one moment, please? Mr. Woods, recently, and I just can't recall what the item was before this Council, you wanted something to go through and therefore you allowed it to be a floor motion. When you don't want something, you do not allow it to be a floor motion. I think that is terribly unfair and I think you ought to consider how you are being perceived by the public. I think you are singling me out, I think you're wrong, I think you are doing a disservice.

In response to my colleague, the reason I don't want to go to the bank and set up the Michelle Madoff recommendation trust fund to help subsidence, it is wrong. We are elected officials, we are concerned about all the people in the City. It should be a Council issue and it doesn't need a resolution because I think we all agree that we ought to do that.

The Chair:

Fine.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to a previous issue in the time frame of 30 days, Mr. O'Malley indicated the 90-day time frame and that 90-day time frame would expire at the end of April.

The Chair:

No, no. That's before anyone can file to look is 90 days. So we're doing it tomorrow; we're perfectly alright.

Mr. Wagner:

But my point was that the request for information prior to the expiration of the 90-day time frame, it would not be consistent with that.

The Chair:

No, we want their report back to us within 30 days. We want them to request it right away. Okay?

Mr. Wagner:

Fine.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Givens for absence from the meeting.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, February 24, 1986 and Monday, March 3, 1986.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We have a number of read and adopted resolutions today and we have some people here in the audience so, with that in mind, we will take the resolutions first and, Mr. Givens and Mr. DePasquale, you are first.

Mr. Givens and Mr. DePasquale present

No. 658 WHEREAS, James B. McMahon will retire from a long and industrious career with city, county and country; and

WHEREAS, James McMahon served his country with the United States Army from 1942 until 1946, achieving the rank of Staff Sergeant; and,

WHEREAS, Jay, after working in the Jones and Laughlin Steel Mills for five years, began a career with the Pittsburgh Fire Department, retiring from the department after 25 years and with the rank of Captain; and,

WHEREAS, Jay then went to work with Allegheny County and later was appointed as personal tip-staff to Judge Robert Kelly; and,

WHEREAS, James has been a member of Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church for 20 years and actively involved in local politics in the city and state levels; and,

WHEREAS, Jay is blessed with a loving marriage of 44 years to Lillian Tanney McMahon, with two children, Geraldine Stephans and James McMahon, and four grandchildren, Christie and Michael Stephans and Jennifer and Kelly McMahon;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh joins with his many friends in honoring James B. McMahon's distinguished service to family, community, and government and in wishing him a long and happy retirement.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to say a few kind words to Jay. I first really met Jay as a State Committeeperson for the State of Pennsylvania, one who would have to travel to Harrisburg and on many occasions four, five, six times a year. In knowing Jay from that capacity, knowing him as a Fireman of the City of Pittsburgh and as an old veteran, Jay and I have many fond memories that we have worked with together and it's a tribute to a person of his caliber who has served both his country and the City of Pittsburgh as a fireman for 25 years and all of us know that not too many people within our Fire Department in the City get to enjoy their retirement and full life and full health and, Jay, you have been the one that has been able to do it and I hope that you can go out there and enjoy this with your children and your grandchildren and have just a great, gorgeous time from here on out.

Jay, just a few words, please.

Mr. McMahon:

Thank you very much, members of Council. I appreciate it. There's not much I can say but thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you, Jay.

Also,

No. 659 WHEREAS, Mr. Henry Dulemba has announced his retirement from a long unblemished career; and,

WHEREAS, Henry had served his country during World War II in a combat area of the South Pacific with the United States Navy as a Gunner's Mate, 2nd Class; and

WHEREAS, returning home he continued his career in the private sector until 1948 and then entered service with the Pittsburgh Bureau of Fire, culminating 23 years with the rank of Captain; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Henry Dulemba was then appointed to the position of personal tip staff to Judge Michael J. O'Malley, presently President Judge of Common Pleas Court, where Henry remained for fourteen years; and,

WHEREAS, Henry has been a life long member of Holy Family Roman Catholic Church in Lawrenceville, and has served his neighbors on the local level of democratic politics for 35 years; and,

WHEREAS, Henry has been a loving husband to Clara Gibala Dulemba for thirty years, a devoted father to David, Judith Ann, and Lorraine Mary Lass, and a loving grandfather to Jonathon and Kathy;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, join with his many friends, in honoring Henry Dulemba's dedicated services to family, career, and government and in wishing him a long and happy retirement.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to say about Henry, we go back a long time. In fact, both of us were raised up and reared in the Lawrenceville, 9th Ward, politics of the City of Pittsburgh. Henry has had many battles there and I have enjoined him with many of those endeavors.

But Henry also has made a tremendous contribution. He served as the President of the Arsenal Board of Trade for many, many years down there and if anyone knows what happens there on the 4th of July ceremonies, you'll appreciate what Henry Dulemba, through that Board, has kept the Butler Street area and the Penn Avenue area, along the 9th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh and the 6th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh really up in the high status as it is today. It's a good community area and Henry has done a lot to keep it in that particular fashion. He's a fighter all the way and I'd like to give a welcome to Henry Dulemba.

Mr. Dulemba:

Members of Council, friends, just for one minute, if I may. Jay and I, since we've decided to retire at this particular time, you might be surprised but we have a combined total of over 72 years in the service of the City and County government. That's quite a long time; 72 years.

But since Council has seen it appropriate to honor us in this manner, all we can say is thank you very much, thank you very, very much, thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Dick Givens said it all; he didn't leave anything for me to say. But I just want to add that I grew up with Jay McMahon in the Oakland district. We've known each other all our lives. And for Sophie's information, Jay and Henry and I were Schenley High buddies.

Obviously, as Mr. Givens said, it gives us great pleasure, I know all of Council, to honor these two gentlemen as we did today. No one deserves any more. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff and Mr. Grabowski present

No. 660 WHEREAS, a recent case of mine subsidence in the Schenley Heights community ruined properties and revealed the need for some organized system of local assistance for residents who suffer property damage and displacement as a result of this hazard; and,

WHEREAS, during the recent crisis, Mayor Caliguiri personally led the City's effort to help these afflicted people, thereby establishing the City's determination to protect the lives and property of our citizens from the threat of mine subsidence; and,

WHEREAS, the people of Pittsburgh, in the American tradition of charitable generosity to victims of disasters, have always demonstrated their willingness to aid less fortunate people on the local, national, or international levels; and,

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh must take the lead in coalescing these generous public energies and directing them into an effective resource to financially assist Pittsburgh residents faced with the devastating effects of mine subsidence;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, in the spirit of governmental cooperation and humanitarian concern, recommends that the Administration create the appropriate financial mechanism to receive, deposit, and disperse voluntary public donations for the relief and support of Pittsburgh residents victimized by mine subsidence;

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council recommends that the Administration use the full force of its public relations capability to solicit donations, inform the citizens of the availability of the fund, and urge Pittsburgh residents to purchase mine subsidence insurance for their own protection and welfare.

Mr. Grabowski moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

As you may recall, the reason this was put in a resolution form was that Councilmembers wanted it put in this manner and, as you know, this is a wish list. It is not mandatory. It is a request for the Administration to set up a mechanism. That means they may decide to go to a bank and have people make contributions to a bank. But they're going to have to let the public know which bank, who to send the check to, how to make it out, whatever. And also, of course, to use the public relations department which incidentally doesn't exist and we should have for the City but the Mayor should perhaps have the impetus to create a Public Relations Division to let people know that they should be buying subsidence insurance and we do remember that my colleague, Mr. Grabowski, came up with this issue long before it actually came about in such a dramatic manner. He might want to make some comments.

Mr. Grabowski:

I tend to agree with Michelle that this is something that may help ease the situation somewhat, as if there are some benevolent citizens out there that would like to contribute to a relief fund of some type that would help those that have experienced this problem. I think the big answer is if we can come up with some sort of protection, moreso than what there is right now. That's what this Council has been striving for for a couple years now. Maybe the Department of Environmental Services will finally act on this serious matter.

Michelle Madoff:

May I just add, right at this point I think the most pressing issue is I think what has happened has brought to everybody's attention that there but by the grace of God goes their home. But we're dealing with people. Everybody says, "It isn't going to happen to me" and it happened. These people have lost their homes, still owe their mortgages. They're basically not your wealthy residential areas.

I think when steel workers don't have jobs we pitch in and we find food. Mr. Woods, you yourself work to supply cheese and distributed food to the poor. We send money overseas, we collect money for people who are affected by blight and hunger and famine. Can't we for one time really pitch in and help our own City residents?

What I'm doing, Mr. Grabowski and I are recommending that a mechanism be set up to notify the public that there is such a fund, that people can contribute, and they would disburse the money, whatever mechanism the Administration set up, to help those less fortunate. It isn't just enough to help them get their furniture out and say, "Well, we help you get what you can out." Where are they going to put it? They still have to pay their existing mortgage wherever they go, or their rent, plus their old mortgage.

I think we are a community that is generous enough in spirit to want to help the people who have had this problem and I would urge that a personal letter accompany this from our President of Council asking the Administration to proceed to put this into action.

Mr. Grabowski:

One further comment, Mr. President. I think what we have to do is try to focus attention and make the citizens aware for the most part that this is a very serious problem. Perhaps our Cable Bureau could develop some sort of programming whereby they can inform the citizens where these affected areas are. I'm sure that not many people realize that there are coal mines under Squirrel Hill. I mean, we're talking about some homes out there that probably are in excess of $100,000 and the coal mines are probably 20-25 feet beneath their homes and many of these people don't realize it. But perhaps our Cable Department could come up with some programming whereby we can advertise the communities that are affected and provide some more information and make the public aware and if they should happen to someone, maybe they'll be fortunate enough to have the insurance.

The Chair:

I'll give it to Brother Emenecker because you have all the areas in the City that are undermined and perhaps they could use that.

Mr. Pollock:

In addition to using the cable, I think that a letter should be sent out with the City tax bills or with some other letters that go out to the public with a map saying which areas are affected and who they should contact at the State to acquire mine subsidence insurance. That way we know it actually gets into the individual resident's hands.

Michelle Madoff:

I might also want to point out that when you buy a house, if memory serves me well, it states very clearly that no one owns the mineral rights. When you buy your house you don't own the mineral rights under your house. So people should be aware of that as well.

And I think, Mr. Pollock, the City should do it through Water bills, perhaps, enclose it in an envelope, this notification, through any mechanism, but I know that we would get support from Duquesne Light or the utilities companies, or anybody that sends an enclosed bill, telephone bill, to enclose that as well. They would be very supportive of this kind of mailing.

But you're absolutely correct and I would like to have the City Clerk to add that to the bill if it's alright with my colleague, to amend the bill to include but the idea of Mr. Grabowski to go through Cable, and to send a notice out.

Mr. DePasquale:

I was just wondering if the URA, under their broad powers, couldn't step in and buy that property.

The Chair:

I think the Administration is looking into that.

Mr. DePasquale:

The possibility of the URA buying it? Okay.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to ask Mr. Paul Imhoff, Chief of Bureau of Building Inspection, City of Pittsburgh, Dominic Cimino, and Pat Walker to please step forward for this resolution.

While they're walking up, I'd just like to say that interestingly enough, this resolution to some degree, ties in with the previous resolution because it pertains to Building Safety Week, something that we're trying to recognize with this resolution and also an upcoming seminar that's taking place this week.

Paul, maybe when you make a few comments you could even let the public know what that address is from the Bureau of Mines to obtain the type of insurance necessary for mine subsidence.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 662 WHEREAS, across the nation this week, local and state governments, construction and design organizations, and the various professional associations of building officials and code administrators are making an effort to create a public awareness of the importance of construction safety codes and their effective enforcement; and,

WHEREAS, in conjunction with the national effort, the Public Awareness Program of the City's Bureau of Building Inspection is focusing attention on the contributions made to the health, safety, and welfare of our building facility environment by dedicated code officials; and,

WHEREAS, the Superintendent, supervisors, staff, and building inspectors of the City's Bureau of Building Inspection are to be commended for their responsible and effective dedication to strict enforcement of our building codes; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Pittsburgh are encouraged to participate in the various programs planned for Building Safety Week, particularly the seminar for first-time home buyers on Wednesday, April 16, 1986 from 5:00 - 7:00 P.M. on the Fifth Floor of the Public Safety Building;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes the week of April 13th - 19th as National Building Safety Week in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Paul, I'd like to ask you to say a few words to endorse this and possibly the mine subsidence.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I get a character reference from him first?

Mr. Imhoff:

You sure can.

First, I'd like to thank City Council for naming this week as National Building Safety Week. We're an enforcement agency and a lot of people hate to see us come around to their door but really our job is an effort to try to build a safer place for you to live, work and play in the City of Pittsburgh as well as across the nation.

As an officer of BOCA and as the Chairman of Major City Building Officials, two of the sponsoring organizations nationwide for this program, I'd like to thank you on their behalf also.

And as far as Mr. Wagner is saying about the mine insurance, after the incident in Bryn-Mawr, I'd like to assure you after going through these people's homes up there and seeing plaster and everything down all over their belongings, personal belongings, and having to move their belongings into the street so that they could be packed in full view of the public, the first thing I did was go home and have my wife call to get mine insurance. I've lived 25 years at my place and never had it.

The place where you get it is at the Office of Mining in McMurray, PA. They're in the book; they're a federal agency and you have to make a request for an application. Once you fill out the application and mail it back in, someone will come and inspect your home and at the time they inspect it you have to make the payment for the policy. It's based on $1000.00 evaluation, $1.00 per $1000.00 and it's the best investment I think we've made.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Imhoff, would you be willing to give that information and follow up to see that Mr. Pollock's recommendation is followed through, that it indeed goes to each home owner and, not only home owners but to buildings such as mine? I think my building is looking into doing it too. I think it's very important; they don't have it in our building.

Mr. Pollock:

Paul, is that a one-time bill like a title insurance or is it an annual premium?

Mr. Imhoff:

It's an annual premium. In my case, it was $48.50. If you're a senior citizen, they give you a 10 percent discount.

Mr. Pollock:

Every year?

Mr. Imhoff:

Yes.

Mrs. Masloff:

For what valuation?

Mr. Imhoff:

It's based on $1.00 per $1,000.00. If your house is worth $50,000.00, it's $50.00.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to ask Dominic Cimino to say a few words also.

Mr Cimino:

I'd like to thank City Council for honoring this week as National Building Safety Week. Building Inspection is extremely proud to be a part of providing for City residents a safe place to live and work.

Contrary to public opinion, good enforcement of a good building code encourages both development of land and structures.

Again, I'd like to thank everyone.

Ms. Walker:

I just wanted to briefly thank Mr. Imhoff because it is through his efforts that National Building Safety Week has been brought to the City of Pittsburgh. We did a lot of activities last year and, of course, this year we've had more publicity than we've ever had about Building Safety Week. But he is the President of the Building Officials and Code Enforcement Administrators, Inc., and he is also involved in the Association of Major Building Officials. It's a nationwide organization and they are primarily the ones who are behind this and Mr. Imhoff is the one who is the motivator, seeing to it that we have Building Safety Week here in the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

For everyone's information, that was Pat Walker. She is a building inspector for the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you, Pat.

For our next resolution, Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to ask the Safety Coordinator for the City of Pittsburgh, Mr. Jerry Lynch, to please step forward.

While Jerry is walking forward, actually this resolution was initiated by Jerry through me and I think it's another resolution that pertains to general safety in the public and it also relates to a piece of legislation in the house.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 661 WHEREAS, in June, 1984, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania adopted the Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program (MCSAP) and repealed Section 4522 of the Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Code; and

WHEREAS, by repealing Section 4522 of the Motor Vehicle Code, no city, county, or township police officer in the Commonwealth, except a limited group of State Police Officers, can enforce the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR) for truck, truck tractor, and semi-trailer combinations engaged in interstate commerce; and,

WHEREAS, because of this inability of local police officers to enforce vehicle safety regulations and to inspect unsafe vehicles, more and more owners of trucks and tractor-trailers are sending their vehicles into the Commonwealth with procedural and equipment violations that directly effect their safe operations and endanger the lives of Pennsylvania motorists; and

WHEREAS, this hazardous situation must be remedied by amending the existing Section 4107 to include the phraseology of the repealed Section 4522;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby petition the Legislature to amend Section 4107 of the Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Code to include the following provisions:

VIOLATION OF FEDERAL STATUTE OR REGULATION

General Rule: No person shall drive a vehicle on any highway in violation of any provision of a federal statute or regulation relating to any type of equipment or documents used in the vehicle while engaged in interstate commerce.

Penalty: Any person violating this section is guilty of a summary offense and shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of $100.00.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Question before I vote on it. You only want to fine them $100?

Mr. Wagner:

Well, the amendment, which I would like Jerry to speak to, is very important. At the present time, we cannot fine anyone anything. This piece of legislation that is now in Harrisburg is very important in terms of being a deterrent from keeping trucks that are violating the laws off our parkways and our interstate highways that are passing through the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

The fact of life is that for $100, if you got a major violation on your truck you'll send it in and pay the $100.

We had an incident, as you recall, where a truck got loose and killed people at the Horne's Building, right near Horne's. What are you going to do with a $100 fine? It's a joke. Put them in jail. Lock them up forever.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may, it depends also on the type of violation that is involved and there's other things besides a fine which Jerry will mention.

Michelle Madoff:

It isn't strong enough.

Mr. Wagner:

This is what is proposed in Harrisburg and this is what we would like to amend in Harrisburg.

Mr. O'Malley:

Jack, this says our local police, the inability of local police officers to enforce the Vehicles Safety Regulations and to inspect unsafe vehicles. Does this amendment give them the authority to do that? I don't see it in the amendment that this would give the local police officers the authority to inspect the vehicles.

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, it would.

Mr. Lynch:

Let me try to assemble this so it's easier rather than read the bill.

For instance, we have a tractor trailer coming down Liberty Avenue toward town in Bloomfield. A police officer pulls that vehicle over near the top of the hill, above Iron City Brewery for speeding. During that citation, he sees that the tractor has no brakes, the trailer has an airline cut. There's nothing he can do about it. He can't secure that vehicle there under the current legislation.

Under the previous legislation, he could secure that vehicle, cause that driver not to be able to operate that vehicle, not to be able to have it moved unless it was towed. Now, the police officer could see numerous violations which are $100 each, safety violations, could see numerous violations. He may be able to get a MCSAP, a State Police Officer from Harrisburg to come but I doubt that they would come that far for that violation, and once the police officer left, the vehicle could again move and lose his brakes or any number of other problems.

The only thing the police officer can stop him for now is City of Pittsburgh Vehicle Code Violations. Federal, they can't do a thing about it.

Mr. O'Malley:

Does this amendment give our police officers the ability to enforce the Motor Vehicle Code and stop that truck from proceeding if its found unsafe?

Mr. Lynch:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm a little confused. Doesn't the State and City Vehicle Code, or do we have a City Vehicle Code that says that you cannot have brakes that are defective or wheels that are spinning out of line? Why don't we write our own code?

Mr. Lynch:

Well, the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Act which was demolished a year ago and the MCSAP program took it over, used to allow us to do that. But the reason this wording was left out of the bill was an honest mistake. Someone didn't notice it. But all the rural and City police officers really have no right to respond any longer.

Michelle Madoff:

Are we pre-empted by State law or can we write our own law as well? For example, let me tell you what my great concern is. You can write all the laws in the world but laws without enforcement are an exercise in futility. I have had boulders and pieces of metal fall off of trucks in front of me, once when I had a car two hours, a new car, under my car and ruin my car. I had to have $200 or $300 worth of work. Why aren't we enforcing the existing laws on tarpaulins? I wanted to enact a law on tarpaulins here and I was told we already have it in the Code. Why aren't our police enforcing it? Who's in charge of the Police Department on Council now?

The Chair:

The same man that is presenting this legislation and I'm sure he will take care of that.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Wagner, tarpaulins. All the dirt that we get in the City, all the boulders and pieces of metal that fall off. I want every truck tarpaulined. I want to be able to cite them myself.

The Chair:

All in favor? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I just wanted to state we're all aware that Bill 555 is a pilot program and I wanted to add that the Board of Education, I've talked to most of the members, are quite optimistic about this program. They feel that it's going to be very successful. Hopefully the beginning of it is successful, and I don't see why it won't be, and then they'll have many more after that.

Mr. Givens:

On the same bill, Mr. President, I was not here last Wednesday and I have some concerns. Has this been given to the Allegheny Labor Counsel for their scrutiny, and if not, I would ask that the bill be held. It's not that I am not for this, I am. But I would like to see, and rightfully so, a coordination between the trades within Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh with that of what the school's doing. I think it's a good complement but I would like very definitely to have their blessings in this before we go forward and do this actual work because sometimes the various trades feel that this is an infringement upon their skills when they have people that are unemployed out there. However, when it comes down to education, many times they'd like to even participate in helping out those children who are going through the trade school here.

The Chair:

I'm not going to speak for what the the Administration has done but I know that the building trades are very involved with Connelley Vocational and I'm sure that they don't have any objections. In fact, we tried to get something similar to this a few years back with Frankie Mae Jeeter and her Welfare Rights Organization with -- Nick Stavanovich and I were working on that about four years ago, on a project similar to that.

Mr. Givens:

I just have that question and for that reason and some other questions I have on the bill, I would like to --

Mr. Woods:

Building trades very, very seldom do commercial work, especially home work, and I don't feel there's any problem whatsoever. In fact, most of the North Side knows that the building trades are not even involved in that. They do commercial, light industrial and industrial. So, I don't see any problem with this.

Mr. Givens:

I'll rely on your good judgment. Okay.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with you, Mr. Woods, on Bill 555. What we need to do is expand that a lot more to have sweat equity where some of the homes, you put them on the market quickly before they're cannibalized and let people get together in groups. I don't know if you recall, it was before your time, we had the squatters here. We had a real big problem with ACORN. People going into the houses when they were evicted from the houses. There's no reason why we can't make good solid homes that need to be perhaps gutted and redone, sweat equity, retired carpenters, electricians, who would volunteer to help in the community and I'd like to see this bill go far beyond this one example and that's being put together by I guess a training school, to teach the youngsters or those who are in retraining.

I'm saying that we ought to expand this and perhaps, Mike, you could dig out my old resolution somewhere and we'll put in another one that we make our houses available through sweat equity. Perhaps Mr. Pollock and his committee would look into it. He probably is already but that is something that we ought to be doing. We have this supply of houses that come on the market, hundreds of people in each shelter. They have nowhere to live, they don't have the money to rehab, but through sweat equity and through community involvement. It's very much the way they used to do barn-raising. We could make a lot of houses available to people.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 562

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of First Response, Inc., 4788 Highway 42, Ellenwood, GA 30049, in the amount of $1,233.00 in payment for Inverter Reconditioning and providing for the payment thereof."

favor of Penetone Corporation, 74 Hudson Avenue, Tenafly, NJ 07670 in the amount of $363.60 in payment for a Power Cleaner and providing for the payment thereof."

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 563, I'm sorry, I was out ill, I've really been doing a number on myself these days. The power cleaner being paid for from EMS. What is a power cleaner and why is the EMS fund paying for it? It was furnished without previous authority of law, so it had five signatures. But what is it? What's a power cleaner? Who is using it and why are we paying for it out of the Emergency Medical Fund?

It cleans Fire and EMS uniforms.

At the hearing, there were concerns raised by some of the neighbors regarding -- their fear was that once the zone change takes place, that even though the use will be for a doctor's office, there is no guarantee that the future use will be for a doctor's office. My understanding is that the neighbors have met with the developers and owners of the property and have received assurances and they are satisfied. I checked with them and I received a signed document from the people who attended the public hearing that they now consent and join in this petition. So, I'm content that the zoning change go through. I just wanted to put that on the record.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair presents

Which was read, received and filed.

Also,

Which was read.

Mr. O'Malley:

Move to approve.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I have several items. I would like to call to Council's attention, and I would like to request a post agenda or a hearing, whatever the President thinks is appropriate, and perhaps there might be a letter to go first to Mr. McDermott and to Mr. Gaetano. There is something drastically wrong in Denmark; there is something terribly wrong with what was done on McArdle Roadway.

I want to know how it was engineered because there is a sharp turn coming off the hill. I want to know how it was engineered so that water runs down from the top and freezes and we've had some severe, serious, serious accidents. People leaving places of employment on the Hill when one person spun around six times, was unconscious, they were going to sue us. I understand there may be a question of liability with the Port Authority pipes. I want to know why today, as I drove down, there was a boulder half the size of that desk sitting on the wall that rolled off the top on the right hand side coming down from Mount Washington.

There is something seriously wrong with the design and the way that whole job was handled. I see people working there all the time taking some kind of measurements with some kind of telescopes; I guess they're measuring to do sidewalks and other things. I want to know why it wasn't put in the initial contract. I want to know how much more it's going to cost us because it wasn't in the initial contract, and I want to know what the serious problems are with that roadway.

I know that Mr. Wagner was working on that. Whose department is that now? I can't keep track; we change all the time.

The Chair:

Mr. DePasquale.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. DePasquale's committee. I'm sure Mr. DePasquale will be happy to set up a hearing to get all that information but a letter first of all might be able to explain some of it. If not, I want a public hearing and I want a notice and I want people who live on Mount Washington or who use that roadway to know, Arlington people, to come and partake and find out what has happened to their tax money because it certainly was abused in that area. It's a disgrace. That's the road to the mountain which is our Niagara Falls, absolutely the show piece of the City.

I have two other items.

The Chair:

Let me make one comment while you're looking for your other items.

We had a post agenda scheduled for Wednesday and I think a number of us attended a meeting last week. We're going to have to cancel that post agenda, it's with the refuse workers, at 1:30 on Wednesday, because they are in the process of bargaining their agreement. If we meet with them, the Administration can conceivably file unfair labor practices against that union. So, would you please cancel that post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

I have two other items. We have life rafts that are being questioned that have been put around the City on our bridges. I'd like to know what the cost of them are. I'd like a report from the Safety Department. I would say, Mr.

Wagner, that perhaps this Council should be informed say every six months whether they have been removed and whether they are still in place.

And while we're at it, could I please get an accounting from I guess it would be Mr. Jacoby, I'm not sure, what it costs us to put up the telephone system in the City that was ripped out. We've done away with it; we got sold a bill of goods that we actually had to have this telephone service outside for people to use the telephones and now they've been removed.

I want to know what it cost the taxpayers, what the dollars were. I believe it was thousands and thousands of dollars.

Mr. O'Malley:

Hundreds of thousands.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I'm not finished; I have a couple of items.

The last but most important item, since I have been on this Council, and I was very instrumental, probably the motivating factor in creating a lease department for vehicles, for those members of Council who were not here at the time, we were having innumerable accidents in our Refuse Department. I went back over my records, I asked the Law Department or the Budget Department to prepare a list for us, a chart, that showed in what department accidents took place, what month they were, because when I said the accidents took place in January, I was told by the Refuse Department that it was because it was icy. I went back and found the accidents were in August and they said it was because it was hot out. Then we found that most accidents took place in April, May, and the off-season months.

It was agreed that we put in a safety program to teach the people who use these, they're no longer dump trucks. When they have a refuse truck it's a very sophisticated piece of equipment with hydraulics. We had incidents where drivers were putting burlaps over the motors and within one week an $80,000 vehicle was burned up. We have no insurance; we're self-insured and because of the material that was put together, Mr. Yatch created the Leasing Department. We needed cars at that time for police, the police couldn't go out, we didn't have mechanics taking care of our trucks.

Because of the bill that will come up on Wednesday that Mr. Woods is introducing on drug testing, whether people are subject to abuse of drug or alcohol, I thought it would be important if we go back over the last three years and compare where and what departments we are having claims, what amounts, what departments and what vehicles. In other words, where are the accidents taking place and what is it costing the taxpayer both in claims that are settled out of court and in repairs that are done in-house, do we have enough mechanics, and so on.

To my shock and surprise, I learned today after sort of tracking Mr. Buckley who is out ill, for months and his asking me for extensions of time, extensions of time, extensions of time, which I graciously granted to him because he was swamped and we were going through budget, it has been over six months that this Councilmember has requested a breakdown by department of repairs on, excuse me, what the claims were and what the costs were and, as you know, we get a list, under $700 and over $700.

We had Mr. Dan Pellegrini come to this Council to explain to this Council and to Mr. Buckley and to the Budget Office people, that he didn't have to supply this information because indeed he sends down a sheet to Mr. Perry and Mr. Perry sends it on to Council that says a claim was settled out of court and what it was, what the accident was, so that a listing could be compiled. And that is the records that Mr. Buckley was to use. But he didn't have to give him any other information.

I hope everybody understands what I'm talking about. It's claims under $700 that are given to us but not broken down by departments and they're claims over $700. And, of course, that doesn't include any cost to the taxpayer in the repairs that come to us in the form of a letter and that Mr. Buckley could use that letter to give us claims over $700.

What I learned today is that there are claims paid out of the Judgment Code, Code 46, and it is a certificate of judgment issued by the Judge. They never come to Council. They go right to Mr. Ray Johnson. I requested the last three years; they're coming off the microfiche. I want to know what additional cost to the taxpayers have we got in addition to the below $700, settled out of court, over $700. And I'm going to expand it further by asking whatever department deals with the repairs service of our fleet, of course I'm not terribly concerned about fire trucks and so on which are franchised out, I also understand we just hired somebody to repair our vehicles. We've contracted out or hired someone who is doing the work down at the place where we store our vehicles.

Basically what I'm saying to you, bottom line, folks, we're asked to vote, we appropriate money for the budget, we don't know the numbers because they've never been given to us and I don't understand why it would go to the Controller without our getting a copy. So, I'd like to make a motion that, a) in all future claims ordered by the court, that they don't go directly to the Controller for payment and again they are called certificates of judgment, we get copies in this Council so we know at least what we're paying, and I would like to share with you when I get the list, it should be in my office any moment now, on the last three years of the claims that were settled.

I was told by Mr. Buckley just a few minutes before we came into Council that the big money, the biggest portion of our debt comes from that Code 46, Judgments, and we never get that information. I was sort of appalled and very, very surprised because the figures were then very distorted. We do get settlements if they don't go to court and its settled out of court, but we don't get the judgments ordered by the court. We never know if it's a large amount. If Michelle Madoff settled for a claim on her arm and the court ordered me to be awarded $100,000, this Council would never know about it. We don't even vote on it. It just goes right down and is paid out of the Controller's Office. I think we want to know what is going on. I'm appalled, I'm floored. Did anybody else know this?

The Chair:

Michelle, it's a court order or something. I don't think it's within our power to vote on it, whether to pay it.

Michelle Madoff:

No, no, I don't want to vote. I want to be informed. I just want to know what we're paying in claims. Where are the accidents generated? What kind of programs do we need? Do we need an inebriation program expanded? Do we need a training program expanded? Are people on drugs? I don't know. But when you look at some of these things and you take a look at the volume, the seriousness of the accident, how it happened, you get some idea, even from the $700 under claims and the ones that are settled. But more importantly, what I'm talking about now, I'm mixing apples and oranges right now. One is where the accidents take place; the other one is the fact that we vote on taxes every year and we have really no idea of what we're paying out in claims. I would like to know that. I think everybody here would like to know that. All I'm saying is that we're not getting the information we need.

The Chair:

We know the bulk of what we're paying out.

Michelle Madoff:

No. I was told that the greatest bulk is paid in those claims.

The Chair:

But we fund that code account so we know what we're paying out, we just don't know —

Michelle Madoff:

I want to know what I'm paying for; I don't want a lump sum.

The Chair:

I see no problem with that.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I ask you the question, do you know, does any member of this Council, can they tell me what we pay in claims on Code 46, the total?

The Chair:

I don't have that off the top of my head.

Michelle Madoff:

I can tell you that for two years we paid $4 million for the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservatory —

The Chair:

Michelle, do you want the information?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes.

The Chair:

Did you make a motion?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, I did.

Mr. DePasquale:

I second the motion.

The Chair:

It has been seconded.

Mr. Pollock:

Could someone please read me what the motion is or tell me what the motion is?

The Chair:

Just that we get on all the judgments, Code Account 46, that the court orders us to pay, it doesn't come through Council — Ms. Madoff wants a list of every time we have to pay out and who it's to.

Mr. Pollock:

If she will permit me to amend her motion, I would ask that we send a letter to Mr. Pellegrini requesting that upon any judgment or verdict that he send us a brief synopsis of the history of the case and the decision of the judge or whatever tribunal rendered the decision. That could be done in a couple paragraph form.

Michelle Madoff:

That would be most acceptable to me. I understand that's already done but it doesn't go to us, it goes to the Controller.

I'll second the amendment.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

Now on the motion as amended.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to suggest to my colleague, Councilwoman Madoff, that I think the way we want to go here is, we want to know what the number of accidents are per department with vehicles. Recently Council passed legislation for workers' compensation. We are beginning this year in the budget for every department we will know specifically what their losses are in terms of accidents for people working in the department. I would suggest that we expand that through additional legislation to include other types of losses, equipment, vehicles, damage to property, etc., so that when we vote on the budget each year there will be a separate listing for each department, not only for workers' compensation accidents and claims paid out, but also for vehicle accidents, property damage, etc.

The Chair:

Let me do something. We just made a motion and an amendment. Michelle, I did this to you before but believe me, I'm being nice. We want this to be law, we want to make sure they send it up. Right now this is a wish of Council. You could take that and do nothing; it's just like these resolutions. Would you please draft it, introduce it, including what Mr. Wagner says here, we'll pass that and then they have to do it. Okay?

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond? I wanted to share what I learned today with Council so that everybody could come up with their ideas; I'm not married to the words. I think it's an excellent idea that we hold off and put it in writing and I'd be more than happy.

But I do want to point something out if I may. Mr. Perry, you have a copy of my last summary, the one I did when Mr. Yatch created the Leasing Authority, which does indeed do what Mr. Wagner is asking for. It breaks down by department, by vehicle, and I would like to share that with all members of Council so we have a base from which to expand. You may likely have done it, you may want to improve upon it, and therefore, when I put it together in some written form, with the help of Rick Infante, and I do want to publicly state that Rick Infante has done a phenomenal job of writing, I just want to give him a little credit there, that we can expand on it but you may like it just the way it is.

The Chair:

Okay, so we'll withdraw that motion and you'll put it in writing.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, it's been brought to my attention through the media that our request made last week to the Election Department of Allegheny County has in essence been denied due to the procedures by which it was requested, meaning that we made a request for a formal audit to be conducted of campaign expenses for calendar year '85 and under the form by which we made that request, it cannot be done.

I would suggest, and I would like to make a floor motion, that we proceed in another direction with another request. My colleague, Councilman Pollock, being a lawyer I know he knows the procedure much better than I and I would like to defer to him as to what that procedure is.

Mr. Pollock:

Section 1636 of the Campaign Expense Reporting Law, a Pennsylvania State Statute, states that any individual who has been required to file an expense account may that report audited by the following procedure and that is, any five electors may present a petition to the Court of Common Pleas of the County in which the report was filed. The Court will then order that the Election Department certify the account back to the Court. That means present the expense account back to the Court with all the documents attached to it.

The Court will then appoint an independent auditor and the auditor audits the report. The Court or the auditor fixes a date and time at which date and time the candidate or the elected official who filed the report of which the petition is filed shall be required to be present and answer questions under oath concerning that report and to verify the report filed.

The petitioners may request that subpoenas be issued to any parties to appear and give testimony regarding said report.

After this has been completed, the auditor will then file the audit with the Court and the Court would review this audit and if the Court finds that any part of the report was false in any substantial manner, or if the Court determines that any expenses that were incurred were done so illegally or were not valid election expenses, then the Court would certify its decision to the District Attorney and direct that the District Attorney institute criminal proceedings.

Further, the cost of the audit would be borne by the candidate or the elected official.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, as you may recall when this issue came up, I had a motion which was defeated that we include all elected officials. Mr. Flaherty our Controller, and the Mayor, so we were not discriminating and zeroing just on Councilmembers, that everybody obey the same rules. I lost the vote so I then said I would go ahead and proceed in any event, and my information was that you needed five members of the electorate to petition the Courts. But I was also informed that if there's nothing wrong with the audit, and let's assume we did it on the Mayor or on a member of Council who had a lot of money and a lot of expenditures, and nothing was found wrong, that the five who petitioned have to pay the court costs.

I personally don't have the money but if there are five good citizens out there who would like to pay the costs of the audit, should it be found that there were no errors, that it was a perfectly legal audit, I would ask them to step forward. And that's not really a wish because I think there are people who would do that. Somebody came up with $5000 when we had our Water and Sewer Authority to hire an attorney for us, I don't think Council is aware of it, and paid for that because they believed we should not have a Water and Sewer Authority. The felt very strongly about it and they went out and hired an attorney in the private sector who testified before us and who was opposed to it.

I would like to further take this opportunity, if you will indulge me, to state a case which, for some obscure reason that escapes me, has never hit the media. The comment about Councilmembers spending money in off-year elections. Let's tell it like it is, folks. Mr. Givens, when I first got to Council, informed me that he had done a study, and I thanked him for it, that showed that Councilmembers spend between $5000 and $6000 a year on requests for items such as: This Thursday Mr. Jack Robin, the architect of Renaissance I and II is being honored. There's no way as an elected official I cannot attend that. That comes out of my political fund. When a charitable organization calls my aide and says, "Isn't Michelle supporting this community group?" That's a political contribution. When I am invited to support a charitable organization or a cultural thing in the City by virtue of my office, somebody in the private sector can be asked to support it and say they don't want to do it, but as an elected official we cannot say we won't do it. We have to lend our support.

This is terribly important. There's been so much said in the paper, Mr. Woods, that I think the public needs to understand that every year, every day, and I will be happy to give you copies of the letters that come to our office saying that we are the so and so community group, we support you, we know that you won't let us down, and would you please buy tickets to our bingo, our Monte Carlo night? This money is going to be used for the community good, it's going to be used for supporting the orphans, buying food for those, whatever it is, and as elected officials we must be supportive of the cultural arts and of the community groups endeavors because those are the people who work for us or against us, the community groups in particular.

We don't have the option of saying we don't have the money and I don't think at $33,800, it's a matter of public record what Councilmembers earn, that we can go into our own pockets for $6000 and $7000. My office has spent, in the first three months of this year, probably $3000 and that doesn't include the fact that I went to the Opera Ball and paid $300 out of my own pocket. If I'm going to be criticized for spending $200 to the finest group that has the best record of dispersing money to charities overseas and the group is out of California but solicits all over the United States, then I will be subject and I accept that kind of criticism because while it is true that it may not be helping me politically in the immediate area, I think that Councilmembers must set an example of being charitable and helping children suffering from famine and who are just bones and who don't have the opportunities that we have. When political leaders and people in the community come to me and say, "Michelle, would you please help and make a contribution to this group?", I don't care if they're out of China or California, they have the best track record in this country of giving the money. Their overhead is the least of any other charitable group.

I'm telling this to the public that is listening in on cable and I'm hoping the media will pick this up and be fair. I don't mind you attacking any member of Council and if you're right, let the hatchet fall where it may. When I vote incorrectly and I have done that occasionally because I may not have understood something and I get flack, I deserve what happens to me. But I also think it's important that people understand that we spend money every year, we have fund raisers every year, and what the money is used for. And that has never once come out in the media. Not once.

The Chair:

I haven't seen the letter yet, the City Clerk hasn't gotten the letter yet.

Mrs. Masloff:

One question. It's my understanding from what I've read in the papers that if they find any discrepancy we have the privilege of filing an amended report. Is that so? So that if there's anything wrong you can file, if they find any discrepancies you just file an amended report. That's my understanding.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to say for the record, none of my contributors have complained. In fact, in the last couple of weeks, I've been sent contributions of close to $4000.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, according to the Charter, we have the responsibility to legislate and investigate City government. We do that quite often for the Administration, we do that for the Controller; we must also do that for ourselves. What I am suggesting is that if we have been denied with our previous approach and our previous way of requesting that the County Board of Elections investigate, that we proceed with an other procedure.

My floor motion would be that we would be the nine signatures that would request that the Court assign an auditor to audit our expenses and I put that on this floor in the form of a motion and I firmly believe that should be the way we go.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Again, would somebody please clarify for me, perhaps the Parliamentarian or someone who is a lawyer, is it not true that what I was told by our Law Department that if indeed we request the audit and nothing is found defective, the cost of the audit must be borne by the persons filing.

Now, if Council will appropriate the funds, I'll vote for it. I have no problem with it, Mr. Wagner and Mr. Pollock, but if I have to pay it out of my own pocket it could be thousands of dollars and I just don't have the money.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think the procedure that was asked for by Council last week is appropriate procedure. If I understand it properly, this Council asked the Election Bureau to come over and do an analysis of our expenditures or an audit from the Election Bureau of our expenditures and that if they find any inappropriate expenditures they would make recommendations to Councilmembers to correct them. If they find anything that they feel is intentionally inappropriate and illegal, then they will refer that to the District Attorney's Office or to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Michelle Madoff is correct when she states that any five members of the electorate can ask for an audit. She's also correct when she states that if, as Mr. Pollock stated, if there is intentional mistakes in the campaign expenses, then the expense of the audit is borne by the candidate. But if there are no intentional mistakes, then the expense of the audit is going to be borne by the five signatures requesting the audit.

What we're talking about is hundreds and hundreds of dollars. Personally, I don't care. The Press spent 10 hours on my campaign, expenses. My Treasurer spent an additional 16 hours. My own accountant spent another 6 or 7 hours. I spent time on it. But if it's found that there are no intentional mistakes, then the expense, and doing 9 candidates expenses is going to run into thousands of dollars. If there are no intentional mistakes, then that expense has to be borne by those that filed the petition.

I think what this Council asked for last week was the appropriate way to proceed.

Mr. Pollock:

It's my interpretation of the act that if an elected official or candidate's account is audited and the audit of that account reveals that there are no violations and the electors, everyone was accurate, that the electors who sought that audit would pay for it. I think that this is a risk that we as public officials should take. We're the ones who have been accused of having some improprieties. I think that it is incumbent upon ourselves, since no one else is acting upon it, the Election Department was requested and we've been informed that they have refused to act, that because this cloud hangs over this entire body that we should all put up our own funds if that may be to verify that our accounts have been filed accurately. I, for one, will be one of the electors to file a petition requesting that all nine of our accounts be audited.

The Chair:

I've stated this once, and I just asked the City Clerk, I was not informed by the Election Bureau and neither was any member of this Council informed, or the City Clerk, what actions they're going to take. It may have been in the newspaper and I didn't read it but to be very honest with you, I don't take that as Gospel. I think the appropriate thing, we sent a letter and see if we get a letter back.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, your point is well taken but I must inform you that even though they bypassed us they said they're going to do nothing. I think what my colleagues are saying is that there is a cloud hanging over our head and I think that I, for one, welcome an audit. I have one dispersement where I said St. Francis Hospital and I didn't put the address down, I'm sorry. I have no problem with having us all checked to see if indeed we are spending money maybe in ways we shouldn't be spending because, as Sophie Masloff has said, the election law itself is so very unclear and ambiguous, that when we buy a ticket to honor somebody, maybe it isn't considered political but since time immemorial it has been that way. I don't think there has been deliberate intention on my part, I speak for Michelle only, to defraud. But if there has been by other colleagues, I can only speak for myself, a way of taking political money and pocketing it themselves, I mean, that's obviously what we're talking about so let's put it here on the table, I think that we should not operate under that cloud.

What I was trying to do, Mr. Woods, was to say to you that everything was covered except the parameters. When you see a cartoon in the paper, a very funny cartoon, a man having dinner in a restaurant and they say, "How would you like to pay? American Express, Visa, Mastercard or your political fund?", I think the public is entitled to know that we raise money every year, what the money is used for, and I think it was important to get that on the record and again I hope that my colleagues will be fair and say that that's what we do.

I will support my two colleagues in voting to appropriate dollars that would not come out of Michelle Madoff's pocket —

The Chair:

They're going to come out of your pocket.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm talking about Council voting to take it out of the funds to show that the elected officials are honest or not honest. I would support that.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. You cannot take public money to audit. No way. Mr. Pollock is talking about —

Mr. Pollock:

Nobody asked that.

The Chair:

She misunderstood you, Mr. Pollock.

Michelle Madoff:

I misunderstood. Would you please clarify that?

The Chair:

You take your own money.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright. May I suggest, Mr. Woods, that we make a plea to the public for those who have the money to come up and pay for the audits? I don't have the money for the audits. So, I would like to amend that motion that we ask the public to come up, private citizens who are concerned, to pay for the audit.

I have the floor; I'd like to finish please. Can I have everybody's attention because I wouldn't want them to miss a pearly word.

The Chair:

Well, Ms. Madoff, if they want to speak when you're talking please feel free to talk because when they were talking you were talking also. Go ahead.

Michelle Madoff:

This is serious now. I am very, very serious. I would like through the media to make a public plea for those who have money who would like to see good government, have our funds checked, to please step forward and create a fund to pay for that audit. I would encourage the electorate to do that. There are people out there who have the money because it could indeed run into many, many thousands of dollars. I don't have it, folks.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Woods, in regards to what my colleague, Michelle Madoff, has said, and she is so right, maybe it's seven or eight years ago, I'm not quite sure, maybe all of you are familiar or not with Uncle Tom, Mr. Morris, who wrote for the Post Gazette. He looked at my report and he discovered that I bought some suits and I charged them to the campaign. He put me in the headlines, okay, and he also stated that was liable for two years in jail, $50,000 fine, and I don't know what else. He just ran off at the mouth. But on page 26 that same day, there was a perverted legislator who had committed sodomy with a young boy up in a Marriott Hotel. He made page 26; I made page 1 for the suits.

Now, they were told by the Bureau of Elections that those suits were a legal expense because they aided towards my election because I made a nicer appearance. The same if Michelle bought a dress or Sophie or anybody else bought a suit. I'm only telling you it's a legalized expense. Anything that you do within reason to get elected or re-elected is a legalized expense.

It's sort of ridiculous and asinine, I'll say it one more time, for a colleague to keep saying that we should be audited, that we should be investigated. What are they trying to prove? It's over there for anybody who wants to see it at the Bureau of Elections and anything we've done wrong is right over there right now. I defy them to prove that I did anything wrong and I don't know about anybody else in this Council and I'm not going to pay for any audit for anybody to investigate me or to audit me.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think it's a form of grandstanding by some of my colleagues here because Mr. DePasquale is right. —

Mr. DePasquale:

And even now I never received an apology from Mr. Morris or anybody at the Post Gazette.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think this has to be carried one step further. This Council here is talking about the expenditures of funds that were raised. I think the question has to be asked of the candidates of this Council and maybe the Controller and other people how those campaign funds were raised. There's some members of this Council who spent an awful lot of money in last year's election. It has come to my attention that some members of Council borrowed money from the URA at low interest rates. It came to my attention that some members of this Council —

The Chair:

Mr. O'Malley, we are not going to get into personalities —

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm not mentioning any names.

The Chair:

Mr. O'Malley, you're ruled out of order.

Mr. O'Malley:

May I continue?

The Chair:

Not on that subject.

Mr. O'Malley:

What? How campaign funds are acquired by using URA funds for fixing up your home or remortgaging your home? Let's talk about that.

The Chair:

You are out of order, Jim. That's the end of that subject.

Mr. O'Malley:

Do you want some cheap grandstanding here? I'll give you some cheap grandstanding.

Mr. Pollock:

I don't think anyone so far has raised question or exception with anything that any of my colleagues have said so far in so far as there being significant sums of money which have to be spent in off-year elections when one is not a candidate. No one has said one word about that. No one has said one word about people spending money raised legally. Certainly I, for one, would not talk about how much money is spent. But what we're talking about is money that is spent illegally and money that is spent that is not related to getting someone elected. And we're talking about money that is funneled through an expense account to the candidate with no verification of there being a loan to the Committee, with there being no verification of any receipts for that reimbursement to the candidate.

If somebody receives $7000 from his or her expense account and puts that money into his or her own pocket or uses that money for his or her own personal use, then that's like receiving $7000 of tax-free income. It's like receiving an increase of one's salary of about $10-15,000 because you have the use of $7000 without paying taxes on it.

So, I think this is something very serious and not something that should be just laughed over or not followed to the fullest. That is why I join Mr. Wagner's motion that all nine of us be the electors who request audits of all nine of our accounts.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, as I started out I indicated what responsibilities the Charter of this City gives us. It can be broken down into two words: legislate and investigate. That is our responsibility as a body. And if we can't start with ourselves, we cannot proceed beyond that.

There's no doubt in my mind that the public image, and it was mentioned earlier, there is a cloud over the head of this Council. That exists today, it has existed last week, it existed three weeks ago, it will continue to exist three weeks from now unless this Council addresses that issue publicly.

I am not in any way suggesting that anyone and everyone on this Council, in this society, does everything right. We all do things wrong. What's importance in terms of the confidence level of the public and elected officials is that we are open and out front about anything and everything we do. And in order to improve that confidence level, we must address pertinent issue of the day. This is a pertinent issue in the City today and I feel it should be addressed by this Council. It should be dealt with up front, publicly, and in a manner in which all of us can lift the cloud that appears to be over this Council.

Now, the motion made a week ago that was suggested to the Board of Elections, and you're right, Mr. Woods, we have not received a formal request, and maybe this vote should be delayed a week because we have not received in return the formal opinion of the Board of Elections. But, the point that I want to make is that we can't dodge this issue, and I will not dodge the issue. And if I have to pay myself to have myself audited, so be it; I'll pay for it. But I want the public to have confidence in me as an elected official; I want the public to have confidence in this Council as a group of elected officials. That must be addressed, that must be done, and it must be done as soon as possible and I am suggesting that we do it as a unified group as soon as we possibly can.

I will defer to you, as President of Council, if you think we should delay until we find out formally what the opinion of the Board of Elections is on this issue. You're right, I have not seen anything in writing also; it's only what I am reading in the media and maybe the media has been more in tune as to what is happening and they have probably received a formal opinion and we have not.

The Chair:

Well, the reason I said I didn't receive anything, the City Clerk didn't and I doubt if any of you did because some of the media articles that appeared in the Pittsburgh Press were inaccurate, and I know they were inaccurate. Some statements that were made that the reporter reported were inaccurate. And we all know that everything that you read in the paper is not accurate. So, how do we know what that letter is going to say? And that was my original suggestion to you, that before you do anything let's see it in writing from their solicitor, from Mr. Scanlon.

Now we're not going to debate anymore. We're going to call the question or you're going to remove your first and second. That's it.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I would withdraw my motion for one week and ask for a response, a formal response, from the Election Headquarters.

The Chair:

Do you withdraw your second, Mr. Pollock?

Mr. Pollock:

I would just like --

The Chair:

We're not commenting.

Mr. Pollock:

Point of order.

The Chair:

There's no point of order on this subject. The motion has been withdrawn; is your second withdrawn?

Mr. Pollock:

I think you have to realize a point of order.

The Chair:

Is your second withdrawn, Mr. Pollock?

Mr. Pollock:

Did you withdraw your motion, Jack?

Mr. Wagner:

I will along with a formal request for a response.

The Chair:

We are expecting that. That was in the letter, that we wanted a response.

Are you withdrawing your motion, Mr. Wagner?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

The Chair:

Are you withdrawing your second, Mr. Pollock?

Mr. Pollock:

You're withdrawing your motion along with the formal request?

Mr. Wagner:

No, I am withdrawing the motion at this time, delaying vote on my motion. I will bring it up one week from now, and in the interim period, ask for a formal response in writing from the Election Bureau.

Mr. Pollock:

Do we have to vote on that?

The Chair:

No.

Are you withdrawing your motion?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

The Chair:

Are you withdrawing your second?

Mr. Pollock:

And you're saying you will submit a formal request?

The Chair:

I will do it.

Mr. Pollock:

And we'll get copies of it?

The Chair:

Of course.

Mr. Pollock:

Okay, I'll withdraw my second.

The Chair:

Okay, the issue is dead.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, may I bring up one other issue?

Mr. President, I would just like to formally request with our public hearing tomorrow of which we have many, many speakers, that the appropriate department heads, meaning the URA, the Planning, and the Zoning Board, be in attendance at that public hearing to answer questions.

The Chair:

One other thing, and I will announce it tomorrow when we start the hearing so we all know, we have I think 60 —

Mr. Pollock:

One hundred.

The Chair:

We have 100 speakers so we are going to break for lunch tomorrow.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. Woods, with reference to the hearing tomorrow, while the former President was not one of my favorite people he did ask people to have representation for the group and if you had nothing new to add not to speak. We don't need to hear the same thing over and over and over and over again.

The Chair:

Michelle, I do that but they still have the right to speak.

Michelle Madoff:

But you understand where I'm coming from?

The Chair:

Right.

And on the motion of Mr. Givens

Council adjourned.

Municipal Record

Proceedings of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh

VOL. CXXI Monday, April 21, 1986

No. 16

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FOURTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, April 21, 1986

PRESENT:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

Before our regular order of business we're going to take one resolution. Mrs. Masloff?

Mrs. Masloff:

Would Mary Alice Babusci, Molly Knox, Jean Owens, Martha Friday, Adrienne Goldstein, Valerie Tutokey, and Pat Hansen come forward, please?

Mrs. Masloff presents

No. 699 WHEREAS, thirty-seven million Americans become victims of crime each year in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Pittsburgh who become victims of crime often suffer serious financial, physical, and emotional injury; and

WHEREAS, it is fair and just that victims of crime receive assistance and compensation to help lessen the burden of these injuries; and

WHEREAS, in Pittsburgh and elsewhere, both new and well established service programs for crime victims face a threat of having fewer resources as a result of federal deficit-reduction efforts; and

WHEREAS, National Victim Rights Week, April 20-26, 1986, is an appropriate occasion to express the public's gratitude for the vital services these programs perform for victims of crime;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes the week of April 20-26, 1986 as "VICTIM RIGHTS WEEK" in the City of Pittsburgh and urges all citizens and institutions, public and private, to support the establishment and enforcement of victim's rights in Pittsburgh through participation in state and local activities commemorating those rights and to assist their local victim assistance programs in every appropriate way to continue and expand their mission to help victims of crime.

Mrs. Masloff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Babusci:

On behalf of the five domestic violence programs, Pittsburgh Action Against Rape and the Center for Victims of Violent Crime, I want to thank City Council for your support over the years and I want to thank you for this resolution today.

I think now more than ever it is important for the public and the private sector to work together on helping victims to overcome the terrible ordeal of violent crime, be it domestic or crime that occurs in the streets.

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder whether any of my esteemed friends, and I consider you that, you know I've been a supporter forever, had called to your attention as I did within the last half hour the article in the New York Times yesterday about the way women are treated in the courts as witnesses and how women are treated as attorneys. Women are discriminated against as attorneys; there's been sort of a study that proves that that is indeed fact, and that women witnesses are not considered as credible as men witnesses. Of course that plays a major role in what we're trying to accomplish together. I think that would bear some investigation to see what we could do about changing some of that.

Mrs. Babusci:

I think that certainly on the national level that's true but I think that Pittsburgh is distinguished because the conviction rate on rape in '74 was 22 percent; ten years later it is 68 percent. So, we've really come a long way. Communities are beginning to work together.

Michelle Madoff:

We've been leaders thanks to people like yourself being out in the forefront but I just think that all the discrimination against women has not ended and we still have a battle to fight.

The Chair:

Thank you very much.

At this time I'd like to recognize a former Councilmember, Amy Ballinger, who served so well for this City for so many years.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, I have some comments and a motion concerning Bill No. 602.

First of all, I'd like my comments from Wednesday brought forth.

(BEGINNING - MR. POLLOCK'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 602 -
WEDNESDAY, 4/16/86)

Mr. Pollock:

When we were at the Mayor's Legislative Agenda Conference on April 7, this legislation was submitted by Director Norton to Chairman Wagner and was not on the agenda conference. When it was passed to us at the table, it had the language that the agreement was to be specifically for Bob Coll, unless I'm mistaken.

Mr. Perry:

That was on a cover letter.

Mr. Pollock:

Right.

Mr. Perry:

Right.

Mr. Pollock:

I would assume that the amendment to the cover letter which omits the name Bob Coll was unintentional, and I would further assume specific consultant who is being offered the contract is still Bob Coll. Well, are we not then wasting our time if Bob Coll doesn't want to enter into a contract with the City of Pittsburgh? And it's my understanding that that is in fact the case, that while he might appreciate the offer, he doesn't want any part of it, and if we approve this legislation, then it seems to me if Bob Coll is the one who was sought for this position and he doesn't want it, then with all due respect, you could go out and fill it with any other person. So, rather than us vote on this legislation that is meant for Bob Coll, I would ask that we hold it until we get testimony from Bob Coll to see if he wants this position rather than allow legislation to be enacted and it can be filled by somebody at any other time who maybe we don't want for that position. So, I would ask the Chairman to hold the legislation until we get a report from Mr. Coll.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

The last time I looked, in order to have a contract, you have to have two parties. If this person doesn't want to accept it, then we don't have a contract. Now, Mr. Givens has been out of town, and he hasn't spoken to Mr. Coll. Mr. Coll, from my understanding from what he said to me in this hall does not want this agreement, does not want to be a consultant. So, I think before we can pass legislation, we should have Mr. Coll at this table or have a letter submitted from him saying that he would like this position before we go out and try to find somebody to fill it.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Pollock:

Secondly, I would like to place on the record some facts which are extremely relevant to Bill No. 602.

If you will recall, there was discussion concerning Bill No. 602 relative to whether this legislation was designed for one individual, namely Robert Coll, or if it was just legislation to be filled by any qualified individual if, in fact, any other qualified individual could be so identified.

Director Norton gave me his assurance that this legislation was, in fact, only meant for Bob Coll and that if Bob Coll did not accept this contract offer, that the position would not be filled. He gave me that assurance on Wednesday.

Needless to say, I was extremely disheartened and concerned when I saw in the newspaper on Friday that Director Norton stated something directly in contradiction to that and the report in the paper said that if Mr. Coll did not accept this position, that it would be filled by some other individual. Needless to say, there is a conflict in these two statements, if, in fact, the report in the newspaper was accurate and I have no reason to doubt that it was.

My point is that I would hope that before members of this body vote, and I will be making a motion prior to our voting which I hope will be passed, but if, in fact, it is not, I hope that the members of this body will consider this before enacting this legislation and will take serious heed of the fact that if any member who would vote in favor of this, as the majority did on Wednesday, is thinking that this legislation is earmarked only for Bob Coll and so want it to be only for Bob Coll and not for any other individual, the enactment of this legislation does not carry with it that stipulation and that Director Norton, or whoever he may designate to so offer a contract to a consultant, would have a free hand to offer it to any individual and Council is then out of the picture.

So, the question before this body is, today, does Council want to put forth legislation to have a consultant hired at the rate of $26,000 for six months, to any individual and then leave it at that and give Director Norton or whoever a free hand to identify that individual for that consultant contract.

Having said that, I would make a motion to recommit this legislation to Committee for further analysis, discussion, and research to determine if, in fact, only Bob Coll is to be offered this consultant contract and if, in fact, Bob Coll desires this consultant contract and if, in fact, Bob Coll does not want this consultant contract, that this legislation be tabled permanently. Do I have a second for my motion?

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I was going to make the same kind of comments that my colleague, Mr. Pollock, has made but I was going to take a different tact. This morning, as we all know, a new Police Chief was --

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, if I may --

Michelle Madoff:

I'm on the recommitment. I am on the issue of recommitment.

The Chair:

Gretchen, on a recommittal you can discuss; am I correct?

Parliamentarian:

I it is seconded you can discuss it.

The Chair:

Okay. Ms. Madoff?

Michelle Madoff:

As we all know, this morning a new Chief of Police was appointed and his name, as you know, is Mr. Moore. He is now Superintendent Moore, I believe that's the correct title.

In his opening remarks, he made the comment that he had already talked to people about getting some help. One of the people he talked to about getting help was indeed Superintendent Coll. In most corporations and in most business operations, there is an orderly transition, a period of changing hands on the job and learning what has happened before because Mr. Moore said today himself that he'll have a lot to learn about the new job.

It would seem to me that Bob Coll, having received accolades from us at the last Monday meeting, would certainly be in a position to help in an orderly transfer and help the new Police Chief who is obviously Mr. Moore. Originally, this bill came in with Mr. Coll's name on it and that name was taken off. It would seem to me that the proper way to proceed would be to put Mr. Coll's name back into Bill 602 to hire a consultant. After all, there's no reason why Mr. Coll who is going into the business of consulting now, into the private sector as a consultant in the field of security, should not be paid for his services in that transition time. As a matter of fact, many corporations, when they hire a new president or a new director will have two people, they pay both of them, the new person coming in while they're learning and the one going out, while they're going on to perhaps another job.

So, I would strongly suggest that we don't keep batting this back and forth and putting it back into Committee and taking the time and just put Mr. Coll's name back in. We vote it up or down. If Mr. Coll doesn't take the job, so be it. If he does, Lord knows, we need the input of the man who we've all applauded and felt he has done an outstanding job.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, my first question would be, and I suspect we could know this from the Parliamentarian, I don't believe it's possible to put a name in this legislation according to our procedure for contracts. Is that correct?

The Chair:

I believe we can do it.

Mr. Wagner:

We can do it?

The Chair:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. The next point I would like to make is that, well first of all, I'd like my comments brought forward from last Wednesday's meeting for the record.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 602 -
WEDNESDAY, 4/16/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Councilwoman Madoff, if you will recall, last week there was a news release by the Mayor of the Police Chief leaving our City. In that news release, it indicated the individual would be considered for consultant position. And this legislation pertains to two items. It is a consultant to assist in the transition of the office of Chief of Police and the same individual or individuals would assist in the development of the Office of Professional Responsibility which falls under the Assistant Director of Public Safety.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I'm objecting to the legislation.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

This Council has funded at great length millions of extra dollars into the Department of Public Safety to hire new personnel, confident personnel to fill the positions which we have funded. What we are now saying with this legislation is that we want to assist the individuals that are filling those positions in performing their duties in the position during that transitional period.

I personally feel that if we are hiring confident people to fill those positions, they do not need assistance from other individuals to know how to meet the job duties of those positions. Just to reflect a little bit on the consultant contract that we approved for the Bureau of Police to evaluate the Bureau of Police, we are in essence adding onto a consultant contract which this Council approved last year, an additional $26,000 to assist in the Chief of Police Office, and in addition to that, the area of Professional Responsibility. We do not need any more consultants in the Department of Public Safety. What we need to do is to simply move forward in the right direction to address the problems that were brought to our attention when the Public Safety Department was formed.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

DIRECTOR NORTON COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Well, if I may comment. Director, I don't want to get into a disagreement at this table because obviously we have had a few disagreements in the past, and I would rather not talk about this one here at this table. However, I could talk at great length if you want to talk about it, and I totally disagree that the purpose is for assistance in the area of Professional Responsibility because I know only too well what the original letter said that was sent to the President and members of Council. And each member of this Council received that letter. I would appeal to my colleagues that this $26,000 is not needed in the Department of Public Safety.

Director Norton was approved by the Mayor and he was confirmed by this Council. He has hired an Assistant Director. He has appointed a Chief of Police in place of another Chief. Your department is in the process of filling many positions, and this Council has every right to believe that the assignments and positions that you fill will be with confident people.

The taxpayers should not be burdened with an additional $26,000 in money to assist those people. This Council does not hire a consultant when a new member of Council is elected to consult with the Councilman. Other Departments in this City, when we fill new positions that we find, we do not hire consultants to assist those individuals. We hire confident people to fill those positions. The same situation exists in the Department of Public Safety, and I highly recommend not to approve this legislation for that reason.

Members of Council, there was a previous letter. The previous letter was changed at my request to Director Norton. Prior to changing the previous letter, Director Norton and I had a discussion that I would support this legislation if in fact the previous Director wanted this position because I felt that he was very confident. I have had a lengthy discussion with him, and he in no way ever requested or asked or has indicated that he would accept a consultant position with the City of Pittsburgh. For that reason, I am stating quite frankly that I have investigated this to great degrees, and I know the situation. If in fact the legislation is passed and that scenario is correct, which I firmly believe that it is, another person can be chosen as another consultant. Now, we have a consultant right now working, evaluating the Police Bureau in this City. There is no reason that if we need a consultant to evaluate the Police Chief position in the area of Professional Responsibility in which a great portion pertains to police work, that that present consultant on duty that has not yet completed 50 percent of their consultant report cannot address this situation. It is within the realm of the responsibility of that contract that they can evaluate these positions and assist in direction for a person within that position.

We are placing consultant on top of consultant and I am strongly recommending to this Council that the morale of this Police Bureau does not need another consultant, and I have requested an interim report on the consultant that we initiated, this Council approve and voted for, and I approved and voted for. I have yet to receive a report. And while we are talking about another consultant on top of that, I strongly recommend that we do not approve this legislation.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Wagner:

I don't think there is a need to continue to determine or evaluate whether or not we should have a consultant for this purpose and I think it's clear cut. I think this Council should vote on that today, up or down, and the reason being that I firmly believe we don't need consultants for transitional periods for directors, especially due to the fact that we have funded a new department to a great degree with taxpayers' money, with many new positions, to the point where the Safety Director of this City and the Chiefs that report to the Safety Director, have more than adequate help in terms of people working for them to help them in those positions. We hire competent people, we promote competent people; we do that for that reason. And the reason should be that they move into that position and do the job which we feel they're capable of doing.

For that reason, I cannot support holding this legislation at this point.

The Chair:

I'd like to make a suggestion if I can. I know many of us are interested in seeing that Bob Coll gets this. If you would, those of us that want to see him get this contract, I can't make a motion, I wish that you would defeat this motion to recommit and, Ms. Madoff, make a motion to add his name to it after that is defeated, and then we vote on that, then we vote it up or down that way.

Michelle Madoff:

May I make a comment, Mr. President? I think your point is well taken and I would hope that the Councilmembers would heed your thoughts and vote accordingly.

But in response to my colleague, and one of the things that I respect about Councilman Wagner is that we can disagree without being disagreeable and he doesn't fine me, and that is that there is no question that everything he just said, that there is so much money and so many new positions at stake, we're talking about hundreds of thousands of dollars that for us to not insure whatever we can absorb and retain from the good work that Mr. Coll did, to reinforce that financial commitment that we've made, would be foolhardy, that indeed, if we for a pittance of $26,000 and a budget of $180 some million, could get the input of all the years of experience for Mr. Coll to have an orderly transition to know some of the things that have happened so that we can approve upon them or go on from them or for whatever reason that Mr. Coll was not allowed to do what he may have wanted to do or whatever his shortcomings may or may not have been, there were many, many superb things that Mr. Coll did as Chief of Police and we ought to incorporate those things and make it easier for Mr. Moore who stated today that he has a lot to do to learn on his job.

And I might point out, I hire a new administrative assistant, she could be the most brilliant person in the world, and I think she is, but it takes time to learn and you learn by being there and having someone help you. And I think that is exactly the same situation we find ourselves in with Mr. Moore. Anything that we can get from Mr. Coll to help us would be beneficial.

Mr. Pollock:

If what the President said is legal and if we can do that — Are we getting a ruling that we can't do it?

The Chair:

We can do it. Trust me on this one.

Mr. Pollock:

Ben, you can do anything you want in this City, I know that.

I withdraw my motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

I withdraw my second.

Michelle Madoff:

My motion is to amend the bill to include that this consulting job would go only to former Superintendent of Police, Robert Coll.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Mr. Grabowski:

Discussion on the motion. If you will recall, the rules of Council state that no amendments shall be honored unless they're in writing, and I believe that's 24 hours before the meeting.

Mr. DePasquale:

Steve's right.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. We argued about the amendment and I'll tell you what it was, it was on the pay raise because we had to balance the budget. We are not talking about balancing the budget here.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, the rules do not state whether it's a budgetary item or not. The rules are specific; all legislation.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, if I can respond, I think we're at the same place as we were before which says that it must be in writing before the vote on the bill. So, if we can recess —

The Chair:

No, I'm not going to do that this time.

Steve, I honor your request.

Mr. Perry, I'm sure that this Council can vote on a cover letter requesting that Mr. Coll be the consultant.

Mr. Perry:

Is that cover letter or legislation?

The Chair:

The cover letter.

Mr. Perry:

The cover letter won't mean anything.

The Chair:

I understand that.

Michelle Madoff:

I want it to mean something.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, before this thing becomes moot, let's check and find out, is Mr. Coll on pension or has he applied for pension?

The Chair:

No, not yet.

Mr. DePasquale:

Well, I think you're all aware that you cannot receive a pension from the City of Pittsburgh and still work for the City of Pittsburgh. In effect, a consultant will be working for the City of Pittsburgh, for the Police Department.

Now we say that Mr. Coll has resigned and did not apply for his pension and now is coming back on the City payroll as a consultant.

The Chair:

He hasn't applied for his pension, that I know of.

Mr. DePasquale:

Okay, then he can come back as a consultant. But if he's going to be drawing his pension, he cannot be a consultant to the City of Pittsburgh any more than I could have come back and kept my pension as a City Councilman.

The Chair:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

If there is a problem in amending the bill because we're going to stand on protocol which has always been used against the one person on this Council who is female and is outspoken, and that's when I make a motion to amend a bill it, "Oh no, we have to have it in writing for 24 hours". I've never understood that. In all the years we've been here, not to keep us handling the same bill 90 times over and over again, someone makes a motion to amend, we second it, we're dealing with the business of the day and that's the way it should be. And if that is not the way it should be then I will challenge the Chair on the issue of having to put this particular item in motion, that we get enough people to overrule then we can go ahead and put it on. So, if there is a will to put it on today we can do that. It's a matter, if necessary, of challenging the Chair and getting the majority of the votes to say let's put it on today. That is the legal way around that issue.

Mr. Pollock:

I really don't think that the future of the civilized world as we know it today hinges on whether we vote on this today or next Monday and I'd be content to allow it to wait for another week until we can have the proper legislation before us, as Mr. Grabowski pointed out, as far as the rules go.

But I do want to clear something up because I think that Mr. DePasquale did represent something inaccurately. I think that Mr. Coll, by becoming a consultant, does not go on the City payroll and that he would be permitted to receive his pension and still be a consultant to the City. I think the preclusion about receiving a pension and being on the City payroll is different than somebody receiving a pension and being a contractor to or for the City.

The Chair:

To simplify this, and please, let's do this because we keep saying the person's name over and over again, make a motion again to recommit --

Michelle Madoff:

I have a motion on the floor and I have a second.

The Chair:

No. I had to rule that out of order and just so we go by Council rules we all agreed that we're going to try to stick by the rules of Council as written and I agree with you but, like you said, one week isn't going to hurt anything and we can amend it at Wednesday's meeting. Let's recommit it until Wednesday afternoon's meeting.

Okay, it's been moved and seconded.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, what is the motion on the floor?

The Chair:

To recommit.

Mr. Wagner:

I haven't heard that motion.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock did and Mr. O'Malley seconded it.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, as Chairman of Public Safety, I strongly suggest that we vote on this piece of legislation. This piece of legislation is a consultant contract. I don't believe with or without an amendment we should be determining whether or not this piece of legislation is necessary. It should be willing to stand purely on its own; if we need a consultant, we move forward to obtain a consultant. For that reason, I would like to see this Council move forward on it today.

As you all are aware, we have a $90,000 consultant contract in existence right now within the Police Bureau. Do we want another consultant contract within the Police Bureau? We funded that Bureau to the tune of over a million dollars in terms of additional staffing with the creation of a new Public Safety Department. Now, how far are we going to go?

I also attended the news conference this morning with the promotion of Mr. Bill Moore to Police Chief. Mr. Moore clearly indicated at the news conference that he will rely on his staff in the transitional period. True, he did indicate that he spoke with Mr. Coll also but he indicated that he would rely on his staff, his immediate inspectors, commanders, assistant chiefs, etc.

I would like to see us, Mr. President, vote on this piece of legislation today. If someone wants to make an amendment, there's no reason in the world why that amendment cannot be put in writing in a matter of two or three minutes and vote the legislation up or down.

The Chair:

Well, I'd like to vote on it also, Mr. Wagner. We're not going to put it in writing five minutes before we're going to vote on that subject. We're going to go by Council rules which says 24 hours and that's what we're going to do.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think what has happened here today has very clearly focused the need to really go back to why Council rules were the way they were for many, many years in certain procedures where they function very well.

If a body is going to handle something over and over and over again, we're ineffective, we're inefficient. I don't want to go into detail, but just to quickly summarize, if you've got an additional million dollars invested in the Police Department, all the more reason why we should have the best person give us the consulting in an orderly transition period.

We have different rules for different people on this Council. I think the rules should be what is expedient in being good government. If we have a bill where you need a small amendment, we're going back to an original bill where something was taken out and put back in, it shouldn't be because of the person making the motion, it should be because it's the orderly way to do business. I don't think it's efficient and orderly and I agree with my colleague, Mr. Wagner, to go back and put this bill of again and again and again because we're not running a tight ship or an efficient ship doing that. We shouldn't have to deal with this bill again; there are other important things we have to deal with. I, for one, would support, if necessary, doing it in the orderly fashion of challenging, because you're in the bind of having to say alright, if it's 24 hours, it's 24 hours, and I can challenge, that's legal, the Chair, and we vote to override in this instance and we go with the bill today and we resolve it. Or we sit in our own meetings and change that rule that we can amend bills under certain conditions.

The Chair:

But the thing is, we all knew who we wanted there, it was discussed, we should have changed it at the table.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't change it.

The Chair:

No one did, that's my problem. We all assumed and I would still go on that assumption, I didn't read the article.

There's a motion on the floor and it has been seconded. On recommittal, I would suggest, like Mr. Wagner, that we don't recommit it, only he wants it voted down after that. I want it voted up because I know, I'm pretty sure and I think we all know who is going to get that contract.

Roll call vote on the recommittal for one week.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Grabowski	Mr. O'Malley
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Pollock

AYES 4 NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Wagner
Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

Now, on the bill as written, roll call vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you want to explain that, please, to everybody?

The Chair:

If you're in favor, you're voting on the bill, if you're in favor of this consultant bill you vote yes.

Mr. Pollock:

I have a comment on the bill itself.

The Chair:

I'm sorry, Mr. Pollock. I thought that you did that in the beginning, you had your remarks brought forward and then —

Mr. Pollock:

Well all my remarks were preparatory to my — I want to make sure, this is very important and I hope I can have my colleagues' attention, that if we vote this legislation up without any amendments, we're losing the right to designate who receives it, it's going to be out of our hands who can be this consultant, and a $26,000 contract is floating around for someone else to fill with whoever he or she may choose to fill it. Think about that when you vote.

The Chair:

I ask my colleagues to vote aye for this bill because I think we all know who is going to get that contract. Call the roll.

Mr. DePasquale:

Aren't we under discussion?

The Chair:

We're finished. We're ready to vote now.

Mr. DePasquale:

We haven't had discussion yet.

The Chair:

Yes we did. Do you want to add something else?

Mr. DePasquale:

I want to discuss it, yes. I want to know why some of my colleagues continue to say that the only way we'll pass this bill is if Coll gets the money. What are we giving him, some kind of bonus or reward or what? Why does it have to be Coll or else the bill doesn't sail? I'm a little curious. What's it all about? Can anybody tell me? Why do we have to give Coll $26,000 and nobody else gets it?

Michelle Madoff:

I think I speak for those of us, like yourself, Mr. Woods, who feel that there would be advantages, and I'm repeating myself, obviously; being female, sometimes members of Council who are not of the same sex don't listen. My understanding is that Mr. Coll has been a very good director who is gone but he has valuable information that would be very helpful to Mr. Moore in an orderly transition. This happens in all businesses, it happens in government. Frequently two people are paid for the same job during the transition period, and we have, as my colleagues pointed out, millions of dollars invested in this new department, we have a $90,000 study. To do anything to make this a better department, to get whatever knowledge we can get from Mr. Coll for a mere $26,000 in a $180 million budget would be a good investment.

I for one would like to put the name of Mr. Coll back in. It was taken out against my wishes when we discussed it earlier. I lost that battle. Now we're all willing, those of us who want the bill to go through, to put it in but because it wasn't done in 24 hours in writing, we're talking about recommittal and recommittal has failed, which means, indeed, if we vote for it that bill can be filled by anyone but I'm being told privately that indeed this won't go to anyone but Mr. Coll.

So, those of us who want to support the transition and the knowledge that has been acquired over all these years, from Mr. Coll to Mr. Moore, are in the awkward position of having to devote a pig in a poke, as Mr. Pollock has said, to vote for anybody with this contract floating around without being specific. We can do what Mr. Wagner said and we can attach a bill that it is our wish and it is our understanding that it would be Mr.

Coll but that still means there's a $26,000 contract floating around that can go to anyone and I don't know how to vote on that. I have a real problem with it and I suggest we recommit it then for one week.

Mr. Pollock:

The vote failed on the recommitment.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Woods, may I have one final comment? Mr. Woods and members of Council, as I indicated at last Wednesday's meeting, I have researched this particular piece of legislation, not only within the Police Bureau but also with the individual former chief that has been suggested as being the recipient of the contract. It is to my knowledge that this individual does not want this contract, has never sought this contract.

This piece of legislation was introduced at the Mayor's Conference Meeting. It was unnecessary, due to a duplication of consultant contracts that exist that I have indicated earlier.

The bottom line here is, we're dealing with $26,000 of taxpayer money. Should we spend $26,000 of taxpayers' money if there's no need to spend it? That's the issue. That and that alone. And, as I've indicated earlier, for various reasons, we do not need to spend $26,000 in taxpayer money.

Many of you have talked about consultant contracts in the past, the fact that we need some and we don't need some. And I would simply ask all of you to look at it in that vein. Do we need this consultant contract? And if we do, vote for it; if we don't, vote against it. I strongly recommend we vote against it.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of order. Clarification. If we vote for this bill, there's no guarantee that it will go to Mr. Coll, is that correct?

The Chair:

That's exactly right.

Michelle Madoff:

And if we don't vote for it we're keeping him from getting it because I believe that we should use —

The Chair:

What is your point?

Michelle Madoff:

We're in a catch-22, that's my point. How do you vote?

The Chair:

That's not a point of order. Call the role.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like my remarks brought up from last Wednesday.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 602 - WEDNESDAY, 4/16/86)

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chairman, I have been very close to the Public Safety issue since I have been a Councilman for some 11 years, and the Public Safety Department has been created, and I really want to see that thing move forward as quickly as possible right now.

The fact that we are talking about the Office of Professional Responsibility, that is a key administrative position and one that should be filled by a police officer. All of us in the City always criticize the Director in some cases when we don't hire from within or somebody from the City of Pittsburgh. We're talking about pre-employment in an area that has been dear to all of our hearts, on the quality of the police officers the City of Pittsburgh is going to hire. We need to get into the 20th Century, and we need to get a model and start acting on that model so we can get the finest police officers this City population can get us.

On the other side, we are talking about evaluation and investigation, another extremely sensitive area to the Director here and who is going to handle that particular internal procedure. If anything, John Norton came in here and was hit with a brand new organization that probably would take several years in any department to build up to that speed. I'm asking that it be built up as quickly as possible.

I'm supporting this bill, 602. In fact, we are getting the best expertise tha we can get; a person who on his own accord, apparently, has retired from the City of Pittsburgh after serving this City for many, many years. And now, exactly the type of work that someone in his capacity wants to do. He wants to be a consultant for and he wants to be able to do certain things. And this is a very sensitive area, and I think if it is Bob Coll who in fact gets this particular contract, I think he's gong to be able to move into that and bring this office up to speed in the most expeditious way possible. For that reason, and that reason only, I want to vote for this particular thing and please don't delay it because it's going to delay the professionalism of the City of Pittsburgh.

(END OF REMARKS)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

I have an appointment of a member to a committee, Mr. Pollock to the Neighborhood Fund Board.

Mr. Pollock:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

While we're on that subject, when you're appointed to a board, aren't you sworn in to the board at some point?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

I was appointed to the Leasing Authority and I understand you're supposed to be sworn in to that committee. My term runs out at the end of December of this year and since it's been eight years and this is my first appointment I would urge the President of this Council to find out whether that was really an appointment or whether that was just some kind of magic trick.

I also would like to ask another question. In the event that Mr. Coll, his services obviously are going to be needed as soon as Mr. Moore takes over which is imminently, like today, say within a month, if that contract is not in the works to Mr. Coll, can we then line item that or somehow -- What can we do to transfer that money to another account? Could it be transfered to another account for something else?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

It has to sit there all year unused, become surplus. Who is to say that that money can't be requisitioned for some other needy service? We do it all the time, we transfer money from one account to another.

The Chair:

It's a bill now that's there for two years or to the end of this reorganization period.

Michelle Madoff:

But don't we ever take money out of one account to another, when it isn't being used?

The Chair:

Many times.

Michelle Madoff:

Well then it's very conceivable that if that contract is not filled by Superintendent Coll some other need that might be in the City, that we could say yes, take it from that money and indeed that would take care of the problem. You just told me yes, you can do it and now you're saying no, you can't do it.

The Chair:

We have no choice; that's Public Safety money. That's where that's coming from.

Michelle Madoff:

But I'm sure there are other needs in the Public Safety Department that could use the money.

The Chair:

Right and they're budgeted that money. If they find another use for it and don't want to use it, I'm sure they could use it.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. So the Public Safety Director, if that job is not filled by Superintendent Coll, has the right to come back to this Council and say, we have a need for racks on the bridges to save people or a canoe, and he can say let's take the money of that account, because it wasn't Coll, it wasn't used, we want to transfer that money out. I just wanted to get that clear.

Mr. Wagner:

Just to follow up on my colleague, I think she's bringing up an excellent point. If the dollars are not used by the City, I believe we could amend the legislation and apply it to another type of consultant in the area of the Police Bureau and Public Safety. One of the areas we could possibly do that is the Narcotics Task Force, to address the number one crime problem in this City. So, I think it's important that we stay on top of that and see if the dollars are utilized.

Mr. Pollock:

On another subject, and it's come up earlier today and several times in the past. I would ask the President to appoint, if he and the other members of this body are so willing, a sub-committee to examine our Council rules to see if there might be amendments to them. It's been over eight years since they've been adopted. I would think that Mr. Grabowski should definitely be on that committee, I would love to serve on that committee, and I think it's time that we do look at them to see which ones are outdated, which ones can be changed and so forth.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I'll look into it.

Michelle Madoff:

You'll look into what? Whether you're going to appoint a committee?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Could we do that as an official motion and have Council move on it?

The Chair:

The Chair has the prerogative to appoint committees.

Mr. Pollock:

I would like to be on that committee if you do.

Michelle Madoff:

And I would just like to make recommendations.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, March 10, 1986.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I think all members of Council have an amendment that I drafted to Bill 316 which is the zoning change before us in Homewood. The amendment is designed to safeguard the rights of one business in that area and I would ask that all Council consider this affirmatively.

The Chair:

Are you putting that in the form of a motion?

Mr. Grabowski:

Yes Mr. President.

The Chair:

Is there a second?

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Discussion on the amendment.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, last week and over the weekend I received a lot of calls from people in that Homewood area where the rezoning is planned and I haven't received one where they want that amendment or any change in the original plan. It strikes me that we're trying to favor just one party down there and to do that we're going to delete two blocks from this whole program and it just doesn't make any sense.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, we held a public hearing before Council on this matter. The overwhelming testimony was in favor of the zone change as it is before Council without the amendment. The Planning Commission approved it, all of the neighborhood groups in the area support it without the amendment, we have citizen input, we have professional input from the City Planning Department, we have objective, impartial arbitrators, the Planning Commission deciding in favor of it. I don't see any reason to change this legislation in any way. To go along with Mr. Grabowski's amendment would leave two entire blocks industrial, yet they themselves have residences in them.

So, what Mr. Grabowski is attempting to do is to protect a business from being a non-conforming use by being in a residential area and instead he's having residences be in a non-conforming use in an industrial area. So either way he goes, he's going to have non-conforming uses, non-conforming structures. Why go against the legislation? I mean, everybody wants it. It doesn't make any sense to go against it.

Mr. Grabowski:

In response to Councilman DePasquale and Councilman Pollock's comments, in fact, the intent of this amendment is to protect that one business. Right now that whole area is zoned industrial. The man that started operating that business went in there with the understanding that he could conduct business in an industrial zone. We're talking about a 20 block area, approximately, that's industrial and we're planning on changing it to townhouses. I see no real problem in excluding the two blocks necessary to protect this man who went in there with the idea that he could conduct business in an industrial zone and let him continue to do business in that same fashion.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a letter in front of me signed by Mr. Pellegrini that says it's illegal. "Since the rezoning is not in accord with the Comprehensive Master Plan and constitutes such a small parcel that it, indeed, would constitute spot zoning, it is, accordingly, illegal." So, we can't do it anyway.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I think we have great concern here that has to ramify not just in this particular project but in any development throughout the whole

City of Pittsburgh and the fact we're saying here that this was, as Steve indicated, an industrial zoning area for many, many years. And I appreciate what the people want in that particular area now and that's townhouses. But you have to protect the people who are in there right today.

Now, the Legal Department made an indication to us and said it's spot zoning. I don't consider two blocks spot zoning. I appreciate that people don't want to have a townhouse and have something industrial come up in their midst right there. This past Wednesday I had asked the Legal Department to research this and see what they can come up with, if there's anything that we could put in there to protect this individual that if anything happens to his business, any catastrophe that would destroy his particular establishment, that he could rebuild that and have the ability to expand, as he so indicated, and the neighbors all agreed to it, up to 25 percent, to expand in that particular area and I think that's reasonable.

I'd ask the Council right here that if we do this in this particular zoning, that there's other areas of the City and especially out in the Strip District that are industrial complexes right now with residences in them and everything else. I think the Administration, I know the Mayor would like to see some type of new homes go in there, maybe condominiums. But the thing is, we still have an industrial base in the City, there's still people working there.

I would ask all my colleagues to pay attention to what Steve is trying to say and by protecting this businessperson, I think we have to be keenly aware of that. It's a very serious thing that if anything would happen to that person's business that he could not then continue. And this two block area out of 22 blocks, to me, is not spot zoning. Someplace within a block or a half of a block or a quarter of a block, that this City is designed by blocks and by blocks we should zone, generally speaking. I can show you the zoning map of the City of Pittsburgh and show you where the back alleyway from one end to another of a block is zoned completely different from what another one is. And for having two blocks out there or at least his property, his property plus 25 percent expansion, possible expansion, should be something that we should protect. Any business person, not just this one, any business person.

Mr. Grabowski:

In response to Michelle's comment, what is proposed in my amendment is not considered spot zoning. The Law Department referred to spot zoning in general as being illegal and, in fact, it is. But the amendment that I have proposed is not spot zoning and it is legal.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, Councilman Grabowski is correct. This is not spot zoning as his amendment is proposed. Spot zoning would be the rezoning of that parcel of property itself, meaning where this business owner is. I think it's important to note here that this individual does have rights and will continue to have rights, even without this amendment.

As was indicated in a letter to all of us, dated April 25, 1986, from our Solicitor, the first sentence in the second paragraph reads as follows: "Chapter 991 of the Zoning Code sets forth the rights of a non-conforming owner to expand and to rebuild after a catastrophic accident." If this particular individual wants to rebuild as a result of a fire, they can rebuild, even though that property is not zoned for the purpose of which they're there now. They can also expand, as was indicated to us in another letter, up to 25 percent, an agreement that Councilman Pollock has, I believe, with the business owner and the City of Pittsburgh.

The question here is whether or not, in the rezoning of two blocks of property and not rezoning two blocks of property, in addition to this one building owner, are there other developers that want to come in there and build businesses? If so, I have not heard of any. But the people of Homewoods, the people want to attract townhouses in this particular area. That's part of an overall master plan for a 20 block area along the Martin Luther King Busway. I think it's a very practical plan; I think housing is what we need in this City. Housing will improve the tax base which we all know needs strengthening.

As I indicated at last Wednesday's meeting, and I would like my comments brought forward for the record, two weeks ago I was at an annual town meeting in Homewood-Brushton of which there were approximately 150 participants. All individuals wanted to see this property rezoned, in total, rezoned. Not one individual there was against this rezoning.

Therefore, I would strongly suggest that we move forward with the rezoning, the total rezoning of the 20 acres, and continue to grant this individual the rights that they have and they will have in the future.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 316 -
WEDNESDAY, 4/23/86)

Mr. Wagner:

I think the avenue that Councilman Pollock is pursuing is the correct one to obtain a reassurance from Mr. Mistick and also reassurance from this Council that this individual will not be left alone if he is put in an undesirable situation with a fire in his building, or whatever, and if there is a need for expansion of his building that we do make every effort if it can't be done at that location to do it at another location that's suitable to his needs, that is not a burden on that individual economically.

I think the clear thing to remember here is that the neighborhood in far majority supports this zoning change. I was at a town meeting last week in Homewood, of which about 150 people attended, and I can tell you clearly, you know, the average person on the street wants this rezoned, and I think if we simply take into consideration this individual's needs and be prepared to deal with them when the occasion arises and move forward on the rezoning, I think that's the right way to go.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Pollock:

With all due respect to Mr. Grabowski, I know what his intent is and I respect that, but I must ask him rhetorically before he votes if he is not avoiding one evil by gaining another. All the residences that will now be non-conforming uses and non-conforming structures, will be subject to the same evil that he's trying to avoid. If one of these home-owners have their houses burned down or if one of these home-owners desire to expand their property, they'll have the same problem that he's trying to avoid with the business.

I have a commitment from the Zoning Board Administrator, Mr. Joe Mistick, that he would indeed entertain a motion, an application from the Triangle Poster gentleman to expand beyond 25 percent. We have a commitment in writing from the neighbors and the neighborhood groups that they would support an expansion beyond 25 percent. Mr. Mistick told me that when the neighbors and the neighborhood groups support it, that it generally goes through without any problems.

Similarly, the issue as to the destruction beyond 50 percent, there are serious questions about the constitutionality and legality of that, and indeed there are currently cases challenging that, and that is, if a person has a structure in a non-conforming use and it burns down, does that person have to go before anybody to get permission to rebuild. I, myself, think that he or she would not have to do that and should not be required to do that. So, again, you have the problem with that, which I don't think is a real problem at all.

You have the Planning Commission supporting this, the Planning Department supporting this, the neighborhood groups, the neighbors, the public testimony. You know, I have to wonder, what do all these people have to do to get this Council to vote? Do they have to stand on their head on Grant Street or picket with signs? What do we want? This is absolutely ridiculous.

Michelle Madoff:

I concur with Mr. Wagner and with Mr. Pollock, and I think one avenue has been overlooked. We have an Urban Redevelopment Department, there's a Relocation Department, there's funds available. If a company is expanding 25 percent or more, obviously they're bringing in new employees; there's money available to help them. That person might even want to relocate because it might be an incentive for them to do so. There's also abatements on new buildings, improvements that are made. We should not penalize people that are trying to upgrade their community and go to townhouses. I agree. Let's call the vote.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Mr. Grabowski	(Pres't)

AYES 3	NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Pollock

Mr. Givens:

I'd like the letters that have been sent to the various Councilpeople to be made a part of the record.

(LETTERS REQUESTED BY MR. GIVENS)

April 25, 1986

Honorable President and Members
City Council
City of Pittsburgh

Dear Mr. President and Members:

You have requested an opinion as to whether exempting the Triangle Poster Company property from the proposed rezoning would constitute spot zoning.

In Pollock v. Zoning Board of Adjustment, et al., 20 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 641 (1975), the court stated:

"Generally speaking, spot zoning is the arbitrary and unreasonable classification and rezoning of a small parcel of land. This small parcel of land is usually set apart or carved out of a surrounding or a large neighboring tract, with no reasonable justification for the differential zoning. Cleaver v. Board of Adjustment, 414 Pa. 367, 379, 200 A.2d 408, 415 (1964). A municipality, however, may rezone a small piece of property for a use different from that of surrounding uses if such use is in accord with the comprehensive plan and reasonable use in the area. Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church v. City Council of Harrisburg, 2 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 222, 278 A.2d 372 (1971)."

Since the property rezoning is not in accord with the Comprehensive Master Plan and constitutes such a small parcel that it, indeed, would constitute spot zoning, it is, accordingly, illegal.

Very truly yours,

D.R. Pellegrini
City Solicitor

Honorable President and Members
City Council
City of Pittsburgh

Dear Mr. President and Members:

You have requested an opinion as to whether there is a mechanism for Council to safeguard the future interests of Triangle Poster Company which is going to be rezoned to R-2T, Townhouse Residence District.

Chapter 991 of the Zoning Code sets forth the rights of a non-conforming owner to expand and to rebuild after a catastrophe. Other than giving more rights in general to non-conforming uses, which are not favored by the law, there is no practical way for Council to single out Triangle Poster Company for any special privilege to expand or rebuild that is not available to all non-conforming owners.

Very truly yours,

D.R. Pellegrini
City Solicitor

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair:

At this time I must leave, and Mr. Givens, President Pro tem, will take over.

Mrs. Masloff:

The following gentlemen have given much of themselves in time and effort to further Little League Baseball. I would ask them to come forward for this resolution. Attorney Bill Conway, George Petnuch, Richard Reagan, John McCrone, and Joe Natoli, all City of Pittsburgh leaders in a Little League Baseball movement.

Mrs. Masloff presents

No. 749 WHEREAS, a crisis exists in Little League Baseball and other amateur sports programs in the Pittsburgh area and throughout Pennsylvania in which increasing numbers of adult volunteers are being subject to frivolous liability and litigation; and,

WHEREAS, if we do not provide protection from such nuisance suits, we risk losing volunteers, ruining the various athletic programs, and denying our children the benefits of organized, competitive sports; and,

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania House of Representatives recently passed House Bill 1625 which seeks to lessen these frivolous law suits by establishing an accepted standard of negligence common to all non profit associations sponsoring sports programs; and,

WHEREAS, the Senate of Pennsylvania will soon consider this bill on its legislative agenda and the vote could well decide the future of amateur sports programs for the young people of our Commonwealth;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges the Senate of Pennsylvania to pass Bill 1625 to protect amateur sports programs throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Masloff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Conway:

Thank you, Sophie. I'm Bill Conway, the facilitator of this coalition and I'm representing several Northside athletic associations and also one in Greenfield.

What this legislation will do is provide protection for some of our neighborhood volunteers who spend their time and effort in our Little League, soccer, football and softball programs. We know how important those amateur sports programs are for the youth of our City neighborhoods. I'm pleased that Council has decided to take the initiative to support protection for our neighborhood volunteers who are so vital to those sports programs.

I again would like to highlight some of the people who are here today. I really appreciate them coming. Joe Natoli from the Morningside Baseball Association; Richard Reagan from the 31st Ward, Lincoln Place Youth Athletic Association; George Petnuch from the 10th Ward Baseball Association up in Upper Lawrenceville; and also Johnny McCrone from the 9th Ward Little League Baseball in Lawrenceville. I appreciate them coming today and would like to afford them the opportunity to say something to Council.

Mr. Natoli:

I guess I'm the oldest one here. In the Morningside area, I know some of the guys in this room know this, I've been involved with athletics for the last 45 years, Little League for the last 34 years. We're probably one of the oldest Little Leagues in the City, next to Greenfield. Of course, John McCrone from Lawrenceville, Petnuch from the Lower 10th Ward, we've been brothers in Little League, baseball, amateur sports for years. Without the volunteers, and we don't have the volunteers that we used to have, and the volunteers you get now, with all these lawsuits coming up, it sort of scares people away.

There's no way that anybody can finance this kind of a program. These programs save an awful lot in the City of Pittsburgh, or whatever borough they're from. The City of Pittsburgh, Department of Parks and Recreation, could in no way handle the Little League programs in our City, or they couldn't handle it as well as these volunteers are doing right now.

It's very important and we are pretty much in a shocked attitude about this thing that we have to go to Legislators in Harrisburg and now it's supposed to go to the Senate now. I'm sure we will win on this thing but can you imagine if we don't win what would happen? The volunteers would walk out and from then on you'd have to pay people, you'd have to insure them in other respects outside of liability insurance. The programs would be in deep jeopardy.

We appreciate the fact that this program has been started and I would say these fellows here are probably the oldtimers of the Little League Baseball Program and they know and it's very important to us and an office such as Council here would be a big step for us to get your support in Harrisburg. It's very, very important that this happens. I know because, like I said before, after doing it for many years you meet many people, you lose many people with ages and the kids graduating, but you're not going to get that influx anymore if we have this kind of a liability looking at our people.

I thank you very much for hearing us out today. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. How do you pay the insurance now?

Mr. Natoli:

Right now, for instance, in our league we pay liability insurance, our own monies, and we have insurance on our players, managers, concession workers. This is for injury to the person. That's the only kind of insurance. And then liability insurance is if a kid breaks a window down the street or something, the ball goes over the fence.

Michelle Madoff:

But you have that money? The community chips in to pay that insurance?

Mr. Natoli:

When the kids raise their money in Little League initially that money goes into insurance first and that's how we're protected.

Michelle Madoff:

There's some insurance but the cost is going out of sight and what you're looking for is some protection. I thought we ought to understand what we're voting on.

Mr. Natoli:

You can read about us all over the country especially in departments — I know over in the county the concessioners cannot keep up with the insurance. Something has to be done. But these are kids and without volunteers, forget it. You know yourself, the best support you can get are from volunteers.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Pollock:

Would Mr. Henninger please step forward? This is a real joy to read.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 750 WHEREAS, Bayer AG, the West German parent company of Mobay Chemical Corporation has announced that its seven United States units will operate under a holding company, Bayer USA, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh is delighted that Bayer AG has chosen Pittsburgh as its headquarters for Bayer USA; and

WHEREAS, Bayer USA, with its 25,000 employees and $4 billion in sales, ranks among the 200 largest corporations in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh has the third most corporate headquarters for Fortune 500 firms of all the cities in the nation, and Bayer USA will be joining 15 other such corporations based in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, Bayer USA's decision was a result of the knowledge of Pittsburgh its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Konrad M. Weis, gained through his years here as Chief Executive Officer of Mobay Chemical, and because of the quality of life and relatively low cost of living in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, Bayer USA's decision reaffirms Pittsburgh's position as an important headquarters city and indicates that Pittsburgh is a liveable city for businesses as well as people; and

WHEREAS, it is earnestly hoped that our City will also attract some Bayer USA subsidiaries to locate here; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor, the City Council, and the residents of Pittsburgh warmly welcome Bayer USA to our City and offer any assistance the company may need in making its transition an easy and enjoyable one.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the month of May shall be known as "Bayer USA Month" in the City of Pittsburgh so that the company will know how very happy and proud the people of Pittsburgh are to have Bayer USA join its family.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Michelle was going to introduce similar legislation on this so when I'm finished she might like to say a few words as well and maybe come up here if she likes.

I just want to say that all of us in Pittsburgh and all of us in Western Pennsylvania have live through many defeats lately and a lot of things that have made us very sad, the Union Switch and Signal battle, the Dorothy Six and a lot of mills closing, so that when it comes time to have a victory I think that that should get as much publicity as some of the failures have. And this truly is a great victory. A company of this magnitude, a corporation with this number of employees and this amount of billions of dollars of sales locating here because of Pittsburgh, not just because it's convenient but because of what Pittsburgh is, is truly a great success story.

Mobay Chemical, located out by the Airport, it's a very low-profile company but it should be known that Mobay was the largest headquartered company in the United States that is headquartered outside the nation. So, the Mobay in Pittsburgh was the largest foreign held corporation located in the United States. And now we're going to have the parent company, Bayer USA, here and it says a great deal about our area.

So, we're going to try and get this as much publicized as possible so that people know about Pittsburgh more and so we can get more of these companies to locate here and, more than that, we're going to do all we can to help Bayer in its transition here and then once its here to make its existence here as enjoyable and as profitable and as rewarding as possible.

I think the only other thing I want to say before turning it over to Michelle and anybody else is that the spelling for the parent company is B-a-y-e-r and I know that the European German pronunciation is "Buyer", but I think you people better get used to being called "Bayer" because, as the residents of North Versailles will tell you, you can forget about having European pronunciations around here.

With that, I'll turn it over to Michelle, if she wants to say anything, or join me up here.

Michelle Madoff:

I had just asked the City Clerk to prepare the same resolution and I'm just delighted that two minds think alike and he did a superb job. I welcome you; we're happy you're staying. Expand quickly, we need the jobs.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. Henninger is the Vice President of Financial Services for the Mobay Corporation.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to ask Mr. Henninger, in evaluating Pittsburgh, what were our strengths and what were our weaknesses and overall what was the bottom line as to why you chose Pittsburgh?

Mr. Henninger:

Well, Mobay which is one of the seven corporations of Bayer USA has been headquartered here in the Pittsburgh community for over 30 years. I personally have been connected with the company for 23 of those 30 years. So, over that period of time, Pittsburgh did not have to sell itself. We have learned to find out that Pittsburgh is, in fact, the number one City.

Mr. Wagner:

And will you be located in the same complex with Mobay or another complex?

Mr. Henninger:

No, Bayer USA will be headquartered here in the City of Pittsburgh, in one of the buildings in the City, but Mobay will still be headquartered on Parkway West.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. Welcome.

Mr. Henninger:

Thank you.

On behalf of Bayer USA and its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Conrad Weis, I'd like to thank the members of City Council for this proclamation in naming the month of May as Bayer USA Month.

As I mentioned before, one of the seven companies, Mobay, has been headquartered in the Pittsburgh community for over 30 years so trying to convince the more than 1000 employees of Mobay that the City of Pittsburgh is in fact the number one City was relatively easy. Therefore, Bayer USA has been very proud in naming Pittsburgh its number one City by locating our headquarters here.

We thank the members of City Council once again and I give you my personal comments that we will try to be a very good corporate citizen in the future.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'd just like to make one comment if I might on behalf of the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, which this resolution does include, including myself. When I looked in the business section of our local newspaper and saw that your company was in fact going to locate here, I was very, very happy because we have seen within the City of Pittsburgh, as has been indicated, some companies, corporate companies, who have left here.

I only ask one thing of you and that is to bring as many of your satellite companies where we can get some workers here and not just have the corporate headquarters but bring some of your satellite companies in here and put some of our people to work because they would dearly appreciate. Thank you very much.

Mr. Pollock:

Another one I have to read is also a great victory for the City. In fact, it's only the second time its ever happened, and that is regarding the awarding of a Pulitzer Prize.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 751 WHEREAS, the Pulitzer Prize has been awarded for outstanding work in journalism, literature, music, history, fiction, and poetry since 1917; and

WHEREAS, the Pulitzer Prize is the highest honor awarded to journalists for exceptional reporting; and

WHEREAS, Mary Pat Flaherty and Andrew Schneider of The Pittsburgh Press received the specialized reporting award for their series of articles on the scientific and ethical questions raised by the nation's organ transplantation program; and

WHEREAS, their ten month investigation chronicled in their series of articles entitled "The Challenge of a Miracle: Selling the Gift" resulted in changes being made in the field of organ transplantation; and

WHEREAS, this award marks only the second time a Pittsburgh newspaper has captured the Pulitzer Prize, thereby bringing national attention to the City of Pittsburgh and to the exceptional quality of reporting of our City's journalists.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes and congratulates Mary Pat Flaherty, Andrew Schneider, and The Pittsburgh Press for their exceptional work in the field of journalism and for bringing to light the problems in our nation's transplantation program.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

We'll probably get another one next year for John Schmitz' series of articles on Council's expense reports.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a floor motion. Can I read it? It's a floor motion making available funds for the hiring of a photographer to take photographs of City problems at any time, day or night, so that these problems can be best brought to the attention of department heads and other Councilmembers.

The Chair, Pro tem:

We have a motion; do we have a second?

Michelle Madoff:

We don't have anybody here. How are we having a floor motion without anybody here? I think I'm going to keep it a week until somebody is here.

The Chair, Pro tem:

We'll go with your motion, Michelle. Does anybody second the motion?

Mr. Pollock:

I'll second the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Now discussion. We have an item that you brought up, Mr. Givens, and I think you were right on target. The $76,000 that's being paid, we voted on it today, on a claim and you talked about the streets being in repair. I was out one day at the Larimer Avenue Bridge and I complained that there was a problem there and we were told that the youngsters were throwing boulders over the bridge and they put up a sort of mesh fence and that didn't take care of it, they said the kids were crawling over it. But what it turned out to be was water seeping through the bridge, breaking off, and large boulders falling and there was no net underneath the bridge. We've since amended the law to take care — all bridges must have nets.

But if you recall, those boulders actually fell through two businesses, costing the City a great deal of money. We're self insured. One was a small industrial business and the other was a residence.

We then had a subsequent episode where the boulders fell through a car on election day, went through the glass, blinded the driver, and put all the lights out in that area on election day and nobody could vote in the area. I had the chauffeur at that time, and I don't recall who it was, put some of the boulders in the trunk and I brought them to Council on a little wagon. I did not call television because I was not doing it as a publicity stunt. I was severely chastised by the media who thought what a great visual.

I think it would be very beneficial for this Council, when there are issues happening, to actually see photographs. For example, McArdle Roadway took seven years, it was down half the time, it was close some of the time completely, and we brought it in $100,000 under budget two months ahead of time seven years later. You drive up McArdle Roadway, we've had one very serious accident, one of the employees of the Shiloh Restaurant went down one evening when it was cold out and skidded on some ice and was unconscious. It appears that the problem was not the City's but PennDOT putting water over the hill because of some problem. We have some problem with the design, we have water there today, moisture on the ground. If it was cold out we'd have a problem. The sidewalks were never repaired. There's a problem with the retaining wall for the incline, and no one going up that Roadway would ever believe that the millions of dollars that were spent on it were spent and it was never done.

Either we adjourn meetings and we go out and take trips around the City on a bus and we show some of these things happening or let's get some photographs. Our office wanted to show some photographs of the garbage in the living room of the City of Pittsburgh, which is the Downtown area, the first thing people see. At 5:30 or 6:00 it's neatly piled up Downtown. By 8, 10, 11 o'clock it's strewn by either the rats getting into it from the sewers or the street people going through the garbage. The City looks like a garbage dump. I needed some pictures of that. We got pictures early of the garbage neatly piled showing that the garbage was indeed outside in the Downtown area but not what happens to it.

There's a boulder sitting up on McArdle right now that's come off the side of the wall that could hurt a car and do some serious damage. There are trucks going by that don't have tarpaulins, trucks where the license plates are completely covered. We don't have any photographs.

If members of Council had access, as we should, to a photographer, I'm not a photographer, to take some photos at not unreasonable rates and not unreasonable times and we make arrangements with the photographer they're generally available.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Just two things very quickly. One, we do have cameras at our disposal —

Michelle Madoff:

No we don't.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Yes we do.

Michelle Madoff:

I checked this.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I talked with our Finance Department. They do have —

Michelle Madoff:

We tried to get them. We had to go out and pay for our own.

The Chair, Pro tem:

No, they have film and I have used them myself —

Michelle Madoff:

To go out and take pictures?

The Chair, Pro tem:

Yes we have them.

Michelle Madoff:

To go out and take pictures for you?

The Chair, Pro tem:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you mean I can have them come in in the evening and have them take pictures in the camera?

The Chair, Pro tem:

Well, I mean anyone can operate the cameras and I think within the Public Safety Department of the City of Pittsburgh, you'll find in there that we do have an audio visual which includes camera, picture taking, etc., and that's a capability that the Mayor can use.

Mr. Pollock:

Just so we know, Mr. Givens, are you saying that if tonight at 11:00 I wanted to have a photograph taken of something there's a number I can call to have a photographer from the City go out and take a picture of something?

The Chair, Pro tem:

I don't know what the status of the Public Safety Department is in that particular department but it's a very interesting area I think we should explore into.

Mr. Pollock:

I support what Michelle is talking about. I think that photographs can be a great benefit to this Council whether it be at a public hearing or just a Committee Meeting or even for a final vote.

My question for Michelle would be, who would be in charge of determining? Can any one of the nine of us request a photograph be taken and request that the photographer go out? Or would it require a vote of Council to determine whether or not --

The Chair, Pro tem:

No, I think, as I indicated, we have our own equipment back there. It's not the best in the world. If you want some very specialized equipment, I think the City is going to have, if they don't already have, some very qualified people with the state of the art equipment on board to give whatever type of photography that you might need. I don't know if that's in position right now. I know this Council has budgeted for it over some 18 months ago and it should be on hand or very shortly should be on hand.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, Pro tem, and members of Council, I think the only way it's possible to accomplish this is for Council either to do it with a staff person or with a consultant. We do not have jurisdiction, obviously, over the Administrative branch of government and could not command to have an individual from the Administration to go out and take photos of whatever.

I would just possibly suggest to Councilwoman Madoff that maybe the way to go about this would be for the City Clerk to assign a particular individual that responsibility to have a quality 35mm camera and maybe send that individual to a one or two day school on the operation of that camera and have that individual available to all nine Councilmembers.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I think we can do that, possibly. But here again, we have I think an excellent capability --

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President. We checked with the Public Safety Department and they turned us down.

The Chair, Pro tem:

When was this?

Michelle Madoff:

We took pictures of the litter in the Downtown area on two occasions. We went to the Public Safety Director and we were turned down.

And there's another dimension that we've all forgotten. What happens when one member of Council inadvertently walks into another department and sees checks not deposited for six months, not getting interest, and they want a photograph of it? Do you think we're going to go to the Administration to get a photograph of checks sitting around, they're going to let us in? I was told if I went in I was to be physically evicted, to lift me up and take me out. Fortunately, that problem has been corrected. But I would suggest that we ought not to mix our business with the Administration's business.

If I want some photographs taken because somebody calls me, as they did today, to tell me about a problem that exists in the City and I don't believe it, I want to see that photograph. I would like to have somebody go and take a picture of that situation and bring it back to the people who are going to vote on it, the colleagues.

I think for example, we've maligned, and I've probably been part of the people, Mr. Grabowski on his newsletter when indeed one of the things he warned us against was subsidence. I think if he'd had some photographs that were taken and given to us early on before his newsletter that we may have been more supportive.

I think that photography would be very helpful and it should not be the Administration knowing exactly what we're doing. I need some pictures taken right now and I don't want anybody to know what I'm doing.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, if I might make a suggestion, I think we're talking now about an in-house solution. May I recommend that we hold this until our Monday monthly meeting —

Michelle Madoff:

I need them right away. I need those pictures tomorrow.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Well, I think the motion you have before us is to hire someone to do this. Suggestions have been made by Mr. Wagner that we can maybe assign somebody in-house to do it. I don't know if we need a vote on this particular motion —

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like a vote on it.

Mr. Pollock:

Before you vote on it let me just ask one question. Could not Michelle go out tomorrow and retain a photographer and then after having the photographs submit the bill to Council to be paid as an expense?

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'll ask the Chief Clerk to answer that.

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

We have a $75 bill for you.

Mr. Pollock:

It's a City expense.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a $75 bill for you. We'll line up our own photographer, we'll give you the bill, you reimburse us. That would be just ducky.

Mr. Perry:

It will be on Wednesday's agenda for payment, Council will vote on it.

Michelle Madoff:

The thing that I'm concerned about is that I don't want to end up with another $250 fine at the Election Board saying that I took that out of my political fund. I think that if I'm a good Councilperson I'm a politician which is political and I'm not taking that out of my private fund, it does indeed come out of my political fund.

I want to take some pictures of the garbage strewn all over the street because Mary Beth Salley came here and said, "I had a baby" and then she said, "We just formed the laws". Well, all I know is that this Council has been giving money to that committee for years and years and years and I don't want to see the Downtown looking like a garbage dump.

Mr. Grabowski:

I think what our City Clerk indicated is correct, that we can, any one of us, go out and hire a photographer. But I would submit that that could become pretty costly and perhaps an alternative would be to maybe buy two or three cameras for the office. As Michelle indicated, some of these things that some of us may be working on may be confidential in nature and rather than have one individual from the City Clerk's Office assigned to that function let Michelle go out and take the picture or myself or anyone that would like to.

The Chair, Pro tem:

We have those cameras presently back in our Finance Department. They're fairly decent cameras. I've used them for a number of years. The film is back there.

I think Michelle's problem goes a little bit deeper. She's asking for someone 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, if she receives a call about a condition, that she might not have to go personally there but call somebody up and ask them to go out and take some pictures of that particular area. That could get costly depending upon how aggressively the Councilpeople would use it.

Mr. Grabowski:

With respect to that, we all have administrative assistants and I know I've called on mine to go out in the evenings or put time in above and beyond what she normally does. If I wanted to take some photographs of a particular problem and I couldn't do it myself, I'm sure that my assistant would be willing to do that.

Michelle Madoff:

We're talking about it becoming costly. It won't be as costly as $76,000. I think it would be cost effective if we bring some of those problems to the attention of Council and I don't have a problem with having a person hired for all of Council keeping confidentiality. The person wouldn't have their job long if they went out and said they were doing work for one as opposed to the other. The chauffeurs keep confidentiality, I find the Clerk's Office keeps confidentiality. I don't have a problem with hiring a photographer, even part-time. We don't need a full-time photographer, pay them by the hour. We go through Mike Perry, we have a photographer available, we ask Mike to get in touch with him, say I need him at 8 o'clock at night, I need him to go at 10 in the morning, 3 in the afternoon, have a person available and, as you pointed out, some of the streets you'd like to have photographed. You don't want to send your aide out. Maybe it's not safe at night or maybe you've got something else, your aide is working on another project. Let's have somebody who can take some photographs for us. It's a lot cheaper, a lot less costly than the damage that's done.

Mrs. Masloff:

Are you suggesting that we hire somebody?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm suggesting that Mike find some photographers for us, that we go to him like we would to a chauffeur, but they're on a consultant basis so we have no benefits, nothing. We have somebody who can do photography, we go to Mike and say, "Mike, can you get me a photographer for 10 o'clock tomorrow?", or the woman calls me and I say, "This is what I want, would you please go get the pictures taken?" Then I'd bring them to Council and show you what I've got. I may go out at 11 o'clock at night. The independent photographers will work at strange hours.

That's my motion. That we have somebody assigned by Mike, hired as a consultant to Council, to be able to do photography for us as needed. We may find that we use it very seldom; we may find we get 10 or 20 hours a year. I don't think we're talking about a large sum of money.

Mrs. Masloff:

What I don't understand is that if Mike has cameras, he says he has cameras --

Mr. Perry:

I have one right now.

Mrs. Masloff:

Well you buy another camera; how much could that cost? Then, periodically, when you want to take a picture, you can send anybody from the staff out.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you know somebody on the staff you can send out to take a picture? That's fine with me.

Excuse me, Sophie, we have a problem. At 3 o'clock in the morning when there's a water break and nobody shows up and the water is pouring, I'd love to have a cameraman standing there taking a picture of the leak and three days later the leak not repaired. I think we need a photographer to help us make our case.

I would like to be specific about my motion. Sophie raise an issue so we'll put it to rest, that Mike has a couple of cameras or we have an available photographer and they usually have their own cameras, that we hire by the hour, they work for any member of Council that would like some photographs taken of cracked streets, of whatever we think is important, that would save the taxpayers money by seeing that the problems are corrected.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I think that's within the realm of all Councilpeople and we have a code account that monies can be expended. The Chief Clerk has so indicated that we can do that. For that reason, I don't think there needs to be any requirement for a vote on this particular motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to have a photographer for Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. I have something I want photographed. Three things I want photographed: a street at night, the boulder on McArdle, and I've got another goody.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, I believe there's a motion on the floor and a second. We have to vote on it.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Well, I think it was so indicated that it can be handled in-house, we have that capability, and we don't have to actually have a motion.

Mr. Wagner:

I believe according to Robert's Rules those motions must be retracted in order for us not to vote on them.

The Chair, Pro tem:

You're absolutely right, Jack. I thought I could solve that very quickly. If not, there was a motion, it was seconded. Will the persons who made the motion and seconded the motion please withdraw their motions?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm willing to give it a shot for a week to see if I can get my photographs. If I can't, I'll be back with my motion.

Mr. Pollock:

Are you withdrawing your motion?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes.

Mr. Pollock:

I'll withdraw my second.

Mr. Grabowski moved to excuse Mr. O'Malley for absence from the meeting.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Grabowski

Council adjourned.

If I can explain this, we had a public hearing on this and the Director of Engineering and Construction, we met with the people, the Chairmen, and they decided to rebuild this bridge rather than tear it down and that's why it's coming with a negative recommendation.

Michelle Madoff:

Clarification. Would you give me that again? They want to rebuild it instead of taking it down? You can't rebuild it unless you take it down.

The Chair:

They're going to rehab it.

Michelle Madoff:

They're going to rehab it but they're not going to rebuild it. How will the numbers change?

There's no numbers on it.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, I don't think you understand. There's $48,000 — Is that for a new bridge?

The Chair:

That was to tear it down, I'm sorry. I think for another $10,000 or $20,000 they can rebuild it.

Michelle Madoff:

So, in other words, the amount would go up —

The Chair:

We don't know that until they come in.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a comment on that. I understand that there was an interim letter, and I haven't signed it yet, circulated by Mr. Pollock as recommended by myself at the time that the group wanting the pool on the hill —

Mr. Pollock:

Wouldn't that be under New Business?

Michelle Madoff:

I want to put the money to it.

The Chair:

Michelle, that's altogether different. It's a different project.

Michelle Madoff:

Whoa, whoa.

The Chair:

No whoa, it's an altogether different project. We are talking about Bill 414 and that's what we're discussing at this moment.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, if it is you're pleasure I'll wait until the end of the meeting and recommend that the monies saved here be used towards that —

The Chair:

There's no money going to be saved here. It's going to cost more money than the $48,000.

Michelle Madoff:

I thought it was going to cost $12,000.

The Chair:

It could cost $12,000 or $20,000 more.

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mrs. Masloff:

Would Kay Tillow, President of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Coalition of Labor Union Women, Ruth Jones, Secretary of the Pittsburgh Metro Area Postal Workers' Union, and Joyce, from the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees please come forward?

The Chair and Mrs. Masloff present

No. 785 WHEREAS, working women now account for 44% of the labor force and will account for nearly 50% of all workers by 1990; and,

WHEREAS, working women have been and are an integral and permanent part of our community's history; and,

WHEREAS, the increasing number of women in the work force requires ongoing efforts by leaders of government, business and labor to develop long-range solutions to address child and dependent care needs, employment and wage discrimination, training and retraining needs, social security and pension inequities; and,

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh City Council recognizes the important contributions working women make to their places and communities; and,

WHEREAS, it is necessary to increase public awareness of their contributions and the concerns they face;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby recognize May 4-10, 1986, as "Working Women's Awareness Week," in the City of Pittsburgh, and urges all citizens, employers and community leaders to: (1) recognize the contributions of its working women, through special events and activities during the week, and (2) assist in developing programs in the City of Pittsburgh to better meet the changing needs and concerns of our working women.

Mrs. Masloff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ms. Tillow:

I'd like to thank the Councilmembers for passing this resolution. We would love to have you join us on Wednesday, May 7, where we will be in Mellon Square distributing yellow roses and pushing for the passage of the Parental and Disability Act on a federal basis to provide for the right for women throughout our country and we certainly hope that this is a beginning of the Council looking at ways we can solve the problems, the inequities in earning power between men and women, the problems of inadequate child care, in Pittsburgh and nationally, and all the other kinds of things that we've got to work for to finally reach equality and justice in our society. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I think its all good and well to have a week to recognize the problems and I hope that, as you say, maybe something will start to happen but we've all been waiting a very long time. I don't know that a recognition week is going to make those who don't care any more interested in recognizing the problems.

One of the things that I'd like to see happen that would be meaningful or effective would be to get a bill through the City immediately, as soon as possible, and I'm having somebody prepare something for us, is a flexible benefits bill so a woman working for the City who doesn't need to have duplication of medical services, meaning Blue Cross, Blue Shield, Major Medical, because her husband carries it — my former aide's husband had one of the best plans in the world but she took it here, it was mandatory — to stop the duplication of mandatory benefits that don't give you any benefit but you're paying for it, and perhaps have something like a day-care center right in the place where you work.

Those are the kind of things we have to do and set by example to do something rather than declaring a week, but that's nice too.

The Chair:

Thank you ver much.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 786 WHEREAS, Pittsburgh's reputation as a growing center for road racing in the United States has been established with events such as the Great Race, numerous 10 kilometer neighborhood races, and the upcoming May 18th Pittsburgh Marathon; and,

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held last week on Tuesday, April 29th, at which several doctors, health specialists, and road racing coordinators testified that the 10:30 A.M. starting time for the Marathon creates a serious health hazard for the hundreds of participants who will be forced to run in the afternoon heat;

and,

WHEREAS, the average temperature for May in Pittsburgh increases more than 20 degrees from morning to afternoon, thus increasing the health risks to the runners and, should the weather be unseasonably warm on that day, an even greater potential exists for fatalities; and,

WHEREAS, an 8:00 A.M. starting time would enable more runners to complete the marathon in the cooler morning hours and thus substantially lessen the health risks posed by finishing the course in the heat of the day;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recommends and urges Pittsburgh Marathon, Inc. to change the starting time of the Pittsburgh Marathon from 10:30 A.M. to 8:00 A.M. in the interests of the health of the runners.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Discussion. Mr. President and members of Council, this resolution is an outgrowth of our public hearing this past week. As you all know, we had, I think, an excellent public hearing where we had excellent testimony from both sides pertaining to the Pittsburgh Marathon in particular and also road races in general in the City of Pittsburgh.

Several people that testified indicated, and one was a doctor, that we are facing a severe potential health hazard by having a marathon start at such a late time, 10:30 a.m., during the month of May. As a result of that testimony and others that spoke, some of which are race coordinators, I did a little research to determine if that does, in fact, present a health hazard to the runners on that day, with a 26 mile race. The more information that I have found indicates that we, as a City, are jeopardizing ourselves, I think, with a fine event by starting it at a late point in time.

I did some research on temperatures; I called a meteorologist, a well-known local meteorologist, Joe DiNardo. He stated to me what the average temperatures in mid-May would be and he indicated that on rare occasions we have hit the 90's in mid-May. If that, in fact, were to occur on the day of the Marathon, we could have many serious accidents with those runners and could possibly have fatalities.

Last year there were slightly more than 2000 runners in the Marathon. We treated in the field along the race 240 runners. At the end of the race we treated 360 runners. Last year the weather conditions were ideal for running. They were cool, the humidity was down. It started at 10:00, a half hour earlier than is proposed for this year.

What I am saying is that unless we take safety and consider that to be the number one criteria for this race, we as a City are jeopardizing, I think, a fine event.

Just to give you an example of the difference in temperature, and this is the information provided to me by Mr. DiNardo, no matter what the temperature is that day, let's just say, use an arbitrary figure that it's 50 degrees Fahrenheit, at 8:00 in the morning. It is 10 degrees hotter at 10:30. If it's 60 degrees at 8:00 in the morning, it will be approximately 10 degrees hotter at 10:30. That same ratio of temperature will follow throughout the hours of the day.

So, if you have a marathon race that can be run by the fastest runners in approximately 2 hours and 10 minutes and by the slowest runners probably anywhere from 5 to 6-1/2 hours, what you're saying is that if the race begins at 10:30 a.m. in the morning, the average runner will probably finish about 2:30. The fastest runner will finish about 12:30 and the slowest runner about 4:30. You are in the heat of the day. Not only that, as you know, when you run your body becomes more fatigued. The longer you run, the more fatigued your body becomes and the hotter the day is getting. So, consequently, by moving the start time to an earlier start time, you reduce the potential of health hazards and injuries in the race.

We have a 6 mile race, a 10 kilometer race, the Great Race. We start that race at 9:00 a.m. in the morning. Here we have a 26 mile race we're starting at 10:30.

All this resolution is doing is simply suggesting and requesting, and it's a wish, it's a wish of Council, that the Pittsburgh Marathon Incorporated and the Administration reconsider the start time of this race and move it up from 10:30 to 8:00 a.m. It can be done, it's possible. Notices can be sent out to the people and the people that would be most pleased would be the runners.

For that reason I am requesting your support for this resolution.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, it's my understanding from the testimony that we heard that day, they told us that they specifically couldn't start earlier because they couldn't get the volunteers out that early along the line that they needed. It was also my understanding, from what the doctors said, that that was safe. The doctors that testified said that a 10:30 start was safe. They've been nine months in negotiations in coming to this conclusion, the runners, the clergy, the doctors all agreed that this was alright and the reason they didn't start at 8:30 was that they couldn't get people out along the road who volunteered to help. At least that's my understanding of it and that's why they came to the 10:30 time, unless I'm mistaken.

Mr. Grabowski:

I intend to vote against this resolution primarily based on the facts that Sophie just stated. The reason that this race is starting at 10:30 is because there were several months of negotiations with all principles involved and this was the best time derived. And for Council just to merely pass this resolution and say, "Hey, all that work and effort that you people put into this is going to be ignored", I think is inconsiderate of us and I don't think that we should be passing this resolution.

Mr. DePasquale:

As I stated at the meeting, I suffered heat prostration, actually it was on the island of Guadalcanal about 40 some years ago. We had a 20 mile hike with a full pack, what have you, and a high sun, as Bob Prince used to say, and after about an hour or an hour and a half we were dropping like flies.

I certainly agree with Councilman Wagner that if that race starts at 10:30, there's going to be some fatalities or near fatalities if it's a warm day, and the chance is very good it's going to be a warm day.

Mr. Givens:

I think most of the leaders that were in opposition to the race being on Sunday was the fact that it was disturbing the church services. Eight o'clock is ever worse than 10:30 because most services are in the morning hours, primarily between 8 and 12 o'clock, really between 8 and 11 o'clock, getting out at 12. So, by having it at 8 o'clock, we're going to be really inconveniencing the people both coming and leaving most of the church services within the City of Pittsburgh.

The second point is that there's been a lot of advertisement that has gone out on this race. Posters have been printed, material has been distributed. For us at this late hour, only two weeks from the race, coming up and saying that we want to change the hour, I think, is going to cause a tremendous amount of confusion.

The Chair:

Let me just add something, Jack. It is a wish of Council, we have no authority whatsoever, and there has been negotiations. The way I understand it also is that television is involved and it would be very difficult to change now. But it's a wish of Council, that's all it is.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to add in response to some of my colleagues' responses, I believe that the official position taken by the Administration to not have road races for 50 weeks out of 52 during the year is in response to the church community and is, in fact, addressing those concerns.

This concern here is an outgrowth of that hearing and I know I heard the physician say at that hearing that we are jeopardizing the health of the runners by starting at a late time. I believe that if it's the help or the people working in the race, it's just a matter of them getting out there two hours earlier, and I don't think there's a problem in doing that.

Material that has been distributed, if there's 2500 runners, it's a matter of sending out 2500 notices changing the time, and I think that can be corrected. However, I do think the important point here is that the number one issue in this race has to be safety and safety to the runners is what must be paramount and with a late start time, to me, it is not the paramount issue. By moving it up we tremendously reduce the potential of accidents and I think that should be the intent. If in fact we had serious accidents, and we were lucky last year not to have it with 600 people out of 2500 treated, if in fact we had a serious accident, I can think of nothing that would be more embarrassing to all of us with this race. I hope we don't, even if it starts naturally at 10:30 in the morning, but if we approach a day that has an 85 or 90 degree temperature with a runner out there running and not knowing when to stop running, we potentially could have that type of accident and I think for that reason it's important for us as a Council to send a message that we would like to see an early start time.

The Chair:

Jack, would you consider amending this to the year of 1987? We're not going to do anything this year, you know that, I know that; it's set. But I think if you amend it to the year of 1987 you'd probably have a lot more support here and they'd go back and rethink their positions, everyone would rethink their positions. It's just a suggestion.

Mr. Wagner:

Councilman Woods, in 1985 it was 10:00. In 1986, it's 10:30. In 1987 it may be 11:00, I don't know. I'm concerned about this year and I would like to have input, obviously, to next year also. I think by passing this resolution, at the very least, even if it did not have an impact this year, even if the Pittsburgh Marathon Incorporated did not change the time and the Administration didn't change the time, they would know that next year we wanted the time changed.

The Chair:

That's why I was suggesting making it '87.

Michelle Madoff:

It seems to me, if memory serves me well, that these races are run in other cities where the temperature is even hotter, and, while I would like to support my colleague who, I think, his intentions are very well taken, he's concerned first and foremost about the health of the people and that's the people he represents and it's very commendable, the problem really is one of responsibility for oneself. If anybody here were running in a race and I know that — Do I still owe you money for riding the bicycle? Did I pay you?

The Chair:

No, you paid.

Michelle Madoff:

I paid? Okay. When Mr. Woods undertook to bicycle for a charitable cause and he got people to support him, he had to stop when he knew that his health couldn't handle any more, and I think anyone running in a race has to take that responsibility for themselves.

And while I agree that it would probably be more desirable to run when it's cooler, you have no guarantee that the same people running when it's cooler aren't going to be running past the time when it's hot anyway and should be dropping out and not making it an ego situation when their own health is involved. One must take responsibility for oneself and I agree with my colleague, Mr. Woods, it's after the fact. There's nothing we can change at this point and I think the input should be for next year and perhaps something with the Committee to see that they instill in the runners the sense of protecting their own well being for their loved one, not only for themselves.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Wagner
Mr. Pollock

AYES 3	NOES 5
--------	--------

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Woods
Michelle Madoff	(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

On another couple of items, Mr. Chairman, it has never been my style to pretend something isn't happening and to try to sweep something under the rug and since I'm going to be an issue today I would like to address it very briefly.

I understand the Law Department, unbeknownst to me, sent down the claim for my broken arm that took place here in Council. I just want to report in addition to what is here and listed in the letter as to my out of pocket expenses. Attorneys have asked me why I didn't ask for more or go back with a counter offer. I had asked for forty based on out of pocket expenses and on the fact that I will probably have some arthritic problems. Dislocations, unlike breaks, are never the same; they just never heal. I have limited use of my arm; I cannot put my arm behind my back. The public media, newspaper, were here the following day when Brother Richard brought me in and said, "Did we make it better?" In other words, "We were very remiss and hopefully we've corrected the problem." There was no guardrail up when the camera was up. Fortunately, my accident wasn't even more severe; it could have been someone else and it could have been a very large claim against the City.

One item that's not in here, I believe, I just scanned it, is that I did have someone — The reason I was able to go to work immediately was that I hired someone to look after me. She was with me constantly, cut my food, dressed me, bathed me, drive for me. But I also had to change my car. It has a rack and pinion steering and I can't park it, I still don't park very well on the left side of the street so anybody who goes out and sees the car that is never parked right, it's mine if it's on the left side; the right side I do better.

Basically, the $15,000 takes in almost out of pocket expenses, it was about $12,000 out of pocket and the rest is in case I have to go back to a doctor and I have, since I put in the claim, been to therapy at Montefiore on an emergency basis. My record at Montefiore can be checked and I might point out that Marv Fein was my attorney when I was in an accident many years ago where I injured my neck and this arm directly impacts on my neck.

I think the public ought to know the reason I'm settling as low as I'm settling is that I don't want to go to court. I don't want the taxpayers to pay more than just my cost. If it ends up where I have to pay a lot more and I have problems with arthritic or other problems, so be it. But I think I'm taking what I consider a fair and equitable and very considerate role and since that's going to come up I thought I ought to address it.

If anybody would like to talk on that subject fine but I've got another subject.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, just one comment. I think in light of the testimony that Michelle just gave, you should take it easy on the fines in the future that you impose on her.

Mr. DePasquale:

That reminds me, can I still sue the Marine Corps?

Mr. Pollock:

Can I ask that the testimony that Michelle just gave now be carried over to Wednesday so that we don't have to go through that again on Wednesday?

Michelle Madoff:

New subject. Mr. President, you had to leave, I believe you had a meeting, when we were discussing the photographer and I believe Mr. Givens was running the meeting. I'm not sure; correct me if I'm wrong. We discussed having a photographer and we battled that, we discussed it back and forth whether we should hire one photographer, whether we should use the photographers that work for the Cable in the City.

My understanding is that I'm to submit my last bill for $75 for a prior photographer we hired and that those bills would be paid out of "consulting fees" we use for attorneys or consultants or whatever, that are available to all of Council. I'd like clarification but I want to show you some pictures if I may because there are two other subjects that I wish to address and they address the photographs.

The Chair:

Here's what we're going to do. We're going to have our regular monthly meeting of Council in the Conference Room —

Michelle Madoff:

When is that?

The Chair:

As soon as we get this meeting over with.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright but then I'll go on with the issue. I would like to share with my colleagues, if you will quickly pass these pictures along, two subject. The first one is on garbage.

We went out and we hired the photographer and he took some pictures

Downtown and I must tell you that it is still early in the evening. We had Mary Beth Salley sit here and say, "The problem is that I had a baby and we've got these laws on the books and there's no enforcement." I would like to ask my colleagues on a rotating basis whether we would each take turns, because we really care about keeping our City clean, of going down to the magistrate's court when these hearings are being held -- I will personally go to one or two and I'd like the others to do the same -- to reinforce that we really care about what's going on in the City.

I didn't bring the article but I picked up an article this morning about the Schenley Park Oval. It's a pigsty. This is the Downtown part of our City, it's referred to as the living room of our City and Mr. Woods, what happens is when my aide went out to take the photographs, she went out about 5:30 or 6:00 and they were neatly piled. I went back because I had to go to a citizen meeting and I didn't get back until 11:30 at night and I drove around the streets and the garbage was strewn all over the place like a hurricane had hit and the street people were going through the garbage and I saw rats running across the street across from that building down there, what is it, it's like a little mall, a theater mall. Not the Warner but the Warner also had garbage in front of it about a block up.

It's really a terrible problem and I think those pictures save a lot of us the trouble of having to go out.

Mr. Pollock:

Where did you get pictures of my apartment?

Michelle Madoff:

I would very much like the support of my colleagues that a commitment would be made on a voluntary basis for us to monitor the courts to see that someone is sitting there. I know in the environmental days it was very productive to know that somebody cared representing the community.

You know, laws without enforcement is an exercise in futility and if the Downtown is a pigsty, how can we consider ourselves a beautiful city? That's one item that I just wanted to share with my colleagues.

The other pictures that were taken are equally serious. I'd like everybody to take a quick look at these. Do you recall that I asked somebody to go up and take McArdle; frankly, I don't have good enough pictures of McArdle but it gives you the flavor. I don't know how many millions of dollars were spent on the McArdle Roadway.

I spoke to Mr. McDermott; they are going to be spending more money. He tells me that in the last three years, you know, the McArdle Roadway was under construction or closed down for some seven years. The only major route up to the mountains. When you go up that road it's an embarrassment. Mr. McDermott says that in the last three years, for some peculiar reason, the street has deteriorated faster than usual.

We have a problem with drainage. It seems that the roads were supposed to be cleaned out. I guess the catch area behind this wall, which is not really a retaining wall but just to keep boulders from going down, if you look at one of those photos you're going to see a boulder sitting right on top of the wall. If that boulder rolls over, somebody is going to get killed, somebody is going to get their car hurt. The damage to us, because we're the taxpayers, is a lot more than $15,000.

I have some great concerns about why, in the planning of that bridge, this Council did not take a more active role to see what was really going to happen. You know, we get a snow job. But I don't understand the logic. Can anyone here explain the logic of not doing the street at the same time, repaving in the last months. It would have been easier, cheaper, the equipment is there, it would have been done, it would have looked great. Item one.

Item two, having the water from PennDOT being captured in the winter and going over the hill, causing this erosion, this accelerated damage. We already have a lawsuit and they come to the City when it's not out fault; it's PennDOT's fault. We still have the drainage problem or the pipes that are plugged up and they're going to be constantly filled up and it's a really serious problem. But the most important thing is that we've spent millions and we're going to go back and spend hundreds of thousands more and obviously that street and the bridge is going to have to be closed down even for a few hours now and again, for days on end. I don't understand how that could be allowed to happen and I would appreciate it if somebody would do something about it. I think probably the thing to do is a post agenda; what do you think, Mr. President?

The Chair:

I think we should have a post agenda on it.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay but we've asked for material and it's being coalated. Should we send a letter then to Mr. McDermott and Lou Gaetano and Dan Pellegrini asking for a post agenda at the earliest time that the materials are available, not to exceed, say, one month from now on a Wednesday?

The Chair:

Mike, will you handle that?

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you very much. And I would like my letter, we have one month, I believe, on the refuse problem, we're supposed to get our feedback as to how the claims are going, what the courts say, how they're citing, and whether the same people are causing the same problem again, the garbage problem.

So, those two issues will be before us within the next month and I really ask that Council take them very seriously.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. O'Malley for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, March 17, 1986, Monday, March 24, 1986, Monday, March 31, 1986, Monday, April 7, 1986, and Monday, April 14, 1986.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We're going to defer from our regular order of business today for a moment. We have a resolution. Ms. Madoff?

Michelle Madoff:

We have with us today a very esteemed honored guest, Mr. Hazo. He's a distinguished poet, he's brought to our City as well as Washington, D.C. a series of the most important contemporary poems written in English or translated into English.

Mr. Hazo, over the past two decades, you have included such well known individuals as Princess Grace of Monaco, the Russian Poet, Yevgeni and the great American writer, James Dickey and jazz singer, Cleo Lane.

We at City Council are pleased to honor you today with this resolution and to recognize the force you've exerted in creating a different dimension of cultural life in Pittsburgh. Please stay here in our community and continue your fine work.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 824 WHEREAS, Dr. Samuel Hazo, Professor of English at Duquesne University, founded the International Poetry Forum in Pittsburgh in 1966; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Samuel Hazo, for the past two decades, has provided an opportunity where "people could appear and speak without censorship of any kind", and;

WHEREAS, the creation of the International Poetry Forum has enhanced the quality of cultural life in Pittsburgh by presenting poetry, not only to those in a university setting, but to ordinary men and women in a public place; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Samuel Hazo, by bringing poets and writers from all over the world to Pittsburgh and by receiving recognition for his own poetry, has become a cultural ambassador for our City; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Samuel Hazo, in April 1986, received the Theodore L. Hazlett, Jr. Award for Excellence in the Arts in Pennsylvania in the field of literature.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, join in offering our congratulations to Dr. Samuel Hazo for his outstanding cultural contributions to our community.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to ask Mr. Hazo to say a few words. He has written a book which is about to come out in publication called "The Pittsburgh That Starts With You". This is some of the excerpts, the beginning of it. There are already three or four thousand copies already in order.

I would like to have his brother, Robert Hazo, please rise to be recognized. I don't believe that your wife, Marian Hazo, is here as yet. She couldn't park, right? She would have been towed. I had hoped that Judge Barry would be here; he sends his deepest respects. He wanted to be with us and was very excited that you were getting this resolution.

Dr. Hazo:

The first thing I would like to do is to thank Michelle and Judith Aaronson and the members of the Council for the resolution.

As I was waiting in Mrs. Madoff's office she said to me, "You might be asked to say a few words." So I had from the time we left her office until I arrived here time to think of what I wanted to say. One has to be careful politically about what one chooses to say.

I have been working on a book about the City of Pittsburgh and in it there is a brief comment about a small bronze bust that is on the main floor of this building. It's of a local official, years ago, named William Flynn. You have to look hard to find it. But that bust was done by a Russian sculptor who also did the main statue for the New York World's Fair in 1936 and many, many other things. He has since died but I had occasion to meet him before he died at the age of 82 on West 62nd Street in New York. This is a man, by the way, who knew Rasputin, he knew him. It's not often you meet somebody like this. So, he said, "They asked me if I'm a Democrat or a Republican." He said, "I'm a Monarchist. I pledged my allegiance to the Czar and he never released me."

I'm not a Monarchist, I'm just a citizen of the State of Pennsylvania and, in that capacity, I thank you very much for this honor. Thank you.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 825 WHEREAS, the loss of 120,000 jobs in Western Pennsylvania has resulted in an unemployment rate of 9.9% for white workers and a devastating 34.5% for black workers; and

WHEREAS, current attacks on affirmative action by the Reagan Administration is a major area of concern for black trade unionists and black workers because many employees no longer feel compelled to employ them; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh proclaimed Saturday, May 3, 1986 as COALITION OF BLACK TRADE UNIONISTS DAY to focus attention on the unemployment of black workers throughout Western Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, the historic conference sponsored by the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists, the first of its kind in the history of Pittsburgh, successfully educated, informed, and brought attention to the contributions of black trade unionists and workers in Western Pennsylvania.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes this successful and historic conference sponsored by the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists to raise public awareness of the black worker in the labor movement and in our community.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a couple of items, Mr. President. I happened to be speaking to Malcolm Prine about security at the Stadium and he has asked to see what we can do as a body to provide security, not inside the Stadium, not on the area where the company that runs it is looking after the security, but to do security for people who are going to their cars afterward. There was an episode that could have been much more serious than it was. There was a mugging on the way to a car.

I don't know, and I don't know if anybody else on this Council knows, what is the status of the number of police that we have right now. I know we're 105 police below minimum security. I know that we put on a class of 40 and we lose 50 by attrition. I know that we have police officers on vacation, we have police officers on workmen's comp, we have police officers with vehicles down so they're not out doing their thing.

I know we're going to revamp the Police Department but wouldn't it be nice if the elected officials were informed as to what the plans are? I would like very much to hold a post agenda to get that information.

The Chair:

I'm sure Mr. Wagner would do that for us. But I suggest that Malcolm Prine, if he has any problem with security and the police over at the Stadium, that he take it directly to the Administration and to the Stadium Authority.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm repeating this, this is not police in the Stadium. The City of Pittsburgh has its own police, named City of Pittsburgh Police. And I don't think that the Stadium Authority has the authority to get City of Pittsburgh Police. That's something we have to do here.

The Chair:

We don't have the authority either, the Administration does and that's why I suggest that Malcolm Prine go right to the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

I still think if the support came from this Council it would not be detrimental. It might help the Administration understand what the problems are.

On another matter, as you may recall, last week we took some photographs, which we circulated, of garbage in the Downtown area. I requested to get some idea of what kinds of fines were being levied against various entities and it seems that the following cases heard in Housing Court on May 5th, the penalties imposed were: Lloyd's Youth Center, I don't know who they are but they got a $25 fine and costs of $23.50; Weiner World, which I believe is in Oakland, got $25 and costs of $23.50; Joseph Ella Zwiskey for dumping, there's a $100 fine, the same costs; Applebee's, four different cases and the total was $97, four different cases; Hite's Drugstore was dismissed and picked up by the City; Mr. K $25, who's Mr. K, and $23.50 for costs; Fotohut, $25 and $23.50 costs; and the Fulton Building, the big Fulton Building, $50 with $23.50 costs; and the City Club $200 with $23.50 costs.

I don't know how many times these people were cited. A $25 fine is a slap on the wrist. I would like to know why one was fined $200 and another one $100. It would be very interesting to me. And I would like to see what is going to happen with the rest of the citations because we plan to go down and take more pictures in a couple of months. We'll give them two or three months to clean up the act, see that they're cited, and then go back Downtown and see if there's any improvement. $25 is cheaper to pay than to get it cleaned up and that's the sad part.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to respond to the security issue. We are sitting without information as to the future of the Police Bureau and I think that's information that all Councilmembers would like to know, including myself. If I knew that I would relay that information to you but I'm not aware of it.

I would like to say, though, that I may be suggesting some ways in the future to address that problem. In particular, the problem at the Stadium, this Council discussed a year ago when there was a stabbing on the Fort Duquesne Bridge and the need for increased security around the Stadium. I believe the suggestion was made at that time that we better utilize police officers around the circumference of the Stadium, particularly at the four gates, and we suggested not only an officer outside of each of the four gates but also an officer on the other side of the bridge at Point State Park.

A further suggestion was made to better utilize canine dogs because they are so effective with crowd control and they are a deterrent to crime, especially in those types of situations.

So, Councilwoman Madoff, I'm not certain if you would like to again suggest that idea but we did a year ago and I think it would be good for this Council to make a similar recommendation this year.

Michelle Madoff:

I think the issue is much broader, I think it's time that we held a public hearing, cablevised, and we get some really committed answers to what's going to happen with our Police Department. I don't think anybody knows and I think it's really disgraceful that when we go out to speak and I get asked questions all the time, I can't answer them.

Michelle Madoff moved to excuse Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Grabowski for absence from the meeting.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, April 21, 1986 and Monday, April 28, 1986.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We have a presentation from Maribeth Salley Russuto on the Clean City Committee.

Ms. Russuto:

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen. Thank you for this opportunity to make the presentations today. What we are doing is, we are making presentations on the Council Challenge Program which was operated during Keep America Beautiful Week and of the nine Councilmembers, four members of this City Council participated and I would like to thank all of you for your participation and your volunteers as well as your own individual staffs did a marvelous job of putting it together and it was extremely successful.

The program, as you are aware, was sponsored by Heinz USA and Westinghouse. They were so pleased with the results and the level of participation that they would like to make this an annual event. So, we will look forward to working with all of you next year on the Council Challenge Project.

On to the awards and presentations. We'll start with the bottom and work to the top.

The fourth place winner in this year's contest is Sophie Masloff for her participation in Hazelwood. And for the participation you will receive one trash receptacle to be placed in the business community of your choice. All of the plaques will have the Councilmember as well as the Heinz USA and Westinghouse logos on them.

The third place winner is Councilman Grabowski for his efforts on Crane Avenue in Beechview. You will receive two receptacles for the business district of your choice.

The second winner is Council President Ben Woods. Mr. Woods, for his efforts in Esplen, will receive three cans with your logo on it for the location of your choice.

Of course you all know now who the big winner is. It's Councilman Dick Givens and certainly one of the things that the judges from Heinz and Westinghouse took into consideration was the amount of public and community activity that you have involved in your individualized programs. Mr. Givens, for those of you who don't know, used the "It's a crime to mess up a beautiful City" logo and posters throughout the community on the day of his events and he did his event centering around the Doughboy Statue.

Again, I thank you all for your participation this year and look forward to working with the rest of you next year. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Question. I'm just curious. Do you have the report ready for us on the --

The Chair:

Mr. Givens:

Before we have a motion, Mr. President, I meant to bring this up Wednesday but because of the other pressing issues we had before this Council it slipped my mind.

I looked throughout all the paperwork I have and I checked with our Finance section back there and I don't know who the principles are, I don't know what the itemized list of things that they're wanting for this $2000. I'm sure the Sooners need the money but I'd like to make a motion to put this back into Committee for one week so we can get that information by this Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Discussion. Mr. Givens, I have all that information in my office. It was available to you last week and it is continually available to you today. You are free to review that information and if there is any other reason why you choose to hold this piece of legislation I wish you would come out and say.

Mr. Givens:

Jack, I have received document and background information on every bill that was presented to us last week but that bill. I'm sorry, I just didn't receive that information and generally it's attached to the bill itself.

This Council has gotten burned on the few occasions for giving money to various community groups. I have set a standard for myself; that is, I want to see an itemized list. In fact, it's required by the Planning or this Parks and Recreation. Before they can dispense of any money, they have to show where this money is going to be spent. That is not accompanying the bill and I wish you would have had it but I would like the opportunity to look at that information. I think all other Councilmembers should have that same opportunity.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, we have had that information in our hands for two weeks; a week and a half prior to it coming into Committee and since it was in Committee last Wednesday, an additional five days.

I think it's rather late to be asking for that information. That information along with every other bill that is part of this legislation has been available to every member of Council for two weeks and for a member of Council to say that it is not available, I disagree with and I can say that the South Side Community is very worthy of this legislation, the organization that it's representing is very worthy of this organization. There are only two such football programs left in existence in this City. This program is struggling financially in the South Side. Without this assistance in funds it will exist any longer and for that reason I strongly support this legislation.

Mr. Givens:

Jack, I strongly support it too but I am not going to act on it until I get that specific information, study it and talk to the people. I've been burned once in this Council and I'm not going to be burned again.

Our Finance Department did not have it. When I went to get it, even prior to this meeting, I could not get that information. That's all I'm asking for. And I think if any of us put anything into any bills that we should have background documentation supporting it. It was not in this bill.

I had it as a note on Wednesday to bring it up; I did not bring it up. I'm bringing it up now. I can't vote on it because I won't vote on it until I get that documentation.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like another comment. Mr. Givens, you have not come to me for that information and if you are flat out against the support of a South Side organization that is very worthy —

Mr. Givens:

Absolutely not; I'm on record as saying that I am not.

Mr. Wagner:

— that is very worthy of this legislation, I would suggest that you come out and say that.

I will say this to you. I will stand up and be heard in terms of supporting this youth football program and I would strongly suggest to every member of this Council that they do the same.

This organization has been in existence for a number of years, over ten years. They can prove it, they can validate it with brochures, they are very worthy of this support. Other neighborhoods in this City have received the same type of similar support in the past, of which you have supported that legislation. Now, if you in any way have a problem with the South Side community with this legislation, I would simply request that you come out and say that and not hold up this legislation. This legislation is very worthy, the information that you're requesting has been available, and now is not the time to request it.

The Chair:

Let me put this all back in perspective. Let's not get personal. The motion was to recommit until this Wednesday. No one said they were against the legislation or for the legislation. In fact, Mr. Givens said he was for it but he wants to see some documents. It's just to recommit.

Now, Mr. Pollock, on recommitment only.

Mr. Pollock:

That's exactly what I was speaking to. I don't think the purpose of recommitment is to accomplish what was supposed to have been accomplished in the Wednesday Committee Meeting. That's not why we have Wednesday Committee Meetings. If people weren't there or if they didn't ask questions on Wednesday, the legislative process runs its course. We have final votes on Monday and if someone wasn't able to accomplish what he or she should have accomplished on Wednesday, a motion to recommit is inappropriate.

The Chair:

Well, as President of Council I disagree with you. It happens here many, many times. There are many pieces of legislation that a particular Councilmember may not have paid attention to on a Wednesday or may not have been here, and I can look around at everybody in this room, all nine of us, and ask that at one time or another, because we didn't have the information or have a chance to look at it, has asked for recommitment. So, that's what I said. Let's not get personal.

Mr. Wagner:

Just one question, Mr. President. This is coming out of Parks and Recreation Committee and the Chairperson of that Committee, Councilwoman Sophie Masloff, appears to be very comfortable with this legislation or she would have requested recommitment. I think as respect for any Councilmember on this Council, that Committee Chairperson and also myself that strongly supports this legislation, if the Committee Chairperson has not requested, I would just strongly request that this legislation move forward.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

Bill No. 857

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for May 14, 1986 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 811

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 357 of 1986, approved April 25, 1986, entitled: 'Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant for professional services in connection with the establishment of an Office of Professional Responsibility within the Department of Public Safety, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof.'" —(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I think the Record reflects that this piece of legislation was in front of us three or four weeks ago. It came out of the Committee on Public Safety. I did not support the legislation and I did not think at that time, and I expressed my feelings at that time and as part of the Record, that this legislation was not even proper legislation because it identified a certain individual to receive the consulting contract. The legislation should not have done that. There is no need for additional consultants within the Department of Public Safety. We already have a consultant contract going on there; one is enough. This piece of legislation represents $26,000 in taxpayer money and I feel if it were spent it would be wasted. Consequently, I strongly suggest that it not be supported and that we repeal the legislation.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner, this is what this is doing, repealing, isn't it?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

The Chair:

So you're requesting that we affirm it.

Michelle Madoff:

The vote is aye to repeal.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, first of all, this legislation was handled very badly. It's the first time in all the time that I've been on City Council that legislation was submitted to Council for one individual. In other words, if that individual was not to take the job, the legislation as we're doing now would be repealed. It's sort of repugnant that someone would do this and someone in Council would also get together with that party and say, "Okay, if he gets the job we'll okay it and if he doesn't, then we won't." It's so irregular that I never heard of it and I hope I never hear of it again. If this type of legislation comes up one more time and someone specifies it's for a certain individual, I'm going to holler foul. I didn't like it then and I don't like it now and I'm going to vote against the repeal. Either they wanted a consultant in that Department at $26,000, regardless of who it was, or they didn't want a consultant. You don't specify one individual.

The Chair:

If I'm correct, Mr. Wagner, you initiated this piece of legislation.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I did not support the original legislation of the $26,000. As you recall, the majority of this Council voted for that when I strongly recommended not to vote for it. Again, I am strongly suggesting that the legislation be repealed and that we not give the Public Safety Department the $26,000.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I move to adjourn this meeting and meet again on Tuesday, May 27, 1986 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't we have any other business?

The Chair:

He made the motion and it was seconded.

Michelle Madoff:

You didn't give us a chance for any other business.

The Chair:

I stood here and --

Mr. Pollock:

I didn't hear what his motion was.

The Chair:

His motion is to adjourn this meeting and meet again Tuesday at 2:00.

Michelle Madoff:

There's some other business to be discussed, Mr. Chairman.

The Chair:

I can't make another motion unless he rescinds his motion and the second is rescinded, then we can have some other discussion.

Mr. O'Malley:

What was the purpose of the motion?

The Chair:

To adjourn.

Michelle Madoff:

We have a holiday. But I want him to hold off until other business is discussed.

Mr. Grabowski:

Well, Mr. President, out of courtesy to Michelle I will withdraw my motion but I would ask that she pay attention in the future. Councilman Woods stood up there for a few seconds waiting for someone --

Mr. DePasquale:

I'll withdraw my second.

Mr. Pollock:

I didn't hear him say it. Did you say New Business?

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't hear New Business. Did you say New Business?

The Chair:

You don't say New Business. I know how to run the meeting, please.

Now, Ms. Madoff, you have the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to thank my colleague for withdrawing his adjourning of the meeting so I can just address an issue that's before all of us.

Over the weekend I took the opportunity to consult with an attorney with reference to the issue of my injury suffered here in Council when I was hospitalized July 15, 1985. In speaking to my attorney, it was pointed out to me that since no one knew that public officials fall in the same category of the general public, they are not covered under workmen's compensation. If somebody is covered under workmen's compensation in the same way that anybody, including elected officials, medical bills are paid. However, if they have a re-occurrence or if they're disabled, a person on workmen's comp could and has been, in many instances, having their problems and their salary taken care of for life. They become eligible under workmen's comp if they are not able to return to work or if the same injury is the cause of a flare-up at a later date.

The general public, which a member of the elected Council falls under, does not have that protection. In other words, had I not just dislocated my elbow, and I'd like to clarify that for anybody who doesn't know. There's a tremendous difference between a break and a dislocation. Breaks are usually in a cast for six weeks and you heal generally. Dislocations never heal completely.

My attorney pointed out to me that since I had been to therapy, once in Washington which was $90 and was not covered under the existing policy that we have with the City which is Blue Cross, Blue Shield, Major Medical; it had to come out of my own pocket. And that when I go to a doctor on an out-patient basis that is not covered under, not entirely, sometimes it's partially covered, sometimes not covered. An out-patient visit with a doctor is generally not covered, not knowing what other problems could occur because of arthritic problems or what have you, and the fact that I cannot do buttons up on the back of any garment I choose to wear, I need someone to dress me, there's a permanent injury, and the fact that I was being, what I thought, very reasonable in saying that I don't want to put the City through a lawsuit, I just want to be reasonably reimbursed, I will settle for what was offered. But since that position has become --

You know, Mr. Chairman, if I did what my colleagues did right now, not only would I be ruled out of order but I would have been fined.

The Chair:

You do it all the time, Michelle. And the reason I'm not correcting them is because you and your aide have been meeting on every piece of legislation when Mr. Perry was reading it. You walk to the back of the hall, you went and talked, you followed Maribeth Salley out and you sat back there and caused a commotion and now I am showing you the same politeness that you show the rest of your colleagues, and that's none. Now do you want to continue?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm trying to. Tell me when I may continue. I will wait for your instruction because, after all, I always look to my leader for leadership.

The Chair:

Thank you. You may continue now.

Michelle Madoff:

In light of the fiasco that took place by Mr. Ferlo, who is here, I might add, at 2:45 when he should probably be in the Controller's Office doing his job, and by the question on KQV on Saturday which was, "Should Michelle get $15,000, should she get more or should she get less?" It's like a little boy who brings a rabbit to school for show and tell and the little girl says, "I wonder if it's a male or a female" and the teacher says, "Let's find out; we'll vote on it."

I decided to listen to my attorney and to wait until the reimbursement, see what, if any, other problems occur, what happens with my arm, and to let the matter ride for the time being. I will instruct my attorney that I have to immediately initiate a claim to go through what Mr. Ferlo has requested and that is the courts. Unfortunately, as you all know, Mr. Danny Pellegrini has informed us that that will mean the hiring of an outside attorney so that's going to be more than what I was even asking for which I think is unfortunate. You know, attorneys don't work for nothing; I'm sure that they will want a portion which they build into the claim which I think is terribly unfortunate.

I also want to point out one very important thing, that any person injured in this City who makes a claim, whether its against the City or against anyone else, if the claim is legitimate, can go to any attorney, almost any attorney I believe, on a contingency basis. In other words, there's no money out of pocket until the settlement time. So, any B.S. rhetoric that people didn't get paid their fair amount because they didn't go to an attorney or they went to an attorney and didn't get their money or they couldn't afford an attorney is nonsense because attorneys take claims on contingency basis.

Subsequently, I will follow procedure, let the wheels of justice grind as slowly as they may, and eventually I believe that justice will be done. I'm glad, though, that someone wasn't hurt more severely than I was. The fact that the guard was not up at the time in front of the camera has been corrected, that the Cable Division of the City showed all the commercial stations the next day how they had made corrections, that they were grievously at fault, it was grievously negligence which they admitted to which is now on all the television station, 2, 4, and 11, in their files. So there's no question of culpability or liability; that's been clearly established.

I think it's unfortunate that Mr. Danny Pellegrini, in pleading the case that I'm willing to settle for so little, reiterated the fact that not only did I see my own doctor but that the City sent me to another physician and they both reaffirmed that I have a permanent damage that could exacerbate and become much more severe as years go on.

We're going to wait and see and we'll just take that course of action. I wanted to inform my colleagues because I know there was a bill that was read for Wednesday and so that bill would be moot.

Mr. DePasquale:

On the same subject, Mr. Chairman, I want a Parliamentary ruling. In regards to a settlement for anyone who gets hurt in the City of Pittsburgh, I think we're all aware that if the City attorney feels that its for the benefit of the City to settle and not go into court, actually to save money, this is probably the proper procedure. Never, in the 13 years that I've been on Council, have we ever held up a settlement offer by the Law Department. This is the first time and I'm a little curious as to why. Whether it's Michelle Madoff, you, I, or any citizen named Joe Smith, if they get hurt and the Law Department feels its fair settlement — in this case they had two or three doctors verify that the party was permanently disabled, partially disabled, and obviously entitled was entitled to the money.

As far as Council holding it up or throwing it back in the Law Department's lap, that's something else. I wasn't here so I can't really speak out but I wouldn't have been a party to it.

The other one is, I'm curious as to why a public hearing. This is a routine matter, the Law Department has tried to settle with the party and it's Council's ball whether to approve or disapprove. How does this wind up being a hearing? I understand 25 citizens signed a petition, yes. But not on a routine matter. It does not require a hearing and should not be allowed. That's where I want a Parliamentary ruling.

The Chair:

Under the Home Rule Charter, any issue concerning the City that has the signatures of 25 people, we have to have a public hearing.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'm being told that any time a settlement comes up, there can be a hearing on that settlement?

The Chair:

If it's City business.

Mr. DePasquale:

We could have a case now where we could be having hearings five times a week.

The Chair:

We have hearings on things that don't even involve our legislative process and don't even involve our City process. If there's 25 signatures, we have to have a hearing.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'm confused. This is the first time that anybody has ever asked for a hearing in a matter of this type.

The Chair:

On this particular case we'll have to do a little research because if Ms. Madoff does file suit then perhaps there will not be a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

If I might just respond. My understanding, Mr. DePasquale, was that I got advice from one of my colleagues that there weren't the votes on this Council to vote for the settlement which I was willing to take and I think was very reasonable.

Some members of Council felt that they didn't want to vote on another member of Council so that I hope that in the future, if any member of Council has a personal issue, if they're involved in a housing, a zoning, anything that they're personal involved in, this Council will not vote, it will go to court on it.

I also would like to point out that it appears there were votes, the votes were there. I have polled this Council and the votes were there to support that settlement. The hiring of an attorney now is going to be more than my settlement, Mr. DePasquale; you're absolutely correct. However, while I didn't want to discuss it today and didn't want to go into it, you're correct, Mr. Chairman, any time a case is in litigation, it cannot be discussed and cannot have a public hearing.

Mr. Pollock:

On another subject. In our mailboxes, I don't think everyone has picked them up yet, is a correspondence from David Donahoe of the Mayor's Office, along with a copy of a letter he received from the DeBartolo Corporation along with a news release. David makes careful attention to point out that he received this correspondence at 5:05 p.m. on Thursday.

In the following day's paper, the news release came out which stated that the Penguins asked for a one-year extension of their lease and that they had received support for this request from the Allegheny County Commissioners. In light of this request and in light of the support of the Allegheny County Commissioners, the DeBartolo Corporation is hoping that the City and the Public Auditorium Authority goes along with this request for a one-year extension. As my colleagues may or may not know, there was supposed to be a five-year lease as approved by this Council before I came on it last year, when the Civic Arena Corporation was given about a half million dollar rent cut and about near half million dollar operating subsidy along with 11.4 million construction bonds.

Now, it's not my style to pre-judge any issue which might appear before Council at a later date, so I won't address the merits of the request for a one-year lease. But what I would like to bring up at this time is the shoddy manner in which City Government is being treated, for maybe it's actual purpose for the DeBartolo Corporation releasing this information to the City Government in this manner was an attempt to muscle us into a deal. And while the Allegheny County Commissioners are given prior notice and the ability to consent or not consent, and City Government isn't afforded the same cooperation or consideration, in light of the significant concessions that this Council and the City Government afforded this corporation last year is beyond my comprehension, and so I will address that and express my displeasure with that.

I think that the Mayor of this City, I think this City itself deserves a lot more consideration by anybody doing business with the City, but even more so by an entity that received the breaks that the DeBartolo Corporation has received in the past. I wanted to respond to that at this time.

The Chair:

I think the Mayor has and I have, as President of Council.

Mr. Givens:

Mark was not in Council at the time, but the agreement, as I understood, was for a one-year extension. At the end of that one year, the DeBartolo Corporation would come in and tell this Council as well as the Auditorium Authority which I now sit on and represent the people of the City of Pittsburgh and, in fact, this Council to a certain degree.

It was brought up at our executive meeting on Monday; we were awaiting word at that particular time last Monday for this information to come down. I don't know how any company can express themselves other than do it in a professional way by putting it into a letter and giving it to the appropriate people. We are a public body. So, as a result, this is public information. The minute that letter was received by any of us it should have gone public. Now we have to sit down and discuss can we go for another year. That is something that this Council is going to have to look at, the Mayor is going to have to look at, the Auditorium Authority as well as the Commissioners, because we're all in this basket together and we're all going to have to come out with some type of a decision. Any one of those three major bodies, that of the Mayor, this Council, or the Commissioners balking at any agreement that will come up, there will be no agreement. That burden then is rested upon all of our shoulders to make a good decision.

I wouldn't want this Council as a body going out and saying that we're mad at DeBartolo. I think he's doing exactly what he said he was going to do, that when this comes up one year from now, he had to make a decision. He had to make a decision within that one year's period of time that he would continue on. And if we held $12 million until he made a firm commitment for a five year contract with us. So we have $12 million sitting there in a loan that I hope is drawing interest, I'm sure it is, and the biggest problem before all of the bodies right now is what are we going to do about that loan that we took out because that should be exercised and something should be done to the Stadium or we're going to have to put it back in or put it to some other use.

There's a lot of discussion that has to go underway but I felt bad in the fact that sometimes we don't get that counsel but you have to assume that's a major corporation out there and they did it the way I think any major corporation that has 10,000 things going on at one time. They sent a letter of decision from the highest authority of the corporation, Mr. DeBartolo.

The Chair:

We don't like the way it was handled. They went to the news media and the Commissioners first and never consulted with the Mayor of this City or the Council or the Auditorium Authority before coming up with additional demands. Before they did that they should have negotiated with all the parties involved, like they did over a year ago. I think that's what Mr. Pollock is saying, that's what I said, and for us to sit here and talk about what kind of agreement they want in the future, it's useless because we don't know what it is. But I think if someone wants to make a statement here that we're mad, yeah, I'm mad at them, personally, for doing it the way they handled them.

Mr. DePasquale:

I merely wanted to say that my colleagues, Givens and Pollock, both made very good points and certainly what you said in the newspaper the other day was apropos. It's no secret that DeBartolo is a very good, close friend of mine. However, a year or so ago we changed that lease one time, supposedly. And then within a year they were to say whether they were going to stay five more years or not. Now they're more or less saying, "Give us another year." It's the old story, and I have to agree with Mark Pollock, ante up or else. It's a threatening gesture.

And as you said, there's no use talking about it now because the legislation is going to come up. I just felt that the remark should be made that when this does come up, I'm going to look very, very closely at it. Either they're going to go through with the five year agreement or perhaps maybe we shouldn't extend it another year.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to the same issue, I believe this Council and the Mayor acted in good faith a year ago with the Civic Arena Corporation. At that time, there was no mention of an extension after one year. Never was that talked about. I met privately with Mr. Martha and discussed this whole issue in great detail. We all know since that time we're probably faced with losing the soccer team here in the City of Pittsburgh unless somehow or another they can save it with someone buying the team and keeping it locally. We have lost something right there.

If they think they can come out and play hardball and say, "We need more money to stay" after they have met the attendance figures that they indicated they needed to meet, and they have been met in this City, attendance is up with that hockey team, if they think they can come out and play hardball and come to the taxpayer again to get more money, I think they're mistaken. And I know as one elected official, I certainly want to see hockey stay in this community but, at the same time, the community can't pay for it. The taxpayer of this City cannot pay for that franchise to exist here.

We made an effort, I think, in good faith a year ago and for the public to believe that we are going to do it again, and me, as one member of Council going to do it again, simply because the Commissioners have come out and said that there's going to be a one-year extension, that does not mean that this Councilmember is going to support a one-year extension.

Mrs. Masloff:

What are the terms of the one-year extension?

The Chair:

No one knows. That's why I'm saying it's useless for us to talk about it. No one knows. They had to give us a date by May 15th, after one year they would tell us whether they were staying for the whole five years or not. Now they're asking for another year on that. But that's why we have to wait to see what they have.

Now, before I lose this, I need a motion that our Wednesday meeting be at 2:00 p.m. rather than at 10:00 a.m. this coming Wednesday.

Mrs. Masloff:

So moved.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, we had some comments in the very beginning that came as an actual surprise to me when myself and my office had received the First Place Winner of the City Council Challenge '86 Pickup of Pittsburgh. But I could not go by without saying that there are some comments to be made and some of the people that made that possible. Naturally, Linda Noszka from my staff, Aggie Brose and June Coyne were all very instrumental in working very hard to see that come about. We have our Scoutmaster, Michael Murphy from 5530 Keystone Street who brought his troop in there. Assistant Scoutmaster and Coordinator, Thomas McGovern of 5154 Keystone Street. Scout Troop, Three Rivers District, Allegheny Trails Council, Troop 40 was very involved in it. These are young lads.

The point is, and the whole Clean City Committee, is to try to get the youth to change their habits, even if their parents might not change those habits. And these kids, some 12 or 14 of them, were very instrumental and worked for several hours along the Lawrenceville area. Jane Zalewski who is also from Lawrenceville. We have members from the Lawrenceville Development Corporation where we worked at to make them highly aware of what was happening down there and that's Mary Ann Ceoffe. Garfield resident, Larry Coyne and Garfield resident, Michael Hazel.

These are the people that went out there and got the brooms and the shovels and the pitchforks and really cleaned that particular area out. I'd like to bring this group in and make some comments in because part of that competition was to ask the people after they had cleaned up, what were some of their remarks. I think this Council as well as the Clean

City Committee and the Mayor would be interested in what some of these comments were of the young kids and the adults who helped make that part of the City clean. And I'll be very happy to distribute among the people who have worked with me the five litter cans that are at my disposal, the first time the City has ever given me anything other than my paycheck.

Mr. Grabowski:

I move to adjourn until Tuesday, May 27, 1986 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

And on the motion of Mr. Grabowski

Council adjourned.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, for all the members of Council, I think this is the last week of our Sargeant at Arms, Police Office Jack Hilson, and I'd like to have Jack come up here if we might, for a few words.

Jack, being our Sargeant at Arms has a great responsibility in protecting all of the people who come into our Council Chambers. We've had some serious incidents that have happened in the last couple of months and in fact the last couple of years and if you look over the country and what has happened in Philadelphia, Baltimore and others where elected officials have been, in fact, killed. So, a great burden of responsibility is in fact put on this wonderful person who has been working with this Council for some five years, I believe, right now.

Jack, one thing I don't know, how many years have you had with the Pittsburgh Police Department to this date?

Mr. Hilson:

Thirty-four years.

Mr. Givens:

Thirty-four years. Well I appreciate it and I'm sure other Councilmembers might have some words of wisdom to pass on to you and personally, myself and my family, especially want to offer you the best in retirement and don't spend all your money down at the race track in the first week.

Mr. DePasquale:

Were there some shootouts that I didn't hear about?

All kidding aside, Jack, it's been nice having you, believe me. It's going to be tough to see you go. You shouldn't go. You're not even 65 yet.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to ask Mr. Hilson a serious question prior to a comment. What do you think about the mandatory 65 retirement policy in the Police Department?

Mr. Hilson:

You have to go sooner or later so you might as well go now.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, I'd like to say, Mr. Hilson, I'd like to thank you for all you've done here. I know privately I kid and I joke with you a lot but I truly believe you've done an excellent job here in representing Council and the Bureau of Police of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Masloff:

I have a very serious comment too. I hope your wife is watching, Jack. All the girls in the office are lining up to kiss you goodbye.

Mr. Wagner:

One last comment. We hope that your golf game improves after retirement.

The Chair:

Jack, thank you for serving here and for being a Police Officer. Over the last five years we became personal friends and next week you will get that dinner I owe you.

Mr. Hilson:

Thank you.

Mr. Givens:

I have a couple quick subjective matters. One, on the Sooners football think, Jack, have you sent any information out on that?

The Chair:

It's going to be coming up tomorrow.

Mr. Wagner:

I still have not seen your memo. You indicated last Wednesday that you sent a memo to me of which I have not received a copy.

Mr. Givens:

It was hand-delivered to your office so I'm sure it's there. But that's beside the point. I think the information that was asked for is still on the table and hopefully we can have that information.

Mr. Wagner:

If you would like I can give you the contacts, the officers of the group and you can personally contact them.

Mr. Givens:

That is not the point. The point is I think you have to have -- How are they going to spend this money? Have they submitted anything in writing --

The Chair:

Can I interrupt you for one second? All they have to do is sign a contract with Parks and Recreation and that's who handles it. That's all they have to do.

Mr. Givens:

But my points over a week ago were still the same points that for any of us to sign anything, we should have some type of a listing of how they're going to spend it, if they're going to spend it on officials, clothing. What are they going to spend it on?

The Chair:

They do that, Mr. Givens. We can discuss this tomorrow because all they have to do, they submit it to Parks and Recreation because that's where the grant is coming from. It's coming from us but through Parks and Recreation and they sign a contract to that effect.

Mr. Wagner:

Well Mr. President, I would just like to mention that the memo I have not yet seen and I would like you to please give me a copy of it.

Mr. Givens:

I will.

Mr. Wagner:

Seeing that the bill is coming up tomorrow, Councilman Givens, at your request, I suspect we'll have to hold it again another week because I don't know what information you're requesting. I'm sure it's obtainable, though, whatever it is.

Mr. Givens:

Jack, I'll make it real easy. I'll send you a copy of the original memo. I sent one to Mike Perry and then we rewrote it and sent it directly to Jack himself. Just for the information.

Secondly, and this has to go both to Jack Wagner and to Mark Pollock on the Castriota situation. Could you brief this Councilman right now as to what is happening because tomorrow again we're going to have to vote on this thing. The people have been in my office today saying that we, this Councilman, was not participating and the last thing that was happening when we left this particular bill and it's referred week to week to week, generally there's some negotiations hopefully going on. Are those negotiations still going on and where do we stand because tomorrow this bill comes up again and if it's going to be held a week we have to know what is happening. Is there any movement, any direction going back and forth on the issue?

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, do you care to comment or do you want to wait until tomorrow?

Mr. Pollock:

I'll have some information for tomorrow.

The Chair:

I think that's where we should discuss it, at the Committee Meeting when we discuss all of our bills.

Mr. Givens:

Fine but I'd like to know that information.

Thirdly, I need to have some people come in here, Mr. President, and I ask any of you people to go out and look at what is happening in Polish Hill and the Bloomfield Bridge, the undermining that's happening in that particular project out there. I tried to discuss with various members and I feel, and the fact that I have been out there, looked at it, and my office has been out there attending meetings with the Polish Hill people for this is a subjective matter, that I have to have tomorrow the people from the Department of Public Works, Engineering and Construction, the Planning Department, the Mayor's Office, the Water Department, because they have some problems. If this bridge doesn't go, they have a roadway underneath there, Melwood, which is subsiding in some areas. They've had several major water breaks out there, the road is sliding, etc. Underneath the bridge itself, there is undermining, there's extensive water damage, major slabs on concrete have been absolutely just forced right up and you can see two or three feet underneath them. And this is all impacting downhill on the next member of the bridge which I'm sure in time will cause that structure to move vertically somehow. Also in there, Mike, if we could have someone from our Law Department because we're under a contractual relationship right here, to get someone from the Law Department to find out which way we're going to go.

My whole point in bringing this particular group together is to try to get some resolve out there. I know the contractor is responsible but if we wait until this thing goes into litigation, I would submit to this Council and to the Administration and to the Engineering Department and everyone else that we might not have a Bloomfield Bridge opening up. That's how great the undermining is as I observed it over this past weekend.

Next subject, very quickly, Mr. President, is the Saw Mill Run. There's a hole in the sidewalk out there. Again, when I have this particular group here, minus maybe the Water Department -- Excuse me, Mike, one other person to contact in that Bloomfield Bridge and that is the contractor that was responsible for putting up the pile-ons and the concrete slabs underneath. Someone from that contractor should be here to represent that particular company.

With Saw Mill Run, the hole in the ground, all the other parties should be involved also. I'll put them both together minus the Water Department and the contractor. They won't be needed for that meeting. Again, we have holes, gaping holes, and walkways along the Saw Mill Run corridor and out in the Overbrook area of the City of Pittsburgh, one where people can actually fall through underneath to the water, the creek down below. It is City property and I'm not getting the type of action and the response that we should get. So, hopefully, that will be talked about at the same particular post agenda.

That's all I have, Mr. President, with the exception of this weekend was Memorial Day Weekend and it was a great one. The weather held up, as we can see out there today. The St. Mary's Allegheny Cemetery Parade was one of the finest in the country. Steve Grabowski was the main speaker at St. Mary's and he gave a very eloquent speech and represented this Council here and I was very proud of him at that particular ceremony and the fact that I do march in that every year. We had a fly-over by the 112th Air National Guard unit out there and they do a great job of waking up all the people around 11:35 every day.

Hands Across America was another event that we had in the City. I participated in it out at the Oakland area along Devonshire and it was a wonderful affair. Our Police Department as well as the coordinators of the parades did, I think, a bang-up job and I think they're to be commended. And the people of the City of Pittsburgh are to be commended and how they turned out and how our media had covered that particular event within the City. As many people indicated, the $10 is not going to stop poverty. Everyone was aware of that. But what it did to me and to the people who were out there, it highlighted the fact that, yes, there are people out there, some 20 million people they say in this country go to bed without food in their stomach. I have to assume that some of those people live right here in this City. So what are we going to do about it in this Council to find out who those people are.

And there's 1.5 million people that are homeless that don't even have a roof over their heads and we know that that situation is happening out there as we see what is referred to as the bag people on the main Downtown streets in the City of Pittsburgh and they're still eating out of our garbage cans and that has been witnessed by this Councilman. I know those people are hard to work with in some cases but we have a responsibility as the elected officials in this Council to move forward on that and I know it's not a normal area that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh gets involved in, but who then takes up this slack of people when they're not eating properly? Sure it's the State, sure it's the Federal Government, sure it's the Allegheny County Commissioners, etc., but someplace we have to sit down because none of us, I don't think, would want to go to bed ourselves with our stomachs growling. And I don't think we want this to happen with any of the people here within the City of Pittsburgh and maybe, Mr. President, we could set up at least a commission to look into it. How serious is the problem, if we have a problem, here within the City of Pittsburgh, and I'm sure we do in some of our more deprived areas.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I know it's a serious matter but over in Hazelwood I was asked to speak in Italian yesterday. I was just wondering if Steve spoke in Polish at St. Mary's.

Mr. Pollock:

Two things. I think as long as we're recounting the weekend we should also not neglect to cover the Children's Festival on the Northside which was a great success, the Folk Festival which is an annual event, and my next door neighbor had a picnic and I think that was a big success too.

We're scheduled to have a post agenda tomorrow and I understand Michelle had some surgery. Has that been cancelled, do you know?

The Chair:

Who asked for the post?

Mr. Pollock:

It was Michelle's post agenda.

The Chair:

It's cancelled.

Mr. Pollock:

It was supposed to be on the McCordle Roadway.

The Chair:

It's cancelled.

Mrs. Masloff moved to excuse Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd just like to say a few words before we let John speak. I was very fortunate to attend his retirement party yesterday where Mr. Hilson and the entire Hilson family attended and many of his friends and neighbors. It was a fantastic time.

Jack, we're going to miss you and I think if anyone is going to miss you it's going to be me because not only were you the Sergeant at Arms here but we're close friends. So, I wish you well.

Mr. Hilson:

Jack, I want to thank you for this honor along with all the other Councilpersons. I want to say that the five years I did spend here were very enjoyable years. I've learned a lot and I've met a lot of nice people, people that I'll remember for a long time. I just told my replacement there that he'll fit right in because they're all great people here and they accept you as one of them.

My years with the Pittsburgh Police have been good years. I enjoyed every minute of it. It was something that I always wanted to do and I had the chance to fulfill that and I thank the good Lord every day for that and for giving me my health and a good family to back me up.

Again, I want to say thank you very much for this honor.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to say that I'm glad he never had to physically evict me when I was fined and I want to personally thank you for the day that I broke my arm and you took your belt and kept my arm from moving. I want to know, did you get your belt back or do I owe you for it?

Mr. Hilson:

I got the belt back.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I'd hate for you to lose your trousers.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward from last Wednesday's meeting on Bill No. 829 for the record please.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 829 -
WEDNESDAY, 5/28/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Director, I am also happy to see this legislation come in front of us and the sooner we can get this accomplished, the better off we are going to be and the cheaper it is for the taxpayers.

I don't think there is any doubt about it, all recommendations made in regard to street lighting should be done; going back to the audit performed by the Controller's Office, I know our department put together an extensive report a year ago working with your department, working with the Mayor's people and all of the evidence indicates that this is the right way to go. The cost of electricity is going to continue to increase and obviously, to reduce the amount of electricity used in street lighting, is the way to go with the conversion program.

I would simply request that in pursuing this, that we have had complaints from various residents throughout the City for the need for a street light in a particular area or one that has been changed from a particular area, moved to another area. I would simply request that all of those complaints be incorporated into this conversion program to re-assure those people that the proper illumination is being given on the streets where they live and in the neighborhood where they live. I don't know if you have a list of all those complaints, but I have quite a few of them myself and I would just simply request that they be incorporated specially into this conversion program.

Director Gaetano:

They all will be incorporated, Jack. I will make sure of that.

Mr. Wagner:

Good, thank you.

(END OF REMARKS)

Also,

Bill No. 830

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto Peoples Natural Gas Company, their successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at their own cost and expense, Four (4) Vaults to replace existing vaults on a portion of the sidewalks of Beechwood Boulevard, Aylesboro Avenue, Reynolds Street, and So. Linden Street in the 14th Ward, City of Pittsburgh."

Dithridge Street in the 4th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask my colleague a question, Mr. President?

The Chair:

Yes you may.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pollock, on Bill No. 842, does that require a public hearing on the Podiatry Hospital?

Mr. Pollock:

No, that's a conditional use; no public hearing on a conditional use.

Michelle Madoff:

Who has determined that, that they don't need a hearing?

Mr. Pollock:

The City Code.

Michelle Madoff:

There's no problem on that?

The Chair:

Right.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 845, you've not been here, for years that Phoenix Shopping Center has come back to haunt us and haunt us and haunt us. It's just never been a go. What are we planning to do now that will be different than what we've done before and how much money has been poured in there to date?

Mr. Pollock:

What's different this time is that this is a joint effort between the non-profit Neighborhood Development Corporation, the Hill District Community Development Corporation, and a private individual, a Mr. John Conley who is an attorney and a real estate developer and a professor. They are going to be operating the facility themselves; they'll be leasing it themselves. They have obtained tenants already and I can tell you that they obtained the State Liquor Control Board as a tenant and the Post Office as a tenant. Those are two very, very liable, long-term leases. The Post Office and the Liquor Control Board aren't going anywhere so, with those two mainstays along with the supermarket which they will be supporting -- And they've had a study done to show how the supermarket could better maintain itself in the community, what products it should buy, what products it should not buy. They had an intensive study done that is going to be used to support the store now and the whole community is behind it and I think I, for one, as well as people at the Authority and people in the neighborhood are very, very optimistic that this will be the last time that Hill Phoenix ever comes before us, that the Hill Phoenix Shopping Center will be a viable plaza. They have a good developer who is going to be handling the management of it. It's going to be a good operation.

Michelle Madoff:

I, for one, and I'm sure all my colleagues, are so tired of seeing that Phoenix Shopping Center fail when they so desperately need it in the community and we'd like to see it go. But if memory serves me well, this Council has voted hundreds of thousands of dollars into that project which has continuously failed.

I would like to see an amendment put into this bill that says that this is the last time Council will fund this project.

Mr. Pollock:

Michelle, we're not funding anything here. We're not putting any of our money into it. It's being sold.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, you know, I wasn't here when it was --

Mr. Pollock:

That's okay --

Michelle Madoff:

But I see $150,000 being located to the Third Ward. I believe that is repayment to us of monies that we have put out of UDAG dollars. I'm assuming we're just recycling the money. You can say that we're not making a contribution but, in essence, it is our money they're recontributing.

Mr. Pollock:

This is the sale of the property to this joint venture, the private entity and the neighborhood corporation.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm saying to you, if somebody wanted to buy that property and nothing was going to happen to the City, we'd be getting that money back. So, in essence, we're just recycling the money and I have no problem with that. But I want to say "no more" after this, that you cannot come back to the City of Pittsburgh and say, "Phoenix Shopping Center, Phoenix Shopping Center, Phoenix Shopping Center". You know, some ideas work, some ideas don't work. I hope this works; I know every member of this Council hopes it works. And if there's anything we can do to make it work, let's do it. But at some point we've got to say --

Let me ask you a question. I don't want to hold the bill, Mr. Pollock, and I don't think you want to either. Am I correct?

Mr. Pollock:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

Does anybody from the Budget Office know, off the top of their heads, ballpark, how much money has been put into the Phoenix project to date?

Mr. DePasquale:

I think the figure is over $2 million.

Michelle Madoff:

Over $2 million?

The Chair:

That's from the URA, not the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

But it's all the same money. It's over $2 million. I have no problem. I don't care if they want another half million dollars. I don't even care if it's a million that you give them if that's what they need. But it should be okay, we're behind you, we're with you, let's do it, but if it doesn't work, please, let's put some townhouses on that property, let's put whatever else, maybe a park. Let's do something but let's not keep coming back for that money to this committee.

So, my recommendation is that we have an amendment to say that it's the last time it will come to Council for money for this.

Mr. Pollock:

I don't believe that we can bind future Councils from action.

The Chair:

We can't do that but I think he explained it quite well that you've got the United States Post Office, you've got the State Liquor Control Board, and when they come in, they sign leases that they're there to stay. And I think now it will finally happen.

Michelle Madoff:

But you know we've had shopping centers there over and over and over again.

The Chair:

Not this type of —

Michelle Madoff:

Let me ask you one last question then, on the same subject.

What kind of security is going to be supplied? That was the whole key to this thing. That's why it didn't work before.

The Chair:

Are you talking about personal security?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, body, you know, personal.

The Chair:

That's up to the developer.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pollock, do you know anything about that?

Mr. Pollock:

That was never brought up.

Michelle Madoff:

But that's why it didn't work before. It became a haven for whatever problems because there was no security.

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, in accordance with what Michelle has said, they had proposed, if I may ask Mark, a Post Office and a liquor store five years ago there. What held that up?

Mr. Pollock:

I don't know what held it up before but they have signed leases now.

Mr. DePasquale:

Since Mr. Conley moved into the picture they got the money?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mrs. Masloff presented

Bill No. 928

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for May 28, 1986 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 779

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the South Side Sooners Youth Football Program for professional services for 1986 at a cost not to exceed $2,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1838 Miscellaneous Services, (Index Code 183806) Department of Parks and Recreation, and transferring $2,000.00 from Code Account 10, Accounts Payable Prior Years (Index Code 001008) to Code Account 1838 Miscellaneous Services (Index Code 183806)."

---(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to request that my comments be brought forward from last Wednesday's meeting in regard to Bill No. 779.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 779 -
WEDNESDAY, 5/28/86)

Mr. Wagner:

The information that has been passed around, I know Mr. Givens requested it. I am not sure if that is sufficient, but I would just like to add to that that this program is a very worthy program. It's one of the two programs left in the City of Pittsburgh. In addition to the granting of these dollars, the organization itself goes out and raises several thousand dollars through raffles, through donations within the community each year and it really relates, I think, to what this Council wants to do in the neighborhoods, which is to provide recreational types of activities to various youth groups within those communities.

It certainly attacks many of the problems we have in the City and exists in this country which relate to loitering, which relates to narcotics which relates to many other things. I firmly believe that the dollars here proposed in this legislation will be well spent by the City of Pittsburgh.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to thank the President of the Sooner Football Team for forwarding the information to myself and has distributed to Councilmembers last Wednesday on how this $2000 will be expended. It was most appreciated.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 929

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for May 28, 1986 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 848

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 744 and No. 952 and approved respectively August 15, 1979 and September 24, 1982, No. 744 entitled 'Resolution creating a Special Trust Fund for the Receipt and Disbursement of funds for Training and Related Expenses for Police Recruits, and providing for the deposit of the funds in a bank account;' amended by No. 952 to include Disbursement for In-service Training Trust Fund: By altering the designation of the trust fund created and amending and authorizing additional payments into and out of such trust fund and by renaming the trust account the 'Public Safety Training Account'".

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to make a motion to put that bill back into Committee.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask the reason why?

Mr. Wagner:

Due to the lack of information of the bill that I have attempted to obtain.

Michelle Madoff:

No problem. Just asking.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mrs. Masloff presents

No. 930 Resolution approving the appointment of George Henry Kniss, 2177 Whited Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15210 for the remainder of a three-year term to expire December 31, 1987, as an at-large member of the Pittsburgh Cable Communications Advisory Committee.

Mrs. Masloff moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Before we go on, the resolution that was going to be presented by Mr. Givens has been withdrawn by Mr. Givens.

Michelle Madoff:

I have two resolutions, Mr. Chairman. The first one I would appreciate if Mr. Perry would read, please, and I'd like to comment on it after he reads it.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 932 WHEREAS, elected officials of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and its political subdivisions are currently excluded from protection afforded to all other employees under the Pennsylvania Workmen's Compensation Act and the Pennsylvania Occupational Disease Act; and

WHEREAS, such an exclusion makes elected officials in our state and local governments vulnerable to serious problems of occupational health and safety;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh petitions the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to amend the Pennsylvania Workmen's Compensation Act of June 2, 1915, P.L. 736, Article I, Section 104, as amended, and the Pennsylvania Occupational Disease Act of June 21, 1939, P.L. 566, No. 284, Section 104, as amended, to include the presently excluded "elected officers of the Commonwealth or any of its political subdivisions";

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this amendment be specifically applicable to elected officers of Cities of the first and second class.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Comment. No one knew, including myself, that elected officials were exempt from Workmen's Comp because you know we get deductions every week for almost everything. If I'm not mistaken, I think our paychecks even show a deduction for Workmen's Comp; I'm not quite sure about that. But we're deducted for everything like everybody else is who works in jobs.

Very simply stated that if our President, Mr. Woods, were to have an accident that disabled him for life, he would really be up a creek. He would not get anything but his medical bills which, by law, must be reimbursed should he have a claim against, in a lawsuit, but he would not have any of his bills or his salary or anything paid for the rest of his life. If he could not work, if he was paralyzed, it would just be too bad.

The reason this bill was passed this way originally, and we've done a little research and I must thank Mr. Pollock for putting me in the right direction, was that originally there were small communities that meet twice a year, they have a borough president and maybe three people on the City Council and if those people were to be injured on the job there was no justification out of Workmen's Comp for people who work maybe 20 hours a year or five weeks a year or what have you. But unfortunately, because of that thinking, the first and second class cities, meaning cities like Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, were exempting elected officials from Workmen's Comp. What would happen is that we would not have sue to protect ourselves. In other words, our bills would be paid, our medical bills, and if our $40 million, we now have over $40 million in Workmen's Comp that go to firemen and policemen and City employees who have been hurt on the job, secretaries, people who have tripped over wires where tables have been removed; I know of once instance myself. People like Eddie Albert who left the City who had heart problems, on Workmen's Comp. One of our major employees and one of our Public Works Department is going in for a quadruple bypass. He's taking three months off; he may not return. I certainly hope he's well enough to return. He needs covered under Workmen's Comp. But the City of Pittsburgh elected officials are not covered and if we were hurt on the job and had no other income, no other pensions from any other sources or other employment, we would really be in very, very bad shape.

And for the public who may not know, I've been on this Council almost eight years. As a matter of fact, my anniversary, folks, is June 1st. I'm now eligible for the grand pension of $4000 a year. And that's probably a lot more than most people would get working eight years in a job so I am not complaining, I'm just saying that I don't think anybody can live on $4000 a year and if you have to live on $4000 a year without Workmen's Comp, if you've been a dedicated, decent employee, if the public saw fit to elect you, I think we should have the same kind of coverage that corporation executives have. Do you know that many presidents and board members of major companies are resigning because they can't get protection insurance and that they are liable for mistakes banks make or companies make?

In essence, I'm saying that we elected officials should have the same insurance that if Mr. Givens has to have heart surgery and is out, it takes $15,000 in salary which I think he's entitled to because he was elected — the pressure of the job, as he told the television cameras, caused him to have great problems with his heart — that if Mr. Givens could not work and did not have a pension from the service and didn't have real estate holdings, that Mr. Givens should be covered under Workmen's Comp as any other City employee. And I'm using his name because Mr. Givens is the one who objected to my having those who put me in office pay my bill. And I should not be put in the position of having to rebut to both newspapers and still be negotiating with my attorney as to what further action I will be taking because there will be further action.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, there are two problems with Michelle's resolution. Number one, under the present time, the elected officials of the state of Pennsylvania are paid a salary and they're paid whether they're there or not, as long as they're excused for their absence by their colleagues.

The other is that you couldn't very well single out the City of Pittsburgh and the Councilpeople, if not all the elected officials in the state of Pennsylvania. You couldn't just pass a bill or a law stating only Pittsburgh and not all the rest of the elected officials in the state.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond on that point, please? Mr. DePasquale, your point is very well taken. That's why it is worded to include all employees. I believe the wording says all other employees under Workmen's — all elected officials, those that are excluded to be included. In other words we would not single out Pittsburgh because Philadelphia is a first class city and we are a second class city. To have all first and second class, all elected officials included. And you're absolutely right. And if that is not clear I'm not married to my words and that can be clarified. This is a wish. We're asking to petition the state of Pennsylvania Legislature to include all elected officials of first and second class cities, not the little boroughs and townships who should not be included.

Mr. Givens:

I could start indicating all the disabilities that I had but I think the newspapers might have a good field day with it in my next election so I'll refrain from indicating what some of those disabilities were but they were numerous, after three combat missions and three tours, etc., Viet Nam twice and to Thailand along with certain Central and South America and over in the Congo that this country is just beginning to publish right now because it was a classified mission and I can't even discuss it here today.

I didn't say yes or no on this particular resolution and the fact, I think it has rather legal implications to it, not just simply to the legislative body of the state of Pennsylvania to say yes, they can do it or no, they can't do it. Hopefully, the author of this particular resolution would hold it. Really what I need is some information from our Legal Department as to what are some of the ramifications to saying yes to this bill or saying no to it. I need more information and this resolution before us, it's like voting for something in the blind, without knowing everything about it.

Yes, there is a bit of a problem on the one hand. On the other hand, all elected officials in the City of Pittsburgh, if they incur any type of injury while they're an elected official and on the job especially, that individual is compensated through disability retirement, the same retirement that I've gotten from the Federal Government. Elected officials also are compensated under the City of Pittsburgh to my knowledge.

The one thing that threw me a curve ball the other day was that I thought that to retire from the City of Pittsburgh one had to have eight years, at least municipal employees which we kind of come under their umbrella. But the Solicitor for the City so indicated it takes ten years to be able to get a disability pension and that's something that possibly this Council could rectify itself. I think when anybody gets injured in this City, to my knowledge, only the policemen and the firemen and possibly the medics, I'm not sure, have, if they get injured, that they're covered for compensation or retirement, disability retirement. Some of the municipal employees, I don't think, have that same guarantee.

So, it is an area that should be explored and can be explored and I think Michelle is just beginning to open that door to possible situations that not only we as elected officials can get into but also I think some of our municipal employees are falling through the crack. And even beyond that, many of wives of the men who serve and now the women who serve, the families are not being compensated in many cases if a person is killed on the job. Take a garbage person, for example, who got run over over there in the Northside. His family was not compensated. Yes, a little compensation, but nothing to take care of the wife and the widow and the children of the deceased member. And that is something that I think this Council should be looking into and very seriously. But it costs a lot of money too.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to respond to my colleague that when I drafted the bill I called Mr. Danny Pellegrini and the attorney who was assigned to the case. We were referred back to Mr. Pellegrini who had absolutely no problem with the bill.

The bill says very simply that we're petitioning the Pennsylvania Legislature to include working major bodies of all cities to cover all elected officials, not little townships and not little boroughs that meet occasionally, the Philadelphia and the Pittsburgh type cities that are excluded when the elected officials do not have Workmen's Comp. And it is a matter of record, and I can give you the names of the people who were not firemen or policemen who were secretaries of aides who tripped and who have been completely out of work for years, cannot function at all, cannot get jobs. It has been devastating and they are collecting, I believe, two-thirds of their salary tax exempt.

I do not know of any policy that would cover a member of Council who has served for eight years. I don't know if there's one that covers you for ten years. My understanding is that there is nothing on Workmen's Comp that covers any elected official, the reason being, Mr. Givens, that in San Francisco, for example, when they went in and shot an official, a City Council member. City Councilpeople are frequently like Mayors, and we've talked, I believe our President of Council, in our meetings, as you know, we have talked about having some kind of security detectors of people coming in the room because people sometimes misunderstand who passes bills and who has the authority to enact those bills.

All I'm saying is that no member of this Council should ever again have the humiliation and embarrassment, after being pictured in the hospital, being carried out of here by the paramedics, of having a columnist say that I am bilking the City taxpayers out of $15,000 and they'll remember that when I run again, and not in the marathon. That is libelous and it would never have happened if we were covered under Workmen's Comp because there would be no need to have a settlement.

Furthermore, sir, when you receive your medical monies for disability, Blue Cross and Blue Shield's money must be reimbursed. It says so on your bill, once you have a claim settled, whether it is a private claim or a workmen's compensation claim. They are reimbursed. But, when I go to a doctor in Washington, D.C., a special clinic, sent by my doctor for special therapy and they charge $90, there is no reimbursement. When I go to my physician on an out-patient basis, there is no reimbursement. When I went twice for therapy on my neck and arm, there was no reimbursement. The chances that on a break you will have arthritis is practically 90 to 99 percent; there will be no reimbursement.

I believe that we ought to be covered and we ought to petition the Legislators to cover us under Workmen's Comp and we should not be treated separately and apart and look like, as Mr. Ferlo and those political enemies of this Council would like to make us look, like freeloaders and like thieves and like we're trying to take advantage of people because attorneys have come up to me in the street and said, "I would be happy to testify for you at any time; what you're settling for is ridiculously low." And I don't think that's the issue before us; I just wanted to get it out of the way and I've been made to look like the most horrendous person in this world and it's only the thing you did, that if they think it's bad they remember. They don't remember that you light garages or that you get money for paramedics; the things that you do is always the negatives. And I urge this Council to take a stand right here and now because this is a wish bill, to just vote that we petition the Legislators to include us in Workmen's Comp. And I call for the vote.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in understanding this resolution, I believe that it's very proper, I think it's very timely, and again, I think our state is behind the times in not having legislation of this type. It took a situation on this Council where we had a judgment in front of us and we were sitting almost as the trial and the jury. And I don't believe anyone on this Council is capable of doing that. I believe that should be done by the Worker's Compensation people in the state. I believe they should determine if someone should receive just payment for an injury and I think that's what our colleague is trying to accomplish here. She's trying to say that we should have a state law that covers all employees and does not exclude elected officials.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, it has no bearing on the legislation or the resolution that Michelle prepared but she hit on the fact that in San Francisco a Councilperson and the Mayor were killed in the Council Chambers. They call them Superintendents or whatever over there but they're still Councilpeople.

I said some time ago, and I kid around a lot but I was serious about the matter, that day that we had the infamous hearing when we saw Ferlo dragged out of here, one of the people at the hearing left the room and was found to carry a gun. Now, when I said to the policeman, "I understand he had a gun" he said, "Yes, but he had a permit." Then he came over and apologized and said, "I'm sorry; obviously he could still use it if he has a permit or whatever."

I mention then a screener for hearings right at that door there and that door here, and check everybody coming in and if anybody has a weapon it will show up on that screen. I'm very serious about it. It's going to be too late if some nut gets in here and starts shooting. What are they going to do about it then?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. DePasquale, if you would introduce that as a motion I would be happy to support you in it.

But I'm asking to have a vote on my bill and I'd like to say one last thing if I may be so indulged because I think what I've been put through I think I'm entitled to say this.

If it had been an elderly woman or man who is fragile who tripped on that wire that had water or Coke or something on it with no barrier and, as you know, our cable company came in before the three commercial networks 2, 4, and 11 and showed how they corrected their problem, admitting that it was gross negligence. That person could have been killed and it would not be a matter of a $15,000 claim or whatever the claim will be; it could be a matter of something of greater magnitude and someone could have been really hurt grievously. Fortunately, I have most of the use of my arm; I have residual problems which as yet are undetermined. But I really think that we ought to take it as my colleague, Mr. Wagner, said, out of this arena and put it where it belongs, either in Workmen's Comp -- I have taken the advice of my colleagues and even that of Mr. Ferlo so I would not be put through a three ring circus and have to hire attorneys and lawyers to come and attend a public hearing that he called for that I couldn't even attend, as my attorney would not let me be present. So, I would urge you to vote for this bill.

Mr. Givens:

I had asked the author of the bill if she would hold this for a week or two weeks and I put that in the form of the motion and for the reason, Mr. President, that I need to really get some legal advice on this particular thing for this reason: As a legislator and working with the Pennsylvania Workmen's Compensation Act, the same with any elected official, we are in office for a specific period of time and as a result we are not classified as an employee of the City of Pittsburgh although we get other benefits, rights and benefits of the City. But as elected officials, all of us, including the State elected officials, have a termination of office and Workmen's Compensation is something for a person that has a career, generally speaking, in a particular field of operation or a particular field of industry. I don't think that the Legislators can be put in that or do I feel, and this is off the shoulder, that I don't think the Legislators of the State of Pennsylvania want to get into this thing because now they're legislating their own type of protection which they will get. And generally that's not a good position to put an elected official in who must go back to the people.

As I've indicated here earlier, this City does compensate elected officials if they are injured on the job with a certain amount of years in as an elected officials. They can go on disability retirement. That is the safeguard that any elected official has. If they're injured seriously enough or if that injury is such that we feel that we'll have disability before our term expires, that individual then must resign because of that disability and then take whatever disability the City and the Pension Board would so offer him like any organization.

The Compensation Act is something I don't think that the elected officials should be under and that's why I ask the author to hold this for a week, but in doing so, Mr. President, you have to ask that the second be withdrawn and that the maker of the motion hold it for two weeks. Otherwise, I cannot vote on this today as presented.

Mr. Grabowski seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not withdrawing my motion and the reason for it is, I will repeat, Mr. Givens and I'm looking around the room and I guess Mr. DePasquale are the only other two people --

The Chair:

I said no more debating.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, sir. All I'm saying is that they have been here 12 years and many people don't work in jobs for 12 years.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Pollock
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Wagner
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. Woods
	(Pres't)

AYES 6 NOES 1

(MR. GRABOWSKI VOTING NO)

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to ask Mr. Tom Breucken to please join me.

I want everybody to know that this award is being given to Mr. Breucken and not to Mr. McNamara and Mr. John Marotto who were present with him during this episode that we're going to talk about and if I read the resolution you'll understand why. Mr. McNamara was present, Mr. John Marotto of Public Works was present, but the person who saved the day was Mr. Breucken.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 931 WHEREAS, on May 16, 1986, the Borough of Brackenridge experienced a major blockage in their water system; and

WHEREAS, 15-20 tons of debris in the line prevented water from being pumped to their residential and industrial users; and

WHEREAS, due to a system of interconnecting valves, this problem jeopardized the water supply of fourteen communities in the Alle-Kiski Valley; and

WHEREAS, the Secretary-Manager of Brackenridge Borough called upon the City of Pittsburgh for assistance in restoring the pumping system; and

WHEREAS, at midnight, Mr. J. Thomas Breucken of the City of Pittsburgh Water Department, with over thirty-one years of field experience, used his technical and engineering expertise in the area of hydraulics; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Breucken thereby solved the problem of an inoperable priming system by adding an adjunct gas pump to the major pump to create the necessary suction for the pump to resume operation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognize and honor Mr. J. Thomas Bruecken as having performed as a Goodwill Ambassador for the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I personally want to thank you very, very much for using your knowledge and I also am thrilled that the people who didn't know how to do the job had enough smarts to call on you.

Mr. Breucken:

I appreciate this honor, of course, and I thank everybody for your interest, especially Michelle Madoff and her interest in the Water Department's activities. This is something I've been doing and it's very embarrassing to have an award for something that we normally do but I'm very happy to be a representative of the City of Pittsburgh and the Department of Water as a Goodwill Ambassador as goodwill in the surrounding area. Thank you very much for everything.

Mr. Pollock:

On the same subject. Is it true the Borough of Brackenridge is changing it's name to the Borough of Breuckenridge because of it?

Mr. DePasquale:

Congratulations, Tom.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I withdrew my resolution on the storm that hit over the weekend, especially Friday evening, that devastated many of our northern suburbs. I'm sure that many of us probably know some of the people personally that were affected in this great tragedy where eight lives had been mournfully lost, two still unidentified to my knowledge, and over 700 homes and 100 businesses really inundated out there.

I will be coming in with some type of a bill working through the Salvation Army people who have been really doing an excellent job out there. I visited the sites, a couple of the sites, over the weekend and the volunteers of the people in those communities, the volunteer Fire Department and the Police Department, it was absolutely wonderful to see them out there. As always, the local people have to take up the brunt of it until the various other agencies can respond. Looking at the Etna people and the Shaler people and the people along that Saxonburg Creek area, it was something that when you see neighbors and friends pitching in — I know the Blarney Stone out there, Tommy O'Donahoe, and they were supposed to have a wedding out there, one of the members of our staff was even in that building when the water raised up. He had calmed those people down. People were being rescued by boats, etc.

It's something when the full story comes out on that particular disaster, we're going to have many heroes and a lot of heroes will never be recognized and I hope that the City of Pittsburgh and this Council can make some contribution as we did previously in Hurricane Agnes when it came through here and we helped out the Salvation Army who does not charge for any services that they give out. It's only through those donations to the Salvation Army, and when something of this magnitude comes up with this many people affected in a small geographical area, they deplete their funds very quickly.

So, I will re-introduce this in the form of a bill later on next week. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

I'd like to remind all members of Council that we have a meeting in our Conference Room immediately following the adjournment of this meeting.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 979 WHEREAS, on May 31, 1986, Randy Zotter, President of the Mexican War Streets Society and Vice President of the Central North Side

Neighborhood Council responded to cries for help of a young woman outside his home on Monterey Street; and

WHEREAS, Randy saw the young woman being accosted by two assailants who had her pinned to the ground and were taking her purse and rings; and

WHEREAS, Randy Zotter, himself a man of slight build but enormous courage and heart, ran to the woman's rescue, and as a result of his interceding, the culprits abandoned their assault; and

WHEREAS, during his gallant rescue, Randy sustained numerous and significant injuries to and about his body necessitating his treatment at a hospital; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his bravery, Randy Zotter further demonstrated his citizen participation and community activism by prevailing upon the somewhat reluctant young woman to press charges against the assailants.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh joins with the citizens of Pittsburgh in recognizing and honoring Randy for his courage, concern, and compassion; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that City Council cites Randy Zotter as an example of a citizen who "gets involved" and hopes that citizens of this great City "get involved", although they do not have to risk life and limb to do so.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I just wanted to say that Michelle was going to similarly recognize Randy for his heroism being not only a Councilperson but a citizen who similarly gets involved and stops and helps people in the street. I just beat her to the punch on this by a couple of hours.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to say that Randy Zotter has been involved in community efforts for a very, very long time and this is not just the first time that he has done something heroic. He's taken very strong positions; sometimes Council has agreed with him, sometimes not. But he comes back and he works with us and gets into the system and tries to change the system rather than trying to beat on us from without and I really appreciate that. He doesn't get himself carried out of this room very often.

Thank you, Randy, for being a real good citizen.

Mr. Givens:

Mark, I was right behind Michelle, I think, on this. I found out naturally when he was in here this last week giving testimony. And naturally, with a black eye, one must ask the question why. My staff found out why and I commend you because this is what it takes, for people to be involved with our society. And you don't know what risk is involved out there. I take my hat off to you, Randy, for a fine job. Being of small stature and wanting to take on anybody in this life means that you're not afraid. When people are being abused our people have great concern out there and I think this is a type of an award that this City Council is proud to give to any of its citizens, especially you. Thank you.

Mr. Zotter:

Mr. President, Councilman Pollock, members of Council, I'm honored to stand here before you and receive this award. For me, I was only doing what I was raised to do. I am very lucky I have parents who took the time to teach me things such as compassion and understanding and the idea of getting involved. So, when I went out there, I was just doing what all of you are capable of doing and I think all of you will do some time in your life when something such as this happens.

There are people out there who do this every single day and they happen to be called Police Officers. Those officers take the time; we have on the Northside, officers who get involved with us. Chief Donald Albrecht has taken the time to work with us and many, many times has kept the community going when we wanted to step back and say, "This is too much for us."

My parents just took the time to teach me and show me that it's important to get involved and to help whenever we can. And, frankly, the only thing I think is that I forgot to duck.

Members of Council, we do think that they will be apprehended and we're pushing for that sort of thing. That's where community involvement comes in and we have to keep working on that. And I guess through Council and the Mayor's Office, this City will continue to improve because of the neighborhoods and the way the neighborhoods are organized through places such as the Neighborhoods for Living Centers and all of you taking the time to meet with us and discuss issues.

So, Council, thank you very much.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Zotter, I just want to say that I'm very relieved you didn't get that black eye from Tom Mistick.

The Chair:

Thanks, Randy.

Mr. Givens presents

No. 978 WHEREAS, on April 23, 1986 the Boy Scouts of Pack 40, Troop 40, Three Rivers District Allegheny Trails Council joined with Councilman Richard E. Givens, his staff, Mary Ann Ceoffe, a Board Member of the Lawrenceville Development Corporation and Lawrenceville residents Jane Zalewski and Lawrence Coyne, in accepting the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee's City Council Challenge '86 Pick Up Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, Cubmaster-Assistant Scoutmaster Thomas McGovern, Scoutmaster Michael Murphy, Life Scouts James McGovern, Joseph Murphy, Michael O'Hara and Sovath Sim, 2nd Class Scouts Daniel Landers and Anthony Pelich, Tenderfoot Scouts George Kane and Robert Moan, and Cub Scout Michael Hazel demonstrated that by working together we can create heightened awareness of the litter problem, find the energy and dedication to work toward a solution; and

WHEREAS, the rewards of winning 1st place in the City Council Challenge '86 were intensified by the strong sense of pride we all felt by working together with the leaders of our future, the Scouts, and honoring the leaders of our past, by cleaning the area around the Doughboy, which immortalizes the members of the Armed Forces of World War I.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join with the citizens of Pittsburgh in recognizing the dedication of the scout leaders and residents, and look with pride on the Boy Scouts in promoting the goals of the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee and Keep America Beautiful.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President and members of Council, there's one person that's not here with us today and I know she would like to be, she's in the hospital, and that's June Coyne. She was very instrumental in getting this particular group together along with two of my staff members, Linda Noszka and Aggie Brose. They all pitched in, got their blue jeans on and their gloves and the shovels and the brooms, and it's a very good thought, I believe, that when the young Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, along with the Johnny Doughboy World War II statue — It's surprising, Mr. President, that I drive by there every day and the place has remained clean and almost litter-free since the time when these kids came in and did their actual work.

I'd like to call up Mike Murphy, the Scout Master, to say a few words and then I'll have Mike O'Hara and Michael Hazel to say a few words and what they felt like when they were out there working in the City streets and as vehicles passed by and busses, and we got a couple catcalls out, you know, "Go to it there, people of Pittsburgh", and it was really interesting to see the reaction of the people seeing anybody out there cleaning our City streets up. So, Mike, if you might say a few words.

Michael Murphy:

I'd like to thank Mr. Mayor and members of Council, especially Mr. Givens and Mrs. Coyne who coordinated with our troop to do this project. It was a lot of work, a lot of fun, different; but that's part of being Boy Scouts. Scouting in America is community service, devoted to your community and to your nation. One day these guys, all these guys, will be leaders somewhere. I thank you.

Michael O'Hara:

We were chosen to clean up an area, the monument area of Lawrenceville, and we did and I guess we felt good about it. We're just asking that every time you see a piece of litter, pick it up, because there's not enough Scouts to go around.

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder if we could get the Boy Scouts on a rotating basis to go down to the Courts when the people who are leaving their garbage six feet high Downtown, which is the living room of the City, and watching the perpetrators get a little slap on the wrist and say, "I was out there picking up the litter, your Honor; how about fining them or putting them in jail over night?"

Mr. Givens:

Michael Hazel, could you come up and say a few words?

Michael Hazel:

I don't know.

Mr. Givens:

What was your opinion, what did you think of when you were down there picking up those papers? What went through your mind, especially a week or two later when you saw a piece of paper on the ground?

Michael Hazel:

I don't know.

Mr. Givens:

Okay, we won't put you on the line there, Mike. That's very good. Just the fact that you got all dressed up today, came down here and presented yourself before the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, I think, gives tribute.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd just like to take a moment and congratulate all of you, particularly you young people. You really set an excellent example to young people in this City by going out there and picking up litter. It's throughout the City and with other young people your age seeing you do that, it really means something. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill No. 866 for the Record, please.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 866 -
WEDNESDAY, 6/4/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Jacoby, in this particular Resolution, we are transferring $600,000.00 out of the fuel's code account into what codes accounts again?

Mr. Jacoby

Well, $300,000.00 of it into outside repairs.

Mr. Wagner:

Outside repairs of what?

Mr. Jacoby

Largely outside repairs for 5 engines and transmissions and rearends in both refuse trucks and fire trucks.

Mr. Wagner:

Refuse and fire, and—

Mr. Jacoby

And $300,000.00 into the telephone account.

Mr. Wagner:

Now, that is due primarily because of the savings in the reduction in the cost of fuel? In other words, we overestimated?

Mr. Jacoby

The funds are available because the price of oil went down dramatically at the beginning of the year. The funds are needed in the two accounts primarily because of the age of our refuse and fire fleet. We are experiencing a great number of breakdowns. As you know, we are expecting ten new pumpers in the fall of this year which should help a lot, and we are now anticipating purchasing a third of our refuse fleet again in January of next year which should also help. But for the balance of the year, we have an older fleet than we would like to have in both those areas.

Mr. Wagner:

What happens if the cost of fuel drastically increases the remainder of the year? Where are the funds coming from to take care of that?

Mr. Jacoby

We have had projections that it will not. But we also have the availability of funds, we think, in another account if that does happen. We would also—and we have talked to the Budget Office about this—ask them to help us find funds in other non-departmental accounts if that should happen. But we believe that this transfer of $600,000.00 still gives us a slight cushion even if the cost of fuel does go up.

Mr. Wagner:

Am I correct in saying there is a total amount in dollar of $1.6 million for fuel for the entire year?

Mr. Jacoby

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

So, by reducing this, we are down to $1 million for the entire year?

Mr. Jacoby

Just about, yes.

Mr. Wagner:

For the entire year. And all that fuel is distributed at the one facility in Lawrenceville.

Mr. Jacoby

It is right now, yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. A recommendation was made to the Public Safety Department to have four or five additional fueling locations for emergency vehicles so that they don't have to go out of their districts. Are we looking at some alternative ways with our fueling account to accommodate that?

Mr. Jacoby

Yes. Two members of my staff for some time now are surveying all of the local service stations in various parts of the city to see which types of stations could meet our criteria for fueling vehicles. I've also been in discussions with the Law Department about what type of contract could be used with those individuals. I can tell you that we have several good options opening up with service stations willing to participate. We are having problems with the Law Department reconciling our bidding process and the fact that we cannot accept escalating prices to fit this. But Mr. Pellegrini has asked that we eventually be more prepared to come to Council with this and set up a meeting with key members of the Council and go over the problems we are having. I can tell you that it will in all likelihood require some special legislation on Council's part to implement it.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, that to some degree relates to this in that I think that by reducing the amount of dollars in that account, we could be jeopardizing any additional dollars we may need to accomplish providing fueling locations throughout the City rather than just in one location. So, my concern, quite frankly, is that we still have sufficient dollars in this account to do that this year because there is a great need to keep our emergency vehicles, particularly Police, Fire and EMS, within their respective districts rather than them leaving to have to go to one fueling location in Lawrenceville.

Mr. Jacoby

I agree with you. The member of my staff who is doing it is also the fellow who buys gasoline, so we are very careful not to jeopardize that. We agree with you on the concept and we want to see it go forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 919 - WEDNESDAY,
6/4/86)

Mr. Givens:

Discussion. Could I have someone come down here and explain this. Could you explain, Reggie what we are doing?

Mr. Young:

Several years ago, the Armour Meat Packing Plant closed down unfortunately. Some of the union employees from the meat packing plant had been working with the City and the URA. A feasibility study was done about a year ago and the URA and these representatives from the union have been working on that. They now want to put together a business plan. They expect that business plan to cost about $50,000.00. They have requested $15,000.00 from the City, and then they will be seeking from other private sources, the balance of the money.

Mr. Givens:

Okay. Did Council receive this study?

Mr. Young:

No. It's not all complete yet, but I'll certainly get that for you.

Mr. Givens:

That is my point. I'm for this and everything else, but I have not seen the study. We need to get a copy of this study between now and Monday, and I would suggest today so that we have an opportunity of reading it between now and Monday.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe we have bills being introduced by the Administration with reference to, correct me if I'm not in tune with it, I believe the purpose of the change from the $5000 to $10,000 is the minority representation, to have more minority involved. Is that correct? I believe that I introduced a couple of bills today that will not come up until — I did not waive Rule 8 so they will not come up until a week from Wednesday.

I find it very difficult to be voting on this particular bill, although I don't think it will hurt anything because I think this is going to improve the situation, it can't hurt the situation, but we had asked, Mr. Wagner and I had asked for some statistics which arrived so that we could analyze them and I think before we vote on the bill, I think it's important to point out that indeed, much of the contracts do go out of the City. Percentage wise it's a lot better than it used to be but it's still very low when it comes to minorities. I'm still waiting for two legal opinions from the minority groups who are asking for the public hearing expounding on their point of view that we don't need to have a referendum question, that indeed we can do that just be this Council amending the Code.

I think the statistics speak for themselves. I would hope that all members of Council would take the time to read the percentages of where minorities are benefitting and where they are not and where the contracts are going and where they are not and where women are being disenfranchised. It's pretty clear that we have a lot of people we do business with that live in Washington, D.C., Monroeville, McKeesport, Oakmont, Cincinnati, Rockville, Maryland, etc., etc. With a set-aside we could, and the whole concept is to allow for a small business entrepreneur who cannot compete competitively on price, necessarily, to have a shot at getting some of the business.

I'm delighted there's going to be a hearing but it brings me to —

The Chair:

No, no, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

It's the same subject.

The Chair:

No, it is not the same subject. You are dealing with a piece of legislation and that's where we're going to stay.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll bring it up at the end of the meeting. Thank you.

The Chair:

Are you finished?

Michelle Madoff:

I think I've made my point that I don't think it will hurt anything but I do think that we need to address this —

Mr. Pollock:

On Bills 868 through 873, I think it would be very, very helpful if all of the Committee discussion was brought forward and included.

In addition to that, because it really wasn't discussed in Committee, I would like to add that I hope, first of all, I hope these bills are passed but in addition to that, I hope that when these bills are passed and signed to law, that very, very stringent safeguards are provided by this City's General Services Department to ensure that in its desire to obtain more minority representation in City contracts, that they ensure that in fact they are minority representation in City contracts and not fronts.

Sophie brought this up, as did I, very, very briefly in the Committee discussion and in light of all that's happened in recent years, both locally and nationally, and in this morning's Post Gazette, the front page headline concerned fraud probed and minority firms which dealt with the Post Gazette uncovering evidence that some White-owned firms have subverted the program, referring to the set aside program, by using Black firms as fronts. This is not set aside legislation that we're voting on today but it is apropos because it is, in fact, legislation which deals with attempting to obtain Black contractors and women contractors. So, the same thing is appropriate that if we're trying to get Black and women contractors by these means, then we should, in fact, ensure that they are Black and women contractors.

So, I would hope that once these bills are passed that the General Services Department will provide regulations and policies in support of these bills that guarantee that what is hoped to be accomplished is, in fact, accomplished.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to the same bills, I would also like my comments brought forward for the Record in regard to the discussion last week at the Wednesday meeting.

As I indicated at that time, I would like to see the Administration take a greater effort towards not only extending the contracts, as indicated in these bills, to the minorities and the women, but also to Pittsburgh based companies, whether they be White companies, Black, female, Asian, whatever. There is a greater need to solicit business from companies that are in our City. If they are not in the City limits, hopefully they are close by, at least within the county. But we certainly don't want to see contracts going to companies that are set up that may be outside this state or outside the City limits.

Therefore, I am only asking the Administration, as was asked last Wednesday at the meeting, to send out letters primarily for request to Pittsburgh based companies and to make sure that all Pittsburgh based companies, for whatever product we're soliciting, are part of that mailing list when we send out and ask for bids for particular products. And I think in doing that, we're also assuring that the firms are of higher quality because we can monitor what firms are in existence in this City much better than we can firms that may be located in Harrisburg or Cincinnati or wherever. I also think that there's a greater potential of the intention of this legislation being met.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I couldn't quite hear all of what Mark Pollock was saying. Is he saying he wants a guarantee or proof that the minority contracts are actually going to minorities? Is this what you're saying? You want some kind of concrete proof that the minorities are going to get these contracts?

The Chair:

That they're minority owned. Right. That they're not fronts.

Mr. DePasquale:

I don't know how you're going to do that but it's a good idea.

Mr. Givens:

I would like my remarks on Bills 868 through 873 to be brought forward.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like my comments brought forward from the business meeting.

Mr. O'Malley:

I would also like my comments brought forward.

(BEGINNING - REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 868 - 873 - WEDNESDAY, 6/4/86)

The Chair:

What these five bills do is let the City of Pittsburgh go out, without competitive bidding, and raise the ceiling price from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00 without going through the competitive bidding process. Mr. Grabowski is Chairman.

Mr. Grabowski:

I move for approval.

Mr. DePasquale:

I second the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion.

Mr. Givens:

Hold it. This is to do what?

The Chair:

It raises the ceiling of non-competitive items in contracts from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00.

Mr. Givens:

Is not that tied in to Bill 867?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Indirectly.

Mr. Givens:

I'll address my question to the Chief Clerk. On Bill 868 through 873, do they have any relationship with 867.

The Chair:

No. Michelle Madoff, you have the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you for directing me at the appropriate time. The Community most affected, the minorities, who feel they have been disenfranchised would prefer not to have the issue placed on the ballot as a referendum but to have it litigated in the Court if necessary. If legal counsel for the City were to find that they believe to be illegal, because their attorney's, the groups most affected, feel that this Council has the right to amend the City Code, which is I believe Code 161.20, just to amend the bill and then we don't have to go to referendum to accomplish the same goal. They believe that if we do that and someone challenges it and it goes to Court and then it is found illegal, that they would be willing at that point to have it placed on the ballot as a referendum, that we should not shirk our responsibilities and we ought to bite the bullet and vote to amend the code now.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't finish. No, I'm not through. I want Mr. Pellegrini to address that.

The Chair:

Danny, come to the table, please.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to have some dialogue with him over it.

The Chair:

Certainly.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Section 511 of the Home Rule Charter says, "All contracts shall be awarded--

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. Chairman, point of order. We are not discussing Bill 867 which we just set a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

That's correct.

Mr. Grabowski:

We are discussing these other bills which have nothing to do with placing a referendum on the ballot.

The Chair:

No, but what they do is they raise the ceilings of any non-competitive bidding items. Restate your question, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm saying is instead of changing the figures from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00 and giving some tokenism and throwing a bone, the people involved in opposing the referendum on Bill 867, through all the bills to 873 are saying don't throw them a bone. They are saying amend the code to provide for minorities to accomplish the same thing that you are trying to accomplish through referendum to do it by amending the code.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Well, I would be happy to look at any legal arguments that advance that position. Unfortunately, Section 511 of the Home Rule Charter says that all contracts shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder except purchase at public sale or public utility commission contracts personal or professional services contracts with subdivisions and purchases of personal property whereby reason of patents or copyrights the required type of item is available from only one seller.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask a question then.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

They had their attorneys look at the code. Their feeling is that it would not be challenged in the Courts, and if it were and it was found to then be illegal, that they would then be willing to go to the referendum process. But they feel very strongly that they will lose it in a referendum.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That is an entirely different issue. The issue is whether or not you can do an illegal act in the hopes of—

Michelle Madoff:

But the don't think it's illegal.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Well, I'm willing to look at the legal justification if they have any case law. But the Charter seems rather clear to me. It says that all contracts shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder except those exceptions that I listed.

Michelle Madoff:

May I set up a meeting with the representatives of the group who feel that it is different with you and would you be willing to speak with them to explain and listen to their point of view. And then they can come back to this Council and if there is a discrepancy, Council has the right to hire its own counsel to take a look at another viewpoint.

Mr. Pellegrini:

First I would rather see their legal memorandum before I spoke with them.

Mr. Givens:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. Could we send our Sergeant at Arms out and have him ask the people to just move away from the entrance of the door so we can conduct our business here. It's been going on now for about an hour and it's very very disturbing.

The Chair:

Okay. Are there any further questions on the five bills? Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

Could I ask George to come to the table.

The Chair:

George.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bills 868 and 873, I understand the purpose, so that we paraphrase it for the public as well as my colleagues and myself who don't really totally understand, the Councilmanic amount refers to an amount that is currently $5,000.00, which means it doesn't have to go out to bid.

Mr. Jacoby:

That's not quite correct.

Mr. Pollock:

All right. Define that.

Mr. Jacoby:

All right. The contracts over $5,000.00 currently, we are required to go to what is called a formal bidding process which means that the contracts are advertised in two newspapers of general circulation, all bids are open in public meetings with representatives of my office and the Controller's office.

Mr. Pollock:

Under $5,000.00 you can send it to three people and you don't have to advertise it.

Mr. Jacoby:

Under $5,000.00 we're to do, it's competitive but it's done by letter bid.

Mr. Pollock:

Okay, now.

Mr. DePasquale:

Excuse me. $4,999.00, you don't have to have a bid, but $5,000.00 or over you have to have a bid.

Mr. Pollock:

You just have to send it to three people. Now, the ultimate good that you want to accomplish by increasing from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00, the councilmanic amount, is that there will be more contracts available for this type that you could then, in theory, I suppose, send to only three minority firms to get only those companies to bid on it.

Mr. Jacoby:

We would be sending them to all minority firms on our list, yes.

Mr. Pollock:

All right. Just for the sake of discussion, let me ask you this. Have you been doing this with the $5,000.00?

Mr. Jacoby:

We have been sending to our list of minorities, we have included all minorities on our list, and those spenders which have specifically stated that commodity area. So, we make it a point to send out those bid notices to every minority on our list.

Mr. Pollock:

And what kind of success rate have you had with this procedure now?

Mr. Jacoby:

Well, without getting into specific commodity areas, we have been able to increase our minority participation in our strictly bid goods area from approximately 2 and a half percent to 6 percent.

Mr. Pollock:

As a result of this procedure?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Mr. Pollock:

All right. I think Councilman Wagner at the Mayor's Conference about a week ago asked you about the impact of this legislation going from 5 to 10, how many more contracts there would be, how many dollars there would be, were you able to get those figures yet?

Mr. Jacoby:

We submitted a letter this morning to Council, unfortunately it was not totaled. I did total it. The dollar volume of those contracts would be approximately $225,000.00, and we believe that in 42 percent of those contracts we have very strong minority participation available to us.

Mr. Pollock:

Forty-two percent?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Mr. Pollock:

You're saying that that dollar figure represents how many contracts there are between the amount of five and ten thousand dollars.

Mr. Jacoby:

Currently, yes.

Mr. Pollock:

That's total. And are you able to state for the record then that if this legislation is approved and we go from five to ten thousand dollars that it will be your intent that with the exception of vendors who have requested to be on the bid list, that only minority firms will then be solicited for contracts in the five to ten thousand dollar range?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes. I am prepared to say that we will be focusing primarily on minority firms in those areas where we have minority participation available. That does not mean that another person who wishes to come in and submit a bid is stopped from submitting the bid. He is certainly permitted to through a legal process. But we will focus primarily on moving those contracts to minority firms.

Mr. Pollock:

Okay. Now, if the bid is not advertised then--and I'm not real familiar with your office--but explain to me then how a non-minority person can have prior requesting of this, how would that individual know, just by calling up and asking?

Mr. Jacoby:

We have posted in our entry way to our purchasing section every item that it out to bid. It's on a system of charts, and those people who do business regularly with the City know of it and come in every two weeks and check what is out to bid.

Mr. Pollock:

Now, when you say out to bid, you are including then the Councilmanic amount, the under five thousand. That's included.

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Mr. Pollock:

All right. So, then when you used the term focus--you used that a couple of times now--are you saying limited or--focus is kind of a discretionary word.

Mr. Jacoby:

What I am saying is that in those areas where we are not going with the Councilmanic amount, we will be certain that every minority vendor we know of gets a copy of that bid. Also, other vendors who have specifically requested that they be allowed to bid on those areas will also receive it.

Mr. Pollock:

Anybody else?

Mr. Jacoby:

Anybody else who walks in and picks one up.

Mr. Pollock:

But will you write to anybody else?

Mr. Jacoby:

No.

Mr. Pollock:

Okay, thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, may I speak?

The Chair:

Are you finished, Mr. Pollock?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

The Chair:

Michelle Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Jacoby, just so that I understand this clearly, in 868, you are requesting that we go from ($5,000.00) five-thousand dollars to ($10,000.00) ten-thousand dollars on the bond? I want to be sure that I--

Mr. Jacoby:

No, that is the--

Michelle Madoff:

On 869.

Mr. Jacoby:

869, and I have a copy of the existing legislation--

Michelle Madoff:

Just summarize.

Mr. Jacoby:

What is requires is that small contracts right now under ($5,000.00) five-thousand dollars, we have the ability to waive a bid bond in a performance bond. We are asking that that amount be raised to ($10,000.00) ten-thousand dollars.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. So, in other words, you are not increasing the amount of the bond, you're saying where we can waive five, you will now be able to waive ten?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I wanted clarification on that. Then, on the rest of the bills, you say for various Departments. You're not just saying five items—five products that somebody might buy, that they could buy ($10,000.00) ten-thousand dollars worth of products. You're saying it could be—what could the total be? Give me a ball park.

Mr. Jacoby:

These next four items are annual legislation that Council passes each year authorizing us to go out and advertise all of our contracts.

Michelle Madoff:

But to the amount of—

Mr. Jacoby:

Anything and everything. From road salt—

Michelle Madoff:

But what are we talking about? How many people do we know that are minorities in road salt or how many minorities do we know that are selling automobiles. I mean, let's talk in the real world. How many dollars, conceivably would there be for minority and women, etc., contracts in dollars that we do now or could do, once we waive the bond of ($10,000.00) ten-thousand dollars. Give me a ball park figure an educated guess.

Mr. Jacoby:

The number that I think will be included in the raising from five to ten will open up approximately $100,000.00 of additional commodities per year to minority firms.

Michelle Madoff:

All right. So, you say we went from two and a half to six percent, and now you're saying we may go to ten percent, I'm just using a ball park figure, and so you're saying that the minorities and women would get an additional $100,000.00 in business, conceivably?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

And additional $100 thousand above what they are presently getting which is what, about $60,000.00.

Mr. Jacoby:

No. It's much higher than that.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to know what we are talking about. I don't want to deal in—excuse the expression—a black box. I want to deal in the real world.

Mr. Jacoby:

My recollection is the number is approximately $800 thousand.

Michelle Madoff:

So, right now it's $800 thousand and you think you can raise is $100 thousand which would be $900 thousand, not quite at a million, is that correct?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

What is the total annual budget of purchasing for the City?

Mr. Jacoby:

Total annual budget of purchasing—

Michelle Madoff:

What are the total dollars we use in purchases for the City a year?

Mr. Jacoby:

They come from various departments. We purchase approximately $20 million.

Michelle Madoff:

Aah. Isn't it wonderful. It's marvelous, folks. From $20 million, the minorities and women get under $1 million. That is marvelous.

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes, Michelle, and if you would pay attention to what Mr. Pellegrini is saying—

Michelle Madoff:

I paid very close attention.

Mr. Jacoby:

—and allow for set asides, then the scope would be much greater than the 6 or 7 or 8 percent we hope to achieve.

Michelle Madoff:

You say allow for set asides by going to the referendum, is what you're saying.

Mr. Jacoby:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

And I'm saying allow for set asides without having to go to referendum. You weren't paying attention.

The Chair:

Michelle, let's stick to bill—

Michelle Madoff:

No, I was accused of not paying attention. I remember the first day—George, I'm fond of you, and I think you do a good job, but I remember the first day you got here and you said, "I'm sorry. I just took over the job. I didn't know we were only giving less than one-half of one percent to minorities. I'm surprised to find out."

The Chair:

Michelle, Bill 868 and 869, please.

Michelle Madoff:

All right. So, don't tell me that I should pay attention—you pay attention. By Monday, the people most affected representing the groups are going to present to me legal opinions that this Council can do a set aside without having to go to referendum. They may be correct, they may not be correct. I am not a lawyer. I will consult with my lawyer and friend on Council, and I have arranged with Mr. Dan Pellegrini to see that he gets a copy of it, and if there is a dichotomy, I will then move that this Council hire it's own counsel to do that.

The Chair:

Michelle, Bill 868 and 869, please.

Michelle Madoff:

We are on it.

The Chair:

No, you're not.

Michelle Madoff:

I discussed it fully. My case rests.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Jacoby, at last weeks Mayor's Conference meeting when we discussed this, what I had requested in terms of information was not what I was provided with. What I requested was what is the total dollar figure spent by the City for purchases under $5,000.00 per year. And out of that, what percent goes to minorities. The second part of my question was by increasing the level from $5 thousand to $10 thousand, what would be the total amount of dollars spent by the City and what would the projections be as they would be related to minorities and women?

Mr. Jacoby:

I think I provided the second part of that information.

Mr. Wagner:

The increase then would be?

Mr. Jacoby:

The increase in contracts involved would be $225,000.00. The increase available where we have minorities is approximately $100 thousand. The amount that is under $5,000.00 is not something I recall, and quite honestly I'm not sure, without going to the Controller's records, I would be able to bring that up to you. I will try my best but it's not something that is immediately available in our purchasing section. I can develop it, but it will take me several days, but it's not immediately available here.

Mr. Wagner:

My point is this. Out of the additional $225,000.00 that would be spent between the $5,000.00 level and the $10,000.00 level, what you're saying is out of that $225,000.00, a $100,000.00 would go towards minority and women?

Mr. Jacoby:

$100,000.00 of it would be in areas where we have strong minority and women participation in our vendors, yes.

Mr. Wagner:

All right. Now, to get to the point of evaluating that, musn't we first determine that we are doing in the first $5,000.00?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes. I would say that at the current time--and I don't have specific numbers for you--that virtually all of our minority participation is in the areas of under $5,000.00.

Mr. Wagner:

All right.

Mr. Jacoby:

We have very few large contracts with minority firms.

Mr. Wagner:

Large contracts.

Mr. Jacoby:

Large competitively bid, supplies and materials contracts with minority firms.

Mr. Wagner:

All right. We have very few. Most of ours are in the miscellaneous type purchases that the City constantly makes; that's what you're saying?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

All right. Now, can't you punch into a computer and come up with that type of information?

Mr. Jacoby:

Unfortunately now, no we cannot.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, how must we obtain it?

Mr. Jacoby:

The only place that the information is in one area is in the Controller's records, and that's where we have to go down for each contract and find out the various departments have spent on it.

Mr. Wagner:

I don't know how we could come up with the figure between $5,000.00 and $10,000.00 if we first don't have the base to work with.

Mr. Jacoby:

This was done by hand by the purchasing staff. We have gone down now and found out on our B contracts and on our A's and R's how much is spent. But the small A's and R's, there are approximately 500 of those, and we would have to go down and virtually go through every paid invoice by hand to determine how much was paid under each contract. Right now, our computer systems are not designed to give us that information.

Mr. Wagner:

So, what you're saying is that it's not possible to have that from $1.00 to $5,000.00 prior to us voting on this Monday.

Mr. Jacoby:

I would say the answer is no, it's not possible.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, I still think it's something we should be shooting for. We should have an understanding of that. We should have an understanding of what percent of that area is devoted towards or has been spent towards women and minorities.

Mr. Jacoby:

We have two people on our staff who work primarily with those type of contracts. I will ask them for their best professional estimate and give you that. I'm not trying to hide the information from you, but that's unfortunately in the short time, the best I can do to provide you with the information.

Mr. Wagner:

And if we have to do that manually, I think we should be moving very quickly to putting that all on computer.

Mr. Jacoby:

We are moving toward a centralized purchasing system which would keep the information by contract by vendor and tell us any given day how much we have spent on any commodity. But right now, we have an entirely manual system.

Mr. Wagner:

All right. In regard to Bills 868 through 873, can your desire to achieve greater participation be accomplished without taking out of the hands of Council the ability to approve or disapprove contracts above $5,000.00?

Mr. Jacoby:

I'm not sure I understand your question.

Mr. Wagner:

My question is, not only—what the Administration is saying quite frankly to Council—

Mr. Pellegrini:

They don't come to Council anyway.

Mr. Wagner:

That's right, under $5,000.00.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Over $5,000.00.

Mr. Wagner:

Up until what limit?

Mr. Jacoby:

Right now, when the annual legislation is passed, as long as there is money in a code account, the Administration has the authority to enter into a contract by competitive bid. Only on equipment purchases over $5,000.00, does Council act on those.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, in essence, you're still taking away from Council its power then for those isolated instances.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There is nothing changed. What happens is that Council approve purchases by the budget process. There is a line item, and you say you can spend $10,000.00 on office supplies, and then there is a general ordinance authorizing the Director of General Services to go out for that contract. So, what you authorize is in the beginning of the year at the budget process. When you say, Department X can spend $10,000.00 for office equipment. It's not a Councilmanic function to say whether or not you should go out for bids or contract. That is the Administration function. But you're setting the budget priorities in that budget document. And those have never come to Council ever.

Mr. Wagner:

But still we are taking, with the passing of this legislation, certain degree of legislative approval away from Council.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Mr. Wagner:

In isolated instances we are.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Jacoby just indicated we were.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

We never had it to begin with.

Mr. Pellegrini:

On goods and supplies you pass an annual resolution every year telling the Director to go out for bids on office equipment and he goes out for those bids, and they are called requirement-contracts, and Departments through the course of the year purchase off of that requirement. Council has its control through the budget process. You have line items in the budget saying in Code Account 1001-1 you can purchase office equipment. And if you don't want anybody to purchase office equipment, you don't fund that line item. And so, that's how you do it.

Mr. Wagner:

So, in essence, what you are saying is that Council is not taking away any of its Councilmanic approval as given to us by with this legislation.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's correct.

Mr. Wagner:

All right. Now, let me move on to another issue as it relates to these bills. In the area from $1.00 to $5,000.00 and from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00, what percent of these companies in dollars related, whether they be minority or not minority or female companies, are Pittsburgh based companies?

Mr. Jacoby:

In the small purchasing area, many of them are. Percentage is not something that I have readily available. Chet, do you know?

Mr. Malesky:

Because it's not efficient for somebody out of the state to ship the goods in or services that are obviously out of the state and a majority of the contracts under $5,000.00 belong to the participants.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay, you're saying the majority of the contracts belong to local. What I would like to see are some figures indicating quite clearly exactly what is in the city and what is out of the city.

Michelle Madoff:

In total, not only under $5,000.00. Ninety percent is out of the City; I've got copies of it.

Mr. Wagner:

That's the type of information and let me clarify the reason for me requesting this. If what we're talking about here is providing additional contracts to minorities and women below the level, increasing the level from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00 and providing greater numbers to them, the possibility still exists if we are not addressing and favoring our own that minorities or women or not minorities or women of a company located in Maryland or California or Texas or even Zelenople are getting the business and not a minority business, a female business or another business within the City of Pittsburgh and that is as much concern to me in terms of keeping the dollars here and helping out anyone here, a minority, a woman company or whatever, as is the legislation in front of us. So do we have any data that can show this Council what the number of contracts are from $1.00 to $5,000 and from $5,000 to $10,000 specifically how we're going to help Pittsburgh-based companies whether they be minority or not minority.

Mr. Jacoby:

Councilman, within probably three days I can show you on the large contracts the name and address of the vendor we have currently; I can show you the name and address of the vendor we have on the small contracts; I can show you the dollar amount that we anticipate on the large ones. On the small ones again I run into the same problem that the specific dollar amounts are not contained in my office and I would have to go down and dig them out. I can tell you that these are the contracts which are authorized up to $5,000.00 and this is the name and address of the vendor. I cannot tell you precisely what was spent on that, but you can estimate that approximately $5,000.00 will have been spent on that contract.

Mr. Wagner:

And we will know, we can find out who is Pittsburgh and who is not Pittsburgh?

Mr. Jacoby:

We can find out the address. The address that the vendor gives us, whether it's a Pittsburgh address or not, understand that in some of those instances you may have a Pittsburgh address from a company that has a branch here who's head office is located elsewhere.

Mr. Wagner:

Plus sometimes with an address you can't clearly define if it's Pittsburgh. The zone is Pittsburgh but it may be a suburb.

Mr. Jacoby:

That's correct.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay, my next question, I'm glad our Solicitor is sitting here. Is it possible to amend this legislation, Bill No. 868 through 873 to indicate in some way that priority be given to Pittsburgh-based companies whether they be minority or not minority.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Boston Case came down and said "yes" but the Camden Case which was decided—the Boston Case was on a Privileges and Immunities Clause" and the Camden Case was on a Interstate Commerce Clause and that didn't deal with goods and purchases but that dealt with employment. And the Camden Case said in some very narrow circumstances, which I don't believe are here, you cannot make it local because what you're doing, you're violating the Interstate Commerce Clause—and I may have it backwards by doing it that way but there's a case after Boston called Camden that came down and said that you essentially couldn't do that.

Mr. Wagner:

Are we absolutely certain of that legally?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I could do some more research on that, it's just my understanding of the Camden Case, because what happened is that everybody thought that when Boston (Case) came down that you could limit employment to residents of the municipality. Then about six months later my recollection was that it was under the Privileges and Immunities Clause of the Constitution. Six months later the Supreme Court came down in the Camden Case and said that if you did that, that would violate the Interstate Commerce Clause. So while everybody was gearing up to implement these programs, Camden came down and threw out our ability to do that.

Mr. Wagner:

Could you have that opinion to us by Monday prior to final vote on this?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Monday? I'll try. We'll look at it and try to get it to you by Monday.

Mr. Wagner:

We need it. One additional question. If in fact cases have come or decisions have been made that indicates we are not permitted to do that, is it possible to amend this legislation to request that the Administration determine all companies that sell gloves within the City of Pittsburgh—all companies that sell air conditioners within the City of Pittsburgh, and when letters are sent out for submission of bids for contracts under $10,000.00, they must be sent to Pittsburgh-based companies in addition to others that are on the list; must be sent to all Pittsburgh-based companies.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There's two answers. The one legally I'll have to look at. The other answer is the purpose of the legislation is to increase the minority participation in city contracts and when you do that you dilute the original purpose of the legislation.

Mr. Wagner:

I disagree with you and if the purpose of the legislation is to increase the amount of minority participation in contracts, but we have a minority firm here and we give the minority contract to a company in Washington County, that may be minority also. We are really not truly serving the purpose that we want to serve, so consequently what I'm suggesting is this: Can this Council, by amending this legislation, require the Administration to send out letters to each and every company within the city limits that is registered as a company of the type which we are purchasing a product, when we want to purchase that type of product?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think the answer is no because the Charter very specifically says that Council can't get involved with a contract, a method we can track. They can authorize contracts but they can't say--

Mr. Wagner:

All we're asking for is, is bids.

The Chair:

Jack--

Mr. Wagner:

All we want is bids.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If you want bids, what you would do then is say, "we want everything to be in the newspapers" so everybody can read it in the newspaper locally, but the purpose behind this type of legislation is very similar to the sheltered market approach or the set aside approach in the Charter referendum. What you're trying to do is set circumstances that minority businesses would be very successful in bidding on a contract; there are smaller bidders and so what you can do is increase their participation on city contracts. By thence opening it up to a larger universe, you're lessening the impact on the ability of the City to give contracts to minorities. Now there may be more city-owned businesses doing that but there would be less minorities. If everybody had that type or provision in their contract, whether it's for minorities or just in general, you would probably have a lot of city businesses hurt because certain areas specialize in certain things. There are still a lot of contracts in this area and the City is specializing that and if there's four here and there's one in Cleveland and they had a provision that would favor local steel vendors in Cleveland, our people couldn't bid on that and consequently if Cleveland had more than one area, so I guess what I'm saying is that it evens out over the long run--

Michelle Madoff:

--you sound like Reagan.

Mr. Wagner:

Are we not most concerned with providing this legislation--the purpose of the legislation as was indicated to provide additional contracts to minorities and women.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right.

Mr. Wagner:

We are particularly concerned that those minorities and those women be based in the city. Are we or are we not?

Mr. Simms:

I think a part of the issue Councilman Wagner, is that we have been trying to do everything we can to broaden the base of participation and this obviously is an effort to try and frontload the system, to try and encourage minorities and women to get involved in the process. In order to do that, we have simply not limited it to a concern for the geography however there's been an effort to do it. There are some other kinds of free market pressures that limit the geography by itself. As Chet (Malesky) brought a comment that it is just not efficient in certain cases for firms with a great distance to want to do this, put aside the contracts, but the basic philosophy behind this is to try and broaden the base of participation so that we can encourage more and more minorities and women to get into the system and thereby hopefully impact the amount of participation. So that's really been the front and effort.

Mr. Wagner:

And I appreciate that, but my concern is that I don't want a female-owned company from Texas getting the contract over a female company from Pittsburgh if in fact we have one.

Mr. Simms:

I would think that those concerns, particularly as George (Jacoby) indicated, to do some of this in terms of focusing the bidding. There would be some administrative efforts that could be taken to make sure that those concerns are taken into serious consideration.

Mr. Wagner:

My final question. Can we amend this legislation to require the Administration to send out to Pittsburgh based companies a request to submit a price for a bid on a particular product line even if we're only sending it out to the minorities and women along with this legislation?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Mr. Wagner:

I disagree.

The Chair:

The Chair has a quick question, Danny, we're changing the ceiling on the bidding procedures here from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00. Under the Home Rule Charter, Section 511, you're saying that the City of Pittsburgh must go out on competitive bidding but here you're saying we're legally allowed to raise the ceiling from $5,000.00 to $10,000.00. Is there a limit on the ceiling that we can go to? Is it set by the state legislature or can this Council raise the ceiling from $10,000.00 to $20,000.00.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

The Chair:

So basically what you're saying is there is no ceiling on the limit that this Council can go out on bid?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right. You bid but what you do is you make an oral type of bid situation.

The Chair:

Are you required by law under this to go with the lowest responsible bidder?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

That was one of my questions. With all this wonderful dropping of the bid requirements, the bond requirements from 5 to 10, will you still have to go with the lowest responsible bidder and is it conceivable that the lowest responsible bidder could be a white male?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it conceivable that the lowest responsible bidder could be a white male out of the city?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it true that there's a list existing, which I have a copy somewhere in my files, somewhere in my locker room, and it would take me probably weeks to dig it up but I will find it, that it is about this high (indicating) of every contract that was bid in the last year—I got it when your predecessor was here—my CIA supplied you with it.

Mr. Jacoby:

You have a list of every person who said that they would like to bid on the contract.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I have a list of the contracts.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, I have a list of the contracts.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's five years ago.

Michelle Madoff:

Nothing's changed very much. I have a list of the people that have done business with the City and I will tell you that 90 percent of it is out of the city and Mr. Wagner, I will point out that if it's a choice between giving a minority contract or no minority contract, I don't care if it's out of the city because somewhere along the line we have to be responsible to every citizen as equal opportunity. My next question then is, if a female came to you that owns a business and dealt—I sound like who?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Reagan. You sound like free trade. If we have embargo then they're going to raise the prices on everything Mr. Teflon.

The Chair:

I let Mr. Wagner get off the subject—Michelle, stick to the subject.

Michelle Madoff:

If a female contractor dealing in computers, copiers, etc., and I know of one who came to me and wanted to know how—

The Chair:

—Michelle, stick to the subject.

Michelle Madoff:

A female bidder on a contract—

The Chair:

That has nothing to do with these five pieces of legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

--wants to bid on one of these products and I presume computers would fall under these--I am on the subject am I not Mr. Jacoby.

Mr. Jacoby:

Uh huh.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you assure the Chair of that?

Mr. Jacoby:

That's up to the Chair.

Michelle Madoff:

I refuse to grow male genitalia just to be heard.

The Chair:

Go ahead, Michelle, you have the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

I am tired of this. I am tired of females being discriminated against. Try it--it's difficult. Try to give us the same equal time. Now--if a female who deals in copiers--

The Chair:

Try it you might like it.

Michelle Madoff:

I doubt it very much.

Mr. DePasquale:

You made Danny blush. Michelle just became a gentile.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm going to try to stop laughing.

Mr. Jacoby:

Could you restate the question.

Michelle Madoff:

It's very difficult when you're laughing. If a woman minority woman contractor who deals in copiers has a good reputation and has done business in the City for a long time. As a matter of fact, it's a very unusual product that I understand would save the City a lot of money, were to come to this City to bid and does not have her company within the City, although she is going to move in the City, but does presently exist in the City, what are here chances of getting some of that business from the City?

Mr. Jacoby:

Under present law, she would be allowed like anyone else to competitively bid on a product.

Michelle Madoff:

Would she get a letter bid?

Mr. Jacoby:

If she was the lowest responsible bidder, she would get the contract. If she had requested to be allowed to bid in that commodity area, yes she would--

Michelle Madoff:

So, I'm to send her to you to make sure that she is one of the people who gets letter bids.

Mr. Jacoby:

Certainly.

Michelle Madoff:

I will do so.

Mr. Pollock:

I have a couple of short questions. Once a person requests to be on the letter bid, is that individual on there forever, or do you update that all of the time? How does that work?

Mr. Jacoby:

We periodically go through out bidder's list. And for individuals who have not either bid or continued to request that they receive bids, we would remove them periodically. We don't have a set time, but it's generally every couple of years.

Mr. Pollock:

At the Mayor's conference I asked you this question and I just want to put it on the record so that we can all have it before us. The policy now you said is the below $5,000.00 amount, that you do not require bonds. That's one of the bills before us. If it goes at $10,000.00, you told me that you would watch it more closely because there is obviously a lot more at risk there. So, between the $5,000.00 and $10,000.00 figures, that you may in fact require bondings on your policy now below five—

Mr. Jacoby:

These are on service contracts only. On commodity contracts, our limit is $25,000.00. On service contracts below $5,000.00, we do not require bids on them. On service contracts, if this is $10,000.00, we would probably still not require bids on it, although that would be reviewed a lot more carefully because there are some sensitive items in that area.

Mr. Pollock:

Right. And my last question is—it's related to these bills, but while we are here, I feel it has to be asked. And the reason why I am asking now is because it's all related to the same type of good we want to accomplish.

Michelle Madoff:

You're a male and you are allowed.

Mr. Pollock:

Shut up. Bill 867 states that for minority and women, but the actual commodities or services that would be sent aside would be done by ordinance. If we were to put in this legislation to be put on the referendum, "women, minorities and Pittsburgh based firms" and it passes, we could then by ordinance set aside different commodities, some for women, minorities, some for Pittsburgh based firms. And in fact, by putting in that language in, we might have a greater possibility of it passing a referendum. Maybe Danny would be better to answer that.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That gets back to the other issue, whether or not you can limit to an area. And I'll have to do some research on that.

Mr. Pollock:

Well, New York has legislation that is sets aside, not for race, but for neighborhoods which accomplishes the same purpose because obviously neighborhoods many times are related to race.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'll have to find out how they do that. But the problem again is one of interfering with the market. States, as you are aware of, they put barriers around states which was struck down by the Supreme Court because that interfered with Interstate Commerce. There is a bunch of them. The most recent cases deal with water out in the Southwest and states tried to gain control of the water and the Supreme Court said no, even though the rain fell within their jurisdiction, it interferes with Interstate Commerce, and those were within the last several years, so I have to look at the cases, and it's very difficult.

The Chair:

Mark, are you finished?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

The Chair:

Sophie Masloff and Mr. Givens

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Simms, did I understand you to say that bids up to $10,000.00 are not very often bid by people outside of the City because it doesn't pay them? Did you say that? Did somebody say that?

Mrs. Masloff:

If the bids are up to $10,000.00, it's very possible that all of them are in Pittsburgh anyhow without putting that in the legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

Get a copy of it and look for yourself.

Mrs. Masloff:

That's my understanding.

Mr. Pollock:

Don't forget, Sophie, there is not much difference between a firm in Forest Hills or Church Hill. They are going to still get those contracts too. What they are talking about is the Pittsburgh area versus Ohio or Texas.

Mr. Simms:

That's right. It's the area we are talking about.

Mr. Pollock:

We are talking about the City limits.

The Chair:

The tri-state area. Mr. Givens has the floor.

Mr. Givens:

I'm very concerned that the City has any type of a program that we aid our own citizens, and if that cannot be accomplished, then I feel that all of this legislation before us would be kind of mute. Yes, we want to have people participate, but if we can't get people within our City—and I think that's—there are a lot of people out there that I'm sure could go into small businesses very quickly and the SBA and Federal Government has all kind of programs. People have to get educated then to what the requirements are to be able to be a successful small business person. So, we can't say this and not go one step further and tie it in with SBA and tie it in to our own City residents, and I just mention that to those administrators that are here today. So, to have a successful program for our people, the people of the City of Pittsburgh who pay our taxes, that we must work with very hard. George, you had sent down a letter that I have only received at 9:50 this morning, just prior to coming in here, in fact my staff put it in my folder and I missed it, but I thought there was an association and I asked the Chairman and the Chief Clerk who distributed this letter, that so indicated that all of these bills that we are talking about other than 867, from 868 through 873 are in fact tied in with 867. Could you explain that a little bit to us?

Mr. Jacoby:

Bill 867 is a separate piece of legislation. Where we may be talking about similar goals, the legal affect is different. Bill 867 is specifically, if passed, would direct the Bureau of Elections to place on the ballot a referendum—

Mr. Givens:

I got 867 in this handout here.

Mr. Jacoby:

Bill 867 was in the beginning of it.

Mr. Givens:

No. We include all the bills together.

Mr. Jacoby:

I understand. It's listed in there, but the impact is different. I'm sorry if my letter is confusing to you.

Mr. Givens:

It was confusing to me.

Mr. Jacoby:

I take responsibility for that. Bill 867 is a separate legal issue.

Mr. Givens:

I agree, but doesn't 867 although it's separate, the impact of that legislation on the—you know, to raise from five to ten thousand, you know, you have to be concerned about that just a little bit. If I knew it was going to impact on our people within the City of Pittsburgh, then that has a greater impact to me, and they do to me have a very definite bearing in relationship. The going from five to ten thousand for minorities, as you letter so explained to the Council, I think, and I would almost want to put an amendment on the floor to ask that all of these bills be considered at the same time because the impact is all there, even though they are separate. There is still great impact in that particular area. For example, if we are going from five to ten thousand and it's not going to aid our own people in the City of Pittsburgh, then I have to have second thoughts of raising it from five to ten thousand. That's my only question. I don't know if that is a fair question that someone can answer that. Is my thinking not logical or what.

Mr. Simms:

I have one comment on that. When these issues came before Council, I think, probably better than a year ago, one of the concerns that Council had was that the Administration would take a look at every initiative that it could implement administratively to facilitate a better access to the system by minorities and women and the instructions were clear that we should examine every contracting area and do everything that we can to sort of get to that end. The piece of legislation that you are talking about reflects efforts to do that by increasing the amounts and to doing all of those things that then all of our collective powers to do and separate from the Charter amendment issue. These are the kinds of things that we have within our ability to change and to modify to make it happen. The second part of it is that out of all of this discussion is a shared interest of the impact of this program and plan on citizens in the City of Pittsburgh. I mean, that is the priority effort here.

Mr. Givens:

What I'm seeing historically, Mr. Simms, is it's not going to the people of the City of Pittsburgh. And that concerns me.

Mr. Simms:

I think we always have to be careful that even our best efforts, that we don't so amend what is before us, that we end up even in good faith of diluting the legislation to the point that it becomes ineffective.

Mr. Givens:

Well, I think you are addressing the fact that I am going to put in an amendment here including veterans and handicapped--

Mr. Simms:

No, I'm not addressing that at all.

Mr. Givens:

I thought you might have been doing that.

Mr. Simms:

I'm addressing the residency issue.

The Chair:

Are you finished Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

Well, Mr. Simms then answered why I feel that all of the bills should be connected at that public hearing, and I think if we pass on them now and something happens at the public hearing or at the referendum later on down stream,—this bill has come before us before. All of the older Council people know that. It was introduced, it was held, it was tabled two or three times several years ago, and finally it was tabled completely by this Council because there was an amendment--

The Chair:

Not the five bills we are discussing, Mr. Givens. You're discussing Bill 867. Okay, Michelle Madoff, Mr. Grabowski, Mr. Wagner, and then I'm going to cut off the debate.

Mr. Givens:

To get to my point then, the two of them, from 68 to 73, it has a definite—it gives icing on the cake for this Council to pass and for the voters to accept the 867. If we separate the two, you know, I really don't know. And to separate the two and give the authority for anybody to go from five to ten thousand, and not include the people in the City of Pittsburgh, then I have reservations wanting to vote for these.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, legally, the Solicitor says that we cannot do that.

Mr. Givens:

All I'm asking is for the Council then to hold these bills until the public hearing.

The Chair:

But they are separate issues. Okay. Mr. Pollock has a motion on the floor. Michelle Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pellegrini, you told us earlier that the Boston ruling came down that they could indeed allow the jobs, not purchasing of items, but jobs to be allocated, a portion of jobs to Boston? We have been waiting for that ruling—

Mr. Pellegrini:

That was half of what I said.

Michelle Madoff:

On that issue, can Boston indeed—

Mr. Pellegrini:

And Camden tried to do the same thing and they were challenged—

Michelle Madoff:

Theirs was on interstate. Boston was not on interstate, it was on keeping jobs where monies came from Boston in Boston.

The Chair:

Danny, don't answer that. Michelle, we have to stay on these bills.

I'm going to hold all of my colleagues to these five bills period from this point on.

Michelle Madoff:

May I please, Mr. Jacoby, have all my colleagues supplied with one copy through Mike Perry, and we can all refer to them, of all the purchases made last year, all the sales made last year and the names of the companies and the billing addresses. I would like to verify what I have been telling you as being gospel. Will we get it?

Mr. Jacoby:

You can get the vendors list, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

The ones you do business with. Who you actually did sales with in the last two years. No, I'll settle for a year.

The Chair:

Mr. Grabowski.

Mr. Grabowski:

I think the one aspect that has been brought up here today, the fact that we should be trying to take care of our own, is a very valid one. And in viewing the section of the Charter that we are amending, at least one of the sections, 161.03, where it specifies the advertising of these contracts, it specifies the advertising should be done in the official newspapers of the City of Pittsburgh. Perhaps one way that we can get around advertising to the general public and everyone is to eliminate that section where it has to be advertised in the newspapers, and then let's just mail to the vendors in the City of Pittsburgh whenever there are particular goods and services that we are interested in purchases.

Mr. Pollock:

Regardless of the amount?

Mr. Grabowski:

Well, under ten thousand or—

Mr. Pollock:

Below ten is what we are doing.
Below ten, that eliminates—

Mr. Grabowski:

We are not eliminating that section of the code where it says it has to be advertised in the newspapers.

Mr. Pellegrini:

For below ten we are. If these bills passed, we do not have to advertise in the newspapers.

Mr. Grabowski:

Okay. So, that in a sense is what we are trying to do here. Is it the intent then of the Department of General Services only to advertise or mail, I should say, to the vendors within the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Schillo:

Our intention is to mail to those people who specifically requested to be on that commodity list and to all the minority vendors we have in that area.

Mr. Grabowski:

So, it would be a policy decision whether you mail inside the City or outside?

Mr. Jacoby:

Let me tell you some of the other things. We are not entirely insensitive to this issue. As a matter of fact, I had a conversation this morning with Brother Richard Emenecker to begin advertising our contracts on our cable system which is only seen by residents of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Grabowski:

Not, it's not. I know suburbanites that are picking—

Mr. Jacoby:

They are picking it up on a satellite dish, but its supposed to be distributed to the residents of the City. We wanted to bring that issue through cable so that the residents of the City do get an extra chance to see what is being bid on, and that's one area we are trying to impact on the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, but it still becomes a policy decision as you say, yes.

Mr. Pollock:

If this passes and we go from five to ten for the mailing purposes and we are only going to mail to women and minorities, can we also limit, as Steve might have suggested, to only to mail to women and minorities in the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Jacoby:

Legally, yes we can. I think it becomes a policy decision.

Mr. Pollock:

Well, let's make that the policy. I mean that is to your Department, but I think that's a good policy because then that accomplishes everything.

The Chair:

I think that's what they are saying. Mark, I think that's going to be the policy.

Mr. Pollock:

Well, no one said it. I think legally you can say it, can't you?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Sometimes it's better not to say anything.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, getting back to the earlier discussion, I would appreciate if the information if at all possible could be provided between now and Monday. And that information is the total dollar figure spend under $5,000.00 on an annual basis. You have provided the projections from five to ten thousand. I would like to know what it is from one to five thousand on an annual basis, out of that, what percent goes to minorities and if possible what percent are Pittsburgh based companies, both minorities and non-minorities. The other item that I am requesting is a legal opinion based on the Pittsburgh based companies, minorities or non-minorities and I agree with Mr. Simms that I think that due to the fact that there are more minorities in the City, overall the wash is that you should have more contracts going to those based in the City than not in the City. The probability is greater that that would happen. However, if there is the possibility of this Council legislating or a policy to be adopted by the Administration where we at the very least notify Pittsburgh based companies and make sure that we notify all Pittsburgh based companies and put our concentrated effort towards doing that, I think that's the right way to go here.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think we could do that through administrative procedures on even the contracts over ten thousand and probably we do that and we still do the newspaper adds. So, in fact, we almost have a program like that with what we are doing now.

Mr. Wagner:

No we don't have a program like that.

Mr. Pellegrini:

See, what happens is that you have a bidders list and those people that come in and ask to be the bidders list are generally, if not City of Pittsburgh companies, the companies from the SMSA.

Mr. Wagner:

That bidders list by which companies get on the list does not assure us that they are Pittsburgh based companies. The point I'm trying to make is this; we go to a Pittsburgh Business Directory and if we want to buy speakers or we want to buy work gloves or boots, that we send out a letter requesting a proposal or a bid from Pittsburgh based companies to all Pittsburgh based companies, and particularly minority in business. Not only do we give them the business, but we promote the location of those type of businesses within our City limits by doing so. And I think there is a way, and I would like a legal opinion as to whether or not we can legislate that. And if we can legislate it, I would be more than happy to propose a piece of legislation of that type.

Mr. Pellegrini:

What we can look at Administratively, for instance, for amounts over ten thousand is that we specifically send the adds to Pittsburgh based companies. They would still be required to bid against the rest of the people of the bidding, but it would make a special effort aimed at them. We could probably do that administratively rather than—I think we would be happy to do that—

The Chair:

It's a policy decision this Council is asking for, Danny. Just say yes.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes. Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Can you give us that in writing?

Mr. Pellegrini:

My great difficulty is that it's not my Department that I am committing.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, can we have that in writing?

The Chair:

Now, I said we are going to cut off debate. All in favor of Bill 868—

Mr. Wagner:

Can we have that in writing? Can we have something like that?

Mr. Pellegrini:

He'll get that. That will take care of the opinion, too.

Mrs. Masloff:

Can I say one more thing?

The Chair:

Sophie, since you are so quiet all the time, you can say one more thing.

Mrs. Masloff

I just want to say one more thing. There is another point here that is very important and I just talked to Mark about it and he pointed something out to me that these quotas may cost us millions because it's—the Federal Highway Administration for instance estimates that its set aside program adding $180 million to its contracting cost in '84. I mean, it's a thing we are doing, but it's going to cost the taxpayer's money.

The Chair:

This is not a set aside program. This is a separate from a set aside program.

Mrs. Masloff:

Well, all right, but I wanted to point that out that it is going to cost us more money.

The Chair:

All right. All in favor of Bill 868, 869, 871, 872, and 873, indicate by saying Aye.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

(END OF REMARKS)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask that the Chief Clerk send a letter to the Director of Water, since I don't get responses, and ask him whether we could please have, and is there an annual report on the Water Department. Before I will introduce any more Water bills I would like to know whether there is a report and when I can have it.

Mr. DePasquale:

I was at the dedication of that playground. Does that disqualify me from voting?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bill 848, we're talking about monies being set aside in trust for Police recruits for, I presume, in-house advance training. Is that correct, Mr. Wagner?

Mr. Pollock:

It's Jeep's committee, Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

Public Safety?

Mr. Pollock:

It's Engineering and Construction.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry. I'll come back to the issue later.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

Discussion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion.

The Chair:

Wait a minute.

Michelle Madoff:

Mark, do you want to go first?

The Chair:

I'll decide who goes first and who goes last.

Michelle Madoff:

I raised my hand first. I wanted to be courteous.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, Mr. DePasquale, Mr. Givens, and then Ms. Madoff.

Mr. Pollock:

Putting the resolution in lay language, all I'm basically saying is that there is a bill before the State Legislature, House Bill 1731 which merely permits the residents of the City of Pittsburgh by petition and/or the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh by resolution to place before the voters of the City of Pittsburgh the option of changing the way City Council is elected to either an all district or a combination.

Now, in my resolution, I added that I would ask that the State Senate amend this legislation so as to include the option of leaving it as it is as an at large, so that all voters have the option of any one of the three combinations.

All I'm asking is that this bill be put before the State Senate for a vote and then the Governor sign it into law and then the voters will have the right to petition and/or we as a Council can have the right to place on the ballot the different choices.

What's significant about this bill is very, very brilliantly drafted by Legislator Tom Murphy, this bill provides for the problem that was before when this type of legislation was on the ballot where there were several options. I think the common term was the three-headed monster, where you could have three yeses that were all mutually exclusive. This bill provides that in the event that Council and/or the residents of the City of Pittsburgh put on the ballot by referendum several options which are mutually exclusive, or mutually inclusive, in fact, that whichever referendum question gets the most yeses. So, expounding on what I said there, if, in fact, there is a question which says, "Shall Council be elected all by district? Yes or no." "Shall Council be elected all at large? Yes or No." "Shall Council be elected by combination? Yes or no?"

If, in fact, all three came through with a yes vote, the one that would be deemed the winner would be the one with the most yes votes. So it can be covered.

The Chair:

That's right.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, I have a dilemma. I am not for the bill yet I am for the amendment and I want it for the amendment to the bill it doesn't constitute me being for the bill itself, because apparently, the bill is going to pass. So, if it passes, it should have the amendment that Mark suggested. But the bill itself I am opposed to.

Mr. Givens:

It's very interesting when you look back in history —

Michelle Madoff:

You're not recognizing me?

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, I already gave the order the hands were raised and that's what I'm doing.

Michelle Madoff:

I was third but that's alright.

The Chair:

No you weren't.

Michelle Madoff:

It's quite alright.

The Chair:

And don't interrupt again.

Michelle Madoff:

Look at the record; you'll see that.

Mr. Givens:

When you go back in history a little bit, you wonder what is happening on this bill and how it's being rushed through the House. Let me, if I might for a second or two, back on your desk right there, your office says 1816 - 1916, the City of Pittsburgh. That's about the time that the City of Pittsburgh incorporated, really 1911, under our present form of government. Now, we went to the State which is the Commonwealth State, not too many in the nation, that really, they govern what happens with local municipalities. And the local municipality said something, that we want a greater say in how our government functions at the local level. So, an Act was created and the Home Rule Charter was created of which gave the Legislators of the State the power to those municipalities that wanted it to govern themselves in a much greater fashion than what they had done before.

Now we have this bill 1731 that they're pushing through the Senate right now and through the House very quickly, and it was a State Rep who put it in from the Northside and I disagree with it for this reason and I still disagree with it today for this reason: In our Home Rule Charter we have a section that when we want to change our form of government, we do it in a very democratic process. And that process is to form a commission and with that commission how we got the Home Rule Charter was to form that commission, in that commission, people of the City of Pittsburgh, of all walks of life. It's just not changing the City Council right here. What effect does that have totally for minority participation, for how we govern the City of Pittsburgh, how we make decisions in this Council affecting all the citizens versus affecting those in just our own little particular district if we go by that district, or even a district in an at large combination.

So, we have a format here like this Council has a format, and that is to debate the particular issue. We are cutting up, I think, a great process of democracy and that is called debating the particular issue. They do it in the Senate of the U.S. Congress every day of our lives; they do it in the lower House of Representatives. They do it even in our State House both over at the Senate and the House of Representative level. Yet here we are, and one has to remind ourselves that only four years or so ago, I believe, I'm not accurate on the date, this same type of referendum went before the people not understood. Why? Because it was debated by two Councilpeople on talk shows and a few newspaper articles, etc. It was never put before the people of the City of Pittsburgh, minorities, all the people from the City of Pittsburgh, to come up and say why they want this form of government.

I think, and I send these words of wisdom, and I want this transaction and this transcript to go with the recommendation on this bill because I'm sure it is going to pass this Council and it is going to go to the Senate. But the Senate has to realize because I didn't have an opportunity to even speak before the House and maybe some of us should go up there and tell them what they're doing, what they're really doing for our government. They're short-changing the people of the City of Pittsburgh. They're not giving the people of the City of Pittsburgh the opportunity to debate an affordable-type setting where people can tell what they want and say what the effects that this is going to have on government. Good or bad. Four years ago, as I indicated, it was defeated. And I think each and every one of us have a personal interest in this Council as to how anything is going to go in this Council. I think Council ought to resolve itself, remove itself, from anything that's going on at the State House or any other level as to the form of government because who are we fooling? It affects each and every one of us. We should not even be in the pot of stew saying yes, do it or no, don't do it, until the final vote comes up before this body and we have to say yes, put this on because this Council must say yes, put it on, along with everybody else, I guess, within the system.

So, as a result, what I'm trying to say, it's a nice piece of resolution; it's not going to hurt anybody. But are we doing any justice to the people of the City of Pittsburgh? There's nothing to say, that if they want Council by district, even by next year when this Council, five members of this Council, must run again, that they cannot accelerate the process of having a Home Rule Study Commission study the issue with the intent that it would be on the ballot for the people to consider. And I think by doing this right here, we are not giving our people the opportunity of coming down and speaking how they feel on this particular issue.

We had one very small debate in the Council that lasted maybe an hour or two that I can remember. It was whisked through very quickly on how even we felt when the issue came up some four years ago. Are we going to do this again? And, here's the bottom line, if this thing is defeated, again, or if it's defeated, how much longer then do the minorities have to wait before they get what they feel is their piece of the pie? Are they rushing too fast into this issue when in the end result they're going to lose again possibly? Or can it be debated where the newspapers, magazines, television, everyone gets in there and it is a clear cut picture of how each segment of our society feels on this particular issue?

We are denying our people that and for that reason I cannot vote on this particular bill or the transaction that is going on in the State House. Give it to the people in the City of Pittsburgh. Let us control our own destiny. We asked the State House to get out of our business; now one of our own Legislators went back up there and they're getting into our business again. And I feel that's wrong. We have a Home Rule Charter; let's use that Home Rule Charter. That's is one heck of a vehicle and if we use it properly I think all the people of the City of Pittsburgh will be served at a greater reaction than if we do this real quick. Let's get this through the Senate; let's get it through the House. Let's get it on the ballot and what's going to happen to it once it gets on the ballot.

Michelle Madoff:

I would respectfully disagree with my colleague. I believe that when the three-pronged monster was put on the ballot, worded in such a way that by law, by State law, and I believe by Home Rule Charter, people had to vote yes or no. Do you want to have election by district? Yes or no. Do you want to have election at large? Yes or no. Or do you want a combination? Yes or no. Nothing could win.

This bill, my understanding, would allow either a referendum or this Council to decide whether we have one of the three but not yes or no on all of them. In other words, it becomes a multiple choice. You can vote either for election by district, election at large, or a combination. You can vote only for one, not for all three. If this bill comes out, my understanding is that that is what the bill will permit.

Now, I would like to question my colleague, my Wagner, if I have your permission, to see if I'm correct on that and then continue from there.

The Chair:

I can tell you you're not correct on it. I know the piece of legislation. Mark and I talked about it last week; that's why it's like that. The only thing that legislation says, you can vote for two things: all by district or a combination of. I've read it through and through so I know. You don't have to question anybody.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. Would you repeat that story?

The Chair:

All the legislation says is that you have one of two choices: all by district or a combination of.

Michelle Madoff:

So in other words, the bill would eliminate the present system. It would be a multiple choice in the sense it would give us the choice of do you want to drop the system, essentially, that we have.

The Chair:

No, it doesn't say that.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright but what you're going to have a choice of then is, do you want to have by district or a combination. Period. Is that correct?

The Chair:

Right. If this legislation passes in its present form, there is only two choices, the Legislators and the State Senate are automatically wiping at large out. Understand that.

Michelle Madoff:

I do want to understand that. My understanding is that with the suggestion made by Mr. Pollock that he include in his resolution or in the letter that we're going to send urging the State to bring this our of Committee, Mr. Pecora's committee, that he also include the option to allow it to exist as it is. So that if Mr. Pollock's suggestion is taken seriously by Mr. Pecora and by Mr. Murphy and the Legislators, they amend the existing bill and include election at large and add it on to by district or combination. That's what I understood Mr. Pollock to be doing. Did I understand you correctly, Mr. Pollock?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Now, to continue. It would then become a multiple choice and if at the worst scenario the public has a choice between combination or by district, does it also give us — may I ask the permission of the President to ask Mr. Pollock or could you answer the question — does it also give this Council the opportunity to vote on whether we wish to have election by — which we have now — So everybody understands, at this moment, we have the right to change at large to by district, we don't have to go on referendum. That is a fact.

The Chair:

That is not true.

Michelle Madoff:

That was my understanding, that we did have that authority.

The Chair:

No, we do not have that right. We have the right to put the question on the ballot.

Michelle Madoff:

Judge Zappala said we did not have that right. Is that correct? I just wanted to make sure the history is clarified. So this Council does not have that ability.

Does this bill if it passes, Mr. Pecora's bill, give this Council the right to vote on whatever comes out of his Committee, be it the amendment that Mr. Pollock has added or just to run by district or by combination? Is Council going to have that right without having to go to the public?

The Chair:

It's my understanding this Council has the right to put the question on the ballot.

Michelle Madoff:

But we cannot vote on it ourselves.

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright. My position is very clear. All of us have been interviewed by the attorneys hired, I believe, from Philadelphia, I don't know what the term is, I guess we've been deposed, as to what our status, what our involvement, who has pressured us, where our contributions have come from, as to what, if any, interaction we've had that would in any way show discrimination for or against minorities. For myself I speak only, I have what I consider a 1000 percent record in favor of minorities. In reference to something that was mentioned earlier, that this bill was not debated, it seems to me that the three-pronged monster in the referendum was debated on infinitum and on infinauseum. The public did know what the issue was but they didn't have the chance to vote because they could only vote for and against each segment, not a multiple choice.

What will happen if this bill goes on referendum with a choice of one of three or one of two is, indeed, for the first time, the public will indeed have a chance to vote. May I remind my colleagues the bill was proposed by our former Councilmember, Mr. Flaherty, now Controller, and seconded by Michelle Madoff. He could not have discussed it had there not been a second. I had the bill before he got to Council; I could never get a second.

I don't particularly want to have election by district simply because I have watched some things happen over the eight years I've been here where in certain communities people have gotten up and said, "My name is Mr. Joe Blow, I have 8 kids, 14 grandchildren, I'm pro life and I think you should vote for me because I'd be good." No positions, no issues, nothing. And that person led in one of the largest wards and that scares me.

I would like to see, personally, a combination. But I would like to see first and foremost, before what I would like to see, that is my personal preference which would mean that I would have to move, if I lost my personal preference, I think first and foremost the people have a right to be heard. And the people have not been heard. And if it means that I have to move and indeed we vote by district, so be it.

I am willing to take a position right here and now if this is going to become another three-pronged monster, and urge this Council to vote for by district, although I would prefer a combination. I say that because I don't want the public cheated a second time and I don't want a judge saying that if Council wants to be idiots or I think he used a term something like that, that we have the prerogative to continue along that vein. I think we have to bite the bullet, urge this bill to come out of Committee in the best form we can get it, and let the people vote the way they want to have their government, no matter how it affects any one of us.

And there would be enough time, Mr. President, and I think you will support me on this, for every segment to lobby their particular preference. Mine would be by combination, somebody else might want to have it by district, someone else may want to continue it, and I know some members here want to have it at large. I think you've expressed the opinion that you don't want elitist Councilmembers.

But whatever we do, we should be voting for this bill to get it moving or have the courage right now to vote for election by district.

The Chair:

Well, Michelle, if this legislation passes, whatever form, it's going to be binding. The three-headed monster that was on the ballot five years ago was not binding. So this will be binding.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you for clarifying that, Mr. President.

Mr. O'Malley:

I oppose the resolution because I feel if you vote for this resolution, even though its well intended, it would give the appearance that you're in favor of Bill 1731 and I oppose Bill 1731. I believe the drafting of the bill was well intended but, unfortunately, it was poorly drafted and I think it leaves the door open for more confusion than we had in 1981, as my colleague stated, with the three-headed monster for a number of reasons. If this resolution passed in conjunction with the bill as it stands, there's a possibility that four or five questions could be on the ballot. We could have Council at large on the ballot, we could have a combination of seven and four on the ballot, we could have a combination of six and three on the ballot, and we could have a combination of all districts on the ballot.

So, if this resolution passed, yes, in conjunction with the bill as originally drafted, you could have four or five questions on the ballot which means the question that won that would govern the City of Pittsburgh could win with less than one-third of the voters participating, or less than one-third of the voters in favor of that form of government.

I think what we did in 1981 is we learned a lesson. We learned a lesson that two-thirds of the people of the City of Pittsburgh are not in favor of any one form of government. We had three questions on the ballot in 1981; Council by district, Council at large, and a combination. Council at large won by a small majority but that still means that two-thirds of the people of the City of Pittsburgh were opposed to either Council at large or Council by district. So, I think we have to give some serious consideration to legislation that's going to be with the City for the next five or ten years.

House Bill 1731 should be tabled; it should be tabled for a number of reasons. One, I think that it creates total confusion on the ballot because you can have anywhere from four to five to six different questions on which type of government the people prefer; two, as I stated, the preference for the selection of government could be chosen by less than one-third of the people voting; and three, because it leaves the door open for change every other year and we've seen this happen in San Francisco where that one year they went from Council at large to Council by district and the next year they went from Council by district to Council at large.

There's no provision in here for the majority of the people to vote for a particular question. There's no provision in the legislation as it states that once the people of the City of Pittsburgh adopt the form of government that they wish, that two years later they can't go back to another resolution. And this can be done by one person going out on a petition drive. And I think what this does is create total confusion and the elected officials are more concerned with what type of government we have and what we're elected to do.

I think the drafters of the Home Rule Charter had the right idea and I'm in favor of the recommendations that they made in the beginning, to have the people go out on a Home Rule Study Commission. This does a number of things; it lets the Home Rule Study Commission which is elected to go out to all the neighborhoods in the City of Pittsburgh and lets them go out to all the residents in the City of Pittsburgh, as Mr. Givens stated, and lets everybody have input in the type of government we wanted. If this was done in 1981 when this was first proposed, we would be out on a referendum today and the people, all the people in the City of Pittsburgh, would have the right to participate in what type of government we want.

Under Bill 1731, what it does is it lets this Council put a referendum on the ballot and it lets anybody who goes out on a petition drive put the question on the ballot. So, I think you have to give serious consideration both to Mr. Pollock's resolution and also to Bill 1731 because I just think it causes total confusion and it doesn't leave the people of the City of Pittsburgh have the input that they should have on a question that's this important and it's going to govern their lives from here on out, at least for a number of years.

Mr. Pollock:

There are two things that I want to clear up because there has been a lot of misstatements about them so far this afternoon. I'll try to state them as succinctly as possible so that there's less trouble in the comprehension thereof.

The first is that if this bill is passed, there is nothing on the ballot. All this bill does is then permit Council to put something on the ballot, which right it does not have now, and/or the voters of the City of Pittsburgh by petition to put something on the ballot.

The second thing is that Mr. O'Malley was right, that there could be 20 different questions on the ballot. Council could put a question on and 19 different groups of people out there could get petitions to put a question on the ballot. But each one of those questions will be a yes or no question. Shall Council be elected with six districts and three at large? Yes or no. Shall Council be elected all at large? Yes or no. Shall Council be elected all nine districts? Yes or no. Shall Council be elected sixteen districts and three at large? Yes or no.

No matter how many questions there are, each one will be a yes or no question. So, Mr. O'Malley's statement that there could be a minority of people selecting the way we go is inaccurate because the bill, as I stated, brilliantly covered that in that, if there are 20 questions, it's not an option between which of the choices that you have. Each one is yes or no. And the bill states that the winning referendum question will be the one with the most yesses. So, by definition, the one with the most yesses will have a majority of people because there will have to be more yesses than noes on that question. It doesn't matter how many other yes or noes there were on the other questions, the one question with the most yesses will be the winner. So, if there are 20 questions on the ballot with yes or no answers, the one with the most yesses will be the way we go. It's not real hard, folks.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. Pollock, that was exactly what was on the ballot before, three issues. It was a three-pronged monster. Now we're putting a three-pronged monster on again.

The Chair:

Mrs. Masloff, but the thing is, this is going to be binding and the one with the most yesses -- Just like we won on Council. Nobody here gets 50 percent of the vote; we're lucky if we get a third, but we're all elected. That's a fact. So, the five people like we just ran this year, the ones with the most votes, even though there were 20 candidates, they were elected. This would be the same way, only you'll have one system. If there's 20 questions, the question that has the most yes votes, that will be the system.

Mr. Pollock:

Let me just answer her question to me. The difference between this time and last time is very important. Last time there were three questions and I think all three had yesses or two of the three had yesses. So, they had to throw it out because the bill at the time did not state the one that had more yesses won. So, there were two that were successful and they were contradictory. So that there was a referendum which said we will have it by district and there was a referendum that said at large and they both won so they had to throw it out because they were contradictory questions.

This one says that in the event that ten bills pass with yes answers, yesses outweigh the noes, the one with the most yesses wins. And that wasn't there the last time.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I need some clarification and perhaps you could help me. Does everybody have a copy of this bill?

The Chair:

I have.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe I looked at it some time ago and I must confess that I have not looked at it recently. My understanding, and obviously it is erroneous, is that as opposed to the three-pronged monster which was a yes or no on three issues, now we're going to have a ten-pronged monster which is yes or not on ten issues but the thing that changes is that this is a binding referendum and the other was not binding and the one that has the most yesses would win.

Why would we not change that system, Mr. President, and put whatever goes on the ballot, whether its people going out and petitioning signatures or whether its this Council having the the authority or the Election Board to form a question to go on referendum and make it a choice of just one of whatever is on the ballot. In other words, you would vote for either six-three, seven-four, all by district, all at large, whatever of the 20 or 3 or 5 questions that were on, you'd only have one vote, a yes. Why can't we have that come out of the bill?

The Chair:

I believe that's the way it will be.

Michelle Madoff:

According to Mr. Pollock, he just stated we will vote yes or not but the one with the most yesses and I think he's mistaken. I think that we will have the authority and have the Election Board put on the ballot a multiple choice question.

Mr. Pollock:

I have the bill here.

Michelle Madoff:

I may have misunderstood it. That's the question I'm not clear on. And I think it's unfortunate that the bill does say you will be able to say yes or no and the one that gets the most yesses would win. At least it will be binding and you said yourself, and I think you put it very well, Mr. President, it's like we get elected, none of us get 50 percent of the vote, it's just that the one that gets the most votes would win. There's another word for that; it's called democracy. I think I've heard that word but they don't do it that way in Russia. I would prefer to have a choice of just one choice out of all the options.

Is there any way that we could send a message to our Legislators to amend Bill 1731 to just make it a choice of whatever the options are? Is that conceivable, Mr. President?

The Chair:

Sure, he could amend this resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pollock, would you be willing to amend it?

Mr. Pollock:

Wait, Jeep was talking to me.

The Chair:

Well get back to you. Just so you vote for one.

Mr. Pollock:

The bill doesn't say that though.

Michelle Madoff:

May I speak for myself, please?
May I rephrase the question?

The Chair:

As long as you speak through me.

Michelle Madoff:

I asked you for permission. First of all, I would never, ever usurp the man who is going to be the next Controller. He thinks.

Mr. Pollock, my question was, would you be adverse to amending your resolution to asking the Legislators to amend House Bill 1731 to allow the voters to vote with one yes of all choices that are present as opposed to yes or no on each one which really is a very confusing way to run a referendum question. In other words, they would say, "Yes, we want to have election by district" or "we want to have it by combination", whichever; that combination could be 7-4, 3-6, 7-2. There could be five or six options. But the public would vote only for one yes. Would you be adverse to asking the Legislators to change this resolution to that form?

The Chair:

Okay, I'm going to let Mr. Pollock answer and then Mr. Wagner has the floor.

Mr. Pollock:

Alright, Michelle, the only reason why I would suggest that you not go that way is because Jeep brought this point out during our private discussion a second ago. Let's say that Council would put by resolution on the ballot a question that would be yes or no, do you want to go all district. And let's say that the citizens by petition put on the ballot, yes or no, do you want to go 7-4. And some other citizens put on the ballot, do you want to go 6-3. And no one puts on the ballot the option of staying the same.

By your bill, we would have to change because someone would have to come up with a yes. You'd have to choose among all of them. By having each one of them being a yes or no, as Jeep pointed out, the voters can go and vote no on everything and that way it stays the same. In other words, the voters are saying we don't want to make a change.

So, if that option is not put on the ballot that they be all at large and the voters are only given the choices of districts or 6-3, 7-2, 8-1, that they can go in and say, "Hey, we don't want any of these choices, we're happy the way it is", and vote no on everything and then it stays the way it is.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Pollock misunderstood me. I asked him earlier and he said that I was correct in understanding that his amendment to the present resolution asking the Legislator to also include staying as we are would give us three options instead of two. I'm saying to include staying as we are at large, going to election by district and whatever division that might be but only allow one vote.

Mr. Pollock:

Michelle, you're confusing two things and they're very, very fundamentally important. What the bill provides for option does not put those options on the ballot but puts on the ballot is only what the bill permits you to do but you still have to have some means of getting it on the ballot, either by petition of the citizens or Council. And if nobody does that, then the voters are not given the option of leaving it the way it is.

The Chair:

Mark, and I'm not trying to interpret for Ms. Madoff, but I think I understand what she's saying and I agree. If nine of us run for Council or for Mayor, you can only vote for one. You go in and vote yes. You don't vote no for the other eight. You vote just one yes and it's automatically a no for the other eight.

What she is saying, and I assume, that if there's ten questions, three questions, two, thirty, you go in and vote your preference, just a yes, and there's no noes, because by you not voting for anything else it's a no. Then the one with the most yesses becomes the winning form of government, the winning candidate, or whatever. I've never seen on a ballot, even on the question, are you for or against. It's always yes. So, if you have a couple questions, you vote whatever question you want. If there's five of us running and there's twenty candidates, you vote for the five candidates of your choice. The ones you don't vote for, you don't say no on the ballot.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, you interpreted what I said correctly but you left one little thing out. Mr. Pollock could not possibly be naive enough to believe that this Council would not put as one of the options on that ballot to stay as we are. So he doesn't have to worry about that not being an option.

The Chair:

He already has it in this resolution.

Mr. DePasquale:

Ben, you're confusing an amendment with the ballot, with a vote for office. It's a yes or no on every amendment. It has to be yes or no on amendments.

The Chair:

I realize what you're saying; I'm just saying what Michelle wants on that bill. There's no yes or no; you either vote for one is what she's saying, just like you'd vote for a candidate.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to make it clear, there is a yes or no on the amendment.

Mr. Givens:

A couple other observations on referendums. This City, County nor State is considered a referendum city. When you do referendums like they do out in California, if you remember Proposition 13 out there and what it did, it almost destroyed the government as well as the people in all of the municipalities out there and still has great rippling effects on the educational system and everything else within that particular estate, all because of a proposition that was navigated through with the most amount of money, meaning the real estate people of California, pushed that thing through the skies. And they had enough bucks to give it the biggest advertisement.

Again, if you bypassed the Home Rule Charter, the reason it gave it a Home Rule Charter was for us to determine our own destiny, not that of the state, and to continue with this particular bill right here, I only read it when I came in late this morning, the first opportunity I had to even look at this particular resolution before us. And here we are. And the same concerns that I voiced in the very beginning, I'm glad to hear some of my fellow Councilmen echo what this bill means up in Harrisburg right now.

Again, I can't make it stronger. Leave the people of the City of Pittsburgh decide what type of government and I'll tell you something, the minorities, after a good rain-out of a good Home Rule Study Commission will in fact get their points across much better than putting it on a referendum question. And then when the referendum question comes up, everybody will know what it is, what it means, and it will be fully debated. That is the way to do it in any democracy.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I think there's three issues here. Number one, do we support a referendum question. Number two, do we support an amendment to Bill No. 1731. And Number three, do we want to see Bill No. 1731 move in the State Senate and voted on positively.

The first point, which Mr. Givens just referred to, is referendum. A referendum is the truest form of participatory democracy. Many times you'll hear different people say that referendums are taking away the responsibility of elected officials. I think on major issues that have major impact on government, whether it be how the legislative body is elected, whether it be whether or not you want greyhound racing, a new form of revenue in the City, whether it be the sale of a major City-owned facility such as the Stadium, or any other major issue that can impact this government for a large number of years, decades, I believe that a referendum is a positive way to move to get a feel for what the public and what the voters think. There are side benefits to referendums. Many studies have been done on referendums and its a proven point that more people come out and vote on election day when there is a referendum that is of particular interest to the public. Now, if more people come out and vote, a lot of people believe that that's good, a lot of people believe that that isn't good. I personally believe that the more people that come out and vote, the better feel you have for what the public believes and there is greater input as to not only the answer of the referendum question itself, but also people that are running for office at that time, for whatever office.

I simply want to make that point because there's a very important election coming up in November and we all have to wonder if referendum questions can impact the number of people that come out and vote and if they do impact the number of people that come out and vote, will it impact the elections in November? That's an important question and I don't think that should be overlooked here because obviously there is a great movement for this bill to move quickly in the State House and then there is a great movement to see it sit in State government. Now, I'm not suggesting anything but I'm only stating the facts that referendum questions have repeatedly and historically brought out more voters at election time.

The second part of the this is the question of amending the bill to include a third option which I feel is a justifiable option because it's an existing form of government. A lot of people may say that may be watering it down but I don't think so.

The third item is simply to request that the bill in the State Senate move promptly and be passed by the State Senate.

So, I think there's three issues here. But I believe that the most important issue is the referendum issue and on an important issue in government it's important to get public participation. There is nothing wrong with public participation, the voters to come out and vote on an important issue. This is an important issue. It's been discussed for the last five years. If it's not decided it will be discussed in 1991 and it will continue to be discussed come a new century, 15, 14 years from now. So, I would like to see it get on the ballot; I would like to see the public decide. I think this Council can argue forever on this issue and we all have our own individual opinions. It's time to get public opinions.

Mr. O'Malley:

If I could remind my colleagues, the original bill, 1731, only provided for Council elected by district at that time and it was either a yes or not vote. If the people voted no, then we stayed at large as we are. Since that time, 1731 has been amended with a number of amendments. One of the amendments include a combination. My personal opinion is, for a number of reasons that I stated it was poorly drafted, but one more is that the people of the City of Pittsburgh can vote on a variety of legislation or a combination of Council. But what 1731 does not provide for is the people choose Council by district or a combination, what district are they going to be residing in and what Councilperson is going to represent them.

Under the Home Rule Charter and the Home Rule Study Commission, the district lines are drawn up and people have an opportunity to vote for it. Under 1731, the district lines are not drawn up until the former government is already approved by the Study Commission or by the Commission that's set up under 1731.

So, I think it's very important that people have an input as to what district they're going to reside in and what Councilperson might represent them. Under 1731, there's no provision for drawing the lines and there's no provision for the people of the City of Pittsburgh to have any input into the way their district is shaped and formed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and my colleagues, let's face it and let's deal in the real world. The minority black population of this City is not represented on this Council. They are virtually disenfranchised.

I believe, and this is a personal opinion, that once this bill is passed, and I believe it will be passed with or without us, the division of the City by district will probably follow the lines of the School Board. I believe that's what will happen. It will be a simple way to do it and I think that will be the recommendation of perhaps the Election Board.

I also believe that we were called upon to vote for $75,000 for starters, and that was chicken feed and the tip of the iceberg, to defend this lawsuit. I believe I was one of the people that did not vote for that money. And I also believe, and my gut is never wrong and I always get into trouble, media, when I don't listen to my gut. My gut tells me the lawsuit being pursued by the minorities of this community who are disenfranchised, are going to win. It isn't a matter of are they going to win, because they are; it's just a matter of are we going to delay the process, and I don't think we can. And if we delay it, all we'll do is run again next year and then have to run again the year after. Some of us may look at different options; some of us may run for Controller. I'm going to do a poll right after November to see who they're like to vote for for Controller, including myself. And then I'm going to decide whether I'd be best serving my public by sitting on this Council. My question is going to be a very simple one, on my poll; would you vote for Mr. Woods, Mr. Flaherty, Michelle Madoff, or Jeep DePasquale? Yes or no. And if I win 2-1, I may run for Controller unless I feel I can better serve sitting right here.

And that's really what it's all about. We all don't want to lose a job and we should put the moral issue before our own private interest. I don't want to have to run against Mark Pollock in the Squirrel Hill area where I believe my biggest support comes from. I think he's very popular in that community. But I'll take my chances. I don't want to have to run against Mr. Wagner in the 19th; I think he's very popular. But I'll take my chances.

Let us give the public what they're entitled to and that is the right to their voice. Let's put it on the ballot.

Mr. Pollock:

I heard Michelle is moving to Oakland.

Michelle Madoff:

That could be an easy one.

The Chair:

Okay. There's no more debate on this but I would like to ask, does everybody understand what this bill says? Does everyone have a copy and has everyone read it thoroughly? Ms. Madoff, you've read the bill thoroughly? Not this resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

I've read the original bill but as I pointed out earlier I had not looked at it for some time and I asked for clarification and it was given by you today and by Mr. Pollock. Thank you.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. Pollock	(Pres't)

AYES 5 NOES 4

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Grabowski
Mr. Givens	Mr. O'Malley

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Mr. Wagner:

On another issue, Mr. President, is it possible to suspend Rule 8 on the petition that we received today pertaining to the public hearing in Public Safety? Is it possible?

The Chair:

Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

So moved.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Two items, Mr. President. We had a bill passed in this Council; it was an animal spayed bill. I do not know what is happening. I have numerous letters in my office from numerous organizations and I would like to know the status of that bill as soon as possible. I've asked Mr. Pellegrini and I have not had a suitable answer. Could we please find out the status of the spaying bill? Could we do that please?

The other item, Mr. President, as I pointed out to you and you asked me not to discuss it when we were discussing the bill, 848, which I missed, Mr. Wagner's bill in Public Safety, the transfer of money. I have two items here; let me take one first of all. Mr. Perry, your office put out a cover letter that has a small error but it's a very serious one. It is a request for a public hearing on the East End for people who feel that the minority employment is down.

Mr. Perry:

That's an invalid petition.

Michelle Madoff:

You said this petition is invalid because it does meet the requirements?

The Chair:

Does not.

Michelle Madoff:

Well the word not is not in there.

Mr. Perry:

It's a typo. It's an invalid petition.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I wanted to understand because if it was valid because it said invalid because it does meet, you're not is missing, because it does meet, I was going to say let's combine it to the one hearing on minority and set asides. But this is invalid; is that correct?

The Chair:

It's up to Council, whatever Council wants to do.

Michelle Madoff:

You said it was invalid.

Mr. Perry:

I said it's invalid.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. Then there's not a problem, it doesn't have to be dealt with.

The other issue is what happened at the festival. I have friends who went to the festival at 6:00, the wife had been ill, and they decided by 8:30 that they had had enough. They looked around and saw gangs congregating. The husband said to the wife, "I don't like the look of this; let's get out of here" and they got out in what they believe was in the nick of time.

They called today to ask me why was this City not prepared with the numbers of police for the amount of people that showed up. What excuse could we possibly have, and furthermore, once we found out that you had the tremendous number of people there, could we not, on an emergency basis, have called out other police? They would like an answer to that question.

The one that worries me more than any other question, and I am absolutely, I can't even put it into words, is the thing that this Council is going back to Mayor Caliguiri when he sat on this Council, about the number of police. Every year I point out that we lose 50 police by attrition and we put on a class of 40.

This year it is projected that we're going to lose 72 police officers by attrition. And Mr. DeRoy, if I can believe the newspapers, they frequently misquote me but I'm going to accept this one, said that he is saying it is very unlikely, or someone is saying, that it's most unlikely that we're going to put on more police. I am worried about that. The public is worried about that. And I hope that that will be covered at the public hearing and I presume you're going to schedule one, is that correct?

The Chair:

That's why Mr. Wagner asked to waive Rule 8 so we could discuss what happened last night and all these other issues.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respectfully request two things. One that it be televised and secondly that we have a display ad. That is the rule of this Council, that we do not have a display ad unless it is voted on by this Council, it goes out in a legal form. I plead with the media to please, before the hearing, to let the public know that they can either tune in or come down and watch the hearing.

I don't know whether this is the appropriate time, Mr. President, to ask for it to be televised or when we set the hearing.

The Chair:

Wait until we set the hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you make a note that I am asking for that, please? Thank you.

Mr. Givens:

I have a very pressing issue where trees, the rooting system had been killed on them by construction of water lines out in the eastern area of the City of Pittsburgh. I'd like to call Louise Brown in because that's the Forestry Division.

People have asked that the trees be taken down. The City is under litigation with a contractor and they want that as their proof. The trees have now been standing, and I'm talking about a number of trees, have been standing now for two years and any forestry person will tell you, after a tree is dead for one season it's pretty unpredictable. After two years, it's so dried out that the least amount of wind could come by and knock off a major branch weighing very heavy and we have pedestrians, children, walking underneath these all the time.

I have sent a letter down from my office asking that something immediately be done. Nothing has been. So, I need some quick action on this and I need to have Louise Brown and, Mike, if you can think of anybody else. You better get someone from the Water Department because it was the Water Department who issued the contract and I'd like someone from our Legal Department who is apparently in litigation with this contractor. I want all these facts to be brought out. Are we in fact in litigation, who are the contractors, and how many trees are we talking about. It's numerous.

You can see what's happening today. They're going through the sidewalks and much of our sewer replacement and in doing so they're killing all the trees along out byways rather than coming in the middle of the road. So, we have to look at both sides of this issue and say do we want to continue doing this and if we do do it, do we plant new trees or what do we do when we know we're going to disrupt and kill the other trees. But the imminent problem is the danger of the trees falling on one of our people and the City of Pittsburgh being sued because the residents throughout that eastern area where some major sewer repair had gone on and water repair work have by letter and request and even by some legal people are asking to remove these trees.

So, please, this Wednesday, if we could have a quick post agenda.

The Chair:

This Wednesday we can't. It will have to be next week. We have two posts and a hearing, I believe.

Mr. Givens:

Are they going to be lengthy posts, do you think?

Mr. Perry:

McArdle Roadway is one of them.

Mr. Givens:

Okay, what else?

Mr. Perry:

The elevators.

Mr. Pollock:

Whose is that?

Mr. Perry:

Michelle Madoff.

The Chair:

We'll see how long they're going to be and try to schedule it late.

Mr. Givens:

Okay if you want to hold it for one week but then again it's the urgency that I'm trying to get it in there for. Please get the letters out today if you can, Mike, so the bureaus are aware of it and maybe they can start some action right away on it or inform me of what they are doing.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, a follow-up of Councilwoman Madoff, I'd like to formally ask our City Clerk to ask the Director of Public Safety for a follow-up report on yesterday's incident, whether or not we had enough police officers there. We've been having festivals down there for over 20 years and we should be prepared for these types of incidents with a sufficient number of police officers, sufficient number of canines, and we should be more than prepared and we should not be taking police officers from the districts to service these events in Downtown Pittsburgh.

I'd like that question answered also. I think it's important that we get a report of that type because we're going to have many festivals and affairs in Downtown Pittsburgh. This is the second week of June and we have three more months of it and we certainly want to find out if we're properly prepared in the future.

The second item that I'd like to request from all City departments prior to the public hearing is the number of employees that we have in all the departments at the present time and the number of employees that we had in all departments ten years ago. There's definitely a concern of the attrition that exists within the Police Bureau and I would like to determine how those numbers compare with other departments. If there is a reduction in the number of officers, I would like to know if its comparable with other departments throughout the City of Pittsburgh.

The third item that we need to request, and I have requested it verbally and formally, and it was promised to this Council with an interim report and a final report, is the consultant study that was to be completed as of the end of May for the Pittsburgh Police Bureau. I have formally requested a copy of the interim and the final report. The interim report was to be due at the end of March and the final report at the end of May. I have received neither. I would like to see what this consultant report is saying, I would like every member of Council to be provided with a copy of it. When we voted on that consultant, the dollars for that consultant report, it was indicated and it's part of the record, that we would receive copies of the interim report and the final report. We have received neither and I would appreciate if we would make a formal request for copies of that report. Thank you.

And on the motion of Mr. Pollock

Council adjourned.

Which was read.

The Chair:

I'd like to add one other thing under Unfinished Business. Mr. Perry, would you please read this into the Record.

(LETTER REQUESTED BY MR. WOODS)

American Red Cross
Pittsburgh-Allgheny County Chapter
225 Boulevard of the Allies
P.O. Box 1769
Pittsburgh, PA 15230
(412) 263-3100

June 16, 1986

Dear Mr. Woods:

I understand from one of our volunteers, Mr. Francis Frahllich, who was watching City Council proceedings on Wednesday evening 11 June 1986, that very serious misinformation was given to Council about American Red Cross services to the victims of the 30 May flash flooding in Pittsburgh's suburbs. I request the opportunity to appear in person before City Council at your earliest convenience to refute that misinformation.

During debate on a proposed $50,000 grant from City Council to assist disaster victims, one of the speakers is alleged to have said that Red Cross was "charging" disaster victims for assistance rendered by Red Cross. I can state authoritatively and categorically that all Red Cross assistance to victims of any disaster is given freely, without charge, and without any request or expectation by Red Cross that the victims ever pay back the cash grants that we give for food, shelter, clothing, furniture and medical supplies.

Red Cross as an organization is able to provide all these services only because local corporations, foundations and individual donors have confidence in us and support us as generously as they do.

To allow misinformed comment about Red Cross disaster assistance to go unchallenged and uncorrected is to risk having disaster victims forego our assistance and also to jeopardize the trust that volunteers and contributors have placed in Red Cross.

I do not believe I am asking too much in requesting equal time in the same public forum to correct the record on this important matter.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. I hope to hear from you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

William K. Scattergood, Jr.
Acting Executive Director

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Pollock:

Along the same line, I'm glad this letter came and I appreciate you allowing it to be read because I received several calls on this matter because some misinformation did go out.

I just wanted to add in addition to that letter that it should be pointed out that the Red Cross has spent between one-quarter million and a half million dollars related to the flood relief for the Pittsburgh North Hills residents and, as the letter so succinctly stated, none of it is paid for. So, that's a sizeable amount of money and I for one want to thank the Red Cross for being there and appreciate him sending the letter.

The Chair:

So everybody knows, I don't feel there will be any need for the gentleman to come in before us. We've already given more time here than the few comments that were made and so everybody listening and all of us, they do not get reimbursed or do not get paid by any victims of any disaster.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, since I was the one that made that statement, I stand corrected and I apologize. That was my understanding but obviously I was wrong.

The Chair:

Thank you.

GIVENS)

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On the bill regarding the $50,000, that I had introduced, based on the letter that was just read by the Chief Clerk and some other parties that have contacted me, I would like to refer the bill back to Committee with the idea of sending it down to our Legal Department and having them go over that particular Bill 934 and come back to this Council. Can we do this in Council? Is it appropriate? It was completely distorted, apparently and misleading in some of the articles that I read in the local papers as to what the intent of this bill was. There was no money going to the people in the North Hills. Both the Red Cross and the Salvation Army had depleted a tremendous amount of resources locally here and how can they get their resources replenished. If we do have another disaster and emergency someplace within the City of Pittsburgh then they don't have the resources to go into it.

So, for that reason I'd ask the that the bill be recommitted and we'll discuss it Wednesday.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 923

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving a Conditional Use Exception under Section 993.01(a)A 9 of the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article V, Chapter 993 as amended to Duquesne University for authorization to construct a multi-purpose sport facility and a 778 stall parking garage on the southerly side of FORBES AVENUE between HOOPER and STEVENSON STREETS, 1st Ward."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I have two items and I think Mr. Pollock may want to speak before me and I will yield. On Bill 923 I have a question. Does anyone know if the Parking Authority will be involved in the Duquesne University zoning? Will we have any taxpayers' dollars either through an authority or through the City involved? It's very important. We have a declining enrollment and that's been questioned and I just want to be sure that we are not a party to that.

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

There is definitely not going to be Parking Authority money in the parking lot at Duquesne University?

Mr. Pollock:

I serve as secretary to the Parking Authority and there's no Parking Authority —

Michelle Madoff:

Okay.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods

Castriota, bounded by: STETSON STREET; the easterly boundary line of the "M2" District located between WEST LIBERTY AVENUE and PIONEER AVENUE; the center line of CAPE MAY AVENUE projected in an easterly direction toward PIONEER AVENUE; and the center line of an UNNAMED WAY (situated between Woodward and Plainview Avenues) projected in a northerly direction, 19th Ward."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

This is the infamous Bill No. 315, otherwise known as the Castriota zone change. I believe the amended bill is what we'll be voting on today and this is what the different zone has originally petitioned for.

First of all, I would like all of the comments, and I hope that the stenographers don't kill me for this because it was discussed so many times on Wednesday, but I would like all of the comments from all the different Wednesday Committee Meetings brought forth, which will also increase the printing bill but I think it's important.

The Chair:

From all members?

Mr. Pollock:

Right. From all members.

(COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 315 - WEDNESDAY, 4/23/86)

The Chair:

It was denied by the Planning Commission. The hearing was held on April 15, 1986. Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

Motion to hold for one week.

Mr. Wagner:

Second.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion.

The Chair:

No discussion on a motion to hold, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted a report on what's happening.

Mr. Givens:

Could we just get an explanation?

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I wanted.

The Chair:

I'll permit that. Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

I, along with Councilman Jack Wagner, have been out to the subject property on numerous occasions. We're attempting to negotiate a mutual accommodation between the property owner of the subject property and the neighbors in question, trying possibly to amend the legislation so that less of the zone, less of the property is rezoned. The neighbors have raised legitimate concerns. Jack and I are going out there again at 4:30. We're both hopeful that the neighbors will make some concessions, and if they do then we'll put the legislation back on next week in amended form, and, if not then we'll have to vote on it as it is.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

Jack, do you want to add anything?

Mr. Wagner:

No, except that we are aggressively pursuing somehow bringing the two sides together. It was a very controversial public hearing, and it is the position of Mr. Pollock and myself that if we simply vote this piece of legislation up or down without some amending of the two sides that the situation itself will not actually be corrected simply with a vote, so we're hopeful that something can be reached and something can be agreed upon.

The Chair:

Thank you.

(END OF REMARKS)

(COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO.
315 - WEDNESDAY, 4/30/86)

Mr. Pollock:

I think there has to be some discussion as how long to hold it for because I have been given conflicting statements as to when people will be here to vote on this.

Mr. Givens:

May I suggest Mr. Pollock on the hold. To my knowledge and maybe the President Ben Woods can verify this, I don't think we will have a full Council here and the fact that we need seven of nine votes, we should --

Mr. Pollock:

Fine, but I am having a hard time finding when all nine will be here.

Mr. Woods:

Mark, I believe the week -- if it comes back up on the 14th, two weeks.

Mr. Pollock:

But Steve told me he wouldn't be here in two weeks.

Michelle Madoff:

I may not be here, I need a rest.

Mr. DePasquale:

What about the 19th, will he be here then? Will everybody be here for the final vote?

Michelle Madoff:

I am going to take a week off this next coming month. I am wiped out.

Mr. Pollock:

Motion to hold for two weeks.

Michelle Madoff:

I second the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

There is a 60 day time limit on it, as the Chief Clerk so indicated.

Mr. Pollock:

That is a waiveable one anyway, waiveable 60 days.

(END OF REMARKS)

(COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO.
315 - WEDNESDAY, 5/14/86)

Mr. Givens:

Mark, what are the limitations?

Mr. Pollock:

Sixty days.

Mr. Givens:

Where are we at on the sixty days?

Mr. Pollock:

We have about four or five weeks.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, could I just take one moment to comment on that? I just want all my colleagues to be aware that there are continual meetings happening between the neighborhood and Mr. Castriota. We are very hopeful and optimistic that we will come up with a resolution or an amendment to this problem and we're optimistic enough that possibly it will happen within the next week.

(END OF REMARKS)

(COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 315 - WEDNESDAY, 5/28/86)

Mr. Pollock:

Well, I think my colleagues as well as the public as well as the residents and property owners should be enlightened as to what happened since April 15th when we had our public hearing. Both prior to that date and subsequent to that date, I and later on with my colleague Jack Wagner have attempted to work out an amicable resolution to this very bitter property zone change dispute and the good news is that we have come an enormous way far greater than I ever thought possible. The bad news is we didn't come all the way and we came very close and at one point I thought we had it and by that I mean that what I was trying to accomplish and what Jack was to accomplish was to get the residents to accept a partial zone change; taking part of the property that was the subject of the zone change and permitting that to be altered in a manner that would not be too burdensome to the neighbors. At the sametime having the property owner make concessions, take out fences, install landscaping, put in greenways and so forth and numerous things; in fact the most recent draft of a settlement agreement had 17 different paragraphs, 17 different concessions that the different parties were making.

As I said, we didn't come all the way because the final stumbling block was there infact the vehicles would be part. To sum it up in a nutshell, the dispositive issue was where would the cars be parked? There are three levels of parking, three layers of level ground and the top level has both "R1" and "S" zone. We were trying to see if we could accomplish two things; not rezone an "R1" area which of course, no one wants to do; and number two, provide Mr. Castriota with enough parking places so that he can continue his business or his expanded business.

We weren't able to do that, and so we tried to find another way to give him enough parking spaces and not be a burden to the neighborhood; and we weren't able to do that either, and it has been extremely dishardening. I have spent, I don't know how many hours working on this and I don't know how many times I have been to this site, I guess probably eight between visits with the neighbors and visits with Mr. Castriota and just going up by myself and I honestly feel that both sides have made a very resonable attempt to try and resolve this amicably so as to not have everybody walk away a loser which is what I think may happen and which is what I was trying to avoid.

I have tried to tell the neighbors that if Council votes then everybody loses because we don't have the power to make 17 concessions that the parties can do themselves; we can't make Mr. Castriota put in one tree; we can't make Mr. Castriota take out a road; we can't do any of that. So, I have tried to force the parties to come to an agreement. I tried to get them to realize that if it is all or nothing then both sides are going to lose because if Mr. Castriota does not get this zone change, he can come before the Planning Commission again and ask for a different rezone and if he is successful then, he doesn't have to make any concessions and that everything that we have been fighting to have accomplished, greenway, landscaping, more attractive by the board, because Mr. Castriota would not have to do any of that; but apparently the neighbors are willing to take that gamble.

The unfortunate about this whole process has been that we don't have the power to mold a verdict whereas a Judge might have in a legal case, it is all or nothing for us and so we have to bite the bullet and take the vote. And I don't think it is really relevant as to who has been more reasonable or who has given more or who has made greater concessions. I don't think it is relevant because number one, none of us live right there that have to put up with what the neighbors had to put up with or live with what the neighbors would have to live with in the future. I can say that maybe I would have made more concession and I would have signed this agreement, but maybe I more of a conciliatory nature than other people are and I am not saying that maybe there are other areas of the city where Mr. Castriota could have moved his vehicles and not have met with the resistance that he has and there are other communities where maybe the neighbors would have made concessions, but it's a settle principal of law that one finds his victims as one finds them and Mr. Castriota can't pick his victims, he found them the way they are. And so, it comes time to actually say which way I am going to vote on this and it goes back to what was the original principal of why I made an effort to settle it and that was there are conflicting interest here; there is the classic problem between a business in a city and the residents that live there and being members of the Pittsburgh City Council, we have dual responsibilities. We have responsibility of caring for the property interest and the private interest of the residents and at the same time we have the duty of being concerned about businesses in the city. We don't have the luxury of being in the suburbs where there are all kinds of land in which to expand to. And businesses that are in the city are landlocked and if they are going to grow and sometimes they have to grow into residential areas or special zone areas and people have to live with this and sometimes it can't be done. I am very sympathetic with Mr. Castriota wanting to expand his business, wanting his business to grow and really have no where to grow. But at the same time I have to consider the fact that the residents where there first, the residential zone was there first and as much as I want there to be more jobs in the city, it's a balancing test and like I say, it's all or nothing.

And I have to go back to the bottom line of this whole thing and that is that Mr. Castriota knowingly and willfully moved his vehicles into an illegal zone. He knew it, I think he gambled that he wouldn't receive resistance that he did and it was not until he was cited by the Bureau of Building Inspection that he then tried to take the legal procedure of getting a zone change.

He received an unanimous negative vote from the City Planning Commission and in fact if you read the transcripts of the Planning Commission, he received some severe rebukes from them. He was cited by Housing Court and received a suspended fine. Legally he could have been fined every single day up to $1,000.00. He has had the use of that property for a significant amount of time.

While I was trying to resolve which way I would vote on this if in fact it did come down to the time of voting, I saw a lot of analogies to the situation facing this Council before I came on it last year involving the Unertl Optical Company on the Northside where a business in the city was trying to get a zone change not because it wanted to expand, but because it was forced to relocate because of a highway. The issue there was similar because there was a residential zone nearby and the property owner had to receive a zone change.

In trying to resolve which way I should go on this, I spent a lot of time talking to the people who were effected by the Unertl Optical decision and receiving input from them as to how they decided the issue; and what it boils down to is there were some very very important distinctions between the two. In the Unertl Optical case received a positive decision from the Planning Commission and when it came before the City Council, it came up with a favorable recommendation from which meant that only five votes were required. Mr. Castriota received a negative recommendation from the Planning Commission. Unertl Optical was more than 350 feet from the residential zone. Castriota Chevrolet is in fact trying to change a residential zone.

In voting against this zone change, I am doing so with a great deal of sadness and reluctance because I know that Mr. Castriota has the right to come back and seek a zone change for a smaller area and not have to give anybody the time of day; and as I tried telling the neighbors, we all loose if that happens.

But the bottom line is that I cannot condone what Mr. Castriota did. I cannot justify his violation of the law and I will vote against this zone change and ask Mr. Castriota to comply the law, put the property back the way it should be and then if he wants to pursue the matter any further, that's up to him. So my vote is no.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, if I understand, apparently, there were compromises worked out with Mr. Castriota that he agreed to and the neighbors agreed to, however, it is one that we can't hold him to; for instance, if Council were to vote this zoning up and Mr. Castriota didn't carry the compromise through, there is very little we could do about it. In other words, we were depending on the word of Mr. Castriota, is that correct Mark?

Mr. Pollock:

We have no power to make him comply with anything that he would agree to.

Mr. DePasquale:

In other words, he was willing to make a compromise, but there is no way we can get a guarantee?

Mr. Pollock:

At all times and I should have made this clear, any agreement has to be between the neighbors and Mr. Castriota. The City of Pittsburgh cannot be a party to any agreement for a zone change, that's called a "contract zoning". All I was trying to do was get the parties to come to an agreement; if they can't agree then it is out of our hands.

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to simply take a moment and reiterate some of the things that my colleague Mr. Pollock indicated and possibly shed a little light on the issue.

Bill No. 315 as everyone knows came in front of Council with a public hearing back in mid April. It has been a very controversial piece of legislation since that time. It has been very close to me because I live about a half a mile from that property and I go by it at least twice a day and I know several of the people that live in the immediate area. I also know the owner of the dealership, as a matter of fact, my last automobile was purchased at the dealership that Mr. Castriota purchased. And this issue I believe has to be looked at from a total perspective to clearly understand the situation.

The issue came in front of the Planning Commission and was not passed by them unanimously. Mr. Pollock indicated some of the reasons why and probably the most severe reason why was the law was broken in terms of contouring land and using it for a purpose of which it was not zoned for. Not only that, a portion of that land was zoned "R1" for a residential use and a request was in as part of this legislation to rezone not only "S" zone but also "R1" Residential Property to Light Industrial Use for the parking of automobiles. Not only is the request in, the property is not being used at this present moment for that purpose. You can go out there today and look and you will see an excess of 200 cars parked there.

To look at it from a pure and simple zoning point of view, this city does not rezone "R1" property to residential property; it is extremely unusual where that type of situation will exist. I on this Council do not remember an instance in two and a half years where it has happened. It is unusual when you approach an "R1" to change it to Light Industrial. You have to go out to the property and look at it or you would have to have seen it before to know that it was simply virgin property with trees, growth and woods; and at this point in time, it is a lot with gravel and fence around it. It is detrimental to a residential neighborhood, does it decrease property values? Does it harm the city in terms of making it livable and the neighborhood, making it livable? And the answer is an absolute yes, there is no doubt about it. It has been done, the property has been harmed, it is very doubtful that it could ever be brought back to its original state unless you were to give it 10, 20, 30, possibly 40 years to do that.

Mr. Pollock and I since the public hearing have worked very hard to try to work out an agreement between Mr. Castriota and the neighbors. We have had numerous meetings on the property trying to determine if this bill could be amended to please all parties. Unfortunately, we thought that we could have a compromise and was indicated, we thought we were very close to a compromise, however, what I think really what it came down to was that both sides held a position at the very end and would not give in on the final position. I don't think it's worth discussing who is right and who is wrong, I think a compromise is still possible, however, at this stage in the game it doesn't appear as if it will happen. The compromise that was put forth by Mr Pollock and myself was to eliminate the "R1" zone in the amendment and also part of the "S" zone. The neighbors were very much against any of the top area facing their homes to be utilized as parking and to be quite frank about it, it does harm their property with parking in the area of the property; there are certain portions of the property where parking could exist and not harm the neighborhood, however, the land would have to be contoured, it would have to be changed, the slope would have to be changed and certain amounts of dollars are involved to that. Mr. Castriota is not in agreement to doing that.

So therefore, we think we have come along way, but at the same time the negotiations have hit a point where there is no progress and for that reason I believe it is important to simply move on the legislation as it sits. As was indicated also by Mr. Pollock, I really don't think there is any winner here no matter where the vote goes, whether it goes up or goes down. I think Mr Castriota obviously will loose because he will loose parking spaces if the vote goes against him. If the vote goes against the neighborhood, then the neighborhood will loose because they will have a parking lot beside them. Even if the vote goes in favor of the neighborhood, I still think that to a degree there is a loss because the damage that has occurred to the property. As I indicated earlier, the property will never be brought back to it's original state.

So, therefore, this Council is faced with the a difficult decision and the difficult decision is to vote bill no. 315 up or down. Based on the reasons indicated earlier, the position of the Planning Commission, the fact that they voted this down unanimously, the fact that the las has been broken in the terms of zoning, the fact that the residential area has been harmed already, it's not a proposal, it has been harmed. I believe that this Council has no other decision but to vote this bill, bill no. 315 down. It's unfortunate that we have reached this point, but I believe we have no other alternative. The only other possible thing that could happen depending on how the vote goes here today, is for some last minute negotiations to occur between now and Monday with the amending of the legislation. I in my heart still feel that is possible, I am very receptive to doing that if both sides want to do that and I believe and I am optimistic that something can be worked out still, but I think the time has come to bite the bullet and to vote on bill no. 315 and I for one will vote against it.

Mr. Woods:

I just want to know if I may Mr. Chairman from Mr. Pollock and Mr. Wagner, all compromises on both sides if there were compromises on both sides, do you have them in writing so that we can look at them? Because I think Mr. Pollock mentioned that there were 17 different items that were agreed to or not agreed to.

Mr. Pollock:

I will be happy to submit the proposed agreement, I don't know what the relevance of any negotiations are because they didn't agree to it and it was all one package.

Mr. Woods:

Well, it means something to me if you made agreements and if people agreed, I would like to see what they agreed on. If you said there were 17—

Mr. Pollock:

—They didn't agree, that's what I am saying.

Mr. Woods:

No, you said there were 17 points they agreed on.

Mr. Pollock:

What I said was there was 17 paragraphs that were never signed; the last submission of the agreement had 17 paragraphs that was never signed.

Mr. Woods:

And I asked who wouldn't sign it either side?

Mr. Wagner:

Both sides.

Mr. Woods:

And I am asking if I can see it?

Mr. Pollock:

I said yeah, I will be happy to show it to you.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may shed some light on that? There were two proposed potential agreements put forward, one by Mr. Castriota and the lawyers and one by the neighborhood. The neighborhood didn't agree to Mr. Castriota's proposal and Mr. Castriota did not agree to the neighborhood's proposal. That's not to say that many of the points of both sides were not in agreement, but the major issue of location of parking was the major disagreement and that's the issue that has never been resolved and just to clarify that, Mr. Castriota wants all parking that he has today and he wants it excessive. The neighbors do not want him to have all the parking he has today and they don't want it near their homes and that's basically the major item of disagreement. The other items, trees, the fence line, and things of that nature have been verbally agreed upon, but the major issues of disagreement have not been resolved.

Mr. Woods:

If I can look at the Mark, I would appreciate that?

Mr. Givens:

Yesterday, I tried to bring this subject up Ben, I am in the same agreement as you are, there is a lot of dialogue that went back and forth of which two Council people indicated that they would go out there and do this for the body and I was happy, but I needed a report. Here I am at the last hour trying to make a decision on something that has been going on for months and I got a thumbnail sketch, a very good one, from both sides the Council people. I need to know the in-depth discussion that went on and how each side was leaning one way or the other and what compromises were made and how these steps were made and I want to know who is dealing fairly out there and when the break off point was in order for me just to make an intelligent decision as was everyone trying to cooperate in this business or was there no cooperation at all? In fact there were 17 some agreement made, I think some great progress has been made and that would bear very heavily on my overall decision on how I would vote on this particular issue. So Mr. Chairman, I am at a void right now. I have to do a lot of research on what they have accomplished over the last several weeks and I asked for this briefing yesterday if you can recall and that was not forthcoming. I could have looked at it yesterday, all yesterday evening and probably this morning too and I will assume that I could have been brought up to speed by that time, but right now unless each one of those 17 points are discussed here in public, which would take some length, I would believe and how each one responded to everything that was put on the table at that particular time, I am not ready to vote. And I would ask that this thing be held until I would have the time to study the issues.

Mr. Chairman:

Are you making a motion Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

I would like to make a motion to hold it for one week so we can study the issues. Everyone else knows it, but we don't know it.

Mrs. Masloff:

My question is, in the negotiations, somewhere along the line, I was told, Mr. Pollock that both sides agreed if they would cut the area down in half, the parking area and then half, is that part of the negotiations too do you know?

Mr. Pollock:

Well, never broken down as to have.

Mrs. Masloff:

Well, I don't mean exactly half, a portion of that property, maybe.

Mr. Pollock:

A significant discussion involved around cutting back the petitioned area for a zone change; they have not come to the agreement as to which part it is going to be.

Mrs. Masloff:

And the neighbors did not agree to that either?

Mr. Pollock:

No.

Mrs. Masloff:

Well, you know Jack, you said that some of it was virgin territory, some of the testimony that we heard here was that it was a rat infested dump, which is right, you said it was virgin territory?

Mr. Wagner:

Well, if I may respond? I have walked that street hundreds of times in my life, I have never seen a rat and it is simply a wooded area, it's a green area, it was a green area and I can assure you that was a matter of fact, there are deer in the area, well, at least there were deer in the area, but I don't know about it now and there were other wildlife. I know this because I grew up in that area and as a kid use to walk around there and there were deer there then, but I have never saw any rats.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, I know that my colleagues, Mr. Wagner and Mr. Pollock did a very conscientious job up there and at this time, I am prepared to swing their way, because they certainly convinced me, but there is only one thing that I have to have clear in my mind before I vote on this legislation. Is there room to move those cars on down so Mr. Castriota does not lose any of his cars, yet he doesn't use that top part of the hillside which is the discussion here now. Can he move those cars those cars on down? Apparently if he can, he is not willing, can you answer that Mark?

Mr. Pollock:

My most recent discussion was at 4:00 p.m. yesterday with Mr. Castriota's attorney and I said the bottom line is that the neighbors will not go along with any use of the upper level and I said I am fairly confident that we can have this package signed if Mr. Castriota would agree to a zone change for only the bottom to levels, will he get enough cars and the attorney's answer was no.

Two things I wanted to respond to. Number one, I am new here, I didn't think that Monday afternoon was the time that we talked about the bills that were coming up the following Wednesday in Committee. I mean I would have been happy to discuss it at our session yesterday, but I don't think that's what the Committee Meetings are for, to discuss bills.

Mr. Chairman:

It was ruled in your favor.

Mr. Pollock:

I know, so Mr. Givens point about if we would have discussed it yesterday, he would have been better off to vote today, I just don't understand. The second point, as far as I am concerned and I will be happy to have Mr. Pellegrini here to confirm this, I think that everybody is treading on very very dangerous ground if they start getting into negotiations and who is being more reasonable and who is being more unreasonable in determining which way he or she will vote because that is totally irrelevant to the bill at hand and you are asking for trouble legally because you are getting very close to contract zoning, you are allowing your vote to be influenced by the negotiations between private parties that the city was not a party to but merely an impetuous to accomplish a goal. So, the bottom line is number one, any member of this Council could have obtained information from the property owner as to what his position was or his attorney's. Number two, the legislation is as it reads, we do not have the power to amend it, we don't have the power to insert any concession in it; we don't have the power to read into it who should give on it more and who shouldn't. The bill is exactly as it states, we have to vote on it as it is and what the parties talked about between themselves, is totally irrelevant to what this Council does.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, also in response to my colleague Mr. Givens. I don't think a report is appropriate here; both sides have their opinion and it is up to us to decide which opinion is the correct opinion. True they agree on certain items and then they disagree on certain major items and that information is available to any member of Council simply by discussing the issues with both sides. The bill has been in front of this Council for months. I think sufficient time has been granted to obtain whatever information is necessary to vote on the bill and for that reason I suggest that we move forward on the bill; to delay it another week, I think simply is going to solidify the position further on both sides, a position that we have tried to bring the two sides together on, most recently within the last two weeks, we have not been successful. I think the best thing for this bill right now is to vote on it.

Mr. Givens:

Well, I have to beg pardon with my two colleagues who went out in our behalf and on their own behalf to represent this Council and to come back and report to this Council and now they are saying they are not going to report to this Councilman. I in good faith knowing that all of us have committee here and this was Mark Pollock's Committee and I gave him the grace to go out there and attend those various meetings and everything else hopefully and knowingly that he would come back and brief this Councilman and this Council as to what happened in the negotiations and everything else. I want to be privileged to that information and if I am not privileged to it, how can I cast the vote? I am casting it on a public hearing that I have heard and what I heard in that public hearing, sways me in two different directions and we are hoping for a compromise. And the bottom thing of this is that the individual still can go back out through the courts and legally defend his position. I want to go through them, Mr. Chairman, the 17 major points of negotiations. If you want to do that today, if you want me to read that over and ask questions to my two colleagues within the next week, I will be happy to do that, or we can do it right here today and you might as well roll up your sleeves because I have a lot of questions to ask and we will be here for a couple of hours and I would ask just for time sake that this thing be held for that week, so I can have that opportunity to sit down with my colleagues and I am sure they will brief me on exactly what happened and let me decide. Their decisions has been made, my decision has not. but I would like to hear what they had to say on both sides of the issue; I would like to talk to the community group and I would like to go back out there and get some input from them, that's all that I am asking.

Mr. Chairman:

Mark, in defense of Mr. Givens position, this Council has granted I think two months delay, so you and Mr. Wagner could try and work out a compromise between Mr. Castriota and the community. I think as Chairman, it's appropriate to give the rest of this Council another week so that we can study the points.

Mr. Pollock:

I will be happy to let you study the points, I just want you to consider several things: Number one, I thought I took a considerable amount of time, I mean I am not prone to giving long speeches, but I think I gave a good report as to what the history has been and I will be happy to answer any questions. Number two, I think you guys are treading on very dangerous ground if you start getting into individual provisions and who gave what and who was more reasonable. I think before any of you do that, you better check with the Solicitor because that is not before us, that is an agreement between parties; if you look at it, that was going to be a private agreement. The bill as it reads. Now if Mr. St. John is here and he would like to give us an opinion on that or if Mr. Pellelgrini is here, you guys are looking at serious problems, okay, you are looking at contract zoning, you are looking at the Sunshine Law, you are looking at violating our Charter and everything else; those agreement and negotiations between the parties are totally irrelevant to bill no. 315.

Mr. Givens:

Then what were you doing for the last several months?

Mr. Pollock:

I was trying to get two parties who were in a dispute to come to an agreement between themselves—

Mr. Chairman:

—Trying to negotiate a settlement, an agreement.

Mr. Pollock:

Right, and the city was not a party to that agreement. If they don't agree, then they are in the same place as if they never had a discussion. What they talked about is between themselves. The bill was not changed by one word, by what they tried to accomplish and they didn't succeed and it's the same as if there was no attempts at all.

Mr. Chairman:

All Mr. Givens is asking is to be brought up to date on those discussions and negotiations.

Mr. President:

Mark, say that this party would have agreed, both parties, then you would have come in and amended the bill, correct?

Mr. Pollock:

If it needed to be.

Mr. Woods:

Well, it needed to be according to what I just read and so whatever you negotiated or discussed, is a part, anyone of us here can make a motion to amend this legislation so therefore what you and Jack discussed with Mr. Castriota and the community group is relevant maybe to some of us and maybe we want to make an amendment to this bill.

Mr. Pollock:

Are you done? The only way we can amend this bill is the size of the zone; we don't have any power to put in any provision concerning allumination, concerning trees, concerning greenway, concerning fences, that is beyond our power, so that's what the negotiations concern and if they come to an agreement on those items, then it is beyond our power.

Mr. Chairman:

But isn't part of this 17 points eliminating the "R-1" top portion of request for rezoning?

Mr. Pollock:

That is the only thing that we have the power to do.

Mr. Chairman:

So it would have to be an amendment which is actually part of these 17 points.

Mr. Pollock:

That is the only power and I said that very clearly at the beginning, the only thing that we can amend is the size of the zone and if the parties can't agree on the size of the zone, then there is nothing we can do.

Mr. Chairman:

Well, our colleague Mr. Givens, made a request to hold it one more week, so we can all have the opportunity to take a look at it, would you consider withdrawing your motion to approve?

Mr. Pollock:

Well, first of all, I cannot withdraw my motion because what I think Mr. Givens wants to accomplish is illegal, so I will not be a party to that. Today is Wednesday, he has until Monday to find out any information he wants and it's my opinion being an attorney as well as a Council person that it is illegal for us to consider and aren't voting on this bill what the parties tried to negotiate between themselves.

Mr. Chairman:

If they would have came to an agreement, that would have been part of the negotiation because you would have made a motion to amend the bill.

Mr. Pollock:

Maybe not.

Mr. Chairman:

Maybe so.

Mr. Pollock:

But the only way I would have amended it, would be the size of the zone.

Mr. Chairman:

So you will not withdraw your motion to approve?

Mr. Pollock:

No.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, and as indicated by our President yesterday, any dialogue I believe on this topic is healthy here at this table and may I add that any questions that anyone may have, I think here is the proper form for the to clarify any unanswered questions pertaining to what negotiations have gone on, specifically what has been agreed upon or what has not been agreed upon and I am open to answering any of those questions at this point in time. I may add that the purpose of getting together Mr. Pollock and myself and the action was taken and initiated by ourselves in this situation was simply to bring the two sides together to begin communications. The important part of reaching some type of compromise is simply communication and that's what we were initially hoping to achieve and have achieved that to a certain degree, but the lines of communication have been opened between the parties when infact they were not opened before. A tremendous amount has been achieved, but the important parts of the compromise have not been agreed upon; when I say agreed upon, I mean between the two parties because all we have done is bring the parties together. So in reference to communication, I think it is good if we communicate at a much greater degree about this legislation right now and talk about it to whatever length is necessary to bring about a vote on the bill and I strongly recommend that.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, in all fairness to Councilman Givens, we have been acting in this manner for several years long before Mark came into Council and I was just wondering, were we acting illegally all those years Mark? We did the very same thing and I am not trying to rebuke, I am just saying this is what we have been doing that I know of.

Mr. Pollock:

I think that before we discontinue discussion, we get the City Solicitor up here because the type of discussions that we are talking about, I think are illegal and I would be happy if Mr. St. Johns is component to testify on it. I think we should call Dante and get him up here.

Mr. Chairman:

Mr. Givens, would you like to take the floor until Mr. Pellegrini gets up here.

Mr. Givens:

I would just like to make one point. The bill was affirmatively recommended to this Council and the individual so stated in his opening statement that he was going to vote no on the bill. If I were to introduce a bill and felt that the Council should vote it down, then I would have put in for a negative recommendation; at that particular time, I would know how the Chairman of that particular committee feels on that particular bill and you can either vote it up or vote it down. And now to go into this and the fact that he would not relinquish and ask one more week for this Council members to be brought up to speed and using the guys of saying we are bordering on illegality if we go into what citizens tried to communicate between one another, I think is all a bunch of horse mess. The legal is illegal, that's the Judicial branch of government, we are the Legislatives and we must try to exert every effort that we can; part of that effort is to try to get some type of a compromise between the parties so we could go forward with this particular bill.

Mr. Chairman:

Let me interrupt you for one minute. Dan, I just have a question for you—I just want to ask one question and then you can have the floor back. I want to clarify Mr. Pollock's position here. Is it proper for members of Council to be brought up to date on negotiations between Mr. Castriota and the community and what those negotiations were?

Mr. Pellegrini:

There is only two questions there. The first question is what do you vote on when you vote on a zone change? And the only thing that you vote on is whether or not the proposed zone is appropriate from a planning perspective, is it in accord with the master plan? Any other information that Council has or may want to receive it, but it should have no relevance as to whether or not you pass the bill, unlike a conditional use. If this were a conditional use and I think that's what Councilman DePasquale was referring to, you can attach 17 conditions to the conditional use, but in a zone change, the only thing that you can do is, is this an appropriate use.

Mr. Chairman:

Yeah, but the collection of information to determine whether Council members feel if it's appropriate use, that's appropriate.

Mr. Pellegrini:

You can do whatever you want to determine whether it's an appropriate use and an appropriate use is to find if—

Mr. Chairman:

—So Mr. Givens has every right to ask questions of all the concession that were made by both sides in determining his vote? Does he have the right to accumulate that information?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The only thing that you are determining is the piece of property that is vacant, or is being used. You have to determine whether the proposed zone and I understand that this is for a parking lot to be zone to "M1". There are many adds of uses in an "M1" zone and what you are determining is whether or not that "M1" zoning classification, not if a parking lot is appropriate there, but if an "M1" classification is appropriate.

Mr. Chairman:

But the gathering of information is not illegal?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The gathering of information is never illegal, but whether or not—I don't know anything about the concessions, but if the concessions relate to a parking lot, you can always get that information but whether or not they are relevant to the determination is whether you go from one zone to another zone.

Mr. Pollock:

I was the one that asked him here, so let me ask the question. The question is can Council base its vote on the reasonableness or lack of reasonableness of the parties involved in the negotiations between the parties, can that have any bearing on a vote of Council? That's what I am curious about and I think it is illegal.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Ideally if there were 10,000 people in favor of it or 10,000 people against it, it doesn't matter. What you are doing is you are making a judgement of whether or not the new zone is an appropriate zone under the zoning ordinance. When you do a zone, there is no proposed use, don't look at it as a proposed use; it's a vacant piece of land and somebody wants to put all the uses under an "M1" zone. The question is whether or not that zone change is in accord with the master plan and with good planning principles.

If you agree with that then you should vote in favor of it and if you don't believe in that, you should vote against it. The other information that you gathered, you can gather any information that you want but as to whether it is relevant to the vote, the answer is no.

Mr. Chairman:

Mr. Givens, you still have the floor.

Mr. Givens:

The fact was if these proceedings would be illegal, then I would submit that what happened over at Allegheny General Hospital there and what negotiations were done by a previous Councilman, also the Chairman of this particular committee, then that was illegal too because in fact what we did there, we used that and as Jeep indicated, over the years we have listened and tried to make compromises to back down either the neighborhood groups or the individual who was making the zoning change. And I think Council has been very successful to this and can I ask this Dante?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I didn't say it was illegal. What I am saying is that information is irrelevant to the vote; you can always gather any information that you want, but that information whether or not you should change the zone, is really not relevant to the way you vote, but you can always gather information. What would make this bill illegal is if you attached those 17 different concessions to the zone change; but Council in its legislative capacity can receive any bit of information relevant or irrelevant if it wants.

Mr. Pollock:

The record will show that Mr.

Givens stated I think it is relevant and before voting I want to know who gave what on these 17 points and that is illegal. Dante, he cannot base his vote on who have what on those 17 points. Yes or no?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The answer is yes, but the courts do not interfere with the motives behind legislative votes. The only thing that would make the bill illegal is if you attach the 17 different conditions in it. What is relevant or irrelevant, I don't determine and that's for the body to decide, but as a practical matter, the only thing that Council should determine is whether or not this is appropriate as an "M1" zone, whether if a parking lot is going to be there or there is going to be an industrial plant or whatever is permitted in an "M1" zone. The only thing that is before Council is the change of the zone from the "R1" to "M1" and there are a number of other uses in an "M1" zone, so when you change it from "S" to "R1", you are not saying I am allowing the change from single family residential and some other types. You are saying I am allowing any "M2" use and that's why it is important to define that issue that way, so if somebody at a later date would want to come in and put in whatever, that would be appropriate and we could not add any conditions to that. The issue isn't whether or not there is a parking lot or not, it may be nice information, but that is not what is really before Council. That's not the vote that should be before Council.

Mr. Givens:

I thank you Dante for clearing up some of the things. If we have a committee system here as Mark has gone out and very very and I appreciate that. I have a meeting right after this meeting on the Bloomfield Bridge and there are people in this audience here, that is for Dick Givens or any other Councilman who wants to stay here and listen to what is happening in that particular neighborhood, why? Because it effects my particular committee, Department of Public Works and as I do my work and my colleagues here bring various things of my committee to a ten point to a good resolve and any information to them and I am glad that at least the courts think that how we make our decision is fine. I didn't mean nor was it ever inserted here that we would attach 17 different commitments that either the community group made or the dealership made out there, that was not my point; but that does have a great influence. Apparently these two individuals have been out there listening for a number of weeks and all I want is for them to come back and report on how it went. Let me as an elected official make my independent decision as they have apparently made their independent decision. I can't make that decision here today unless we go into a volume of work and as a result I ask the Chairman if he would please give one week for this Councilman to talk to the neighborhood group and to talk to the dealership out there to see if possibly maybe this Councilman or six or seven other Councilmen might be able to get some movement in here where two Councilmen have not. Just infact what was discussed here today, might tell one party or the other they better lean a little more one way or lean more the other way; so that is why I am asking for one more week and again, I appeal to the Chairman to give other Council members an opportunity to discuss this particular resolution.

Mr. Chairman:

There is a motion on the floor, Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

I think Dante, wants to say something.

Mr. Pellegrini:

To obtain information, there is nothing illegal about obtaining information.

Mr. Givens:

I mean I am being denied information and if that is the case then, never again will this Councilman or can I put any faith in any Councilman here in any of their committees; that means I am going to have to be able to orchestrate nine different committees here at one time and do everything and this Councilman can't do it, I know I can't do it. I want each Councilman to work on their various committees, but I also want them to be able to come back here and brief the body and if we can't go into what happened, what dialogue happened, then I denied a process of hearing from both issues, other than the public hearing and if that is all I am going to go on, the public hearing then I will discuss those particular issues here if I have to.

Mr. President:

If I may Mr. Chairman? Mark it has always been customary courtesy since I have been for the five years that when one Councilmember ask to have something held for a week or whatever, we have always went along with it and I am as President of Council asking you if you would go along with Mr. Givens and change your motion?

Mr. Pollock:

Ben, since you are saying that is is a custom and you put on the record that if one Councilman asks that a bill be held that it gets held and you have said that, I will be happy to withdraw my motion.

Mr. President:

Yes, infact Mr. DePasquale has said the something.

Mr. Pollock:

Fine so that means anyone of us can get a bill held by requesting it?

Mr. Chairman:

Yes.

Mr. Pollock:

I will withdraw my motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

I will withdraw my second.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I disagree with that. I have seen bills in front of this Council where it has not happened and unless it is a rule or it is legislation in this city, then it can't happen all the time.

Mr. President:

It has always been that way since I have been here and any time any of my colleagues have ever asked to hold a bill or recommit a bill, I went in favor of that.

Mr. Wagner:

You personally may have, you are right--

Mr. President:

—Council has.

Mr. Wagner:

I would disagree with that. I have seen situations where it has not happened on this Council and unless it is a uniform policy and I think the only way it could be a uniform policy is it would have to be a rule.

Mr. President:

I think it is Jack. I have never seen anyone be denied of holding or recommitting a bill. I have seen colleagues vote against it, but the majority of Council has always done it to my knowledge. I have never seen us turn it down.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, in regard to this piece of legislation I am still open for discussion to answer any questions by my colleague Mr. Givens and you have indicated you have been denied information, you have been denied the opportunity to meet with Mr. Castriota, to meet with the neighbors. The neighbors have been here on numerous times, they have been in my office on numerous times. I have not been denied that opportunity. I have met with Castriota several times, I have met with the neighbors several times and I don't know how long we have to put off obtaining information, the opportunity is there today it has been there for months to obtain information and the question is do we want it, will we go after it? Mr. Pollock is very knowledgeable, it is his committee, he is prepared right now to answer any question put forth on this piece of legislation and if he can't answer the question, then I can answer the question because we have talked about every piece of information related with our Planning Commission, we have discussed it with anyone and everyone, lawyers included and if there is an unanswered questions, please put the question on the table right now.

Mr. Chairman:

Mr. Pollock said he was willing to withdraw his motion to approve and Mr. DePasquale withdrew his second. Would you like to make a motion to hold for one week Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

Motion to hold for one week.

Mrs. Masloff:

Second the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Pollock:

Before we vote, I just want the Solicitor to answer a question. Does the Sunshine Law permit us to have discussion back there about this bill of do we have to have all discussions at this table?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The answer is as long as you are not going to decide how to vote on the bill, the answer is you can have discussion. Once you reach a phase on how you are going to vote—if it is information gathering, you are allowed to gather information; but if it is a discussion on I am going to vote this way and that way, no, you can't do it.

(END OF REMARKS)

(COUNCIL'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO.
315 - WEDNESDAY, 6/11/86)

Mr. Pollock:

Discussion. I submitted to all of my colleagues the amended zone which--

Mr. Perry:

I haven't seen it.

Mr. Pollock:

I'm sorry but all my colleagues received it, I believe. So when we vote on it on Monday, I would like the new zone to be in the final form. Mr. Brown drafted the legislation and I'll make sure you get that today, Mike (Perry).

What we're doing is, the "R-1" zone that Mr. Castriota originally petitioned to partially change will be untouched. There will be no change to any "R-1" zone. The "S" zone which Mr. Castriota originally requested to be partially rezoned to "M-2", a small portion of it will be rezoned "M-2" and in fact part of the "S" zone will now be rezoned to an "R-1" area, so there will be greater "R-1" zone after this bill is approved. So we'll have more "R-1" and the "M-2" zone which he requested will be a smaller "M-2" zone that he will be getting if the amended bill is passed.

Mrs. Masloff:

And that area that he paved, will that all be restored?

Mr. Pollock:

That will be re-seeded. In fact, the latest addition that he has agreed to do is that he will be planting trees on the area that was paved. It will be unpaved, re-seeded and twenty trees will be planted at various sites around it. The neighbors and Mr. Castriota have worked out an agreement between themselves and I want to make this very clear for the record that the City is not a party to this agreement; it is not a party to any agreement--nothing that this City Council will do in so far as the zone change, the amended zone change which is before us is dependent upon any agreements or 5 covenants or conditions, our vote will be only upon the legislation as amended that will be before us. I can state because obviously I have knowledge of it, that the parties have come to an agreement and as such I am comfortable with my vote being an affirmative vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pollock, since you and I believe Mr. Wagner were very active and I guess other people--I've gone by it and I must confess that I've driven around and walked it but I have not talked to Mr. Castriota except to chastise him for threatening people. First of all, how many trees came down? You're putting up twenty, how many came down?

Mrs. Masloff:

That's not our business now.

Michelle Masloff:

It's my business, I have to vote on this. How many trees came down now that we're putting twenty back?

The Chair:

I don't think anybody knows, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Approximately.

Audience:

Around 100.

Michelle Madoff:

100 trees came down--whoopie, we're putting back 20. Now we've come up with a cooperative agreement. Why is the community happy now when they were not happy before? My understanding is what they were concerned about is that they lived in a residential area that was not impacted by automobiles near the residential area and they were not subject to be victimized by people trying to get into the cars to rip off the cars and therefore bringing an element of crime that they didn't have before. That was one of their greatest concerns when they came to me initially. Has that problem been resolved? Is there a burglar alarm put on the fence? Is there a guard? Are cars not going to be going up there which was one of the concerns that they had? I have to have that answer before I vote.

Mr. Pollock:

The area which will now be the "M-2" area in which the cars and Mr. Castriota desires to park his cars will be fenced in, protected both from outside and from any youngsters getting in who might want to get in or otherwise have to get in. The area will be re-seeded and all of the cars will be out of sight of any residents; they will be behind a hill and they will be buffered by vegetation and a small hillside that will manmade. It's my understanding that the neighbors are now willing to live with it and Mr. Castriota will be able to get parking space which he needs for his business. Not as many as he originally wanted because the cars will be out of sight of the neighbors and they will be protected from the neighbors by a fence.

Michelle Madoff:

What compensatory if anything has Mr. Castriota offered to the community by way of a community center, a playground, etc., something to compensate them for the havoc he created and the time and energy and the harassment and the pain and suffering that these people had?

I'm not here to give Mr. Pollock a hard time but I'm really addressing what Mr. Wagner said and that is that we want to stop this kind of thing from happening in the future and I think the kind of questions I'm asking are very pertinent so that other people are not going to be another Mr. Castriota.

Mr. Pollock:

I think Michelle's question is very, very astute and I had a post-agenda on this with Mr. Imhoff from the Bureau of Building Inspection and Richard Bruce and I think Jim Brown was there and we discussed this very problem and what she's talking about is a code violator going in and breaking the law, being cited for it and then coming in and asking for the zoning change after being cited for it and suffering no consequence for his or her illegal action. It was the policy of the Bureau of Building Inspection that once a property owner requested a zone change, that the Bureau of Building Inspection would cease all enforcement procedures. They would allow it to continue in violation until such time as the Planning Commission and Council acted on the zone change. My position was, as a result of what the neighbors have told me and is totally right, that it was not the way to go. If someone's violating the law, you get them in compliance with the law first and then they go in for the zone change.

We had a meeting right here, as I said a post-agenda, with the Superintendent of the Bureau of Building Inspection and he told me that was their policy and I explained to him that this only exacerbates situations so that the neighbors are forced to live in an unhealthy and an uncomfortable situation and their policy is now changed and there will not be any Castriota situations in the future. If someone is violating the zoning code and they petition for a zone change, they have to get their property in compliance first and then they come in and ask for a zone change otherwise they will be cited everyday as a different violation with the right to be fined everyday up to $1,000, so that there will be no more Castriotas as a result of what these people had to suffer.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, If I may. We have played this absolutely to death and I don't think we can go any further. Mr. Pollock has done his homework and he brought it up to Council and he's asked for approval and I think we should vote it up or down.

Michelle Madoff:

What kind of built-in controls are there when we have a situation where litters are putting six feet of garbage in the city and nobody is citing them everyday. What kind of protection are these people going to have by just virtually putting on a piece of paper? If he's in violation we will fine him. I want to know who's going to be monitoring this whole contract.

Mr. Pollock:

I gave these people my assurance that I'll be monitoring it and Mr. Wagner who lives right there and goes by there everyday will be monitoring it and I can assure you that Mr. Brown who lives near there will be monitoring it--the whole world is watching this situation.

The Chair:

Mark, I'm going to need a motion to amend this bill by substituting a new bill.

Mr. Pollock:

So moved.

Michelle Madoff:

Second.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

In response to my colleague, Michelle Madoff, I think it's a genuine question that she's asking, really what are the people receiving due to all of the emotional trauma that they've gone through, all the time that they've put in and basically what they're receiving is a better product whether or not this legislation would have passed or it would have failed. If we vote on the legislation as it sits or as it sat prior to this amendment and the legislation was voted down--basically they would be left with a lot without cars and the would have been required to see the lot but still right now it's a gravel lot and the chances of them seeding that lot and it growing to any substantial growth within the next couple of years was rather remote. So working out an agreement that has been worked out and it's been extremely difficult agreement to work out, not only does Tony Castriota benefit but the residents benefit and many of your concerns that you mentioned at the public hearing have been addressed in the agreement. For instance, the bond. The bond has been substantially increased from $25,000 to $60,000 to make sur that the work is done. Some of the other concerns pertaining to litter, Mr. Castriota is required in areas where dumping has gone on the property now, as part of this agreement to put up guardrails and to put up barriers to prevent future dumping. But probably the key items involved in the agreement pertain to the rezoning and what has been eliminated as part of their agreement as Councilman Pollock indicated is that there will be no "R-1" property rezoned. As a matter of fact, a portion of the property now zoned "S" will be zoned "R-1" so that there will be even a better barrier provided between Castriota Chevrolet and the residential community. One of the two gates along the street will be eliminated, the other gate will only be in use six months out of the year when the weather is bad. There will be planting and seeding and there will be trees of a certain height and a certain space and a certain type that must be planted as a barrier between the parking lot and the residential community and there will be other amenities granted, no illumination, no loud speakers, no traffic, no parking of used cars, no parking of cars that are being worked on, only new cars in the parking lot. Mr. Castriota is not retaining all of us parking but he is retaining mostly all of it but the key is that it's not within view of the residential community and the property that is not being utilized for parking will be utilized as just open space property.

I think really what's been accomplished here though is that based on the public hearing that occurred two months ago with 50 or so speakers for and 50 or so speakers against and many of those speakers being very emotional, some of which are here today, being very emotional and obviously seeing that there was no communication at the time between the two parties. What really has been accomplished is that both sides have bent and have agreed to communicate and work out an agreement and I really think that says something for the neighborhood of which there are more people than there are with the automobile dealership but it also says something for Tony Castriota. They both have gone to great lengths in communication to somehow work out an agreement and this agreement is, if I'm not mistaken and Mark can correct me, I think it's the fifth agreement that has been drawn up and we still don't have signatures from both sides and we're very hopeful and very optimistic because basically, verbally, both sides agree and it's just a matter of going through the agreement and making sure that everything is in it and obtaining the proper signatures of the owners of Castriota Chevrolet and all of the neighbors that want to sign the agreement. I personally think that if that happens and I'm very optimistic that it will happen, it is really something of significance that has happened in terms of zoning in this city. Not only are we keeping the neighborhood liveable the way it should have been all the time but we're also retaining a business and retaining employees within that business and as far as I know, as long as I have been on this Council, this is the first such agreement that has been reached at great length and obviously both sides have extended themselves tremendously to accomplish that and I salute both sides for doing that, both Tony Castriota and all of the neighbors that have put hundreds and hundreds of hours into this agreement and I'm very hopeful and very optimistic that in the final hour between now and Monday nothing goes wrong, the signature is on the agreement and this Council can unanimously approve it.

Mr. Givens:

I've indicated on the signatures that I have to have those before me and I thought even today voting on the draft amendment that we would have the signatures on there and apparantly we do not and definitely by Monday they have to be before this Council so we can view them and make sure to ourselves that everything is in proper. I agree with Mark and the fact that this Council was a part of this agreement. I commend Mark Pollock and Jack Wagner and especially Mark who has been really working out there for long hours and doing something that hasn't been done in this Council to my knowledge because when we have a breakdown in communication between the neighborhood people and a particular businessperson and just being out in that neighborhood as recently as one week ago on a Saturday morning and knowing how far they were apart at that particular time, I have to commend also both the people in the neighborhood for at least being compassionate to a certain degree on a businessperson who has put everything, all of his family money, all of his resources that he worked for into this business and such a time that it should have failed but it did not. In going through the business itself it's probably one of the finest in the City of Pittsburgh I know and probably within Allegheny County. I see now why they are selling a lot of automobiles and the fact that his business was growing by leaps and bounds and the businessmen being caught up in this world really wouldn't pay attention to the law of the City of Pittsburgh and once he was made aware of what was going on, he had to retrench to a certain degree and if it wasn't for the community people speaking out as heavily as they did and organizing as they did, because when I first went down there in April, everything was fine. I thought it was going to be a normal type of legislation. I saw letters from the community groups in favor of it, etc., and I know the people in the community did not realize how extensive it was going to be until they saw the earth moving.

I'm glad and I'm happy that both sides have really bent over backwards to assure that the neighborhood people have what they feel is a reasonable compromise and a businessman is able to continue business within the City of Pittsburgh and employ some 100 people.

Thank you Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Pollock:

Very brief statement. In addition to thanking the residents and the property owner I think two people have to be thanked significantly. The first is an attorney by the name of Tom Solomich. He's one of the top real estate attorneys in the City who devoted a great deal of time to assisting us and assisting the parties in reaching an agreement, providing real estate expertise.

And the second person who above all else has just been an extremely devoted, dedicated public servant is the Zoning Administrator, Jim Brown, who has spent a considerable amount of time out at the property in the rain numerous times, going out and marking off property lines, coming back and amending the property in question and just doing yeoman work and I think we are very fortunate to have him in this position and I just think he's great to work with and I thank him for everything he did.

Mr. Grabowski:

Just a point of clarification. Did we vote on the substitute legislation that Councilman Pollock made?

The Chair:

He made the motion to amend this legislation by substituting the new legislation.

Mr. Grabowski:

We didn't vote on it yet.

The Chair:

No.

Mr. Grabowski:

If we vote on it and if in fact it passes, perhaps the City Clerk or perhaps Mr. Brown can answer this. Does this then have to go back to the Planning Commission. And, I had checked with Mr. Brown before that.

Mr. Brown:

That's correct.

The Chair:

All in favor of Bill No. 315? As amended? Opposed? Unanimous.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Pollock:

I, for one, and I hope all my colleagues agree that this is a very, very happy occasion. I can urge without qualification that all members of Council approve this and that we have a unanimous, 9-0 vote for approval because this afternoon the members of the neighborhood in which the Castriota property resides and the Castriotas themselves met, shook hands, had lunch together, and there is now harmony, happiness, and agreement in Castriotaland.

The agreement was actually very simple. We are changing the name of Stetson Street to Castriota Boulevard and the neighbors are all being given free emissions inspections for the rest of their lives. That's just a joke.

In all seriousness, the parties have been able to come to an agreement after much deliberation and, I think you all have received copies of it but for those who have not, the size of the zone has been decreased, that is being petitioned for a zone change, there is absolutely no residential zone that is being amended, rezoned. In fact, there is more R-1 property which is being obtained as a result of this amended zone change. The area will be completely buffered, there will be no cars visible to any neighbors, there will be no illumination, there will be no loudspeakers, there will be reseeding, there will be trees replanted and additional ones planted in. I think both sides have bent over backwards to make this deal work.

And I have to emphasize repeatedly and emphatically that the City of Pittsburgh is not a party to this agreement. The City of Pittsburgh did nothing more than expedite the process of the parties coming to an agreement and when I say the City of Pittsburgh I mean myself and other members of Council, specifically Jack Wagner and anyone else who was involved in the process, different people who worked for the City of Pittsburgh, Jim Brown, the Zoning Administrator, and so forth. And the parties themselves are the signatories to the agreement. We are not basing our vote on that agreement nor are we depending on the agreement being fulfilled for our zone change vote.

I think that several things must be pointed out as a result of this whole series of actions and this whole months, in fact, over a year-long issue, and that is that we, as electe officials, realize, and hopefully the public will realize, that we do not represent any one interest. We do not represent only the residents of an area of a city, but we also represent the business interest of a city. And as I've said repeatedly and hopefully it will sink in to those who don't necessarily understand it, that business interests in the City of Pittsburgh do not have the luxury of being out in the suburbs where they have all the land in the world to expand into and that if a business in the City of Pittsburgh is going to grow frequently, if not always, it requires zone changes. Residents have to learn to live with businesses and there has to be give and take; otherwise, businesses will not be able to grow. And of course we want that because its in everyone's best interest.

The other thing that has to be realized from this is that people, no matter how far apart they start, and I can't imagine two sides being further apart than they were on this issue, there were actually gunshots fired, there were tires slashed, windows broken, there were guard dogs and as much animosity as I've ever seen. It was kind of like no man's land up there. We had the public hearing on April 15, as bitter and as hostile a public hearing as ever has been held in this Chambers. Over a time the parties were able to come to an agreement and it just goes to show that the first thing you have to do is to sit down and once we got them to the bargaining table we were able to come to an agreement. I think they all should be congratulated on that, especially the residents because they're the ones that have been living through this.

I think a lot of good has come from this because certain policies that the City had before, specifically the fact that zoning violators were allowed to continue with their violation pending a zone change application, that policy will now be changed, and I think that's for the good of everybody. I've received that assurance from Building Superintendent Paul Imhoff that if a person is in violation of a zoning code, that he or she will be directed to correct that violation before proceeding with the zone change application.

I want to thank all of my colleagues for permitting Jack and I to work out this agreement and indulging us the time. As you know, today is the last day, in fact, it's the 62nd day since the public hearing but because the 60th and 61st days were on weekends today is the last day we could have voted on it, so we really made it under the wire. So, I appreciate the cooperation and indulgence from my colleagues. I also want to thank, as I did before, Jim Brown, the Zoning Administrator; I want to thank the parties at the Urban Redevelopment Authority, specifically its Solicitor Joe Garrity and its Board Members, Steve Grabowski, my colleague, who is a member of that board who on Thursday had to approve a final part of this agreement; I want to thank Attorney Tom Solomich from the law firm of Rothman, Foreman, Gordon and Groudine who donated significant amounts of his time and his expertise in real estate matters to help the parties come to this agreement. And I really want to express a sincere and great debt of gratitude to the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission was the body that reviewed this matter and rationally, reasonably, and with a great deal of concern and time, made a negative recommendation to our body that this zone change not be approved. And what that did was require us to have seven votes to overturn it instead of five. That requirement was extremely beneficial to us enabling an agreement to come forth. The Planning Commission is to be congratulated for its responsibility and for its dedication to seeing that the right be done and I thank them for that.

Michelle Madoff:

I couldn't agree more with my colleague, Councilman Pollock, that everybody bent over backwards and that it is better to have a compromise than to have an asphalt lot sitting there after the fact.

But I have a greater concern and the greater concern I'm going to extrapolate from an editorial that appeared, I believe, this weekend in the Press. If Councilmembers vote for Castriota they will be sending a wrong message. I'm going to read excerpts from it. Once completed, the argument then becomes let it be and there also stands a warning to other who might believe they can disobey zoning rules and get a long after the fact pardon.

If it was a matter of my being the seventh vote, if this was a close call and you needed my seventh vote, that just not to have the parties live with the havoc and the destruction that has been caused by Castriota and the burden that would fall upon the City to have to go back to sue Castriota to make them look good on the havoc and damage that they caused, I might be, and I say might, be inclined to go along with the vote. But I think one of us, or perhaps some of us, need to have a protest vote to put other people who may, and this has happened many times in the eight years I've been here, this isn't the first time, that people go in, violate the law, and said, "Well, we've already put the building there; what are you going to do, make us take the building down?" Well, at some point we've got to say no, you cannot violate the law, you cannot threaten people, but particularly, you cannot break the law and then turn around and say, "Well, we broke the law; we'll try to work something out". I think the havoc and the pressure, the consternation, the time that those people had to come down here, what are they getting for it? They're not getting the property as it was before; they're getting it something like what it was before. And I'm not so sure that anybody that breaks the law and comes to this Council and says let's come to a compromise, is going to live up to the letter of that law, meaning cars could be transported from other directions, will those lights really be off, will there be noise. I don't know that. I don't have a lot of confidence in Mr. Castriota. And I think the people out there have suffered above and beyond the call of duty and I'm going to vote against it.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I would hope that every member of Council would consider this legislation and support it and the reasoning behind it is that obviously it took a lot to get to where we are today. This piece of legislation needs seven votes to pass and there's only nine of us. I'm optimistic that it is going to get seven votes but if for some reason it did not, it would mean that all efforts were in vain, and that would get back to our original public hearing back on April 15 where, at the end of the meeting, we knew that we had three ways to go here; we could vote the original Bill No. 315 up or we could vote it down. Or the third alternative was to amend it. If the bill were voted up, the neighborhood would have lost completely. If the bill would have been voted down, the neighborhood would have won but in reality still would have lost because a piece of land would have been no longer a parking lot and all they would have been required to do is take down the fence and throw some seed on that property. The land had already been changed, the contour of it; the trees had already been removed, and it would have taken decades for it to get back to its original state which was trees and wooded area.

For that reason, the only right alternative was to approach a compromise agreement. The compromise that you have in front of you, the 28 point agreement which indicates 28 separate items which Castriota Chevrolet must do today and in the future to assure that neighborhood will remain basically as it is, or was, is very important. If for some reason this legislation failed, the neighborhood would lose out. This whole agreement meant a whole lot to the Brookline neighborhood of the City. It meant a whole lot to the Brookline neighborhood because we were talking about one of the major, if not the largest employer in that neighborhood, in Brookline, and also a significant number of residents that live in the neighborhood that were against each other, and we all know that from the public hearing. The agreement is more important than simply the agreement itself. It's important that the largest or near largest employer and the residents of the same community can be compatible, can live together, not only today but also in the future.

So, there are many indirect benefits that are a result of this agreement. We can go back and say that Castriota Chevrolet was wrong from the start and I think anyone and everyone would agree to that. But he has signed an agreement and indicates in this agreement that he will do 28 separate things to improve that property. I think that's a significant improvement, I think that's significant in terms of how far we've come since that public hearing. And obviously every one of those 28 items are what the neighborhood wanted. Castriota Chevrolet did not get a full loaf of bread; he got three-quarters of a loaf of bread, though. But the neighborhood, in the meantime, made out also in the deal.

I'm very happy to see this agreement reached because it has also shown what this legislative body can do to bring two sides together that were very far apart. In essence, the key was, and Mark referred to it, was communication. I'm very optimistic that even if two sides are far apart, if you can simply get them to sit down and communicate, which they had not done prior to the public hearing to any great significance, you can put on the table what the disagreements are and you can work the disagreements out. That basically is what has been accomplished here. And the amendments are the items of concern that were put on the table. What's really important about that is that we've retained a liveable neighborhood and we've retained a business. There are other instances of zoning that have come in front of this Council, if we could have achieved the same thing, we would have not decreased the value of the neighborhood or would not have lost a business, such as Unertle Optical. I'm not saying anyone was right or wrong in that particular instance but it sure would have been nice if an agreement could have been worked out on that particular rezoning. We would have saved a company in the City. Well, we're doing that here and we're saving the Brookline neighborhood, we're saving the residential area, and we're saving the business community.

So, I would hope that an agreement like this, that we have gone to great lengths to reach, would be voted on affirmatively by this Council and everyone will live happily ever after.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I'd just like to commend Councilpersons Wagner and Pollock for the great work they did and I call for the question on the motion.

The Chair:

We have to wait. Ms. Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

I travel by Castriota almost every day because I eat brunch, breakfast, before I come in, whatever day it is, at Eat 'n Park in Dormont; so I used to go by that place every time. I am 1000 percent convinced that they would not have gone out of business. I am 1000 percent convinced that they would have found an extra lot to store some of the cars. I think they've violated and broken the law and they violated the zoning law and I believe that this City, with it's Law Department, could have gone back to Castriota and said make that land as good as possible within the bounds of this agreement --

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, this is completely out of order at this time. We're ready to vote on this legislation. This was all discussed 1000 times.

The Chair:

I understand that Mr. DePasquale but she's permitted to speak. We'll call the vote after Ms. Madoff is finished.

Michelle Madoff:

Our City Solicitor could have forced the items in this contract to read green and to put in the kind of planting that would be necessary that is in this present contract, not to just take a fence down or put up a fence. We could have taken some legal action. As a matter of fact, I think we had Seldom Seen where we went back and said you violated it and you've got to make good on the property. I think the man died but be that as it may. I think it's a red herring. I think the man violated the law, blatantly violated the law. As a matter of fact, his own attorney, our former employee of the City, Mr. Yatch, came here and said, "I'm not here to defend him; I'm merely here to take him through the steps and to tell him what he has to do now to make good on the fact that he violated the law."

I think it's wonderful that Mr. Wagner and Mr. Pollock sat down and did what they believe to be correct to try and come up with an agreement that would be palatable and agreeable to both sides. But nevertheless, Mr. Castriota violated the law and anybody else can come and do that and say, "Okay, now we violated the law, come on, let's sit down and come up with an agreement."

For that reason and that reason alone, I cannot support this.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
	(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1004

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for June 11, 1986 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 903

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 216, effective March 21, 1985, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts for the Rehabilitation of the Davis Avenue Bridge, including necessary work on private property, and providing for the costs thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $374,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill 903, I received a letter on June 11 which was last Wednesday from Paul McDermott kind of summarizing, this is on the Davis Avenue Bridge, kind of summarizing what has happened out there in the Public Safety issues that were raised during that particular public hearing. Residents requested increased police surveillance, enforcement of the park legal closing time and posting of the reduce speed sign and protective guardrails preventing erratic vehicles from running onto the sidewalks and front lawns in the Davis Avenue area.

Also at public hearing was great concern of the people who previously used the Davis Avenue Bridge and now that they had to drive all the way around Riverview Park one way or the other. It appears that all the Department of Public Works, that of the Planning Department, the Engineering Department, and especially that of our Public Safety, has been addressed by each of the various departments and they indicated that they will listen very earnestly to the residents out there of their great concerns and the fact that they're going to meet all the safety issues on that particular bridge. And I'm happy to report that my concerns in this particular area have been met and that all Councilmembers should be able to vote affirmatively on this particular bill as we did Wednesday, pending this particular letter and agreement with the people from the Administration.

And to think that we had some $300,000 that was originally appropriated for this bridge and we're now up to $600,000 to rehabilitate it, it will give something to the people who have to drive through our City streets and our parkways. And this is not the only one. If you think of all our major parks in the City of Pittsburgh, Schenley Park, Highland Park, Frick Park, all of them generally have major road systems going right through them. We want our people to drive through them but we want those parks also to close down at the appropriate hours and the people not linger in there and use alcoholic beverages and then come out of there at all hours of the night and endanger the citizens who live abutting to those park areas.

That's my report, Mr. President, and there are several letters that I'd like to add to the Record if I might.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Givens.

RE: Council bill No. 903
Rehab. of Davis Avenue Bridge
DEC Project No. 84242

Dear Members of Council:

During the Standing Committee Meeting of Wednesday, June 4, 1986, Council saw fit to hold the subject Bill because reports previously requested by Councilman Givens concerning the impact on the Community brought about by the reopening of the Bridge had not been submitted. These reports were to have addressed commitments on the part of several departments, which commitments would alleviate the residents concerns regarding public safety. These concerns were expressed by several area residents at the Public Hearing of April 22, 1986. The problems that were discussed at the Public Hearing deal with, generally speaking, public safety issues. It was stated by the residents at the Hearing that people congregating in Riverview Park do so long after the Park closing time, consuming alcohol and other substances. They leave the Park during the early hours of the morning, speeding across the Bridge and through the Community. The residents requested police surveillance, enforcement of the Park legal closing time, posting of reduced speed signs, and protective guardrails preventing errant vehicles from running onto the sidewalks and front lawns of Davis Avenue.

We have reviewed these problems with the Public Safety Department and received assurance that the Bureau of Police will do everything in its power to deal with the aforementioned problems. They will police the Park at night, hastening the departure of or otherwise removing those individuals loitering in the Park beyond the legal closing time. They will also carry out improved surveillance of the area leading to the Davis Avenue Bridge in an effort to rid the Community of fears and danger generated by the undesirable elements that frequent the Park at night.

Through the Department of Public Works we will post reduced speed and other warning signs in the area and insist on strict enforcement of the same by the Police Bureau. With the help of the Department of Public Works we will also install the necessary guardrails to reduce the risk of speeding vehicles running onto the sidewalks and front lawns. In the past there has been, the residents tell us, considerable property damage caused by vehicles out of control driven by drunken drivers.

It is our understanding that Parks and Recreation Director, Louise R. Brown, has submitted a report pledging her commitment to curb problems in the Park.

It is imperative that we move ahead with the rehabilitation of the Bridge as soon as possible so that the work may be completed during this construction season. We sincerely hope that this communication will alleviate any concerns that Councilmembers have regarding the wishes of the area residents and the safety of the Community.

Your favorable consideration of Council Bill No. 903 is hereby requested.

Very truly yours,

Paul J. McDermott, P.E.

Dear Councilman Givens:

The Department of Parks and Recreation supports the reopening of the Davis Avenue Bridge.

The Bridge is important for access to the Park for visitors, maintenance staff, and public safety personnel. Since another entrance to the Park, Valley Refuge, is currently closed due to a slide, it makes the Davis Avenue Bridge even more important.

We regret any inconvenience this may cause residents of Davis Avenue, but we feel it is important for the interest of the Park.

Very truly yours,

Louise R. Brown

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair presents

No. 1005 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of Eugene Dotter of 2068 Palm Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15235, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed as a member of the Board of Code Review for a term to expire March, 1989.

Which was read, received and filed.

Michelle Madoff:

We don't vote on that, is that correct?

The Chair:

No, not on these appointments.

Is there a motion to approve?

Mrs. Masloff:

So moved.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Haven't we always had the person here on the Board of Code Review?

The Chair:

No. We had this argument once before and it was when Mr. Grabowski was appointed to the URA. The Mayor has the exclusive right to appoint and we receive and file.

The Chair presents

AND, a man of this stature, who led a life of excellence intellectually, professionally, and on behalf of his community, deserves a lasting memorial not only to honor his accomplishments but also to serve as a visible example for the young people of our city.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, do hereby applaud the Housing Authority for renaming the Addison Terrace High-Rise in honor of Louis Mason, Jr. and join with the Hill District community in celebrating this important event.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair presents

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby honor and commend Frank J. Pastorkovic for his lifelong service and dedication to the Croatian National Hall, "Javor," and for enriching the entire Pittsburgh community by maintaining the Croatian cultural and ethnic traditions.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Grabowski presents

No. 1006 WHEREAS, on Tuesday, June 10, 1986, City Council held a public hearing on the development of a Marina/Restaurant Complex in the vicinity of Three Rivers Stadium; and

WHEREAS, the petitioners, Nitro Entertainment, testified that for the past five (5) years they have been negotiating with various City agencies including the Urban Redevelopment Authority, the Stadium Authority, and the City Planning Department for the purchase of the site near the Roberto Clemente Park for development of a Marina/Restaurant Complex; and

WHEREAS, after five (5) years of good faith negotiating while working through various steps of the proposal process and incurring considerable expenses, in addition to using tremendous amounts of time and energy, Nitro Development, a local development group, has not been able to secure the site to begin this exciting new development.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh expresses its interest in the proposal initiated by Nitro Development and urges the URA and the Department of City Planning to: 1) sell the site to Nitro Development for the building of a Marina/Restaurant Complex; 2) find an alternative site for Nitro Development's proposal; or 3) make fair monetary compensation to Nitro Development for the years of good faith negotiating planning, and groundwork.

Mr. Grabowski moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, because of my professional relationship with Nitro Entertainment I'm going to have to abstain on this.

Mr. Grabowski:

One other thing, Mr. President. I have attached in my files here a memo to you, Ben Woods, dated February 9, 1982, and the subject is the North Shore Marina. The memo is from Bob Lurcott, Director of the Planning Department and it outlines the steps which these gentlemen should follow in order to be permitted to operate this marina.

It's based on this memo that I'm submitting this resolution and I would like it made part of the Record.

The Chair:

You also should send it over along with the resolution to the URA.

(MEMO REQUESTED BY MR. GRABOWSKI)

TO: Councilman Ben Woods
FROM: Bob Lurcott
Planning Director
DATE: 9 February 1982
SUBJECT: North Side Marina

Attached is a listing of approvals that we believe would be required for the use of the North Side riverfront property for a marina.

If you need any more information or would like to discuss it further, let me know.

Proposed Process

It is proposed that the Urban Redevelopment Authority hold the parcel (7 M 100) for Mr. Vignale for one year. If Mr. Vignale can obtain the following approvals listed below within one year, the Urban Redevelopment Authority will sell him the land. If Mr. Vignale does not obtain his required approvals, the hold will be terminated after the first year and no sale will take place.

1. Army Corps of Engineers and the Coast Guard need to approve the proposed marina location in the Ohio River.
2. Since the area is zoned SA, Mr. Vignale is required to obtain a Conditional Use approval for a restaurant and an accessory use

- (marina). This would require the approval of the Planning Commission and City Council.
3. Since the proposed marina and restaurant is located in the floodway, the new Floodway Overlay Zoning would apply, which would require a Conditional Use approval from the Planning Commission and City Council. One of the restrictions of this floodway zoning is that the proposal must also receive a permit from the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources.
 4. Because the proposed restaurant and marina is in the Lower Northside Redevelopment Area of 1965, and because this use does not conform with the Lower Northside Redevelopment Plan, a change in the redevelopment plan would be required, which would need the approval of the Urban Redevelopment Authority, Planning Commission and City Council.

(END OF INSERT)

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just curious. What happens with this now?

The Chair:

It's a wish.

Michelle Madoff:

It isn't a wish because I think he's going to go to litigation, so it will be resolved in the court.

I have just asked my aide to get a letter for me and I will see that all members of Council receive it, or you may already have received a letter that was a follow-up to the post agenda on Wednesday concerning the McArdle

Roadway.

The Chair:

We're still on the other thing.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, I thought you were through.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, just to follow up on Mr. Grabowski, I requested at the public hearing that the Planning Department provide us with information and make it public as to what any individual wishing to put a marina should do and what procedures are necessary to apply and get approval and where in the City that's possible. So, I would simply like us to send them a reminder to provide that information to us.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Givens	Mr. Wagner
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Woods
Michelle Madoff	(Pres't)

AYES 7 NOES none

(MR. POLLOCK AND MR. O'MALLEY
ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Michelle Madoff:

On Wednesday there was a post agenda held with reference to McArdle Roadway and basically what came out of the meeting with Mr. McDermott and others that were present was that McArdle Roadway which was closed down for approximately seven years, either all or one lane traffic, is going to need a lot of other work. It appears that monies were not allocated; supposedly we didn't have the money. It doesn't make any sense because when you go back to do the work over again, prices have gone up and the cost becomes even more exorbitant. I have the letter here and I would like to read it to make it much clearer. I think most of my colleagues got a copy of the letter. This is a letter to Mayor Caliguiri from me, subject is McArdle Roadway, Grandview Avenue.

McArdle Roadway is the only direct route to Mount Washington and Grandview Avenue, the Niagara Falls of Pittsburgh. The overlooks are our number one tourist attraction. Certainly our number one attraction should be a number one priority.

Who would believe that over $3 million was spent on McArdle Roadway and the upheaval for the residents of Mount Washington after seven years is not over. Mr. McDermott claims an acceleration of deterioration of sidewalks and walls became apparent only in the last three years and the dollars were not allocated to correcting this obvious problem. What lunacy!

Almost every major contract with the City shows overruns because of needed extra work. Not making the improvements at the time we were working on McArdle Roadway is not only unbelievable but also not cost effective.

Too many roads are in need of serious need of repair, many long overdue. But obviously a piecemeal approach is not an effective way to operate and the overlooks on Mount Washington, I repeat, are our number one tourist attraction.

After seven years of restricted traffic for extended times actually shutting down McArdle Roadway, it is inconceivable that all future work would not be undertaken immediately and coordinated so that finally the residents and restaurants of Mount Washington can count on having all work completed in short order.

Mr. McDermott stated that he did not know when funds would be available from the Capital Budget to undertake completion of this dangerous, life-threatening eyesore. There was a boulder rolling down the hill, water constantly running onto the road, the boulder was removed, the street was shut down one way on Saturday, and last winter we had an accident that resulted in the near-fatal problem, somebody was almost killed.

Mr. Blandi, owner of the Le Mont Restaurant along with other business people of the Mount Washington area attended the post agenda and were visibly distressed by the fact that the ordeal is not over. Necessary work that should have been done during the seven year ordeal is going to cause them further grief. We were all dumbfounded to learn at this post agenda that not only will McArdle Roadway again be restricted to one lane from time to time in order to repair and correct multiple problems but that a new waterline is to be installed on Grandview, and that's obviously a needed waterline so we're not complaining about that, but it's something that certainly if we had done it while the seven years the Roadway was down, those people would not be suffering the problem they're going to be incurring very shortly.

A summary of repairs, as I understand, would be as follows: The regular removal of debris from catch basins and drains to prevent water from freezing on the road in winter and causing severe accidents, that's on McArdle itself; replacing or repairing the McArdle Roadway wall; seeding the hillside with plants to keep the hillside from eroding; the removal of trees on the hillside to help prevent landslides, it appears that the trees are pulling the shale off the actual road; boring samples are to be taken to test the extent of damage caused by road salt; making sure the cement support along the McArdle Roadway for the Monongahela Incline is stable; replacing old waterlines; coordinating overhead utilities such as electric lines underground which are anticipated; and coordinating the replacement of old sewerlines and gaslines. In other words, we could dig up, put the waterline in and find out a month later we need a sewerline or we're going to take the electric lines and start digging up the streets again.

I think that spells it out pretty much as to what is needed and I've asked that we have a response as soon as possible.

I wanted to share with Council that this is a very serious problem. It's the first place people take their guests when they come to the City to look at the City. I don't know that I'll be living there much longer, up on Mount Washington; this is not done for my benefit and I know all the secret roads up, the Goat Trail and Burma Road and the back roads. But somebody coming to the City doesn't know and that affects the sale of property. There's a lot of property going unsold up on Mount Washington right now.

It's a very serious problem and I don't know how we allow this kind of thing to happen. Something has to give and I don't know who on this Council is going to do anything about it. It falls under Mr. DePasquale's department and I would hope that he would try to coordinate all efforts because the people up there have had more than enough.

Mr. Pollock:

On another matter. I want to congratulate Mr. Jim Roddey and his committee for the stupendous job they've done with the Three Rivers Arts Festival for this year. I was down there Saturday evening around 8:00 and fortunately we had good weather and Downtown Pittsburgh was like high noon on a Tuesday. The streets were packed, the restaurants and taverns were filled. I think the Arts Festival was producing what it was supposed to, what its intent was, and that was to get people Downtown to help the Downtown businesses and to get people to be with their neighbors. They're doing a great job. The Arts Festival this year I think is the best ever and Mr. Roddey and his committee are to be congratulated.

I have a couple other things I want to mention and these might take a while. If any of my colleagues want to leave or have to leave, feel free, you're not going to upset me at all, but there are a couple things I wanted to talk about.

Number one, I think it should be acknowledged that today is day 8 of the firefighters held hostage, as they put it, and I think that the hostage crisis should be acknowledged. And as much as I think

Chief John Leahy is doing a tremendous job and I think he is such a great asset to the City, I think his decision to not permit our firefighters to sit outside the stations in the summer with the heat as it is and with the vast majority of the stations being not air-conditioned is really a misguided decision and I'm urging him to reconsider it. I know that he's going to be meeting with the Firefighters' Union tomorrow but preliminarily to that, I would like to let him know that the sense of Council is such that we urge him to reconsider it. Obviously we don't have the ability to change this, this is an Administrative decision, but I would like to, if we could, put it in the form of a vote that the sense of Council is that Chief Leahy change his decision and permit the firefighters to sit outside.

I've received an incredible number of calls on this issue from neighborhood people who feel that it is desirable to have the firefighters sitting outside, that they like to see them in their neighborhoods, that they like to see them participating in community involvement and so forth. The people in the neighborhoods like the firefighters, they talk to them, they bring their children by when they're taking them for walks and so forth. It's something that is good for the community. I think that possibly Chief Leahy is maybe over reacting to allegations that City employees aren't working; but no one expects firefighters to be putting out fires that aren't there. So, to ask them to sit inside in the heat with closed doors is really a mistake.

Before putting it to a vote which I am making a motion that we do send this message to Chief Leahy, I would urge the residents of the City of Pittsburgh to tie yellow ribbons around a tree until the firefighters are set free and permitted to sit outside.

The Chair:

The motion is not going to be for a resolution; it's a motion for a letter.

Mr. Pollock:

A letter sent by the Council President and signed by members of Council.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just wanted to say to Mark, if I may, Mark, this goes back to when I was at the Asphalt Plant; it's sort of a similar situation. We would continue to get calls that there were people out on the road not doing anything. I would tell them the only thing they can do between now and when the truck gets there is stand around or go hide or whatever. I said we don't expect them to play jacks or jump rope. When the truck comes we expect them to empty the truck. It's about the same with Fire; when there's no fire what are they supposed to do, twiddle their thumbs? They can sit on a bench and who are they hurting? They're on the premises, they're ready for the fire; if the bells ring they're ready to go. It's sort of asinine that they would ask these guys to go inside. Like you say, most of those places in the summer aren't even air-conditioned.

Mr. Pollock:

On another subject, and again, this is going to take a few minutes and I appreciate my colleagues indulging me. This is something that I feel very, very strongly about. I can't imagine anything I feel stronger about. And again, if any of my colleagues have to leave, it's totally understandable.

I've received several calls about this because I myself did not pick it up. Everyone in the City who has cable television receives without cost and without solicitation or invitation a publication called Cabletime. As I said, I didn't pick up this month's issue, I just throw it out when I receive it, but I received calls about the June, 1986 issue of Cabletime. In it is a document or a letter entitled, "Publisher's Letter" which is an editorial by the publisher of Cabletime magazine which, by the way, is a publication of TCI which is the company that has the cable contract for the City of Pittsburgh. I'd like to read this letter to you.

"A No-Return Policy For Scum"
Can't tell you I enjoy this topic, but from time to time it needs to be revisited. Has our society become hide-bound by an over-commitment to compassion?

Don't know about you, but I'm fairly jaded by the incessant reports of atrocities being committed upon innocent people by repeat offenders. You hear of many who bar themselves in their homes, who fear to walk on the streets of their neighborhoods at night. You probably know people who live this way.

Indeed, just recently, on the streets of our nation's capital - very close to the White House - someone I know was attacked by a young man who had already been twice convicted for severely beating one person and for brutally raping another. This man has actually confessed to beating someone "just to watch her squirm". And, unbelievably, this man was let out on the streets to continue his rape and pillage. The excuse given for his release from prison was the usual one - the unfortunate (but valid) lament by prison officials that there's no room to humanely keep all serious offenders in their cramped facilities. So this man, like many other savage criminals, was set free from prison.

I am tired of all the platitudes by liberals who champion an argument for not executing those infidels and scum who crassly violate the most sacred norms of a peaceful society. I find the logic they use too distorted, too thin, and too insensitive to the victims of these monsters.

As a society, we bend over backwards to provide due process, generously protecting the rights of all individuals including accused criminals. And I still believe all this due process, while frustrating, costly, and time consuming, is demonstrative of what a fair and enlightened lot we are. But after a person has been convicted of a heinous crime, I find it hard to justify any further support or compassion.

We should have the resolve to escort this kind of criminal directly from the courtroom to the Hereafter. Do not pass go, do not go to jail. This is what we must do to protect ourselves, and deter crime. It's a no-return policy. The message to all offenders: You play, you pay. No exceptions.

Peter Barton,
Publisher"

As I said, this comes into all of our homes uninvited so I wrote Mr. Peter Barton, the Publisher, a letter which I would like to read.

"Dear Mr. Barton:

I am writing in response to your Publisher's Letter entitled, "A No Return Policy For Scum" which appeared in the June, 1986 Cabletime Magazine.

Frankly, I am curious as to why you would deem this the appropriate forum for your Neanderthal ramblings. Possibly you felt this Rambo-like eruption would be enjoyable summer reading for your subscribers.

Whatever your logic, I must take strong exception to your viewpoint. Your opinion that due process is "frustrating, costly, and time consuming" is especially discomfoting. It is obvious that neither you nor any member of your family has ever been subjected to a mistaken arrest. Surely if any of you had, you would not find due process to be "frustrating and time consuming".

We, the residents of the United States, are the most fortunate people in the world. Our Constitution and Bill of Rights are two of the most brilliantly drafted documents in the history of civilization. These guarantees along with an independent judiciary are the greatest protection available and known to man. For you to castigate their use is a grave disservice, at the least, and is more likely a serious violation of whatever responsibility exists for you as a publisher.

Your advocacy of the death penalty is clearly your right. But your suggestion that criminals go "directly from the court room to the Hereafter" is frightening. The annals of criminal jurisprudence are filled with instances of witness recantations and mistaken convictions. Your policy, Heaven forbid it should be instituted, would provide for none of that. The instances of innocent parties being executed by the State (an event which already occurs alarmingly too frequently) would occur on a regular basis. I, for one, abhor the thought of being a party to the killing of another human being on any terms, but the thought of my state killing an innocent individual is too gruesome and horrible to consider.

Finally, I find your outlook incredibly harsh. Most reasonable, thinking individuals who are advocates of the death penalty are so reluctantly and do not go out seeking victims of the gravest punishment under the law. Obviously, you cannot be included in that class of persons.

I only hope that in the future when you take advantage of your opportunity to print a "Publisher's Letter" that you will be more circumspect and remember that yours is a family magazine going into subscribers' homes without prior approval or invitation.

Yours very truly,

Mark. H. Pollock"

I received today a copy of a letter that another citizen of our City sent to Mr. Barton. It's a very short one and I think it should be read as well.

"Dear Mr. Barton:

Regarding your June, 1986 "Publisher's Letter" in Cabletime Magazine advocating the abrogation of constitutional rights of accused criminals and the immediate death of those convicted of crime, you needn't wait to see your "ideal" system of justice put into effect, it already exists in a number of totalitarian countries, e.g., Iran and Libya. (It also existed in fascist countries like Nazi Germany.)

Perhaps you would feel safer from criminals if you moved your publishing operation to Libya. Of course, you would have one small problem. If you continued to publish your letters critical of the government in a state with a totalitarian justice system such as the one you idealize, you will soon become an accused criminal yourself — without any constitutional rights. And after you are quickly convicted without due process or a lawyer, etc., you will quickly be put to death. Oops! Well, what's the death of one silly publisher if it means safer streets -- right?

Sincerely yours,

John M. Burkoff
Professor of Law
University of Pittsburgh"

I bring this to the attention of my colleagues and the viewing public and the citizens of Pittsburgh only because it was brought to my attention by citizens of the City and, more significantly, because this document went into the homes of every cable subscriber and I urge the publisher of this magazine to consider more carefully that his documents and his letters and editorials are being read by citizens across this City, many of whom are not as sophisticated as others and might take his ramblings to be those of a rational, intelligent, thinking person. And I would ask my colleagues to consider this as well, not taking any action but just to consider what I wrote. Thank you.

Mrs. Masloff moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, May 5, 1986, Monday, May 12, 1986, Monday, May 19, 1986, and Tuesday, May 27, 1986.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FOURTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS President

LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, June 23, 1986

PRESENT:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We have a few resolutions to give out before the meeting starts.

I'd like to ask Carl Kohlman to come up here please and bring your exchange ballplayers with you and your whole delegation.

As everybody knows, Carl puts on probably the best basketball league in the country and we have some children here from Wales, and a police officer from Wales, Mr. Peter Morris.

The Chair presents

No. 1053 WHEREAS, teenagers Bernadette Gillian Iturbe and Michael Andrew Hooker are visiting Pittsburgh this summer from their home in Swansea, Wales as part of a student exchange program initiated by the Ozanam Cultural Center; and

WITH, two of our City's young people, Jeff Gaca and Steve Burnett, planning to visit Swansea next year to enjoy Welsh culture, hospitality and the beauty of the land; and

SINCE, this exchange began when a visiting police official from Wales took an interest in the positive programming for disadvantaged children being conducted by the Ozanam Cultural Center, which is funded by the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh; and

BECAUSE, of the similarities between Pittsburgh's Ozanam Cultural Center and the community center in Swansea, Wales, Bernadette and Michael will always have a second home here in Pittsburgh.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby welcome teenagers Bernadette Gillian Iturbe and Michael Andrew Hooker to the No. 1 Most Livable City in America and extend our warmest hospitality to these young people so that throughout the month of June they feel at home in Pittsburgh.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Kohlman:

I'd like to thank City Council for this resolution and the exchange has gone even better than I thought it would. The kids who are involved have gotten along really tremendously and we hope to make this something that we can continue in the coming years. We don't want it to begin and end with this one exchange. In fact, Mr. Morris who is a policeman from Wales, has some greetings from the county officials in the county where Swansea is located, and the City officials. They would like to not only do this on a cultural basis but to investigate some business and other ties between the two cities because there's such great similarities.

Again, the two people who are here from Wales are really super kids and the kids that have been hosting them in the City here, two of whom at least will go back to Wales next June, have just been as great as they can be. This is Michael Hooker here and Bernadette and this is Patty Johnson who is Judge Johnson's daughter, Steve Burnett and Jeff Gaca. It just couldn't be better.

Often times we get a chance at Ozanam to work with kids who are not necessarily of this caliber. It's a pleasure to work with kids who are just all around as good as these kids are.

Mr. Morris:

Mr. President, members of Council, we're very honored to be here today to have this opportunity to meet you and to exchange your proclamation for some gifts that have been sent over from Swansea.

In South Wales in particular, our Council has a policy of twinning. For instance, we're twinned with cities in France, Germany and Italy. The Council are currently considering an exchange with a city in Georgia.

Our County of West Morgan has sent greetings to your County Commissioners from our Chairman of our County Council and he has asked me to suggest that perhaps Pittsburgh and Allegheny County could twin with possibly Swansea and West Morgan County. He has asked me to hand these things to you, there's a history of Swansea and some tourist literature which might give you an indication as to the area where we come from, along with some tourist posters, they are. In view of the fact that I'm a police officer, I can't get helmets because these are issued by our central government, but perhaps you would be prepared to accept a helmet plate off of the front from me to you, sir.

I'd also like to say that this exchange came about as a result of the Winston Churchill Memorial Fellowship. Last year I had the opportunity to travel to the United States as a Churchill fellow and in 1965, when Sir Winston Churchill died. The British subscribe 3 million pounds, that's about $4-1/2 million dollars or thereabouts, to keep the name of Sir Winston alive. Rather than putting a rather large statue that few people could enjoy in the center of London, for instance, they decided to set up traveling fellowships to give ordinary people a chance to go to foreign countries to broaden their horizons, and this is one of the things that I've been fortunate enough to do. Last year there were 2,249 applicants in my category which was volunteer worker concerned with child aggression; nine fellowships were granted. As I say, I'm privileged to be one of those persons. Last month I was fortunate enough to be presented with the Churchill Medal for the work that I have done by the Royal Highness, the Princess Anne in London.

Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you very much. I'm sorry we weren't as well prepared as you are with these fine gifts, but I guarantee you that when our two children go to Wales next year they will do likewise. Thank you all very much.

Next I'd like to ask Mr. Joe Moses to come forward and address Council. For those of you who don't know, Joe is the Director of Maintenance for Allegheny County.

Mr. Moses:

Thank you, Mr. President and distinguished members of City Council. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the City of Pittsburgh and particularly the City Public Works for their efforts extended to us in the recent floods that hit the northern tier of Allegheny County.

In the past several weeks, there has been certainly some unfortunate comments made towards the City Public Works but I would like to extend my thoughts and some of the feelings that I had the opportunity to share with these people.

When the floods hit the northern tier of the county, there was a very critical situation. The depth of the water was approximately 18 feet and 3,000 feet in length. The pumps that we had available to us from the military were either in use or inoperable. A phone call was made to Mr. Gaetano and in a matter of an hour, three City pumps were dispatched to the area. Had this certain damn given way, it would have caused a tremendous amount of property damage and certainly, I'm sure some bodily harm.

This is not the first experience I had with the City of Pittsburgh. Back in December of this past year we had a water contaminant problem in East Deer, Brackenridge and West Deer. It was our function to supply some 60,000 citizens of Allegheny County with water and had it not been for the cooperation and the help of the City Public Works, this could not have been accomplished.

In closing I'd like to say one thing. In the annals of Public Works, the City Public Works have written their own chapter and I'm proud to be a part of that. I thank you all very much.

Mr. Gaetano:

The feeling is very mutual for Joe and when Joe Moses in the County Works Department calls us, we're there to help him too. If you would have seen Joe down in the creek with that hardhat on, and he had been out there for weeks, you'll know what Public Works is really all about. He was in that creek, he was down there with the pumps, and I don't think he went home for two or three weeks.

So, Joe, my hat's off to you. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

As I've often said, I'd like all of us to be considered as not one dimensional people but more than one dimension. We know that Lou Gaetano as a public servant; I know him as a personal friend and his wife Jan. Many times when I've taken a lot of abuse here I'll call Lou and cry on his shoulder and call his wife and cry on her shoulder. He's been one of my dear friends. We have our disagreements about McArdle occasionally, and other things, but I don't let that interfere with our friendship and I have a special resolution today for Lou.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1054 WHEREAS, Lou Gaetano, is being honored for his twenty-eight years of coaching baseball; and,

WHEREAS, Lou Gaetano, starting with Little League and progressing to his current coaching position with the Triple A BA Federation League also serves as Secretary of the Chartiers Valley Baseball Association; and,

WHEREAS, Lou Gaetano has dedicated himself to working with young men, many of whom have been chosen to play professional baseball; and,

BECAUSE, Lou Gaetano's team this season included two men, one selected by the Pirates and one by the St. Louis Cardinals, who will be part of professional baseball farm teams;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby congratulate and commend Lou Gaetano, Director of Public Works, for his outstanding dedication to all the young men who have benefitted from his coaching and personal interest in them.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Gaetano:

First, I really accept this for all the people who are like me and give their personal time for amateur baseball that really don't get thanked for it. My coaches, the gentleman on the left here that's running this camera, is one of my coaches along with John Russo and his father.

I've been in this baseball-type of business for quite a few years. Starting from Little League I know the emphasis today is that a lot of people put their money and their support to the Little League. I'm still for Little League but I'm hoping that a lot of the people also put their emphasis on the older adult, the young adult who becomes 18 or 19. This is where it all happens. A lot of these young people, whether its Legion or AAABA which is City-County league or Federation league, they have the opportunities then to go to college that cannot afford it, and they also get their first opportunity of having a Major League scout look at them.

So, once again, I accept this for all the managers who do what I do and I'll continue to do it the rest of my life.

Michelle Madoff:

Before you go, Lou, I have one question. Can you organize a team for women?

Mr. Gaetano:

Anyone can; you can, Michelle. If anyone can do it, you can do it.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't play baseball.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, it's interesting to note, all, Michelle, you have to do is come out and join the Council's softball team and it's interesting to note that the Pittsburgh Public Works has one of the best teams in the league and Puddy Sell and some of the people in this room, Jack Wagner, etc., and I go out and cheer from the sidelines every once in a while, and we have some good fun.

But, Lou, on the serious side, I want to congratulate you for all your work. I've been very aware of this and I'm glad that Michelle has recognized this particular thing and has put it in. As the Chairman of the Department of Public Works, this is what epitomizes, I feel, the type of people that we have in City government today, both on the elected side and the Administration side. You're just not a Director of Public Works, you do many things with charity in mind, with your own Department of Public Works in conjunction with the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh and some of the people who work in that Department have other endeavors into the sports arenas, etc., that I'm aware of and that's what is very beneficial not only to the City of Pittsburgh but to all its residents and what really makes Pittsburgh the most liveable city. Thank you.

Mr. Gaetano:

Just one other thing, being up here both in my profession and being thanked through Joe Moses and Council and then through the rest of my profession which is baseball, I don't think this has ever happened to anyone in their life. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you and Joe, a special thanks from all of us.

The Chair presents

No. 1052 WHEREAS, on Sunday, June 22, 1986, President Nicholas A. Sansotta is being honored for his twenty-four (24) years of leadership and service with the Teamsters, Local 249; and,

SINCE Nick Sansotta, current President of Teamsters, Local 249, has served in various elective and appointive offices within the union, beginning as Union Steward in the early 1950's, Delegate to the Teamsters National Convention in 1957 and 1961, Business Agent of Teamsters Local 249 for twelve (12) years from 1961 to 1972, and Vice President of Local 249 for six (6) years from 1973 to 1978, in addition to being a Trustee of Joint Council 40 and a Director of the Pennsylvania State Conference of Teamsters; and,

BECAUSE, Nick's life is full of outstanding personal accomplishments including holding the Pennsylvania AAU Heavyweight Boxing Championship, before serving in the infantry during World War II, where he was awarded two (2) Purple Hearts and a Bronze Star for Valor, and performing charitable work for Boys Town of Italy, the Multiple Sclerosis Society, and the United Way; and,

WHEREAS, from Nick's first job driving trucks for Canada Dry Company to his current post as President of Local 249, he has developed the reputation as an honest and fair individual, a good listener, and a man of his word, who is comfortable with people from all walks of life;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby congratulate and commend Nicholas A. Sansotta on his outstanding career with the Teamsters, his distinguished personal accomplishments, and his strong concern for the members of his labor organization and the community at large.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

That resolution was given out last night and that's why we had prior approval.

Mr. DePasquale:

Nick's not here but let's give him a hand anyway.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if I might, I'd just like to say a few words on behalf of Nick. I think several of the Councilpeople attended there last night but not only the Councilpeople, you saw the outpouring of people from the Pittsburgh and surrounding communities that came to Nick's testimonial. When you see a person that's been a heavy-weight champ, the heavy-weight champ of our local area, the AAU and the Pacific Theater during World War II which meant to me that that was when he was in his prime of life, had he been in a normal situation he might have been champion at one particular time. But to shake that man's hand was to give dignity because if he just puts on you with a tight little slap you'd probably go flying across the room. He hand must weight 20 pounds. But Nick has that great power that he has demonstrated in his youth but he has carried over with the people that he has worked with and what was indicated last night was the heart that this man has worked with and that was the last resolve there. He can work with all kinds of people but he does that with a loving heart. And the cross-section of people who came out to that affair last night at his testimonial was one that I think all of us have to tip a hat. He's just not the President of Local 249; his reach into the community and into the labor movement goes much further than that and I am very proud to have a man of this type to be recognized in this resolution and that we had our President of Council who served at the dias last night to give comment and to present this on behalf of all Council. I was very proud to be there last night and to honor Nick and his wonderful family.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Givens.

Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 1046

Report of the Committee on Finance for June 18, 1986 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Bill No. 940

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of $460,000.00 (Four Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars) from Code Account 41, Refunds Real Estate Tax, Index Code 004101 in the Department of Finance to Code Account Special Parks Program Trust Fund, Index Code 254359 the amount of $70,000.00 (Seventy Thousand Dollars) and to Code Account Special Summer Food Service Program, Index Code 270256 the amount of $390,000.00 (Three Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars) in the Department of Parks and Recreation."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill 940, in reference to the Department of Parks and Recreation, the total funding for the Summer Food Service Program, some of us were at a community hearing up in Polish Hill this last weekend, and of that, the children weren't being fed any summer programs because the recreational facility was not in. Well, Louise Brown indicated to me privately after this Wednesday session that she was going to have these lunches for the children for the Summer Lunch Program at Polish Hill which I think is good for the youth and for senior citizens, if I'm not mistaken, and I approve or give my vote to this bill, 940, contingent upon that. It was a promise that was given by Parks and Recreation and I hope that they honor that program, that they'll have that lunch service in there as soon as possible.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

Michelle Madoff:

I have a concern on Bill 946. I just want everybody to know what we're voting on. It says miscellaneous services to the Law Department. We're voting $100,000 that miscellaneous services to pay for attorneys on election by district, the fight, because this Council is being sued. I just want to clarify that and please have my comments from Wednesday brought forward.

I asked a question of Mr. Pellegrini and that's what he said it was for. That's true; isn't that what he said? That's what the money is for; was it not?

Mr. O'Malley:

$75,000 was for that.

The Chair:

$25,000 is for the Schmeiser case.

Michelle Madoff:

But $75,000 is for the lawsuit. I just want people to know what we're voting on, not miscellaneous.

(BEGINNING - MICHELLE MADOFF'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 946 -
WEDNESDAY 6/18/86)

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. What miscellaneous obligations? I don't like to vote for miscellaneous. I've never met a miscellaneous yet.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The miscellaneous services involved are two-fold. We did not budget the $75,000 for the voting rights case, and we also did not budget the $25,000 that we were required to pay outside counsel as a result of Mr. Flaherty's lawsuit against Mr. Schmeiser and Mr. Stone. In fact, I'll probably be coming back to Council again for another $30,000 to $50,000 for that lawsuit.

Michelle Madoff:

Or for an attorney to sue me.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Woever, but just for that particular lawsuit will be another thirty to fifth thousand dollars.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pellegrini, did you anywhere in your bill indicate, because I quite frankly didn't read it until just now, what the money was for? It just said miscellaneous.

Mr. Pellegrini:

It's just a transfer. In fact, you authorized the previous amounts and what this does is it makes that account whole.

Michelle Madoff:

In future, would you help Mike Perry because he has not got a crystal ball that functions, his broke, and just tell us this miscellaneous service will be used for the $75,000 that we need for the lawsuit and for whatever else, so that he can put it on our bill and we don't have to take you to the table and go through this. It saves us all a lot of grief and time. He's been doing it on other bills for other things and it's been very helpful.

I might also, at this point, mention that that was a very close vote, as I recall — maybe not close, but it was not a unanimous vote to go out on that $75,000 for the attorney.

Mr. Pellegrini:

It doesn't matter whether it was close, but as long as it was five to four.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm not arguing, but I'm making the point that maybe we could drop that lawsuit if indeed something could be worked out without a lawsuit. It appears a bill may come out of Committee, and maybe we could save the $75,000.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think we can save the $75,000 because that lawsuit is progressing and there's been a lot of work already done on that lawsuit.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just asking because I don't know.

Mr. Pellegrini:

But the answer, but the fundamental answer is that there has to be a way to resolve that matter which is not in my power right now nor have the Plaintiffs made any offer to settle.

Michelle Madoff:

I was hoping that the Administration -- I've talked to the Mayor, and he said he was willing to sit down with all sides, and I conveyed this to you, to come up with a resolution so we couldn't have to go to court. Is there some mechanism where you could establish that?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'd rather not discuss that anymore right now.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Givens:

I have a comment on Bill 946, on that judgment. I would like to go on the record. $100,000, apparently, was for litigation on Mr. Flaherty, the Controller, and $75,000 was for the Council by district. These bills are going to continue to accumulate in the Council of the City of Pittsburgh and my only caution here is that we in Council must pay this and as a result, how many other bills are out there that the Administration is going to present to us? I think somewhere, Mr. President, we might be able to get a handle on that because this thing could get carried away one way or the other. I don't want to see the City to get into litigation to the point where it's going to cause political ramifications with this Councilman as others in this Council, and to hold cost down as much as possible for the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh.

So, this bill has ramifications and I'm voting for it today but I'm assured there are other bills that will come in and I ask that the Finance Chair and others, yourself, Mr. President, to find out how involved this is going to be and to please try to get the Administration to hold cost down as much as possible in going into litigation, that they come up privately or otherwise and tell us how far they're going to go here and see if they have the support, the total support of this Council as far as they're going.

Also,

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 987

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the amount of Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars from Code Account 1611-1, Utilities, Bureau of Operations, Index Code 161117, to Code Account 1502, Miscellaneous Services, Director's Office, Index Code 150201, both accounts within the Department of Public Works.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 987, we're transferring $15,000 out of a utility account; is that correct?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

There were a lot of reasons why, we had a surplus in gas bills and gas prices that were discussed last week, I believe.

Mrs. Masloff:

It was mostly gasoline, wasn't it?

Michelle Madoff:

Gasoline? But that's still a utility fund. We have a problem with Grandview Avenue has been declared part of the City of Pittsburgh which mandates that the utility line should be placed underground. In July we're going to be digging a big whole, we being the Water and Sewer Authority, to put in a new waterline and our office has been informed, and we can't get a definitive answer from either Lurcott, Lou Gaetano, McDermott, or whomever, and the best we can find out is that there is no money to put those lines underground and I think it would be absolutely ludicrous to dig the whole, put in a new waterline, in light of the fact that I outlined all the problems with McArdle last week and we were told, I believe Channel 4 called Mr. McDermott and Mr. McDermott said, "We're not going to be shutting down McArdle." I want to inform everybody that it was shut down not this past Saturday but last Saturday you could not come down from Mount Washington. You could come up but you couldn't come down; it was shut off one way to get some of the roadside litter and boulders that were falling and rolling off the hill. This week it was closed coming down for a couple of hours; I don't know the reason why. There's no way you're going to work on McArdle Roadway to either drill to replace the wall, to pave the sidewalks, take off the trees, do all the work that's going to have to be done, get the water leaks that are going onto the roadway where we almost had a fatal accident, and put devastation back on people for seven years on that mountain who have been dealing with the roads closed all the time or part time. Now you're putting a waterline up and we're saying, "Well, we can't get enough money to put the underground wires in at the same time" and here we're voting to take $15,000 out of a utility account and that utility account might help pay for, that $15,000 might be able to go towards putting in the underground wires.

As I said, I can't get a definitive answer. I was going to bring it up at the end of the meeting but I brought it up because it may be pertinent to this bill. It's money that we're going to need and I just don't know. How would you proceed, Mr. Woods?

The Chair:

I would pass it because the money is staying within the department and evidently they need it in the Miscellaneous account and they have a surplus in the Utility account.

Michelle Madoff:

If you have a surplus in the Utility account but our department heads say we don't have enough money to put our overhead wires underground we're going to have to dig it up twice after seven years, maybe we shouldn't be transferring it. Maybe we ought to hold it a week and see if we can find the money somewhere else. Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

I hear you.

Michelle Madoff:

Why would we transfer that money if we're going to need it for a utility item which is putting overhead lines underground?

Mr. Givens:

Because Public Works is doing this actual work and they need that money. Otherwise, it comes out of the Department of Public Works' hide.

Michelle Madoff:

It would seem to me that no matter where we find it we have to find that money so we don't dig that whole twice.

The Chair:

But both accounts are in the same department, is what Mr. Givens is saying. So it really doesn't matter.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright, I just wanted to mention that.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like my comments brought forward pertaining to the sidewalk obstructions on Bill No. 935.

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS - BILL NO. 935 - WEDNESDAY, 6/18/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Director, did this come out of Building Inspection?

Mr. Gaetano:

Yes. The legislation has always been in the City Code, okay, and the only amendment to it is the actually walking, having pedestrians be able to walk on the sidewalk.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. Does this legislation also protect the various shop owners, and when I say that what I mean is at the present time we could actually fine them for placing their displays out on the sidewalk.

Mr. Gaetano:

Yes, there will be other legislation introduced through Building Inspection, Public Safety, that talks about vendors in different areas, and this does protect them and keeps the Strip area exactly what its for.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. So in other words, what this does is it protects not only the shopowner by permitting them to display their product, but also it requires them to regulate a certain area for pedestrian walkways, so it helps the public also.

Mr. Gaetano:

Right. Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

What are the parameters of this legislation? It says here, exception in the Produce District. What do you identify as being the Produce District?

Mr. Gaetano:

The Produce District goes from 15th Street, then on the north by 24th Street, on the east by Liberty Avenue, and the west by Allegheny River.

Mr. Wagner:

So it's 15th Street to 24th Street?

Mr. Gaetano:

Right.

Mr. Wagner:

The Allegheny River --

Mr. Gaetano:

To Liberty Avenue.

Mr. Wagner:

Liberty Avenue. Now is that considered to be the Strip District, the official boundaries of the Strip District?

Mr. Gaetano:

This is how it was already in the City Code in Section 719.06, yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe that Councilman Wagner asked for a breakdown on the bill, the $21,000 for the air conditioning.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I asked for information.

Michelle Madoff:

And we got the information today.

Mr. Wagner:

I did not receive it.

Michelle Madoff:

I got it.

Mr. Wagner:

I'm glad to hear someone receive it.

Michelle Madoff:

So am I. Mr. Perry, would you do me a favor and read this for everybody?

Mr. Perry:

This is to Jack Wagner, Councilman; from Daryl Smith, Director of the Department of Water; dated June 20, 1986; and the subject is Water Treatment Plant Air Handling System.

"The air handling system at the Treatment Plant was installed in 1969 with a cooling capacity of 98.2 tons. This system services the laboratory, O.C. Center offices, conference room and the first floor area. The replacement cost of this system is approximately $200,000.00.

Per your request, we have examined the repair history of this air handling unit. Our information reveals that the following repairs have taken place over the past five years:

July 28, 1979

Check
$272.00

September 10, 1979

Compressor replaced
$19,000.00

June 16, 1980

Check
$648.00

July 14, 1980

Miscellaneous repairs
$2,183.00

August 22, 1980

Replace expansion valves
$1,176.61

July 13, 1982

Remove and repair evaporator coil
$460.00

July 29, 1982

Remove and replace evaporator coil
$8,286.66

June 25, 1982

Freon required for evaporator coil replacement
$1,817.50

Contrary to the information you presented in Council, we have experienced only $10,564.14 in repair and service costs to this air handling system over the past 5 years. All of these costs were related to the removal and repair of the expansion coils in the air handling unit. This expansion coil is a totally separate component from the compressor that is now being considered for replacement.

The compressor was replaced in 1979. The warranty period for a new compressor is one year. Since the compressor lasted over 6 years, we certainly have no legal recourse against the supplier of the compressor.

It is important to note that an air handling system is made up of a number of components (compressor, fans, coils, valves, etc.). When one of these components fails, we are faced with the decision of replacing the component or replacing the entire air handling system. In each of the repairs itemized above, it was determined that it was more practical at that time to replace the non-functioning component or components than to replace the entire unit. Since this air handling system is now 17 years old, the repair vs. replacement decision becomes more critical.

Our current plan is to purchase and install a rebuilt compressor that carries the same warranty as a new compressor. It is our opinion that the other components of the air handling system are in pretty good shape and should provide good service for many years to come. Therefore, we believe that the proper course of action is to install a rebuilt compressor. As I indicated during the Council session, we reviewed this situation with Chester Engineering and they concur that this is the proper course of action.

If you have any further questions concerning this matter, please feel free to discuss them with me."

Carbon copies went to each member of Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Wagner, didn't you say that you had irrefutable information that they spent $40,000 on repairs?

Mr. Wagner:

My figure was $30,000 over the last five years but, as indicated, I was wrong; it was over the last seven years. And the total figure that you have there is what?

The Chair:

They bought a new compressor in '79 and that cost $19,000 but over the last five years it has only been $10,000.

Michelle Madoff:

That's my point. I would like to make a recommendation that that be Xeroxed and sent to all members of Council. I don't know why Mr. Wagner didn't get it since it's addressed to you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I certainly don't want to hold up this legislation but the purpose of requesting that was that I was told that the air conditioning system at the Water Plant simply has not been functional and working well for a period of years. Whether or not it relates to this particular unit or not I am not certain. However, we do have a big plant there and we have a big air conditioner supplying a big plant and maybe the approach they should be taking is looking at individual units for separate rooms without having a large unit working full-time for the entire building. Obviously people are not in the entire building all the time; just certain rooms that control the various valves are the rooms that have to be manned 24-hours a day and maybe that's the route we should be approaching here to reduce the amount of maintenance cost on the system.

Michelle Madoff:

Since we already have a system and since it is recommended instead of replacing a $200,000 unit and buying individual air conditioners there's no bargain and you get a noise level that's unbelievable unless some of the new ones are quieter but expensive, and it occurred to me that that is an item that you might want to follow up and speak to the department head about.

As you know, you made a very astute comment that at least we got an answer. You raise a very good question. I don't know the answer to that question because I don't get answers. I got your answer sent to me. It may be that there are other air conditioning units that do need attention and I think that I've got a piece of legislation, a floor motion at the end of the meeting that will address some of the problems we have in Water and it might just be appropriate at that time to also delve into since that's a Water and Sewer Authority bill now probably and I'm wondering if that doesn't fall under their department, that we address that issue at that time.

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

I had made an inquiry and last Wednesday I had discussed this particular bill and what was happening right here. This contract that the City is supposed to enter into, apparently they've already entered into a contract. I've gotten calls and my office has made calls since Wednesday when this bill was introduced so we can get some information from it and it was inquiries into my office that some of the major fireworks display, people here in the City of Pittsburgh had not had an opportunity to bid on this particular fireworks, some $45,000, some of the people that have been traditionally been doing all of our fireworks here in the City of Pittsburgh over the last several years, and that has to raise a little bit of caution for me to vote for this and I'm sorry that I didn't have an opportunity to get this information ahead of time but I would recommend that the Chairperson put this in Committee for one week so we can discuss this with the Administration, etc., if only for the purpose of finding out what is happening right here, because of the inquiries that came into my office. I don't know if any other Councilpeople have received these inquiries or not. Have they or have they not?

The Chair:

I haven't. Dick, the Fourth of July is almost here. We don't have the time.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, I was just going to say that we're 10 or 11 days away and there's nothing wrong with this. We're 10 or 11 days away from this event. These papers are all in order, the insurance is in shape and there's no reason to hold this bill up at all. I move for approval.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I haven't relinquished the floor.

The Chair:

Yes you did.

Mr. Givens:

I asked the Chairperson if she might put it back into Committee. It's a request that many Councilpeople make right here so I can try to solve and give an intelligent answer to the people who have been traditionally doing this work for the City.

I have to appreciate that the hour is getting very close; however, most of these people are not even paid until after the deliverance of the fireworks and if there's such a big rush, why are we getting it at such a late date that even one week, that I cannot respond to the issue?

Mr. Pollock:

I think we should go ahead and vote it because of the lateness of the hour but then look into Mr. Givens' allegations. If he's saying that people who normally bid on our Fourth of July fireworks show weren't able to bid, then that's something that should be checked out. But I don't see why these people shouldn't have been able to bid or shouldn't have known about it. I mean, the Fourth of July comes around about the same time every year and if they're bidding on it then they should know when to get their bids in. There's no reason for them not to know about it.

Mr. DePasquale:

With all due respect to Councilman Givens and the calls he's received, I don't think there's anybody in the City of Pittsburgh equipped to do a job like that. At least in my experience I've never run into anybody.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm in favor of Bill 943 and the expenditures but I think this is the type of legislation that this Council is going to have to take a closer look at in the coming years, especially under the fiscal restraints put upon us by the federal government. I think this type of legislation should be a joint venture between the City and the County because quite a few of the people that participate in the July 4th celebration are also county residents.

Even though $45,000 is not a tremendous amount of money, we had a very emotional hearing here on Wednesday that concerned West Penn Pool. This $45,000 would operate that pool for approximately three years.

So, I think expenditures like this along with the Regatta and the Arts Festival, the July 4th celebration, the Zoo, these should be jointly sponsored and paid for between the City and the County because I don't feel the City could any longer afford to carry the entire burden for these --

The Chair:

Mr. O'Malley, this is coming out of Parks Special Trust Fund which is all donations. It's not taxpayers' money.

Mr. Givens:

Regardless of where the money is coming from, eventually it comes from the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh. This was apparently an agreement that did not have to go out for open bid. There are contractors out there who want to bid on these fireworks, thus maybe reducing that $45,000 price. I cannot sit here and vote on anything that comes before me when I felt that there hasn't been a good display or a good effort on the part of the City to go out and get all contractors to enter into some type of a bidding process. If this is then a director contract with a particular contractor, I would say there are other contractors out there, major fireworks display contractors who did not have an opportunity to even bid on this particular $45,000.

For that reason alone, I ask that this bill be held for one week and let's see where it goes from there. And I don't think the one week of delay is going to make any difference on who can perform the contract or not and, as Jim so indicated, it is a joint — This is the 4th of July fireworks. Now we know what we've been doing with the 4th of July fireworks almost going back to 17 something and as a result, I think there's injustices being done here and all I want to do, my office just wants to do one thing. Just check it out. A very simple solution. Forget about the time because if the time is critical, it wouldn't be coming at this late hour. And give other people a fair shot at it, that's all. Because if we do pass on this, we'll probably hear it from these people and justifiably so, and I will get bids from contractors and find out what they could have done this particular fireworks display at and find out that I might have been able to save the City of Pittsburgh maybe $10,000. And that's exactly what our Finance Chair is trying to talk about. Let's get our cost down a little bit.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, I don't know of any fireworks operator within the City limits. There isn't any to my knowledge that can handle something like this.

Mr. Givens:

Just go to your phone directory.

I put it in the formal form of a motion that this bill be held for one week, if I can get a second on the vote.

Mr. Grabowski seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Aye.

Mr. Grabowski:

Aye.

The Chair:

The motion fails.

Mr. Givens:

Discussion on the bill itself. Again, I just have to caution my fellow Councilmembers that this particular $45,000 expenditure has not gone out and people have been denied the opportunity to bid on this particular contract. That's all I'm going to say.

Mr. Pollock:

I just want to remind my colleagues that now, if we vote no, we cannot bring it up again during this legislative session. It's a different vote. Yes or no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Pollock

Michelle Madoff Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff Mr. Woods
(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES 1

(MR. GIVENS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, we're getting a little clown action in this Council that I don't appreciate. I want the Chief Clerk to go over and read the thermostat. I want a reading from that to see exactly what the reading is in this Council because there's been certain innuendoes and certain clowning going on that I don't appreciate. So, for the Record, I want it to be read and I want it so entered into the Record.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, if people want to make fools of themselves, that's their business.

Thermostat Reading:

Set at 72 degrees.

Registered at 72 degrees.

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1051

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for June 18, 1986 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 965

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements effective January 1, 1986 with James K. Staud, VMD, for veterinarian services in connection with the treatment of dogs assigned to the Canine Unit of the Operations Branch of the Department of Public Safety/Bureau of Police, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff Mr. Woods
(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 966

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Director of the Department of Public Safety to extend the sick leave of Police Officer Thomas O'Donnell for a period of fifty (50) days in an amount not to exceed $5,160.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Grabowski:

On Bill 966, as I recall from last Wednesday's Committee Meeting, the City Solicitor was to give us some sort of legal opinion on this and I have not seen it. Perhaps Councilman Wagner can enlighten the Council on that issue.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, Mr. Grabowski and members of Council, I received nothing on this particular bill. We were told last week that we would find something out by Monday either to move on the bill or to hold the bill and put it back into Committee for one additional week. As I indicated, I have heard nothing so therefore I feel that we should move on the bill.

Mr. DePasquale:

Didn't the Solicitor concur last week that he was for it?

Michelle Madoff:

Wasn't it Director Norton who was to get back to us as well? He said he was going to check it out. We've heard from nobody.

Mr. O'Malley:

If I remember correctly, the ordinance that permits Council to do this also states that we must have the permission or the okay of the department head. Of this particular department it would be Mr. Norton.

I think for Mr. O'Donnell's sake, I think everybody on this Council was in favor of the legislation and supports it but I think maybe from a legal standpoint that if we pass this legislation without that letter and that permission from John Norton, this may be an illegal piece of legislation. So, maybe for Mr. O'Donnell's sake, we all want to see him get his money, maybe we should hold it for a week and request that information from Mr. Norton again.

The Chair:

It's my understanding that even if we do pass this, that if there's not a letter or if the Director does not wish to do it, he doesn't have to do it. That is my understanding.

Mr. DePasquale:

The Director is on record, Mr. President, saying he was for it the other day.

The Chair:

We in Council cannot do this. We have to pass the legislation but it has to be accompanied with a letter approving it from the Director of that department. That's my understanding.

Mr. O'Malley:

What if we pass it without the letter?

The Chair:

He doesn't get paid until the Director authorizes it.

Mr. Pollock:

Can't we pass it now and by the time it's signed into law we can get the letter?

The Chair:

If we sign it into law, whatever we pass has to be signed into law by the Mayor, it doesn't matter. If we pass it and the Mayor signs it, unless the Director says it's okay, he doesn't get paid. That's the way I understand it and the way I interpreted the City Solicitor. So, we could pass it but it's still up to the Director.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, if I may, I think the safe course of action here would be to recommit this bill. I think we are on the verge of setting a very dangerous precedent and before we proceed, I think we better make sure that we are clear in what we want to do and that in fact we want to do this. From last Wednesday's meeting, I recall the City Solicitor giving an opinion off the top of his head that this was somehow in conflict with the collective bargaining agreement. Furthermore, Director Norton indicated that last Wednesday was the first time he saw this legislation and he was under the impression that this officer was an outstanding officer but he needed some further information. I think to be safe we had better recommit this for one week. I put that in the form of a motion.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it's time that we sent a message to the Directors that we want answers in time, that we're entitled to that and we are the elected officials of this City and we don't want to vote in a vacuum. The general impression of both Mr. Norton and Danny Pellegrini is that they would like to do it, let's vote on the bill. If it should pass this Council, they can come back and tell us how we can get it done or that it's illegal and that we have to do it in another form. I don't think we should keep delaying the bill. I think we ought to vote on it and if it's illegal, so, he should have given us the information. Why didn't he supply us with the information? Why should we always be guillotined because we don't get the information?

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm in favor of recommitment, again, for Officer O'Donnell's sake because once we recommit, the legislation is back on the table and we have a right to call John Norton and Solicitor Danny Pellegrini to the table and ask their opinion and whether they're in favor of the legislation or if they're against the legislation and we have the right to get all the information we need.

If we pass this legislation, then this Council is limited, or it wouldn't be permitted at a Wednesday session to follow up on this piece of legislation. In other words, you can go into limbo and just be passed over and there's very little this Council would be able to do about it.

Mr. Wagner:

In regard to this bill, 966, the Director has been well aware of this situation for well over two months. The only reason why I chose to introduce this legislation was that various members of the F.O.P. brought it to my attention. I informed them that the proper procedure was for the Administration to request the legislation for Council to approve it and then for them to confirm it. Several requests were made by then to the Administration to do that; it was not done. So, I acted in the best interest of this particular case by presenting this legislation in front of Council. Now, whether or not the Administration will concur that they agree with it, I do not know. All indications are that they will and as Mr. Woods indicated, they must in order for it to be official. I believe the recipient is well-aware of that also; it needs the Administration's approval and it needs Council's approval.

I personally am not in favor of recommitment of the bill. The reason why is because the bill has been in front of this Council now for two weeks. The Administration is well aware of it. We were supposed to hear from them between last Wednesday and today; we have not. The Department of Public Safety does things at will; they never inform this Council of it. When we ask for information we don't receive it. They go on trips that we're never aware of. We get bills to approve legislation afterward. I, for one, have given them ample time to respond to this legislation and I will not vote for recommitment and I ask all of you not to vote for it.

Michelle Madoff:

I had made the same kind of statement Mr. Wagner made except that I don't want to see something in the paper that says, "Council stops worthy police officer from getting what is justly his because they went ahead and voted". That happened to me when I was out at the hospital and I did not know that you were going to resubmit a bill on my claim the following week. I just had no idea and perhaps had the votes. However, Mr. Ferlo was going to have a public hearing and requested that I take it to court like everybody else and I said okay, so be it, I'll take it to court like everybody else.

In light of that and the way it makes us turn out, I'm going to back off of my position, Mr. Wagner. I think we might be doing this person a great disservice and I think that we better wait a week so that if he doesn't get it it isn't that we rushed it through and therefore made sure he didn't get it. I think that was the point Mr. O'Malley was making and I feel that it would be responsible of us to give it one more week anyway.

Sometimes we wait months; one more week won't make a difference.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to make one comment. I share what Michelle is trying to say right here. I want Officer O'Donnell to get all the things that we can give him in this Council and I'd like to see this bill pass unanimously. I'm afraid if it goes today it's not going to get that unanimous vote and I think that's what we need to send a message to any of the Administrators if in fact, and this is the first time since I've been a Councilperson and I just talked to Jeep here who has a few years himself and myself, we're going back 15 years, never has a police officer felt that he needed any extra sick time in order to stay on the payroll. I assume this officer has been one heck of a good officer or there wouldn't be so many people going to bat for him, and I think we need to hear a little bit more about the details of maybe his illness privately so that we know and have a greater understanding of it. And I agree with Jack, maybe, I thought it was kind of a routine matter but it's not a routine matter, Jack. It's the first time it has come up. If its voted on right now, it probably won't get the unanimous vote of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh. I'd like to see it get that and I think it can if we recommit that and get a couple questions answered if we talk about this on the Monday session.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, correct me if I'm wrong but I thought when Director Norton was up here the other day that he said that he was in favor of the payment but he also was awaiting a legal opinion. As Councilman Wagner says, we were told on Wednesday that we'd have that opinion by today.

I'm opposed to recommitment because I'd like to see this pass, as everyone else here on Council I know would. However, if the Legal Department says it's illegal then so be it; it just won't be paid. But I think we should vote on it today and not recommit it because of what Norton said at the table there, although he didn't have it in writing but we were told we'd have the opinion today and we don't have it. What are we supposed to do?

Michelle Madoff:

I have a suggestion. I just conferred with my colleague. I would like to call for a five minute recess to see if we have enough votes to get it passed. Recess for five minutes.

The Chair:

We can't do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Why not? It's done all the time in Congress.

The Chair:

It just so happens that we are not the Congress.

Michelle Madoff:

Well we ought to start behaving like it and following some of the rules.

The Chair:

I agree with you.

Michelle Madoff:

The reason I act up is because you don't go along the rules.

I'm calling for a five minute recess;

do I have a second?

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

The Chair:

And I would ask my colleagues not to do this.

I could just rule you out of order because we already have a motion on the floor and I don't have to accept your motion for a five minute recess until we dispose of the other motion that's on the floor. That ends that subject. Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

On Michelle's motion?

The Chair:

It's out of order. There's a motion on the floor and we can't take another motion until that motion is disposed of.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President, point of order. What are we on now?

The Chair:

Recommitment.

Michelle Madoff:

So we're going to vote on recommitment first of all, is that it?

The Chair:

Right.

Now it's my turn. Mr. Wagner, I agree, I'd rather vote on this and get it over with, but there is some sentiment here to recommit. I agree with you that we ought to send a message back to Danny and to Mr. Norton but I think on this matter maybe we ought to just wait and pick another time and another occasion. I would like to see it recommitted just to get Dan's opinion. If we don't have it by Wednesday, I'm going to vote for it anyway but if we could just do it then we'll wait until next Monday and do it.

Mr. Wagner:

My final comment, again, unless the Administration agrees, the legislation is not valid. So, no matter what we do, their opinion has to be affirmative. I don't know how many times we can request information from the Administration whether it be this issue, the consultant studies, the reports we should have had months ago. All this takes is a phone call. It's a matter of checks and balances in respect for the different branches of government. That's really what the issue is more than the issue in front of us.

The Chair:

If I may, Jack, I would like to debate Danny on the issue that we can't do this because it's in the bargaining agreement and I believe that anything in the bargaining, we can get more than but not less than, and that's what he was going to give us his legal opinion on and if it comes up his way, I would like to debate him on it. That's why I'm asking that you recommit it.

Mr. O'Malley:

One last comment. I think Mr. Wagner gave the best reason to recommit the bill. He indicated that sometimes he does not get answers from the Public Service Department or from Mr. Norton and if we pass this bill now, this bill will go into limbo and we may never get the answers. But if we recommit, we can John Norton and Danny at the table Wednesday and we can get all the answers that this Council requests.

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, before we vote. What's the Chairman's pleasure? Recommittal or what?

Mr. Wagner:

To vote on the legislation as it sits.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 5 NOES 3

(MR. DEPASQUALE, MICHELLE MADOFF AND MR. WAGNER VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill was recommitted.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I gave you earlier a statement that I would like to put in the Record and make a request for three hearings and I will read it.

Approximately 3600 City of Pittsburgh residents don't have water meters. They are billed once a year at an estimated amount based on: the number of faucets, bathtubs, toilets and water consuming appliances in their homes. Metered residents are billed for actual use on a quarterly basis.

Most of the flat rate customers are party line users ... 2 or more homes are provided service through a single connection to the water main.

Some developers ran a single line off a water main to provide service for an entire development. Most of these party lines have existed for 50 years or more.

Normal buildup of interior coating has resulted in the significant reduction of line size. The development of water consuming appliances has increased the demand for water. Unfortunately, the volume available, because of clogged lines, has decreased and subsequently added the additional problem of lowering water pressure resulting in times when residents have service interrupted or don't have any water at all.

Persons on flat rate service who are not metered are more likely to be senior citizens, people on fixed or low incomes and the unemployed. Homes billed for flat rates can pay as much as $400 a year as opposed to the metered residents with identical water usage and would pay up to 75 percent less.

It appears that in some cases a family that is metered could pay far less than a single resident on a flat rate.

Our office has received literally dozens of complaints from persons on flat rates. I am, therefore, requesting that the President of Council schedule a public hearing for all flat rate customers. A mailing list of labels is available of a flat rate customers.

Incidentally, just so we don't have 3600 people, although we can move to the Diocese, what we want to know is are you going to attend and the letter would tell how much room we have for people to be seated, that they may want to speak for a group of people. But they are requesting a hearing and it has to be addressed. I'm requesting, as a member of City Council, the right to have a public hearing. If I was denied, then we would get 25 signatures and we will go ahead and do it and we will hopefully through the media let the other 3600 people know. I don't believe you have the right to deny a public hearing to any member of Council. We can discuss that.

I am also requesting a public hearing so the Water Authority can report on reasons for rate increases and a post agenda or hearing which can be combined with the above on why we haven't collected unpaid water bills and why we don't know the exact amounts, as we read in the paper this weekend. It's estimated anywhere from one million to five million. They don't know who it is or why we don't know the information and I want to know why, the Water and Sewer Authority has been in operation for two years, they don't have this information.

NOTE: At a vote of four to five, Council lost the opposition to the creation of a Water Authority. Our concern was that water rates were going to go up and it was going to be very substantive and that we should have the courage to vote that as a Council and not relegate that to the Water and Sewer Authority which was formed just to be able to raise rates and not just to issue bonds because there's a mechanism whereby Council could have had a bond issue in house. We could have been the overseers. We four who voted in opposition were afraid that what is happening would happen. Water rates would go up each year substantially.

The majority of this Council voted against four of us to avoid the political ramifications of having to face the music and the music is becoming played very loudly. Fourteen percent last year, anticipated nineteen percent this year; I don't know what it will be next year. After the money side of the bank for two years getting interest and sort of legal arbitrage we now say to senior citizens, whoopee, we're going to give you a little decrease in your water rates. But really we're not because it's going up farther than what we're decreasing and it's going to continue in that vein. And I think that we need to have a report.

I want to also say that our office has requested the annual report from the Water Department for '83, '84 and '85, and there is no such report anymore. We just got a fiscal report from the Water and Sewer Authority and it said nothing except how we went out and borrowed money, where they borrowed the money, and how they started spending it. It doesn't talk about how the Water Department is functioning, the number of leaks, where they're shutting down valves, the problems that we've run into shutting off water for 12 hours for the communities on the East End because we can't find out valves.

I only wish that this had not been planned obsolescence. I've been here eight years; I've been trying to get money every year for the Water Department. It was deliberately planned obsolescence. We kept it together with spit, paste and band aids. Our Water Department staff didn't have the equipment they needed to do the job.

They have backhoes that were 17 years old that were costing us more to rent and repair than getting a second hand one. And now that gives the Administration the excuse to go to a Water Authority because the number of leaks and we're now going to pay the cost that we all knew it was going to come to and those who objected to the Authority, and I think its appropriate we have hearings on all three items.

The Chair:

If you would like to make a motion to have a public hearing and it gets a second and the majority of Council votes in favor, we will have a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think it would be appropriate for me to do it since everybody is gone. We've lost three members of Council. I think I ought to hold it until next week; I don't have enough people here to get a majority vote.

The Chair:

How do you know that?

Michelle Madoff:

Well if I lose I'm out of luck, aren't I? But I could always then go out and do 25 signatures so it isn't all lost.

I'll make a motion that we have a hearing on all three items.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I was always under the impression that flat water rate users got a break. Perhaps I'm wrong and if so, I stand corrected.

But the other is, can anyone here answer the question, if a person is on the flat water rate, can they get a meter put in upon request? If these people don't want to do this, what would be the sense of having a hearing?

The Chair:

On the motion first.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. Woods, I would hope that we could have an unwritten or written rule or policy from you that any member of this Council does not have to make a motion or request a public hearing, but it would be given to him or her upon a request to you because to require to have a vote on it, if it would lose, it would just be requiring that member of Council to go out and obtain 24 other signatures which is really an embarrassment to us as members of Council to inquire that. So, I would hope that you would entertain any request for any member of Council for a public hearing and grant that request.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, I'm just going by the rules that have been set before I got here. Never have I seen ever before when a Councilmember made a request or made a motion to have a public hearing that this Council or other Councils that I served on did not permit that. I can't see anybody here going to vote against it.

Mr. O'Malley:

Just to take the other side of that, I agree that this Council should vote on requests of Councilmembers for a public hearing because any Councilmember has the right to ask for a post agenda to get all the information that they needed or all the information that they request. Each member of Council has priorities that are important to that person but are not necessarily important to other members of Council. I'm not so sure that it's proper that all nine members of Council should have to show up at a hearing just to gather information when the information could be gathered at a post agenda. I think it's proper that all members of Council do vote on the hearing because there are instances that all of us have priorities and my priorities might not be Michelle's priorities and while Michelle is working on her's I certainly should be able to work on mine. I'm not so sure that something like this shouldn't be done at a post agenda and then if Michelle cannot get the needed information at a post agenda then she should request a hearing.

Mr. Pollock:

I think that Mr. O'Malley isn't taking cognizance of the fact that even if this Council votes that member down, if he or she wants a public hearing, he or she can get it by just going out and getting 24 signatures and what it's really doing is embarrassing that member of Council and further putting members of the staff in a position where, if that member of Council goes up to the City Clerk's Office to get signatures, are the members of the staff going to sign that petition because one member of Council asked for it and the other colleagues voted against it? I think it's an awkward situation, I think it's embarrassing, it's requiring a member of Council to basically have to resort to actions that any member of the public has to when in fact members of Council shouldn't have to resort to that.

The Chair:

All in favor of the public hearing?
Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to request that it be televised. That's a motion.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

I second that motion, Mr. President, for the mere reason that it affects a lot of people, a lot of water users in the City of Pittsburgh and I think many of those people in the City don't have the opportunity to come down here and I think that's what our public governmental Channel 17 is all about, to get the message out.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, clarification. We're talking about three items. We want to do them all in the same day? The three hearings I requested. Three items. Are you aware of that? One is on the flat rates, we have a $3 million cost to repair it, the Water and Sewer Authority has the money; the other one is why we haven't collected the money today; and why the rates are going up. Do you want to do it all in one day?

The Chair:

I sure do.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine with me.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Pollock:

Just one quick item. I'd like to publicly thank Fire Chief John Leahy for amending his policy regarding permitting the firefighters to sit outside the fire stations. It's my understanding that once the firefighters have fulfilled their duties and responsibilities that they are now permitted to sit outside and I congratulate Chief Leahy on this and I thank him for his courage. It takes a lot of intestinal fortitude to change ones policy in light of public opposition. I thank him for that.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to comment on that also. I spoke with Chief Leahy privately about that a week ago and I was very pleased to see that he did respond to the overwhelming desires of the firefighters and what appeared to be the desires of the public also. I think that showed good character on his part and it obviously improves harmony and morale within the Fire Bureau.

The Chair:

I'd like to make a comment on that also. I think before he gave such a directive he should have researched the subject and as far as they can sit outside after all their duties are finished, I'm sure they did that anyway. I respect Mr. Pollock and Mr. Wagner's opinion for thanking him for rescinding his order but I don't because he shouldn't have given it to begin with.

Mr. DePasquale:

Whose idea was it for the yellow ribbon? I think that's what did it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I raised the issue earlier about Mount Washington and I have before me a letter that should be distributed to all my colleagues. It's addressed to Mr. Gaetano from Jane Downing, it's dated August 20, 1985, and it addresses the issue that I raised that Grandview Avenue is going to be part of Downtown and as such should have the electric wiring put underground. I think it would be a horrendous imposition on the businesses up on Mount Washington and the residents if we put in a waterline in July. And do you know when July is? Less than two weeks away. It would be impractical at this time and we don't find the money to put the electrical wiring in at the same time. I don't know who is dealing with this, everybody is passing the buck. Lurcott is passing it to McDermott, McDermott to Gaetano and Gaetano back to Planning and Planning is supposed to have taken care of it some time ago. We cannot permit that waterline to go in and then six months later dig that street up again. The cost to the taxpayers is too horrendous.

I want an answer. What do we do about it? Whose department is it? Who will take care of it or do I have to call a post agenda on it?

The Chair:

Call a post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

Post agenda this Wednesday.

The Chair:

You already have two this week; you'll have to make it the following week.

Michelle Madoff:

We don't have time. They're going to dig up the street.

And on the motion of Mr. O'Malley

Council adjourned.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, Point of Personal Privilege. From Robert's Rules, page 68, I am very upset that I have been asking for two years to do something about the immediate draft that is hitting Linda Johnson, Assistant City Clerk, and myself. Sophie and I have been ill. Maybe the gentlemen wearing heavy jackets are not as susceptible to drafts.

It says on page 68 that a member of Council is allowed to raise a question of personal privilege and the subject can be the comfort of its members, the heating, lighting and ventilation, etc., of the hall.

I resent looking like an idiot on the camera running back and forth to the air conditioner. It is cool out, we could open a window and we could turn that draft down.

Mike Perry and I have been trying to get Mr. Fisher to come to this room and change the vents just by closing them off here and leaving them open at the other end. The room would still be cool and we would not have the immediate draft on our heads.

Last week I went to the doctor; I have swollen glands again. I've had a cold, I am constantly ill because of that draft on me. This has gone on for eight years. I know you want to get rid of me but I think that my lawyer will have to deal with this problem.

I would respectfully request that the President of this Council insist that Mr. Fisher get here and do something about the draft. I could sit over there with the media; the draft doesn't hit them. I'd be delighted to sit over there and you may address me from there. But I've got to do something about this problem.

The Chair:

Let me tell you something. Every other member of this Council and everybody else in this room is comfortable. I see young ladies, I see Linda Johnson, our steno, everybody else in this room is comfortable. I will ask Mr. Fisher to try to accommodate you but the air conditioning will be on. It is very hot and muggy outside and if you want to have your attorney call me, please feel free to do so.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond?

The Chair:

No you may not.

Michelle Madoff:

Miss Johnson has also complained of the air conditioning. It's not just me.

The Chair:

You are out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I think the people watching know what you're doing. I think the message is getting out very clearly.

The Chair:

You are fined.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm always fined, Ben.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 1074 Communication from John Norton, Director, Department of Public Safety, requesting permission for

Mr. Pollock:

On Bill No. 1026, I'd like to publicly thank the President for permitting this legislation to go through. As you may recall, this is for the creation of a parklet in Squirrel Hill and it will be named after the Rabinical student who was shot and killed in Squirrel Hill. So, I'd like to thank you for allowing this to go through.

I also wanted to publicly apologize to Mrs. Masloff for not knowing that it went through her committee because if I had she would have co-sponsored this. I did not know the procedure and I apologize to her.

Mrs. Masloff:

I accept your apology.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, may I address my colleague, Mr. Pollock?

The Chair:

Yes you may.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, sir.

Mr. Pollock, in addition to the landscaping of the Hillel Academy, there appears to be a problem with the driveway in discharging children from busses and cars that needs to be included. Presently the busses and cars stop on Beacon Street in front of the school and all traffic must stop and the situation is unsafe. Do you think this could be addressed with the Hillel Academy since you're so graciously working with the conservancy to get the landscaping done?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

It would be greatly appreciated by all concerned including the Hillel Academy. Would you report back as to what is happening, please?

Yes.

(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, last week, as I recall from the Wednesday Committee Session, there was supposed to be a written report from the Law Department relative to the City's position. I guess no one has received it.

The Chair:

No, there's been no report and I think, in my opinion, we gave them more than ample time to respond to our request and I would suggest we just pass the legislation.

Mr. Grabowski:

I tend to agree with you, Mr. President. Last week I was the one responsible for holding this a week to let the Administration respond and obviously they don't want to or for some reason they've chosen not to. I think, even though this is something perhaps out of the ordinary, in light of the written testimony that was presented and the oral testimony that was given at the Committee Session relative to this particular officer, I think that we should move forward with this and approve it. It is an unusual circumstance.

The gentleman, from what I've been told, wouldn't go on vacation, never used his sick time for 12 years or so, and I think that those kinds of employees deserve to be rewarded. They're certainly few and far between and I would hope that the Administration would go along with this, should Council pass this, and I'm sure that we will.

Michelle Madoff:

It is very interesting to me and I'm sure to my colleagues that when the Administration chooses we get responses and when they choose not to we do not get responses. My office received a response, and I'm sure the rest of Council did, with reference to the proposal to donate $50,000 to the auspices of the Salvation Army. We did get a response to it which I disagree with but we can get into that at another time. But it's a matter of being selective responses.

I think it's interesting that the President of our Council, while I agree with him completely and with Mr. Givens and Mr. Grabowski and other members, that we should take the lead and indeed appropriate the funds for this gentleman. I think it's interesting that if it's something that the President or other members wish to do we will proceed with it. I can assure this Council that if it's something Michelle Madoff wanted to do and it wasn't uniform agreement, particularly the President of this Council, it would not fly and I have a bill coming up shortly that was shot down once before that I think will fly the next time. This has happened and I can document them and of course if I say anything I will be fined but when Mr. Pollock made a smart remark he was not fined. That was a comment for the record.

On the bill, I would certainly ask the question that I asked last time. That bill was prepared to amend the procedure. It was suggested that we amend the procedure in the future that sick days, personal days, can be used and saved up for people such as this gentleman, if you don't use them in a given year they can be accumulated. We were asking to have that procedure changed. Was there a letter sent to that effect?

Mr. Perry:

As of this day, no.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you please see that Mr. Pat McNamara and Mr. Norton, the Mayor, and certainly the President of this Council, and all of my colleagues, get a copy of the recommendation that we, and I believe this was the opinion of the Council last week, that they be allowed to accumulate their days so we're never confronted with this situation again, so that it would be just a matter of pro forma where someone who has saved their days and hasn't used their days, they wouldn't have to be put through the embarrassment. I think this person who has been an outstanding officer should not have to be the discussion of these Council meetings repeatedly. It is unfair, unjust and humiliating. And I for one, of course, am going to vote to support his extension of sick leave.

I am afraid that the Administration is going to perhaps veto it and that brings me to the point which I started to say and I was ruled out of order, and that is that we get a discretionary opinion. This Council has set aside dollars for consultants and I would think that it would be appropriate immediately and I make that in the form of a motion to have an attorney representing this Council when we get what I expect we will get from the Administration denying payment to this officer to justify the fact that legally we are on solid ground and can indeed do what Mr. Woods has stated that if you give them better than what is negotiated they were allowed to give it to an employee but we cannot take something away. I think we need someone who is familiar with arbitration law to represent the will of this Council which doesn't appear to be, at this moment, the will of the Administration. Should the Administration concur, then we don't need to take any action. Should they disagree, we should have a counsel of our choice ready to represent our viewpoint. That is in the form of a motion.

The Chair:

It cannot be a motion; there's already a motion on the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

Then I will hold it until it is appropriate.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to Bill No. 966, I would appreciate if my comments were brought forward for the record.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 966 -
WEDNESDAY, 6/25/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the Chairman of the Health and Welfare Committee of the FOP to come to the table and maybe he could comment on the letter and summarize it, Mr. Gabe Coheres.

Mr. Coheres:

Members of Council, in the past 18 years, I have been Chairman for the Health and Welfare Committee for the City of Pittsburgh and in all these 18 years, we only submitted about four request such as this to Council and if you would read the letter, it is self explanatory. Here is a police officer for 12 consecutive years hasn't used one sick day and he lost sick days on the other end of it. For five years he didn't take a vacation for some reason or other and he lost 125 days vacation. He is incapacitated with a stroke at this time and he is in the hospital. He exhausted all his sick leave and I feel in special cases which the City Ordinance is self explanatory right here, it tells you that "extension of sick leave can be given in special cases." This is really a special case and if you read the letter, I think it is a very special case and I feel that this resolution should be passed.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to comment on Mr. Coheres comments. I agree with him as Chairman of Public Safety Committee; there maybe some difference of opinion and I know infact that our Legal Department has indicated that we not approve this. Whether or not there is anyone here that from our Legal Department, I don't know. I requested that someone be here today —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

No, I am not. I spoke with Mr. Pellegrini yesterday and he indicated that he or possibly a representative would be here to comment on it today, however, they did indicate from a legal point of view, that we should not set a presedence by doing this. I indicated to him that we had done it in the past on very isolated special situations and this is a special situation where we had an employee who has not utilized sick time, vacation time and infact know that there are employees that abuse that in the city. This individual has fallen upon very unusual circumstances and the extention of that sick time I beleive should be considered and should be approved by Council. However, as indicated in the ordinance, not only must Council approve that, but the Administration must approve it also. So therefore I think it is important to note that I would hope that this Council would unanimously approve it and let the Administration know that we would like to see them support it also.

Just one final comment. I think there is a need however, for us to develop some criteria where special exceptions like this exist and so that in the event a case like this comes infront of Council sometime in the future we have some criteria by which to evaluate such as that an individual does not utilize their sick time or does not abuse their sick time in the past; by doing that I beleive that we would be creating an incentive to our employees to not utilize their sick time if they don't need to utilize it and possibly at some future date if they fall upon some very unusual circumstances from a health point of view and they are off ill and they are off sick for an extended period of time, that we could reconsider their position and grant some extra time until that person is back in shape and come back to work or terminate their employment and go off a pension. So I think there are two issues here. I think it's the individual issue with Officer O'Donnel and I think there is a need to set some type of criteria by which we can qualify people for this in the future.

Mr Chairman if I may just make one final comment and also a question. My question to the Administration is and I don't know if this should be proposed to the Law Department or Public Safty Department. First of all, this information provided to us is accurate. This individual has not been off sick for 12 years in a row, is that correct?

Director Cannon:

That is correct.

Mr. Wagner:

The individvual did not take any vacation time. I think it is important to know that because it is a very unusual situation where any employee in this city goes 12 years without missing because they are sick. Obviously, everyone is sick in a 12 year period; they wake up in the morning with a fever or the flu or a headache or whatever and they do not want to go to work and obviously this individual has the self initiative and the pride in his occupation as a police officer that he overcame those physical elements and came to work. Not only that, did not utilize vacation time. And to follow up with Councilwoman Madoff and my earlier comment, there is a need for us to I beleive to become more innovative in our labor/management agreements. Just as they do in professional sports, they build an incentive clauses and an incentive clause could be that if an individual did not miss work for five years, that they would qualify under unusual circumstances such as this. I don't think we can write that into legislation, I think it has to be negotiated in the labor/management agreements; but I beleive there is a need to do that and I fully support making a special exception here for Officer O'Donnel.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to state real briefly, there's been a lot discussed so far in regard to this piece of legislation and this exception that is being made for Officer O'Donnell. However, as indicated at our Committee Meeting, this is a special exception where an individual has gone 12 years without taking a sick day, 5 years without vacation, and actually this individual should be receiving an award for doing this.

This legislation that we're passing here today is simply extending the sick leave an additional 50 days. If you accumulate it over a 12 year period, the person accumulated well over 100 days. We're really not doing anything, I think, real unusual except that this Council is making an exception where an exception should be made. However, it must be stated that in order for this officer to receive this, the Administration must agree. So, I would hope that they would agree, an exception would be made, and that in the future somehow we create incentive clauses in our labor management agreements for people that work as hard and as long and as well as this officer has.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like my remarks to be brought forward from Wednesday.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 966 - WEDNESDAY,
6/25/86)

Mr. Givens:

I would like to say that when a police officer in relation to his duties and especially Officer O'Donnel here much of what happens to a person health is directly related to the job that individual is performing. All of us know from even the reports that we recieve here on disability within the city that for both pur police and firemen, that the heart is a primary factor, stress, all of us know is a great factor in this. It doesn't take any of us to be a doctor here to understand that a person has a stroke at a relatively young age, it is generally occupation related. Had the officer had this on the job in the process of apprehending somebody, he would probably been covered under the normal compensation; the fact that he was not on the job at the time and was probably home or off duty, he was not covered by compensation which is very unjust because I look at the ideal that an officer on or off duty if it is associated with the job related that he should be covered fully under compensation rules; and the fact that this tragedy happened so quickly and that there are children involved and he is incapacitated. I think the only just, knowing how he had served this city for 12 years not taking one day of leave time, has to indicate to all of us and I plead as well as our President and our Chairman, Jack Wagner, for the Administration, regardless of what it takes legally for us to draft something up. I feel that this legislation is appropriate and if something else has to be done legally to make it appropriate in the eyes of the Mayor and our Solicitor, City Solicitor, let them come forward between now and Monday and present that to this Council so that we can have justice be served. It's not an avalanche that going to be coming before us. I think Gabe, for 15 years, he has indicated that only two or three cases have ever came before the Council for particular approval.

And I think we have justice served here and I would hope that not only this Council, but everyone in the Administration would get their shoulder behind this and let's get it approved even if it requires an amendment to some state laws.

Gabe, can you express to Council here if this is not passed either by this Council or because of legal opinion what the impact is on the family? Apparently he has ran out of his sick time, what happens now, he gets no time? Is he still carried on the rolls as a City Police Officer?

Mr. Coheres:

He has carried on the role of not getting paid; in other words not receiving anything at all.

Mr. Givens:

If this incident had happened while he was on the job what would have been the status of this individual?

Mr. Coheres:

He would have been put on Workmen's Compensation and the city would have been liable for him for life.

(END OF REMARKS)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, sir, would it not be appropriate now to have a motion that if the Administration decides not to go with the wishes of Council, which are unanimous but we're prepared to defend the position that Mr. Wagner has stated. This is a man who has accumulated 100 days and we believe that it is in keeping with the law because you can get two opinions on anything.

The Chair:

Well, I understand your feeling but I would not accept the motion because in the City Code it is a joint effort by this Council and by the Administration. So what we have to do, even if they come back and do not approve it, we could not sue, we could not counteract their legal opinion; we have to change the Code.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1082

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for June 25, 1986 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Which was read.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of Pittsburgh hereby invites all City residents and business to follow suit.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. It seems to me that the last time we did something like that, we billed ourselves as the City of Champions, and we haven't won anything since. I think it might just be a bad omen to put on our stationery, as suggested, Most Liveable City. Certainly we would not want to take back all the stationery that's out. Any of us can get a stamp made and if we wish to add that to our stationery we can respectfully do that on a one on one basis. If we want to put it on because we think we're the most liveable city, that is at the will of Council. But I think it might just be a bad omen since the last time we did it we haven't won anything since. I think it's something to think about.

Mr. O'Malley:

In 1980 I put the resolution in to have the logo on the bottom of our stationery, the City of Champions, because at that time the Steelers were coming off four Superbowls in the '70s and the Pirates were contenders and the University of Pittsburgh won the championship. So, I think that was very appropriate at that time. I think we were all proud of our sports teams. But those titles have to be earned and until our sports teams reclaim those titles and I'm sure they will in the late '80s, I think now it's appropriate to change the logo and Rand-McNally has given us the opportunity because we are the most liveable city in America. I think many people in this City worked hard towards that title, I think we earned it, I think we deserved it, and I think we should brag about it and I think it should be on the bottom of our stationery that Pittsburgh is the most liveable city. And maybe like our sports teams, it's a title that we're going to have to continue to work hard for in the future to keep that title. If somebody can take that title off of us, then obviously they deserve it. But until they can take that title off of us, I think we should display it and we should be proud of it.

Mr. Pollock:

I have no problem with the resolution; I would just like to point out that there have been other logos, and I think Mayor Caliguiri was involved with the big pronouncement to have the City be called the City with a Smile and the City with a Smile on its Face and there's Pittsburgh Someplace Special and the City of Champions. So, I would just ask that a little caution, that before we start printing anything up, that we make sure, we determine exactly what our nickname or slogan should be. I personally prefer the Most Liveable City; whether its designated that by any organization or publication or not, we can still claim it. So it's not like the City of Champions where if you lose the game you're no longer champion. We're still the most liveable city no matter whether we're designated that by some publication or not.

So, I would support this with a little bit of caution to make sure we're not stepping on anybody's toes like the Chamber of Commerce or something like that.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and Councilman O'Malley, I agree with the promotion of the City, I think its a great idea. However, there has been one logo adopted about six months ago by the Pittsburgh Convention and Visitors Bureau which is being utilized by them and the logo and the wording is, Pittsburgh's the One. I know they have been putting that on stationery, they have been putting it on signs; they've been putting it many places, I believe, in terms of advertisement around the country. I don't know if we want to come up with a logo that's different from one that's already being utilized. I think it's important that we have a logo; the question is, which one. That's something that has to be agreed upon.

Mr. DePasquale:

Could we amend it to say, except after rock and roll shows?

Michelle Madoff:

My question really to Mr. O'Malley was, I would hope that we would not destroy the existing stationery and put that additional burden on paying for that cost because we have thousands and thousands of reams of stationery already printed up. That's why I suggested if you want to add that, I have no problems, but get a stamp made up.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm in agreement with a lot of my colleagues. I'm not sure what Pittsburgh the One really designates; the one what? Maybe it's the one most liveable city in the country. I'm only saying, the City of Champions, like anything else, its a title that has to be earned and unfortunately our sports teams haven't earned it in the past few years. The City of Champions, that logo we have earned. I think all of us have earned it, I think we've all participated in making Pittsburgh the number one City, not just this Council but businesses and our laborers and our taxi drivers and everybody else that lives in this City. I think it would be very appropriate to brag about it a little bit.

The Chair:

All those in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Wagner:

I abstain.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President and members of Council, I think the incident that happened over the weekend has to be discussed here. As you're representative on the Auditorium Authority, I asked Jim Kessler, our Executive Director from the Auditorium Authority which includes both the Convention Center and the Civic Arena to give me a preliminary report as to what happened at that particular facility which is jointly owned, as all of us know, between the City and the County.

Jim indicated that he talked with the Vice President of Finance at the Civic Arena and that they had seven times the usual security forces and the concert was scheduled to end at 11:00 p.m. but ended at 10:45 p.m., as some indicated, a little bit early but not that early. It was scheduled to start at 8:00 p.m. and the show got underway at 8:01 p.m. There were a few rowdy residents in the Arena but nothing out of the ordinary. When the doors were opened for the kids to leave, they just ran out in kind of a mob type of scene. That's the report from the Civic Arena.

With your permission, Mr. President, I would like to call a post agenda this coming Wednesday because of the urgency of it and the outcry from our citizens of the City of Pittsburgh wanting some resolution as to what's going to happen in Pittsburgh next. It's not just a police issue; it goes much deeper than just a police issue.

So with that, Mr. President, I'd like to call at this post agenda various department heads to discuss what had happened in this situation and others in Downtown, including that of Public Safety, Planning Department and Public Works, all dealing with crowd control in a certain arena. Call in the Executive Director of both the Stadium and the Auditorium Authority and also request that the people who run the Syria Mosque be present because I think they're the three arenas where this type of events do happen within the City of Pittsburgh. I don't think Heinz Hall brings in these particular groups, to my knowledge; if so, then we'll ask them to be here.

I also would like major university input and I'll elaborate on that a little bit later, input from various community leaders because this is not a Downtown problem. It affects, I feel, the leadership of all of our areas and that leadership reflecting to the parents of the children who attend these particular events. Naturally, the Golden Triangle Association is extremely involved and much of the restaurants and late after hour businesses are being affected by the image that is being portrayed. I'm sure the Mayor's Office would want to have someone to attend that particular meeting for the input that we get. There's probably one or two other groups that I omitted and if any Councilperson would be happy to supply them to myself or the Chief Clerk between now and Wednesday we can get this.

I think all of us know that it's just not a police issue; it's a psychological, sociology, and it deals in with our whole society and no one individual is going to be able to solve it. I don't know, Mr. President, if you want to chair that particular post agenda it's alright by me. I think someone has to bring the various forces, the various movers of the City of Pittsburgh together so we can try to have some type of resolve and bring dignity to these particular events.

I just happened to be in Town when that particular issue happened. We were coming back from the Democratic State Committee. A bus load of some 43 people disembarked right out in front of our building right here at 11:00 that night and witnessed apparently one of the assaults that was right down by the parking lot across the street from this particular building. Naturally it happened so quick and most of didn't understand really what was happening. It was done and over with that very quickly. But the scene was definitely one of emotion and coming in at that late hour not knowing really what was happening, knowing that probably the Civic Arena had let out, we knew the ballgame was under progress, and it was a very frightening scene.

If any of you saw it on the local television that had the opportunity to be Downtown and take some of it, they were young people, they were well-dressed, and I think the majority of them were out just having a good time. I don't call them hoodlums or anything else. I think these were good kids that reacted in a certain way to an event that they had just attended. I think this is the core and this is what has to be looked into to find out where we can go. The Mayor and I don't know if all of you had looked at it or not, at the 12:00 newscasting indicated that he'll even go as far as stopping all of the hard rock concerts in the City of Pittsburgh. I think that's taking a very drastic step and one that might have to be taken. But I'm sure the Mayor's Office is working very hard to bring resolve to this and I feel that this Council as a body, elected by the people, must also take their initiative to try to bring resolve to this particular problem.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

We have two post agendas on Wednesday so we'll have to schedule this one for 1:30 or 2:00, and you'll have to chair it as President Pro tem because I will be flying out of town at 3:00.

Mr. Givens:

Fine.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, in line with what my colleague, Mr. Givens, has just stated, you're absolutely right, Mr. Givens, I'm glad you were there. I think many of us were going to address the same issue. I'd like to take it from another perspective, although I would like to follow up on what you suggested. You might want to invite the fast food people who are very concerned about the impact on their business and the impact of what their business creates.

I watched it on the news and I have seen, as most of us do, letters to the editor where parents are writing how their children are being harrassed, threatened, frightened, because there is virtually no security of any substance at the Civic Arena at these games. You can smell marijuana, there's drinking going on, and nobody's paying for the security. I don't know who's from this committee who has not looked into that issue. I think that's basically where it starts.

I think you made a very valid point, Mr. Givens, when you said it was a reaction of the youngsters when they came out of the concert. It was a kind of music, it was a stimulation, and who knows what kind of stimulation they had from alcohol and from drugs. They do not have proper surveillance.

But the issue goes beyond that. The issue goes to the public hearing, Mr. Chairman, that is scheduled, I believe, next Tuesday on the police officers. That issue addresses the fact that it is estimated by Mr. Pat McNamara of the F.O.P. that this year it is anticipated we are going to have the largest loss of police officers. We normally lose about 50 by attrition and we put on a class of 40. This year we're anticipated to lose 72 officers. We are not putting any classes on and we are and have been 102 police officers below the minimum security.

I am going to make a formal motion that we put on a referendum ballot the question to the public: Would you be willing to spend extra money for taxes if the money were guaranteed to pay for police officers? I will bet $1000 to anybody's favorite charity that the public will support that referendum.

I don't think the Mayor has to be afraid of raising taxes for the purpose of police protection. We have too many vehicles laid up, we don't have enough vehicles to even have one police officer in cars circulating in the neighborhoods. I have no objection to one police officer in the car; that's not my issue. I'm not even going to second guess Mr. Norton because I'm not equipped to second guess him. But I know that before I got to this Council, and I think the only member would be Mr. DePasquale that would remember, and Sophie, that our Mayor, when he was a member of Council, I replaced him on this Council, his one and a half year unexpired term, was one of the strongest supporters of police officers.

I'm not saying that we should put on 500 officers. I'm not even going to be married to the figure of 102 which is the number below our minimum security. But I'm saying that if we're going to lose 72 officers, we better start this moment to put a class on to have more police protection.

I want to give you some statistics that you may or may not know. A survey a number of years ago by the Police Department showed that three out of four arrests are usually after a Steeler, a Pirate game, or the Regatta. For example, they're driving while intoxicated, arguing with police officers. Guess who these people are. Non-City residents. Another example of the kind of service that City taxpayers pay for in the debt service and the operating costs of our budget, not picked up by suburbanites. We know that three-quarters of the people going to the Pirate games and the Steeler games are non-City residents.

There has also been a suggestion that came to our office that most of the criminal mischief attributed to City residents could be avoided if after the rock concerts PAT busses would be rerouted to pick up the passengers at the Civic Arena instead of at their stops. This would avoid the convergence of youth in the Downtown area waiting for busses and the opportunity for vandalism.

I'm not sure that that's valid because many of the youngsters live within probably walking distance. It is obvious these youngsters were stimulated perhaps by the rock music as Mr. Givens has stated. It is documented by parents who have written letters to the editors that marijuana and police surveillance is practically non-existent at the Civic Arena. We never know, none of us have crystal balls, as to when a concert is going to break. You know, this concert was cut short because of the nature of the concert. It was supposed to go for another half-hour or hour.

Mr. Givens:

No, I just indicated that —

Michelle Madoff:

My information from reading the media, and I always believe the media except when they're attacking me, is that indeed the concert was supposed to run longer and that one doesn't know when you're going to have somebody holding hostage in one part of the street and some other crime in action somewhere else. We just don't have enough police officers. It seems that the wheel that squeaks loudest is getting greased. We're taking police officers from one district, precinct, and putting them in another. We're stealing from Paul to look after Peter and we're just kidding ourselves. We need more police officers and we need to put it on a referendum to the public and let the public vote on that, that they would be willing to have their taxes increased to pay for the police. I repeat, $1000 if that referendum were to fail. To any of the charities.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, on the same issue. First of all, I am pleased that my colleague, Councilman Givens, called a post agenda. If he wouldn't have, I would have. I would like, though, to add to that post agenda and even co-chair it with Councilman Givens if he so desires. I'd like to see Jack Kahn of the Golden Triangle Association, I'd like to see Justin Horan from the Chamber of Commerce, I'd like to see someone from the Port Authority in charge of security, a representative from the Civic Arena Corporation, preferably Mr. Martha, the Stadium Authority, Director Norton, Chief Moore, and anyone else that would be pertinent.

All this entire morning, all I have done is take phone calls from angry citizens in regard to Saturday evening. It's ironic that our earlier resolution, and a very good resolution by Councilman O'Malley, truly doesn't reflect what this City went through this past weekend. It bothers me to a great degree because we should have been prepared for what happened in the City Saturday night. The key word is being prepared. The question is, were we prepared, and we were not prepared. We had a stadium where we knew fireworks were going to be a big drawcard, we knew the attendance was going to be high, it was 36,000, we knew we had a concert at the Civic Arena and we knew that same group a year ago caused a little bit of a problem and it attracts a crowd that may cause a little more trouble than normal. The question is, were we prepared. No, we weren't prepared.

We were sold a bill of goods when the Public Safety Department was created a year and a half ago and we were told that we were going to be prepared a year and a half ago for situations such as this. Well, it's a year and a half later and we're not prepared. It's gotten to the point where I think this Council has to do something about it.

When I read newspaper articles and I hear quotes from the Director of Public Safety saying the problem was the lyrics, the problem was, if we had it our way right now, if that band isn't out of town now we'd probably run them out of town. In other words, it was the band's fault, the problem that was created the other evening.

I can go on and on. Groups like this are ruinous to the morals of our young people. Our young people have no business listening to the demands of destruction. I don't know what this band was all about but that certainly is not the position of this Administration to take, it's not the position of the Public Safety Department to take. Our position is to protect the public. If that group is legal, if they can perform at the Civic Arena, if we can have fireworks at the Stadium, we should be prepared to deal with them and anyone else or any other group in this City. It appears to me quite clearly that we're not prepared.

It's also stated in the newspaper article that we arrested all the people, 24 of them. There should have been 500 arrests the other evening. They should have filled the jails of this City with the people. There were at least 30 people admitted to the hospital; there were probably 100 others that didn't receive medical care at the hospital.

In talking with people that were in Downtown Pittsburgh, this City became a riot town Saturday evening. The question is, are we going to sit back and say, "Well, we shouldn't let these types of groups in Pittsburgh", that's not the issue here. The issue is being prepared to properly provide the safety that the taxpayer should receive. That was not done this Saturday night.

I personally have been complaining on this Council and have been requesting for an extensive period of time, and I know I've stated it repeatedly at the Stadium, at every entrance door at the Stadium we should have a K-9 dog with a police officer, before and after every event. The incidents going on at the Civic Arena have been going on for years. You can talk with anyone that goes to the Civic Arena, they know there's problems in those parking lots, there's car thefts, there's muggings in the parking lots. The same thing goes on there.

Where are our K-9 dogs and the police that are assigned to them? We have 38. They cost $4.00 a day, a K-9. There's no reason why this City should not have 100 K-9 dogs and we should be prepared at every event, prior to the event, to let the young people know walking in the doors that if they want to cause trouble then there's going to be a problem. They're going to be arrested. There's no greater deterrent to a person in a crowd than a K-9 dog. I don't care what anyone tells me, a K-9 dog can catch anyone. It's about time that the proper direction be provided in the Public Safety Department before and after these events and we're also prepared to respond. We're prepared to go into an area with 50 or 100 police officers and make the arrests that have to be made to make sure that the public realizes they can't get away with it.

Now, what impact did this have the other evening on Downtown Pittsburgh? It had far-ranging impacts. The business district in this Downtown was harmed tremendously. The Civic Arena was harmed tremendously. The Stadium was harmed tremendously. The Port Authority was harmed, and I'm talking about financially, in the pocketbook. I heard people being interviewed on the TV last night saying, "My child will never go, never go to another concert in this City." If that isn't enough to wake up this City, and we read articles in the newspapers from the people in our Administration saying the problems are the concerts, that's a disgrace. That's the problem and it's about time this Council deal with it. It's about time this Council challenge the Administration and say to the Administration, "We want to see the dollars that we allocated in that budget for public safety properly put forth to protect the citizens of this City."

I'll say to all of you right now, budget time is coming up again, and I've said there's too many chiefs and not enough indians in Public Safety, and I mean it. I'm going to be making some strong recommendations to this Council in regard to public safety if we don't see something done there. We've sat back and listened too long; it's about time we take some action. The Charter gives us that right and we should.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, I spent my first day in an apartment directly across from the Civic Arena. Whatever brought that on started in the Arena. It sounded like a clap of thunder. Those people came out of that Arena screaming war yells; I never heard anything like it. I thought the building had collapsed because I'm directly opposite and I was on the 15th floor. I ran to the window and it sounded like war yells, it sounded like a clap of thunder, so that whatever brought that on started in the Arena. I'm for a moratorium on these bands for a while until we find out if that's what is causing it. They were hell bent before they even left there. It was a disgrace. They screamed and carried on; we could hear them up on the 15th floor. So whatever brought it on started in the Arena by that band. Of course, Jack, whatever you say is true, but it began inside the Arena because when they came out, it was too late to stop them because of what already started. I saw it all happen.

The Chair:

I'd like to say something.

Michelle Madoff:

Certainly, I yield because I'm a lady and I wouldn't fine you.

The Chair:

No, I'm the President and I can talk when I want but never mind.

I would like to have the Magistrate Joe James up here for us to see what we're going to do with the people that they have caught and, Jack, I agree with you, I don't know how the police, how many were on duty or whatever, but you just can't blame it on not enough policemen because I saw K-9s, they were down there. We have to blame it on the people that were involved. When you can get psyched up over watching a group and go out and destroy other people's property, then there's something the matter with you and it's not the police problem, it's not our problem, there's something the matter with the individual there. We have to address it. When you have 9000 people running around the street, if you had 500 cops there, it would just have been a bigger riot. But there has to be a way to address it, and I'm not protecting the police, I'm not protecting the individuals, but there has to be something wrong with those individuals when they just come out of the Arena and just start breaking things up. There's no reason whatsoever.

Mr. Wagner:

If I may respond to that, I agree with you that there are individuals and there are problems. However, for us to change society and to change the actions of individuals is very difficult as a government and as a municipality. But one thing we can do, though, is police and we should have made 500 arrests the other night.

The Chair:

I'm not saying you're wrong, I don't know what the problem was. But it's just my opinion, if we had 100 police there instead of 50, it probably wouldn't have changed the situation.

Mr. Wagner:

We would have arrested five times as many and they should have been arrested.

The Chair:

Perhaps.

Michelle Madoff:

I have several items to address. This is one that I would like to continue and finish with and then I'd like to address two other items. But I'm on the same subject now.

The Chair:

And then when you're finished with that we're still on the same subject.

Michelle Madoff:

Certainly, that's why I mentioned it to you, because I'd like to be gracious and if you would reciprocate the same kind of treatment.

The one thing that was not brought to light at this meeting today, and Mr. Wagner is being a gentleman, but I feel that it is imperative that somebody speak for him because he is not defending himself and I think he should be.

This morning I had a call from one of the television stations asking me if I would be willing to comment on what happened yesterday. I agreed to do that and I agreed to meet with the media at 10:30. At 10:30 they did not show and I called and I said, "I have to get to some business meetings, I have some very important work I'm doing for the City; what happened?" They said, "Oh, we're just trying to get you. The camera crew has been diverted; they're going to a meeting with the Mayor and Mr. Ben Woods on the police issue." Is that correct, Mr. Woods? There was a meeting in the Mayor's Office today?

The Chair:

I don't know if there was a meeting in the Mayor's Office but it was incorrect if my name was used.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just telling you what I heard. I'm not stating it as fact and that's why I asked you the question. As a matter of fact, I went in and asked if you were still in the room and the receptionist had said no, you had left, and that the Mayor had left.

The Chair:

Let me interrupt you. You mean the receptionist said that I was in that room? What's the name because —

Michelle Madoff:

The young lady who sits out at the desk. I said, "Has the meeting ended with Mr. Woods and with the Mayor about the police thing?" and she said, "They just left." As a matter of fact, the camera crew had just gone downstairs and I thought they were looking for me, they were not. They were going to the Civic Arena to do some unseen interviews.

My question is, was there a meeting with the Mayor this morning about the police issue?

The Chair:

And I made it perfectly clear that I was not at any meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, well, Mr. Wagner, as Councilmember in charge of Public Safety, should have had the courtesy extended to him to have him present if that meeting did indeed take place.

I'm only relating that I understand there was a meeting. I came down because they were looking for me to be here to make it easier, and when I went to the reception desk she said, "Yes, the meeting on the police was over."

Now, if indeed it did take place, and we know that this happens all the time, when there's a meeting that relates to Water, I'm not invited and I'm head of the Water Committee. Mr. Wagner is head of the Police Division; I think he should be invited. That was just point that I wanted to make, that if it did take place, and that's easy to find out, we just have to make a phone call to the Mayor whether there was a meeting on police issues this morning, I don't know if you were present or not, Mr. Woods —

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, how many times do I have to say this? Are you questioning my integrity?

Michelle Madoff:

No, I was questioning whether there was a meeting with the Mayor on police issues this morning.

The Chair:

And I told you that I did not know and I was not present.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine.

The Chair:

And as President of Council, I can attend any meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, if you'll let me continue, I would like to know if Mr. Norton was present and if there was a meeting why the Public Safety representative of Council was not invited to that meeting. It could have been Mr. Norton; they may have had the name mixed up. I told you it was second-hand information. I accept your word; I do not question you. I'm only telling you what I heard. But I believe there was a meeting with Mr. Norton and with the Mayor and if Mr. Wagner was not present at that meeting he probably should have been and I think its terribly important that the Councilmembers be involved in that kind of informational thing.

Mr. Givens:

I just want to reiterate, Mr. President, what you indicated. My eyewitness of the account so indicated regardless of how many police officers, Jack, we would have had down there at that particular time, it couldn't have been controlled with 9000 people acting the way the did. Apparently it just wasn't one or two groups. As Sophie indicated, and she was an eyewitness, so we have two Councilpeople that were on the scene as eyewitnesses to what happened and they all came out of that place, as witnessed by the report from Jim Kessler from the Auditorium Authority, the all came out of that building in a rampage.

In the building itself, they were fairly orderly. There were a few disturbances that are normal for those types of events and they handled it without dispatch and no internal problem in there, but when the doors opened up, apparently the kids must have realized that now they could do whatever they wanted to. They could expel their true emotions that were pent up in them, I would assume.

When they came through Downtown Pittsburgh, Smithfield and Forbes and Fourth was the area that they were all headed for coming down the various streets from the Civic Arena, all of them. I think the police responded, apparently, adequately enough with 49 police officers in just the Downtown with police dogs. They responded very quickly and had they not been prepared, it would have been much more disastrous then it is.

No one in our society assumes that 9000 people are going to go berserk at one time. I don't think they all did but there were groups and they were like any group from any neighborhood, 20, 25 kids, 30 kids, well dressed, and did actions that they probably never did in their lifetime. I think these kids have to go back and read those newspaper accounts and say did they act accordingly to the rules of our own society, which they are part of. And I think that is where we have to go to. To deny someone to go to rock if they want to go to rock, I think is a constitutional question and one that raises many questions.

I think the police did respond. In the five minutes it took to go from the bus to an automobile, less than five minutes, three different police vehicles came by at that particular time. Two police officers, one with a dog, came by at that particular time. So they were down there. But the thing was happening so quick and so rapidly that it was on and off again before you even knew that it was even happening and only those people that were accosted Downtown were the ones that just happened, like in any Downtown area at 11:00 on a Saturday night, especially in Pittsburgh, there's not many people walking. It was those poor people that had to be walking or maybe left the ballgame extremely early to beat the crowd and came into the Downtown area to get their automobiles or something like that. They were the people that were caught in the mishmash. I don't know if some of the people were hit. They might have been our particular group; we had quite a few women in that group and they walked to the various parking lots and adjacent Downtown areas to get their automobiles. I haven't gotten a report back from our own State Committee people as to whether or not any of them were personally involved but I intend to do so.

Just listening to what all of you have said, there's some 13 different major bodies like department heads that are going to be at this particular meeting. It's going to be awesome to try to get some semblance of order out of that particular meeting and to try to get to the bottom of it. I think all the meeting and the post agenda will do — Are people willing to come? Are they willing to come down and sit in a public forum and discuss issues that are affecting all of us in our daily lives? And if they are, then I think it would be a starting base for us and the Mayor and the Commissioners and everyone else because this is joint venture we have down there. We're a City government but we also have a County government overlapping us and we also have a State government overlapping us. For that matter, we have a Federal government that has jurisdictions in many areas too. We are elected by the people and naturally they do want us to bring this to some type of resolve and I hope all of us can be there and attend it and it might be a long session.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Okay, I'd like to change the subject, and Ms. Madoff has one, because we're going to have the post agenda and right now all we're doing is speculating.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'd like to clarify by requesting a legal opinion on the issue that I've brought up repeatedly. I have a swollen gland; two young women sitting over there are very cold, one is Sophie Masloff's aide, the other is my administrative assistant; Linda Johnson has complained of the cold; Mike Perry has complained of the cold; and I got fined for raising the issue repeatedly.

According to Robert's Rules, I would like an opinion whether you have the right to fine me when I asked in an orderly fashion Point of Personal Privilege of the issue of being terribly uncomfortable with the swollen gland that you can see. I resent the fine and I'm going to fight it and I want a legal opinion.

Mr. Givens:

I just have one comment, Michelle. I had talked last week to Mike Perry and maybe Mike can shed some light on this as to ways that we might be able to divert at least the air conditioning vents so they might not come upon us. I think all of us feel that particular draft that's coming upon us. Mike, were we able to get with anybody this last week?

Mr. Perry:

I spoke with Ray Fisher and I asked him to come down here to see if he could adjust those vents. And to this day I haven't seen Ray, he hasn't been down here.

Mr. Givens:

Then you did call him after last Monday?

Mr. Perry:

I called quite a few times, Mr. Givens. And we are getting hit by a draft here; I know I'm getting hit right in my ear.

Mr. Givens:

I feel a little bit of it myself.

The Chair:

That's because the window is open.

Mr. Perry:

I disagree with you, Mr. Woods.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, Michelle brings up a good point of order that any assembly should be in such a state that its to the majority of the people and their health and welfare. Michelle might have a problem with any type of air conditioning

The Chair:

That is not my problem, Mr.

Givens. My problem is when people disrupt a meeting; when I say, "You're out of order and we're going to continue with the meeting", and they keep on disrupting it. That is my problem.

Mr. Givens:

What I was trying to say is, Michelle might have one condition that indicates no air conditioning but I have a condition that indicates I'm supposed to have air conditioning.

Any assembly, is what I'm trying to say, Mr. President, that person in charge of that assembly should try to have it as comfortable as possible. I think its very comfortable in this room right now, to my standards and I think to most community standards. We might have a personal problem here that we might try to resolve if we can.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to respond to that. The issue of my being out of order, Mr. President, is when I've complained about and issue 15 times and I don't get a response. I have to persist in trying to get something done. You ruled me out of order by persisting because you didn't solve the problem. You are the President of this Council. Mr. Perry could not get Mr. Fisher to respond; I have not been able to get him to respond.

I don't mind the cold; I mind the draft. And we are getting a terrible draft on all of us. Sophie has been out ill, the other people aren't comfortable. I'm angry and I cry when I'm angry, and I just want you to know that.

The Chair:

Fine.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, why don't we get Mr. Fisher down here and get this settled? Get Mr. Jacoby, get the engineers. It's such a simple thing and we're wasting all this time.

The Chair:

That's exactly right, it is very simple and very silly --

Mrs. Masloff:

Then why don't you do it? ^

The Chair:

This is the first time Mr. Perry has been handling this. Mr. Perry said he couldn't get him down, I guarantee you I will get him down.

Mrs. Masloff:

Thank you, that settles it.

The Chair:

Alright, but, in the meantime, everyone will remain in order and when I say you're out of order and when we go on with business, you will respect that and not get up, walk around, open windows, close doors, tear gadgets off the thermostat, we will act like ladies and gentlemen.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm glad you raised that point because I just went over and sat down out of the draft and did not touch any of the equipment.

But one of the other members of this Council made a smart-ass remark about making it very funny but you didn't fine him because, of course, he has male genitalia and we understand there's difference between males and females. I want that on the Record.

Mr. Pollock:

I told you to keep religion out of this, Michelle.

The Chair:

Mark, please.

Michelle Madoff:

What kind of update do we get from our authorities, Alcosan and URA or any of the other authorities, on when bonds are going out and who is handling the bond issues?

It has come to my attention again, third-hand, I do not know how much validity there is to it, but it is very disturbing information and I don't know the truth of the information. Did Alcosan go out or is it going out on a new bond? Does anyone know here?

The Chair:

Not to my knowledge.

Mr. O'Malley:

Yes, they're preparing it now.

Michelle Madoff:

Who is the bond counsel?

Mr. O'Malley:

Who is the bond counsel?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes.

Mr. O'Malley:

Baskin and --

Michelle Madoff:

That's not what I heard. I hope that it is because I don't care who it is as long as they are bond counsel.

Mr. O'Malley:

Ralph Lynch --

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, that would not be a problem because I understand there was a bond going out with some people handling the bond counsel who have never done any bond work and I didn't think that was realistic. So, I thought we ought to have a report to this Council from Alcosan periodically as to what is happening, if there's a bond, who's handling it. While it is an authority we still overview it.

I would like to do the same thing to the Water and Sewer Authority, who handles the bonds, where they're being issued, who the bond counsels are, and with URA. We are coming into very, very difficult times financially and whether its an authority or whether it is an operating budget or a capital budget, the rate payer still pays the money out of his pocket and I think that's the kind of information this Council must have.

My just saying it is rhetoric; we need to have some formal situation set up so that we have a report, and I guess, perhaps, twice a year Alcosan ought to report to us. I've asked for this before; we have not received it. URA ought to report twice a year on their bonds and I don't mean in written form; I would like to have an address to Council of what is going on so we can have some dialogue, some questions and answers, either set up by the President in our meeting, it's an information gathering, open to the public or some mechanism so we know what's happening.

Mr. Grabowski:

Before we adjourn, Mr. President, I just would like to make mention that this morning I had the privilege of representing this Council in welcoming a convention to town. There were several hundred conventioners down at the Hilton and it was a society known as the Health and Physics Society. Of course I mentioned that this was the number one city -- I think they already knew that anyway. But it is a society that is dedicated to the protection of society from harmful effects of radiation. I wasn't aware that this society was in existence and I'm sure probably no one else was either, but it's somewhat comforting to know that there is a group of professionals like this that are out there dedicated to this and to the safety of the public. I just assured them that I would make mention that the City welcomes them and wishes them well and encourages them to keep up the good work.

Mr. Pollock:

Just one more thing. I never think its a good idea to go to sleep fighting with someone so I always try to make up and similarly I hate to see us close our session talking about all these negative things so I think there is a bit of positive news that should be related. That is, also in the nature of public safety, I was very impressed with the job that the Bureau of Building Inspection did along with the Fire Department over the weekend, and it should be noted that it was on the weekend and their own time, in monitoring the activities of the traveling circus that was in town and making sure that all the health and safety and fire codes were followed. Again, I must point out that they did this in the evening and in the rain and everything else on Saturday and they're to be commended for that.

As has been mentioned, this is Jack Wagner's committee and this is clearly one time where a campaign promise was kept because, if we all remember, he did pledge to stop the circus.

And on the motion of Mrs. Masloff

Council adjourned.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill No. 1060. Thank you.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1060 -
WEDNESDAY, 7/2/86)

Mr. Wagner:

This is the second step in a two step process. Public Works has submitted to DER plans to accommodate the additional 52 units of a senior citizen highrise building in the Beechview area, and this Council must formally pass this piece of legislation as the final step in the process to know officially that the legislative body approves what is going on here. Now, DER has agreed that the Saw Mill Run basin has the capacity to accept these additional 52 senior citizen units. Primarily because they know that certain buildings have been demolished in the area and actually where this building is being constructed, it is replacing a small apartment building. So, it is simply replacing some tap ins that previously existed and it's necessary for this legislation to pass in order for HUD to approve the money that comes to the City of Pittsburgh to build this building.

If I may just add, the outlying communities are doing it and two thirds of the sewage passing through Saw Mill Run is from the suburban communities, and we have impacted it very little over the years. Suburbanites have impacted it more, and for us not to move forward with a project when they are moving forward with projects all the time is not just, is not fair. There was a resolution passed by the Water and Sewer Authority recently asking Alcosan, and Alcosan has agreed, and the Chairman has indicated earlier, Mr. DePasquale, that they have allocated certain dollars towards the correction of Saw Mill Run basin, and I think that's a positive move in the right direction.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill 1036, my question is, does this particular organization have any affiliation with any abortion clinics within the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Woods, I did not sponsor this piece of legislation so, therefore, I cannot speak to it.

Mr. O'Malley:

I can speak to it. No, this is an organization that was funded by Council approximately three years ago, Mr. Givens, and their primary goal is to assist women and children whose husbands either do not pay or are back on their child support. As you know, if the husband does not pay child support the woman not only can she hire an attorney but it's very difficult to buy food and clothing. It has nothing at all to do with abortion. This is just to make up their funding gap between now and the Community Development Block Grant Funds.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1015, I have not really had a chance to in-depth review the bid process but it occurs to me that the $240,000 for roofs is excessive. I would like to see whether there was a consultant hired, what the consultant received, and whether we could not have gone ahead and done the job without having to pay for some auxiliary services. I believe that is an excessive dollar figure based on roofs, even considering the expense of that roof. I must vote no on that.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1053, I would urge all my colleagues to please vote no on this bill. It appears that the $5000 for lighting has been done in-house consistently in Public Works. There is absolutely no reason — We've done it for years and years and years and years without going out with a consultant. They know how to do it. As a matter of fact, my understanding is that Public Works has offered to help and that it is not just a matter of changing a light bulb; it is a matter of changing some of the switches and paraphernalia that goes on the lights. I've talked to Public Works; they're completely equipped to do it and prepared to go ahead with it and I think $5000 for a consultant is an absolute waste of taxpayers' dollars.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think there's more than one reason to either hold this bill or vote against it. I was down at the Allegheny Conference this morning and I had the opportunity to see the new plans for Market Square and they're very exciting and very extensive from City Planning. The Allegheny Conference along with another group of people are going to try to raise $500,000 from the business community to remodel the Market Square area. So I think putting this $5000 into this study right now may be a little premature.

Michelle Madoff:

I also requested from, I believe Mr. McDermott or whoever has the information, the number of dollars that were spent redoing Market Square and doing the streets over. As a matter of fact, we had to wait two years in order to not have to pay the Federal Government back. I want to know what money has already been spent there because some of the editorials are saying that there's nothing wrong with that area. I don't know what improvements are going to be made but certainly there should not be a large sum of money coming from City dollars and I would very much like to have that figure, which has been requested, Mike, but I have not received it. Did you send them a note?

Mr. Perry:

They were here.

Michelle Madoff:

It was done here but you know if we don't follow up with a letter they just pretend they didn't hear it. Could you follow up with a letter please? We would like to know the dollars spent on Market Square and the adjacent streets for PPG and Market Square and what the new dollars anticipated are so we can compare them.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair presents

No.1110 WHEREAS, on July 18, 1979, the first POW/MIA recognition day was observed at Point State Park; and

WHEREAS, there are still 2,500 American POW/MIA's unaccounted for from the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, 125 POW/MIA's are from Pennsylvania, including 20 residents of Allegheny County, and 11 men who made their homes in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, on Saturday, July 12, 1986, at 11:00 A.M. a ceremony and service for the 2,500 still missing in action will be held at Point State Park which is sponsored by the Pittsburgh Chapter of ex-prisoners of war, and prisoners of Corregidor and Bataan.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes July 12, 1986, as "National POW/MIA Recognition Day" to increase public awareness of this issue and thereby assist in efforts to resolve the fate of our missing men; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wholeheartedly supports the ceremonies scheduled for Saturday at Point State Park and joins the Nation in recognizing July 12, 1986, as "National POW/MIA Recognition Day".

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to make some comments on that if I could, some personal observations.

One of the first people that was shot down was Jerry Singleton, Captain, U.S. Air Force and his crew, the CH3 crew over in North Viet Nam on a rescue mission over there. Jerry was one of the longest held captive prisoners and a very dear friend of mine; both of us served out of the Air Commando outfit, called First Air Commando group.

I have attended many of the ceremonies down at the Point where many of the Veterans organizations get together not to forget our POWs and MIAs and apparently there have been many reports that have come in, some classified, some others. I know when all of us served over in that particular theater, we were shown, at that particular time, classified shots that were taken by satellite, etc., to try to depict and see if we could identify certain people that looked Caucasian at that time over in an Oriental country and see if we could so identify these people and that went around to all the air crews that were over there during that period of time and during all the time that our fighting men had been over there in the Viet Nam era.

We still have not settled with North Viet Nam. They have not come to terms with this country. There are many bills floating around in the halls of Congress that want to give aid and support to North Viet Nam. Until these POWs and MIAs are totally accounted for, this country should not and will not, hopefully, ever give any aid until all of our men have been accounted for in that particular war of Viet Nam.

Thank you, Mr. President, and please go down to that ceremony. It's a very impressive one; they bring speakers from throughout the country to come down there and the men, V.V.I., Viet Nam Veterans Incorporated, pitch their tents out there and the young children come down and look at them and they have the history of what's happening to our men over there and some of the information on the POWs. This is an area where veterans of various groups and Congressional people and U.S. Senators get together and they hear from the grass roots, they hear from people who have loved ones and we have many of them here from Allegheny County that are still POWs and still MIAs. They hear a little bit and they exchange ideas and concepts and information at this particular gathering. So, if you have an opportunity, please go down to the point.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to speak about another topic. Mr. President and members of Council, as Chairman of Public Safety, I found out today that there was a news conference, I found out about an hour ago that there was a news conference in the Mayor's Office pertaining to massive changes in Public Safety and the Police Bureau. Many of the changes of which I have not even been able to review, I have here a news release that has been handed out that I received a copy from from the news media. I don't know if any of you were fortunate enough to receive a copy from the Administration. If you have not been, I have a copy or the media can provide us with that information. I find it ironic that we fund the department and the media gets the information prior to this Council getting the information. And that continually happens with this Council.

As I indicated, I haven't had time to review it but I would like to mention a couple items prior to discussing that and our public hearing tomorrow. This Council allocated approximately $90,000 under the suggestion of the Administration last year, almost a year ago, for a consultant study to evaluate the Police Bureau within the new Public Safety Department. It was promised to us at that table behind us that we would receive an interim report in the first quarter of '86 and a final report at the end of May in '86 about that consultant study.

I have personally requested in writing and verbally for the interim report and the final report. This Council did it officially, publicly, at one of our legislative meetings about six weeks ago. We have not received a copy of the report. For that reason, I classify the report or the study as the Phantom Study, the one that is being done that no one has ever seen, that we have paid a company $50,000 and they will come back for an additional $40,000 for final payment. The reason I mention that, the premise to all change that was to occur within the Police Bureau of the Public Safety Department, a great percent of it was going to be based on an independent report. That independent report was the consultant study.

I have mentioned all along that there has been change for the sake of change going on in Public Safety. Changes have occurred that this Council was never aware of in the budget that we approved. Changes continue to occur in 1986, in this calendar year, in this budget year, for particularly the Police Bureau prior to us even having that consultant study in our hands. I wonder, really, what's happening with the dollars that we allocated for that consultant study. I do know what the final outcome is going to be; the consultant study is going to reflect all the changes that the Administration has made in the Police Bureau. In other words, it's going to, in their minds, validate the changes.

The cart is definitely before the horse. The changes are occurring prior to the study being completed or anyone receiving them, and that leads me to my topic which is today. From what I understand in reading this briefly, there have been some major changes made in the Police Bureau. Four of the nine precincts have been eliminated, as of today or very shortly. That was the announcement made by the Mayor, Director Norton and Chief Moore. The precincts eliminated are No. 1 in Downtown, No. 3 in Lawrenceville, No. 4 in Oakland and No. 7 in South Side. Instead of nine precincts, the City will now have five precincts for Police to operate out of.

I have been reviewing, and as I indicated, this news release is very lengthy, I've only had the opportunity to read the first two pages of it. I have been reviewing some of the information in the news release. Ironically, many of the things that were promised in the new Public Safety Department, directly the opposite is suggested in here.

To read you a statement: "The plan also designates an officer in each zone to act as a crime analyst officer. This individual will be responsible for analyzing reports, looking for existing crime patterns and recommending to the zone commander better utilization of police resources.

When the Public Safety Department was created, if you recall, we created a bureau within the Department, called the Administration Bureau. We allocated many dollars for research people to analyze the various crime statistics within the Public Safety Department, for the Police Bureau and for the other bureaus within that department.

What they're saying here is just the opposite. And I'm only using this as an example because this Council has been led down a road of which we knew nothing about, of which was not indicated to us at budget time, with the creation of the department, with the funding of new positions in the department last year. As I read through this further, I will have some other comments on it.

However, I do want to indicate to all members of the public out there that live in the precincts that are being closed, and don't let anyone tell you that the precinct in the South Side, in Lawrenceville, in Oakland and Downtown, is not being closed. It states in this news release that you will be able to walk in there at any time on a 24 hour basis to file a report. It does not state that there will not be police operating out of that precinct for your respective district and your respective neighborhood. They will be coming out of another district, out of another precinct. They will travel a greater distance to get to your neighborhood, the zones will be larger, there will be more territory to cover. It's particular important when you look at 7 and 8 Precincts on the south and west side of the river of which is 42 percent of the geographical area of this City and there was two precincts yesterday and there's now one today. One precinct to cover 24 square miles of this City out of 55 square miles. That's a lengthy area.

Some of this information has to be looked at in greater detail; however, I'd like to mention that it's important there's a public hearing tomorrow. Members of the public can still testify at the public hearing. You should read the newspapers tonight to bring you up to date on what is happening with these changes and sign up for this public hearing if you feel that the changes that have been made do not meet the desires of your neighborhood, of your community, of your area.

It's ironic to note that the precinct in which the Mayor lives is not being closed. It's ironic to note that the precinct in which Mr. Norton lives is not being closed. It's ironic to note that the precinct in which Mr. Cannon lives is not being closed. It's ironic to note that the precinct in which Mr. DiNardo lives is not being closed. It's ironic to note that the precinct that Mr. Moore lives in is not being closed.

I want everyone in this City to realize what is happening, that there are massive changes going on without the basis for the changes, changes for the sake of changes, and that is reflected in many unusual circumstances such as the one that occurred at the Arena which we were not prepared for. Everyone is blaming the Civic Arena. Everything happened outside the Civic Arena, not inside the Civic Arena, and we should have been prepared for it outside the Civic Arena.

What I'm saying is, there are changes being made for the sake of change. There are more chiefs than Indians than there has ever been, and it's about time that the public wakes up. It's about time that the public realizes what is happening here and I can tell you that tomorrow's public hearing is going to be a very vocal one, it's going to be a very outspoken one, and there's going to be a lot of things mentioned at that public hearing that the public has not been aware of. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I ask for a five minute recess until we all get a copy of that report.

The Chair:

It's not a report; it's a news release.

Mr. DePasquale:

It's a news release. I mean, we're sitting here and Jack is the only one that has that information.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, if I did that I'd be rules out of order and fined.

No you wouldn't.

Michelle Madoff:

I had my hand raised.

He did too.

Mr. DePasquale:

The Chair:

He can get us a copy but there's no sense in us recessing; it will take you half hour or an hour to read the thing.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, my question to you is, has the report that has been requested by Mr. Wagner and all of Council repeatedly, and which we voted for, been released to members of Council to your knowledge? I do not recall having seen it in my office.

The Chair:

I have not seen it.

Michelle Madoff:

Yet the Mayor who accuses Mr. Flaherty of going public with the media without audits is in effect again gone to the media without even coming to this Council because we're just window dressing. I want to know where that report is, how it got to the media before it got to this Council, and here's an example of the —

The Chair:

Let me just interrupt you for one moment. I think you misunderstand Mr. Wagner. That is not a report; it is a press release. The Mayor has not issued a report. The press release doesn't contain anything in it from a report. It's just a press release, the changes he wants or he has made in the Public Safety Department.

Michelle Madoff:

There is a report that is supposed to be forthcoming before any changes were made. That was what we voted for; that's what we put our money into.

The Chair:

That is correct.

Michelle Madoff:

My question then, is the Mayor going ahead, the Administration, in making changes based on whim, based on gut, based on information of Mr. Norton's experience? I don't know, I'm not being judgmental. I'm saying, where is the report? When is the report due? Has that report come even in interim form as requested by Mr. Wagner in an updated form? Was that interim update given to members of Council or to the President of Council? I gather from what you're saying it has not.

My question to you, and perhaps you would allow me to ask Mr. Wagner, did that report go to the Mayor? Was the report completed?

The Chair:

Ms. Madoff, there is no report.

Michelle Madoff:

Did we not pay for one?

The Chair:

We have paid for it, we paid half or 60 percent of it. We are waiting. It was asked at the Committee Table for the last six weeks at least for a copy of the preliminary report, an update, what is going on. No one has received it, I assume. I don't know if the Mayor has, maybe that's why he made those changes. We don't know about the press release that Mr. Wagner has. It was acquired from the media. It mentions nothing about a report.

Michelle Madoff:

My point, Mr. President, is that before changes are made, we all agreed that we would do a study so we'd know what the changes would have to be. The one thing I told Mr. Norton when he got here was that I was certainly prepared, based on his reputation, to go with him and give him a chance to act in bad faith. Until he did something that was inappropriate, I was going to support him. I think it's inappropriate for the Administration or Mr. Norton or anyone to start making changes all over the City before this report is in, which we paid and voted for. And I think it's no different than having an audit report go to a press before the information comes to this Council, or a press release going to the media before it is shared with this Council.

Again, we're like mushrooms; we're kept in the dark and fed horse manure. I resent finding out from the media what is going on. I think that is the point that my colleague is making and I would think as President of Council you would want to do something to put a stop to it. We need seven votes of this Council to put a stop to it. Do we have seven people with guts on this Council, because you'll have to veto the Mayor in an override to say that we do not want to have information put out or the reports given to the media before we get it. It's obvious that the City - I hope the people understand. The City is run by a strong Mayor system. Council proposes, the Administration disposes. We don't. You call us all the time, our phones go incessantly. We don't have the power. I want to repeat that. Here is another glaring example of the same thing.

My question, then, to wind this up, Mr. President, is, are we having this televised as requested tomorrow?

The Chair:

Yes, if it was requested. But let me clarify one thing. There was no report given out; there was a press release given out. The Mayor did not give out a report. He is using the prerogative as the Administrator of this City and making the changes the way he wants. We all agreed to this $90,000 report and then they would make the changes. He didn't live up to that or Mr. Norton didn't, whoever was here saying that, I believe Mr. Norton. Mr. Wagner said exactly what you said; how can he make changes without the report coming in. That's why Mr. Wagner is upset; he's been asking for at least six weeks, I imagine. Maybe longer.

Mr. Givens:

For eight years I argued very strongly for a strong Public Safety sector within our budget and it is incumbent upon all Councilmembers at budget time to approve a particular budget. In fact, we originate our own budget. To set some of the votes straight, it only takes five votes in this Council and we appropriate the budget. It's our budget that we put together. We take recommendations from the Mayor; they don't have to be voted up or down. Council appropriates its own budget. The Mayor then can line item veto anything on that budget.

I have a very serious problem and the fact that I did not vote for the Public Safety issue and Council, by a majority vote, created the Public Safety Department. Council, by a majority vote again, five votes, can then take away the Public Safety issue.

I would hope that any time major changes are made in any department, that the Mayor would at least comply with our President and leadership of this Council, be it the various committees that we have. I think that's an honorable thing to do for anyone who is the Chief Executive of the department. How and what changes he makes definitely affects each and every Councilperson. If you were home this weekend, your phone was ringing off the hook for various police officers and other people in Public Safety that were just voicing their concern of the changes that were being made and asking the question, do you think this is best for the people of the City of Pittsburgh. I think that's the bottom line, not what changes are being made, but are they good for the people of the City of Pittsburgh. Does it increase the capacity of our forces to perform the duties that are required of a police officer. The fact that we've lost almost 75 police officers knowingly this year, and maybe a little bit more. So many of them are hanging on, I hear out there, by their toenails waiting to see how the Public Safety issue goes. We could have a great exodus of qualified and senior police officers leaving the force. You have to look at the requirements of those people that are being hired by the City with no -- no police officers are being hired at this time with no physical requirements and some other agility test that I think every police officer should have the capability of. And that has not been administered yet. We're still waiting for that type of testing.

So, a combination of all this and the other events that have been happening in the City, the spotlight is on this particular department and, Mr. President, regardless of press releases or not, I think it's incumbent upon this Council and its leadership to have Mr. Norton come in in a closed session to brief this Council as to what is going on in the Public Safety issue because Mr. Norton is going to come back up before this Council in just a few more months and ask for funding to support his particular Public Safety area or responsibility. If we do not get the cooperation from the various department heads at this time, then I can see a shield being built up, a shield a resentment being built up between this Council and the various directors, and I think that is something that does not speak for protecting the people of the City of Pittsburgh. We must, for the people's sake, work together. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sure that everybody had an opportunity to read the Sunday paper about a study that was done on our Refuse Department about how monies could be saved and it could be more efficient. Unfortunately I don't have the article with me, it's in my office, but I think it is incumbent upon us to follow up at least at a post agenda meeting with Mr. Walker because one of the comments was made that the reason we're spending excessive dollars is we're calling in the extras, and I don't remember but there are dozens of extra workers and then sending them home and you have to pay them a minimum salary for calling them in. In the school systems and other entities, people are called as needed. You know who is coming, you know who isn't coming, and it would save the City hundreds of thousands of dollars a year.

I don't understand why the department head is married to the position he's in. He gave some rather week excuses about having to have garbage picked up by a certain time and if they're not here then we don't have them to put to work. All you have to do is call them and tell them to come in or if you don't want them don't call them because if you're calling them they have to be paid whether they work or not, at least a percentage of the monies.

There were a lot of other items pointed out in that report. It was done, I believe, as a project by some student who thought it would be something worth looking into. The bottom line is that a lot of money could be saved if we took some of the recommendations. Certainly we ought to look at that article and if you don't have copies, I do, and I'll be happy to provide my colleagues with the article. But I would very much suggest that we go into a post agenda with Mr. Walker and somebody from the Administration.

It also talks about landfills, getting the garbage to the landfills and how long it takes with the vehicles, the type of vehicles, and maybe Mr. Jacoby ought to be here as well. So, I would say Jacoby, Walker, and who else, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

Jacoby, Walker, and a representative from the Mayor's Office.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, the problem is that the Mayor always feels that his department heads are his representatives and I think sometimes he doesn't know what his department heads are doing. So it isn't really true representation.

Now, before we close the meeting today, on the $90,000 report, do think that the President of our Council could inquire at what status it is at and when we can have it?

The Chair:

I'm sure I can inquire.

Michelle Madoff:

That would be very kind and may I thank you for trying to do something about the draft but it hasn't been resolved. It's now gone from here over to that side and I would appreciate it if you would follow up on it.

The Chair:

They have to make special defusers.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, with our public hearing tomorrow, I think it's appropriate that we make sure that various people from the Administration be present.

The Chair:

They are invited.

Mr. Wagner:

Who is invited?

The Chair:

The Public Safety Department, the Heads.

Mr. Wagner:

Who in particular?

The Chair:

Norton, Moore, Cannon.

Mr. Perry:

Director Norton, a representative from the Mayor's Office —

Michelle Madoff:

Why not the Mayor?

Mr. Wagner:

I would also suggest the Mayor himself, Mr. Cannon, Mr. DiNardo and Mr. Moore.

Mrs. Masloff moved to approve the Minutes of Tuesday, May 27, 1986 and Monday, June 2, 1986.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, I move to recess this meeting until Wednesday, July 9, 1986 immediately following the Standing Committee Meeting.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Mr. Grabowski:

Opposed.

Michelle Madoff:

What is the purpose, please?

The Chair:

The bond issue.

And on the motion of Mrs. Masloff

Council recessed.

Pittsburgh, PA
Wednesday, July 9, 1986

And the time of recess having expired, Council reconvened and there were present:

PRESENT:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Chair:

Now we have to adjourn the Legislative Meeting that we recessed on Monday.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I think it should be mentioned that the public hearing yesterday was recessed also.

The Chair:

I'll talk to Mr. Givens.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, I want to say something that is very important. On Monday we had a resolution similar to what Mr. Woods had introduced, regarding the POW's and MIA's and in it he mentioned a celebration this Saturday and invited people to come and I think Mr. Givens spoke for a long time about that. I wanted to put it on the record and also let the public know that this celebration has been cancelled so that people don't go down on Saturday expecting there to be something when there's not. Like I said, Dick spoke for awhile about it and it was going to be a good celebration but I don't want people going Downtown for something that's not going to exist.

The Chair:

Can I have a motion that we adjourn the Legislative Meeting that we recessed on Monday?

Mr. O'Malley:

Motion to adjourn.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

And on the motion of Mr. O'Malley

Council adjourned.

Mr. Perry:

It was introduced in Council June 30th, in Committee July 9th.

What is the item for? It's for the Water Department obviously.

Mr. Perry:

They're transferring $372,000 from the Department of Water to the Department of General Services, Rental of Motorized Equipment, Code Account 1154-1.

Do we know what the equipment was, specifically?

No.

I move to hold the bill a week. I move to recommit.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, we received a list of that equipment.

Michelle Madoff:

But I was very busy and didn't have a chance to look at it. I've been at that Task Force meeting, as you know, Thursday and Friday and I have not had a chance to do that.

Is there a second?

Second.

Mr. President, as Councilman Wagner indicated, a list was presented and it was presented at the request of Michelle Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

And I'm asking to hold it a week because I have not had the opportunity to look at it. I was at meetings all day Thursday, all day Friday, on the Task Force and I just haven't had a chance to look at it.

The Chair:

All in favor of the recommitment? Opposed?

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1146 WHEREAS, the Department of Energy and GPU Nuclear Corporation have announced that radioactive fuel fragments and debris from the Three Mile Island Unit 2 Nuclear Reactor will be shipped by rail car through the Pittsburgh area later this month; and,

WHEREAS, the psychological and physical health of the people of the City of Pittsburgh are threatened by the presence of these radioactive fuel fragments and debris in or around Pittsburgh.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby respectfully request that the Department of Energy and GPU Nuclear Corporation redirect the route of said radioactive material so that it does not go through the major metropolitan area of Pittsburgh or, in the alternative, that they inform the Director of the City of Pittsburgh's Department of Public Safety as to the date, time, and route of the rail car carrying said radioactive material so that he can take the appropriate action to safeguard the health and safety of the people of the City of Pittsburgh, and to evacuate the area, if necessary.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Discussion. I think this is a very serious matter which was covered in the local newspapers and then not followed up by any public official of the City of Pittsburgh that I know of.

For those of you who may have missed the article which appeared in the July 2nd Press and Post Gazette of this year, I just want to briefly recount what the article said. As we all know, the Three Mile Island Nuclear Plant over near Middletown, Pennsylvania had an accident about seven years ago. They're just now disposing of the radioactive waste. Incredibly enough, this waste will be carried by rail directly through the City of Pittsburgh. It will be coming from the eastern part of the state, it will go through Edgewood by railcar, through the eastern part of our City, through Point Breeze, Shadyside, right through Downtown Pittsburgh and through the Northside. There will be anywhere from 40 to 45 different trips of this nuclear waste.

The articles in the paper said that they will not inform the local officials what the exact dates or times will be. They don't feel that any particular safeguards are necessary. The article said that the Department of Energy spokesman said that there will be no special safeguards taken.

My resolution is that we ask them to reroute these 40 to 45 different railcars carrying nuclear waste so that it goes through a less populous area than directly through the heart of the City of Pittsburgh.

As we all know, last week there was a horrible railcar explosion right near Dayton, Ohio. It was exactly a similar type of tragedy that could occur here. A railroad tank car carrying poisonous fumes derailed right near Dayton, Ohio and 58 people were injured and thousands were forced to evacuate their area. Needless to say, you can all imagine what the tragedy would be if this would occur in Downtown Pittsburgh or through another part of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mark, if I may. Obviously we don't want that to come through the City of Pittsburgh. What is the alternative? What area would it go through? Wherever it goes, somebody is going to oppose it.

Mr. Pollock:

But it could certainly go through a more northern route through the state of Pennsylvania which is much less populous. There are rail lines there.

Mr. DePasquale:

You're talking about more or less countryside —

Mr. Pollock:

Right. Exactly. They testify that it's going to take a long time to do this so, obviously, time and speed are not a factor.

Mr. DePasquale:

They won't let us know when it's coming?

Mr. Pollock:

That's why I'm making this motion, to send them a letter to one, first attempt to have them reroute it differently or, in the alternative, let us know when the trains are coming so that the people who might want to evacuate the area can. And if Director Norton or the appropriate people in the Public Safety Department want to provide additional safeguards, they can.

The Chair:

Thank you very much, Mark.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1144 WHEREAS, the morale in the City of Pittsburgh Police Department is at a low ebb; and

WHEREAS, approximately ten police officers have been moved to positions of lower salary without an explanation; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Director John Norton stated at the Public Hearing on Tuesday, July 8, 1986 that the moves are essentially lateral transfers - not demotions; and

WHEREAS, unfortunately these individuals who have been transferred now have positions which are in lower pay categories as designated by the Union in previous labor negotiations; and

WHEREAS, we believe the loss in salary is about $2,000.00 per position for a total sum of dollars which is not substantive; and

WHEREAS, in light of the fact that these police officers have an outstanding record of service with the City of Pittsburgh, have received numerous commendations and have risked their lives in the line of duty.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh help correct this problem of low morale in the Police Department by awarding each of these officers who have been moved laterally at a loss of pay, a merit award to recognize their outstanding, long-time service;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that if these awards are in violation of the Union contract, then at the next negotiations between labor and management, Council recommends that a merit bonus system be established and be made retroactive to compensate those officers for their loss of personal esteem, salary and effect on their pensions.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

This would be as a permanent kind of recommendation when there has to be transfers and union jobs that are set up at a certain pay scale. This is not mandatory but I think this would go a long way towards improving the morale of the City police officers and, you know, I got upset one day and was in tears here, out of frustration, and I know that all of us witnessed the police officers that were here, men who were in tears.

I think that this might be something that would go a long way to helping the situation and I would hope that my colleagues would adopt that.

Mr. O'Malley:

Some of those officers that were demoted were friends of mine, or at least acquaintances. Some of them have done an outstanding job for the City of Pittsburgh. My only concern is that I feel the resolution is illegal, even though it is a non-binding resolution. I'd like to have an opinion from the Law Department because I think this should be part of collective bargaining. In essence, they did lose approximately $2000 of their salary, but they were brought from one grade title to another grade title. So, before I would vote on that, I would like to have a legal opinion.

Mr. DePasquale:

I was more or less going to say the same thing Mr. O'Malley said with the exception that this is strictly a matter for arbitration or the FOP Grievance Committee. I see what you're trying to do, Michelle, and I think we all sympathize with you, but other than letting our feelings be known, there's not a thing we can do about it.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I think it's important that we don't give these officers a false hope.

This is simply a will of Council, it is not a formal resolution. It does not have to be formally acted upon. For that matter, it is simply just a message and it's important to note that, truly, we'd like to see this issue resolved. I really don't think, though, that this is the core of the issue. The core of the issue is not the $2000; the real core of the issue is that people were demoted and transferred without explanation. We could give them $5000 rather than $2000 and I don't think that would correct the situation. Therefore, because it is simply a will of Council, I will support it but in essence, it's not saying really what needs to be said.

Michelle Madoff:

If you will recall, for those of us who remained until the end of the day, when it was suggested, and I believe I suggested it at the time which is why I followed through with the resolution, that if those who were, and I asked Mr. Norton whether indeed it was a lateral move, not a demotion, and he said it was a lateral move, it was not a demotion, he wanted everybody acquainted with all departments, etc., and here were outstanding officers who had been given merit awards, had no black lists against them on their portfolio, and when I said that if they received their funds, at least they would not feel that they were demoted, that indeed, it would be a lateral move. And they applauded. Those were the people who testified and felt that it had gone a long way to their personal esteem, if at least they weren't being punished by a demotion. Unfortunately, as it exists presently, the job category dictates the salary.

I'm saying in the second paragraph, Mr. O'Malley, because you have a valid point, that I'm addressing your concern. I'm saying that since it may not be legal to give a merit award, that I'm suggesting and urging in negotiations that the next time you set up a mechanism if somebody is transferred to a job with lesser pay, that there's a mechanism for a merit salary.

It's only a will to say that we are united behind those who came here, stood up in front of us, and really poured out their guts to us, to show that we support the fact that not only has their self-esteem been affected but that indeed we are saying they should be reimbursed certainly at their existing salary. They've been there so many years and I can't believe that we would not have this as a joint will, all of us saying yes, this is what we'd like to see happen, and that, perhaps would carry over into the negotiations.

The Chair:

I have no problem with it other than the money. There are many, many police officers who get citations everyday for outstanding duty. If we would say that these people are going to get $2000 because they were put in another job class because of their outstanding duty in the past, what about all the other officers. If you could reword it and take out the money, I'd vote for it in a minute.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you have a very good point. The money factor was the number of dollars that the officers had lost in the lateral transition. There was $2000. Each of them said they lost $2000. So, what I was suggesting is that the money they had lost by going to a lower position, it would be like, say the Council had a higher salary for the President of Council and that President did an outstanding job but for some reason, perhaps he was ill, and he came back and somebody else was acting in his place, take the money away from him. It would not be fair; it would not be just. We give merit bonuses to employees of the City all the time; we give them to City Council staff when you recommend merit bonuses.

I think these people have outstanding credentials, we move them into what is known by Mr. Moore as a lateral position, not as a demotion. Then let's, for God's sake, pay them at the rate they have achieved by long hard work and let's not take away from their self-esteem.

That's in principle what I'm asking and the $2000 is the money they lost. We can take out the specific number but we can say that a merit award should be given to compensate them for their salaries. If we don't do that we're just saying we don't want to give them anything.

Mr. O'Malley:

Michelle, where I have the problem with this is any police officer can be promoted to the grade of Detective and act in that capacity for a number of months or a number of years and then be returned to his former duties. This has been going on for as long as the Police Department has been in the City of Pittsburgh, as far as I know.

If you would do that for these particular officers that were transferred into the Detective branch and then relocated back to their former duties, all throughout the Police Department and the City of Pittsburgh we have acting sergeants, they might be an acting sergeant or an acting lieutenant for months, six months, up to a year, and then transferred back to his former duties. We have people that are acting foremen; there might be an acting foreman in Parks and Recreation for a number of months and then transferred back to his former duties.

I think the intention of the resolution is good. I just think it's in direct conflict with the salaries that people are paid according to their job titles. All throughout, every day we have people in a capacity of acting foreman, acting lieutenants, acting sergeants, and the grade of pay goes up for that time period, and then when they return to their former job duties, then their pay is decreased.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think this is exactly the same case. I think these people were outstanding exemplary officers that were arbitrarily moved and I think those people should get a merit bonus and that a system should be set up in labor negotiations to provide for merit bonuses for those people who have been exemplary in their work. I think it encourages people to do a better job and it shows appreciation.

I will yield to the President of this Council if you would care to give some other wording.

The Chair:

I would go along with the resolution that you are suggesting, that they negotiate into their wages a merit raise but take these dollars out —

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. I'm not married to the words, just the concept, and I would like to get unanimous support for our police officers. I accept that and I amend it as so.

The Chair:

Okay, we're taking out the money factor.

Michelle Madoff:

The exact number of dollars, but the principle is still there. Thank you for the help, Mr. President.

The Chair:

All in favor? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1145 WHEREAS, McArdle Roadway is the only direct route to Mount Washington; and

WHEREAS, over $3 million was spent on repairing and rebuilding McArdle Roadway for the past seven years; and

WHEREAS, the construction required the restriction of traffic and a complete shutdown at times; and

WHEREAS, these shutdowns inconvenienced residents and had a devastating impact on real estate, restaurateurs and retail businesses in Mount Washington; and

WHEREAS, another phase of reconstruction is needed to address the accelerated deterioration of sidewalks and walls because dollars for this phase of the project were not allocated in the first phase; and

WHEREAS, before replacing and repairing the walls, trees must be removed from the hillside with subsequent seeding to help prevent erosion and landslides; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Paul McDermott stated that he did not know when funds would be available in the Capital Budget to undertake completion of this dangerous situation of boulders rolling down hills and water running onto the road which froze and caused a near-fatal accident last winter.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes that the completion of work on McArdle Roadway must be undertaken immediately in its entirety to insure safe access to and from Mount Washington, the number one tourist attraction in Pittsburgh, so as to finally end these negative effects on the residential and business community of Mount Washington.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

May I add that there is a waterline going in in July on Grandview Avenue which will further impact on this problem.

Discussion. Mr. President, we had a post agenda hearing here one day with Mr. McDermott. I don't believe anyone but Mr. Pollock and I remained for it, everybody was busy, and I earlier, at another meeting, showed pictures of boulders on Mount Washington. When the media called Mr. McDermott to ask him whether Michelle Madoff was correct and that McArdle Roadway would be shut down, he said, "Oh, no, it will not", but I suggest to you that not only was it shut down one Saturday, all day, just one lane, but another time we shut down for two or three hours both ways, on another Sunday.

The crews came up from Public Works or Construction and Engineering, and removed a huge boulder which could have been devastating to the community. At that post agenda, I asked Mr. McDermott, and I have the transcript, whether he could do something about at least repairing the sidewalks because we have joggers going down that hill and the fact that the City carries its own liability, we're our own insurance people, whether we could expedite that and what it would take to expedite it. He outlined for us the procedure. He basically stated that he could not do it without going to a consultant. That's the same day we voted $5000 for a consultant on lighting which we didn't need.

Subsequently I learned and requested from another department, an existing design specification that has been in existence, it was approved September 11, 1978 which specifies exactly how a sidewalk is prepared and exactly how a curb is prepared. We don't need a consultant. All you have to do is measure how many feet you want and put it out for bid.

Many times in this Council I have asked Mr. McDermott why he has an overrun on something and he'll say because we were there. And I'll say, in other words, it was more cost effective to do it at that time. He'll say, "Yes, that's the case", and I said, "Good work, Mr. McDermott."

Now, I have been very unsuccessful in getting Construction and Engineering to take notice of this very serious problem. Last Wednesday evening I was meeting some friends at the Shiloh Restaurant in Mount Washington. I was going up the right hand lane and about two-thirds of the way up, three-quarters,

I'm not too sure, I noticed a small boulder sitting in the Roadway. I would like to present that boulder as a concrete example and I want you to know I picked it up with my right arm, not my left arm.

One picture is worth a thousand words. This was sitting on the opposite side of the road. I stopped the car, waved to the car behind me and said, "Hold it, hold it, wait a minute", got out and picked this up with my right arm, pick it up, put it in my car, took it to the Shiloh and they washed my car down because it was a mess, I had difficulty getting it in. If this boulder, and it is substantive, and it was underneath where the huge boulder had been that we had picked up, if an on-coming car, and it was about 9:00, had hit this it could have gone into on-coming traffic and we could have had a fatal collision. At the very best, it would have done some very severe damage to anybody's car going from Mount Washington down McArdle Roadway.

I'm going to present this to Mr. McDermott to put on his desk or somewhere in his office so that he will remember to put this on a priority, that means McArdle Roadway and the problems of Mount Washington. It's time that we don't have post agendas, it's time that we don't have to go out with consultants to pay for existing plans, and perhaps this kind of example will bring it to his attention and I would urge that you support that.

The Chair:

Save that tissue paper; it looked nice when you carried it up.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, for the sake of public information, I wanted to bring it to the attention of the public the fact that there is a post agenda this Wednesday scheduled for 1:30 p.m. here in Council Chambers pertaining to the reduction of zones or precincts from nine to five in the City of Pittsburgh. At that post agenda, each community will be permitted to have a representative speak for a couple minutes as it relates to their concerns.

The reason for the post agenda, obviously, is that the proposal to go from nine to five zones is scheduled to take place next Monday. We have already received two petitions; from my understanding, others are coming. The public will not have the opportunity to speak and be heard prior to the reduction in precincts and the elimination of certain precincts from their neighborhoods; therefore, the reason for the post agenda this Wednesday. I think it's important that they are heard, I believe that the plan, if it is a legitimate plan, then it should have public scrutiny and members of the public should be able to talk about what they consider to be the negative aspects of the plan and members of the Public Safety Department and possibly the Mayor may want to comment or respond to the public.

There has also been discussion that it could possibly be three zones in the future; at this time it's just five but I believe it's important to have this meeting and again, it's this coming Wednesday at 1:30 in Council Chambers.

Mr. Pollock:

I just wanted to make a few corrections in the Minutes. I think they're just typos. June 23rd, page 823, on the fourth line of my testimony, it says, "this Council to" and should be "this Council does". On June 16th, page 785, line 3, it has "Rembo" and it should be "Rambo". There's a few more.

Michelle Madoff:

Why don't we just accept them as amended?

Mr. Pollock:

Alright.

One other thing, I wanted to let everybody know that a week from Saturday, July 26th, the Pittsburgh Pirates are sponsoring a concert after the ballgame and it's also City Council night at the ballpark. City Council has obtained several rows of seats in Box 37 so I want all the public to come to the game, come to the concert, and come on down and visit with us and you can dance with us at the concert after the game is over. Box 37, a week from Saturday.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to make a motion that we televise the upcoming post agenda on Wednesday.

The Chair:

We have a rule, and I won't honor your motion, Mr. Wagner. No informal meetings are to be televised whatsoever. We can make a motion to televise hearings but not informal meetings and that's what post agendas are.

Michelle Madoff:

One quick point, tomorrow's hearing, did we hear, Mr. Perry, from the Board of Education? They want to be on the agenda and to set up, to report to us what has happened. It seems that they've already resolved most of the problems so it would save us many, many testimonies if, indeed, they present their position first of all.

Mr. Perry:

Superintendent Wallace could not be here.

Michelle Madoff:

Somebody will be here, though.

Mr. Perry:

I informed President Jake Milliones to be here and I haven't heard yes or no.

Michelle Madoff:

Well I had a call last night at about 9:30 at my house from someone who said that they will call today and they will have somebody here. My understanding was that it had been resolved and they're going to report on the status of the health clinics and whatever so that — Well, they want to be scheduled to be on the agenda early on so they can answer the questions before the become —

Mr. Perry:

According to Jake Milliones, it is not settled, as of now.

Michelle Madoff:

There is some report and let them make whatever the report is. I don't know exactly what it is.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Givens for absence from the meeting.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, June 9, 1986, Monday, June 16, 1986 and Monday, June 23, 1986.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. O'Malley:

I move to recess this meeting until Wednesday, July 16, 1986 immediately following Council's Standing Committee Meeting.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Grabowski:

Opposed.

And on the motion of Mr. O'Malley

Council recessed.

Mr. O'Malley:

We're going to present a resolution that Mr. Pollock has and the person he's presenting it to is in the audience and we don't want them to wait very long.

Mr. Pollock:

I have with me here today Pete Dimperio, Jr., his wife, Mary, and Mr. Frank Gustine, Sr.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1187 WHEREAS, Peter P. Dimperio passed away on July 15, 1986; and

WHEREAS, "Mr. Pete" as he was both affectionately and respectfully known, coached at Westinghouse High School from 1946 until 1966, compiling a record of 118 wins, 5 losses, and one tie, and winning 17 City League titles; and

WHEREAS, Pete was respected as much off the field as on and he was able to instill responsibility and discipline in young men, which resulted in over 200 of his players earning college athletic scholarships; and

WHEREAS, Pete was named Dapper Dan Man of the Year in 1954 and is to be inducted into the Football Coaches Hall of Fame in August of 1986; and

WHEREAS, Pete both practiced and taught tolerance and respect, encouraging his young players to associate with one another and coaching teams comprised of Blacks, Italians and other ethnicities; and

WHEREAS, we were all blessed to have had Pete touch our lives.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join with Pete Dimperio's wife, Adeline Villella Dimperio, their daughter and son, other family members, and Pete's many friends and admirers in Pittsburgh and across the country, in mourning the loss of this great coach, unique leader, and wonderful man.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I'd like to call upon Pete's son and daughter-in-law and Frank Gustine to say a few words about Pete if they would.

Mr. Dimperio:

Our family sincerely appreciates the efforts of Mr. Pollock in presenting this resolution.

As you're all aware, Pete spent all his coaching years in Pittsburgh, he loved Pittsburgh, and we feel he was good for Pittsburgh.

Thank you.

Mr. Gustine:

Mr. President, members of Council, and my old pal Jeep, it's certainly a pleasure and an honor to be here to speak on behalf of my dear friend Pete Dimperio.

Anyone who knew Pete Dimperio loved him and, of course, respected him deeply. I have had many thoughts on it and, as Jeep said, we have lost many dear friends in the past year or two.

I didn't want to miss anything here; I do want to thank Mark for inviting me down. It's very kind of you, Mark, and I thank Council for passing this resolution for a dear man.

I have written some things here because I wanted to be sure to get it proper. I think, before I start, you could write a book about Pete Dimperio. Pete and I have been friends for about 38 years. As most of you who ever met Pete Dimperio know, he was a marvelous man and fine inspiration for all of us.

I wrote down just a few thoughts that I thought perhaps Council would enjoy as I did writing it. Pete was always an outstanding teacher and coach. This is what he believed in in every line of work, a thorough knowledge of the subject, especially in coaching and especially with people. It brings to the individual four important moral qualities. Pete taught courage, and it takes courage to initiate anything, as you well know here in Council. Confidence for self-assurance is demanded whenever we carry out a responsibility effectively. Poise where we must command the respect of others, and as Pete would always say, you earn respect, you earn respect. If we are to get any cooperation, above all, enthusiasm, because to hold the attention of others as Pete did for so many years, we must fire and inspire them with the same interest.

Pete was always an outstanding coach with the unusual ability to relate to his players. Of course, the lives of these players were changed from young boys to men. He sent over 240 to college and they have all contributed to the City of Pittsburgh in one way, professionally; great dentists, great architects, great construction people. Pete just touched everybody. And I would think the main thing above all is the fact that he made citizens out of these young boys who were looking and reaching out for that help.

So, thank you for paying tribute to my dear friend, Pete Dimperio, for the example and inspiration that he leaves with us. I often said, he is gone but he will never be forgotten.

Again, thanks to Council for this resolution. Thank you for inviting me up here; it's a great honor. And continue your good work. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just wanted to say that I was away last week and was shocked to find out Sunday night about Pete's death so I couldn't pay my respects to the family and I want to convey my sorrow.

I go back with Pete to 1936 when he was the basketball coach at an area junior high school. A lot of people don't know that but Pete then was a great basketball fan and he went from there to Westinghouse. That's how far back we went, and with Frank almost as far back. But he's been a great friend and he's certainly going to be missed. He was probably one of the greatest figures in the history of the City of Pittsburgh.

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward from the meeting last Wednesday for the Record.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S
REMARKS - BILL NO. 1089 -
WEDNESDAY, 7/16/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Director, could you give us an update - I know there have been several meetings - what has been resolved, what are we proposing to do, and when is it proposed to be implemented?

Director Gaetano:

Yes, we've had a few meetings, which Mr. Serpa has chaired the meeting for me. The different members of the particular meetings were representatives from Councilman Woods' office, Louise Brown's office, Howard Hayes; representatives from the Humane Society were there, representing the horse-drawn carriage industry, Mr. Howard, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Gordon; representatives from Councilman Givens' office, and the Law Department.

In the particular meetings we talked basically of only having the horse-drawn carriages Downtown. The legislation specifically says the central business district and nowhere else, Jack. We've discussed as to the hours, the insurance, the permits, the housing, the droppings, of how to clean, the boarding areas, requirements of the drivers, different insurance requirements of which the City of Pittsburgh will be made part of. I think we went through every aspect there was. We also discussed the different types of permits that are given out by New York, Chicago, Washington, Cleveland, Philadelphia, and we've been in touch with their cities as to how they operate a particular system.

The actual service would only be on off-traffic hours Downtown, after six o'clock or Saturdays and Sundays or a holiday, and that's the only time it would be done. We have discussed two particular areas Downtown to have the particular horse-drawn carriage services. I think now even the Humane Society has given us letters and said if it's going to happen that there are different things that they want done and they were all in agreement, which I have their letters here.

So, I think we went over every aspect of a horse-drawn carriage there is, Jack, and we're all in agreement, and I'd like to see this happen in the City.

Mr. Wagner:

In regard to when it will happen if this passes, when do you anticipate? Is there bidding for these certain locations where the carriages will be in effect, or how is that implemented and how is that awarded?

Director Gaetano:

In talking with the Law Department, eventually there will be bidding, yes, as to the percentage basis that the City will receive as to having something like that. But in our discussions with the Law Department, what we want to do is to have basically a trial basis for maybe the rest of the year, okay? Yes, I can go out on a bidding arrangement even on the trial basis, or give it out to just whoever, just on a trial-basis period to see if it works.

I'm in favor of the bidding, absolutely, but we're only talking on a trial period for summer to see how it works.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, how long will a contract be awarded for?

Mr. Serpa:

We talked about the contract and we felt that a two-year contract is what it would be. It would take at least the first year to get the carriages and horses and everything started. They would have to rent a structure in the general area in order to house the carriages; they'll have to make arrangements to haul the horses from, there's three different locations, one up North Park, one up by Schenley Park, and I just forget where the other one is right now, but three different locations they'd have to haul them in. All these preparations would have to be done.

The carriages would have to be specially constructed for the safety equipment that's required on them. We feel that a two-year contract is what it would take for these people who are going to test this area.

Mr. Wagner:

What are the precise locations where the tours will be permitted?

Mr. Serpa:

Because of the terrain Downtown, and because of what the Humane Society has told us that they require for the horses to be able to move through the City of Pittsburgh, there's two different locations that we have decided would be a good test area; one would be starting at the Hilton down by the Park, down by the Point, would go along Stanwix Street, up Fourth Avenue, cross Wood Street to the Fort Pitt Boulevard, down Fort Pitt Boulevard to Commonwealth Place, across Commonwealth Place and back up Duquesne Boulevard, across 7th Avenue, down Penn Avenue, and back to the Hilton Hotel would be the loop. It would be less strain on the horses, the carriages, and it would be the scenic area for the Point as well as the Three Rivers and Mount Washington, all at the same time. The second location would start at the U.S. Steel Building, or the Mellon Towers Building, would start in the general area where the subway is, come from there down Grant Street, all the way down to Liberty, and then onto 12th Street, down 12th Street to Penn, come up past the Convention Center, back up onto Grant — come up Liberty Avenue and up 5th Avenue to Grant Street, behind the Mellon Towers Building, make the complete loop.

Mr. Wagner:

In other words, contracts would be awarded for those two different tour routes.

Director Gaetano:

Correct. Yes.

Mr. Wagner:

Any discussion of any routes on South Side, North Side?

Director Gaetano:

No. At this time, Jack, the legislation that you have in front of you is strictly central business district. If it works out then I think we'll reconvene the same committee that we have had before and discuss the other areas of the City, but right now we're only talking, and the legislation is very specific, as to central business district.

Mr. Wagner:

And Mount Washington has been excluded.

Mr. Gaetano:

Absolutely.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay. Just a couple other questions. The safety of the horses, the people on them, what type of procedures have been implemented to insure that we are reducing to a minimum the potential for accidents with them in terms of conflicting with motor vehicles?

Director Gaetano:

Well, the first thing is that we do not permit them during the daylight hours and during the rush hours at all. It's basically when the Downtown is a lot freer of traffic than it is all day long. The drivers have to be skilled in the actual use of a horse; they have to be a certain age and have so much experience with the horses. The horse cannot be operated when the temperature reaches any more than 85 degrees. The horses can only be used six hours of work a day per horse, okay, with rest periods in between. There's a maximum number of four passengers can be permitted in a carriage at one time. The drivers again must be experienced in livestock handling and driving. There has to be portable drinking water available to the horses, and there has to be proper stables. The horses that are used can only be in good health and good body weight, and they must have properly fitted shoes for the streets of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, this is, just to sum up, this is one of the items that the Entertainment

Task Force discussed as being an excellent amenity to Pittsburgh. I'm personally pleased to see that it's come this far and look forward to seeing it implemented. You have my support on the vote.

(END OF REMARKS)

Michelle Madoff:

Is there going to be any provisal made for clean-up?

Mrs. Masloff:

They're going to wear diapers.

The Chair:

Yes, I understand that the horses will be wearing diapers.

Michelle Madoff:

Lots of luck.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1186 WHEREAS, on official holidays garbage is not collected and sometimes stands for up to two weeks; and

WHEREAS, this time lapse allows for the garbage to be scattered about by dogs and raccoons resulting in foul smelling litter; and

WHEREAS, such accumulated garbage presents not only an eyesore, but a health hazard as well. As a result, we are discouraging potential real estate developers from the City, and certainly are not encouraging people to reside in the City of Pittsburgh.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby intend to appropriate additional funds for the Department of Environmental Services in the 1987 Budget for garbage pickup on official holidays.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Chairman, if you will indulge me, I would like to circulate a letter and some photos that came from a developer not in the Downtown area but in the East End part of the City. He's very distressed; as a matter of fact, he called this morning and I have not had a chance to call him back. I'd also like to distribute down this way the photos of the Downtown area. We've received a list of the court cases because we met here in a very brief, ten minute post agenda meeting with Mr. Lurcott and he's assigned someone to go in and cite the recidivist offenders. But in the list that we received, nobody pointed out that it's the same people over and over again. They say, "Oh, they were cited." Well, the Downtown people particularly are businesses and take the position that it's cheaper to pay the fine.

What is happening is, I just assumed that the Downtown area and the district areas, the Brookline, the Squirrel Hill areas, were really the villains. It has gone far beyond that and the photos that I'm sending around, nobody would like to live in their house next to places where you're seeing garbage in paper bags outside.

It is true that we have on the books now legislation which permits us to cite a violator for putting his garbage out not gift-wrapped. But, unfortunately, I believe there are three people giving citations. That's not even enough to cover Downtown and they don't work at night. They don't even work sporadically at night but I'm arranging for that and we did that with Mr. Imhoff. But everybody is covering for everybody. We don't know whether the people again are the same people except that we researched it and found out that it was the same people.

With the kind of taxes that we pay in the City and the four percent wage tax, I see no reason why this City and this Council cannot appropriate some dollars to pay, particularly in the kind of weather we've had, the 90 degrees, the humidity, when animals get into that garbage, we've got a health problem. It would appear to me that if somebody went to the Health Department they'd make us clean it up. We have a disease potential problem and I think we can't let it go.

In line with that, there was a City overpay for trash pick-up, CMU study on garbage, and I believe there is a hearing coming up on that, is there not? Did you schedule it yet?

The Chair:

On what?

Michelle Madoff:

The hearing on the garbage pick-up, the study that CMU did.

Mr. Pollock:

No, you called for a post agenda on it.

The Chair:

No, there was no hearing, unless you want to make a motion.

Michelle Madoff:

No, there was a — I think you're right, Mark, I think there's a post agenda scheduled but I think it all ties together. We have a garbage problem. Basically, if people read the stories, we have curbside pick-up, routes are longer, trucks depreciate faster, break down sooner because the workers are overloading them, the residents put out heavy items such as kitchen sinks which break down the equipment. We've done away with the Pa Pitt which I think was a wonderful program. We have brakes and hydraulic systems, packers which cause engine breakdowns, and basically, we don't even know when the truck is full, it's overloaded, and we have problems. As you know, the people who do our garbage pick-up are upset about the numbers of people and they're being cut back in service.

I don't know how we're going to work out the cost effectiveness of our system but I think that people are entitled to have their garbage picked up. And every time we don't pick up it isn't almost two weeks, it is two weeks. And I think fourteen days of rotting garbage sitting out on the street is unconscionable and we're not talking about a significant amount of dollars in hiring some private contractors when we're talking a $280 million budget. The people are entitled to having their garbage picked up. We've gone to curbside from the back and I think it's something we must consider at budget time. And I don't want to be told we'll bring that up at budget time because every time I bring it up at budget time nothing happens. I think what we need to talk about, is there a sentiment among this Council to try to solve this problem and, if so, when we get to budget time then we would address it.

Mrs. Masloff:

I brought this up several years ago and I was told that the cost is prohibitive, that it's time and a half for these people to work on holidays and that if any person puts their trash out on a day that it's not supposed to be out they can be cited, just like any other business person. Business people are in a different position than the neighborhoods so that we can't have people working time and a half to pick up the rubbish in the neighborhoods because the cost is prohibitive. There's just no question about it. And in addition to that, the people know when holidays are coming and not to put their trash out on those days.

Mr. DePasquale:

To go on record to say we're in favor of more money for Environmental Services is one thing but to pass a resolution before the Mayor gives us his budget proposal is just, well, we can't do it. We can't pass a resolution on something when we really don't know what's going to be in that budget in regards to Environmental Services funds and chances are the Mayor this time may want to fund it and obviously Council has the right to rearrange that budget and at that time if he doesn't then we can do it. But to pass a resolution on it now I think would be sort of moot. It would really have no bearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to respond to both my colleagues. Councilman DePasquale, what I want is an intent of this Council to look very seriously at that at budget time and that meaning to have alternative sources of picking up our garbage meaning private contractors —

Mr. DePasquale:

You just want to go on record as saying that we want —

Michelle Madoff:

Right. That we do want to solve the problem one way or another.

Now, I've outlined there's another way of solving it. Cite the violators. But you can't have three people going around the whole City. There's just not enough people to deal with the problem. We could solve the problem, Mr. DePasquale by hiring more inspectors, maybe some students part-time, who will go around and cite these people and bring them in for fines and the fines should be greater all the time. But if you can't do that then you've got to pick it up. One way or another we've got to get this problem off the streets.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think, Michelle, though the intent is good, Norm Walker already gave this Council an estimate of what it would cost to have the garbage picked up on those holidays and I think it comes out to $75,000 a day because the refuse workers would have to either be paid time and a half or double time.

I think this letter here is an indication that there's not enough trash receptacles. This doesn't indicate that there's a problem on holidays. I think Shadyside was one of two areas where the City of Pittsburgh went to receptacles, picked up, and were put in the alleys because the terrain was flat enough and the alleys were wide enough. I think what we have here is, we need additional receptacles in the Shadyside area because this letter indicates it has nothing to do with holidays whatsoever.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. Chairman, the date was a holiday. If you look at the date it was a holiday. I've called back Mr. West but I have not spoken with him and I did speak with his secretary, was that just because of the holiday or was it an on-going problem, and she said it's an on-going problem in the area. Nobody is out citing them, nobody is looking through the area to say whether we need more containers, nobody is resolving the problem, and we've got a garbage and a health problem and it's all over the City. It's not just in Shadyside; it's Downtown and it's everywhere.

You know, when you see clean cities, do you know why those cities are clean? Because the Administration, and that means us in a sense, the will of the people who run the City want to keep the City clean. And if you don't have a penalty to those who violate, it's like saying to a criminal, let us know if you're going to commit a crime, or we don't put anybody in jail, they're just going to do what they want to do.

Something has to happen. This has been an issue that I have raised since I've been on this Council and it isn't any better. Now that we're on curbside garbage it is worse. You drive down streets for two days and you see the garbage sitting out on the streets. The point I'm making is, sure, it gets picked up but it still sits there for X number of hours when you're driving by in the evening, especially on Grandview and if you go to stores Downtown when you're shopping in the Oxford. It doesn't do anything to enhance our business and it doesn't do anything to enhance developers coming into communities.

I'm not saying that the answer has to be necessarily more pick-ups. I'm saying it might be more inspectors. But I can't get anything. Somebody isn't listening. And I met with Mr. Imhoff and Mr. Imhoff who is the head of the inspections said, "I can't do anything; I don't have the money." I'm saying that we make a commitment during budget to solve the problem one way or the other, that we have somebody out there. We had the police go around to every facility and tell us where you had a machine the kids played on, Pac Man, why can't we have the police call in and tell us we've got garbage out on the street and cite that person? Just help us on an occasional basis so that we can do something to make this a clean city.

When you have garbage around, the City looks unkempt, and you really attract a criminal element. They all inter-relate, psychologically, whether you believe that or not. Studies have shown that repeatedly. If you have a dirty area you're going to attract the crime element. I know it sounds silly but it all ties together. If this Council wants to have a clean city then we have to do something about it. We can't have Mr. Imhoff saying, "Well, I'm sorry, I don't have the money." Not in a budget of over $280 million. We can afford to hire some inspectors, we can have people drive around and put out the containers, or provide whatever is needed. And Mr. Walker should be here at a post agenda that I believe is to be scheduled. I was out one Wednesday at a hearing, something I had to go to, and it will be rescheduled. But I think it should be the will of this Council to solve this problem.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I think that what Michelle is trying to do I guess has some merit but at any rate, I don't think this is the way to go about it. If in fact Councilman O'Malley is accurate with his figure that it's roughly $75,000 a day to have your Environmental Service people out there, we know there's 12 or 13 holidays, multiply that by the number and you add that figure to the Environmental budget at that time and that's how this Council addresses it. And at that time, anyone who wants to make provisions for pick-ups on holidays, you can do it then. In fact, I think if we did that, we'd probably have people complaining about the refuse people coming on Christmas and Thanksgiving and New Years and disrupting their holiday. So, no matter which way we go here, I think there's still going to be problems but I don't think this is the way to go about it right here.

The Chair:

If I can just add something, I'm pretty sure, in fact, I think Mrs. Masloff pushed for this really hard last year and we did pick up on a few holidays that are not Mondays in succession. Every Monday used to fall on a Monday but they quit that if you recall.

Pittsburgh.

There are going to be between 40 and 45 more shipments of this nuclear material through the heart of Downtown Pittsburgh and the residential areas and I, for one, am going to pursue this further to see if an alternative route can be identified and utilized. I don't have to remind you what could happen right in the City of Pittsburgh.

So, I just wanted to give you guys an update on that and let you know that the first shipment did go through the City of Pittsburgh and that I am going to be following up on this.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Pollock.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, this item is on the letter you sent out about post agendas. I think you might want to clarify that for Councilmembers because I have some concerns about it.

Are you making an arbitrary decision that there will be no minutes kept of interaction between the person holding the hearing and whomever they're interacting with? For example, I would like to have had a record, and I think there is one, of my conversations with Mr. Imhoff when he said, "What do you want from me? I only have three people; I can't get anybody out to pick up the garbage." I think there needs to be a record when Mr. McDermott says, "What do you want from me? I can't fix the sidewalks on Grandview because we didn't have the money allocated over seven years and I can't just put out a contract for sidewalks because I need to have a consultant." Meanwhile, we've always had a design for sidewalks and the design for curbs has been in place since 1978 and all you have to do is measure the number of feet and say, "Who wants to bid on this?" We need records of these kinds of interactions that take place at post agendas. There were just I think three people, I don't even know if there was somebody else with me the day that I had my post agenda with Mr. McDermott and with Mr. Lurcott. And if you're going to make a ruling that just because there's a post agenda that's turning into a hearing we're not going to have support staff, we're not going to have records of what is happening.

The Chair:

I think the original intent of a post agenda, in fact, I know the original intent of a post agenda was just for that information between a Councilmember or Council and the Directors. I think over the last few months its gotten out of hand and they became hearings with the public invited. The last few, not just the last one, but the last few months, and I think a number of us have abused it.

It has to be done as a post agenda. We can't leave the idea that a post agenda is a public hearing. I turned on the TV yesterday and heard about a hearing we had this week in Council on a particular subject when there was no such hearing. It's got to be brought back down to its proper form, a post agenda. The tape recordings will still go on. I think we all agreed here a few months ago that no more transcripts will be taken of the post agenda. It wouldn't be transcribed. So, you'll still have your taperecordings and you'll have your tapes. But they have to be just what they are supposed to be, post agendas. They are not hearings, they are not meeting hearings, and any member here who wants to have a public hearing can do so just by making a motion and with five votes you have a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it would be not very practical, logical, and I think it would be illegal not to keep transcript notes of the brief post agendas as they were designed. I know of an occasion where tapes were missing from our stenotypists' room; also transcripts were stolen, their recordings. Why, I don't know, but that has happened here.

I think we have to have important, fact-finding post agendas where there is absolute documentation so that if the tape fails the transcript is available to document what somebody is saying. If I sat here now and said that Mr. Imhoff said or Mr. McDermott said, and I don't have back-up on that, I'm in big trouble. And if the tape fails or is stolen, it's only one source.

What you're really saying, I think, Mr. Woods, and I think we're prancing around the subject and let's talk about what the issue was, and I think Mr. Wagner can speak for himself. Mr. Wagner, I believe, called a post agenda hearing because of the time frame. The police were going to be re-assigned and he felt there should be a hearing before the re-assigned time. Indeed, it was a hearing and I think there was not enough time to abide by the legal ramifications of public notification. So, by having his post agenda turned into a hearing, at least people had a chance to have whatever input took place and frankly, for the first time, there was interaction. The director had a chance to respond and people for a large part took it very favorably. They said let's give it a chance or I'm unhappy; there was a dichotomy. It wasn't eight hours of listening to one side and by that time nobody cared and nobody stayed long enough, Councilmembers didn't stay to hear what was going to happen. You get worn out in eight hours.

I think the procedure that I introduced in the first few years of being on Council of allowing at a hearing the Mayor's people, whoever they may be on a given subject, to respond to public questioning. Somebody gets up and testifies and turns to the appropriate person and says, "When will this be corrected, when can I get an answer, and why are you doing that?" and it was productive. We didn't stay for eight hours and not accomplish anything. But for some obscure reason during the tenure of Mr. Stone towards the end of his reign, we somehow got it back to where it used to be where the public can ventilate and if we were lucky we were allowed one question and by the time we got to the end of the day there was nothing accomplished.

I think though you may have a valid argument, Mr. Woods, by saying a post agenda did turn into a hearing, I don't think that's routine, I don't think that's the usual case, and I think to punish all members of Council by not keeping records that we can use as hard concrete in dealing with department heads who want to abuse the taxpayers' dollars, when you have $5000 for electrical study that can be done in-house and a study to see about sidewalks when people pour their own, and you don't keep documentation, I think you're doing a great disservice to the public because you don't want to have one post agenda that turned into a hearing.

I think two things need to be considered; our formula for conducting hearings and putting this particular incident into proper perspective and not changing the system.

The Chair:

Please do not try to find my intent; I gave you my intent when I wrote the memo. It was not because of the particular post agenda that just happened, it's because a number of them have happened. I don't want to bring up names but it's been going on for the last couple of months and that's why I sent that memo out. That's the reason, not the one that just happened on Wednesday; I don't want anyone to think that. If you can recall, you had one similar, Mr. Givens had a couple similar to that, where they turned into mini hearings and now was the time to bring a post agenda and it has to be just that, a post agenda.

Mr. Pollock:

Ben, I think the larger issue raised by your memo is exactly who the Council staff works for. It's my understanding, Mike Perry told me when I first got here, that the Council staff works for all nine of us and that if we want to have a court stenographer take minutes at anything that all we had to do was request that. I've had meetings in here where I've had the stenographer work. And for you to say that we can't have a stenographer present at anything we want sounds like you direct where the stenographers work and where they can't. It's my understanding that they don't work for you, they work for all nine of us.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, you're absolutely right. They do work for all nine of us and anytime one of us wants any of the help that belong to Mike Perry the City Clerk or the Assistant Clerk, we must go to that individual. But, the City Clerk and Assistant City Clerk come to me for whatever they want and I direct them. There has to be one person in charge here and you, the nine members of this Council, elected me as the President of Council and the President of Council controls this whole staff and these people run their staff.

Mr. Pollock:

I don't know if you're responding to the point I raised.

The Chair:

I think I am. You asked who was in charge of City Council. The President of Council is in charge of City Council and that's all the employees. All the employees work for the City Clerk, and I direct the City Clerk or the Assistant City Clerk. I think that answers your question; it's the best I can answer it.

Mr. Pollock:

So then, are you saying then that we don't have access to the Council staff?

The Chair:

I am not saying that. I said that if you want access to the Council staff you must go to the City Clerk or the Assistant City Clerk. That's exactly what I said. But you, yourself, or even myself, I would not go to any of these people and ask them to do anything for me or request anything of them. I have to go to the City Clerk or the Assistant City Clerk.

Mr. Pollock:

What you're saying then seems to contradict your memo. If I want a stenographer present in my office for a meeting and I ask Mike if a stenographer is free and he says yes, then that stenographer comes into my office and takes the minutes of whatever —

The Chair:

Unless I set policy where I say no, you can't do that.

Mr. Pollock:

And what authority do you have to do that?

The Chair:

Because you gave it to me when you voted me President.

Mr. Pollock:

I don't think the rules of the Presidency can determine where the Council staff goes.

The Chair:

I can tell the City Clerk what to do.

Mr. Pollock:

I think, Ben, what you're doing is putting the City Council staff in an awkward position because, unless I'm mistaken, their salaries and their positions and vacancies are voted on by all nine. So, if they want to take their orders from you, when it comes time to fill vacancies and promotions and salaries, then they can go to you for all nine votes then.

The Chair:

No, they have to go to you, Mr. Pollock, for one vote.

Mr. Pollock:

Okay.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to the post agendas, first of all, I feel that the reason for the post agendas is that the department directors have not provided us with sufficient information on whatever the pertinent issue may be of the day. When they don't provide us with sufficient information, that, in essence, is saying that they're not providing the public with sufficient information as it relates to an issue. Repeatedly that has occurred recently and in particular as it relates to Public Safety. That was the reason for me calling that post agenda last week which really almost did turn into a hearing but the public was very pleased to have the opportunity for the first time to have dialogue with the Administration in some way prior to the beginning of the implementation of the program which is today.

In regard, though, to post agendas, we've always had a problem with post agendas because we really don't have an agenda for post agendas. I think what needs to be worked out is that this Council as a whole has to vote on a rule of Council as to what is or is not part of a post agenda. What that is, I guess all of us could have our input to determine that and then officially it would come to a vote here publicly as to a rule change on Council. But I think it's important that we somehow tie that in with what the Charter wants us to do which is to obtain and investigate and get as much information as we can from the Administration on all issues. And I am irritated that we cannot obtain information on issues. I am very irritated that when we request members of the Administration to attend our meetings, whether they be the public hearings or post agendas, they absolutely refuse with no answer given, simply that they are busy, they are occupied, and I'm beginning with the Mayor on down. The Mayor only comes in front of this Council once a year at budget time and I believe the time has come with pertinent issues that the Mayor should come in front of Council more often. That not only includes the Mayor but we've had department directors come in front of this Council and say they will be the only people to come in front of Council when in fact the Charter clearly gives us the power to call anyone in front of us.

I would hate to see the stenographers eliminated from post agendas for that reason, because I believe that where the Administration is not providing us with information, at least at a post agenda we can ask questions that we don't normally have the opportunity to ask because we never have that opportunity. We don't here at the legislative meeting because when it comes to free and open dialogue we don't have members of the Administration here. When its at the Committee Meeting on Wednesdays, it has to relate to the bill or piece of legislation in front of us. So, the only time we really have the opportunity to dig into something as major as going from nine precincts to five with the Administration and get some dialogue back and have our stenographers record it, which is very important, I think, for public information, is at a post agenda. So, I would request that we do not remove stenographers from post agendas.

The Chair:

Jack, I know you and I discussed it before last week's post agenda and I knew what you were going to do and I let it go, as you well know because we couldn't schedule the hearing. But, we have to bring it back down now and have post agendas as what they are, post agendas. I'm willing to discuss it; I have an open mind. I'm glad that the memo got everybody's attention. I see that you do read your mail and the next meeting that we have I am more than willing to discuss it in depth.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to continue if I may. I don't think that the public and this Council should end this meeting today not knowing where we stand. My understanding from the dialogue that is taking place now, and correct me if I misunderstand, that if I want to have someone cover my post agenda with a director, that I have to go to Mike Perry or Linda Johnson, Assistant City Clerk, and ask for a stenographer. And then they check with you to see whether you will permit it. Is that correct?

The Chair:

No, it's not correct.

Michelle Madoff:

They will just give me a stenographer?

The Chair:

No, at this time they wouldn't give you one.

Michelle Madoff:

Well I challenge the validity of your authority, whether it's Ben Woods or whether it was Mr. Stone or whoever it was that would disenfranchise the public, would not allow us to have pertinent background information. If you recall, many of us on this Council have felt, some are no longer here, that all hearings of Council, whether they're public hearings, whether they're post agendas, should be televised. Many people can't come down here.

The meat of the meetings, what really goes on, goes on at the post agendas and at the hearings. This gets pretty darn boring when all you do is read out Bill No. so and so, anybody opposed, all in favor aye. The gut of what happens and how we serve our constituents is in the post agendas, and it's been pointed out that we don't get information and that's our way of getting information. And I think there needs to be records kept of that. That's why it should be televised, it should be transcribed by a stenotypist and it should be on tape. The tape was my original idea, you were not here, Mr. Woods, as a back-up because the environmental movement did that and we found that transcriptions were not sometimes accurate because people got to talking and you couldn't hear what was said and sometimes what came out was the exact opposite by leaving a word out. So we also had the tapes.

It would offend me, and I don't know what the legal ramifications are, but I don't think you are empowered with that kind of power to be able to say that you are the President and therefore you're going to decide what we elected officials serving our constituencies are going to have provided in the way of services to protect them by gathering information. And I think that needs to be addressed right here and now, not at a private meeting, and if there's going to be a meeting, I would like the media to be there.

The Chair:

You lost me, Michelle; you went eight different ways. I think I'm within my power and if you care to check with the Solicitor, all of you, please do that.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to check with a private solicitor that we would pay for to check whether you have those powers.

I make a motion to hire one of our consultant solicitors to see whether indeed you have the power to keep us from having that ability.

The Chair:

Why don't you just go to our City Solicitor and if you don't agree with what his findings are —

Michelle Madoff:

For the same reason, Mr. Woods, that we cannot do anything in this Council. We don't have six votes to override the Mayor's veto, ever. The Mayor can get six votes for anything on this Council. Sometimes even mine.

The point I'm making is that we need an independent legal opinion whether you have that power under the Home Rule Charter or under the Rules of Council. I don't think you have it.

The Chair:

I do and I'm exercising it at this moment. Like I said, you can check with the City Solicitor —

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to know the rules for challenging — I just made a motion that I would like to hire an attorney to check that. We have funds available to see and if you do then I will back off.

The Chair:

Is there a second?

Mr. Pollock:

Second.

Mrs. Masloff:

I think we ought to go to our City Solicitor first.

The Chair:

That's what I just got finished saying.

Michelle Madoff:

We have six votes that the City Solicitor is involved with.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff Mr. Pollock

AYES 2 NOES 4

VOTING NO:

Mr. Grabowski Mr. O'Malley
Mrs. Masloff Mr. Woods
(Pres't)

(MR. WAGNER ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I think it clearly indicates in the Charter what your powers are. I don't think we need to go to our Solicitor or an outside solicitor. The way I interpret it, you do not have the power to set policy. You have the power to enforce policy set by the majority of Council.

The Chair:

And that's what I'm doing. And the policy is the Council Rules and I'm enforcing Council Rules. The post agendas are not official meetings of Council as we discussed here many, many times; if any Councilmember calls that meeting, no one has to attend, there's no roll call and there's no order of business. So, it's not an official meeting of Council and any time you can use Council's staff is on official business. I am ruling that way but I said that I am willing to sit down and talk to Council as long as we keep post agendas in the proper perspective from this point on. That's my ruling.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I never gave it much thought until this discussion took place, but I do think the role of the stenographers is for the official record, for the official meetings that Council has, the Legislative Meetings on Mondays, the Standing Committee Meeting on Wednesday and, of course, the public hearings. I didn't realize that from time to time you would assign a stenographer to a Councilmember should they have a private meeting in their office and I never gave much thought to their involvement at the post agendas, but it takes up an awful lot of their time. I think that if you'll check with the City Clerk you'll find that the stenographers are backed up on their work, especially on the Committee Meetings and the hearings. They're not transcribed. And I would suggest that until those Minutes are in print and they are caught up that this private assignment that I wasn't aware took place in the first place cease altogether and I think you're in your authority to do that.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Grabowski.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, to serve our constituencies, when we gather information that is not brought to light until a director comes here and says, "I can't do my job because I don't have the staff to do it." It's the public's right to know and we're not going to have that public right to know unless it is transcribed because colleagues don't even attend the post agenda meetings because they think it's just one person trying to get some information. It was pointed out by other colleagues that the reason we do that is because we can't get information frequently in any other way.

I think you're violating your powers. I don't know how we're going to deal with it; I just said we may discuss it first and perhaps resolve the problem. I'd like to do it amicably but if it can't be done amicably I'm going to look into what can be done in other ways.

I have another item, another subject. We decided on this Council, and I agreed with you, that the set aside a program that would go to referendum would be defeated because it would become a racial issue. We have two set aside bills that I've introduced that need some tightening up because there's a discrepancy as to what is a set aside program between the Mayor's Commission on Women as it is interpreted by various department heads.

But I spoke with you and you gave me permission to hire a counsel to see how we can deal with that problem. I talked to one woman but she was going away for the summer. I spoke to Mike Boyle today who is now head of the Bar Association and has worked for government, worked for McGrady, and he is willing to do it. He's sending a letter to us as to what his fee would be and I don't know how many hours are involved in that but, as you said, we don't have a real pressing deadline on that but I want to get started so that we can resolve that problem. But I needed permission to proceed.

The Chair:

Get a letter so we can —

Michelle Madoff:

I told him to send a letter to us. Would you deal with him and set —

The Chair:

I am meeting with the Mayor and with Danny Pellegrini and I will try to get you there to see about what they can do with this legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree that we should get some legal opinion as to what restrictions we have under the Home Rule Charter and I wanted someone familiar with government law, who dealt with it before, and it was hard finding somebody but he has volunteered for pay, but he'll probably give us a break.

Mrs. Masloff:

I have another matter to bring up that distressed me very, very much. On every corner in the City of Pittsburgh from Liberty Avenue there are young men standing on the streets handing out these cards which are for adults only and which give a telephone number. $2.50 is the cost of the call and the card says, "not for individuals under 18 years of age". However, they are handed out to every single person —

Michelle Madoff:

What is it?

Mrs. Masloff:

It's a pornographic call. You call this number and you get a pornographic call. I think our police should stop it; I think they should take these kids off the corners. It's important; I don't think that kids should be handed these cards on corners and I think our police should be aware of it.

The Chair:

I think you're right.

Mrs. Masloff moved to excuse Mr. Givens for absence from the meeting.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Masloff moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, June 30, 1986 and Monday, July 7, 1986.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Mr. Grabowski:

Opposed.

And on the motion of Mrs. Masloff

Michelle Madoff:

May I call on Verna McGinley, the President of the Aviary Volunteer Association; Donna Williams, Vice President; Rose Weber, Secretary; Rosemarie Hass, Continuing Education Coordinator; Judy Martier, Past President; Judith Aaronson, volunteer; Jim Novelli; Mrs. Faith Dolagowski and her daughter Ms. Faith Dolagowski; and Chuck Tague, Aviary Volunteer Coordinator. Come right up here; no chickening out.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1245 WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Aviary has in its collection over 850 individual birds, representing 274 different species and over 5,000 tropical plants; and

WHEREAS, the VOLUNTEER INTERPRETIVE PROGRAM was established in the Spring of 1983, to enhance the education services of the Aviary and provide the opportunity for interested volunteers to participate in the Docent, Bird Care and Plant Care Programs; and

WHEREAS, the VOLUNTEER INTERPRETIVE PROGRAM manages the "Adopt-a Bird" Program which allows organizations and individuals to donate funds to be used for the nutritional needs of a chosen bird; and

WHEREAS, in 1985 the VOLUNTEER INTERPRETIVE PROGRAM conducted 249 tours serving

8,239 people, participated in 22 community festivals, 27 summer recreation programs, 23 in-school programs, 10 speakers bureaus, and 4 senior citizen workshops, for a total of 5,267 hours of volunteer service; and

WHEREAS, since January 1986 the volunteers at the Pittsburgh Aviary have already donated a total of 3,248 hours of service and promoted the Aviary as a City facility which has resulted in a 17% increase in attendance;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join in thanking the dedicated members of the Pittsburgh Aviary's VOLUNTEER INTERPRETIVE PROGRAM for providing assistance in the daily operation of the Aviary without compensation. Through their dedication these volunteers heighten community awareness of the facility, educate the public to the importance of wildlife and conservation and aid in the protection of the collection.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I have had the privilege of having a private tour with some friends by Donna Williams who has been mistaken as my sister, that's better than as my daughter; and that's happened once or twice. I want you to know that I won a button; I got lucky, I got hit twice on the hand and on the arm.

I was going to do another Whereas; Whereas, Tom Flaherty wanted to audit the wishing well which had $7.00 in it and he was welcome to do it if he'd go in with his trousers on and wade through the wading pool.

The Aviary does a phenomenal job. If you haven't seen it, you really ought to go out there and take the tour. It really is spectacular.

I think some of the people that are here are going to speak and ask all members to adopt a bird, and we don't mean a Councilmember.

I wonder if Louise Brown would like to come up and say something.

Director Brown:

I would just like to add my thanks also to Michelle and members of City Council for this wonderful, dedicated, talented, knowledgeable group of volunteers who have done so much at the Aviary.

I don't know whether you mentioned, Michelle, but not only have we now a significant education program at the Aviary but through their efforts we've also greatly increased admissions and attendance at the Aviary.

So, I want to give a special thanks to all of them and hope that we can serve you any way that we can by hoping to fix the roof in the next year —

Michelle Madoff:

And some extra money.

Director Brown:

Well, we'll see what we can do about the money.

Again, on behalf of the Parks Department, thank you all very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Councilwoman Masloff, would you care to add anything?

Mrs. Masloff:

Everything has been said and I agree.

Michelle Madoff:

That's saying a lot.

Mr. Tague:

My name is Chuck Tague and I'm the Coordinator for the education and volunteer programs at the Pittsburgh Aviary. On behalf of Dr. Lindsay Clack, the Director, Paula Strausser, our Assistant Director, and all the other members of the staff, I'd like to thank these people and the other 15 or 20 who could be represented today for the wonderful job and for donating their time and considerable talents.

I think we set the beginning of what will be very shortly the finest zoological education program in the country.

Ms. McGinley:

I'm Verna McGinley and I'm the President of the Volunteer Interpreters Program at the Aviary and I would just like to say that we thank you for this recognition and we are proud to serve the City in this educational and entertainment capacity.

Ms. Williams:

I'm Donna Williams and I'm the Vice President. First of all, I wanted to thank Michelle for joining us for a private tour of the Aviary and secondly I wanted to award her a certificate of adoption. An admirer of hers has adopted a bird in her name and, along with the certificate, is some information about your bird, a picture of the bird which was adopted in your name —

Michelle Madoff:

Is it the loudest one in the Aviary?

Ms. Williams:

It is the loudest bird at the Aviary, and a plaque has been mounted in your name and the donations of the money goes to the nutritional needs of the bird.

Michelle Madoff:

We have to get everybody on Council to adopt a bird.

Mr. Pollock:

I want to adopt a fried chicken.

The Chair:

Thank you all very much.

No. 1237 Communication from Norbert C. McDermott, Jr., Comptroller, Allegheny County Sanitary Authority, submitting a list of the Authority's personnel as of June 30, 1986.

Which was read, received and filed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Something just occurred to me. Under the Ethics Commission bills, the list is put in but needs nothing. We don't know who sponsored them. Could we obtain a list of the sponsors of all the people that work for the authorities and for whatever?

The Chair:

I don't know if anybody's sponsoring but I don't think you can. You go down and put an application in and get a job. I don't know about sponsors.

Michelle Madoff:

You want me and the public and the media to believe that if somebody comes down sponsored by an influential member of government that they don't get the job over someone else? Is that what you're telling me?

The Chair:

Michelle, I don't care what you believe. I just gave you my answer. I don't know if there's a list of anybody that is sponsored by anybody.

Michelle Madoff:

I know there's not a list. I'm suggesting that it might be appropriate as opposed to just getting a list that means absolutely nothing to me, to know who the sponsors of those people were.

The Chair:

There is no such person.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it might be pertinent that we see that something like that is made available.

The Chair:

There is no such thing. That's what I'm trying to tell you.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm trying to tell you that it's never been written down but everybody has sponsors.

The Chair:

If it's not written down, what should I do, wave a magic wand and here comes the list?

Michelle Madoff:

I mean, if I were to ask you if you sponsored a specific person, you would know whether you did or not.

The Chair:

I would?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes.

The Chair:

I didn't sponsor anybody.

Michelle Madoff:

Or any other member of this Council sponsored anybody for any job in this City?

The Chair:

Anyone who goes down there and puts their name in —

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, you're saying that there's not a person in the City whose job you sponsored?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

There is none?

The Chair:

There is none.

Michelle Madoff:

There's not one person —

The Chair:

Except the people who work for Ben Woods, in Ben Woods' office, or one in this —

Michelle Madoff:

You're telling me that no relatives go anywhere and get hired anywhere because they have contacts on this Council that carry some weight?

The Chair:

None of mine.

Now we'll go on to the regular order of business.

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1239

Report of the Committee on Finance for July 28, 1986 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1065

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution increasing the bonded indebtedness in an amount not to exceed $250 million in order to refund outstanding City bonds and to raise $50 million for the City's Capital Construction Program."

Which was read.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, on the last bill, the bond legislation, 1065, I cannot in good conscience vote for another bond issue where the lead underwriters come from out of this City and out of this state. Since I've been on this Council a number of general obligation bonds have gone out and probably makes us at $300 million. Each and every time that business is being done out of Pittsburgh, and I can't understand for the life of me, why we are consistently going out of town when we have competent and capable underwriters right here in our own city. There are several. In fact, when we come to my committee on General Services there's a bond issue where the lead underwriter is Pittsburgh National Bank and I'm very happy to support that. But from now on, this Councilman will not be voting for any bond issue where the lead underwriters come from outside the City of Pittsburgh.

One other interesting feature of this particular issue is that last Thursday these bonds were sold, and I don't think a proper way to conduct business is for the Department of Finance to authorize the sale of these bonds when this Council has not given final approval. I will not sanction it, I will not vote for it, and I would recommend that the other members of this Council do not either.

Mr. Givens:

I would just like some comment. I think they're pretty strong statements and I agree with Mr. Grabowski on the fact that we're not trying to use underwriters not to do anything with the people and gentlemen who are still in this room. But, you know, that is a feel of the financing that hopefully our local people can get more involved in than what they have been in the past several years. I know in some cases we use exclusively in some cases people from the local area in smaller bond issue. I think the local bondpeople in the City of Pittsburgh must have a more aggressive issue of going out and trying to sell these bonds. I think that's been a kind of a weak point with them over the last years. But I think we need a little encouragement from the people from New York and from the financial community up there to move along. Our people down here, or what Steve Grabowski so indicated, might be future trends within this Council and maybe other municipalities.

All we're saying is, we have people here; we want to use some of our people. If that requires a little bit extra schooling, a little bit extra help from the financial community of New York, then let's have it that way. Let's get them into the act where they can put their communications into the nerve system of the financial community of New York and L.A. and other places, where our own people can have access to some of these underwriters.

On the second issue that Mr. Grabowski brought up, the actual signing of this 1065, it's been traditional within the Council that we give preliminary approval which we have done, Mr. President. They have to have that in order to go out. In fact, if this Council would not vote on that particular $63 million bond issue, it is dead. So we do, really in this Council, have the last say, along with the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh and the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh who must also attest his signature to this particular bond issue. It is something apparently all municipalities do if the interest rates did not come in, as they did not come in the some $200 million that we were trying to refinance. Again, nothing would have happened. If the market was right, we move forward.

So, I do believe we have the last say in any of this. If not, let it be a warning to anybody who goes out and tries to sell bonds on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh, that if its not done appropriately then this Council will not go along with an interest rate that we incur for our citizens for a 30 year period. Then, if this City would be found in default, then the burden definitely has to lie upon those people who will go out and do this very delicate financial business for the City of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, it's my understanding from Mr. Schillo that no local firms wanted to commit themselves when they had uncommitted buyers. That's why it didn't go to a local firm.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mrs. Masloff

Bill No. 1136

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts or the use of existing Contract or Contracts to purchase 200 Mattress and 200 Springs to use at the various Fire Stations and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bill No. 1136 which is the purchase of 200 mattresses and 200 springs, I just want the record to reflect that the three companies that are being solicited to bid on this, of the three, two are local companies; the Pittsburgh Mattress Company and the Crown Rest Bedding Company. So I want that to be on the record.

The Chair:

Is there further any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. DePasquale	Mrs. Masloff

the proceeds of which will be used to pay the cost of acquiring equipment and refunding the Authority's outstanding Series of 1982-A Bonds, respectively, and paying financing costs relating to each series; approving the form of lease and amendment and authorizing execution execution of the official statement relating to the Authority's bonds.

Which was read.

Mr. Grabowski:

On Bill 1156 which is a bond issue for the Equipment Leasing Authority in the amount of $15,900,000, I want it noted that it is a local firm that is doing the underwriting. In fact, there is only one underwriter and the bonds are not yet sold. The Equipment Leasing Authority is waiting for approval from this Council before they will issue the bond.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record on the bond issue for the Leasing Authority, it should also be noted that the first time a minority attorney will have an opportunity to share in the procedures so that he can be listed in the Red Book and therefore become a minority person who can deal in bonds.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, where is the South 12th Street Bridge? Are you talking about the 10th Street Bridge or the 22nd Street Bridge?

The Chair:

South 12th Street.

Mr. DePasquale:

Where is there a bridge there?

Mr. Vaughn:

WHEREAS, the nation of Israel, because of its many war veterans suffering liver trauma and because of the high incidence of hepatitis, is the number one country in the world in need of liver transplants; and

WHEREAS, not only is the cost of seeking liver transplants in Pittsburgh by Israeli citizens over $150,000.00 and thus prohibitively expensive, but the practice of donor organs going to foreigners in general is a problem; and

WHEREAS, while Israel has a desperate need of a transplant program, it fortunately also has Dr. Igal Kam, considered by many to be the world's second best liver transplant surgeon who, during his two years of training with Dr. Thomas Starzl, participated in 300 liver operations and headed the surgical team on nearly 70 cases; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Chapter of American Technion Society has launched a fund raising campaign to establish the first human transplant center in Israel at the Technion Medical Center to be known as the Bernard S. Mars Family Pittsburgh Human Transplant Center; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Thomas Starzl, who has been to Israel over a dozen times, is assisting in the effort to see that Israel obtains a transplant program; and

WHEREAS, Bernard S. Mars is a gentleman whose selfless and dedicated efforts on behalf of numerous philanthropic and humanitarian causes over many years has been accomplished in his own quiet, altruistic and effective manner.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh recognize and congratulate the Pittsburgh Chapter of the American Technion Society and Dr. Thomas Starzl on this worthy undertaking, thank them for naming the Transplant Center after our City and one of its most deserving sons, express pride and support for this project, and urge all Pittsburghers to support the Bernard S. Mars Family Pittsburgh Human Transplant Center to be opened in Israel.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Grabowski seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, because of its length, it wasn't able to be put on one of the large certificates. Could I have permission to delete one or two paragraphs in the final form so that it will fit on there?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

So moved.

Mrs. Masloff:

Second.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Thank you.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1246 WHEREAS, the United States Post Office located in Two Mellon Bank Center (formerly the Union Trust Building) is one of the busiest post offices in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, said post office is used by City and County employees, judges, lawyers, business people and other individuals; and

WHEREAS, the United States Post Office authorities have determined that the post office in Two Mellon Bank Center will be closed soon and no other location for said post office will be utilized; and

WHEREAS, it is important to the smooth and economical operation of the business of the City, County, State Court system, and the many business and professional offices located on or near Grant Street that there be a post office located in the proximity of Grant Street.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby respectfully request that the Postmaster for the City of Pittsburgh re-examine the decision to close and not relocate the post office in Two Mellon Bank Center and further, the Mayor and the Council offer their assistance in any way possible so as to keep a post office on or near Grant Street.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Just for general information, that post office probably brings in more money than almost any post office — probably the most money of any post office.

They were offered another site in one of the other buildings but they declined because they didn't want to pay the rent. I don't know what the answer to that is and I don't know just what you propose to do, Mr. Pollock. Our office was contacted about the same issue and we just didn't know where to proceed. This is a wish list and we could say that we'd like them to do it. I don't know what would happen but I think if we put emphasis on the fact that, again, I repeat, this is the most used, highest volume post office in the City and we ought to find out whether Kaufmann's is going to be prepared to take over that volume.

Mr. Pollock:

I just learned that there is another post office on Fourth Avenue in the McGee Building. I've never used it. And you mentioned there's a small one in Kaufmann's. I don't know if each of these are full post offices, number one; and number two, with the one in Two Mellon Bank Center closing, the lines at these other two are just going to be so ridiculous that they might as well not even be there.

The reason why I feel its a matter of public interest is because of the number of public employees who will be using this post office. So, if anyone, a Council employee or a City employee or a County employee is directed to go to the post office, needless to say if he or she has to go to either the Federal Post Office Building or the other building, it's going to double to triple the time that that person is out of service, either waiting in the line or having to travel a greater distance.

So, as you said, it is a wish but my intent is to send this resolution to the Post Master of Pittsburgh and, as I said, it's the Mayor and City Council, hopefully unanimously, and ask that they consider this more seriously.

Michelle Madoff:

It's also jobs.

Mr. Pollock:

No, no, I've asked that. No one will be laid off.

Michelle Madoff:

It would seem to me that if they take the old post office which used to be the main post office which is, I believe, still open around the clock, we ought to check that out, move the people over and expand the service. It's a matter of two extra blocks. I don't think that's the end of the earth. But they were offered space somewhere else and turned it down. I think what we need is a response as to why, based on the volume of business they're doing, and what the alternatives are going to be based on your comment that people will be standing in line. At least we deserve a response.

Mr. DePasquale:

More along the lines of what Michelle was saying, we all know its so important to the people who work Downtown; it's such a central area. Did they give any reasons as to why they're closing it down?

Mr. Pollock:

They have to close the one they're in because the landlord of the building is doing some remodeling. So they are being relocated involuntarily. My concern is that they're not reopening it anywhere.

The Chair:

Okay, next resolution.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1248 WHEREAS, in April of this year, the Board of the Public Education of the City of Pittsburgh, because of budgetary considerations, took action to eliminate school busing for elementary school students who reside within 1.5 miles of their school; and

WHEREAS, when neighborhood schools were closed by the Board in the late 1970's because of a declining school population and in order to achieve racial balance, parents' concerns about the distance their children would be required to travel were assuaged by the assurance that busing would be provided; and

WHEREAS, the winter weather, topography and traffic conditions and the unfamiliarity with the new walking routes result in a dangerous condition for the school children; and

WHEREAS, State law provides that the Board shall bus students who reside within 1.5 miles of the school if the course which the students traverse is designated a "hazardous route"; and

WHEREAS, the parents of the elementary school students, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, and all caring individuals including the members of the Board of Public Education, are all concerned about the safety and well-being of our City's young children.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh respectfully requests that the Board of Public Education of the City of Pittsburgh re-examine its decision to eliminate busing for elementary school students who reside within 1.5 miles of their school or, in the alternative, to broadly interpret the "hazardous route" designation considering the safety of the children and to expeditiously process the more than 400 "hazardous route" applications filed with the Board.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Pollock, your resolution is one that I wish was introduced when my child was six years old and she walked three-quarters of a mile to school, just under a mile, and back. They wouldn't even let her have lunch in the school and there was nowhere that she could eat, nowhere to keep the food. It seems to be whatever is convenient for the school system.

My gut feeling is that all the resolutions that we might pass, again, being a wish list, I would think that we ought to let the parents on the hazardous routes know that a class action suit might be the appropriate route to take.

Mr. Givens:

I agree with Mark and I'm glad he brought it to our attention because I'm well aware of this 1.5 mile radius. In fact, many of the schools, the private schools in the City of Pittsburgh, at one time, Mark, were being denied this through the federal government and the state and there was a great push on to make sure it happened.

The fact that we have done away with many of our elementary schools, especially within the City of Pittsburgh, and closed them down, we have young children, both young little girls and boys, walking 1.5 miles in a major metropolitan city, through a lot of neighborhoods. That's exposing these children to something that I don't think they should ever be exposed to. If the school is to protect our children while they're in that transitory movement then they have to consider the total health of that child. They cannot leave many of these children walk up to 1.5 miles, and some of them are doing that.

I'll give you an example in my own neighborhood right there, I think it's 1.4 miles from my home down to Arsenal Middle School and many children in that neighborhood have been going down there. This will eliminate them from that Arsenal Middle School. As a result, it's going to be very traumatic in that particular neighborhood and other neighborhoods where children have to go in some cases maybe even across the bridge or railway tracks, etc. It's very dangerous and I appeal wholeheartedly to the School Board to please reconsider this.

Mr. Pollock:

On the same subject, I'm always a little leary about stepping on someone else's territory but we have always been reluctant to introduce resolutions calling on the State House or the U.S. Congress and I think we should not shirk our duty and we're asking the School Board to do something just because it's a local body. It isn't our jurisdiction but naturally the safety and well-being of the children from the City are our concern.

Again, they have their own budgetary concerns that aren't ours but at the different public hearings that I've gone to, there has been testimony that some of the busses that they've used to bus children in the elementary school the distance, were being underutilized; there are whole busses pulling up to schools with only two or three children in them. So, maybe if they could possibly re-examine their use of the busses and get a more economical, efficient use of the busses, they could permit the busing of elementary school children. I think one and a half miles is a long way to walk for a young child especially, as we all know, with what Pittsburgh winters are like and with our hills and everything else. I think before a tragedy occurs that everyone would not want to see happen that I hope they can find the dollars to do this. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mark.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. We have a hearing tomorrow, I believe, on Water.

The issue is on not only flat rates, meters, but on why water rates are being raised and the whole spectrum of the Water and Sewer Authority. The $264 million bond, that was a very close call; it was a 5-4 vote. Four of us did not want the Water and Sewer Authority. We were afraid that what was going to happen has happened and I believe we agreed to televise that. I just want to make sure.

I would like to move that that be televised. There are a lot of senior citizens who cannot come to the hearing tomorrow on flat water rates simply because they are just too old to come down.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff

Mr. Pollock

AYES 3

NOES 3

VOTING NO:

Mr. Grabowski
Mrs. Masloff

Mr. Woods
(Pres't)

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

Comment for the record. It's unfortunate that my colleagues aren't here; I think the bill would have passed. And I believe that it is unfortunate that the senior citizens who cannot attend this meeting tomorrow will not be able to hear what is going on.

On another matter. Did you get a letter delivered to you from Meyer, Unkovic and Scott from Michael Boyle? Did you get a copy of that? What do we do now? How do we proceed?

The Chair:

I thought we were going to try to get an estimate of how many hours he felt it was going to take, not just the hourly rate.

Michelle Madoff:

I can't answer that for you because I don't know that anybody knows that.

The Chair:

Well how about responding back on what he feels how many hours it would be.

Michelle Madoff:

Will you be taking care of that?

The Chair:

You can do it.

Michelle Madoff:

You want me to do it? I've asked him the question and the answer was he doesn't know. He doesn't think it will be a tremendously long time but the issue is not so much is it legal or is it not legal.

Don't tell me how you can't do it because we don't want it on, as you've stated yourself, as a referendum on the ballot. We're talking about set aside programs, not going on the ballot because the feeling of this Council, basically, is that it would fail. If we really need to start some programs, business for minorities and women, then we need some kind of legislation that we could vote on here in Council. If we spent $26,000 to get an opinion as to buying the Stadium, I see no reason why, if it costs us a few thousand dollars, we cannot spend the money for this attorney. I don't think any attorney can tell you the exact number of hours and I'm sure you know that and I know that.

The Chair:

That is my exact point. We spent $29,000, almost $30,000 on the Stadium, whether it was good, bad or indifferent, and I don't want to run into the same thing with that kind of money.

Michelle Madoff:

Every time we go to a bond, we spend millions on bond counsel and underwriters

The Chair:

He stated all his qualifications; he worked for the City Controller for 16 years, worked for another government, Avalon or somewhere, for 18 years. So, he must have some vast knowledge and I'm sure he can give us some kind of idea on how long it will take.

Michelle Madoff:

You want to have an outside figure, not a minimum but a maximum figure.

The Chair:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, I will see that we get that.

I've got one other item. I am not going to let the issue rest on what I raised today about receiving and filing lists of people that work for authorities and work for the City. I believe that it should be the law, and I'm going to introduce some kind of legislation, I'm going to speak to people on the Ethics Commission, because it's a joke when we have a list of who works there and we don't know who sponsors the people. It's a fact, it's a known established fact that people who get jobs, many jobs in the City, are getting them because they're related, formerly related, cousins of, and sponsored by members of this Council, the Mayor's Office, the Controller's Office, and that's the fact.

I think the public has a right to know when they look at the list who sponsored the people on the jobs. Mike Perry has a list of every job in City Council and who sponsored that person and I see no reason why we don't get that kind of information available to the public.

I don't know the names when I look at it. I'm just very surprised every now and again to hear, "Oh, that's so and so's cousin and that's so and so's son, and that's his ex-wife." We all know who I'm talking about but you're on Council but I don't think the media knows and I don't think that the public knows. I think they have the right to that information because every single day every one of us gets calls in our office saying, "Can you get me a job? My child has great credentials." And I say, "I'm sorry, there's just nothing I can do." There's a waiting list, there's a union list, and I have no input. I don't have the majority of clout that this Council has on the five or six votes where you trade off jobs for a vote. I can't give you that. I have no influence.

And I think the public is entitled to know where the jobs come from and who has sponsored that person and I don't think we ought to let it go. Unfortunately, it probably won't pass this Council because you get six votes to shoot it down like we got the majority of votes not to show what's going on and why water rates were raised for people to watch tomorrow.

Mrs. Masloff moved to excuse Mr. O'Malley and Mr. Wagner for absence from the meeting.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mrs. Masloff

Council adjourned.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

One question please. On Bill 1176, the land being sold for $2.00 a square foot for development by Brighton Associates -- I believe that's Mistick & Sons. I would appreciate Mike if you put in the name of the company doing the development.

Mr. Perry:

If it's in the resolution then naturally it would be in there. The name of the developer is in the cover letter.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, but I would like the principals carried forward, if you would please.

Mr. Perry:

They have to put it in the resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

I know, but they've been asked a thousand times to do it. Would you please send a memo back saying you'd like to have principals, I believe that's who it is, am I not correct, Mr. Pollock?

Mr. Pollock:

It is Mistick.

Michelle Madoff:

It is Mistick. Now, the reason I'm concerned is I don't know if the $2.00 a square foot is being sold because it's some property you just want to get back on the tax rolls, and any builder that would buy it and take it and do something good with it would be meaningful; and do we have other builders who would be willing to do that kind of thing?

I understand in this particular instance there's no money coming from the public troth. There's no UDAG or URA money. It is strictly their own funds. But, are they buying the property at below market value? I do not know that, and I'd certainly like to have that information at some point whether it's for the vote today or not.

Mark, would you get that for me?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, before we recommit could I ask what the reason is for the recommitment?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Grabowski, I forgot that there was a public hearing this week that was a continuation of that previous public hearing which was the reason why this bill was initiated to begin with.

In addition to that at that public hearing we are entertaining several petitions from various neighborhoods about the change from the nine precincts to the five zones, so I felt it was only fair to let that issue be aired out completely prior to final vote on this.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to ask Bill Conway, Chairman of the Community Crime Prevention Coalition to please step forward. Bill, will later be introducing other members of the Coalition and members of the public that are participating in this upcoming event.

Mr. President and Members of Council, it is with great honor that I read Resolution No. 645.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1269 WHEREAS, the National Town Watch Association is sponsoring a special, coast-to-coast community crime prevention project on the evening of August 12, 1986 called "National Night Out"; and

WHEREAS, Neighborhood Centers Association, Communities Organized for Public Safety (C.O.P.S.) and Community Crime Prevention Coalition plays an essential role in assisting the Pittsburgh Police through it's cooperative crime prevention efforts in Pittsburgh and is supporting "National Night Out" locally; and

WHEREAS, it is important that all citizens in Pittsburgh be aware of the importance of crime prevention programs and the positive impact that their participation can have on reducing crime in our neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood spirit and cooperation is the theme of the "National Night Out" project and is also the key ingredient in helping the Pittsburgh Police to fight crime;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT WE, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, do hereby call upon all of the citizens of Pittsburgh to join Neighborhood Centers Association, (C.O.P.S.) Communities Organized for Public Safety, Community Crime Prevention Coalition and the National Town Watch Association in supporting and participating in "National Night Out" on August 12, 1986.

FURTHER, LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT WE, THE CITY COUNCIL, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, August 12, 1986 as "National Night Out" in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to introduce Mr. Bill Conway, Chairman of Community Crime Prevention Coalition. Bill is going to introduce others and say a few words.

Mr. Conway:

Thank you Jack.

We appreciate Council's resolution. Last week the Board of Commissioner's of Allegheny County issued us a proclamation and also last week I received a proclamation from the Mayor's Office, so I guess that we saved the best until last because we're here today for the third resolution.

Tuesday evening August 12, 1986 will be a very special evening throughout our City neighborhoods. Thousands of neighbors will be out doing their part in a national effort to sit out against crime. I have the Chairman of the Coalition since 1980 and this is the third year that our Coalition has organized a national night out in the City of Pittsburgh. It is by far the most successful event that we have undertaken, and that's because this year we've gotten plenty of cooperation. Cooperation from the community groups in the Coalition, cooperation from local law enforcement and cooperation from the private sector.

This year Duquesne Light Company along with 7 Eleven Stores has helped us in doing some special events.

Throughout the City of Pittsburgh there are five roadside billboards which advertise this event compliments of Duquesne Light Company.

We have 200,000 Turner Dairy milk cartons which display the logo of National Night Out, that also is compliments of 7 Eleven. Also, we have signs which describe the event which will be going into the neighborhoods, so that everybody can participate. Again this was compliments of 7 Eleven Stores.

Another special event and something that both 7 Eleven and Duquesne Light are picking up the tab for is a free light bulb give away on August 11, 1986. The day before Night Out we're going to have the City kickoff at the 7 Eleven Store on the North Side at Allegheny and Western Avenue.

Director John Norton has agreed to come to the event and participate in handing out the first free light bulb. We will have an allocation of light bulbs for different community groups throughout the City and I'm looking forward to that event also.

I would like to introduce some of the people who have made this event a successful one here in the City and I'd like to them to come forward.

From local law enforcement we have Commander Theresa Rocco who heads the Community Relations and her department has been very cooperative with us this year. Commander Rocco, would you like to come forward?

And, also from law enforcement is the Vice Chairman of the Community Crime Prevention Coalition and also, Vice President of the Western Pennsylvania Community Crime Prevention Officers Association, Sergeant Carroll Byrne.

Ms. Rocco:

There isn't much more I can add about how wonderful this event is going to be, but I would like to say that I'm very delighted and happy to be participating in it since I have just accepted this new challenge and being a Commander on the Pittsburgh Police Department in charge of Crime Prevention. I feel that this for me is a great participation and I'm looking forward to it and I hope that all of us will do all that we can to make it a success. Thank you.

Sergeant Byrne:

I just want to say it's nice to be back. It's nice to have you recognize this effort again and we hope to get your cooperation again next year because we'll be back. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Can you do it in another month next year?

Sergeant Byrne:

You're not taking a vacation?

Michelle Madoff:

No.

Sergeant Byrne:

Oh gosh, what can we do.

Mr. Conway:

There are also a couple of people I'd like to introduce from Duquesne Light Company, Gerry Schmit. I'd like to give her an opportunity to say something if she would like.

Ms. Schmit:

Thank you, I would just like to say that we are very happy to have this opportunity to participate in what we consider a very worthwhile event, and I think we all hope that the spirit of cooperation in the neighborhood and the awareness that's going to result as a result of this program is going to extend far beyond the date of August 12th. We're very happy to have a part in this, thank you.

Mr. Conway:

We also have the Operations Manager for the 7 Eleven Stores in Western Pennsylvania and Ohio, Ron Aliceson. Ron, sends us his best wishes.

Also, the back bone of our Community Crime Prevention Coalition are the neighborhood groups and I'd like to have some very special people come forward from the neighborhoods.

Loretta Miller from the 30th Ward, Knoxville Block Watch Program. The Knoxville Block Watch Program is one of the premier Crime Prevention Programs in the country. They have really made an impact on their neighborhood. Crime has gone down. I've been up there, I was up there last year on National Night Out and was very impressed with the participation on the streets up Knoxville.

Mrs. Miller:

All I want to say is that National Night Out is important in that it heightens the awareness of communities on how effective a Community Crime Prevention program can be. It's a partnership between the Police Department and the people and it does work. Thank you.

Mr. Conway:

Representing the No. 2 Citizens Police Council in the Hill District is Ms. Josephine Roberts.

Ms. Roberts:

Thank you very much for the pleasure of being here with you. It's been really fun working with the Community Crime Coalition program and I'm sure the Hill District is going to be well represented on Night Out, August 12th from 9:00 to 10:00, thank you.

Mr. Conway:

The Squirrel Hill Urban Coalition is represented by Beatrice Goldszer.

Ms. Goldszer:

Hi, well Squirrel Hill is really determined and on August 12th we're going to shut off the TV's and the air conditioning and we're all going to be out in the streets, and we do have a problem there, and on August 12th we're asking all of you to come out and we're going to have a kick-off at the Rehabilitation Center.

We had a wonderful parade last year and we'll be back in force, and we're asking you to all come and join us and really make the neighbors alert that it's their responsibility to help reduce crime in our neighborhood. Thanks for being cooperative.

Mr. Conway:

Representing the Neighborhood Safety Program which is funded by the City are Terry Baltimore from East Liberty and Cathy Griffin from the North Side.

Ms. Baltimore:

I'd like to thank Council for this opportunity. This is a project that I truly believe in mainly because we have to educate people to let them know that they have to help us fight crime, and this is a really fun and unique way to do it. Thank you.

Mr. Conway:

That concludes our program. Again, on the 11th at 12:00 o'clock over on the North Side at 7 Eleven, Allegheny and Western Avenue we will have our kick-off and you can come and help us hand out our first free light bulb.

In addition on the 12th I would like you to stay in your neighborhood and turn your lights on. Thank you very much.

Mr. Pollock:

Does anyone want to come up who will want to say something after the resolution is passed, if it's passed?

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1268 WHEREAS, August 6, 1986 is the 41st anniversary of the advent of the nuclear age manifested by the bombing of Hiroshima; and

WHEREAS, August 6, 1986 also marks the date that the Soviet unilateral nuclear test ban expires; and

WHEREAS, on August 6, 1986 over 20 community groups working for peace and prevention of nuclear war are sponsoring "Peace Festival 1986", remembering the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki with a theme of "Our Children - Their Future is Now"; and

WHEREAS, a nuclear war would result in death, injury and disease on a scale unprecedented in human history; and

WHEREAS, spending for the arms race is contributing to record budget deficits that threaten our nation's economic security while programs providing essential assistance to communities throughout the country are being cut back; and

WHEREAS, a ban on nuclear testing would promote the security of the United States by constraining new developments in the U.S.-Soviet nuclear arms competition and by strengthening efforts to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons to non-nuclear countries; and

WHEREAS, a ban on nuclear testing would be a concrete and easily achievable first step towards a complete halt and deep reductions of ever expanding nuclear arsenals; and

WHEREAS, a ban on nuclear testing can be verified with high confidence by a worldwide network of seismic monitors, satellites and other verification technology operated by the United States and other nations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh call upon President Reagan to immediately join the Soviets in a mutual and verifiable halt of all nuclear testing as a first step towards freezing and reversing the nuclear arms race.

FURTHER, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh encourage all Pittsburghers to participate in "Peace Festival 1986" and to pause and reflect upon the meaning of life in the nuclear age.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I've always been in favor of peace Mr. President and Mr. Pollock, however, the resolution is such that I could not accept it. There's a few Whereas's that I disagree with in the resolution itself and I'd like to address myself to that position.

The first two Whereas's where they indicate Hiroshima and Nagasaki as being something that was very destructive and something that this country shouldn't have done.

Historians have so indicated and my own personal review into that particular war in serving in the military forces for a number of years indicated that that particular bombing ended the war and saved more lives including injuries from radiation and everything else than had the allied forces including that of the United States continued in that war.

The estimate would have been several million military people would have been killed let alone the hardship that would have been endured by the people of Japan and those of the people who were suffering back home with the loss of their loved ones and injuries that they would have come home with.

Second, you have a fifth Whereas spendings for the arms race is contributing to the record budget deficit I agree with you on that. I think all of you have to appreciate if you've been reading the local newspapers and etcetera that you can see that we are behind in the space race that we're in with the Soviet Union primarily that we are definitely in the throwaway capability of what weapons we do have, that is, the missiles themselves and the trajectory of those particular missiles.

All of us have to appreciate what has happened and there's an old saying that many of us have used in the past and I'll use it again, I'd rather be dead than red, and I say that I would rather be dead fighting for our country than wanting to be under the dictatorship of the communist government which is anti-religious and is anti-democratic and anti-everything. I can just think of all the fighting that's happening with the Jewish community. Jewish citizens who are living in Russia today that can't even migrate out of the country. Now, what country would hold citizens back from leaving their own front doors. You must ask yourselves the question of that.

In regards to spreading of the nuclear weapons I think regardless of what Russia and the United States does the other countries and you know which ones I'm talking about, who continue their nuclear explosions and we'll have a hard time curtailing that.

The one thing that discourages me more than anything else on asking the Russians to go into another treaty is that they have violated treaty after treaty after treaty including even the nuclear arms explosions until this country had the know-how to detect any nuclear explosion within the U.S.S.R. Until we had that capability they violated them time and time again.

I noticed here certain Whereas's so indicated that we now have the capability to detect this and we do, but not totally. In other areas of the country and the world we've had unexplained extreme explosions that we can only assume -- off the Indian Ocean and the South Pacific that we did not determine who, in fact, even set them off.

But, the fact that the President of the United States is in very sensitive arms negotiations with the Russians at this particular time, we have to watch how we try to probe the President of the United States on how that will be taken on a national scene.

We are a major City, and I think that if this Council does approve it we have to prove it knowing that the President is going and undergoing negotiations in this very delicate thing.

I think it behooves all of us and I'm happy that you people are coming down, some of you from the Morton Center, it's within my neighborhood, and are asking the people to be aware and trying to say let's have peace in the world, and nobody wants that peace more than this Councilman, and I join with you in your festivities that you're going to have and ask the people to participate in those activities.

But, keep in mind that the Russian's have turned their faces on us time after time after time. Can we trust them? That's the bottom line. So, in my approving this particular resolution I'm keeping those things in mind that when this message goes out from this Councilman approving this resolution that I'll be able to say that I want our President to go to Russia and be able to deal on a face up basis knowing that he has the support of both peace in this country from the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh as well as to tell the Russian's and give them a message, but if they don't adhere to moot contracts that we might enter into in the way of International Contracts of peace that this country's not going to stand for it. It's just that simple.

I thank you for being here.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of clarification, I do want to point out Mr. Pollock that last year I introduced the same resolution. I think it was members of the church that asked me to do it for them. We were all together on the same issue.

I think your first two Whereas's only state history. They do not state anything about position. They're just giving the time in which the first nuclear bomb was dropped.

Furthermore, your last Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, you talk about verifiable and we all know that that can be verified, the testing can be verified, and the one that Mr. Givens is taking exception too -- the first two he didn't quite understand I believe they're just documents, but the third one the spending for the arms race -- I think what we're asking for as rational people is that we don't unbalance or use some common sense in the kind of monies we spent for peace as what we spend for human needs.

I think Chernobyl is a perfect example of what everybody said couldn't happen except those of us who said it's not a matter of will it happen, it's just a matter of when will it happen.

Three Mile Island is an example of it can't happen but it happened. I guess my greatest concern is not so much Russia. I think Russia after Chernobyl has had a message, and there's been another town wiped out which they've kept secret, but scientists know about it. My greatest concern is that some cuckoo clock -- some small dictatorship is going to get hold of a nuclear bomb and not be in negotiations, and that worries me almost more than the Russians do, and I think we really are all concerned about that. That is how third world nuclear wars start with somebody getting hold of a nuclear bomb starting a holocaust, and it won't be the two major powers it will be some little Ayatollah somewhere.

Mr. DePasquale:

One day I was about to land in Japan with about 2 million fellow marines and soldiers on August 6th and I was very grateful to hear that a bomb was dropped that might end the war, in fact, within a week that war was over. They turned those boats back, and we went back to where we came from, and as you all know peace was restored.

I want to go on record as saying even though that bomb ended the war and a lot of us got back home and it seemed like it was going to be forever, and God knows what would have happened if we landed on Japan, but still this weapon probably has turned out to be the worst thing that's ever happened for mankind; and I'll support any effort that might dismantle all the nuclear weapons in this world, and this is what we should strive to do, dismantle every weapon that's out there and throw it right in the ocean.

Ms. Beale:

I'm Carol Beale I'm a member of the Peace Commission of the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh and I would like to read to you from the Peace and Justice Policies that were passed by the General Convention of the Episcopal Church last year.

These policies and I quote from them "during the 20th century we have seen an increasing awareness by the church of it's role in the making of social policy. Today the Episcopal Church accepts its responsibility for witnessing to the Gospel through an active concern for the life of the world around us. The active social ministry of the church is based upon those policies which are enacted by the General Convention of the church.

They passed many resolutions. I would like to read four which directly apply to the resolution which I thank you very much for passing today.

The first is support and work for a verifiable, bilateral nuclear freeze and the continuation of the SALT II Accord.

Review and revise budgetary plans to reflect peace and justice priorities.

Influence government leaders and the producers of military technology and hardware to examine their moral and social responsibility, and advocate economic conversion of our national resources especially our labor to the production of materials and services needed to enhance life.

Thank you.

Mr. Freeman:

My name is Mike Freeman I'm the President of Three Rivers SANE, which is an organization which now has 1,100 members within the City of Pittsburgh, and with the nuclear freeze campaign positions for social responsibility and numerous other groups such as the 20 or more groups we have participating in this Hiroshima celebration have been conducting a nationwide petition campaign and passage of resolutions of this type over the past two years.

First of which occurred around the November summit last year which we had a similar resolution passed with the wording which you see next to me. Since that time a new campaign has been initiated in accord with Secretary Gorbachev's new initiative to halt nuclear testing until August 6th and thus far over 150 municipal governments and 4 State Legislatures have passed resolutions of this type.

We commend you on passing this resolution. We will be announcing it publicly in Market Square at the beginning of the vigil for our Hiroshima Day, Wednesday, August 6th at 11:30 and we invite all City Council Members the Mayor and all other City Officials to attend to meet with the press where we will announce that at 11:30 on Wednesday, thank you.

Mr. Barner:

I'm Tim Barner from the World Federal Association which is a membership group associated with 12 of these organizations that Mike mentioned the Pittsburgh Coalition to Prevent Nuclear War. I have a flyer describing the Wednesday event that Mike just mentioned that I'd like to pass to each of you and add my thanks and the invitation for you to attend on Wednesday at 11:30 or later if possible; and I wanted to compliment the Councilman on his early remarks on desiring the halt and the testing and the production of nuclear weapons be made world wide, and there are those organizations working to make this something that is world wide and not just one nation or two nations pointing a finger at each other.

So, thank you again for the passage of the resolution today.

Mr. Thomas:

My name is Jeff Thomas and I'm a Research Director with the Jobs with Peace Campaign and I am also a Research Specialist with the Urban League of Pittsburgh Housing Counseling.

I just want to very briefly commend you for passing the test band resolution but also to convey to you that to work diligently for the elimination of nuclear weapons is not anything that is unpatriotic, if anything what you are doing is you are guaranteeing your loved ones and their generations thereafter an opportunity to partake in some of the good old American spirit that we all know, love and enjoy.

I think that's an excellent trade off, and I think that's the trade off that must be pursued, and I think it's a trade off that if pursued properly it would not only send a message to Russia that we are, in fact, the citadel for freedom and democracy. Thank you.

Ms. Rothermel:

My name is Joyce Rothermel. I'm Weekend Coordinator at the Jubilee Soup Kitchen and work very much with the Hunger Action Coalition and the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank. I can tell you after the seven years I've had in experience with these organizations that it's an economic imperative on the part of not only the poor people in this country, but the poor people in the nations throughout the world that actions like this be taken.

To read headlines that read one of four children in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are living and being born into poverty is a startling statistic and things have to turn around some time, so thank you for taking your step today.

Mr. Pollock:

I just wanted to especially thank Jeep. Once again, he has said few words but I think they were the most meaningful ones said today and they especially touched me, and anyone who wants a copy of this resolution with a gold seal please leave your name and address at the desk and I'll make sure you get one. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1270 WHEREAS, the People and the Government of the City of Pittsburgh are deeply committed to the best possible health care for persons of all ages especially the children of our community; and

WHEREAS, the Allegheny County Firefighters Association, Pittsburgh Bureau of Fire, West Penn Hospital, Cameron Coca-Cola and Alcoa plan to combine forces to make August, 1986, "Aluminum Cans for Burned Children Month," a local firefighters' charitable can recycling program; and

WHEREAS, consumers throughout the county are being asked to take their used aluminum cans to any firehouse or drop them into marked containers which will be collected by firefighters who will deliver them to an Alcoa recycling center, and Alcoa then will remit the value of the cans to the West Penn Hospital Burn Unit; and

WHEREAS, recycling activities during August will involve the Three Rivers Regatta, a pre-season Steeler game, a Hartwood Acres Concert, the KDKA Picnic Patrol, Domino's Pizza and 70 Foodland supermarkets and other ambitious programs to increase fund-raising;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby commend the Allegheny County Firefighters Association, Pittsburgh Bureau of Fire, West Penn Hospital,

Cameron Coca-Cola, Alcoa and all others committed to this worthy endeavor to help burned children, and as we proudly proclaim August "Aluminum Cans for Burned Children Month," we share the gratitude of our citizens for these generous and compassionate persons, groups and firms of this, the nation's most livable city, for they were touched and they responded.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, just for the sake of public information I'd just to reinforce that the Pittsburgh Firefighters have taken on the task of collecting cans in the month of August and we would ask the public to please collect those aluminum cans and drop them off to your local firehall. It will help children that have been burned. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

Bill No. 1271 WHEREAS, on Tuesday, July 15, 1986, City Council held a public hearing regarding the school-based health clinics recommended by the Task Force on Adolescent Pregnancy and Parenting appointed by the Pittsburgh Board of Public Education; and

WHEREAS, the overwhelming majority of those that testified, as well as the force of their argument, demonstrated that Pittsburghers do not support the institution of such clinics, particularly if used for the counseling and distribution of contraceptives to teenagers without parental knowledge or consent; and

WHEREAS, the nation's Secretary of Education, William Bennett, visited Pittsburgh recently and rejected the idea of dispensing contraceptives in public schools as a way to prevent teenage pregnancy; and

WHEREAS, recent newspaper editorials in the Pittsburgh Press, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, and the Pittsburgh Courier have also argued against school-based health clinics, consistent with Pittsburgh's unique ethnic, traditional, and religious heritage;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, does hereby oppose the idea and institution of school-based health clinics in the Pittsburgh Public School System and urges the Pittsburgh Board of Education to abide by the Minority Report which addressed several points of difference with the Task Force's recommendations.

Mr. Wagner moved the adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

My understanding from what I have heard from the Board Education is that a school based health clinic program was going to go to operation, and they were not going to include contraceptive information, and I have no problem with the school based health clinic. I would hate to kill the goose that lays the egg just because we object to one portion of it.

Mr. Pollock:

I would concur with Ms. Madoff's thoughts, and whether or not they have resolved the issue of the dispensement of contraceptives or not I would oppose this resolution.

In addition, I would like to point out that Secretary of Education, William Bennett is certainly no friend of the students of America because it's the same individual who wants to eliminate school loan program for students, and I for one went to college and Law School on the school program so William Bennett is no friend of the students of America.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to say this was the purpose of a public hearing a couple of weeks ago, at that time and at this time today there has been official determination as to whether or not this will occur within the School Board and I would request from the City Clerk that if this resolution passes that it be sent to all members of the School Board and the Superintendent of Pittsburgh Schools.

Mr. DePasquale:

I want to get something straight I'm on record -- I usually oppose the editorial sections of all of our newspapers, and my understanding is that the editorial sections oppose these clinics and people wrote in?

Mr. Wagner:

I don't have the editorials in front of me but I know they are opposed --

Mr. DePasquale:

The newspapers are stating they are backing the health clinics. The editorial sections of the newspapers backed the health clinics. You're talking about people who wrote in who disagree; is that what you're talking about?

Mr. Wagner:

They are opposed to the concept in schools and that the City of Pittsburgh be used as an experimental school system for this purpose.

Mrs. Masloff:

Who is?

Mr. Wagner:

The local newspapers are.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just don't want to break my record and go along with the newspapers.

Michelle Madoff:

You wouldn't want to break your record. You abstained the other day on your relative but you voted for him today.

The point I'd like to make to this Council is that we ought to have education. The whole secret is education starting at probably when the child can first comprehend in very simple terms, on a fourth grade level. Children should start to learn about having respect for themselves for their bodies for society; and unfortunately we have a terrible situation in this world particularly in this country with the rights of passage. Particularly for minorities is to have an illegitimate child, and I don't know that having preventive mechanisms like contraceptives is going to stop those rights of passage. It becomes a matter of education, and I'd like to see all those people who are working so hard to prevent contraceptives from going into the schools to let the situation continue as it is start to put their energies and time into educating the children and there are classes in which this has been done that have been very, very effective. Schools where children are taught early on that they are people, they can say no, they can respect themselves, and that has been a very effective tool.

On the other hand I would hate to see health clinics shut down where children who have working parents or latch key children need some medical help aside from the pregnancy problem and not have that available to them.

We're mixing apples and oranges in this particular resolution. I'd like to see two separate resolutions. One, if you want to eliminate the contraceptives but certainly not eliminate the health clinics, and I'd also like to have an inclusion of education.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

(MICHELLE MADOFF ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

The Chair presents

No. 1272 WHEREAS, on Monday, August 11, 1986 the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity will extend the Elder Watson Diggs Award to George N. Charlton, Jr. in behalf of his many worthwhile civic and community service contributions.

AND, Mr. Charlton is an outstanding individual whose commitment and dedication to local issues extend far beyond his role as Executive Director of the Pittsburgh Public Parking Authority.

FURTHERMORE, the City of Pittsburgh would like to extend its congratulations to the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity in recognition of its 75 years of service in its efforts to unite college men of culture, patriotism and honor in a bond of common fraternalism.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh extend its sincere congratulations to Mr. Charlton, and further, wish success and growth to the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity in future years.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and Members of Council, I'd like to make a motion to televise the public hearing which occurs this Thursday at 10:30 A.M.

The Chair:

There's no need to make that motion since I've included the recessed hearing in with these other three so it will be televised.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

On another issue Mr. President. With what is happening with the unrest in our community between comprehension, miscomprehension, what will be, what will not be, with the closing down of the police stations, and the fact that this Council and I've stated publicly the minority of us are between a hard place and a rock. If we vote to keep the police stations open they're not going to open anyway, and any action that we take is a delaying mechanism, and so my position has been and I've stated publicly what will be will be, because everytime I complain and I have a letter here before today somebody wrote in to say please do not support the closing of the police stations because we have more crimes than ever and I'm hearing this from the police and I'm hearing it from our constituents.

Everytime I raise that issue to the Police Department what I'm told is "well let us put our plan in operation and once we have the plan in operation all these problems will go away like magic." We'll wave a magic wand. All of us would be delighted if that were true and if that were possible.

I think my responsibility to the community is going to be -- since there's no way we're going to stop whatever's to be will be the Administration has the priority to implement any plan it wishes and it looks like it's after the fact no matter what happens this Thursday.

My position is that I am personally going to monitor what is going on in communities where I hear there are 24 more crimes the police can't cover, and when I hear various happenings in the Police Department I plan to get out in the police cars.

Furthermore, there are many times that I get called in the middle of the night to go look at a water break. I sometimes am very close to a great big hole in the ground where you've got a major leak and the ground is wet and slippery, and I'm sure that many of my colleagues, I know for a fact that there are many colleagues, who go out into the community to look at problems.

I want to remind my colleagues that we carry absolutely no personal liability insurance. We are not covered by Workmen's Compensation. We found that out inadvertently when I dislocated my elbow.

Mr. Pollock:

I think you mean disability not liability.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. Pollock, disability.

But, there is also our liability. We're liable for ourselves. There is no disability insurance. That means that if any member of this Council were in the performance of our duty to be injured we would receive our salary until the next election. At that point we'd probably or might possibly not be in a position physically to run again.

The best example I can give you is that when some nut walked into San Francisco and shot an elected official and killed him. He was probably better off than Governor Wallace who is sitting in a wheel chair. Unless you have private means and private sources. There is no way that I know of from the members that I know on this Council that have that kind of financial backing. That should any of us be severely hurt in a wheel chair that we would be covered, and I would strongly suggest because I'm going to take a private policy, but I should suggest that all of us take a joint policy.

There is a movement in the Legislature, I've had all kinds of correspondence to look into taking some policy for all of the State Legislators. But, unfortunately as we're all aware many many State Legislators use their role as state officials as secondary jobs to enhance their primary job, and that they are insured for disability through initial employment. That means that unless somebody on this Council has another job in which they're covered they don't have insurance.

I'm almost sure from canvassing my colleagues today that all of us going naked, that means that none of us have Workmen's Compensation protection if we are paralyzed or we are hurt beyond being able to work and must be in a wheel chair, and I'm telling you that I will immediately go out and get some kind of — I've been pricing it and it's outrageous on a one to one basis. It's almost impossible to afford and I'd like to ask the President of Council to take it up with the Administration, because we have to have some kind of policy. I'm going to take a binder because I plan when the new system is in place to go out and ride the police cars. It's a very hazardous job. If I should be shot at in the line of duty I want to be protected and covered. I think it's my responsibility to go out and find out whether what I'm hearing is true. Whether there are police calls coming in that are not being answered, and I'm placing myself in great jeopardy.

Many of us have families. Mr. DePasquale has a family, he has children, children who count on him. Mr. O'Malley has a young child. Mr. Pollock may get married shortly. Mr. Wagner has a wife. I don't think that it is a responsible burden to put on those of us to keep us from doing less than our best job, because we're afraid we might get hurt, and I said maybe it was a blessing that dislocated my elbow because we would never have learned that everybody in the City is covered under Workmen's Compensation except elected officials; and I would like to proceed to see what solutions we can achieve and I would make that in the form of a motion, that our President of Council confer with the Administration to see what can be done.

The Chair:

You don't have to put that in the form of motion.

Michelle Madoff:

But, also I believe that he will probably have no luck because I believe it's state mandated. We may have to do that through the state but to follow through to see what is happening. I think it's a very serious situation and I'd like to know if any of my colleagues would care to comment on it.

Mr. Pollock:

I don't know, Michelle are you trying to say that in the event one of us became permanently disabled during a term you would like to see a policy that would cover us further than the length of the one term to which we are elected. Which I think might be difficult to accomplish, because you're not guaranteed —

Michelle Madoff:

Hold on, hold on, we are now covered which is ludicrous, it's inane. We are covered under Workmen's Compensation for non-work related. The City got a policy that went out to all employees and we were asked whether we'd like to take advantage of it and write one check. We all signed it, of course we'd take advantage of it.

So, if I'm out socially and I'm going out dancing at Chauncey's and boogying and I get hurt I'm covered for the rest of my life, but if I'm hurt in the line of duty I get absolutely nothing, and that means you too.

Now, that means that people who've worked for the City as employees who might have been fired who may have worked for a member of Council and the Council person wasn't re-elected they are covered for life under Workmen's Compensation.

If we're hurt in the line of duty we have no compensation and I think that has to be rectified because that may keep us from doing a better job and at the very least the nine of us ought to get together and take a policy which would be — and there's the Mayor that's ten, and there's the Controller that's eleven, and maybe we can get the county to come in with us. It certainly is cheaper than one person buying it themselves. I've priced it for one person and it's like unbelievable.

Mr. Pollock:

It's very expensive.

Michelle Madoff:

It is very expensive and I think that we owe to our loved ones to have that kind of protection.

What do you think, Mr. O'Malley, do you agree? I would like to have a consensus by vote of how this Council feels on my motion. Would somebody second it so we can get a consensus?

The Chair:

It's not a motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I made it as a motion.

The Chair:

I said you don't have to make a motion. I will go talk to the Mayor to see if there's —

Michelle Madoff:

Well, may I make a motion that we get a consensus of the feelings of this Council on my position? I have a second from Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair:

The motion is that we're concerned that we should have compensation passed our term of office.

Michelle Madoff:

Like every other City employee. Nothing special, nothing more, and nothing less.

I don't think it's funny Mr. Woods. Because, if it happened to you you wouldn't be laughing. If you were Governor Wallace in a wheel chair today you would not be laughing.

Mr. Woods:

Michelle, please. Mr. Grabowski has the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

But, you're laughing.

The Chair:

I'm allowed to smile and do what I wish.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I think that we have to keep in mind here that not only us as elected officials but all elected officials it's sort of a special breed of a person the job has certain advantages that are not afforded to regular 40 hour a week compensated employees. I accepted this job the way it was, you know, if I get hurt doing the course of my duties so be it. I chose to run for Council and accepted the office and I don't feel that I'm entitled to anything more. You know, if I happen to get hurt and I'm unable to run again for a second term well I accept that responsibility, but I'm really not interested in any type of compensation for that. That's my own personal belief.

Mr. Depasquale:

Mr. President, I sympathize with Michelle but as for what Steve said if one of us were to be hurt and never served another day until our term ended we would be paid.

Michelle Madoff:

No you would not.

The Chair:

Yes we would.

Mr. DePasquale:

Yes you would.

Michelle Madoff:

You'd only be paid until the end of your term.

The Chair:

That's what he said.

Mr. Depasquale:

You would get paid for the duration of your term. If you never served another day in Council you'd be paid if you were sick and couldn't come in.

Michelle Madoff:

For how long?

Mr. Depasquale:

The duration of your term.

Michelle Madoff:

Which might be a week or a month or four years.

Mr. Depasquale:

Steve said that we have that privilege where other employees don't. However, if someone got hurt and was disabled obviously they could sue the City and collect some money.

You have that right now. The law is passed where it wouldn't help you any Michelle, because you're covered if you get hurt between now and the end of your term.

Michelle Madoff:

Perhaps I'm not making myself clear. I'm saying that as an individual it is very costly to buy that insurance.

Mr. DePasquale:

I don't understand. I'm going along with the resolution I'm just saying that it's really moot.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm saying that those who wished to be covered so that we don't back off of dangerous situations. We should get together. I'm not talking about someone paying for it for me. I'm very happy to pay for it for myself. But, I don't want to have to pay for it on a single policy as opposed to a group policy because it is very very expensive.

I'm not asking the citizens to pay for it for me. I'm asking that we buy it as a group because I think we should have it. I think it enhances our ability and feelings about perhaps taking greater risks.

The Chair:

I have a suggestion, all of those who want to get together with Ms. Madoff and get a group policy would you please get a hold of Ms. Madoff and do that.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to state publicly the day after the Three Rivers Regatta was over that it probably was the best in its history, and I'd like to compliment the Three Rivers Regatta Corporation, all the people involved, the various City Departments that participated, and the people that came because it was run so well and it was an excellent event that reflected what Pittsburgh's all about.

Mr. Pollock:

I think Jack should be complimented too because he was the Chairperson of the parade which I understand was the first evening parade in the City of Pittsburgh and it was very enjoyable and he's to be congratulated because I know he put a lot time in on it.

Mr. O'Malley moved to recess this meeting and meet again Wednesday, August 6, 1986 immediately following the Standing Committee of Council.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And Council recessed.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Wednesday, August 6, 1986

And the hour of 11:00 o'clock, A.M., having arrived and the time of recess having expired, Council reconvened.

Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 1273

Report of the Committee on Finance for August 6, 1986 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1214

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution increasing the bonded indebtedness of the City of Pittsburgh in the aggregate amount not to exceed $200 million of refunding bonds for 1986."

Which was read.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I have to oppose this bill for the reasons I stated before, but on this particular issue Mr. Schmeiser tried to make a good point that the underwriter Merrill Lynch was not going to do this at any fee to the City at least at this point, and I analyzed his statements, in fact, it was the only time I ever videotaped part of a Council meeting because I wanted to be sure what Mr. Schmeiser was saying and I analyzed it, and I've come to the conclusion that the Pittsburgh firms could do the same and probably could do a better job.

Again, I don't oppose the concept of going out on bonds but I oppose the idea that the lead underwriter is from out of town and out of state, and I oppose this legislation for that reason.

Mr. Pollock:

Steve, is that your opinion or do you have that confirmed with the local underwriters?

Mr. Grabowski:

I've had it confirmed.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I feel the same way Steve does on this particular issue and I hope it doesn't snowball but I mean there has to be Pittsburgh based people doing our work here. It's our taxpayers paying that money and hopefully from hereon out we'll have people from the City of Pittsburgh selling our own bonds. So, when we talk about sizable almost $6 million if you take that $1.25 times the $200 million times another $200 million that we're refinancing and we're talking right under the $6 million figure of monies that could have stayed right within our community that are now going to other underwriters and that's an awful exodus of money. We need every penny that we can keep right here in the City of Pittsburgh and major banking institutions and others here have that prerogative and have that capability, and hopefully we can keep some of that action right here in the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

Mr. Wagner:

On the bill Mr. President. This bill has been discussed at great length. Formerly at a Council meeting week and a half ago you requested from the Director, Mr. Norton that a response be given the five items the bill, and that the response was received by this Council this past Friday afternoon. I have sent over another copy of it in case you don't have it available with you.

I'd like to take a moment to read the response and it's very important I feel that this response be made public and it's a letter directed to the President of Council, Mr. Woods from Mr. Norton dated August 8, 1986 - Investigation of Police Bureau.

As you have requested, enclosed is a brief response to each inquiry that Councilman Wagner has voiced regarding the investigation of the Police Bureau, Department of Public Safety. I have addressed and answered each of these questions repeatedly in the past. If additional responses are needed, I will provide the necessary information.

I don't now why that necessary information was not provided right in this letter if there is available information. Getting to the responses, and the first item requested in the investigation was: The Creation of job titles that do not exist in the 1986 budget.

The response by the Director is: The Department of Public Safety has not created any new titles or positions for the five Bureaus which comprise the Department. All positions and titles that have been authorized in the 1986 budget are in compliance with Personnel and Civil Service regulations and policies. Some of the positions in question in the Police Bureau have been filled through as needed positions which is authorized by the budget. As needed positions have been placed in the budget to assist the Police Bureau in its reorganization efforts during the 1986 calendar year. The titles of Commander and Assistance Chief are official and no variations are in effect.

I'd like to take a moment - the other item that I passed out to each one of you is a copy of the budget and the page for the Assistance Chief and Commander positions. It's very clear to me and looking at that budget that the only Commander position in there is a Precinct Commander.

However, the Director has chosen to fill positions such as, titled: Perpetrator of Crime Commander, a Watch Commander, Night Commander, Task Force Commander of Narcotics, I could go on and on and on. I still have not found any of those titles in the budget. No matter how many positions there are in any department in this City especially at a high salary position and both of the positions that we're talking about are Assistance Chief positions and Commander positions at $37,500 and $42,500.

We in this Council have only one position that's within the City Clerk's Office that is of that magnitude in salary and we clearly identify that. We clearly identify for Council's staff every position by title in the budget. All the other departments do it also. Now, what the Director is saying is that he can in essence create positions and we've asked him to justify that in the budget and he has not justified it, and that's clearly indicated by the copy of the budget that I have passed out to all of you. That's one item out of five.

The second item is, the lack of information precipitating administrative changes. The Director's response is: All administrative changes in the Police Bureau have been presented to and authorized by Mayor Caliguiri. Any information necessary to justify the changes would be disseminated through the Mayor's Office which has always been the practice of the Caliguiri Administration. The Department of Public Safety will adhere to this practice.

Well, the practice basically is a news release and whether or not that news release comes to this Council is determined I guess by the Administration or whether or not we can obtain a copy of the news release from the news media. That in addition to this one paragraph this one paragraph that I just read is all the information that this Council has received in terms of justification of the various changes within the Public Safety Department of the Police Bureau. Let me repeat that that is all the information this Council has received.

True, there has been dialogue at that table but there has been no factual information presented to this Council. The item of greatest controversy has been the five zone concept in terms of Administrative changes. That's the reason why I believe the consultant study is so important and have always thought the consultant study was so important as a matter of fact, at last weeks meeting the Director indicated at the public hearing that took place here that the rough draft was sitting on this desk and we asked for a copy of that rough draft. There still has been no copy provided to this Council because there is no rough draft. There is no consultant study even though we allocated $90,000, and I've continually requested it. We have done it officially here by this body, I have done it in writing, I have done it numerous times with phone calls. This is all the information that this Council has received. I think that is so important especially when you're talking about massive changes within the Police Bureau such as going from nine precincts to five zones and we've had hundreds of people into this Council at a post agenda and at a public hearing simply asking for information.

As a matter of fact, last week at our public hearing we had two people testify that gave us some fantastic data that they have analyzed in terms of the proposed changes. Data comparing Pittsburgh to other cities and the data is, I have to believe is accurate and is in conflict with what the Administration has said the City of Pittsburgh needs. I indicated numerous times that in all the news releases put out on the five zone concept they have deliberately excluded the City of San Francisco because the City of San Francisco is the only city that compares well with the City of Pittsburgh, geographically and from a topographical point of view. Ironically, Director Norton is from San Francisco. He worked in that police department, and Director Norton knows the City of San Francisco quite well. However, that City was deliberately excluded in the comparison data. Why was it excluded? Because if you compare the City of Pittsburgh with San Francisco, the nine precinct concept is the right way to go, not cutting it back to five zones. Therefore, comparison with that city rather than Tuscon, Arizona and Phoenix and St. Louis which are level flat cities, if we compared our hilly terrain, tough terrain with the City of San Francisco, they could not justify the five zone concept.

That's part of the information that I have requested behind these Administrative changes. Still to this date we have no justification. Still as of this date, we have had newspaper articles saying we're going to lose 176 officers. We have members of the public providing us with more information at public hearings than we're receiving from the Administration. Is that cause, is that justification for investigation and solicitation of information? I believe yes. I believe the consultant study alone is justification behind it.

Number C that is requested; the unexplained demotions and transfers. The Director responds in writing and, Mr. President, I am really happy you asked for this response because there is nothing that has proved this point more than this response that has been provided to this Council. Transfer of assignments within the Police Bureau is routine and all transfers are associated with providing a better delivery of police service. Civil Service guidelines and FOP contract dictate policies and procedures in regard to transfers. The Department of Public Safety is in compliance with all stipulations. Furthermore, there have been no demotions of police officers.

Well, I should bring everyone up to date because right now, at this very moment, there is a Personnel Appeals Board hearing going on on the third floor of this building. The purpose of the Personnel Appeals Board hearing is the unwarranted transfers and demotions of various detectives within the Police Bureau.

I just found out and I have a note that was just provided to me ten minutes ago that many people from the Administration were subpoenaed by the Personnel Appeals Board to that hearing, Director Norton and many people within his staff within the Police Bureau. It was said at the hearing that Director Norton put out an order that no one will appear at that hearing, even though those people have been subpoenaed to that hearing. He has come out and has said publicly, and has obviously done it, has ignored the Charter of this City, the powers that this Charter gives to the Personnel Appeals Board which this Council has an appointee of one of the three people to that Personnel Appeals Board, Dr. Martin Krauss.

The purpose, obviously, of the hearing is to talk about the unwarranted transfers and demotions, and it is stated right here: "Furthermore, there have been no demotions of police officers." Well, if Chester Howard was not a demotion, I don't know what was. He was an Assistant Chief and now he's a Commander. That's an out and out blatant error of information. If Inspector McDaniel was not demoted and then promoted, I don't know what that was. And then we saw how many people testified in front of this Council at a public hearing that they lost dollars, they lost salary due to their transfer. We have taking place in September, when the five zone concept goes into effect, at least 300 transfers. Are they justified or not? That's what I'm asking here.

Is there a personnel file on each employee? I can tell you clearly there isn't. There is no justification behind the transfers, promotions or demotions. I've asked for them. I've gone right in to the people in charge. They don't exist. How can we operate a city without having justifications for transfers and demotions? That's what I'm asking for here, Item C.

Item D, the lack of police officers according to the number budgeted. The response by Mr. Norton is, "The Police Bureau reorganization efforts and administrative changes have been based on the anticipated improved management of existing police resources. This has not been fully implemented. The Department of Public Safety must be cautious in considering the start date and size of any police recruitment class to be recommended to the Mayor. Some initiatives of the new police zone concept are the movement of police officers from secretarial, clerical jobs, to street duty. Expansion of police visibility and coverage through the use of one officer vehicles provisions of 24-hour management coverage of police activities, distribution of workload evenly among the five zones, increased supervision of policing at street level, and productivity of all Police Bureau resources." That is the response.

Now, can any member of this Council tell me what the answer to that question is? I'm asking all of you. We asked the question; did we get an answer? That answer is an insult to this Council. There is no answer; it's similar to the dialogue we have had in the past where there is not an answer. The Director uses the cliché, where the rubber meets the road. That's where the police officers are going to be. That's what I want to know. Are they going to be there in the numbers necessary where the rubber meets the road? This answer has not told me that 141 vacancies, in any way, relates to where police officers are going to be out there where the rubber meets the road.

We need to know. That's been the question that's been going on for years in this Council and this Administration. Why vacancies and police officers, what is the number necessary? Let's agree on it, let's budget it, let's fill them. That hasn't been done, we still have no answer to the question, we still have no consultant study.

E, as part of this resolution, the question is, the accelerated rate of retirement for police officers in the first six months of 1986. The response by the Director, and I'm glad this one is last because there's nothing I believe that reflects what we're asking for here more than this answer. "All police officers which have retired during the first six months of 1986 were eligible for retirement." If you retire, obviously you're eligible to retire. I don't know really what he's referring to there, 20 years probably. "Reason for retirement probably varies from person to person. We do not know why each officer retired; however, the fact that our Police Bureau has many older officers is probably a contributor." That the answer to that question.

In essence, and again I'll use the Director's language, imperial data behind anything that happens. We have imperial data. Is that imperial data as to why 65 police officers have retired? They don't know; he really comes out and says it here. There has not been an exit interview to determine why we have an accelerated rate of retirement within the Police Bureau. No one knows. We've lost between five and ten percent of all our police officers on the street and no one really cares. Why? Quality officers. And that's what this investigation is asking for, to find out why we are losing police officers at such an accelerated rate, simply by doing exit interviews, simply by questions and answers after a person has announced their retirement. It's not going on in this City. There is no desire to do it in this City. How can we determine what improvements are necessary in the Police Bureau if we don't ask our own people? What do we do? We go out and get a new director from another city, we get upper management from another city, we get a consultant from another city, and we have 65 people that retire and we never ask them why. And it's stated right here.

Those out of the five responses to President Woods' request for a written response to this resolution. And there is nothing that I can say that better justifies this resolution than this response.

Members of Council, again I am requesting that your logic, your concern, your desire to see this City better function is absolutely necessary in terms of soliciting solid data and information in this police bureau and all the changes that are taking place. We owe it to ourselves, we owe it to the public, we owe it to the police officers. I am requesting again your re-evaluation of this resolution and your support of it.

Thank you.

Mr. Pollock:

I would first of all ask that all of the Committee Sessions be brought forward and included.

The Chair:

Wait a minute, Mr. Pollock. You can ask for your remarks to be brought forward.

Mr. Pollock:

Well I make a motion that all of the Committee comments for everybody to be brought forward.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

The Chair:

On the motion, I would ask my colleagues not to vote for that because it's an awful, awful lot of work. They've already been transcribed once in the Committee Session. There's been much discussion on this and if we continue to do this — That's why we never get these reports printed. They're already printed, they're already on record in the Committee Reports.

Mr. Pollock:

If I can respond, our Wednesday sessions — I think you might be confusing them with the public hearings — our Wednesday sessions were not real long on this.

The Chair:

May I respond to that? Yes they were, quite, quite long. We had Mr. Norton up here for quite some time last Wednesday.

Mr. Pollock:

It's my understanding that the Wednesday session are not part of the official record.

The Chair:

Wednesday's Committee Meeting is part of the official record, the same with this meeting.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. Perry, is that accurate?

The Chair:

You can ask me, Mr. Pollock; I know what's accurate. I just told you, yes, it is part of the official record.

Mr. Pollock:

You always call accurate whatever you want to call accurate so —

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, you are out of order.

Mr. Pollock:

Is there a fine for that?

The Chair:

Yes, you are fined. Thank you.

Now, on the vote.

Mr. Pollock:

I wasn't through discussing or are you telling me I'm finished discussing?

The Chair:

Then stick to the point, Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

I think what Jack revealed just now regarding the hearing going on downstairs, if in fact he is accurate, and I have no reason to doubt him, but I think that reveals a great deal there and that is —

The Chair:

Wait a minute, Mr. Pollock. You made a motion that we bring transcripts from Wednesday's meeting into this meeting.

Mr. Pollock:

I thought you said on the bill.

The Chair:

No, no. You made a motion and it was seconded.

Mr. Pollock:

Right.

The Chair:

I asked my colleagues to please not vote for it and I gave my reason. Then you gave your reason why. Now can we vote on that?

Mr. Pollock:

Sure.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 2 NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Grabowski Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Pollock:

On the bill, as I was saying, if in fact Jack is right, that the information that he has received that Director Norton has either directed or asked or whatever that people subpoenaed not appear at a quasi-judicial hearing, which is the Personnel Appeals Board, I think is very revealing as to why if in fact this resolution were passed, why it would not be fruitful, and that is that we have no powers to do anything even if there were an investigation. And here a body composed and mandated by our Home Rule Charter which has subpoena powers which, as I said, is a quasi-judicial hearing, if in fact its subpoenas are ignored, then I think that is very indicative as to what would be accomplished by a Council investigation.

I think that some of the answers that Jack is seeking have in fact been given to us. I think others that Jack is asking I think are misdirected in that Director Norton is not the right party to ask to provide these answers. Insofar as the unexplained demotions and transfers, the FOP is represented by one of the finest attorneys in the City and he is pursuing this matter through the Personnel Appeals Board, through the court system, and I think that the FOP will have it's day in court, or days in court, being represented far better than Council could do in any type of investigatory function.

So, my reason for opposing this legislation is as I've stated so far. I just don't think it's the right way to go, although, as I've said all along, I think Jack is acting in good faith and moreover that the bottom line is that if Jack feels he is not receiving answers, that a defeat of this legislation is not a statement that this Council does not support an individual Councilmember in his or her request to receive answers and that this body speaks as a whole when it speaks through any one of its Committee Chairman or Chairwomen who request information in that we expect information to be forthcoming.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward for the Record from all meetings.

Mr. Pollock:

Mine as well.

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S AND MR. POLLOCK'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1137 - WEDNESDAY, 7/23/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, members of Council, this resolution is unusual in that we have not seen one of its type in a number of years in front of City Council.

The Charter gives Council the authority to investigate any administrative situation in the City of Pittsburgh, and basically, that is what this is suggesting, to conduct a formal investigation of administrative procedures.

This has come about as a result of many unanswered questions that have come in front of this Council and many unanswered questions for the residents of the City of Pittsburgh. This was talked about initially that we had at a public hearing two weeks ago. As a matter of fact, Councilman Givens read a specific portion of the Charter that refers to this. Councilman Givens also suggested at this time, that possibly there is a need to follow this procedure.

I would just like to briefly state and expand upon the items that I listed in this under Section II. The creation of job titles that do not exist in the 1986 budget, this Council passed a budget in December of 1985 creating certain job titles and numbers of jobs that exist within the Public Safety Department. Since that time, there have been other jobs created and administrative changes made in various management positions. That was not authorized by this Council. I have a list of job titles that I will not mention now that have been created. That relates to A under Section II.

And B under Section II, the lack of information precipitating administrative changes pertains to various items where there has been lack of public input that has gone into changes. Changes have occurred prior to public input. The most recent is the concept of going from nine precincts to five zones. Even though the change has not occurred yet, as of Monday, the administrative changes of management personnel went into effect, and the beginnings of that change have occurred without having public input. The only public input that we have had was at a post agenda last week.

Number C relates to unexplained demotions and transfers. All of you sat here at a public hearing and heard the testimony of many officers that were never given the courtesy of an explanation for a change, a transfer, and as some of them indicated, a demotion. Just recently, there was a commander that was demoted and again yesterday was promoted. Again, a lack of information behind why these things are occurring, and in particular, with the individuals themselves. In other words, one day they are simply said to that they are transferred or demoted with no explanation.

And D, the lack of police officers according to numbers budgeted. All of you know this, and those of you who have been on this Council longer than I know this better than I do. This Council has repeatedly budgeted certain numbers of police officers for good common sense reasons, and those positions have not been filled. We have repeatedly stated at public meetings out in the neighborhoods that Council has budgeted the numbers, but the Administration has not filled them, and that has been our defense mechanism in saying there is nothing else that we can do. Well, there is something else we can do, and we can get to the root of it all and find out the reasons why through this legislation, why those positions have not been filled, and that is basically what I am suggesting here. The reasons should be put on the table, and they should be discussed.

And E, the accelerated rate of retirement of police officers in the first six months of 1986, it has reached an all-time high. It is 65 in six months. It is at an alarming rate with no anticipations or new hires this year which clearly tells me that the public has less protection. We should find out the reasons these retirements are occurring at such an accelerated rate in comparison to previous years. We should get to the bottom of it and find out if there is anything that can be done to prevent it or to slow it down.

I also indicated in this legislation that the purpose of the investigation shall include but not be limited to those five items. There are other items that I believe need to be looked at, a consultant study that this Council allocated dollars for and has had no explanation at all about that consultant study that was to be the basis for evaluation of change within the Police Bureau. We know nothing about it, and many changes have occurred.

In general though, what I would like to say is that the main reason for this legislation is the lack of answers to questions. Something that I believe a municipality must have in order for it to function properly. At the very least, questions should be answered, people should come to this table that are asked to come to this table and repeatedly have not come to this table as it relates to the Public Safety Department, even after a major change occurred a year and a half ago, and a major change occurred in December of 1985 with many changes in the new budget for Public Safety. We need to know what the plan is. For some reason, no one will tell us what the plan is, what these changes are and where they are going, and what benefits will be gained from it. We read news releases, and that is all we have read. They say there are financial savings to be gained by cutting precincts from nine to five, well there is only two ways for financial gain to occur. Either elimination of physical facilities, or reduction of personnel. There will not be an elimination of physical facilities, we know that. They will all be utilized. If there is to be financial gain as a result of it, it must be the reduction of personnel. If that is the case, let's say it and let the public know. Let's let the public have input to it. Let's operate in an open management governmental fashion, and that is what this legislation is all about. It is to find out answers to many unanswered questions, and so therefore, I would suggest that we pursue it vigorously, and hopefully all of you will support it.

Members of Council, there is a thinking in this town, in this City, and at this very table, that dialogue and checks and balances on the Administration is not the way that government should function when clearly that is the reason why and the intention of the Charter of this City. Dialogue, looking at, asking questions about the Administration is healthy for good government. And when question are not answered and information is not given, I will be the first one to stand up and ask why not. And the Charter has given us the power to ask why not with the Section 312.

There is nothing wrong with asking the Administration to come to this table to ask questions and get answers. Not sidestepped answers, but to give us solid answers and show us solid data. We control the purse strings of this City as a Council. The Mayor does not control the purse strings, Council does. Council must be independent of the Administration in order for this government to function properly. That is healthy, that is good. That is the way this Charter was written. That is more the issue, I think, than this piece of legislation, and because that is more the issue, I believe this Council somewhere, somehow, someday must get the answers that it deserves because the public is asking them. The public has asked many questions as it relates to public safety. Those answers have not been given. Why many others have not asked the same questions, I don't know. Even the media has accepted the proposed changes after a year and a half when in fact no plan has been put forth. And what I am saying is to ask questions on issues and to get answers is healthy. That is what this is suggesting.

Now, in response to my colleague, Michelle Madoff, in regard to all five items, I have heard her talk repeatedly about why not. Why not. Why no police officers. Why were jobs changed and titles moved from one area to another when they were not there in the budget? Why haven't we received information to back up these suggested changes? Why does the media get information and the Council that funds the Administration gets none? These are all solid questions, and the only way I can see that we can ever get those answers is to formally request them with the authority given to us by the Charter. We can talk all day. We can ask questions all day. We can have post agenda after post agenda. We can have public hearing after public hearing, and we will all get up and walk away, and questions will still not be answered as to why we don't fill the vacancies of police officers. No one has answered that question. As simple as it is, no one has answered it. No one has answered the questions of the creation of job titles, as simple as it is. The demotions and transfers, that was answered in the media, not with the individuals, in the media. That is alarming, to me it is as Chairman of Public Safety. Someone was demoted, and yesterday they were promoted. That concerns me. What is going on? And if we haven't seen enough facts come in front of us to realize that we need to take a closer look at the department that we have given millions of more dollars in comparison to previous years, I don't know what is. And the time has come to get down and find out really what the plan is, have the questions answered, and let the public have some input and that is what this is suggesting. And I would hope that you support it.

I can see right now that there is not sentiment on this Council to support the legislation, and I know Councilman Givens has talked in favor of it. Obviously, I would like to see us have five votes. Whether or not we will, I do not know to be quite frank, until we do vote. But quite frankly, if there is a vote that is not here that will vote for it, I would be a fool if I didn't move to hold this legislation one week. So, I would like him to be here as part of the debate, so I will retract my motion to approve and hold the legislation for one week.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

Well, I wondered if during your daddy's 37 years on the police force —

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

Well, during your father's 37 years on the police force when he received these transfers, did any of them ever result in a $2,000 a year decrease in pay, if he would have ever made a noise about it or not.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

Is that responsive to what I said?

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

I didn't ask a question.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

MR. GRABOWSKI COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I agree with Councilman Grabowski, and I would just simply like to respond in that in regard to this bill, there is nothing here that refers to any individual from being changed, promoted, demoted or transferred, and there is nothing here that refers to anything as it relates to bring politics into the Police Bureau or the Public Safety Department. What is here refers to good management. And this Council has every right to investigate good management procedures. Me as an individual, Chairman of Public Safety, if there is any one individual within the 2500 people within Police, Fire, EMS, Administration, and Building Inspection that is demoted without explanation, and simply receives a demotion or a transfer without explanation from a superior or in writing, that to me warrants a formal investigation of that Department because good management procedures have not been followed. That has not been done with one person. That has been done with dozens of people. In addition to that, many many other items have not been answered here that relate to good management, that relate to the Charter of this City, and the way I see it, there is nothing above the Charter, including all of us and all of the Administration. The people wrote the Charter, and if questions are not being answered and changes are being made with appear to be for the sake of change, not for politics, but for the sake of change, then questions have to be answered. They have not been answered. I don't know many Councilmembers were here at the end of that public hearing, but I sat back and took notice that when the former chief of this City, Mr. Bill Ward came to the microphone and indicated that there was a serious morale problem within the Police Bureau, he further indicated that transfers were done for vindictive reasons. He further indicated that there was a plan that has been in existence for an excessive period of time. That plan was never even shared with him or anyone in the upper echelon of the Police Bureau, let alone this Council. And if that is not enough to make anyone wake up and see what is happening, I don't know what is. And we are hearing from the professionals, from people that have been there for 35 years. We are not hearing from new people, not people that are not answering our questions. We are hearing from people that have been here for a long time.

This legislation does not relate to any individual. I have not talked about individuals. I have talked about procedures, policies and good management, and this Council has every right to investigate that, and I am hoping this Council as a whole supports the legislation.

Now, I don't know if there is any other comment, Mr. Chairman, but I still take my original position that I would like to see it pass and need five votes, so therefore, I am going to wait until my colleague is sitting here because I think he supports it.

(END OF REMARKS - 7/23/86)

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S AND
MR. POLLOCK'S REMARKS ON BILL
NO. 1137 - WEDNESDAY, 7/30/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman and members of Council, what I would like to do is share with each of you some information in researching the Charter, pertaining to Council's powers to simply obtain information and I think that's very important because what this piece of legislation pertains to is nothing more than the solicitation of information.

What I have passed out are different pages of the Charter that refer to the number in the Charter that is indicated in this resolution, Section 312 of the Home Rule Charter and I'd like to read that. "Investigations - Council shall have power, by resolution, to authorize investigations to be conducted by Council or by a Committee of Council. Investigations may deal with legislative or administrative matters." I'd like to stop there for a moment because that's very important in terms of this resolution. This resolution can only deal with legislative or administrative matters. The comment has been made to me that this is serious and it could relate to criminal - that is not the case. The Charter does not give us the authority to go any further in an administrative matter or a legislative matter and this zeros in more on an administrative matter towards an investigation.

To continue as it reads here. "The subject of the investigation shall be stated in the resolution authorizing the investigation. Council may reopen the budget to provide funds for the investigation. The presiding officer of Council or the Committee shall have the power to administer oaths to witnesses." Now, as you know, in the Charter there is an explanation of each section of the Charter in the back of the Charter. Now Section 312 is the second page of the handout that I have passed to you and I'd like to read that because it really clarifies the legal language of each section of the Charter and it reads as follows: "Council is expected to conduct frequent and careful investigations of the City's problems, needs and opportunity so as to be well prepared at all times to assist effectively in making wise and progressive policy."

I have been on this Council for two and one-half years and I have never seen one time when this Council has looked into formally any administrative matter, but clearly the Charter indicates that we are expected; it is part of our duty, to conduct frequent and careful investigations of the City's problems, needs and opportunities so as to be well prepared at all times to assist effectively in making wise and progressive policy.

I also handed out the first page of the Charter that gives the overall findings of the Commission when the Charter was put together and I've highlighted certain things that I think are extremely accurate to this City today. Under Section B, in a summary of what is in the Charter it indicates, "Pittsburgh's strong Mayor form of government dating back to 1911 is basically a sound form but needs to be strengthened in three areas: First, the area in need of strengthening is checks and balances. That is, sufficient strength is needed to be provided for each of the various branches of City government to prevent any single branch from abusing its power in the future. The second area is accessibility. Mechanisms need to be provided to insure citizens the means to communicate with City government and to participate in the processes. The third area is accountability. Adequate provisions need to be made for officials to report to the citizenry what they are doing to carry out their duties to insure that officials are responsive to the public will."

Now I thought it was very important to read that here because that relates directly to my resolution — Resolution No. 1137 and what is indicated in that resolution and really what it relates to specifically is requesting information. It's nothing more than that. If the information is provided, then this resolution is not warranted; it's that simple. If we have the facts behind what is asked in this resolution, then we can take this resolution and throw it in the rubbish can because it doesn't mean anything. What I am saying in the resolution is that we need more information relating to certain things within the Public Safety Department and I am specifically saying that there are five items of concern in this resolution and I'd like to just ask each one of you here at this table if you can answer the questions that I have asked in this resolution and if you can, I have no reason to present this resolution at this table and to ask for your support in the resolution. And the first item is, "the creation of job title that do not exist in the 1986 budget." Is there anyone that can explain to me why that's happened?

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Chairman, as it relates to "A" in the resolution. Director, I don't know if you have a copy of the resolution.

Director Norton:

I have the deferred paper. What job titles do you refer to sir?

Mr. Wagner:

The various job titles that relate to specific news releases suggesting that people have been promoted to positions of commander in various sectors. The exact job titles are Commander of Narcotics, Commander of Perpetrator of Information, Commander of -- there are various others of which I do not have a list in front of me but job titles that do not exist in the budget.

Director Norton:

One, without being facetious, I don't think we should believe everything we read in the newspapers but the job title that we're referring to is Commander. Commander is a Civil Service classification. The jobs and the promotion of the persons involved were addressed by the Civil Service Personnel Commission and found that the job classification was in sync with where the persons were being promoted.

I recall the first line of the job description being a Commander commands a precinct or major division of the Bureau of Police. Where we assign the commanders in an administrative function. Whether or not there is a classification of commander and the numbers is a legislative function.

Mr. Wagner:

I have solicited from our staff the operating budget people, if they could find those job titles in the budget and we have not been successful in doing that and I have mentioned that to my colleagues.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

No, I have not checked with the Controller.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I agree with you and I think that is the reason behind the resolution. That is to obtain whatever information does exist within City government, whether it be within the Administration or within the Controller's Office, Finance Department or wherever and with the creation of these job titles I think its important that Council be provided with the information as to whether or not they existed in the budget, whether or not they exist today and if so, how are we funding them, how are we actually paying these salaries if they don't exist in the budget?

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Director Norton:

That's right. Inspector was changed during the budget process last year to Commander. Everyone's title is Commander. Where they work and what their functions changes from a division to a precinct.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Director Norton:

Including those that were requested as needed.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, as needed and we could get into semantics here but the job descriptions of Commanders or Inspectors previously clearly defines in the job description that it is within a certain geographical district that that person works --

Director Norton:

-- or division, it's the very next word after precinct -- geographical area or division.

Mr. Wagner:

Geographical division — you're right.

Director Norton:

It doesn't say geographical division — precinct geographical area or division.

Mr. Wagner:

Whatever it says it indicates that the Inspector position prior to this year was utilized in a capacity of a particular geographical area and that's how it's described in the job description and I'm sure we could talk about that all day but I believe there needs to be a clarification as to really what are these job titles? Are they commanders of precincts, are they commanders in general of the entire City and if so, was that the intent of Council back when we budgeted those positions in the budget? We need to know that information I believe prior to creating or filling more positions of that type and that is what I am suggesting to all members of Council, that this is more a solicitation of information than anything.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Well, Mr. Chairman, I disagree with you on the serious nature aspect of it because really all it talks about is investigation and Council only has two powers and the powers are to legislate and to investigate. We frequently legislate and we infrequently investigate and what I am suggesting is that if we need to investigate we have the right to do that as we do to legislate and there's nothing here that indicates that it is more serious than the wording in the resolution as it is stated.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I have no information relating to the creation of job titles.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Basically it's very clear, are these job titles in the budget? That's basically the question; it's that simple, and I believe there needs to be clarification here at this table as to whether or not these are in the budget and if so I would like to know where. The information I'm requesting from "A" in this resolution. I'd like to move on and talk about some other items. "B" relates to the information precipitating administrative changes. Now I know there have been many changes within the Administration, particularly within Public Safety, some of which I support, however, there are some that I feel we need as a Council more information prior to those changes. One example is, the zone concept. We have had several petitions and at this point I don't know many, soliciting a public hearing on going from the nine precincts to the five zones. If we receive sufficient information supporting the changes, I believe this Council should support that proposed change. My concern though is that there is confusion as to whether or not there is sufficient data supporting those changes. At it relates specifically to that one, the only thing I have to go on is a news release and I don't believe any member of this Council has anything else to go on except a news release and if that news release it clearly states some of the objectives of the Administration, one of which is that this proposed change will save the taxpayers and the City dollars and if that is the case, I believe that this Council needs to know specifically where and how this will save the taxpayers dollars. It states the five-zone plan as well as other measures now under consideration are designed to use the substantial amount of tax money to be spent on police function in a more effective way.

In order for us to structure a budget, in order for us to know how many commander positions are in a budget and fund them, we need to know — are we going to need so many commanders for so many zones or so many commanders for so many precincts? We need to know how many officers we're going to have on the street, how many are going to be filled, how many are not going to be filled. We need to know more data as it relates to that change and other changes and I could talk about that change all day long — the nine precincts to the five zones and I think it would be good if we had additional information other than a new release and I believe that the public would be much more secure if they had more information.

Now I know this past Saturday I went to a meeting that was put together by the Pittsburgh Neighborhood Alliance and the Administration and the Director was there with many of his staff and there were many neighborhood groups at that meeting. At that meeting many things pertaining to public safety were discussed, one in particular the five-zone concept. What I am saying to this Council is, we have never had that opportunity. We have never had the opportunity to sit down and talk with the Administration on this five-zone concept however we fund a department and we have to support the changes and really what I'm talking about here is very basic and that's the reason why I had to read the Charter when we started out here and I think it's important that we know how often a police vehicle and the public knows how often a police vehicle is going to pass on their street if we're supporting a major change. We should know how often and how many business districts will have beat officers and the public wants to know that and I believe that the Director has some information there and I think it's important that that information is translated to this Council as it relates to that item. And I believe every member of this Council does not have sufficient information. "C", the unexplained demotions and transfers. If the Administration in any department is justified with a transfer or a demotion and can verify that it is legitimate and it should be done, I believe this Council cannot in any way ask for why that was done or explanations behind it. As long as there is a personnel file with an individual that verifies the reasons behind it, I believe that this Council would have to support it. But what I'm asking with "C" is, are we reassured after a public hearing that that information is available, and I'm asking my colleagues when I say that.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

No, I'm not asking the Director right now, I'm asking all of you and we can ask the Director and we can get that information and that's the purpose behind this resolution, to get the information flowing. I know Michelle you say that I vote in a vacuum and if we're going to support a budget come November —

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

And "D" the lack of police officers according to the number budgeted. We have 141 vacancies. Can we explain to the public why we have 141 vacancies? I can't. The response I hear from every member of Council, including myself when I go out to a neighborhood group, well, we have budgeted so many officers and the Administration, particularly the Mayor, has not filled the positions. Do we know why and do we know whether or not they are going to be filled and if we do know whether or not they are going to be filled and if we do know the answer, well then we should not be over - budgeting for police officers, it's that simple. This Council - if we know the answer why and we support the Administration on that issue, we should not budget - we should bite the bullet also and not budget an extra 100 officers that we know in reality are not being filled but we don't know the answer.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to interject. That's exactly what this resolution is. If that's not happening - in other words, what you're saying is that you support the concept behind the resolution.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Well, that's the reason why the Charter clearly indicates that. Under 312 Council is expected to conduct frequent and careful investigations of the City's problems, needs and opportunities.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

Change people on Council.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

What I am proposing is a resolution to find out additional information.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Pollock:

There's an election next year.

Mr. Wagner:

Right at this table. Mr. Chairman, I'd just like to go on and then have any dialogue that the Director may want to respond to the specifics of each and Council may want to add or detract from this, but what I would like to say is that - No. 5, I should mention "E", accelerated rate of retirement. All these issues we are well aware of and we know that we're losing more people therefore we have more vacancies and we may not be able to properly serve the public and maybe we should even be considering more so the hiring of additional officers but what I would like to say is, is that it's very important to have questions answered pertaining to public safety, pertaining to these five issues and pertaining to many other things within this Administration. That's really the issue here. The issue isn't even Councilman Wagner and Director Norton as it relates to public safety. The issue is the flow of information from the Administration to the legislative body.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

And that is the issue here and the issue relates directly to what this Council does as a legislative body. Now we can continue not to solicit information and the flow of information is healthy, it's productive — as a matter of fact, there will be greater harmony I believe between the Administration and the legislative body if that happens. If it doesn't happen there is not going to be harmony and there is going to be a constant battle going on between the two forces. So therefore what I am suggesting is that this Council begin to formally request information and in doing so we are doing nothing more than living up to what our responsibilities are as are indicated in this Charter and it's nothing more than that.

If I may follow up, the important thing is, are members of Council comfortable? Are you well aware of all that I have asked here? I am not and I am Chairman of the committee and I think the real issue is, are you? Do you know why we have had more retirements in police this year than any other year in our history? Does any member of this Council know that?

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

That's exactly what this resolution asks.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

We need a resolution for it to be done officially by this legislative body.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

No I can't.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I stand alone Mr. Woods without your support and three other members of Council.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

On everything.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

On everything that comes in front of us. I stand alone unless I have the majority of Council supporting me.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Are you comfortable — do you know the answer as to why we budgeted so many positions for police officers but yet we're 140 short?

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I agree with you there but the police never did the intensive work that EMS did. They did first-aid type work and we are less 450 police officers since that time. We've had a 30 percent reduction in that department. Overall City-wide, we have only had a two or three percent reduction in personnel and other departments over that same period of time. It's unknown to me why we have had such a significant reduction in police but yet not a reduction in other areas and I believe this Council to professionally evaluate a budget to fund departments must get the answers to these questions. We have not received the answers to the questions, we have gut feelings -- you have a gut feeling and I have a gut feeling why it's going.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Who's answer is correct?

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

He believes his is.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Why not?

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Then why did the writers of the Charter indicate and use that language? They have never said anywhere in this Charter that there's a cloud or there's something illegal.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

But it's your interpretation but it's not the accurate interpretation.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

The interpretation means that Councils is expected --

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I can say this and I mean this sincerely. If Council does not have the fortitude to investigate anything that we are not comfortable with, then there is no need for a Council to exist in this City.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

That's not true.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

What I believe is that all the facts are not on the table. You may believe one item on one issue and you may be right and the Director may believe something else and he may be right, but what I'm saying is, let's get all the facts on the table and let's find out precisely what is accurate, precisely how many police officers we should have, precisely why there are so many retirements, precisely why we need five zones. That's all that I'm requesting here and what I'm saying is that it cannot be done professionally and legitimately unless the majority of this Council backs the pursuit of that information and it has to be the majority or else it is simply one person standing alone and that is not the way this Charter intended us to function.

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, if you get the information, would you share it with us?

MR. WOODS COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Just to summarize, I would like to say I believe it is certainly within the confines of this Council to be pro-active when it comes to any issue and changes that are suggested. We do not want to be reactive and I know the Director knows those terms well because they relate to police work in particular and I say that not only to public safety, I say that to any issue in the City. And there is no member of this Council that has the right to grandstand on any issue, particularly the number of police officers if you don't support this resolution. Because we do not have the answers, we do not have the answers to understand why we budgeted so many but yet we do not have as many. We do not have the answers to the other questions here and that is the only what this Charter is giving us the power to do. This Council is very powerful. It's just that this Council has never flexed its muscles with its power; it hasn't since I've been here and it gives us all the power that the citizens wanted to give us. It is a strong mayoral form of government but this Council can provide the checks and balances that are needed in any form of government and the flowing of information will make this City work better for the Administration, this Council and the citizens and that's nothing more than what is being asked here in this resolution.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I have not been denied communication. I have been denied information. The Director and I have communicated many times and I've communicated with many other people within the Administration pertaining to these various issues.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

An example is, I do not know why we have 141 vacancies in the budget for police officers.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, and I believe many people at a public hearing asked.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

The answer was and Director, please correct me, it will take some time to determine how many police officers this City needs. I know that I have spoken many times about a consultant study and I have always thought that that was the piece of information that was going to answer this question. I have always thought that that was the piece of information that was going to answer the other questions. We have been denied that and I haven't listed that in this resolution. I have kept that out but maybe that should be in this resolution, but that relates I believe to a lot of information. Is there a personnel file with everyone that is demoted and transferred? And I can tell you clearly in this City and in the majority of the departments there is not a personnel file. Now is that the Director's fault? I don't think it's his fault but I firmly believe that if there are demotions and transfers that this Council should demand that there is a personnel file that can validate the reasons behind it if that's occurring. And this is really getting to the root of many problems and that's the reason why I say, this is challenging not Public Safety but the Administration to provide us with the information. And if we don't have the information, then we're voting in the dark.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I don't know the answers. I don't know why we have retirements at an accelerated rate.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Yes.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Givens, I do not chair the Personnel Department and I cannot provide exit interviews with 65 police officers.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Wagner:

I'm asking for it in this resolution. I don't know if you're really following what I'm trying to do here. I'm asking that in this resolution and I'm saying if this resolution passes this Council, the Administration must give us that information.

(END OF REMARKS - 7/30/86)

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S AND
MR. POLLOCK'S REMARKS - BILL NO.
1137 - WEDNESDAY, 8/6/86)

Mr. Wagner:

Well, obviously, being the maker of the bill I support the bill, and what I could do is hold it for at least after the recess; however, the information that I am hoping to obtain that will support this bill will come tomorrow, which would mean that final vote on the bill would come Monday, and I would like to see the final vote comes as soon as possible, primarily because the issue is an issue, the topic is at hand, and I think these items need to be resolved as quickly as possible prior to the changes taking place, and the information needs to be obtained to support these charges. So, therefore, I don't choose to hold it any longer than one week for that reason.

I would like to make a few comments. Members of Council, I have made several comments about this at last Wednesday's meeting. I believe all of you know my reasons behind this legislation, and my reason for holding it one week, with the public hearing coming tomorrow. I would like to say I am going to make two amendments to the bill prior to Monday. I don't have them here in writing or I would make the amendments now, but just to inform you, those two amendments will include eliminating under Section 2 the wording "but not be limited to". Exclude that from the legislation. The reason why is that the Charter, I believe the interpretation of the Charter indicates you have to zero in on whatever you want to look at here, and you can't leave an open door as to investigating anything with a department, so I believe that that language is not accurate, therefore, I will make a motion to amend that out of the legislation, and under "B" an amendment will be coming to add to the wording, the lack of information precipitating administrative changes, the wording added to that will include the Police Consultant Study, the study that we have talked about so much that we do not have, so those two amendments will be forthcoming prior to final vote on the legislation.

I would just like to add that I know we discussed the items in the Charter last Wednesday when this legislation came up, and this legislation should not be unusual for this Council, if it is to provide the checks and balances necessary to the Administration. It indicates that very clearly in the Charter, even though this type of legislation has not been in front of this Council for years. It basically solicits information, and it asks the Administration to provide information pertaining to various areas, and if that information is provided, then this legislation basically has no merit. I have continually asked for that information under "A", the information pertaining to the creation of job titles that don't exist in the 1984 budget, and I have asked anyone and everyone to please show me where the job titles exist for Watch Commanders, Perpetrators of Crime Commanders, Commander of Narcotics, Commander of Crime Information, Assistant Chiefs in General Inspection, Assistant Chiefs in Professional Responsibility. They don't exist; however, the Administration has chosen to create those positions and fill them during mid-year, and I believe that is in conflict with the Charter and in conflict with the budget. I continually request that the Administration please show me where those positions exist in the budget.

Number two, the many areas that fall under it, particularly going to the five-zone concept, I don't believe there has been enough dialogue as it relates to that, and I believe there needs to be more information prior to any changes of that magnitude taking place, in particular the consultant study that was promised to this Council prior to any changes taking place.

Number three, we need to know the information behind the demotions and transfers.

Number four, the lack of the numbers of officers to be filled in the budget. That was to be the primary question answered in the consultant study. And, number five, the accelerated retirement of police officers.

I would hope that this Council would take a stand and require that this information be provided to support all of these items, and I would hope that all of you would reconsider your position on this issue and support them.

Mr. Pollock:

Yes. I do not support the legislation because it is not my style to investigate or call for an investigation of any City department, but if this legislation is defeated I hope that the defeat of it will not be interpreted as a statement by this Council and any of the members of it who oppose the legislation that we as a body, or we as individuals, feel that any member of Council stands alone in his or her request for information from the department to which he or she is Chairman of that committee.

If Mr. Wagner feels he is not getting answers or getting information, then I would hope we would all support him in his request to obtain information, within reasonable bounds, and my only comment at this time is to reaffirm and hope that we do reaffirm the position that we are a body and we all support each other and hope the answers that Mr. Wagner or any other Councilperson requests in the future would be forthcoming upon that request.

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to make, Mr. Chairman, members of Council, one final comment. First of all, I am very pleased Councilman Givens supports the resolution, because it is obvious he has felt what I have felt, after sitting through that lengthy public hearing and talking with many, many members of the public, and police officers, and it is not my style to put legislation in front of this Council like this. This is not the popular thing to do in terms of working within the Administration or politically. The issue, obviously, is not supported by the written media in this City, and to go against the media on a position of this magnitude is a very difficult thing to do. However, I strongly recommend that everyone continually refer back to what the Charter says, what we should do if we are members of this Council.

Mr. Pollock, I know you indicated it is not your style to investigate, but it clearly indicates in the Charter, under 3108, the Power of Council is to conduct investigations in accordance with the provisions of the Charter. Now, this is in now way violating the Charter; as a matter of fact, it is right in line with the Charter. Under the same section of the Charter, Council can call a meeting at any time between Council and the Mayor to jointly discuss a legislation or any item in general that concerns the City. We have requested members of the Administration, including the Mayor, to attend the public hearing that Councilman Givens referred to. Many of those people have not been in attendance, and we are talking about very basic items that are in the Charter, that are being violated. You indicated that you would support any member of this Council that is not getting information. I can clearly say to you that there is no information, and if there is information I say, please provide it. Give it to all members of this Council. I have received nothing except a news release, which I received from the media, and I have said that time and time again, and for this Council to continue to agree and to accept anything and everything that is put in front of it is not the purpose of this Council. I have said time and time again that we don't need a Council in this City if we agree and accept everything that the Administration provides, and this legislation is legislation that simply lets us provide the checks and balances on government that we are supposed to provide.

At the public hearing that we recently had, every member of this Council just about made several comments or asked several questions of various speakers, and I know one of your responses, and I have it in front of me, and it was after one of the speakers, in light of the testimony, I find it incredible, absolutely amazing, that we have any police officers going to work in this City, and if that isn't something to make all of us get the answers, and you were right on target, I don't know what is. And I could go through comments and statements made by other Councilmembers at that hearing, and at other hearings with regard to that issue, and similar issues, and again I am simply stating let's be pro-active rather than reactive. Let's ask for information. If it is provided, if it supports what they are suggesting, fine. Let's not be reactive. Let's not wait until all of these changes have taken place and we have to react to it, and that's the way the Charter was written. That's the purpose why it was written that way. That's the way the people of this City and people of that Charter supported that Charter and want us to function, and that's all I'm asking for is to support the Charter. Don't support this legislation, support the Charter, and by supporting the Charter we are doing the right thing.

I have asked for the information. Show me in the budget where these jobs exist. Show me. We all have a budget. It has never been done. Tell me why we have an accelerated rate of retirement; it has never been done.

There has never been exit interviews given to people. That's not a good management principle. Let's find out why, if we are losing that many police officers, 65 so far this year, let's find out why. Maybe it's healthy, maybe it isn't healthy, and if it isn't, let's find out why. And they are basic, simple questions that need to be answered, and they are not being answered.

I would have assumed the information would have been provided, though, prior to a final vote on the legislation, and the final vote, we discussed this last Wednesday, if the information was available I feel it could have easily been supplied by Monday.

It was not. In regard to other items, there are no answers, and it is not that I don't agree, there are none.

In regard to the Convention Center, none of us were invited to that. I went to that.

I was not, and I am the Chairman of the Public Safety Committee. I made it a purpose to go there, and even key groups in the City weren't invited. The Block Watch groups, Community Crime Prevention groups were not invited, the most important groups in the City when it comes to police changes. Community Councils were invited, and that was good, but the important groups weren't.

Well, it is good they had the program, but the program still did not include the key groups in the City which are the Community Crime Prevention groups, and if the Administration wanted to have good dialogue with the important neighborhood groups they are the important groups to include.

Your comments at the public hearing are totally contrary to what you just said, and I could sit here and read them and read them. The Administration is going to have to answer a lot of hard questions to this Councilman, and that's exactly what they are, questions that haven't been answered.

They have not been answered because I have received no information and neither have you. You just said you don't know the reason for the rate of retirement or even what the frequency of retirement is.

Many of the unanswered questions at the public hearing are still outstanding, and you will find out tomorrow they will be outstanding, and the Charter gives us — we are not asking the Administration to check with Council; Council is playing the role it should play with the Administration, to check with the Administration whether or not they have to support that on what they are attempting to do. I have said this time and again at this table, this Council has two powers, to legislate and investigate. We legislate, but we never investigate, and that's exactly what this legislation is.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Kohlman:

I'd like to thank City Council for the presentation of this resolution. We're really proud of this group of girls. This is the second National Championship in three years in Junior Olympic Competition; and the kind of competition that's involved is really comparable to Olympic type competition, and we're extremely proud of them.

Judge Johnson is here today because we presented him with a trophy, our Chuck Cooper Community Service Award, which is named in honor of Chuck Cooper, who of course was an All American ball player at Duquesne University, and the first Black ball player in the N.B.A., and did a tremendous amount of community service in the Pittsburgh area, and Judge Johnson was our Awardee for this year. Judge Johnson, has done a lot for our program and we're very proud of that too.

Judge Johnson:

To the President and Members of Council, Mrs. Masloff and Mr. Kohlman and good friends, I'm extremely proud and pleased to be here with these very fine young people this morning. I had the opportunity yesterday afternoon to observe some of them in play out at Reizenstein Middle School and the type of competition that I saw was rough and rugged, but sportsmanship was exemplified throughout and I believe that they exemplify in every regard the type of citizenry that we look to the future for here in America.

I saw them playing hard in steep competition and yet they did it as young ladies and young gentlemen. There was no dirty plays, no roughhousing and they had P.I.A.A. Officials there who were officiating this process and I'm quite certain that we can look forward to nothing but continued future success and progress from these very fine young people.

I'm honored that they honored me to give me the Chuck Cooper Award, and of course since I knew Chuck during his lifetime and had the greatest admiration and respect for him, why I don't if I merit it, but I certainly appreciate it. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to say that this resolution will be presented at a later date.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1283 WHEREAS, on August 23, 1986, the City of Pittsburgh, the Neighborhoods for Living Center of the Urban Redevelopment Authority, Kool-Aid and the Pittsburgh Pirates will be sponsoring an evening at Three Rivers Stadium for the Pirates' game against Atlanta called "The Pirates and Pittsburgh's Neighborhoods...Just Like the Good Ole' Days"; and

WHEREAS, there will be free tickets, pre-game activities, sing-alongs, the Pirate Parrot, the NeighborFair Bear, the Litter Critter, and a couple of funny clowns; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood participation, team spirit, banners and posters will be judged and prizes such as Pirate caps and Pirate tee-shirts, autographed baseballs, seat cushions, and Kool-Aid tee-shirts will be awarded; and

WHEREAS, whether they win or lose, the 1986 Pirates are an exciting and entertaining team of promising players and admirable role models.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby express their support for "The Pirates and Pittsburgh's Neighborhoods...Just Like the Good Ole' Days" and urge all baseball and softball players and their families to attend the event and come out and show their support for the Pirates.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I want to introduce Mary Lou Daniel, Executive Director of the Neighborhoods For Living Center and Steve Greenberg the Public Relations Director for the Pirates, but before doing so I personally want to ask everyone to come out to this event. I think it's really going to be an exciting event and as I said in the resolution that the mark and the judgement of a baseball team should not be determined based on wins and losses, but number one on how exciting and entertaining a team is, and number two on what kind of people that the teams presents, and the 1986 Pirates are not only exciting and entertaining whether they win or lose, but they're quality individuals who are participating in community events and who do have talent, and it's just a matter of it gelling; and come on out on the 23rd and we'll see a team that's going to be challenging for pennants in the next few years.

Mr. Greenberg:

On behalf of the Pittsburgh Pirates, we would like to thank City Council and the City of Pittsburgh for the commitment they've made to this baseball club. We feel that it's very very important for the Pirates to be involved with the specific neighborhoods in the Pittsburgh area. This is one of many programs that we will institute to really get that involvement. We think there's better days ahead for the Pittsburgh Pirates and we will continue to show our commitment to this City and we appreciate the commitment the City has shown to the Pittsburgh Pirates. So, we hope everyone will come out and really enjoy themselves at the ball game that day. Thank you very much.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to compliment Mr. Greenberg and your staff for the excellent job you've done this year with attendance. I know we're above last year and we have, what, about 14 home games left this year?

Mr. Greenberg:

21 home games left this year.

Mr. Wagner:

That's terrific so therefore, you're optimistic of breaking one million. Hopefully, much more than that, and if we get a lot of City of Pittsburgh people out, employees and residents at that evening, who knows we may be able to get an outstanding crowd.

I'd just also to mention that the lights will be going in on the Sixth Street Bridge and we've allocated $100,000 to do that, and it's finally going to be taken care of.

Mr. Greenberg:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

Ms. Daniel:

I want to thank Mr. Pollock and the rest of the Members of City Council for this resolution and I also want to thank the Pirates and Steve Greenberg for working with us to get this special day for Pittsburgher's going.

One of the things I know from my own family and my own neighborhood is the kids the boys and girls who play ball in the City fields, in the empty lots, sometimes on the streets really to admire the Pirates, particularly the young Pirates of today; and we want to urge all the team managers, captains, to give us a call we will have tickets available for you on Wednesday. Call us at 391-1850 and we will get tickets to you.

We want the kids and the captains and the parents and the managers to wear some kind of a tee shirt or a hat indicating your neighborhood. The Pirates have told us that they will have the neighborhood names flashing on the scoreboard. We're going to have prizes for banners. We're going to have lots of fun so begin calling us on Wednesday we'll have tickets for you, and everybody come out for the ball game.

These are free tickets. This is the Pirates way of saying thank you to Pittsburgh's neighborhoods. So, you call us and we'll get the tickets to you. The number is 391-1850. See you all at the ball game.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 1284 WHEREAS, the American Labor Movement began over two hundred years ago and has consistently strove to improve the conditions for all working Americans; and

WHEREAS, American labor leaders have throughout history dedicated themselves to this movement;

and

WHEREAS, the first Labor Day Observance took place over a century ago and was established as a Legal Public Holiday in 1894; and

WHEREAS, the United Labor Day Parade Committee intends to reinforce Pittsburgh's commitment to organized labor with a procession in the Golden Triangle under the theme "Let's Put America Back to Work."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of Pittsburgh City Council hereby commend Paul Stackhouse, the President of the Allegheny County Labor Council, the United Labor Day Parade Committee and all labor leaders and working American laborers, and urge our citizens to respectfully observe the United Labor Day Parade on September 1, 1986.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Grabowski seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Stackhouse:

I want to first thank you for this fine proclamation because we're very appreciative of the action that the Council has taken here today. I'd like to say for the edification of some who may not know and I hope they care that not only in 1886 was A.F. of L. founded but in 1935 the C.I.O. was founded, but over and above that we just had some celebration that was in the labor movement the Bakery Confection Workers just celebrated their 100th year, the Steelworkers 50 years, the Building Service Employees 65 years, and obviously at No. 1 we call Pittsburgh

Some Place Special. We have the F.O.P. as Lodge No. 1 and the Pittsburgh Firefighters as Local No. 1 of course the others are smaller groups. They're spin-offs of the organization. We have here the committee, as a matter of fact, that helped to put the work together to make the great success. There was something like 15,000 people march last year and maybe a similar amount watched our parade. In all sincerity I wanted to thank you very very much for this proclamation, because labor is here to stay in spite of what some of the people think. Without labor there is no economy, there's no standard of living, and I want to thank you again to help make us what we are, help us, support us, and our appreciation is yours. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just wanted to go on record and I told Mr. Stackhouse and Mr. Pugliano, that I'll miss my first parade in something like 20 years, I'll be in Europe and I won't be back until the 2nd of September, and I regret missing that parade but my congratulations to organized labor in the City of Pittsburgh and I'm proud to say that I've been a part of that for the last 34 years.

The Chair:

Thank you, Jeep. Thank you very much ladies and gentlemen.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Givens and Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes from Monday, July 14, 1986.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. O'Malley

Council adjourned.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of order, we got out bills today and this bill is a request to transfer salaries. As you know, you and I have chatted, but I had requested that money be put into the budget and I believe it was substantive for the hiring of an engineer. That job was never filled.

I see no reason for this bill since we can just transfer the money for the engineer that was never hired, which is in excess of $35,000. How do you want me to handle this?

The Chair:

Why don't you introduce the piece of legislation and then when —

Michelle Madoff:

They're asking to waive Rule 8. I don't want to waive Rule 8, I don't want the bill. What do I do?

The Chair:

Why don't you introduce it, waive Rule 8, and then we could discuss it on Wednesday and if you want to amend it to take the money off the other thing then we can do it that way.

Michelle Madoff:

Would it be proper to have someone else introduce it since I'm opposing the bill? That was mentioned by a colleague.

The Chair:

No, it's fine. That's your committee; just introduce it and oppose it.

Michelle Madoff:

Well I'm introducing it simply for discussion.

Thank you sir.

The Chair:

Michelle, ask these questions on Wednesday. We're just introducing them now.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, point of order. I cannot get the information if I don't know what the item is and I don't get the copies of the bills until too late. If I know what it is I can go ask appropriate questions.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair:

Could we have Dave Glavin come up here please?

The Chair presents

No. 1368 WHEREAS, organized labor has always led the fight to improve the lot of all American workers; and,

WHEREAS, hundreds of thousands of American jobs have been lost to foreign imports in the name of "free trade"; and,

WHEREAS, it is more important than ever to buy the products and services produced in America by American men and women; and,

WHEREAS, products and services identified by a Union Label, Shop Card, Store Card or Service Button are guaranteed to be made in America;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaim the week of September 1 - 6, 1986, as UNION LABEL WEEK in the City of Pittsburgh to honor those distinguished emblems of America's working men and women.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I believe there are certain communities, and perhaps you can help me, sir, where referendums have been put on the ballot and it has become law that a certain portion of City purchases must be by American. Is that not so?

Mr. Glavin:

That could be very true.

Michelle Madoff:

Is anybody on this Council aware of it?

You know, I think these resolutions are wonderful; they get us lots of votes, and I don't mean that to you, Ben, it's not a slap, because everybody on this Council brings in somebody who has a baseball team or somebody who is the great female basketball hitter at school and somebody has done something wonderful in the church and their community and they say their recognized. It's a lot of rhetoric. We should be dealing with very serious business and this is very serious business.

Mr. Glavin:

It certainly is.

Michelle Madoff:

And very seriously, I think this is very nice but if we are really committed to doing something about the week, maybe this Council ought to be considering a portion of the purchases that we make in this City to be, by law, maybe not the lowest bid but by American.

I was away and I came back and I read that our Controller had had a press conference and it had all kinds of things from paper clips to toilet tissue, saying it was not bought in America and we're talking about keeping jobs here. I have personally reviewed the purchases made by the City a number of years ago, I got a complete list, it would take up this whole room, and we go with the lowest bidder. Most of our purchases are not even City purchases. Yes, services are but basically the purchases are not even keeping jobs in the City.

Mr. Givens, for a very long time, has said that there should be some mechanism in which we can keep jobs for people in the City and I wholeheartedly agree with him. That should not be confused with minority, veterans and women having a portion of the jobs. We should take them as separate and apart entities. But there's just no doubt in my mind that it's all nice and well to have a resolution unless we're going to do something and I would hope that your organization or the organizations that you represent might come back, review what's going on around the country, and come back and make a suggestion to us as to what kind of referendum you would like on the ballot and give it to Mr. Woods; I believe he would be receptive and so would this Council.

I don't believe that we can practice protectionism because I think some of the things coming in from other countries — I don't think there's a car made today that doesn't have foreign parts in it and perhaps the backlash, as Mr. Reagan feels, might be very harmful. But I think there should be what I call a laughing fortune teller, a happy medium. Maybe we need something that's going to be more than just a resolution for you.

Mr. Glavin:

I appreciate your remarks, Mrs. Madoff —

Michelle Madoff:

You may call me Michelle.

Mr. Glavin:

Michelle, fine. We are doing the same type of things across the country that you're talking about. It is a very serious matter and the proclamation is very much appreciated coming from this Council of the City of Pittsburgh. I want to thank every person who voted for it and you, Mr. Woods, as Chairman. Thank you very much.

Mr. Givens:

I was happy to enjoin our President, Ben Woods, in presenting this resolution to the labor movement in the City of Pittsburgh. As one of my colleagues so stated, I do buy Made in the USA. I feel it's very important that we here in this City and this County, in fact this Country, believe in our own products. That's why maybe there is that problem of a foreign trade balance.

But I think, and the fact that this was the seat of the labor movement right here in Allegheny County that it's a great leadership that you have represented, David, and also the Allegheny Labor Council, that I'm sure that we will become competitive and what many people are calling that world market out there. In fact, they're looking at us, they're looking at this country and if they look very deeply into this country they're going to have to look at Allegheny County and Pittsburgh and say, "Well, you started it, you gave this world the industrial revolution." Now, how are we going to change that or what are we going to do to improve that so our people here in Allegheny County can be competitive in that world market. I know you have that leadership, David, and I want you to go back to the Labor Council when this has been presented and tell them that we are behind you and that I do buy those labels and I have never been dissatisfied with them in all my life.

Mr. Glavin:

It's very kind of you to say that, Dick, and I appreciate it and I will take the message back to the Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Give them my message too.

Mr. Glavin:

You message also, Michelle.

Mr. DePasquale:

For the benefit of the members of Council, the association of Mr. Glavin and I go back too many years to even repeat. I would like Council to know that it was Mr. Glavin's father, Dave Glavin, Sr., who was one of the founders of Servers and Employers International Union, was the first President of Local 29 in which Dave now serves as his successor and is doing a wonderful job.

Dave, you know how I feel about you and all the guys in 29. I happen to be a Local President of service employees myself over at the ballpark and I have a close association with these people and they're wonderful and they have done a terrific job. They're hurting right now, hurting like most, and we just have to hang in there.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Glavin, I'd just like to compliment all of those who were involved yesterday in the Labor Day Parade, it was an excellent turn-out, and also all the people that attended, not only the Allegheny County Labor Council but also I understand Pat Landy chaired it and he did an excellent job also and you're shooting to have a better one next year.

Mr. Glavin:

Thank you very much, Jack. We were so proud of that parade yesterday, and, if I may, I'd like to make a few remarks, Mr. Chairman. It was a grand show for labor; we need that kind of thing not only in Pittsburgh but all over the country to show them that labor is still a viable, very viable part of this country. As you know, sitting here, if it wasn't for labor, we wouldn't have a country at all because all of you, and everything that we've all inherited, that's what it's all about.

It's part of this proclamation, under the Union label situation, it's buy American, certainly. This imbalance of imports and exports certainly is a great problem. When the theme of that parade yesterday was "Put America Back To Work", that's what has to hit home to everybody.

Thank you very much. I didn't expect to take up so much of your time but it feels like family here.

The Chair:

Thank you, Dave.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1369 WHEREAS, Sharing & Caring, Inc. is a non-profit organization that works tirelessly to serve the interests of hospitalized veterans; and

WHEREAS, this week the organization is taking approximately 550 hospitalized veterans on boat cruises along Pittsburgh's three rivers; and

WHEREAS, dozens of Pittsburghers have contributed time and money enabling Sharing & Caring, Inc. to undertake this and other events for hospitalized veterans;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares September 2, 3, and 4, 1986 as "Sharing and Caring Days" in Pittsburgh in tribute to the work of Sharing & Caring, Inc. and to remind all Pittsburghers of our hospitalized veterans.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to comment that I appreciate Council's support of this organization and the reason why no one could be here today is that they're actually out on the boat taking veterans for the next three days on boat rides, veterans that are hospitalized, today, tomorrow and Thursday, and any member of Council, if they would like, could join either tomorrow or Thursday by being at the Gateway Clipper Fleet at 10:00 or 10:30 in the morning.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Wagner.

Michelle Madoff:

While I was on vacation I happened to be staying at a hotel in Washington called the Washington Sheraton, I believe, and there was a meeting in Washington of the American Psychological Association. I heard, and please don't hold me to this, but I understand there were 63,000 people staying at the Mayflower, the Sheraton -- I think they took over Washington.

They have a newspaper that I happened to pick up that's put out by the American Society of Association Executives. The American Society of Association Executives means any association, whether it's a medical association or a food association or a government association or an automobile association. All associations belong to this entity. I just briefly looked through it and didn't see any on Pittsburgh. So, I asked my administrative assistant, Chris Smith, to look at it and he verified that indeed there was not one ad. Now, this goes to every association in the country.

The major meeting, the exposition meeting held here was August 9th through 13th, and I'm confusing the two but I'm making a point that 63,000 people went to Washington because the hotels et cetera were there, and it was in the summertime. Maybe we won't get one that big but let me give you some of the cities that are comparable in size to Pittsburgh that ran ads saying come to our town for conventions. Oklahoma City Convention Bureau; Greater Milwaukee Convention and Visitors Bureau; Cedar Rapids Area Convention and Visitors Bureau; Springfield Convention and Visitors Bureau; Irving, Texas Convention and Visitors Bureau;

San Juan Puerto Rico Convention Bureau; Nashville Convention Center; Fort Lauderdale Embassy Hotels; Washington, D.C. Sheraton Hotel; Washington Convention Center; Daytona Beach Resort Area; Wichita Convention and Visitors Bureau; Alberta, Canada.

I don't believe that we're not in it. And here we have a representative for the labor movement and saying we need to bring some business to the City, we want to keep American products. If any city is hurting, we're hurting about as much as anybody with the underemployed and the unemployed, and I don't believe that nothing was run saying come to our City.

Now, I'm going to see that this gets to the appropriate people on the Task Force and possibly with your help we can get the word out. But one of the reasons that I brought this to the attention of this Committee is that in the findings of the Task Force in the two separate reports, what came out of the meeting seems to be, and I've been planning to write something for both newspapers, the feeling seems to be that the Committee didn't come up with a decision, they didn't come up with a consensus. They said, well, there's all these lovely projects. What they didn't understand is when we went into it we thought there wasn't enough money and we found out there was $90.3 million. I understand that figure has changed somewhat but that was for infrastructure to let everything flower, to start turning this City around and doing all the infrastructure for all the communities.

But one of the things that was stressed over and over and over and over again by the experts was that you have to stop selling the steak and start selling the sizzle, that we have to get some public relations going, spend substantive dollars on P.R. Here we have the National Association of Associations and we don't have an ad in it. I'm very disturbed about it; I wanted to share it with my colleagues. And I want to tell you that yes, the two committees, one was on finance and the other one was on projects, did come up with a recommendation, the recommendation was indeed the Riverside Project because it was the first one ready to go, but we said let's do all of them. If you did a priority list that was on the priority and the papers are saying, oh, do them all, they didn't pick one. That's not true, we did pick one, and I would just like to share this information with you.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to make some comments on Michelle's remarks and the fact that I now sit on the Board of our Civic Arena and Convention Center. Our Convention Center is not large enough to handle this type of convention. We do advertise in all agencies where those particular groups can fit into our Convention Center. This is one of those conventions that we just cannot handle.

Now, for your edification here on Council and others, there are a lot of discussions underway right now on the present expansion of our existing Convention Center. I think the onslaught of additional hotels that will be built here in the City of Pittsburgh will then compliment any type of convention coming in of this size and rightfully so. It's something that we must do. But for us to advertise, Michelle, in something like this, would be no good because we cannot serve the people.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think you understood me.

Mr. Givens:

I thought you so indicated that you wanted us to advertise in that. Did you not?

Michelle Madoff:

My point was that while I was there there was a convention of that magnitude. In the summertime you could probably have a very, very large convention, maybe not of that magnitude because a lot of the hotels are empty. I wasn't saying to advertise for the American Psychological Association, I was saying that this is a newspaper that goes to every association, whether it's a small one or a big one or a medium one or it's 1000 people or 5000 people. We didn't have an ad. That's my point. We should have one.

Mr. Givens:

I agree with you again but we have a very limited budget that we can use for advertising and --

Michelle Madoff:

It better get bigger.

Mr. Givens:

I agree with you. That budget should be increased because only through that form of advertising can the people out there know that we're here and functioning and have a good city to come to.

Mr. O'Malley moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, July 21, 1986; Monday, July 28, 1986; and Monday, August 4, 1986.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We're going to deviate from our regular order of business for a moment. We have one resolution that we would like to have presented now; we have some people here.

Mr. Givens:

We have coming down to accept this resolution Bob Croneberger and he is the Director of the Carnegie Library of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Givens presents

No. 1402 WHEREAS, on September 8, 1986, President Robert C. Wilburn, of Carnegie Institute and Library of Pittsburgh, officially announced a name change to "The Carnegie"; and

WHEREAS, "The Carnegie" will strengthen their identity as Pittsburgh's major cultural complex; and

WHEREAS, "The Carnegie" includes the Library of Pittsburgh, the Museum of Art, the Museum of Natural History, and the Music Hall, and is dedicated to the understanding and enjoyment of literature, art, science, and music; and

WHEREAS, a new logo, comprised of four building blocks representing the four disciplines to which "The Carnegie" is dedicated;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join with President Robert C. Wilburn and the entire Carnegie family in proclaiming and recognizing "The Carnegie" as one of America's great cultural centers, serving all the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh as well as national and international audiences.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I join Mark Pollock, Jack Wagner, President Ben Woods and myself who sit on the Carnegie Board out there and if Bob would give us a few words of wisdom of what this means to all of us. Thank you Bob.

Mr. Croneberger:

On behalf of the Carnegie and its President, Bob Wilburn, it's staff, officers and volunteers, I want to thank you, Councilman Givens, and all Councilmembers, for this proclamation, this resolution.

The Carnegie is perhaps this nation's most outstanding example of public and private sector partnership. The library, as you all know, is 95 percent funded by public funds, the City, the County and the State, whereas the museums and the music hall are about 95 percent funded by private funds. This kind of partnership allows us to enter into what we call an environment of life-long learning for all of the citizens of Pittsburgh.

We appreciate this resolution; we intent to rededicate ourselves through this reorganization to that spirit of life-long learning, and we appreciate your recognition. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, if I may. Dick, I was under the impression that all the Councilmembers served on the Board of the Museum and Institute. Is it just four?

Mr. Givens:

It used to be about five or six and I think it went down to —

Well the President automatically sits on it. I was thinking of when I was President.

Thank you very much.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 1398

Report of the Committee on Finance for September 3, 1986 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1306

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring $35,000.00 from Code Account 1970, Salaries and Wages, Purification and Pumping, Department of Water to Code Account 1971 (197103), Premium Pay, Purification and Pumping, Department of Water."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, following your lead at Wednesday's meeting, as you know, you asked me to proceed with the bill and it is now coming up for a vote. As I mentioned earlier with your blessing, and with a vote of Council, we put a position into the Water Department to have an engineer and I believe that job was budgeted for $40,000.

The position was never filled, as witnessed by this Council. The Director felt that he didn't know what the person would do and we have a dichotomy of opinion on that but nevertheless, there's a $40,000 figure sitting there and I see no reason to budget another $35,000. So, I would urge my colleagues to vote no and in so voting would support their support of having budgeted $40,000 for an engineer.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
	(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1315

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the sum of $1,500.00 within Code Accounts of the Department of Law."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 1399

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for September 3, 1986 transmitting one ordinance and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1129

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article III, Chapter 921, Section 921.02, Zoning District Map No. 17, by changing: From "R3" Multiple-Family Residence District to "R2" Two-Family Residence District, all that certain property bounded by: South Braddock Avenue; the "C3" Zoning District Boundary Line located south of Penn Avenue between South Braddock Avenue and the City Line; the City of Pittsburgh and Wilkinsburg Borough Municipal Boundary Line; Peebles Street; Forbes; Flotilla Way, Lot No. 52, Block 176-E in the Allegheny County Block and Lot System; South Braddock Avenue, Lots Numbered 190 and 140, Block 175-N in the aforesaid System; Lots Numbered 156, 162, 180, and 182, Block 175-J in the aforesaid System; Tuscarora Street; Lots Numbered 223 and 262, Block 175-J in the aforesaid System, 14th Ward."

Which was read.

Mr. O'Malley:

Point of order. On 1129, I was involved in it; I was President of the community group that requested the zoning ordinance so I'm going to abstain.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
	(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

(MR. O'MALLEY ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1323

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving the Homewood South Proposal, dated July, 1986, including Modification No. 3 to the Redevelopment Area Plan, for redevelopment activities in Redevelopment Area No. 34, in the Thirteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bill 1323, I move to make the effective date the date that it is signed by the Mayor.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. We already started voting. Now, we're going to carry through voting; the amendments are over. Everything is over and there is no discussion.

Mr. Pollock, you'll vote; we can't amend now. We already started voting.

Mr. Pollock:

I wasn't making a motion to amend; I was making a motion to make the effective date of the legislation the date that it is signed.

The Chair:

Still, Mark, you have to do that under discussion. We are already voting. But since you have to do it, from this point on, once we start voting, everyone knows the rules, we will vote. Any amendments or discussion, please do them when we're under that particular order of business. Mr. Pollock, make your motion.

Mr. Pollock:

I make the motion on Bill No. 1323 that the effective date is the date that it is signed by the Mayor.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1324

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement(s) with Consultant(s) to assist the City in improving its Citizen Participation Process and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bill 1324, I have stated that I am not very happy with the CTAC operation and I have a resolution later to have a grants person. I would like to substitute a motion to amend Bill 1324 by deleting the $160,000 allocation pertaining to CTAC, the Community Technical Assistance Center, and thereby reduce the bill's total allocation from 375 to 215 in the title and Section

1, and eliminating the acronym CTAC where it appears in Section 1.

Now, I'm not positive, but I would like to hear from my colleagues. We might just want to delete the CTAC involvement because I think a grants person, we'd still need some money for the — We didn't deal with it previously and this is how I was asked to deal with it.

The Chair:

You're dealing with property. You put an amendment in, we all had the amendment on Friday, 48 hours prior to today's action. So now you made a motion to amend, everybody has that in front of them, or they should —

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, may I change my amendment, Mr. President? I don't want to change the dollar allocations from 375 to 250 and I'd like to remove that. Just delete the allocation, the CTAC, and change the acronym where it appears, but leave the money in the budget because we'll need it for whatever body is going to be doing the proposals and helping people and giving grants. I just think this is the wrong agency. We've gone through this year after year after year.

The Chair:

Okay, well let's not discuss it until we get a second. You made a motion to delete the word CTAC. I make a ruling that we'll accept that even though it wasn't in writing.

Is there a second to that motion? Hearing none, your amendment fails.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
	(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1325

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Third Amendatory Cooperation Agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh for the Homewood South Redevelopment Project allowing for the dedication to the City of Pittsburgh of new or widened streets, sewers, waterlines; pedestrians and public utility easements; and to delete the provisions for dedication of land to the City for public park purposes, all in accordance with the Amended Proposal and Modification No. 3."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1326

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to acquire that property in the Thirteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh owned by the Port Authority of Allegheny County and designated as part of Block and Lot 174-N-181 in the Deed Registry Office of Allegheny County, under the Residential Land Reserve Fund."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1327

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving an agreement by and between Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and Charles E. Davis Construction Company, Inc. in which Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh will provide financial assistance to the purchasers of houses to be constructed in the Thirteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh under the terms and conditions of the Neighborhood Housing Program."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1328

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving execution of a Contract for Disposition of Land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and Charles E. Davis Construction Company, Incorporated for the sale of parcels 13, 13A and 13B in the Thirteenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh in Redevelopment Area No. 34 (Townhouse Construction)."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1400

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for September 3, 1986 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1285

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 967, effective October 16, 1985, as amended by Resolution No. 241, effective April 2, 1986, entitled 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements or use existing Agreements, with a Consultant or Consultants for architectural, engineering and graphic design services in connection with the design of the implementation of the Zoo Master Plan; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by amending the title to include Construction Management Services and by increasing the total project allocation by $355,000.00."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would like to have included under Bill 1285, for the record, that over a three year period for the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservancy, the debt service to City taxpayers was something like $3 million. For the Zoo alone for last year, it was $4 million.

I would like that to be part of the record so that next year we change to having the suburbanites pay a fee for service at a higher rate — I shouldn't say the suburbanites pay less but the City taxpayers pay less in the sense that they've already paid for it in $4 million in tax dollars for the one year. Thank you.

Also,

Bill No. 1291

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 197, effective March 19, 1986, entitled, 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for Construction of Phase 4.0: Tropical Forest Facility of the Pittsburgh Zoo; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $2,585,376.93."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Givens presents

No. 1401 WHEREAS, a nationwide crusade against drugs is being launched by President Reagan, the U.S. Congress, and the nation's mayors to combat this corrosive national scourge; and,

WHEREAS, the war on drugs has become a nationwide effort on several fronts: stopping the smuggling of drugs across our borders, establishing federal regional task forces, creating special narcotics courts and drug prisons, banning drug paraphernalia, creating a National Drug Education Corps, and funding cities to fight local drug traffic; and,

WHEREAS, both public and private sector initiatives are in agreement on this bi-partisan effort to save the youth of our country, from the corruption of narcotics particularly the underprivileged children who are the most vulnerable; and

WHEREAS, regional coordination is essential if legislative and enforcement programs are to have a deep and lasting impact in this struggle for the lives of a generation of young Americans.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges local, county, state, and federal officials to combine and consolidate their efforts into the creation of a regional task force to coordinate regulation, enforcement, and programmatic solutions to the devastating effects of drugs in our area and throughout the country.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

I'm opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to make a few comments, if I might. I was fortunate enough, I would have to assume, that in my early manhood I was able to serve as a Deputy Sheriff in a border state along the Mexican Border and during my military services as a marshall in Mexico, California and in Florida. I had an on-hand type of working relationship with the civil police in trying to combat people crossing our borders as well as the drug problems that we've had for many, many years in this nation. As we all know now, its become epidemic in proportion.

The reason for this resolution is just not to put a resolution forward and its just not for the President of the United States to make the comments that he's going to make next Sunday and for Congress to act upon another resolution that's being presented by a fellow Councilmember here to make sure that appropriate monies are available for the total drug enforcement situation. It's very paramount that if the federal government who has taken the initiative at this particular time, along with our state government, our county government and our local 130 some municipalities within Allegheny County, that nothing really will be done to dent the drug trafficking within our community.

The federal talks about establishing the federal regional task, and I equate that out to a regional task force, and I'm thinking right now of the present regional area as defined by the metropolitan government of Western Pennsylvania, including several counties abutting Allegheny County. This must be the nucleus because this battlefield is so lucrative and the characters change so rapidly, you must have that regional control of what is happening or you never get the total picture. You never get it.

Looking in very closely to the Florida situation where they have received the pallet project, it was started in the state of Florida and it has been on-going for several years down there now. Florida state laws reflect the strong drug punishment if anyone is caught with paraphernalia or trafficking in that particular state. That is the model which the federal government funded and is now using at the national level which will eventually effect our City of Pittsburgh and our own some 76 neighborhoods within this City.

I can't again emphasize the coordination that must be done and this resolution, Mr. President, will go to the leadership and our House, both at the state level and both the Senate and the Representatives, along with all of our county officials and a copy is mailed to all 130 municipalities here locally and to the abutting county political leaders so that they all know that the City of Pittsburgh which is the hub of this metropolitan area is taking this very, very seriously. To take that action, I would suggest and strongly recommend that using the existing boundaries that we have right now in our metropolitan area, that the political leaders, the elected political leaders in that area, must form a task force including everyone who should be sitting on that task force. You can't have nothing but the law officials here; you must have the courts involved in this. You must have the correctional institutions involved in this. You must have the educational institutions involved in this. You also have to have religious institutions involved in this as well as the family itself, which is the basic core.

This has inundated every neighborhood in the City of Pittsburgh, rich and poor alike. And the only way that we can do it in a democratic process that I envision will be through the educational process because once a person tastes and gets addicted, if you just look at the percentages of those people who are cured, some 90 percent return back to the fold of addiction. And that is a figure that hasn't changed very much over the years.

So, again I plead with my fellow Councilmembers to just not say yes on this resolution but that we have significant follow-through and hopefully, some years later, with our endeavor of pushing the Pittsburgh area and the City of Pittsburgh, that we might have some constructive initiative in this.

May I tell you that in Florida with all the money that has gone in there, millions upon millions of dollars, with the use of the military, there are still so many escape holes in the radar nets and the infiltration into the state of Florida that they have just put a little nitch into the total narcotic trafficking in that particular state. And that means that we have one hell of a battle out in front of us and if no one thinks so, just look at the Florida episode. I can sit down and talk hour upon hour of my experiences that I've had in my lifetime with exactly this particular entity.

So please, Councilpeople, dig in and let's not leave it go with Resolution No. 741, September, 1986. We have to put our shoulder behind this one and see and hope that the Mayor will form and be the spearhead of this task force.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1404 WHEREAS, the U.S. House of Representatives will vote on an omnibus anti-drug legislative package on Wednesday, September 10, 1986; and

WHEREAS, in addition to this bi-partisan legislative package, two essential amendments will be offered in Congress to strengthen international enforcement and to raise the funding for local anti-drug efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Bennett Amendment, sponsored by Congressman Bennett of Florida, will enable U.S. military forces to be used outside of our borders to assist Federal Drug Officials; and

WHEREAS, another amendment will be offered to the State and Local Assistance Act to restore the funding to the original $625 million level per year to aid state and local governments in their fight against the devastation caused by drug abuse and the narcotics business; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby urge the Congressional delegation from the Pittsburgh area to support these two amendments when they come up for a vote later this week;

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a telegram of this Resolution be transmitted to our area Congressmen as soon as possible so that they have it for consideration before the expected vote on September 10, 1986.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, this resolution here, even though it's not a binding resolution for Council, is a very important resolution. As is indicated in it, the people in Washington will be voting, our Congressmen will be voting on a very, very important piece of legislation pertaining to narcotics nationwide. Amendments are to be made to the bill which can restore funding to the original bill to the tune of several hundred million dollars. What that means is that if that amendment passes and if the bill passes, the City of Pittsburgh could qualify for a couple million dollars in funding to go directly towards the fighting of illegal drugs and narcotics in our City. It could be used for staffing purposes, it could be used for equipment, it could be used for education, it could be used for treatment and many other things.

As all of you know, I've pushed repeatedly on this Council, and this Council has supported me, for an increase in the number of narcotics agents within the Police Bureau which has been accomplished. We are still pushing, however, for increased funding for those narcotic agents. We still don't have some very important pieces of equipment we need to do our job properly. If this funding becomes available, it would make it easier to acquire that equipment. It would also give us more hand money to go out and purchase drugs and you need a lot of that to make the kind of buys from the right people to apprehend them and hopefully convict them.

Just one last thing I'd like to say. I was talking this morning with the Commander of Narcotics for the City of Pittsburgh, Chester Howard, and he indicated to me that he was recently at a conference and it was stated at that conference that Pennsylvania rates number one in the country in terms of the dealing of illegal drugs from the medical and pharmaceutical professions. We need to begin to address that problem I think here locally with certain narcotic agents working directly to attack that problem. That requires funding.

Hopefully this bill will pass, hopefully the money will be allocated, and hopefully we'll start addressing a problem that this whole country and city should have been addressing 10 years ago.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1403 WHEREAS, in order to make Public Hearings a more effective dialogue between the citizens and the Council, Council needs to be fully informed of all of the pertinent issues; and

WHEREAS, the administration and the various departmental directors should make such information readily available to the Council prior to discussion at the public hearings;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby requests that the administration conduct pre-hearings for the benefit of the Council prior to regularly-scheduled public hearings open to the public and media.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. President, with due respect, this is an item that came up at our Council meetings on setting procedure. Many of us have been thwarted and frustrated because, the best example I can give you is that in the various board hearings on environmental issues, all the input was there so the people were testifying about what they knew about.

What happens is that we have a hearing and we don't really know what's going to happen. I'll give you an example. The hearing on Mr. Norton, the information from Mr. Norton. We sat for eight hours before we heard from Mr. Norton. I could go on an on giving you other hearings where this has happened.

And by the time we get to the end of the day, the people are gone, the person in question is very frustrated. Paul Brophy told me personally that I believe he spoke with you, he told me he did in any event, that at one of the hearings that happened on the zoning thing he was absolutely frustrated. He wanted to explain the input from the City and what had transpired between the time the bill was introduced and what was going on. I know that Mr. Norton was biting his nails. Whether you agree with him or you don't, there's a certain amount of courtesy, a certain amount of information that we should have because we are restricted to the one question process.

I am asking my colleagues to either decide today or to put it back in committee, our committee meeting where we meet to discuss changes of rules of Council, or we change the procedure to what it used to be. When I first got to Council eight years ago, the public was allowed to ventilate, they got up on a sort of soap box and they got it off their chest, but nothing happened. With the help of a couple of priests and others, we changed the procedure to require that at least a member of the Administration be present. At least we have that now. At that point, we had a rule that was passed about three years later that somebody from the Mayor's Office, meaning his immediate staff, would be here. That has been dropped. Now we've gone back to just letting people ventilate with the argument being we said, "We're here to hear the people and we want to hear from them, Madoff, so let's not stop the people", but the people don't know what they're testifying on because we haven't really given them all the information.

I will abide by your decision, Mr. President. If you want to put this back into a discussion group with Council where we change the rules of how we conduct a hearing, I'm willing to do it on that basis. If not, then I would ask my colleagues to really re-think what we're doing and give the courtesy to department heads, courtesy for Councilmembers to interact with the department heads, either in a post agenda, either in a meeting set aside at any time where we could find out what the real issues are, but I want that open to the public, I want it open to the media so they know what's going on, and then when the people testify they know what's happening.

When legislation is proposed, copies of the legislation is made available at libraries or in our case, I guess the legislation is available through the City Clerk. But when we change the legislation, nobody has an opportunity to see what has happened. We don't even know. We get to the hearing and we start asking questions and we can't ask the questions until after the hearing and after everybody has testified and most of those questions are generally answered and the people would have known that had we allowed input from all segments of the Administration to clarify what the issue is.

I would respectfully ask my colleagues to go back to a format where we have a briefing session, not just the briefing session that takes place in the Mayor's Meeting on Monday because too much has happened between that time and the time that we have a public hearing.

Also, I would urge you to support this because, even if I ask questions and I find out what is happening or if we're lucky enough to get responses from department heads, the public still doesn't know what has changed. I would certainly hope that the President would still keep control of the hearing and not let it get out of hand, which he has been doing, but on the other hand, at least have all the information available which it is not presently in the format that we are conducting hearings.

Mr. Wagner:

Councilwoman Madoff, I could support this resolution if it were more specific, meaning that if it indicated that a pre-hearing would be conducted one-half hour prior to the regular hearing as a briefing for Councilmembers, something more specific so a standard could be adopted to brief Councilmembers. I believe that briefing and information is very important and anything that can be made available to all members of Council is of value to Council prior to the public hearing. But just be stating that a pre-hearing and not knowing when that pre-hearing would be or that information, when it would be required, isn't enough. I think it needs to be more specific.

The Chair:

Let me just say one thing. I'm not for this but, however Council votes, if you're going to use the terminology, hearing, I would suggest you take it out and say a meeting prior to hearings because any hearing, whether they're pre-hearings or hearings, the President of Council sets. So, if you want to do something to try to overrule the President, I would suggest you take that word out of there.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I think that's a good point.

The reason I didn't put in to have a meeting prior to the hearing, and, as the President said, he has the authority to just conduct the hearing and set the times and not the meetings, was that I thought there might be a more appropriate time. I didn't want to confine the time. It is generally done in the Congress and the Senate and in Harrisburg where, as a matter of fact you watch your national news where they cover the Congress and the Senate, there's a period of time set aside and one colleague will yield to another saying, they have five minutes, I give to minutes of my time to somebody else so there's a constraint on the time and people don't ramble on for forty minutes saying the same thing over and over again. I think there can be a mechanism worked out where we can be courteous to each other and still have the information that is important before the public testifies.

If you wish to amend my bill to say a meeting one-half hour prior to the hearing, I have no problem with that whatsoever and I would second it, because that's the intent of the bill.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, as for myself, the Clerk's explanation prior to the start of the meeting is self explanatory. I see no need for a prior meeting.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, if it's appropriate, based on your suggestion I would like to make a motion to delete the words "hearings" in the resolution and to add a sentence that a pre-meeting would be conducted 30 minutes prior to the scheduled public hearing.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mrs. Masloff:

May I ask a question? What stops anybody from calling the department head and saying we have a hearing coming today; tell me about it? Without having a separate hearing, there are some things that we do know.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond to that? I would hope that as much as possible we do that, as members of Council. But the public doesn't have that option; the public doesn't even know who to call. They don't know what's been changed, they don't know what input, what meetings have taken place. I'm referring to a briefing not only to Council but one that the public would be here in advance and know that they're not going to testify for the first half hour.

Mr. O'Malley:

Are you recommending that these meetings be televised?

Michelle Madoff:

Absolutely. I'm not married to that but the biggest issue is that the public is very upset. The department heads are very upset because they are sitting here all day long, very frustrated, and they have answers to the objections that the public is making and they've never had a chance to express them.

I don't think we're communicating. I'll try once more. When we go to a hearing, frequently, unless it's a cut and dried, nobody objecting, two people are concerned about a zoning thing, generally the people in the audience who are testifying do not know what other changes have been made since the time the hearing has been set. They just don't know. And the department heads would like to share that information, not only with the public but with Council. And when we ask questions we're restricted to one question. I'm asking for the courtesy of a half-hour briefing that is done in all legislative bodies, its done in every inquiry board where you get the information. That's all I'm asking for and I don't think that's a major request.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I see some problems with this resolution especially in light of the fact that from time to time we're asked to have hearings on matters that don't concern the City whatsoever. And I don't know what members of the Administration or what directors you would want to have here to discuss things such as the operation of day care centers in the public schools or the dispensation of birth control devices in the public schools which are hearings that we have had. I can go on and on. Quite frequently we get requests for hearings that have nothing to do whatsoever with City business and I don't know how you would address it with this legislation.

Mr. O'Malley:

The other problems I see with this, Michelle, is you're asking to call these meetings but yet you're still asking for a structure and to be televised. If that was the case, then it would have to be presided over and set by the President of City Council which, in essence, would make them the same thing as a hearing. So you can't call them hearings, have them structured, have them televised, and have them presided over in roll calls.

Mr. Pollock:

I'd like to say that I think Michelle's proposed resolution is intelligent, sensible, consumer-oriented, productive, and I'm sure it will thus be defeated resoundingly.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. Pollock. I was on two other bills today that fell in the same category.

I offered in a lady-like, and in the spirit of cooperation, at the President's discretion, to take this bill back to our Committee Meeting to sort of iron it out there because there are questions arising now about procedurally how would we do this. I don't care how we do it as long as we have an informed media and an informed public. In every other public hearing before the public gets up to testify, they know what they're testifying on. That is not the case. In every other public format, any other public hearing, the principles involved, the department heads have a chance to be heard.

I agree with Mr. Grabowski that it should not be broadly construed so that every single hearing would have this kind of preamble. But I think that Mr. Grabowski, if he wanted to support this legislation, could think of a way to do it in the same way that it was moved by this Council that we would not televise, which I opposed, that we would not televise where the action really takes place, all the post agendas and all hearings, that we would vote on which ones we were going to have televised. In the same way, if we had a half-hour preamble as part of the hearing, obviously we're locked into that. Mr. Wagner, then the option would be to decide by majority vote which ones we wanted to have a preamble and to have information, a public information hearing, and the public would be notified that for the first half hour they would not be able to testify so they won't get — I'm hear and I'm not able to speak, they would be scheduled a half-hour later but invited to come a half hour earlier. It's done every single day at every single responsible way of doing business and I can't believe that this Council doesn't want to solve that problem.

Mr. Givens:

Maybe I've been around here too long but I find that about 90 percent of all the hearings that come before this Council are pretty much routine in nature, to me. Those that aren't, then I have to do my homework, not 30 minutes prior to the hearing but many weeks and many days prior to that hearing. I can look over all of our local and state and federal government and know of no proceedings where you have some type of bringing in the directors from various departments to query them on the hearing that you're going to have in 30 more minutes. I think its assinine to try to get government postured in this position where we have to wait 30 minutes prior to the gun.

I have always been able to get information out of directors when I seek it directly with that director. On a couple of occasions, I was not afforded that information when I was a young Councilperson. As a Councilperson I have found very persuasive ways to get whatever information I want now from various directors and I think all of us know how to go about doing that. If not, we shouldn't be politicians.

So, I can't vote for this because I feel it's just another stumbling block put in and adding more bureaucracy and I have to admit that the people publicly that come before us and testify seem to have always done their homework well in advance. They're well abreast on the subject that they're going to present before this Council. I don't find them ignorant and I find them going to the same directors and the same City employees asking for various information. When its a complex issue like the Stadium, then we had to bring in some expertise and I agree, when we get into very complicated financial arrangements with long-term financing, then we should have the best experts we can at that particular time. So, I can see no sense in having this type of forum of a pre-hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to respond to Mr. Givens and after I respond I'm going to ask that the bill be held —

The Chair:

You can't do that.

Michelle Madoff:

Put in Committee? Well, whatever. We know it's going to be defeated anyway.

My esteemed colleague said that it's assinine and that he does his homework and I would like to respond that he asks more questions than anybody else and that he takes up more time and anybody else because he's so informed —

The Chair:

Come on now. We're not going to get personal.

Michelle Madoff:

He made the comment. I'm responding to his comment.

The fact that we ask the questions, including Mr. Givens, means that obviously we don't have the answers. I think the public certainly doesn't have them because they're not privy to the information that we have. The public would like to be better informed and I think it's insulting to the department heads to sit here all day and not have the opportunity to inform us of what has transpired before the people speak.

I expected to be defeated. I think it's sad; I think it speaks to the kind of Council we have.

I move to have it approved.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, just a recapping of some of the things that we've talked about. I believe that this is an informational type request and if there's anything that this Council complains about, the most often is the lack of information, the fact that we have to read in the media or hear or see through the media things that are going on in the Administration. And that happens repeatedly on a weekly basis in this City, even though we are funding the Administration for the taxpayers.

In regard to it being televised, these meetings could not be televised, I suspect, unless Council voted on it and the majority of Council approve the televising of a particular meeting as we do with public hearings. So I think that does not pertain overall to all of these meetings if we do adopt this procedure.

Department directors would not be required to attend the meetings unless they were required to attend the hearings. There are some hearings that we don't have department directors here, to be quite frank about it, and I can think of several off hand.

The meeting, the way I would foresee it, would still be chaired by the President and the President only, or the President Pro tem. It couldn't be conducted in any other fashion according to the rules of Council. Information in the sense of the department director's responding to the questions of the petition would be the purpose of the hearing. In other words, the department directors would have the opportunity to talk about what the petitioners, the citizens are concerned about. I think that is proper, that is right, to give the Administration that opportunity prior to a public hearing.

The best example I can think of is the five-zone concept in the Police Bureau. We should have been given the opportunity to review the plan. True, individuals did seek out information and we did obtain it, but we did have to seek it out. It wasn't provided. With a meeting of this type, I think it would be very informative, not only to us but also to the public, and possibly shorten the public hearings.

One last comment I'd like to make is that as they said with the zone concept, if it doesn't work, we can always go back. That's very difficult, I think, when you're changing physical facilities and personnel. It wouldn't be very difficult in this Council. If we tried it and it didn't work, the half-hour meeting could simply be eliminated. I think it's a good idea.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff Mr. Wagner
Mr. Pollock

AYES 3 NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Givens Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Grabowski Mr. Woods
 (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

On another item. I must confess that I am absolutely non-plussed that I did not get one phone call this weekend. My colleague Sophie Masloff, I don't know if Mr. Pollock or any other members of Council were called, but I just had a call from the Anti-Defamation League, a Mr. Howard Ross, who said that on Saturday, but I understand that it was shown three times according to the information I received, I don't have all the facts, as we are speaking right now the courts are impounding the film so it will not be destroyed.

There was a film shown on Cable, on 21, called Glimpse of Islam. Presumably, and I did not see it but I want to see a copy, there are copies being made for Council now, that said that Jews are permitted to commit adultery with Goyem, that is the word for Jew, providing that they're not Jewish, that it is permissible to rape three year olds providing they're not of the Jewish faith, that Jews still drink blood, the world money is controlled by Jews, that we're users, and so on and so forth.

Everyone here knows the Vatican II which is the Nostra Tante, I believe, in our times change the concept of the Jews and the Gentiles being guilty of having killed Jesus. Presumably that has been changed.

I have spoken with Mr. Howard Ross and asked him what he wanted to do, what did the Anti-Defamation League want to do. I said, "You certainly are not going to advocate censorship, are you?" and he said no, he was not. We do not want censorship. I said, "What do you want?" He said he wants a public apology from the maker of the film, and I believe the person who made the film is called Mustafa Ali - we just got his phone number - on issues that are not truthful.

I asked David Conti who runs Channel 21 which is a cable system which is the community producer, Channel 21 is the non-profit forum to operate the cable access on Pittsburgh. It provides access to community groups, any residents or non-profit organizations like the United Way, Neighborhoods for Living. But the rules say that PTCV prohibits obscene material or indecent material, I don't think it falls under that category, and he gave me a list of all the rules. You can't have lotteries, you can't have political endorsements, you can't have promotional material concerning products, etc. They have one proviso; any material that constitutes libel, slander, invasion of privacy or publicity rights, unfair competition, violation of trademark and copyright, that which might violate any local, state or federal law. I don't see that this film violated any of those, unfortunately, but the one thing they did violate was that when we granted the license to PTCV, they had the authority to review and they did not by oversight, I understand, and maybe Sophie can shed some light on this, and it was a matter of good taste. What you would show on public and what you would show on cable become two different things.

I want to repeat this in light of the Hail Mary episode. The Jewish and Gentile community, the Anti-Defamation League, does not want censorship, because if you wanted censorship in the Taming of the Shrew, Shakespeare, you had Fagan pictured as a Jew-grabbing horrible person. I don't want to censor Shakespeare. But when you come out with things like raping three-year olds, drinking blood, that we advocate raping children - I just can't even believe what I just heard. I some of like the last to hear of what went on -

Mr. DePasquale:

Michelle, what's your motion?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm informing Council; I'm not making a motion. I just wanted Council to be aware that in order for the film not to be destroyed, the Court is ordering a copy to be made so that we in Council can see what has happened and I think perhaps this Council ought to meet with PTCV who gave them the licensing rights for that Channel 21, to see how that happened, what kind of rules, if any, or infractions were violated, but certainly the community, and I'm relating what the Anti-Defamation League is requesting is that what is absolutely outrageous lies should be apologized for.

The Chair:

May I ask one question? I understand what censorship is and so forth, but if you only want an apology, I mean I think it should just be taken off. You're saying, apologize but continue showing this?

Michelle Madoff:

No, no, no, no. It's not going to be shown again. They've agreed never to show it again. That's not the point. If they've agreed never to show it, why was it shown in the first place? Again, I don't want to advocate censorship. That's what I'm saying.

The Chair:

Well that is censorship. If you take it off, it's censorship.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't make the decision to take it off.

The Chair:

It should be, don't get me wrong.

Michelle Madoff:

I did not say to take it off. I want to be perfectly --

The Chair:

I say take it off.

Mrs. Masloff:

May I add to all of this? From 1:30 to 5:30 on Saturday, at the completion of this program, my phone rang off the hook. Channel 21 is a public access channel. PTCI has very little to say about controlling the neighborhood channels except that they have rather a loose code as to what can be said on Channel 21 and its extremely loose; that is, you can't say anything inflammatory, you can't say anything derogatory, you can't say anything obscene. It's never been tested before; this has never happened before so that they had no guidelines to go by.

Now, the things that Michelle said this person said Saturday afternoon between one and two on the public access channel 21 are all true. Whatever Michelle said they said, they said. It was extremely obscene, extremely inflammatory. PTCI, I took it up with them first thing this morning, and PTCI now agreed that they will have a closer control so that the guidelines which I said are rather loosely drawn as to inflammatory, as to decency, would be a little stronger, more than they have been. However, there won't be any censorship and the neighborhood who have had free reign up until now will continue to do that but they will have a little closer control than they've had.

This person obviously was revolting, disgusting, and could not have been a worse type of person. But they're few and far between; this has never happened before, so they had nothing to go by, and hopefully it will never happen again. But PTCI has assured me that they will thoroughly investigate it and see that this never happens again.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. Mr. President, we had discussed in this Council on the set-aside legislation, and I believe you concurred, that we should not have set-aside legislation go to referendum because it would be defeated as a black-white issue and not perceived as what we want it to be.

We agreed that we would hire an attorney. You asked me to go out and find someone, I found Mike Boyle. You asked me to find out what he would charge; I got the hourly rate, he's going to give us a special rate of $85 an hour. You then asked that he find out what the outside cost could be; I have found that out for you. He said he has tried to reach your office on numerous occasions, I think it's because we've been out of session but nobody has returned his calls.

The Chair:

What is his name?

Michelle Madoff:

Mike Boyle.

The Chair:

He never called my office.

Michelle Madoff:

On numerous occasions. You may not have gotten it; it could have come through the switchboard while we were gone. I'm just relating information.

The Chair:

I was here while we were on break, by the way.

Michelle Madoff:

Anyway, he thinks that he could do it in less than 10 hours at $85 a hour. I'm asking that we limit it to $1200 just to be on the safe side. He's done nothing on this because he figured that we forgot about it, that we weren't interested in the set-aside legislation.

Do I have your permission to go out and say it's fine? I didn't want to do it until —

The Chair:

Yes, but he never called me. If he did, I never got the message.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I get many calls at the switchboard that are not translated to my office so it could have happened.

Mr. DePasquale:

Excuse me, could we define the legislation that we're talking about?

The Chair:

The set-aside legislation for minorities and women.

Mr. DePasquale:

Why do we need an attorney?

The Chair:

To make sure that the legislation is legal, to compare it with Danny. We all agreed to that some months ago.

And on the motion of Sophie Masloff

Council adjourned.

Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We're going to deviate from our regular order of business for a resolution to be presented by Ms. Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Judith Aaronson, would you please join me?

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for coming today. I think that the subject of the resolution today and the presentation to the people that are in the audience is a great honor and a great tribute to the people who have been aware of the major problem of the late '80s and '90s which is literacy. Without addressing the question of literacy in a community that has been very high-pressed economically, we have very little hope of turning the economic impact of our community around. This is not just saying isn't it nice that the President has declared this month as Literacy Month but hoping to bring it down to the people who are really doing the job.

I must tell you that I have been hit over the head with a 2 by 4 by Judith Aaronson who has really been at me making sure that I understood everything there was to know about the problems of literacy. She has practically worn me to a frazzle but I hope that we've come through and I think this Council has shown its support in its preliminary vote on Monday and its hopeful final vote today in making some money available so that every single group here will have the funding it needs to really get the job done and that you will all be able to interact together. Hopefully this will be a city that will be in the forefront and lead the nation in setting an example of what can be done in literacy.

Judith Aaronson:

In June, 1985, WQED convened a meeting of representatives from all the PBS stations across the country to discuss the issue of adult literacy in the United States and determine what action was needed to address the problem in each community. This meeting resulted in PLUS, Project Literacy United States, the national outreach effort to involve every community in marshalling resources to address the problem.

The people here today have been involved in providing literacy training to adults in our community on an on-going basis. We are pleased to recognize their efforts working with limited resources, which we are confident will increase due to the current publicity which has made literacy a public issue.

Thank you.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Dianne Colbert from WQED and Nancy Woods are going to say something very briefly.

Ms. Colbert:

On behalf of the United Way Plus
Task Force, I want to thank Michelle Madoff and City Council for their help in raising the community's awareness of the problem of adult illiteracy.

In this proclamation we join hundreds of communities across the nation who are responding to a year long media effort, Project Literacy U.S., initiated by the national ABC and PBS networks with our QED leading the national effort for PBS. In Allegheny County, the PLUS effort is being spearheaded by the United Way as part of its new community problem solving focus. The United Way has convened a PLUS Task Force consisting of representatives from over 50 community agencies who are mobilizing adult literacy programs for the 180,000

Allegheny County residents who cannot read or write at a level that allows them to deal with the basic skills of life. The United Way PLUS Task Force is focusing in particular on helping unemployed literacy levels that will help them find jobs in our growing service and high tech economy. We hope that all the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh and the County can maximize their potential and become productive members of our community.

We'd like to thank Council and Michelle for all of their support and help in this effort and can assure you that the United Way PLUS Task Force will continue to make sure that the resources are available to help as many people who are willing to come forward and want to increase their literacy levels.

Thank you very much.

Ms. Woods:

On behalf of the Volunteer
Literacy Councils, I'd like to thank you for acknowledging this day and this month because in addition to being a societal problem and economic problem and community problem, we've acknowledged that its also an individual problem. We hear all of the numbers but this also makes us aware that this could be someone from our neighborhood, someone we know, and that the one on one, as well as the teachers and all of the others being involved bring this home to the impact that this is an issue for all of us.

Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you all very much.

Michelle Madoff:

You know, the problem is that there is a stigma attached, for some reason, to not learning how to read or write and we hope that Council being supportive will get people to feel that they are not stigmatized, they can do something, and we want to help.

The Chair:

Thank you.

I have one more resolution that I'd like to take right now. I'd like to ask Dr. Reyes to come up, please.

The Chair presents

No. 1459 WHEREAS, the Hispanic Forum of Pennsylvania, Inc., has been chartered as the first social service and advocacy agency to serve Pittsburgh's Hispanic community; and

WHEREAS, in recent years, there has been a rapid growth in the Hispanic minority with significant levels of poverty and the myriad social problems attendant with economic deprivation; and

WHEREAS, in response to these conditions, the Hispanic Forum of Pennsylvania, Inc., aggressively intervenes to provide opportunities for this increasingly visible segment of our population to break the cycle of poverty; and

WHEREAS, the problems facing Hispanics in our community and across the United States include such things as the formation of social networks to preserve Hispanic culture and heritage, increased English-language proficiency, and the need for vocational, educational, and employment opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognize the invaluable assistance provided Pittsburgh's 17,500 Hispanic Americans by the Hispanic Forum of Pennsylvania, Inc.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Dr. Reyes:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the Councilmembers and the Council President for this recognition. I would also like to thank the people who were today at our reception at the Press Club for all their support.

I am hopeful that all of you people who are becoming aware more and more of the situation with literacy, I would like to re-emphasize that this segment of the population is one that is really hurting in the area of illiteracy.

Thank you very much.

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Pitt Boulevard Bridge, Eastbound, while repairing a hinge connection under an Emergency Contract; and providing for the payment thereof (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1287, Mr. President, I had asked for information as to what the cost of purchasing one of the arrow trucks would be. I did not receive that and because I did not receive it, although I know the bill has to be paid, I am going to vote no on that bill.

The Chair:

If I can, Michelle, I remember you asking but you didn't give a specific time when you would like it. You just asked them to acquire it and to let you know. I'm not trying to stick up for Daryl Smith or anything --

Michelle Madoff:

Well I got some information back but it is not really terribly clear, that we should be spending $1396.00. It just said they leased it -- it's the same letter we got originally. You've been around that business long enough to know that obviously in a City this size quite frequently we're going to need that kind of equipment. We have people in our Water Department doing repairs in various parts of the City on narrow streets that are highly trafficked and there are no barrels. There's nothing to protect the men. This arrow might do the job.

I think maybe we can focus in on a need for an item instead of leasing. We've done that with our fleet. We lease cars, we lease back-hoes for our Water for 17 years. We repair them instead of going out and buying them even second hand from bankruptcy sales where somebody may have had it a month and its still under warranty. We just never really got down to the fact that the City doesn't have the money to do this kind of thing anymore and we have to be creative in our financing. So I'm just going to do a protest vote on that.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill 1317, the bill preparing an annual defense spending report for the City of Pittsburgh, I'd like my remarks to be brought up on that bill.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1317 - WEDNESDAY, 9/10/86)

Mr. Givens:

I think we are spending a lot of good money here. It doesn't tell us anything. I mean, certain people want to know what the federal government is spending in regards to defense spending in the City of Pittsburgh and they really can't tie it down on one particular area because say Rockwell International — most of their plants are out in California anyway, so when you address it here you're just talking about office staff, etc., so it's a report that we're paying upwards to $10,000. Now if someone wants to pay or help the taxpayers in the City of Pittsburgh, save them $10,000, we can put that to good use.

Mr. Pollock's remarks, I agree that the people had voted on it, etc., but in doing so as Mr. Wagner pointed out, we're not getting our dollar's worth in the report. The federal government, because of the classified nature of many of the programs that are existing underneath it are never going to tell you where these programs are located. I said it at the public hearing, I voted against the legislation when it came through — we'd be giving to our enemies all the prime targets in the United States. Now that is assinine. However, you can get one little report from the federal government because they put it out every year, it costs us $3.50 and it will give you the same information that you are getting out of this report that we're authorizing up to $10,000. I submit to all of us to do this type of legislation, to permit this to go on is — if the taxpayers, those people who voted for this thing and the people who even put the resolution forward because had they done their study they would have found out that you can't do it and if you can do it there's a government report for $3.50 that will tell you how to do it. So why should we spend up to $10,000? This is crazy.

The President had made a motion that this be done in-house and I wholeheartedly agree with him.

Within another 50 days we're going to be looking at 1987 budget and I can almost assure you that there's going to be some constraints, serious constraints within that budget. For us to spend $10,000 on this as the Director has so indicated, that from that report is the basic thing, then you look at the social impact that it has on our particular community. Where can you justify social impact when you talk about your own security, the security of this nation and that's the underlying situation. I dare say that in any other nation that we have in this country and knowing what's happening and the terroristic threats against people flying on major airlines and ships overseas, what happens to them? And what's happening in the U.S.S.R. when we're trying to sit down and faithfully negotiate and this is what this boils down to. I can't spend $10,000 of the taxpayers' money and then come up here in 50 days and have to go out and tax the people of the City of Pittsburgh. The City of Pittsburgh is governed to serve primarily services oriented streets, roads, bridges, etc. This is an area that's really completely out of our purview. We have to have a report and we have to do it in-house and save the taxpayers $10,000.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Givens:

The underlying fact is that it's not just $10,000 as the bill so indicates, but $30,000 over a three-year period of time.

As I emphasized Wednesday on this particular bill, that $30,000 that we're spending on this defense bill when everybody else is saying cut back, and even Washington, D.C., here we are in the City of Pittsburgh spending more money for defense studies. And that seems kind of ironic to me for us to be increasing our amount of money. We used to do it in-house and now we don't. But now we find it costing the taxpayers $10,000 a year.

That $30,000, I submit to this Council, in another less than two months, we're going to be fighting over a 1987 budget wherein we're going to be cutting back employees of the City of Pittsburgh because we will not be able to tax the people any more than what we've already taxed them. To include $30,000 is to say that we're going to cut out two employees working for the City of Pittsburgh and we're going to be hit and hit very hard this coming fiscal year of 1987 and I would say that in-house we can do this right now and come up with the same facts and the same figures and thus saving two employees of the City of Pittsburgh or saving $30,000 for the taxpayers of the City.

Again, I ask my fellow Councilmembers who voted against this bill last week that they consider their vote and those who voted for it that they consider their vote again because we're going to have to look every place we can in this budget in order to save some money so we don't have to hurt our City employees' 1987 budget. We're going to have to possibly be laying some employees off; here's where we can save two City employees and do some service work out there that I read about in our local newspapers that we should be doing; taking care of our City streets. That takes manpower and energy and money; here we we can save some of that money.

Michelle Madoff:

If my colleagues will remember, this is an issue that really we cannot address. The public has spoken, they've had a public hearing, and there's been a request that we supply this information. It's out of our hands.

It is conceivable that we could ask to do it in-house with Mr. Schmeiser but he indicated that he felt it would not be the kind of report that would be meaningful nor that he could spend the time. It would be more cost effective for them to farm it out as they are doing so that we could make more money for the City of Pittsburgh by people in his department doing what they're supposed to be doing rather than working on something that they're not familiar with.

In the same vein, I might point out that I did read something in the media that I found most interesting. There is now a mechanism for recording measurements so that we can have a verifiable arms control. I think what the people who testified before us were saying was that we don't want to spend money on military developments if that money is so badly needed for people who aren't working and aren't eating and lunch programs and so forth, to cut back on some of the military program. But you can't do it if we're not protected. But if there is indeed a way of having a verifiable arms control, then that sheds a different perspective and a different light on the kind of dollars that are needed. And perhaps in the study that would be coming back to us, that would be factual so that we, and the public in general, and the public has asked us to look at this, can make some kind of intelligent comments. We cannot make decisions in a vacuum.

On an issue such as voting on the Pirates we paid something like $25,000 to have a consultant so we could vote intelligently. I don't think that we're asking for a lot of money so this Council can be an informed Council.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to make one response to that. Had the people of the City of Pittsburgh, on the referendum that they voted for to get this report, had known that it was going to cost them some $30,000, $10,000 a year, I would dare say that that referendum would have failed and failed miserably. It was only because of some political pushing and shoving here when the first report came out from the City that they felt it wasn't sufficient. Well, it's the same report that's submitted by the government every year as to what defense monies are being spent in our local area. Any more than that they're just spinning their wheels. If we're going to try to find out what social ills are happening because of the defense spending, all I can say is thank God for the veterans who spent all their blood and toil in defending this country on behalf of the Congress and the people of this country who said we needed to be defended. That's what they are doing now and for us to sit here in judgment on a $10,000 report and say that the Federal Government is doing their job or not doing their job on behalf of the people and the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh to secure our defense, and that's all they're doing is securing our defense, I would say that it's a wasteful $10,000. Let's save the people, the City taxpayers, and let's keep a few more employees working for the City of Pittsburgh because we're going to take $30,000 out of that '87 budget coming up and it's going to cost the employees of the City and then we cannot go out and do the job that the people of the City of Pittsburgh have put us here to do and that is to help the City of Pittsburgh. That's the Federal Government. Let them go to Billy Coyne and Doug Walgren and Bailey if they want a report of what's happening at the Congressional level. The City of Pittsburgh should not be in this type of business.

The Chair:

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to all of the CDULO funding bills, I would just like to make a comment. I support all of these bills and will vote for all of them but it has already been brought to my attention that letters have gone out to various groups saying that these dollars have been allocated, by Council and by the Administration. I have problems with that in that I firmly believe that bills must be passed before people are reassured that the funding is there. For every piece of legislation that is here under ULO, CD and future legislation, it not only takes Council the majority of Council, to support it but in many instances, the Administration also. I think it should be viewed as such and I think its important that we do not send any false hopes prior to legislation being passed.

The Chair:

I totally agree with you. I've seen the letter.

Michelle Madoff:

Who signed it?

The Chair:

The Administration. It wasn't only the letters that were sent out, it also appeared in the paper that the money was allocated for these various projects. So they got it from both sides. But I agree with you.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh salute the organizers of the Johnstown Vietnam Veterans Parade and offer our heartfelt pride and compassion to the soldiers and families for whom this will be a solemn national event.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to say a word on behalf of this resolution and that one that Sophie had read on the plight of the Vietnam Veterans.

They've never really had that tickertape parade in New York City and throughout all of the major metropolitan areas of the land. This is apparently the one in Johnstown and its too bad its not in Pittsburgh. But there was a John Stager up there, he's just one individual, one Vietnam Veteran who took it upon himself to have what is now the largest parade that any veteran's organization have had for the Vietnam Vets who have returned and in behalf of those who have not returned. One individual did this and it goes to show you what one individual can do when he puts his mind and shoulder to it for a good cause to bring people.

We have people on our Highland Drive and other military and veterans hospitals in our adjoining area. They sit up there day after day with nobody coming by to even say hello to them. Please, on this weekend, get out there and reach out to some of these veterans and say hello to them. And for those people in the viewing audience and here in this Council, if you have an opportunity to get up to Johnstown, I think we'll see something that hopefully I intend to bring back to the City of Pittsburgh and let's beat Johnstown in having one of the finest parades.

Now that September 19th has been designated as for Vietnam Veterans and for those men missing in action and lost in action, I think you'll find that day will be for veterans now within Allegheny County with some 225,000 veterans, I think you'll find this date becoming one of that of some of the Armistice Day parades, etc., that we have had in the past. We must do this homage and honor these veterans for one purpose and one purpose only for without their blood being shed we could not sit here today and have the freedom of expression that we have in this very Council.

And you only have to read the newspapers today and yesterday to find out what freedoms we do have here and the security that we have in this country. In Paris today, two bombings by terrorists, etc. It's only because of the freedom that we have in this country, anyone that would walk into New York City and see how we live in this country, a terrorist even, he is converted on the spot to the freedom that this country has. He's totally stunned at what he sees when he's coming to destroy a country and he sees how that country is in fact working in democracy and he loses all of the gusto that he had and all of the poison that was put into his head. That is one reason we do not have the terroristic problems in this country as we do in some other countries, because of that great freedom that all of us have here, and especially the freedom of our media who expresses it so willingly in their papers day after day after day. And what the President has done for the drug thing, and he's appealing the national media to do that as well as I appealed to our local media, to give homage to our Vietnam Veterans.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. DePasquale:

Dick, are you going to Johnstown?

Mr. Givens:

Yes.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'll go with you.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. I'm sure that all of us are sort of dismayed to get much of our news from the media. It's amazing how reporters have a lot more time than we do and can ferret out information that we sometimes are not privy to.

I read with great interest the story about the so called interaction that might be questionable on an ethics basis between Mr. Creehan of Alcosan and whatever involvement there may be, and I'm sure there will be some investigation. My great concern is not the one that is the obvious, the one that everyone is going to look at and say, was there any conflict of interest. My concern is that, and I can't believe its that long ago, I've been here about 8-1/2 years, 8 years ago I did a six month study on the sale of City properties. And the thing that I pleaded for and I think really happened in large measure, was that I wanted to give everyone in the community access to our housing stock. That means, the City being the conduit for the County, the City and the School Board, when houses were bankrupt, vacated, absent landlords, so the people who had a little bit of money, perhaps sweat equity, could restore the homes and not just let the 40 thieves have a chance at those properties. They're properties that any one of us on this Council, any member of the City is free to purchase, provided everyone has equal access.

I was dismayed to read, and I have every reason to believe that it was true, that when parties who wanted to buy the property, and boy they knew what they were buying, Arlington is going to have a new roadway, the view from that site as visualized in the media was breathtaking. I live at 1000 Grandview, I pay $3000 a year taxes, I don't have that view. That is a very valuable piece of property and people who called to buy that piece of property were told that that is going to be a greenway. You cannot buy that piece of property.

My concern is not with Mr. Creehan. My concern is with the parties, and that was not in the Treasurer's Office, it was in either the — I don't know which agency at this point, we've changed so many times, has the property; it used to be in Lands and Buildings. I want to know the name of the person, I want a letter sent, an official request made, perhaps a post agenda, I want to know who was the person who said that you cannot have this property because its going to be a greenway. And I want to make sure that that property is put back on the market. That property has an outstanding value because of the view. We pay the taxes on Mount Washington for the view. The same footage anywhere else would be half-price. If someone is getting a piece of property with that magnificent view, I want that piece of property open to everybody to have equal access to purchase.

I am making an official request, if I may, to have the City Clerk send a letter requesting that that property sale be rescinded and that property be put on cable television where everybody can see it and everybody can have equal opportunity to buy the property, particularly the two or three first people who were turned down and were told it was going to be a greenway.

The Chair:

Michelle, I understand your concern; I think we all have the same concern. But we cannot make an official request for something like that. I suggest, if you would like to have a post agenda, please do that or send a letter of your own, but this Council, I think there are laws. The property has been bought and we can't just say that this property is going to be put back on the market, you know, here's your money back. I think there's a lot of legalities involved and I would hate to say that this Council officially is going to do that.

Michelle Madoff:

I made a request; a request is not binding. I'm requesting that the Administration rethink and put that property back up for sale. And Mr. President, may I remind you, I've been here a long time now, sales are put up for sale, resold, all the time. If the original owners of that property came back, they could still have their property back. There are numerous reasons why that sale could be rescinded. And I can't think of a better one than under false information people were told that that property was a greenway, they couldn't have that property. I think that property must be rescinded, that property must be brought back and equal access given to everybody.

The Chair:

Would you please send a letter to the Law Department --

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I'm doing.

The Chair:

Right, you send the letter. If we send it, it's from this Council and all nine members have to agree to that.

Michelle Madoff:

Well then may I make a motion that my colleagues support me in sending this letter requesting that that property be put back for sale because we are the elected officials of this City and if we sit here doing nothing it's a sin of omission and we're condoning what has happened. I respectfully ask that we do that as a body.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Michelle, I still say I don't know if we can do that. We can send a letter requesting the Law Department to look into such a thing but we just can't send a letter saying that we want this property put back on the tax rolls. That's my opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think we're both saying the same thing in a little different way. Obviously if it's illegal to take it away we can't do it. But it would seem to me that a letter directed to the Law Department and to --

The Chair:

I think that's it, to the Law Department.

Michelle Madoff:

And also to the body that is handling the sale of this property requesting two pieces of information. The first one is, who said it was going to be a greenway. That's the number one question. The number two question, is it legally possible now to rescind the sale and to put that property back up for sale so that everybody will have equal access at a piece of property, granted, that needs a lot of work, needs a lot of shoring up, but has a view that might make it very worthwhile for a lot of people, including this lady. I never knew about that property; I want to have the same information that everybody else does and I want the poorest person in this City who wants to get in there with sweat equity and some friends, like raising a barn and having the opportunity to build a house and maybe make some money on it, to have the same opportunity that Mr. Creehan had. I am not faulting Mr. Creehan.

The Chair:

Please, let's not use names.

Michelle Madoff:

It's on the front page; it's no secret.

The point I'm making is that I want equal access, for everyone to have the same opportunity. Mr. Woods, if that turned out to be a property that you wanted to pay more for than anyone else, you should have that right. Everybody should have the right but you shouldn't have it and I shouldn't have it if everybody else doesn't have it. And I don't think we disagree.

Now, whether its legally feasible can't, as yet, be determined. But my experience having spent six months studying the problem is yes, it is legally possible to do it. You just rescind the sale, return the money, and we go right ahead and put it up again to the highest bidder and that's the way the property should be developed.

The person who I'm most distressed with, I want to do this for the record, is

Mr. Lurcott. I always get back to Mr. Lurcott. He said he negotiated with the party because that was going to be the best use of the land. It appears that it is not the best; it is no different than anybody else having purchased that property including the two people who were told it was going to be a greenway. Those two people knew they had to shore up that property, those two people knew there was a landfill, but they also knew about that view. And I'd like to know what other properties are up there so that everybody will know that on a priority basis and I'd like to have Brother Richard informed to get that on our cable station which, incidentally, has been very, very successful, even in these times when the economy is suffering, of selling a great deal more property than we normally would under these conditions. Equal access to everybody; that's the least we can do.

So, my motion is to send a letter to the Law Department and to ask the question, can we get the name of who said it is a greenway and the second question is, can we legally rescind the sale and put that property back for sale. Equal access to everyone. My feeling is that if the Administration wants to, they'll find a way to do it. If there's a will, there's a way, and it is the ethical, moral and proper thing to do.

The Chair:

This is a letter from Council. Call the roll.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, may I make a comment? In regard to that, the letter, I really don't think that it's the right way to go. I support you on the issue but sending a letter does not necessarily mean that the information that you wish to obtain will be provided. The proper procedure would be a post agenda to inquire personally or a piece of legislation similar to the piece of legislation that I had several weeks ago conducting a formal investigation, if it were approved by Council.

If a letter is the way to go and if Council does approve it, I would just like to note that the Allentown Citizens Council has not been in favor of that property to be marketed; they want it to be a greenway. They would not be in favor of the property being sold back to the City and then the City reselling the property, even to a higher bidder. The area north or the downhill slope of Arlington Avenue, then intent of the City has been to keep that a greenway and to sell the City property north or the uphill slope of Arlington Avenue for development in the future when the road is completed.

So, if we are voting on a letter to be sent, I would suggest that it not state that the property would be resold if it were reacquired by the City.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I respond, please? I think that Mr. Wagner has brought out a very pertinent point. Maybe I'm off base in saying that it should be sold because, again, if indeed it should be a greenway, perhaps we should say in the letter we would like to know who said it was a greenway, who gave the authorization to sell, and if we do not get this information within five working days, that we will then schedule a public hearing and that certainly the request by the Allentown Association should be answered in our letter, why was it not made a greenway when the Allentown Association had so requested. I think that could be the third question. We would like some information, not to always hold hearings.

The Chair:

But I thought your question was, how do we take the property back.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, but I'm saying now that I'm not saying, okay, let's sell it to someone else; so, I'm adding a third question. Take out how do we take it back and find out what the proper procedure in dealing with that property would be, should it be resold or should it be turned into a greenway as requested by the Allentown Association, and why wasn't it. So, there's really a third question. Why wasn't the Allentown Association request honored? So, those are the three questions with a final paragraph that says, if these answers are not given within five working days, we will then request a public, official, hearing.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, a precedent was set in regards to reselling property of the City of Pittsburgh. Down here on Fifth Avenue is a street; I believe it runs from Fifth Avenue behind the Synagogue. Apparently the gentleman bought that and bought it legally and when it was found out the purchaser of that property made a parking lot out of it there was a cry and the City actually tried to rescind that sale and obviously the Law Department told them they couldn't do it, any more than you can do it in this matter here.

The Chair:

I remember that.

Roll call vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Just to get some information; an informational request.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff	Mr. Pollock
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Wagner

AYES 4	NOES 4
--------	--------

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Grabowski
Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

Hold up a minute; there's a 4-4 vote.

The Chair:

Ties fail.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask a question please? In your esteemed wisdom, what is the next procedure? There is no way that I'm going to let this rest. None.

The Chair:

Ask for a post agenda, Michelle. I asked you to do that in the beginning.

Michelle Madoff:

Then I will ask for an official post agenda for, let's give them some time, let's be fair, let's say a week from Wednesday. Are we having agendas any other days except on Wednesday? Are we going to move some of the hearings? We're going to have the people from Allentown here so we may want to do it as a hearing.

The Chair:

You can have anybody you want at the post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm saying perhaps we should have a hearing as opposed to a post agenda. I think the people from Allentown are going to want to be heard. We could have avoided that with the letter. We don't want the letter; I think now we have to have a hearing. I'm going to request a hearing, not a post agenda because I think the people from Allentown want to be heard. Would that be correct, Mr. Wagner?

The Chair:

Are you making a motion?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, I make a motion to make it a public hearing. We'll get 25 signatures if we need it.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, this thing has gone completely out of control, as far as I'm concerned. I don't think it's appropriate, the resolution. There should be a post agenda, let's get some evidence of what's happened. There was a newspaper article that was submitted on the thing.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff Mr. Wagner
Mr. Pollock

AYES 3 NOES 4

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Grabowski Mr. Woods
 (Pres't)

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record, I will see that there will be 25 signatures from the Arlington Association. I'm sure Mr. Wagner will help me, and we will have a hearing in any event. I think you look foolish by not voting fully as leaders with what's going to happen anyway.

Mr. Givens:

She's foolish too for having something —

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, you're out of order and so are you, Ms. Madoff, for personal reflection.

Michelle Madoff:

You is a general term.

Mr. Pollock:

I think another point to be raised by the article that appeared on Sunday and then again in this morning's paper about the latest revelations involving Jim Creehan, I don't want to ask for any Council action on this at this time. I think that remains for another date after the dust has settled completely involving him, just to see how far the cancer spreads.

But I think one point that should be noted is that, and this was another article that appeared during the week, certain elected and appointed and other government officials who are required to file ethics statements have filed false, inaccurate, or otherwise misleading statements. The answer has been to this date that it was in fact nothing more than an oversight.

Well, I think that the Sunday front page banner headline article about Jim Creehan was read by enough people and discussed by enough people that anyone subsequent to this date who is caught and found to have false, inaccurate and misleading ethics statements, it can no longer be an oversight but, in fact, fraud or even further, a criminal act.

So, I want to make that my statement on record —

Mr. DePasquale:

How do you determine that? Are you on the Ethics Board? That's a matter for the Ethics Board. I resent that remark.

The Chair:

Jeep, you're out of order. When he's finished you can speak.

Mr. Pollock:

I think that should be noted and I think that anyone who is present that hears this clearly should be aware of that fact and any business interests that have not been revealed on their ethics statement should be revealed at this time.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, Mr. Creehan owes an answer only to the Ethics Commission, not the Pittsburgh Press, the Post Gazette, to Mark Pollock or anyone on this Council. If there are any violations it's for the Ethics Commission and he has a right to amend it as anyone else.

Mr. Givens:

I would just like us to go back a little bit in history. The newspapers in this city crucified the ex-President of City Council, Robert Rade Stone. He went to a court of law and was found innocent. I say to this Council that some members of this Council shoot from their hip very quickly before they have any information and before it goes to a court of law.

As Mr. DePasquale said, if there's anything wrong, it's within the filing of various reports to the Ethics Committee and the Ethics Committee then has a right, a definite right, to come in and to investigate. Let those people do their work if the law has been violated. For certain Councilmembers to take political potshots at people who have been friendly to the various parties in this City, I think is a very cheap shot. That's why I abstained on my votes and that's why I would not vote on anything that was brought up, because its casting a shadow of doubt upon a person's character and I will not let that happen as long as I'm a Councilman on this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm going to let the last one rest but I just wanted to set something straight for the record. The term "you" means plural as well as singular. When I used the term "you" I meant the plural, not anyone in particular. Thank you.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

Report of the Committee on Public Works for September 17, 1986 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1373

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending the Title and Section No. of Resolution No. 517 approved June 12, 1986 effective date June 18, 1986, entitled 'Vacating a portion of the northerly side of Henderson Street in the 25th Ward, City of Pittsburgh.'"

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1374

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto James B. Smith, 570 Richland Street, his successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at his own cost and expense, an off-street parking area and fence on a portion of the right-of-way of Unnamed Way in the 13th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1375

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto David M. O'Brien, 6450 Jackson Street, his successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at his own cost and expense, a driveway and fence on a portion of the right-of-way of Wellesley Avenue in the 11th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1376

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto Jessie DeCarlo, her successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at her own cost and expense, a handicapped ramp over a portion of the sidewalk of Williams Street in the 19th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 1376, I have attempted, I have had a complaint about that right of way and I am in the process of investigating it through my office and I'd like to move to hold the bill for one more week or put it back into Committee.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Is there any discussion allowed on it?

The Chair:

On the recommittal, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

What could the problem possibly be with having a handicap ramp? Could you give us any idea what it's about?

Mr. Wagner:

Well, the complaint is that it obstructs the sidewalk in the area and we simply want to investigate it and determine whether it does or doesn't.

Michelle Madoff:

I can't imagine that we would not want to do that.

Mr. Givens:

Jack, I don't know if you can remember on that bill, that was my concern also that we ought to have a cut in the sidewalk in such a way that a person that has blindness or a handicap in that particular area have seen that we don't obstruct another construction for people in that particular category.

The people from Public Works Wednesday so indicated that they knew the exact design of the new handicap ramp and they didn't feel that that was any problem. I don't know if that helps out to hold it one week. I asked that same question last Wednesday.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 1377

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto Nancy Klim, her successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at her own cost and expense, a sidewalk cafe on a portion of the sidewalk of Federal Street in the 22nd Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1378

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution granting unto Robert J. Berberich, his successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at his own cost and expense, a driveway for off-street parking on a portion of the right-of-way of Ray Avenue in the 19th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 1489

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for September 17, 1986 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 734

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Cooperation Agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh for the Administration of the Brighton on the Park Housing Development Grant Project and further providing for the execution of an Owner-Grantee Agreement for the Project."

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President --

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to be the last person to comment. Whoever wants to go first, feel free.

The Chair:

That will be very difficult. Mr. DePasquale?

Mr. DePasquale:

She can go first.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I yield.

Mr. DePasquale:

You go first; I'm yielding to you.

Michelle Madoff:

I yield.

The Chair:

Wait a minute; let me handle this.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, point of order. I think it would be interesting to find out what the latest recommendation is. There was supposed to be some kind of compromise and it would be interesting for those of us who might want to hear what it is.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, it's your committee. Do you have any compromise? I know we all received a letter but would you like to —

Mr. Pollock:

That's the only thing I'm aware of. I think a compromise infers that both sides came to that agreement. I don't know if there's been a response to the proposal.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President, would you translate that? There's no compromise?

The Chair:

No, as long as both sides are concerned. That's what Mr. Pollock says.

Mr. DePasquale:

Well, we're beyond compromise. I believe at the meeting the other day the residents of the neighborhood made it rather clear they wouldn't be in favor of a one-story apartment. They definitely don't want an apartment up there. They don't seem to realize they're blocking a federal grant and blocking abutments for the handicapped and they don't seem to care. I seem to care. I say it's a way a selling the handicapped down the river if we refuse this grant to put those apartments in. So there's no further dillydallying; let's bite the bullet and vote this up or down.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I am going to follow the rule of this Council and not personalize but say that a member of this Council, as reported to me by the Misticks, said to a media person, and that person knows who they are and if they wish to step forward they may do so because I will pursue it in my own way as I have previously, said to the Misticks that the reason I did not wish to vote on this issue, I was going to vote against the issue, was that I had work done in my home by the Misticks and I held up payment to punish them and I will provide this Council with my receipts and my checks, which are filed away, incidentally, because it was three years ago. The Mistick brothers both are here and they have just stated with Mr. Brophy present that indeed I made the payment. I converted my condo; I had a rehab job done. It was not a happy experience but I paid the required dollars including the kitchen people who provided the kitchen and the bathroom people who I paid money out of my own pocket. It came to something like $60,000.

So, I resent a member of this Council impugning my integrity by implying that I would vote one way or another against Misticks or for Misticks because of work done in my condominium, which was indeed unhappy. However, I do want to point out that since the time of the work that was done at my condo, I have commended one of the Misticks that was appointed to the BOCA Code of Review. I said he would be an asset and it was done here publicly. I have voted for other Mistick projects. But when I am questioned as to whether I would vote one way or another because of work that was done in my building, then it becomes a matter of impugning my integrity and I am not going to vote for anything, for or against, and I don't believe in abstaining but I will abstain and I realize full well that that's a no vote. I am quite aware that that means I am voting no; I take that responsibility. But from here on in, I will abstain voting on anything that relates to Mistick based on the fact that my unhappiness with them, even though before my integrity was impuned I voted in support of other projects that they had done. I am very distressed about this. The person who made the statement is a member of this Council and I will pursue it perhaps in a legal form.

Mr. DePasquale:

What was the statement that was supposed to have been made?

The Chair:

Jeep, you're out of order.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, I'd like to take a few moments because I did put a lot of time into this and I'd like to share my thoughts with those who took the time and effort and expense to come down here today.

I'd like to begin by saying that my decision on this legislation has been my most difficult one since I took office in January. There are two very worthy, deserving communities involved here; Allegheny West and Pittsburgh's handicapped. That is why I did invest so much time and energy in the three months or more of negotiations between the neighborhood and the handicapped members of the community and the developer, and also the URA and City Planning.

It should also be noted at this time that Paul Farmer, Deputy Director of City Planning, and Mike Eversmyer from City Planning, as well as many other people down at City Planning, spent uncommon time and dedication and talent to the negotiations to try and come up with a solution to this problem, and, in fact, a compromise was found. There was a building that was agreed upon or would have been agreed upon by members of the neighborhood and members of the handicapped community and the developer. Unfortunately, this structure could not be built without the input of more than half a million dollars, and the City powers that be, probably wisely, deemed it inappropriate to add any more public dollars to this project. So that put it back into City Council's lap and it must vote the grant up or down.

There are several points I would like to make before explaining my vote. I have pointed out all along that the Zoning Code permits the structure as proposed. I have tried to explain this to the neighborhood that there is no zoning issue here. The developer, I believe, as sure as I am sitting here, will build on this site whether or not it gets this grant. Indeed, if the grant does not go through and the developer builds the building, he can build it just as high and it will not have two and a half million dollars of federal grant to go into the building for improvements, aesthetic appearance and the handicapped units.

I am currently attempting to sensitize the City Housing Authority to the critical need for handicapped housing. It certainly would be hypocritical of me to now turn my back on 27 units, especially 27 two-bedroom units, when there are currently no two-bedroom units in the City for the handicapped.

Two different structures have been approved throughout the negotiations before this issue came to Council. Two different ones have been approved by historic preservation bodies, the State or the Federal. Both of these structures were nine-story structures. This has to be pointed out. If it is alright for those historic review bodies to pass on two different nine-story structures, then they clearly cannot be too great of a burden or a blight on the neighborhood. In addition, the developer has committed to limiting the height of the proposed building to only eight stories with the same number of handicapped units.

Maybe I'm too lenient or accepting, but I feel that that urban dweller must realize that he or she does not have the luxury that his or her suburban neighbor does. There are, unfortunately, attendant burdens and costs that go with living in the City and to expect otherwise is unrealistic. Yes, this goes for me too and if this building were proposed in my neighborhood with the same set of parameters, I would support it.

As I said, there are two worthy communities that unfortunately have been placed in adversarial positions, and that's the real tragedy of this whole process because neither group really opposes the other. Cruel circumstances have caused this.

Permit me one minute to quote John F. Kennedy who wrote in his Profiles In Courage of the dilemma facing elected officials. I do not mean for one moment to imply that anything that any one of us does here today can match the acts of courage that those archangels of morality and courage and honor and strength blessed our nation with. But the words of John F. Kennedy lend me, personally, a great deal of succor.

"The elected official must on occasion lead, inform, correct, and sometimes even ignore constituent opinion if we are to exercise fully that judgment for which we were elected. But acting without selfish motive or private bias, those who follow the dictates of an intelligent conscience are not aristocrats, demagogues, eccentrics, or callous politicians insensitive to the feelings of the public. The expect, and not without considerable trepidation, their constituents to be the final judges of the wisdom of their course, but they have faith that those constituents, today, tomorrow, or even in another generation will at least respect the principles that motivated their stand."

Thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I beg the indulgence of this group. I was very distressed to come into Council today and find out that indeed my integrity had been impuned and I was a little emotional and I didn't finish saying some of the things I wanted to say.

I have a great deal of empathy, I think my vote has consistently been very supportive of the handicapped community. And in a way this may be a blessing in disguise because it is true that for four years, there are people sitting here who are practically crying, and they're feeling terrible in case this vote, because I am going to abstain, doesn't pass and they don't get their property. But this should not be a handicapped versus a zoning issue. We have a responsibility, and I think Mark touched on it, as a body to look after our neighbors. The handicapped of this community pay taxes, they have enough problems without our adding additional burdens, and yet here we have the handicapped being used sort of as buffers put up front as the issue as opposed to the issue which is a zoning issue. But this Council must convene a meeting and I've already told, not today, not last week, not two weeks ago, but months ago, that I wanted to meet, and I talked to one of the ladies that is here today, that I would like to convene a meeting of all the handicapped communities, and I just asked today what the Umbrella Group was and I believe we don't have enough funding for the Umbrella Group to sit down with this Council as a body and say, what are the problems. Are they housing? There's got to be mechanism where they don't fight for four years and end up with a few maybe promises because there's nothing in the law that makes it mandatory that the handicapped will get the property. It is likely that they might on this issue. But just servicing a few people is not the answer. We need to make housing available not only for the handicapped community but all disenfranchised people.

Council may not remember, and I will be doing myself in to remind the public, that the vote to put group homes into "R1" and "R2" was my bill because I feel, as Mark does, that you don't say put it somewhere else, not in my district.

What we need to do now is to bring the entire representatives of the handicapped community and say what is it that you need, what is it that you don't have. And this Council should take the leadership in providing not just a few two-bedroom housing apartments, and not just relying on somebody who is going to build because there's money going to be made available from a grant to put handicapped facilities in an area where the neighbors are up in arms because my understanding is that it becomes a block between parts of the community, divides the community. And when we say that we wouldn't want it in our own neighborhood, I remember very vividly where I lived long before I came to Council, being in this room for the first time, very nervous when Pete Flaherty was President of Council and testifying against a building going up in my own area —

Mrs. Masloff:

He was never President of Council.

Michelle Madoff:

He was head of a hearing. I came here and I testified when Pete was presiding over a hearing on a zoning issue in my community on Mount Royal Road which was going to obstruct the view of people on a neighboring street.

The issue is a zoning issue; the issue is not a handicap issue. I think it's terrible to mix the two. And that does not mean that our responsibility to the handicapped is lessened and I feel that people are going to point their finger, perhaps the media, and say well, if you really cared you would have voted to put these people in because that's an opportunity. The real opportunity is for this Council to recognize that there is a problem, a very serious problem with housing for handicapped and to address that in a very professional, on-going and productive way. And I would ask, no matter how this vote goes today, Mr. President, that either you convene the meeting and if not I will see to it that my office continues to meet with the people and sets up the meeting which has already been discussed with members of the handicapped community.

I am not abdicating my responsibility by abstaining on this vote. I will follow through and do whatever I can to make life more bearable for the handicapped people of this community, as I have always done.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, perhaps you can help me. This letter from Tom Mistick and Sons about the redesign that they're going to —

Mr. Pollock:

What's the date on it?

The Chair:

Today; September 22nd. I think we all got it. But they're going to try to redo the plans and send it back to the Bureau of Historical Preservation Committee for eight stories and if there's any additional cost, which they suspect there probably will be some, it will be absorbed by the URA. Would the URA have to come back to us for that cost or is this just an out and out grant?

Mr. Pollock:

We're just voting up or down --

The Chair:

But if this does pass, according to this letter, that they would go back and try to get this eight stories, this building to be eight stories. Correct? So if the Bureau of Historical Preservation agree and say, okay, you can build this eight story building, and it costs additional money, it states that the URA will give them the additional money. Would they have to come back to Council or would that be an out and out grant?

Mr. Pollock:

No, they have a line item in the budget.

The Chair:

So it would be an out and out grant for construction? And that's what I'd like to have everyone understand, that this $2.4 million is not an out and out grant, is not used for construction. This money is subsidized to housing and if we go along with this or if this goes, that means the City or the URA is giving the developer an out and out grant to build a project or to help build a project. Correct me if I'm wrong.

Mr. Pollock:

It should be pointed out that there have been seven of these HODAG grants in the City and all six of the other ones received out and out URA grants. This is the only one so far that has not received one.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to Bill No. 734, as you know, I voted no on this issue last Wednesday and stated publicly during my vote, after my vote, and at a follow up meeting on Friday that we had with the proposed developer in the neighborhood, that I could not vote for a nine-story monolithic building that appeared to be a dominant factor in the neighborhood, that I wanted to see some compromise between the developer and the neighborhood even though meetings have taken place for I guess about two and a half, three months, and a lot of hours put in by a lot of people to try and reach a compromise.

After the vote on Wednesday we had a meeting on Friday, many of you were in attendance along with the neighborhood, the URA, City Administration, and we talked about the various potential compromises that have been discussed over the last few months. The first and let me refer to it as the number one or first item or first design that they showed on Friday was the nine-story structure that all of us are familiar with. I should state, though, that was after there was a compromise between them and the neighborhood going back a couple years ago of a four-story design. Well that was the second building which was a nine-story compromise. The second design that they showed us on Friday was a step-down building of nine, eight, seven, six, five stories. The third was a seven-story L-shaped structure. There were basically three shown to us on Friday. The neighborhood obviously was not in agreement with the nine-story structure. They stated Friday that they were not in agreement with the nine-eight-seven-six-five step down structure. And the L-shaped structure, it appeared as if there wasn't any great discussion about it so they were somewhat in agreement if -- the could have been in agreement if the funds could have been obtained from whatever source to build it if the design fit in with what they wanted.

As you know, we received a letter today and in that letter it is indicated that the developer will agree on an eight-story structure, not the nine-story, not the step-down of nine, eight, seven, not the seven, but an eight-story structure. And, as part of that letter, they indicated that they will commit to occupancy of the 27-units by the disabled.

In addition to that, and I'm just trying to throw out all the information that I have obtained in a consolidated fashion, I requested from our Solicitor a legal opinion on some questions that I raised Friday and he replied to this morning of which I'm passing out a copy, and I'd like to read the letter into the Record in reference to Bill No. 734.

"You have made certain inquiries concerning Brighton on the Park legislation presently pending before Council. Specifically, you asked three questions. Prior to answering those questions it should be pointed out to give a full review of your concerns would take ten days to two weeks to examine HUD and HODAG regulations, to confer with HUD and URA and to research the applicable law in full. However, my initial impressions to those questions are as follows:

1) Can Council have input for the height and design of this structure by passing this legislation? When Council initially approved this project and initial neighborhood approval was obtained, the building in question was four stories in height. Council at this time was approving a project for certain height and dimensions and it was within its discretion to allow HODAG to proceed if it believed that the design was amicable or detrimental to the City. The only question in this regulation is whether that concern can be raised because Zoning allows a nine-story building. The matter under consideration is whether the City wants to give a grant for this project."

In other words, our Solicitor has said, he hasn't really answered the question but has said that the matter in front of us is a grant for this project and it would take him additional time to research whether or not we can have input into design and to height of the building which is a concern of the neighborhood.

"2) If the legislation and the grant are denied, could the City be held liable financially for the $2.4 million subsidy? Without a full review of the regulations, it is impossible to give a full and comprehensive answer. For your information, I have been contacted by an attorney in touch with the handicapped group stating that there may be cause of action under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Other causes of action may also exist."

In other words, we still don't have an absolute answer for that question.

"3) Must the developer give the handicapped all subsidized units if sufficient handicap have applied and qualified? My understanding of the HODAG regulation is that the only requirement for rent subsidy is that it be given to low and moderate income persons. There is no condition in the regulation that these apartments only be rented to handicapped persons.

For a full and complete review of this matter to take place, I request Council delay action on this bill."

That's the end of the letter. So, in essence, all three questions are still somewhat outstanding.

I'm not going to make a motion to delay action because I know that there are limitations and I don't think there are the votes on this Council to delay action anyway. Every Councilmember wants to either vote it up or vote it down.

What decision have I reached and where am I going to vote based on all that information? As several of my colleagues have indicated, it's a very difficult decision. What I have tried to get both sides to reach here was some degree of compromise. There has been movement towards compromise with an eight-story structure but it's not what the neighborhood wants. The neighborhood, I think, wants seven stories and they want input into the design. The developer won't go for seven stories for financial reasons; the City won't come up with the dollars to help the developer.

So, is eight stories better than nine? Well, it's probably about 10 percent less in height and it certainly is moving in that direction. It's an important point because really in making my decision, is one story the difference between voting yes or voting no. That is a difficult decision.

Based on all the other information that surrounds the issue, information relating to the need for housing, information relating to the need for the handicapped, and the fact that there has been some degree of movement by the developer in the height of the building, leads me to making a decision as to how I'm voting on the issue. The people that are still opposed to this will not like my decision, the neighborhood, and I have to accept that. And I respect them a lot because I think they are very knowledgeable people. I think they present a good issue. They won't like my decision but I feel because there has been compromise, because we don't live in an ideal world, and I don't think there can ever be an absolute total agreement on this issue, this Council has to take a position. For that reason, I am taking the position of voting for it, voting in the affirmative, and obviously I think if I'm voting that way I would like all of Council to consider voting that way.

I believe that there will be some input into the design of the structure. It's smaller and if there can be input by the neighborhood into the eight-story design, we can meet almost all of the concerns that are on the table. The one that we won't meet is another story, in the height, and I believe we can work around that, I believe it can incorporate the concerns of the neighborhood, it can enhance the neighborhood, it can provide some jobs in the construction of the building, it can provide some taxes for the people that live there and rent there, it can provide some housing for the handicapped. For that reason, I support Bill No. 734 with the commitment that it is an eight-story structure and that it houses the handicapped.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I think the only reason this bill is before us today is because last Wednesday at the Committee Session I made a point of indicating a compromise possibly could be reached if Council was forced to vote and took a position.

Well, I think as of this point that compromise has not yet been reached and I think though the parties are getting closer, as Councilman Wagner and Councilman Pollock have indicated, and I know if I can read this Council correctly, this bill is going to die today and I'll be voting against it also if we must vote on it today.

But I think perhaps we owe it one more chance for that compromise to be reached where the neighborhood can say yes, this is a desirable project and we'd like to have it where the developers can meet the needs of the neighborhood.

So, I would move that we recommit this bill.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Discussion on the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe I'm in order and correct me if I'm not, Mr. President, on the motion. I believe that Robert's Rules and Rules of Ethics in Council is that if you have a conflict and you abstain, you're not even allowed to discuss it. You can only abstain. There was no conflict until my integrity was impuned; therefore, I am abstaining.

The Chair:

In my opinion, you have no conflict.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, in regards to the recommittal, I believe there is a time element here and I'd like to be made aware of what it is and how long. How long are we going to hold this or how long are we going to recommit it? If we have a week or two like I was led to believe at the hearing the other day, then we can't very well recommit the bill.

The Chair:

I believe and I know no one in the audience is allowed to speak up but you can nod your head, Paul. I think we have a few more weeks before you have to be into Washington, right? It's close but we have a couple weeks, Jeep.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I don't know if any further compromise can be obtained and I respect Councilman Grabowski's motion but what specifically can we do or what specifically can be done to reach a compromise and why should we vote to hold the bill if we can't reach further compromise?

To my understanding, we have come as far as we can go with the compromise unless further additional public dollars are injected into the project. I, for one, am not prepared to vote to put additional public dollars in the project.

The Chair:

I'd just like to add this. If they go with eight floors, according to this letter, you're going to put additional public funds in the construction.

Secondly, what bothers me most of all is when they came in with this project with the community support, it was four stories and out of the blue it became nine. If they compromise down to eight, I think the neighborhood only wants seven. Why couldn't they go one more? They've already gone twice plus one above what they came into this Council with, what was approved by this Council. So now they're coming in with eight because you voted it down on Wednesday. The community would accept seven which is still three more, or 75 percent more, than the original proposal in height.

I believe that sensible people can get together and say, listen, we've already gone twice plus one, we're giving them one back. Maybe, like Mr. Grabowski said, we can negotiate again and get it down to seven and everybody will be happy for another week or two. I don't know. But remember, when they came to Council it was only four and then it went to nine and that's a hell of a mis-que if you're estimating or if you're doing the drawing.

Mr. O'Malley:

I agree with my colleague, Councilman Grabowski, that this issue deserves at least one more week. I know it's been hard on the community, it has torn apart the community because many of the people over there have always supported the handicapped, have always been in favor of the handicapped.

I think we will see some movement if given one more week. I don't think the proposal by the Misticks to come down to eight stories is going to be acceptable. I think they are going to have to come down to seven stories. But I was also going to have to vote against the proposal for the simple reason that we encourage people to move into the community and we encourage people to have some control over the destiny and the course that that community takes and I think this should be especially true for the East Allegheny neighborhood where many of the people have bought and rehabilitated older structures. I think this Council has always had the policy of supporting community groups.

I will support Councilman Grabowski's motion to give them one more week and I think that the Misticks are realizing that they don't have the votes for the UDAG grant or the $2.4 million and hopefully this will force a compromise between the two sides.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, as I said earlier, I believe its beyond compromise. And for the benefit of the Councilmembers who weren't at the meeting the other day there was some discussion that if the HODAG grant came through that the developer might renig and might not put up the apartments for the handicapped. I asked the question specifically of City officials, I believe URA officials, what would happen if that did happen and they said that obviously the money wouldn't be forthcoming. Therefore, the money no doubt doesn't come in until the project is completed. So, there's no way in the world that that apartment could be built without being handicapped apartments and Mr. Mistick still gets the money.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, I think we've agonized over this long enough. I don't think there will be any more compromise; I think we ought to vote on it today one way or the other.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Grabowski Mr. Pollock
Mr. O'Malley

AYES 3 NOES 4

VOTING NO:

Mr. DePasquale Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff Mr. Woods
 (Pres't)

(MR. GIVENS AND MICHELLE MADOFF
ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

On the bill itself.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President and members of Council, as I indicated, if the recommittal motion failed, I'd be compelled to vote in the negative and I will be voting so on this bill. The reason is simply because this legislation would never have been before us in the first place if the neighborhood group did not agree to the original structure. And since it has changed and they have withdrawn their support, I don't feel that this deserves the City's support either.

Michelle Madoff:

As a point of information, we were asked to vote on declaring part of this area as a historic sight and I believe, if memory serves me well, I was the only one that voted. I have not seen anything in writing. I've been told that this historic society has approved of the plans but I have not seen any and I can't imagine why, when they wanted this area designated historic area and historic sight, they would want to disturb the nature of the low-rise, the single-story, the Georgetown, the old town flavor. And I would remind my colleagues that when we vote sometimes two years in advance it affects things that happen two years later.

Mr. Wagner:

Just one final comment, Mr. President, and that is that we don't live in a perfect world and life is compromise and probably no one knows that better than the handicapped. I believe that there has been some movement towards compromise, not enough to satisfy everyone, but I don't believe that there can be much more. For that reason, the issue demands that all of us make a tough decision and the tough decision may not be a popular decision but I think it's the right decision and that's the reason I'm voting no.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sitting here agonizing because I stated clearly that I walked into Council and found out that my integrity had been impuned. I would like to have a ruling, if it is possible, from the Parliamentarian whether my having indulged in hiring the contractor is indeed a conflict of interest. I've already stated that the bills were paid; I can prove that by getting my accountant or the checks to be proved, but a colleague said that I didn't pay my bills and I'm very upset about that as would any other member of this Council or any reporter. They would be upset at being singled out. Could I get a very quick ruling on that whether that becomes a conflict?

Parliamentarian:

It would have to go to the City Solicitor. It is not for the Parliamentarian.

The Chair:

I see no conflict of interest. They're not employed by you at this moment. Are you going to go on abstaining is you're on Council for another 20 years if they do work for the City?

Michelle Madoff:

You recall I praised them when they were appointed to the BOCA Code of Review; I voted for other things for them. I share very much the feeling that Mr. Wagner and Mr. Pollock have stated and I don't want to punish the people because I'm hurt and because my integrity has been impuned. If it is the feeling of my colleagues that I am not in violation of the Ethics Code because we can't get a quick ruling right now, today, I will let my personal hurt and the issue of my integrity being impuned put aside and I will probably be the swing vote that will make this thing happen because I like not to think that I let personal things affect my vote. I have never done that.

The Chair:

Okay, I think enough has been said on this subject and I would like to call for a roll call vote. And even though this has a negative recommendation, if you are in favor of Bill 734, signify by saying aye; if you are opposed, no.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes if you want it; no if you don't.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. Pollock
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff

AYES 5 NOES 4

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Woods (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, point of order. I would like to recommit this vote and the fact that we have already voted on it requires at least five votes to recommit. The fact that Michelle has done what she has done and the fact that I have abstained in that recommitment, I'd like an opportunity now before this Council to bring that vote back up. In order to do so, I'd like the Parliamentarian to come up and describe how I can do that before that body.

Mr. DePasquale:

That is completely out of order,

Mr. President.

Mr. Givens:

No it's not.

Mr. DePasquale:

Oh yes it is.

The Chair:

Please, let me run this meeting. I believe it is out of order but, Mr. Parliamentarian, am I right or wrong?

Parliamentarian:

I think it's out of order because it is disposed of the motion for reconsideration. That motion should have been made after the vote on the recommittal. Since it was not, it would then be out of order.

The Chair:

What's the difference between reconsideration and recommittal?

Mr. Givens:

Recommittal, that's what I was asking for.

Parliamentarian:

I thought you were talking reconsideration. It's too late for recommittal; the recommittal has been voted on.

Mr. Givens:

I abstained on the recommittal and that was an amendment to it. Now on the bill itself, I'm asking if the bill itself be recommitted based on the vote that just happened.

Parliamentarian:

Are you talking about changing your vote?

Mr. Givens:

Yes.

Parliamentarian:

Changing your vote to what?

Mr. Givens:

If I can get a recommittal.

Parliamentarian:

If you voted aye on the recommittal, it would still be —

The Chair:

He abstained on the recommittal.

Parliamentarian:

If you changed your vote to aye it would still only be 4-4-1.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle abstained and she said she would be willing to vote and I'm just wondering if it can be put under that consideration.

Mr. President, if I might, I just went to the Parliamentarian and said once the vote was acted upon, and I read the thing that it could be — what is the word you used?

Parliamentarian:

He's referring to, a member has the right to change his vote up to the time the result is announced. After that he can make the change only by permission by the assembly which can be given by general consent or by the adoption of a motion to grant the permission.

The Chair:

But the problem is, as I see it, we already voted on the bill. The bill has passed and a recommittal vote came up prior to that vote. So, the recommittal vote is history, it's done.

Mr. Givens:

Well, I was not understood by the Parliamentarian and the fact that an amendment is not the bill itself, number one. An amendment to recommit back into the Committee.

The Chair:

It wasn't amended, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

I know but that was a vote in itself. The bill itself was voted on and according to him, even though it has been voted on, that if any member of the body chooses to change his vote, he would have to ask the President to ask for reconsideration.

Parliamentarian:

Reconsideration has to be brought up right after the particular vote was taken.

The Chair:

You should have changed your vote immediately after, before the other vote was called. You could have changed at any time prior to that, Mr. Givens. But the other vote was taken and now you cannot change that vote.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, that's no different than me wanting to change a vote that happened a week ago.

Mr. Givens:

No, no.

Mr. DePasquale:

Oh yes it is. It's no different whatsoever.

Mr. Givens:

When the body is in session and during that particular Committee --

I'd like to say, Mr. President, when Jeep DePasquale was President, people, in fact, I had done so, during the deliberation of a particular meeting, not even in the Committee, this Committee is still up. This is not the last vote in this Committee and time after time after time all of us in this body have changed our vote when it was in that Committee. No one naturally can come back and do it after that but I think --

The Chair:

You're right, Mr. Givens, except for one thing. You're not changing your vote on the bill; you are changing your vote on a recommittal. Since that vote failed on the recommittal, then we voted on the bill. So the recommittal is dead. You can change your vote on the bill if you wish but not on the recommittal.

Mr. Givens:

Okay, can I change the -- I'll ask the Parliamentarian then. Could I ask that the bill be amended?

The Chair:

No. The bill has passed. You can't amend the bill.

Mr. Givens:

Well this is still the reconsideration of something that I think all of us have an opportunity to do, and that's what I'm asking, that the bill be reconsidered, and in that reconsideration, to bring it back up on the floor again, I will put an amendment before the bill..

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, even if you were permitted under the rules to change your vote on the recommittal, it would only come out 4-4-1. There still wouldn't be enough votes to recommit it.

Michelle Madoff:

Unless I changed my vote.

The Chair:

Unless you changed your vote. But we cannot honor that because we already voted on the bill.

I'm making the ruling, if you want to change your vote on the bill, fine. But on the recommittal, you cannot change your vote on the recommittal, nobody can, because we voted on the bill. That's the way I have to rule.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1354

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the implementation of a Residential Permit Parking Program in the Bloomfield Community pursuant to Pittsburgh Code, Chapter 549."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill 1354, a resolution providing for the implementation of residential permit parking in the Bloomfield community, I see many of the people, Mr. President, from the Bloomfield area and apparently there must have been a misunderstanding. I have to ask the Chief Clerk, when this bill was put back on for a vote Wednesday, was the neighborhood notified that there would be no public hearing on this particular bill? It was requested, if you can remember, two weeks ago that it be placed for a public hearing. That was a mistake. We corrected that mistake.

The bill then was put up again this Wednesday, we made a preliminary vote on it, but the people in the neighborhood apparently didn't get the word that there was no public hearing required. That's what they're here for today.

So, if I might speak to the people there, Mr. President --

Mr. DePasquale:

Was it passed Wednesday?

Mr. Givens:

Yes. It passed Wednesday, this is the final vote. Permit parking is going through in Bloomfield. Sorry that you had to come down here and go through all this but we appreciate it anyway.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1123

An Ordinance, "Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title 10-Building, Chapter 1007, Section 513, et. seq - Special Historic Buildings and Districts, by providing for protection during the designation process, by providing for administrative approvals and by providing for the procedure to be followed when there is an exception to the effects of designation." —
(SPONSORED BY MR. POLLOCK)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, on Bill 1123, Section 513.3, changes to read as follows, on the first page, "If the nomination is submitted to Council, Council would transmit the nomination to the Historical Review Commission and the City Planning Commission with the request that they study the matter and make recommendations on the subject designation."

Is this saying, I don't think it is but I don't have the whole Code in front of me, does it say that we're giving up our right to designate a City area —

Mr. Pollock:

No, no. That's the same way the process has always worked. It always went to the Historic Review Commission and they make a recommendation to us. We have the final vote.

The Chair:

Okay, because it's underlined like it's a change.

Mr. Pollock:

The language is changed but it's the same process.

The Chair:

Okay.

Bill No. 1371

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for architectural/engineering services in connection with the design of roof rehabilitation at various City facilities; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, on Bill No. 1371, we continually use consultants to go out and tell us when we need a new roof on our buildings. We employ two full-time roofers in this City. However, we are allocating here with this legislation $25,000 to go out and to look at these roofs and I personally feel it's an allocation of dollars that is not necessary. Our own engineers, our own roofers and roofing companies that bid on these projects can be properly advising us and therefore we can be saving those dollars.

I've complained about this since I've been on Council; I will continue to. All we really have to do is let our own people do the work and save some dollars and for that reason I'm voting against

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1492 WHEREAS, in 1785 a wagon carrying a second-hand printing press set out from Philadelphia heading for the settlement of Pittsburgh, then still an undeveloped community in the wilderness; and

WHEREAS, on July 29, 1786, a four page weekly paper called the "Pittsburgh Gazette" was printed in a primitive shop by John Scull, its founder and editor, along with Joseph Hall his fellow printer, producing approximately 700 copies during that first day; and

WHEREAS, the young newspaper had to struggle to obtain fees in hard currency from subscribers and advertisers, often accepting wheat, corn and fur pelts for payment; and

WHEREAS, high among its editorial priorities was support for passage of the American Constitution, proudly printing the full text of the Constitution once Congress voted in favor of passage in 1787; and

WHEREAS, in 1840 the paper became a morning daily which published editorials opposing slavery; and

WHEREAS, on August 2, 1927 the publication appeared in print for the first time under the name "Post Gazette" under ownership of the Block family.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby join in celebrating the 200th Anniversary of the "Post Gazette", the first newspaper west of the Allegheny's.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Scull:

Thank you all very much. I'm glad you didn't call the roll call.

I want to say two things. One is, I hope, and all of you were invited, that you all came to the concert a week ago. That was really the last and kind of the culmination of the observations that were made in 200 years.

We were very pleased to have you there. I didn't get to see everybody; actually we had close to 3000 or 2000 people. But we appreciate your coming, we appreciate the chance to call it to your attention.

I just want to say one other thing. Bill Block who owns the newspaper with his brother Paul is not in the country right now. He is, if you know him, a very very modest, self effactive person. But I have take the occasion when we were before the County Commissioners to receive a similar commendation of congratulations to point out that Pittsburgh, it seems to me, is extraordinarily lucky to have a daily newspaper which is owned by an individual or a family, it's not part of a group, and is a person who owns the newspaper, the family is living in the City, the ownership is present there and takes an active interest. That is an additional asset. I would make a pitch that we're going to have the paper here for another 200 years and this is the sort of thing we need, we're going to need that kind of interest.

So, with that little speech, I want to thank you all very much again. It's been a pleasure.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1491 WHEREAS, the family and friends of Guy DeLuca are hosting a testimonial dinner at the Churchill Valley Country Club on Sunday evening, September 21, 1986 in honor of his longstanding reputation as the toastmaster of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, Guy was born in the Hill District, raised in Homewood, and currently resides in the Squirrel Hill neighborhood with his lovely wife, Margaret, devoting his time and energy to charitable causes; and

WHEREAS, Guy distinguished himself as a young man playing guard on the A.M. Thomas sandlot football team, which won the 1924 East End Lightweight Championship, before starting his career as a carpenter-contractor with Local 142; and

WHEREAS, Guy first displayed his lively musical talent as a banjo player in a five-piece local band which first performed at Poli's Restaurant on the balcony Guy built with his own hands; and

WHEREAS, as manager of several bowling allies in the Pittsburgh area, Guy also participated in tournaments, received three Dapper Dan Awards, and was selected to the Pennsylvania Bowlers' Hall of Fame, passing on his love of the sport to his son Guy "Buddy," Jr., the finest bowler ever to come out of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, he has been married to

"Maggie," the ideal wife and mother, for forty-eight years, and is the proud father of two children, Guy, Jr. and Myra, and has been blessed with five grandchildren.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaim the week of September 21 to September 27, 1986 as "Guy DeLuca Week" in the City of Pittsburgh in honor of his reputation as a friend to many and a man to all.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just wanted to say this resolution was presented to Mr. DeLuca last night at the Churchill Valley Country Club by myself. He was very touched; in fact, tears came to his eyes. He was very surprised. Guy is a rather modest man even though he can be quite boisterous. He was really touched and really happy to receive this resolution.

Mr. Pollock:

Jeep, he's a nice guy but did you have to give him a whole week? Why not a couple of days?

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1493 WHEREAS, The Jewish Chronicle of Pittsburgh was founded in March, 1962, representing a merger of the American Jewish Outlook and The Criterion; and

WHEREAS, for 25 years, The Jewish Chronicle has served the total metropolitan Pittsburgh community and currently has a circulation of more than 14, 500 homes; and

WHEREAS, The Jewish Chronicle is a leader in the American Jewish Press Association and has been honored locally and nationally; and

WHEREAS, The Jewish Chronicle is a highly respected community, non-profit newspaper committed to informing its readership of matters of local, national and international significance.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby congratulate and commend The Jewish Chronicle of Pittsburgh, its general manager, Albert Zecher, its executive editor, Joel Roteman and the entire staff of the Jewish Chronicle; and

BE IT FUTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaim September 28, 1986 to be "Jewish Chronicle 25th Anniversary Day" in the City of Pittsburgh and thank The Jewish Chronicle and all of its talented employees for their exceptional work.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, if I may. I was proud and privileged to be at the beginning of the Chronicle when they first started in the Oakland area in 1962. I was very active in the Oakland neighborhood at the time and they were very helpful with the cause that we had in Oakland at the time and I've always been a great supporter and admirer of the Jewish Chronicle.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1494 WHEREAS, the Federal Emergency Management Agency has suggested spending $1.5 billion on the construction of bomb shelters to house public officials during a nuclear attack; and

WHEREAS, that same federal agency has twice refused to fund repairs of public facilities in several neighboring communities of the North Hills which were ravaged by flooding earlier this summer; and

WHEREAS, such an expenditure of public monies to protect officials in the case of manmade disaster cannot be morally justified when government ignores the needs of hundreds of families victimized by natural disaster; and

WHEREAS, local public officials must share the plight of the citizens and direct survival activities in the horrible event of nuclear holocaust and not seek to hide for selfish survival.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby requests that the Federal Emergency Management Agency discontinue any plans to build bomb shelters for the protection of public officials and redirect these monies to more vital local uses.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

We can't get out of town over the bridges if it rains, never mind if it snows. What makes you think any public official or anyone would even get to a shelter? This is a piece of absurdity and you are absolutely right for catching it and I'd like to know how many dollars are involved that we might be able to put into helping the handicapped or some other things.

Mr. DePasquale:

Did they really expect us to believe they're going to spend $1.5 billion on a bomb shelter for public officials and no one else is allowed in?

I have news for you. There's a poker machine in Oakland; get under that one because it's never been hit. In case there's an attack you'll be safe there.

Mr. Pollock:

I agree with Jack for two reasons. First of all, the idea of having only elected officials in bomb shelters is a joke because —

Michelle Madoff:

All of us together is a joke.

Mr. Pollock:

Well, the point is that if there's no one out there living to govern, what the heck good is having governors?

It's comments like the credit card company. I don't know if any of you saw this or not. They sent out instructions —

Mr. DePasquale:

Wait a minute, Mark. Do we have to share a room in this?

Mr. Pollock:

That's what I'm saying. We might get stuck with Michelle in the same shelter.

Michelle Madoff:

You should be so lucky.

Mr. Pollock:

There was a credit card company that sent out notices as to how to use their cards in the event of a nuclear disaster. Picture these people walking around with the bomb going off knowing how to use their credit cards.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, the reason for this resolution is that it obviously is a misuse of taxpayer dollars. Even though they're federal funds, they're coming from our residents, our taxpayers, and I don't believe that they want us to spend dollars for that purpose.

In addition to that, we have trouble getting along together in public; I can imagine in a bomb shelter how bad it would be.

Michelle Madoff:

In a week, somebody would be dead.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, we're laughing a good bit about this resolution but I don't think it is a laughing matter. God forbid that this country is ever involved in a nuclear holocaust but if it is, I would certainly hope that someone in authority is left to direct the operations and perhaps this money is justified and needed. I mean, if there are people in Washington that are expected to direct the affairs of the country, I hope they survive to do it. I understand Councilman Wagner's intent, but I do not feel compelled to support this resolution.

Mr. Pollock:

Steve, do you need instructions on how to use your credit card once the bomb comes down?

The Chair:

Thank you. One opposed on the resolution.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

I have some business of my own; I'm going to rearrange some committees. I am putting Ms. Madoff on General Services, Mr. Grabowski on Planning, Housing and Development, and Mr. Pollock on Water.

Michelle Madoff:

Hot water?

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'd like to make a comment on our moment of peace. We did have a movement that came through the City of Pittsburgh last Thursday, a peace movement, that started in California where myself and the Mayor went down and spoke before. It was a very interesting group. They got stalled, of all places, in the Mohave Desert, next to the Flight Test Center Air Force out there in the middle of the Mohave Desert and surprising the Air Force people had gone out and accommodated them very well. And as I spoke to them last week, for the record right here, the military people who are in arms want peace more than anyone else. Speak to any combat person and they'll give you that word.

With that out of the way, we have two resolutions that we would like to submit out of order. One is Jack Wagner and the other is Mark Pollock.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you, Mr. Givens. .

I'd like to ask former Councilman, Bill Robinson, and also Reverend Clifton Ruggs to please step forward for this resolution. It's good to see our former colleague back here today.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1530 WHEREAS, the Reverend Clifton Ruggs will celebrate his 10th pastoral anniversary as the minister of Saint Luke Baptist Church on Saturday,

October 4, 1986 and Sunday October 5, 1986; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Ruggs has earned the degrees of Bachelor of Theology, Masters of Theology and Doctor of Ministry; and

WHEREAS, Minister Ruggs received his call to pastor The Great Saint Luke Baptist Church in December of 1975 and was installed on April 4, 1976; and

WHEREAS, under his outstanding leadership The Saint Luke Baptist Church has continued its role of community service and improved its physical and spiritual foundations; and

WHEREAS, his outstanding service as an officer in the Allegheny Union Baptist Association and the Pennsylvania Baptist Conference have been both a credit to the civic and religious community of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, for more than a quarter century Reverend Clifton Ruggs has faithfully pursued his dedication to service for mankind.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of its citizens does honor and recognize the past and present service to our city by the Reverend, Doctor Clifton Ruggs and does congratulate The Saint Luke Baptist Church and the Ruggs family on the occasion of Reverend Ruggs' 10th pastoral anniversary.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

What I'd like to do is introduce former Councilman Bill Robinson who will then introduce Reverend Ruggs. I'd just like to say, Bill, it's good to see you back here in Council and please say a few words for us.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President Pro tem, and members of Council, and especially Councilman Wagner, it is indeed a pleasure to be here. Not only am I here as a former member of Council, but as a trustee of the Saint Luke Baptist Church. We at Saint Luke are very honored to have Reverend Ruggs as our minister but moreso we believe the Pittsburgh community is honored to have a man of his distinguished capabilities serve our community.

Without further ado, I introduce to you the Reverend Doctor Clifton Ruggs.

Reverend Ruggs:

Thank you, Mr. Robinson, to the President of Council, Honorable Ben Woods, to all the members of Pittsburgh City Council. There's a gratitude for your wishes and message today. I thank you for this very fine tribute during my 10th anniversary of the Pastor of the Saint Luke Baptist Church.

Something about the history of the church; it has been in existence since 1923. It is now located on Herron Avenue in the City of Pittsburgh, the most liveable city in our country.

I appreciate this honor that has been bestowed upon me and I want to express my thanks and gratitude to you and all the members of Council and especially in the presence of one of our very fine trustees of our church and former member of City Council, Mr. William Russell Robinson. And I also convey the thanks of all the members of the Saint Luke Baptist Church and my prayers will be with you that God shall always be with you and direct your feet in the path of righteousness and I shall endeavor in the years to come as a preacher of the Gospel in the path of the Saint Luke Baptist Church and a citizen of this great city, to try to make Pittsburgh a better place to live.

Thank you.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Thank you.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1529 WHEREAS, the Afghanistan - U.S.S.R. conflict has left many Afghans in dire need of medical attention; and

WHEREAS, "Free Afghanistan" is a Washington, D.C. based, non-profit organization which provides airfare and visas for people in need of medical attention as a result of the Afghanistan - U.S.S.R. conflict; and

WHEREAS, Hazrat Khan is a 9-year old victim of said conflict who is in need of extensive surgical procedures, and Hazrat's mother and sisters were killed in said bombing and his father is still missing; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Timothy Janeway, an orthopedic surgeon at Shadyside Hospital is responsible for arranging the plans to have Hazrat come to Pittsburgh for these necessary surgical procedures; and

WHEREAS, "Free Afghanistan" paid for the airfare and the Shadyside Hospital staff provided free medical care; and

WHEREAS, Hazrat is the sixth person Shadyside Hospital has treated in the past year from Afghanistan.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh congratulate "Free Afghanistan" and Dr. Timothy Janeway and other members of the Shadyside Hospital staff for their worthy undertaking and hope for the speedy recovery of this courageous young man, Hazrat Khan.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I just want to thank Dr. Timothy Janeway; he will say a few words.

It's unfortunate that this has been going on and I, along with many other people in the community, did not know anything about it. It's a very beautiful undertaking and Dr. Timothy Janeway and the Committee and the Hospital staff, those that are here as well as those not here, are really to be commended.

I want to say, after Dr. Janeway speaks, Hazrat will speak. It's a treat to have him here; this is a charming kid and I wish he was 18 so he could run for this office himself. He would win in a minute.

Dr. Janeway:

I'd like to thank very much Shadyside Hospital for their tremendous support in this undertaking. The Hospital and the medical staff have freely donated services and have donated much time, all the doctors, without any charge, and they have been very, very supportive.

Afghanistan is one of those unfortunate countries we'd just don't read too much about nowadays. It's more attractive to talk about a lot of other areas in the world. But in Afghanistan, a country free and independent of 14 million people, there is something like 2 to 3 million people outright killed and another 3 to 4 million people that are refugees both in Iran and in Pakistan. It is not just that the Russians are shooting the fighters and fighting against the fighters, they're taking the country and making a scorched earth policy, such that they take little guys like this in the village that have nothing to do with the conflict between grown men, and indiscriminately bombing those villages, destroying the children and destroying the crops in order to get at the Freedom Fighters who only want to have the independence of their own country.

It's nice to know that Pittsburgh is supportive of this. It would be nice to know that our whole country is more supportive and I think that all of this points towards what we in the United States stand for which is freedom of determination, freedom to have your country and to live free in it. And this is what we would hope that this little guy and his country ultimately sometime would have once again.

Thank you.

Hazrat Khan:

Hello. Thank you. My name is Hazrat, I'm in Shadyside Hospital as a patient.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you get any toys?

Hazrat Khan:

Yes, and they take good care of me. The nurses are nice and the doctors are nice. I've already had one surgery and I'll do my other surgery later sometime and I hope I get to walk sometime and go back and fight for my country.

Thank you.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Needless to say, that was a very moving presentation that I think shows the beauty of this country where our own medical profession reaches out and helps people throughout the world.

We have another presentation by Mr. DePasquale.

Mrs. Masloff and Mr. DePasquale present

No. 1527 WHEREAS, John Brickley has recently retired from ten years of service as President of the Veteran Firemen's Association; and,

WHEREAS, John worked through four decades as a Pittsburgh firefighter before his retirement from the Bureau in 1968, beginning as a regular hoseman and earning promotions to Captain, Battalion Chief, and Chief Engineer of Fire Prevention; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Brickley was one of the principal formulators of the present Pittsburgh Fire Code, an expert in hydraulics, and an outstanding leader for the rights and benefits of retired firefighters; and,

WHEREAS, John Brickley

continued the working tradition of his father, who was one of the original members of Pittsburgh Firefighters Local #1, and has seen his profession furthered in the lives of his two sons who serve as Pittsburgh Firefighters;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby offer our heartfelt congratulations to John Brickley for the completion of an exemplary career as a firefighter and representative of firefighters in the City of Pittsburgh for the past fifty-five years; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we wish him a joyful and productive retirement.

Mrs. Masloff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Is anybody from the Brickley family here? Well we'll see that John gets this.

As I ready, he's been a long-time firefighter and a long-time fighter for the retired firefighters and a close personal friend of mine and Sophie's and I presume most of the Councilmembers here. No one is more deserving than John Brickley.

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1526 WHEREAS, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) is the sudden death of an infant or young child, which is unexpected and in which a thorough postmortem examination confirms the diagnosis of SIDS and establishes that no previously unsuspected abnormality or other disease process was present; and

WHEREAS, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, commonly known as "crib death", is a disease which causes approximately 8000 deaths a year in the United States as the number one cause of infant death after the first month of life, and SIDS has no symptoms and cannot be prevented, even by a physician because this tragic syndrome strikes without warning, leaving parents devastated; and

WHEREAS, concerned individuals and parents who have lost children to this disease have banded together to promote research on SIDS and also educate the public on the nature of the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome; and

WHEREAS, it is vitally important that people who experience the tragedy of SIDS seek comfort and counseling from well-informed as well as compassionate individuals and services such as are provided by the Greater Pittsburgh Chapter of the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation; and

WHEREAS, it is vitally important to provide education for people who deal with SIDS as a part of their jobs: nurses, doctors, coroners, EMT's, rescue squads, police officers, social workers, and others;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, do hereby proclaim the month of October, SIDS AWARENESS MONTH in the City of Pittsburgh, and call upon all its citizens to support and promote medical research that addresses this tragic syndrome and to observe this occasion in other fitting ways.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

It goes without saying that this is a sickness or a disease that strikes very quickly and we don't hear too much about it. It the kind of stuff they like to sweep under the carpet. But it's there and it's a real tragedy and it's about time that somebody really did something about it.

This is Kay Falkenhan, she is the President of the organization, and Karen Ebert.

Ms. Falkenhan:

Thank you very much, Mr. DePasquale, and thank you ladies and gentlemen for once again declaring October as SIDS Awareness Month in Pittsburgh. Our City is going to be the host very soon, starting October 9th, of a very important conference, the Eastern Regional Conference of the National Sudden Infant Death Syndrom Foundation. It will be Pittsburgh's opportunity to hear first hand from the nation's top researchers in SIDS and also to hear from three doctors at our own McGee Hospital who just received a very sizeable grant to do SIDS research. You're all invited to attend; anybody that would like more information can call our office at 481-1410.

I wish I could tell you that things have changed dramatically since I stood here last year; unfortunately, I can't. More children will die of SIDS again this year than will die of Syctic Fibrosis, childhood cancer, childhood heart disease, or child abuse, combined. SIDS, or crib death, is still the number one cause of death in infants from one month to one year of life. World-wide incidents of SIDS last year, 1985, was 257,000. A quarter of a million families knew the pain of losing a part of their future. The death of one small baby touches far more than the immediate family; it touches relatives, neighbors, friends, co-workers, and that host of professionals that was mentioned in the proclamation. Unfortunately, the loss of the child is very much a community event.

In spite of tremendous efforts, the statistics just don't change. We have begun to understand SIDS; we now know that SIDS babies are subtly different from normal babies, even before they are born. They develop more slowly in utero, and they continue to grow and develop more slowly after birth. Their hearts beat faster and they breath faster, but these differences are so slight and so subtle that even the most astute and caring physician cannot yet identify a victim, a potential victim of SIDS. But we're getting there. With continued research we will be able to determine what babies are at risk of SIDS and if we can do that we've taken the first step towards preventing it. Until that happens though, until SIDS is eliminated, the families will continue to be the true victims of SIDS. They need to know that their community cares about the loss of their child and they truly need to know that it is known and understood that SIDS is still unpredictable and unpreventable.

This proclamation means an awful lot to the families here in Allegheny County who lost children to SIDS this past year. For them, for Karen, for Christen, and for myself, I thank you.

The Chair, pro tem:

Thank you all for coming.

Mr. DePasquale presented

No. 1497 Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Repairs to Overlooks on Grandview Avenue, at a cost not to exceed $20,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account EC 86-35.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Engineering and Construction.

Mr. DePasquale moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Grabowski seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, please. We cannot discuss an issue that's going to be presented before us.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, it's being presented and they want to move it up and I want to discuss why we should not move it up.

The Chair, Pro tem:

There is no discussion on a matter that is being presented before the Council. It will come up this Wednesday for discussion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President Pro tem, may I get a ruling from the Parliamentarian as to whether we can discuss —

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, I don't want to rule you out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

May I get a ruling from the Parliamentarian? The question is, may I oppose a bill being waived Rule 8 for a reason and then give my reason?

Parliamentarian:

There's a motion on the floor. On the discussion, it cannot go to the bill but only to the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I will only go to the motion. The reason why I would respectfully ask the President Pro tem not to move it up a week but to wait the normal time is that I have a bill that was defeated some time ago dealing with the overlooks and we are now starting in many areas to do just what my bill originally stated which is essentially having corporations maintain the overlooks, have their names but not diminish the names of the people that are being honored. As a matter of fact, their names could be put out and visible where they are not now visible on the overlooks. I need some time to have the bill pulled, for Mike Perry to get the bill out and all the copy and all the data and all the transcripts of why it was defeated, how it was defeated, and I don't think I can do that between now and Wednesday. It would be too much work for the City Clerk and his assistant to get all that data so I'd like to wait the normal time.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, I appreciate your viewpoints. This bill is being presented in Engineering and Construction; it's for the repairs of the overlooks and Grandview Avenue and I don't think we can hold it up. I would not want any liability to come on the City of Pittsburgh. I know what you're talking about; you wanted some of the appropriations etc. to try to deal in with that. I don't think that has any bearing, however, on this total bill.

Michelle Madoff:

We have to pay for it; it has a lot of bearing.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Well, if Wednesday when we discuss that, if you have some corporations that want to come forward, then we'll be happy to entertain them repairing those particular sites.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think I could arrange it by Wednesday.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I personally feel this bill is properly presented and should be waived on Section 8. And with that in mind, is there any other discussion on that?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Givens and members of Council, I strongly suggest that we put the bill on the agenda. Those overlooks are deteriorating, residents have been complaining to us about them, and it's important that we move forward and have them repaired prior to inclement weather.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I agree with you, Jack.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond, please? I have no problem with getting the work done. I would only like to have the opportunity to get the material pulled to show that we could save taxpayers' dollars by having corporations' get indemnity by maintaining these overlooks and save the taxpayers a great deal of money in these times where our money is being shut off.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, you can state your case on Wednesday when the bill comes up to Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Mike, you have an assignment between now and Wednesday; pull everything, the transcript, everything.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 1521

Report of the Committee on Finance for September 24, 1986 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1390

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing issuance of a warrant in the amount of $11,500.00 in favor of Casciato Brothers, 4748 Child Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15236, in payment for emergency clean up of collapsed wall at 420 N. Aiken Avenue, Ward 11-04, without previous authority of law and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale:

In regards to Bill 1390, even though the work has already been done, I move to recommit. It is rumored, in fact, it's almost fact, that Casciato Brothers is one of the companies that may be called in and questioned on the bid rigging and if there is an indictment there I don't think we should be paying for work of someone that is in that type of business. I'm not saying he is or isn't; that's none of my business, it's the Grand Jury. But it's the City's business when we're paying somebody that got involved in that type of stuff. And if he did, he shouldn't get paid; if he didn't, that's that. So, I move to recommit Bill No. 1390.

Mr. Grabowski seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I think we're all dealing from questions we were asked by the media or what appeared in the newspaper. I think it's incumbent upon this Council to have Mr. Imhoff who I believe handles our demolition jobs supply this Council with the tab sheets, who bid, so we could take a look at how the process came to be.

It's interesting today we voted to change the final figure on the fire station on the North Side. Talk about demolition rip-offs, Crown Wrecking —

The Chair, Pro tem:

Please, we're on Bill 1390. Mr. DePasquale indicated his concern, it has been so addressed —

Michelle Madoff:

You cannot just say you're concerned with one company; I think we ought to look at the whole picture, the whole ball of wax, and this Council should be brought up to date and to be informed as soon as possible as to who was involved, what role the City played in it, if any, and what is the story so we don't get our facts second and third hand. We should be knowing what the details are since we are the ones that vote for these contracts. They are letter bids that go out for demolition jobs, they go in rotation sometimes, and they are just negotiated. I think the process ought to be reviewed with this Council.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, that's why we're going to discuss that Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to have a post agenda scheduled to discuss the whole ball of wax. And as soon as possible.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Your request will so be honored.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President Pro tem and members of Council, do these allegations involve the particular job that we're referring to in Bill No. 1390 which is the wall collapse on North Aiken?

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, Mr. President. No, Jack, that was an emergency job, not a bid job. Somebody called Casciato and he came out and did it.

Mr. Wagner:

I would just like to say, if they don't involve this particular project, I think we should move forward on the legislation and if we don't I think we are placing ourselves in a position of liability if we don't move on the legislation. If it involved another project with the same contractor, I could see holding the piece of legislation, but not this contract.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, if I may. I have to interject here. On second thought, Mr. Wagner is probably absolutely correct and I withdraw that motion to recommit.

Mr. Grabowski:

I withdraw my second.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Okay, the motion and the second are withdrawn.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1412 which is the issue that I raised and was confirmed that we are really not doing everything we can to acquire repossessed equipment which is part of our new legislation and I would like my comments brought forward as part of the permanent record and I will vote no as a protest vote until we get our act straightened out.

(MICHELLE MADOFF'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1412, - WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER, 24, 1986)

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. What is the extra equipment?

Mr. Kraszewski:

It is for rental accounts when we are in our peak season to supplement our construction program. We own a lot of equipment in our Heavy Equipment Division, but this is just to get us through the peak season, highlifts and stuff like that.

Michelle Madoff:

What ever happened to the equipment you were going to buy from repossessions? Could you buy some of the equipment that was repossessed at great prices and keep it around because your equipment breaks down from time to time that is not in peak season? I have talked about that for about six years.

Mr. Kraszewski:

We were pursuing that, with your urging, and the last time we advertised we have advertised new or used, I believe and there didn't seem to be much interest in from the vendors point of view; so we have to explore that.

Michelle Madoff:

And I will tell you why there is no interest because they don't read the fine print that you need a magnifying glass and glasses. The people that do buy the repossession from corporations that have gone out of business or have moved out of here. For example, you built and electric arc which is brand new and you then you don't operate it. The equipment is brand new; it's probably still in warranty, but they are not going to answer your little add because they probably don't even see it. You have to make an conservative effort to go out to the companies that have repossessed equipment and that goes from typewriters, office furniture, you can get equipment that we couldn't afford to buy for the city, executive equipment for pennies on the dollar and if we are going to go ahead for this kind of thing, item for item, I am not going to vote for it and I am going to protest by not voting for it now to get you a message. The others can vote for and I am sure it will pass, but please would you tell Mr. Gaetano and all else and there is a list and we have prepared a list at one time of all the companies that deal and I just can't think of some of their names right now in repossessed equipment.

All the companies that sell the equipment take them back from companies that have gone out of business for one reason or another and in many cases it is still in warranty. Certainly it is a lot better than some of our backhoes that are 17 years old at the Water Department that we keep renting and paying repairs; it would be so much more cost effective to go out and buy something that is in good shape and I talked to the Mayor about it over four years ago and he said it was a good idea he would assign someone to just go out and look at equipment and what we need to do and perhaps if you would meet with Paul McDermott and George Jacoby and see whether we can find such a person. Everybody is in agreement but nobody is doing it.

Mr. Kraszewski:

We have met with George Jacoby on this matter in the past, but you are right, nothing has been finalized on these terms.

Michelle Madoff:

The point is you don't know how to go about it; you can't just put an RP and say well, respond. I mean you do letter bids, you have always done it and there is nothing wrong with sending a letter out with specific companies who deal in repossession. I can give you the name of the person who can give you everyone of the companies who deals with it. Her name is Donna Williams, she is at Westinghouse Credit and she will give you the names of the people who do the repossession and are dying and eager to sell the repossessed as well as the new and of course, they will try to sell you the new. You can ask can I have a list of the — you can put a notice in asking for a list of the repossessed equipment each month from the companies and pick what you want from it and then ask to bid on that specific item because it will be on the list already.

Mr. Kraszewski:

I agree with what you are saying, but I think what we are really talking about is the adoption of a city-wide policy and not an individual department.

Michelle Madoff:

I couldn't agree with you more, but I am going to use this as an example and not vote for it.

Mr. Kraszewski:

I understand.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like this carried forward to Monday's notes please? This is like six years of this our four years of this and the answer for me is no, I am opposed.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1478

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1057, effective November 25, 1985, which provides 'authorizing the Mayor, the Director of the Department of City Planning, the Director of the Department of Public Works, the Director of the Department of Water, the Director of the Department of Finance, for and on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh, to enter into a Cooperation Agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh for the Redevelopment of the Pennsylvania/Brighton portion of the Pennsylvania/Kirkbride Redevelopment Area Project, being Redevelopment Area No. 49 located in portions of the 22nd and 25th Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, providing for the conveyance to the Authority of certain property, the vacation of certain rights of way and the conveyance to the Authority of vacated rights of way, the acceptance of dedication of new street, sewers and waterline, changes in zoning, non-discrimination in the use of public facilities and the transfer of funds to undertake redevelopment activities' to provide for the acquisition of additional public owned property."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Will you clarify where that property is. I wanted to know if that was the Mistick area; I am being told it is not. What is that property for? Would somebody tell me? Does anybody know?

Mr. Grabowski:

I know it's for redevelopment but the Misticks, to the best of my knowledge, have not —

Michelle Madoff:

I'm just curious if it was the same property because it sounds like the same area. What is this being held for, for what kind of development? Do we know that?

Mr. Grabowski:

A light industrial park.

Michelle Madoff:

A light industrial park in that area. Do the residents want a light industrial park in that area?

Mr. Grabowski:

Yes. In fact, this Council appropriated some $800,000 to help this project last year.

Michelle Madoff:

And we're just going ahead with the infrastructure.

Mr. Grabowski:

No, this is giving additional public property to the URA so they're actually the ones handling it.

Michelle Madoff:

But it's for infrastructure. Everybody that was named does the infrastructure, water, sewer lines, etc. Just so I know what I'm voting on. Thank you.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to change my vote, if I may, please. I'd like to abstain.

The Chair, Pro tem:

According to Robert's Rule of Order and according to last week's debate, you cannot change your vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Hold on just one moment, please.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'll direct it to the Parliamentarian. Can anyone change their vote, Mr. Parliamentarian?

Michelle Madoff:

We haven't finished the vote yet.

Parliamentarian:

Under Robert's Rules, once the vote is declared, it's too late to change the vote.

The Chair, Pro tem:

The vote has been declared.

Michelle Madoff:

The vote hasn't been declared.

Mr. DePasquale:

Do you mean to tell me you can't change your vote?

The Chair, Pro tem:

Excuse me, anybody speaking before this body please address the President and I will direct whether you can speak or can't speak. Too many people are trying to talk at one time. Michelle, you have the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

I think there's some confusion, Mr. President. What happened in the previous issue when you tried to change a vote was that we were already on to a second bill and you wanted to go back to a previous bill. We're still on the same bill and while we're doing a roll call, as Mr. DePasquale said, what if you said yes when you meant no. We often have that happen because sometimes a yes means no and a no means yes.

I did ask for more information; I abstained at that time based on what's happening, people wanting to get certain pieces of property being told they couldn't get them. I did not have enough information. And I still feel it would be appropriate for me to abstain until I'm clear on that. So, I would like to abstain on my vote on 1478.

The Chair, Pro tem:

The Parliamentarian so ruled that you cannot do it once the bills are read and final action has been taken and voted upon. Everyone voted on it, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

No, we are allowed to change our vote while the vote is still going on on the bill. The issue that you were ruled out of order on was two bills later; you couldn't go back to a previous bill.

The Chair, Pro tem:

It was one bill later but that's —

Michelle Madoff:

This is not one bill later; we're still on the same bill.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'll stop debate on this. Mr. Parliamentarian, what is the ruling? Can she or can she not change her vote?

Parliamentarian:

The ruling stands except with consent of the body. If the body consents to her changing the rule on her vote on things that have immediately been passed, she can do it.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, then do you want to challenge the Chair and ask for the whole body to reconsider?

Michelle Madoff:

One moment please. Mr. President, I believe the Parliamentarian is a little premature. We have not announced the total vote yet. You were in the process of doing it when I wanted to change my vote.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'll stop you right there. Chief Clerk, where were we in the recall of the vote?

Mr. Perry:

The vote was given and the presentation from Mrs. Masloff was asked for. So the vote was given, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay then I'm asking whether, before we go to the next bill, whether I'm allowed to change my vote and the answer is only with the permission of the body. Then I'm asking the Chair to ask the body if I may change my vote.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just wanted to say, and I refer this to the Chief Clerk, there have been times, Mike, when we already voted and started out of the room when you had said to me when I was President of Council that someone wanted to vote the other way and was going to change their vote. And we did on more than one occasion. You, yourself, Mr. Givens, were the person on a couple of occasions who decided to change your vote after, and we did change that vote.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I might say, Jeep, that I brought that same argument up last week and I was ruled out.

Mr. DePasquale:

You went back two bills, Dick. We're talking about the present bill. I'm not disputing with the Parliamentarian, I'm just saying it's been done before. In fact, in this case here, it doesn't change the vote anyway. I think she would be the only dissenting vote.

Michelle Madoff:

It's the issue that's more important than the vote right now.

Mr. DePasquale:

That's what I'm saying.

The Chair, Pro tem:

The Parliamentarian so indicated that you have to appeal to the body to waive Council's rule, I would assume, to let you change your vote before the Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, on the vote last week —

The Chair, Pro tem:

Do you have a motion, Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

I did make a motion to ask you to —

The Chair, Pro tem:

Is there a second to that motion?

Mrs. Masloff:

I second the motion.

The Chair:

All in favor? Opposed?

No one is opposed.

Michelle Madoff:

I change my vote to abstain on Bill 1478.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Grabowski presents

No. 1528 WHEREAS, on Sunday, October 5, 1986, the parishioners of Guardian Angels Church are celebrating their 75th Anniversary of service to the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh and the West End-Elliott community; and

WHEREAS, the Guardian Angels Parish was established in 1911 by Polish families from the West End to preserve their national heritage and language in their Roman Catholic religious worship; and

WHEREAS, the first pastor, Reverend Michael Krupinski, guided a congregation of 210 families, 215 single persons, and 160 children, while the current pastor Father Wojcicki, shepherds a flock of 150 families and 465 parishioners; and

WHEREAS, during its seventy-five year history, the parishioners of Guardian Angels organized several committees of laymen to direct the renovation and expansion of their parish complex, maintain Polish customs, feasts, and traditions, and serve the West End-Elliott community; and

WHEREAS, the unique Polish character of Guardian Angels contributes to the rich tradition that makes Pittsburgh a colorful tapestry of close-knit neighborhoods and diverse ethnic communities;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulate the pastor and parishioners of Guardian Angels Church on their 75th Anniversary and wish the parish a heartfelt "Sto Lat" toward its continued service, development, and enrichment.

Mr. Grabowski moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1531 WHEREAS, since shortly after the turn of the century, the National Fire Protection Association has worked to raise the consciousness of the American public about the need to prevent fires through education, inspections, and demonstrations; and,

WHEREAS, fire deaths, injuries and property loss in the United States continue to be the highest in the world by a large margin, demanding that fire prevention programs must become a higher priority in American homes, schools, and workplaces; and,

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh, last year, experienced 15 deaths by fire, 81 fire-related injuries, and 3,913 fires, with the most frequent victims of fire being the young and the elderly; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Bureau of Fire, in cooperation with Parkway Center Mall, P.P.G. Industries, the Neighborhood Safety Program, Magic Y-97 Radio, West Penn Hospital Burn/Trauma Center and Employee Safety Program, will be sponsoring educational demonstrations and activities to promote "Fire Prevention Week;" and,

WHEREAS, this year's theme is "Learn Not to Burn - It Really Works!" because increased awareness of fire prevention precautions and practices will save lives and property;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declare the week of October 5-11, 1986 as "Fire Prevention Week" in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. May I respectfully request, Mr. Wagner, that you might want to have some of the educational material put on at least Cable 21 or on 17 because previous bills introduced by this Council and one bill by myself on smoke alarms and multiple dwellings have been of a very serious nature. I had a woman call one time who had two children burned in a third story who bought a smoke alarm but did not put it in yet because there was no ruling. The Fire Department has come to this Council and informed us that we have the greatest number of deaths in private single family homes. People just don't have smoke alarms in their air shafts, mainly stairwells, and so on. And it might be very helpful if you could arrange to have that videotaped or shown live, preferably videotaped so they could show it over and over again.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd just like to respond, Mr. President. I think that's an excellent idea and the appropriate time, not only all year round but next week would even be a better time with it being National Fire Prevention Week —

Michelle Madoff:

Well I meant do it there but make a film of it.

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, and periodically show the film and the importance of smoke detectors within all buildings, including residential homes.

This resolution simply highlights all the aspects of fire prevention and Chief Leahy and the firefighters either or both were supposed to be here and neither are, so therefore, I will present this to them at a later date.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I appreciate that but we do have people from Public Safety. Mr. DiNardo, could you come up? There's a presentation on a bill regarding Fire Prevention Week and I don't know if you've come up here for that or not.

Mr. DiNardo:

I'm not here for that purpose.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Okay. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1532 WHEREAS, Pittsburgh's emergency medical service system provides emergency health care to thousands of citizens each year, reducing injuries and saving lives through prompt and adequate medical assistance; and,

WHEREAS, Life-threatening medical emergencies not only cause severe stress for victims and their families, but they also place unusual demands on health care delivery systems; and

WHEREAS, Emergency treatment requires the around-the-clock availability of emergency personnel who must be capable of mobilizing on a moment's notice; and,

WHEREAS, Emergency medical technicians and paramedics are specially trained to handle sudden illnesses and injuries, and their efforts have ensured that visits to emergency care facilities are handled expediently and competently;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby tribute the outstanding lifesaving work performed by Pittsburgh's EMS team, a national leader in the delivery of emergency medical services.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd just like to say that it was requested by the Paramedics Union to present this resolution. They could not make it today at the last moment. The previous week was Paramedic Week, EMS Week, and this resolution simply indicates the fine job that they're doing.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I have to agree with you wholeheartedly. Paramedics have been a great asset to this City and have saved, I would have to assume, a tremendous amount of lives and given comforts to the people and our families and relatives that otherwise wouldn't be there under the old service of just calling a particular ambulance service to come down.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1533 WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh should be at the forefront in providing employment opportunities for its citizens; and,

WHEREAS, a sufficient number of talented and qualified individuals are available within the confines of the City of Pittsburgh, the County of Allegheny and the State of Pennsylvania, to fill any and all positions that may be vacant now, or in the future within the City work force; and,

WHEREAS, priority should be given to hiring individuals for employment within the City workforce to those individuals deemed qualified who:

- 1) currently reside in the City of Pittsburgh
- 2) currently reside in Allegheny County
- 3) currently reside in the State of Pennsylvania.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby urges the Mayor to declare a moratorium on the hiring of individuals from out-of-state to fill vacancies within the City of Pittsburgh work force and to give highest priority to the many qualified, competent individuals that presently reside in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. There are a number of questions. Are some of our employees grandfathered, City employees grandfathered, and do not have to live in the City? Is there a grandfathering act? Because it has come to my attention, and I am checking out one particular situation where someone who is in a supervisory role with people under him does indeed not live in the City under requirements for the City and I don't want to mention names until I check it.

Secondly, I see you do it in a series of one, two, three. It would seem to me that we ought to hire City residents wherever possible since the City of Pittsburgh residents pay that four percent wage tax and it bothers me that at the Stadium, where we just voted $21 million, we do not have a majority of people working even as people who take people to their seats as City residents. Many of them are county residents. Now, I know they're covered under union contract and I don't want anybody fired. But I think by attrition we ought to be replacing them with City residents. I've talked to the management of Three Rivers and that has not really been where it's at. We're still hiring non-City residents and the City of Pittsburgh taxpayers are still picking up the debt service. So, from that perspective, I think there's much to be done.

Now, with reference to your bill, I think you're aiming it particularly, I think, Mr. Wagner, at maybe some highly specialized fields where you may feel, and perhaps correctly so, that we could find the people right here in the area and I just don't know what your intent is. Perhaps you could clarify it.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, the purpose behind this resolution is simply a reminder to City government. As you know, we cannot mandate through legislation the hiring of all employees to be residents of the City of Pittsburgh. We can on the day that they are actually hired but not in the interview process and not in the selection process.

What I am requesting here is that because of many recent situations where we have hired repeatedly people that not only live outside the City, people that not only live outside Allegheny County, people that live outside of the state of Pennsylvania, that we begin to focus again on the talent and the numbers of people that we have available for employment within the City of Pittsburgh first, within Allegheny County second, and within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania third.

There has been a lot of this going on in the Public Safety Department, to be quite frank about it, and I have heard too many times as Chairman of Public Safety that too many people are being hired that are not even residents of this commonwealth, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

However, this resolution does not pertain to one specific department or I would have indicated that in the resolution. We have also had other instances in other departments and I think it applies to all departments in City government. I also believe, following up on Councilwoman Madoff's comments, it should apply to the Authorities that are under jurisdiction of City government.

I have this resolution; it is simply ceremonial in fashion but I believe it says something that's very meaningful at a time when our unemployment in this City is as high as any major city in the country. We must give priority to people in this City for employment. There are many, many competent people out there. We have good universities, we have good medical institutions, and we have the people that are trained and qualified in many professions. If, in the event they're not a City resident, I could bet that there's someone out there in the county and if they're not a county resident, I'll bet there's someone out there in the state of Pennsylvania.

I would like to see a copy of this resolution, if it passes, sent to all department directors, the Mayor, and all authorities that are under the jurisdiction of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, if I may. I agree with Councilman Wagner wholeheartedly. In fact, I feel that any position filled in the City of Pittsburgh should be within the department. We have one now coming up, Water I believe, and I think the party that gets that job should be a member of the Water Department at the present time, obviously with a lot of experience and a lot of seniority.

But if I may refresh everybody's memory here, when I was last on Council I was under the impression that any non-resident who came into the City of Pittsburgh to work had to have a residency and I refer specifically to the Engineering and Construction Department when the vote went to 4-4 and as the Council President I broke the tie and voted for a waiver for Mr. McDermott. Why has that changed? Why are we no longer voting a waiver to someone who works for the City who is not a resident?

The Chair, Pro tem:

He was not living in the City at the time.

Mr. DePasquale:

Neither are these other people. They're coming in from Milwaukee, St. Louis, wherever. They haven't lived in the City. They come right in and get the job and then they buy a residence here or get an apartment.

The Chair, Pro tem:

A person has to be, to my knowledge, just a resident of the City to be hired by the City. Directors, to my knowledge, have to get the approval of this Council and none, to my knowledge, have gotten it without living in the City.

Mr. O'Malley:

Pertaining to Paul McDermott, that vote was an extension of six months to give Mr. McDermott the opportunity to sell his home.

Mr. DePasquale:

Yes, but previously we voted on the waiver, Jim, six months before that. Then, if you remember, it became a hot political issue.

Mr. O'Malley:

He can accept the position and not be a City resident for six months which would give him the opportunity to sell his home and then he would have to move into the City of Pittsburgh. That's what that vote pertained to. On Mr. McDermott only.

Mr. DePasquale:

We gave him that because he was a non-City resident of the City of Pittsburgh and he was being hired as the Assistant then, I believe, in Public Works.

Mr. O'Malley:

Right.

The Chair, Pro tem:

All in favor of the resolution?
Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'd like to bring a very serious problem to the attention of Council. I know that others have their phones listed because I call you and when I don't have the number I look it up in the phone book. Not all of us, but I end up with a lot of calls; I have a 24-hour answering service.

We had some problems with the Mission Street Bridge and the Herron Hill Water Tower. It appears that something is not right in the Department of Construction and Engineering in the way we supervise and we follow through on contracts that are given out. It is not acceptable to go to the lowest bidder and then have the lowest bidder not comply with the rules of the Allegheny County Air Pollution Bureau and with the laws of the nation to protect our residents from silicosis. You cannot sandblast with silica and not expect people to inhale that material and it does not dissolve in your lungs. It stays there permanently and studies have shown that we have cases that have proven to be, from the origin of the silica, resulting in cancer.

The people in these areas were not informed in advance. I have a very bad cold, I'm having difficulty speaking, so I would appreciate it if the Clerk would read a memo that came to my office so that it will be on the record officially. And then I have one other item after that, two items. As you know, I want to request a hearing on the item that was discussed by Mr. DePasquale and I have a couple of other quick things to mention.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Is there any way you could summarize that?

Michelle Madoff:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Memo dated September 14, 1986;
Herron Hill Water Tower - September 26 and 27 sandblasting and painting; Contractor - INTERSTATE; Department - City Engineering and Construction.

"Friday, September 26th sand blasting began on the Herron Hill Water Tower. Ms. Donna Sagmeister of the Water Department had been contacted on September 22nd (Monday) requesting information on the scaffolds and what the City's plans were. We were informed that the water tower was to be sand blasted and painted. We were also told that we would be given at least 24 hours notice to move cars, close windows, take in lawn furniture or to leave the area. The sand blasting began at 8:30 a.m. and NO prior notification was given. A message was left for Ms. Sagmeister but we were not worried because the next day was a Saturday.

Saturday, September 27th, sand blasting began about 8:30 a.m. with no prior warnings. The neighborhood awoke to a fine haze in and around their homes.

The ALLEGHENY COUNTY AIR POLLUTION personnel were notified (9:00 a.m.). Mr. Goetz of the County Air Pollution in turn contacted Mr. John Valent of the City of Pittsburgh's Engineering and Construction. Mr. Valent stated that "they were almost done so they were going to finish up".

Mr. Goetz stated that they would inspect the sight. Mr. Goetz stated that the proposed legislation to require permits for open air sand blasting had passed the Allegheny Board of Health and would be presented to the County Commissioners in the next few weeks.

This legislation would allow the Allegheny County Air Pollution people to be informed about all Abrasive Blasting Pollution, to monitor it before it began, instead of the present "in the middle of the job". The county would then be aware of the abrasive being used, whether the paint being removed contained lead, and if the area was densely populated."

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, thank you for allowing me to have that read. The issue basically is the contracts are being awarded and there are not safety precautions taken to protect people underneath, their cars, their lungs, their property, and they're using materials that are very dangerous to public health.

I'm sort of reluctant to go ahead and schedule a post agenda with Mr. McDermott; he just recovered, I understand he just came home from heart surgery, but the gentleman who is next in line, I think it's Mr. Valent, could certainly be here to respond as to how this happened and what precautions we're going to take.

I would like to have a post agenda scheduled, Mr. President, but not until I've had some time to work out with him. I need to study the RFPs, I need to study what was requested, why it wasn't done, and I want to make sure that the companies in question are fined. I will be in touch with the Allegheny County Board of Health to make sure that if they are in violation of EPA, DER or Allegheny County Board of Health and Regulations that they are fined and they are brought before the magistrates. This is unconscionable.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'd like to make a comment. The City of Pittsburgh, in negotiating any contract with any individual company, so states in their contractual agreement that they have to comply to state, local, and federal laws. In that federal law is OSHA. We require all companies to be bonded and, as a result, if they have any violation of any of those codes and they seek damage through the City of Pittsburgh then we will seek damage through the corporation that is in fact violating the laws of the land.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as a matter of fact, on page four of the City of Pittsburgh, Supplemental, specifications for cleaning and painting the Mission Street Bridge, pollution controls, and I presume this is in all our contracts, it's standard, the contractor shall assume full and complete responsibility to prevent air pollution with paint chips, dust, or other harmful materials. The contractor shall take necessary measures to prevent particular matter from becoming air born. Methods of cleaning and paint application specified herein are subject to the further restrictions, provisions, of Chapter 123 of Rules and Regulations of the Department of Environmental Resources. The contractor shall protect pedestrians, vehicular and other traffic upon or underneath the bridge and also all portions of the bridge superstructure and substructure against damage or disfigurement by splatters, splashes of paint or paint materials. He shall furnish adequate canvas or other suitable materials where necessary for such protection. Some paints are harmful to the health of humans and animals.

I don't want to go over it again but the contractor is responsible and I want this contractor held responsible on both issues.

I want to go back and look at some of the other laws and let's not even get involved with the contractor; let's change the rags and make sure that the specs are done. The contractors are starting before the Air Pollution Bureau are there. The contractors are starting before permission from our own departments. Our departments are shocked to find out they're already blasting on the job. They're using silica sand and then they're going to something called black beauty which is a slag abrasive and both of them are not very healthy and there are other methods that are more expensive but when it comes to health, we'll go with the more expensive.

On another matter. I would like to request a post agenda as soon as possible so that this Council can be briefed on the allegations that have been made in the paper about price fixing among demolition contractors so this Council does not look like it has mud on its face, that we have voted without knowingly being aware of what is going on. We should be briefed by Mr. Imhoff and any other party involved. Let's set that up, please, as soon as possible.

This Wednesday on my post agenda addressing the issue of properties on Arlington, Mr. Schmeiser is very pleased; he says he wants an opportunity to explain what has happened and I think he's entitled to that. I've asked Mr. Creehan to be here, I've asked for Public Works and Construction and Engineering to tell me when that road will be paved so that we will know what impact that roadway would have on housing going up and townhouses because of the fact that that would enhance the value of real estate on that property and the whole property could be brought back to greater tax use. I want to have the appraiser for the City who appraises the properties for the City tell us what impact the paving of Arlington Road would have on that property. I want to have the person here who informed people they couldn't have the property because it was greenways. I want maps here to show where the properties are because I know there is some question of whether it is really the same property in question. I want a ruling from the Law Department, make sure the Law Department is here, as to whether we can take the property back and in what condition was it previously. I want photographs before and what condition it would be in. Should we take it back as a greenway? Should we take it back at all? And is this going to be a new ruling? I could not get from the Allentown people a petition. Mr. Creehan met with them privately a week ago Thursday and the word we got through our office is that the Allentown community wanted to deal in the proper method, meaning, through the procedure of government. Well, I can't think of a better procedure of government than this body at least being informed.

I would like to remind my colleagues, when I asked for a letter of inquiry, all I wanted was a letter of inquiry, and you're so busy protecting each other's proverbials, that this has now blown up into a full-scale investigation and so be it. And I ask that it be televised because I think that the public wants to know what's going on and I make that as a motion that on Wednesday my post agenda be televised and that has to be voted on by this Council. Every station is going to be here anyway and I think we should not shirk our responsibility. That is a motion; may I have a second?

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair, Pro tem:

On the post agenda, no post agendas are to be televised.

Michelle Madoff:

No, they're to be televised only when this Council votes to televise them by majority and any member can ask to have it done.

The Chair, Pro tem:

If we have that we're going to have all post agendas being televised.

Michelle Madoff:

Only if a majority votes for it.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I think this issue was disposed of some months ago when someone else brought this motion before Councilman Woods and I think our rules state that once we vote on an issue it's dead until the next session of Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President, may I respond? The will of this Council, the rules that we set up in our own meetings is that we do not want to dissipate the monies for whatever programs it could be, for example, on fire, etc., so that we would only televise the important hearings or post agendas by virtue of a vote of Council, a majority of this Council. The question is, do we have anything to hide or do we have nothing to hide. Are we going to vote to put it on television or are we not going to put it on cable? I call the vote.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd just like to state that there was a motion put on the floor to televise all post agendas but that was in the previous session of Council. That was a written, formal, ordinance, I believe, that Councilwoman Madoff put in front of Council but it was well over nine months ago so I know it was in the previous session. Therefore, I believe a motion would qualify today.

Michelle Madoff:

That motion was defeated and the motion in its place was that we would vote.

The Chair, Pro tem:

You're saying it was in the last session of Council and therefore someone could bring this up as a motion again. We'd have to research that, Jack, and I don't think we can have a vote on it today, if that's the case. If Michelle might want to hold her post agenda for another week until we have an opportunity for the Chief Clerk to go back and find it. Mr. Grabowski so indicated that that was in fact shot down and the reason for it being was very obvious, that our television camera people, all the staff behind it and production, that they just don't have enough staff to do post agendas as well as doing everything else that must be done. Priorities must be set. That priority in Council was set; there was to be no post agendas televised.

Mrs. Masloff:

It was understood that because the post agendas were not structured, nobody was required to be here. There was no reason; they were not a regular organized meeting and that's why it was decided at that time not to have post agendas televised.

In the matter of other hearings, we voted whether or not we have zoning hearings or any other hearings, that became a matter of a vote, whether or not those hearings would be televised. But it was understood because of what I just said that the post agendas would not be televised. And as you said, the cable people are not equipped to do it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on the issue a moment ago before we got to my bill, my issue, we talked about giving, Mr. DePasquale talked about exemptions. The issue of Mr. McDermott moving in the City, this Council decided to have and exception, not an exemption, an exception. I would ask that this Council make an exception on this post agenda because it really is the best thing to do; otherwise, it becomes a full-blown hearing. I'm just saying it really is a hearing so let's just get on with it and get it over with and I'm asking that we make it an exception. We have the right to make it an exception.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Question from the Chair. Are you to have a hearing? I heard you are going to request a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a post agenda on Wednesday.

The Chair, pro tem:

Is there a hearing coming in on this also?

Michelle Madoff:

It is a post agenda. It is scheduled.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I know that but is there a public hearing?

Michelle Madoff:

No, but if you don't give me television to cover it, the cablevision, and I'm asking for an exception on this, then we will schedule it as a full blown hearing. And I don't think we need to do that any more than this Council should have not supported, in their infinite wisdom, just having a letter of inquiry. You just keep blowing it up and blowing it up; let's get on with it and let's get a result. Don't act like you have something to hide.

Mr. O'Malley:

I don't think anybody has anything to hide but in the seven years that I've been on this Council we have never televised post agendas. A post agenda is basically a forum for Councilmembers to gather information. What may be important to one Councilmember may not be important to another Councilmember. I would prefer that Michelle Madoff request a full blown hearing, if that's her wish, and then we vote on whether we televise that. But I'm against televising any post agenda for any reason.

The Chair, Pro tem:

As the Chair, I'm going to rule that the motion is out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

On the motion to rule me out of order. I would like to point out that this is now on cable. It will be shown again this evening, and no matter how you look at it folks, you all look guilty if you refuse to have it on a post agenda.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, that's out of order. I ruled the motion out of order from previous discussions that we've had in this Council, that we can't do two things at one time. It's that simple. If you want to have one, then have a public hearing.

Is there any other discussion to come before the body?

Mr. Pollock:

On New Business. I wanted to bring something to the light of everybody on Council because I've been hearing about it for quite some time now.

I think a little history is important. In 1978, while I was a law student at the University of Pittsburgh and had a minimal income, I applied for a loan for my house. I used the Urban Redevelopment Authority Home Improvement Loan Program. This was in 1978, as I said. I used this program because this program is used only for people who qualify by income, and only for people who have building and housing code violations. At the time, I had a leaky roof; water was coming in all through my house, and I did not have the money to get a new roof. I received the loan from the Urban Redevelopment Authority under this program and I repaid the loan not only timely, but ahead of time.

I bring this up because there are certain members of this Council, in fact, I would say the seedier part of this Council, indeed, the criminal element of this Council, who have alleged something untoward or improper —

The Chair, Pro tem:

Mr. Pollock, I'm going to have to call you out of order. It's a rule of this Council that there be no derogatory remarks or insinuations made of the type of nature that you have just indicated now. If you continue along those same lines, I will rule you out of order, Mr. Pollock. I appreciate what you're trying to tell Council; I think you an attorney and I appreciate what you're trying to tell the Council, but when you mentioned things that are unfounded, and you being an attorney out of a court of law, these things will be settled in a court of law. This Council is not a body for that type of discussion.

Mr. Pollock:

My purpose for bringing this up at this time is to get it out in the open instead of wallowing in the sewer where it has been since I got on Council. There is no relation between my loan in 1978 when I was a law student and my applying for petition to run for City Council in 1985. And those who have tried to link them in some way have serious problems and now that I got it out it will possibly eliminate the undercurrent of discussion that I've heard.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Mr. Pollock, I have to agree with you on that. I knew you during this period of time and I think what you did was truly under the law at that time. You were not a Councilman, you weren't using any governmental — You had no decision making in the governmental process. You used it, the loan was there, you used that loan for whatever purpose it was so designated for apparently. Was the work done?

Mr. Pollock:

Yes.

The Chair, Pro tem:

The work was done. Did you pay --

Mr. Pollock:

I paid it back ahead of time.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Then that should be the end of it.

Michelle Madoff:

Same subject. I'm glad that Mr. Pollock brought that to light because he is right. People have a tendency, when they want to do somebody in, to spread innuendoes or to ask questions that are absolutely appalling like the one that happened to me the other day, did I use Mistick and not pay them. I can give you my $60,000 in checks that were used to the contractors, not only Mistick but others, for the work that was done in rehabing my place. But the innuendo was absolutely appalling to me.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Again I say, Michelle, this is not the body to discuss personal issues.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think it's a personal issue. I think he's saying he's been accused of something and he's not guilty and he's putting it on the record and I think it belongs there.

The Chair, Pro tem:

There's a court of law. To my knowledge, that has never been discussed here and should not be discussed here. This is a Council body forum.

Mr. Grabowski moved to excuse Mr. Woods for absence from the meeting.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

Proceedings of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh

VOL. CXX

Monday, October 6, 1986

No. 38

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FOURTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, October 6, 1986

PRESENT:

Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Pollock
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Givens
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't Pro tem)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'd like to start the meeting off by indicating that the Mayor has made a certain release on the relieving of Mr. John Norton. The Mayor has relieved at this time John Norton and his responsibilities as the Chief of the Public Safety Department. There's a letter coming over to that effect. According to the Home Rule Charter, Section 210, the Mayor is required to send a letter over to Council stating any director being relieved from his position and the reason for that.

If any of you have received the press release, you have noted that the Mayor's effective date on that will be the 7th of October, which will be tomorrow. So, in effect, we'll receive it sometime this afternoon but the effective date will not be until the 7th of October.

I don't know if any of us should make any comments on that. I think there's ongoing investigations, etc. It's a sad affair when it happens in the City but it's something that happens and hopefully it will be resolved as quickly as possible.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to make a comment.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I'll ask that no comments be made.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to make a comment.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I will then rule you out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

It's not about Mr. Norton; it's about the situation in general. It has nothing to do with the investigation.

The Chair, Pro tem:

No, we have a position for that when we come down to the Reports and Committees and any other stuff. I'd like to just move on. I wanted to inform all Councilmembers in case one of you might not have been informed prior to coming into Council today that that was the case.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Could I please have Jean Entwistle, Susan Hill, Linda Ortenzo and Susie Chesney please come forward.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1560 WHEREAS, the YWCA/Y*NET has continually promoted the professional and personal development of women in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, this beneficial organization has sponsored a Career Strategies Conference and Annual Networking Luncheon in its efforts to expand women's unique and individual talents to the area workforce; and

WHEREAS, this organization has brought together many area professionals of diverse backgrounds and careers who have offered motivational techniques, years of expertise and creative solutions to career challenges in order to focus attention on the skills and confidence needed to establish and achieve personal and professional goals;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby commend the YWCA/Y*NET upon its many contributions to our City as we proclaim October 10-17, 1986 "YWCA Career Strategies Week" in the City of Pittsburgh and we urge its participants to continue to strive for personal and professional success.

Michelle Madoff:

And to get equal pay with men. That is not in here but I thought I would add it.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

You know, I was ad libbing but I was not doing that jokingly; I was doing it in all seriousness. Women get paid, what is it, 46 cents on the dollar to men and they do need confidence to get back in the workforce because they've been shot down so many times and I hope that Jeanie, you might say something.

Ms. Entwistle:

Thank you, Michelle. On behalf of the YWCA of Greater Pittsburgh I would like to thank Michelle and City Council for this resolution. I wasn't prepared to address the issue that Michelle brought up but I certainly will show my boss about more pay and see if that does me any good.

The YWCA three years ago made a major commitment to professional women in Pittsburgh by establishing an entire department, Professional Development. Within that department there is a wide range of activities, everything from career counseling to career testing to the kind of program that brought us here today, and that is a conference and networking luncheon which will provide skills that are not taught in school and that are learned on the job and it's an effort to elevate those skills and that particular information that we all need, internal politics, stress management, equal pay for equal work. All of those will be part of the week-long activities at the YWCA.

I thank you all from the Y.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we invite the men to the stress management?

Ms. Entwistle:

The men are invited to all of our programs. Although it's the YWCA and our major goal and thrust is the development of women, we do have male participants. The network and luncheon is about 40 percent male. So, we invite you all to join us and I happen to have brochures if anyone is interested.

Mr. Pollock and Mrs. Masloff present

No. 1561 WHEREAS, on October 11th and 12th, 1986, President Ronald Reagan and General Communist Party Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev will be meeting in Iceland; and

WHEREAS, a clear test of trust between two nations on matters of security and arms control is credibility on issues of human rights and the humane provisions of the Helsinki Accords, signed by both countries; and

WHEREAS, less than 100 Soviet Jews are allowed to leave the Soviet Union each month to emigrate to Israel while several hundred thousand who wish to leave to rejoin their families cannot; and

WHEREAS, during the past two years, young Soviet Jewish children have been arrested for no other reason than having a desire to speak and teach the Hebrew language; and

WHEREAS, Americans would view the Soviet Union as desiring peaceful, cooperative relations by permitting Jews to leave and be reunited with their families, and by allowing freedom of religious practices in the Soviet Union to all those who wish them;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh urge party leader Mikhail Gorbachev to demonstrate easing of friction between our two nations by issuing emigration visas to the thousands who have applied to leave, in particular, to Soviet Jewish Prisoners of Conscience, and by permitting the freedom of expression of Jewish tradition and religious rites in the USSR.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Sophie and I were the co-sponsors of this resolution because both she and I were in the Soviet Union to visit with Soviet Jews who are unable to leave the country and their lives are totally indescribable. The tribulations they are forced to endure, the persecution and prosecution that they are subjected to, it's as crucial as can be to get these people out of the Soviet Union.

Before calling on our two guests, Lewis Borman from the Community Relations Council of the United Jewish Federal and Freddy Shechter of the New Shaliah of Pittsburgh, I'd like to see if Sophie wants to say a few words.

Mrs. Masloff:

No, thank you but I'd like them to say a few words.

Mr. Borman:

On behalf of the Pittsburgh Jewish Community, on behalf of the Pittsburgh Conference for Soviet Jewery, on behalf of all of those who care about human rights for Soviet Jews and for others who are oppressed in the Soviet Union, I wanted to thank Council for taking the lead in making such a forthright statement.

It's one of these issues where I wish that we wouldn't have to come back year after year and urge our President to be forthright about but I believe we're on the right track and I believe that the forthcoming non-summit summit may shed some light on the future and certainly the future of the lives of Soviet Jews.

The lives of Soviet Jews who have been in refusal for 10, 15 or maybe even 20 years, they depend on their names being in the public light and they depend on folks like yourselves being so forthright, so active, and being a link in the human chain on this very human issue.

Many, many thanks for all of us.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it would be appropriate, Mr. Pollock, that your resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, attention to his Administrative Assistant, so that it gets there and doesn't go in the circular file and somehow the message is related that the City of Pittsburgh Council does indeed pass this unanimously.

Mr. Pollock:

We're going to send it directly to Gorbachev who has greater control over accomplishing something.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, but I think it would be the will of the people —

Mr. Pollock:

Right, and the President.

Mr. Givens:

I'd also like to make a comment and thank the two Councilpeople for making this resolution and again making all the people in the City of Pittsburgh and this Council aware of what is happening to your particular group and knowing also that it's happening to other religious groups in the U.S.S.R. and all of us should prevail.

I thank you very much for coming down.

Mr. Pollock:

Would Mark Lance and his friend please come forward.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1562 WHEREAS, nearly forty years after apartheid was codified into law, the white minority government of South Africa continues to forcibly relocate tens of thousands of blacks onto worthless and remote parcels of land;

and,

WHEREAS, the white minority government has constitutionally enshrined racism leaving twenty-two million South African blacks voteless, landless and without human rights; and,

WHEREAS, government terror escalates daily with new measures aimed at censoring local and international media correspondents and the free press; and,

WHEREAS, the legislative sense of both houses of the Congress, the international community, numerous U.S. corporations, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the City of Pittsburgh is to support various divestiture efforts aimed at isolating the white minority government of South Africa in an attempt to hasten black freedom and independence within a democratic framework; and,

WHEREAS, a coalition of academic and student groups has formed the Pitt Divestment Coalition and is sponsoring a mass rally at 12 noon on Wednesday, October 8 on the University of Pittsburgh campus in an effort to convince the Pitt Board of Trustees to pass a resolution to divest any and all investments held by the University within twelve months of the passage of the resolution; and,

WHEREAS, the Honorable K. Leroy Irvis will be introducing such a resolution as a Member of the Board of Trustees;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares Wednesday, October 8, 1986 as PITT DIVESTMENT DAY in the City of Pittsburgh;

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Council urges the Board of Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh to swiftly and forthrightly pass the divestment resolution now before them.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lance:

My name is Mark Lance. I'm a graduate student in Philosophy at the University of Pittsburgh; I represent Students for Free South Africa which is a Pitt organization and the Pitt Divestment Coalition which is a coalition of churches, labor organizations, university and academic organizations and groups throughout the City of Pittsburgh.

We've been involved for several years now in trying to urge the University of Pittsburgh to remove its holdings in companies doing business in South Africa and we've been met with opposition, steadfast opposition, throughout this effort. So, we have decided to have a large rally at the University of Pittsburgh. This rally will be taking place Wednesday at 12:00 noon in front of the Student Union at the University of Pittsburgh.

We want to thank City Council for adding their voice to the many organizations throughout this City who have supported this and hopefully we can urge the Board of Trustees to join us.

Friend:

I am a graduate student in International Affairs at the University of Pittsburgh and I'd like to thank City Council for adopting the resolution.

I'd also like to point out that at the last Board of Trustees meeting, University of Pittsburgh President, Wesley Posvar, pointed out that in his opinion it was up to the Federal Government to take the first step on an issue such as this. Therefore, in light of the vote last week to apply sanctions on South Africa, I'd just like to point out the fact that he has said that once they've done something, then they'll take the next move. So, we'd like to see what they'll do at the next Board of Trustees meeting.

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Did anyone see 20/20 this week? They did, I believe it was Rhodesia but don't hold me to the country because I'm not sure, showing how integration is working, how everybody is getting along, and that the Blacks hold no malice to the Whites. Was that it? Was it Zimbabwe? I'm not sure where it was. It showed that the Blacks are harboring no anger towards the Whites and they're really living peacefully and doing business together and everything is like it should be in this country. And I say as it should be, not the way it necessarily is. It might be a good film if you can get a clip from it to perhaps show to people who don't understand that it can work.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Perry:

Is there anyone here to accept this resolution on Handicapped Week?

The Chair, Pro tem:

Do you want to hold it until --

Mr. Wagner:

No, go ahead and read it and I'll present it later.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1563 WHEREAS, this week across the United States, employers, governments, communities, families, and concerned individuals will be observing National Employ the Handicapped Week; and,

WHEREAS, the intent of this recognition is to express appreciation to the businesses and employers who have hired the handicapped; and,

WHEREAS, the hope of these national activities is that more employers will be encouraged to hire workers on the basis of their abilities and not their disabilities; and,

WHEREAS, the aim of this compassionate campaign is to salute the achievements of people with disabilities who are contributing to their communities and to society through their jobs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaim the week of October 5-11, 1986 as "Employ the Handicapped Week" in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd just like to say that I'll present this resolution sometime this week to the handicapped. It's very appropriate and this is a week dedicated to them and I thank you for your support on the resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, you may recall that during this idiotic debate on the North Shore where handicapped people are here with reference to the Mistick situation and I broke the tie, I had stated several times, and I've asked Mr. Perry to please convene, I'm now officially asking him because I had asked the handicapped people and I hope Mr. Wagner will help me, convene a meeting of the representatives and the Umbrella Group of the handicapped people that we are never again confronted with a zoning issue that becomes a handicapped issue but we address the handicapped issue as separate and apart. It's bad enough being handicapped but not to have the help they need is unconscionable. I know this Council cares and if we will convene a meeting of the leadership of the handicapped organization, I believe there's an Umbrella Group, one of the women was here that day, I'm not sure of the groups but if Mr. Wagner would help me, I would like to perhaps set up a meeting with the President or President Pro tem in our board room and start to get some feeling for what is needed and start to address some of the problems as opposed to reacting when something happens. We get used and no matter what we do we look like the bad guys. I know that being on Council one of the services we offer is scapegoating but —

The Chair, Pro tem:

Mike, I would so direct the Chief Clerk to find out the various organizations for the handicapped. Try to get all their names together and those Councilpeople who are interested and want to, and I think all of us are in that category, would like to bring them together and find out for themselves what are some of their major problems. I think all of us know what they are but to hear it from them, I think, would be beneficial.

Mr. Grabowski:

Mr. President, I think everything we just said was appropriate except the fact that it should have been taken up during new business, not during the discussion on Councilman Wagner's resolution.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I appreciate that but I think the two of them do certainly dovetail together and, when it comes down to the handicapped people, we want to recognize them for being in the working field, and anyone who overcomes that handicap and is a productive worker, they are one hell of a productive worker. They are the best. I know that from personal experience.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the reason I brought it up at this time, and I think it does dovetail and is appropriate, is that Mr. Wagner has said he was going to introduce the bill and he could help us by making the contact. Mr. Wagner is going to be meeting with them so I'm asking it as a special favor to this Council because he introduced the bill.

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain property or properties, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1476, there is a piece of property for sale, a two-story brick house on a lot 24 x 100 on 713 Southern Avenue, Mount Washington. The person who has requested to purchase that piece of property — The opening price, and I presume that is the value, minimum value on appraisal, that has been set by our real estate division of Lands and Buildings, now under the Finance Department, is at $5000. The information I have is that it will go to bid and the price will probably be somewhere at $10,000 or $12,000 in final purchasing price.

I call it out to the attention of anybody listening. Here is a house that needs rehabed, it's only in fair condition but fair is better than cannibalized in horrible condition, that can be purchased for $5000 or whatever the highest bid would be. If you don't know about it, again I repeat, it's 713 Southern Avenue, near Park Avenue; it's in Mount Washington. It's a wonderful opportunity for someone to purchase a facility to live in, and all you have to do is put up 10 percent of $5000. Sometimes you can put nothing up as long as you show up in court.

Call Mike Perry, City Clerk, at 255-2138. He'll tell you how to get on the list and you can go and bid on that piece of property.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Well, I think Council has passed on that and unless there would be a motion to send the whole bill back --

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm just letting the public know about it. I have no problem with it. That's not a sale; it's only that it's up for sale.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I know there's wonderful opportunities out there and for people that are concerned about it and want to be involved, they can come down there to these tax sales when we have them on tax sales properties. You have to put your bid in and it goes to the highest bidder. So, come on down.

The Chair, Pro tem:

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving execution of a Contract for Disposition of Land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and Mary Alice Humphries for the sale of Block 23-F Lot 135 in the 25th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh (NEW CONSTRUCTION)."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1482

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving execution of a Contract for Disposition of Land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and Penallen Corporation for the sale of Disposition Parcel 6A-1 in the 28th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh in Redevelopment Area No. 24 (DISTRIBUTION CENTER)."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'm not certain I have a question. Bill No. 1482, is that the bill that we held last week for two weeks relating to personal property along Greenway Drive —

The Chair, Pro tem:

No, that was New Papers, Jack. It was presented as New Papers so that would not have been held.

Mr. Grabowski:

Jack, this one deals with United Parce.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

You don't have a computer in your head either?

The Chair, Pro tem:

That's the 28th Ward in the City of Pittsburgh, that was that $55 per square yard, United Parcel.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Grabowski	Mr. O'Malley
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Wagner
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Givens
	(Pres't Pro tem)

AYES 6 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Michelle Madoff:

When Michelle Madoff isn't here, do you call my name? I notice you're not calling the names of the people who are not here. When I'm not here I send a note through my secretary to make sure that Council knows why I'm not present. Either I have a cold, I have a meeting, I have a dentist appointment, a doctor appointment, whatever reason. And I just wonder whether we're playing the ballgame differently, we're changing the rules.

Linda Johnson:

No, it's the same. I do the same for everybody.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you but we've changed the system.

Michelle Madoff presented

Bill No. 1557

Report of the Committee on General Services for October 1, 1986 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1468

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1283 of 1985, entitled: 'Resolution adopting and approving the 1986 Capital Budget and the 1986 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1986 through 1991 Capital Improvement Program,' increasing a line item and adjusting the Summary Totals."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1469

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the letting of a Contract or Contracts for the furnishing and delivery of Motorized Fire Equipment for the Department of General Services, and for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to move to have Bills 1468 and 1469 recommitted and I'd like to explain why.

As you may recall, when these bills were read on Wednesday, I had asked that the Fire Chief be permitted to look at the plans with General Services with Mr. Jacoby. For some reason they have not been able to get together. It appears that Mr. Bernie Burns did get hold of some of the specs for the fire trucks and they have some serious questions about them. This morning I had a member of the paramedic service in my office on another unrelated matter and I asked him to please look at the fire trucks when they go out in place of the paramedics; it appears that not all of them have oxygen. I want to make sure that that is one of the issues that would be addressed. So, I'm asking that they be held for one week, recommitted.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Discussion. Mr. President Pro tem and members of Council, within the last week I suspect all of you have been lobbied by both the Fire Chief and from members of the Firefighters Local No. 1 in behalf of this legislation to support it and to vote on it today; to pass it by the Chief, and to hold it by the Firefighters. In talking with both sides, I think what has surfaced is that we need a committee within the Fire Bureau consisting of firefighters that are non-management people to have some input into the purchase of equipment, whatever the equipment may be. I have suggested that strongly to Chief Leahy and I am hoping that that takes place in the future.

In regard to this piece of legislation and holding the legislation, I indicated to Chief Leahy that I would vote to move forward on the legislation and I mentioned to the firefighters that I would not be holding it, would not vote to hold it at this point in time due to the need to buy new equipment. And basically that's what this legislation is, the allocation of dollars to purchase the new equipment.

Therefore, I'm stating my reason why I'm not voting to hold it at this point in time but at the same time, I am making a request and will formally do it with a motion at the end of the Council meeting that a committee be established within the firefighters to assist and to have input in the review of equipment that is purchased that firefighters will ultimately use.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I have to agree with you, Jack. I hope not any place or any piece of equipment of major value within the City, that only one person would make a decision. Ultimately the Chief must make that decision and so recommend it to the Mayor and his staff. Hopefully he has gone through the various assistant chiefs and asked for their counseling. The Chief has to be the person to make that final determination but there have been some very serious questions that have been raised and I would hope that it would go back into Committee for the purpose of discussing those types of methods that you're mentioning right now in your committee on Public Safety that they should have if they haven't already had some type of committee to evaluate just not only in your department but all of the departments in the City where major purchases are being completed.

I do not know everything, I think Chief Leahy should come up before the Council if this goes back into Committee and explain his process to the Council. That way we'd all be informed of how they're going about buying this equipment and is it the right type of equipment, etc.

Mr. O'Malley:

I've also talked to the firefighters and I'm going to vote to hold the legislation. Generally, I think that the people that use the equipment on a day to day basis certainly should have an input on what equipment is purchased. Certainly Bernie has the firefighters' best interest at heart and he indicated that holding the legislation for one week would not peril the safety of the firefighters. So, I'm going to vote to hold the legislation.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I am also in receipt of a petition from residents of the City of Pittsburgh, I'm sure some of them firemen, asking for a public hearing on this. Because it was only given to the Chief Clerk today, we cannot introduce it today. However, Wednesday I'd ask for a change of the rules that we could so introduce it by Wednesday. We've done that before and I hope it could be done again just for clarification to resolve this thing once and for all.

Michelle Madoff:

While Mr. Wagner points out this bill only the appropriations of dollars and not the type of equipment that would be purchased. I think that the wishes of this Council would be better recieved if we hold up on the funds for at least a week so that what we're saying is what I said initially, and that is that no piece of equipment should be bought for the City. I know of Public Works equipment where they bought the wrong vans. I know of Water Department equipment where the wrong piece of equipment was purchased because somebody didn't know, they're just ordering. We need a truck so we buy a truck and they don't know if it's the right truck. Don't tell me to make it smaller because you made it --

The Chair, Pro tem:

No, I mean keep it into the frame of the motion that is before us.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm staying on the motion.

The points that were made by Mr. O'Malley and by others that we need a committee, and by yourself, Mr. Givens, that who knows better than the firefighters themselves as to what kind of equipment is a very valid one. I had said that on Wednesday and I'm glad to see that everybody saw fit to repeat what I said and to reinforce because the art of education is repetition. So, hopefully, between now and next week we will have, as I said earlier, a representative of the paramedic division because the fire trucks are sent when there is not a paramedic truck available. Also, it appears that there may be a design problem with one of the fire trucks and that between now and Wednesday, by holding up these dollars, there will be some action taken rapidly and that people won't avoid each other. The concept of a committee goes to the heart of who hires the fire chief. The fire chief is hired by the Mayor and we know from past history that whatever the Mayor and the Administration wants, that's what he gets. Sometimes, you know, there's an old saying, be careful of what you wish for because you might get it. It may be the wrong piece of equipment; you might find a fireman killed on the back of a truck. I think it's in everyone's best interest that we sit down, and I say we meaning representatives of departments getting equipment to explain what they really need and what's wrong with the equipment they've had and work harmoniously together as opposed to being adversaries. And thank you for supporting what I've said.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Is there any further discussion on the motion to recommit?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1507

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 58, effective February 12, 1986 entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Bloomfield Citizen's Council for the furnishing of professional services for the benefit of the residents of the City of Pittsburgh during 1986, at a cost not to exceed $1,500.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account No. 1838, Recreational Activities, Miscellaneous Services, in the Department of Parks and Recreation,' by changing the service provider from the Bloomfield Citizen's Council to The Ursuline Center, Inc."

—(SPONSORED BY MR. GIVENS)

Which was read.

Mrs. Masloff:

In accordance with Section 322 of the Home Rule Charter, "Publication Effective Date of Legislation", I move that the effective date on Bill No. 1507 shall be the date on which it is signed by the Mayor.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1559

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for October 1, 1986 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1497

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Repairs to Overlooks on Grandview Avenue; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1497, obviously we have to spend the money to maintain our overlooks because they are perhaps the major tourist attraction of this City. It's our Niagara Falls and it would be appropriate that somebody get on with fixing McArdle Roadway which is the only official road up to the overlooks. They've been closed down partially or totally for seven years and never completed which is a disgrace.

I would like to see that we follow through, Mike, hold my piece of legislation which has failed in this Council. I have an idea the time has come that we solicit industry to maintain in the future what we repair in the present on the plaques with their names saying "maintained by" whatever the company is, and we still maintain the name of the overlook in honor of the person they were named after. As a matter of fact, their name should be up there, highly visible, whoever the overlooks were named after and I believe they were originally Councilmembers. So, the name of the Councilmember would be there and the person who is maintaining it.

Also,

Bill No. 1295

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts or use of existing Contracts, for the Rehabilitation and Improvements to the Thomas Boulevard and McPherson Boulevard Traffic Islands; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, the National Association of Townwatch, which is a clearing house for crime watch groups across the country, sponsored National Night Out on August 12, 1986. Four thousand cities participated and the award was made by a national panel of judges and I'm pleased to announce that Pittsburgh came in No. 1. The other four cities were Dade County, second; Baltimore, third; New York City, fourth; and Kansas City, fifth. A formal presentation of this award will take place on October 16th at the Community Crime Prevention Awards Reception. But I think it's a feather in our hat that out of four thousand cities Pittsburgh came in first.

Michelle Madoff:

I have two items. One very quick item we can get out of the way quickly is that next Monday is the most religious day of the year for members of the Jewish community and there are three members here on Council. There is no way that we will be in Council on Monday so you're going to have to change agendas from Monday to Tuesday and Tuesday is a very, very booked up day now. So, I would appreciate as soon as possible having the schedule.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I saw that on the schedule, I have discussed it with the Chief Clerk. We have a very heavy schedule, if you notice, Tuesday and Wednesday. However, I feel that if we can limit our discussions on our normal executive session on Tuesday, that Monday session be on the following Tuesday then, at 9:30. That's about the only time that I feel we can move it in and I'll put that in the form of a motion to the body if you so want it.

Michelle Madoff:

May I suggest that we take one of the hearings and move it out on Tuesday? We'll be here until 7:00 at night.

The Chair:

Well, I've made that decision. If we have it at 9:30 in the morning we can have the morning hearing and the afternoon hearing without one running into the other. I'd ask that all members hold their long discussions very briefly and we can have it at 9:30 and accommodate this most holy religious holiday of the people in the Jewish faith. I need a motion to --

Michelle Madoff:

I move to move the regular business and final vote on Monday to Tuesday at 9:30.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

On the same subject, I believe we have a public hearing scheduled for 11:00 that day also and then we have our legislative meeting at 2:00. Does that mean that the public hearing at 11:00 will be changed to Tuesday at 11:00?

Mr. Perry:

Monday there's a zoning hearing on Monday at 11:00. That will be cancelled. Tuesday we have a URA hearing, the North Shore Proposal and that's at 10:30. At 2:00 we have an ordinance on establishing labor commission. So, our regular meeting will be at 9:30 on Tuesday.

Mr. Wagner:

And the public hearing will be rescheduled to another day? The Monday public hearing?

Mr. Perry:

The Monday public hearing will be rescheduled for another day.

Mr. Wagner:

And that public hearing pertains to what?

Mr. Perry:

That's a zoning change up on Brighton Road in the 27 Ward, I believe.

The Chair, Pro tem:

And there's no opposition.

Mr. Wagner:

And we'll let all participants know about that.

The Chair, Pro tem:

We need five Councilmembers and before you leave here today, if you cannot be there for that Tuesday meeting, in fact, we'll have three of our members absent, please notify the Chief Clerk so we will know that there will be five members present for that Monday hearing.

Mr. Perry:

It's up to Council, if you want to change it. If we can get five members we'll have it.

The Chair, Pro tem:

There's no opposition to the bill and it had been scheduled. In talking to the Chief Clerk, we'd have to reschedule and it would be another several weeks for all these people to be notified. We do not have enough time to reschedule it for that week or even sometime later that day. So, trying to reschedule all of that, the meeting we can hold over but I think that public hearing I'd like to continue on. It's my decision and one that I feel -- Of course, this schedule was set prior to my taking over as President Pro tem and I'd just like to hold on to that particular schedule. I don't think it's going to inconvenience anybody. In fact, for the record, we'll mark everybody present for the mere reason that it is a very serious religious holiday and I don't think those people that would be absent that day should be so marked absent.

Michelle Madoff:

You may mark me absent. If I'm absent, I'm absent. You don't mark me present when I'm absent.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I might be absent myself.

Mr. Wagner:

Point of clarification. So far we're scheduled for a legislative meeting at 9:30 on Tuesday, a 10:30 public hearing and a 2:00 public hearing.

Mr. President, if I may. I'd like to make a motion to reschedule that public hearing for Monday on Tuesday also to make sure that we have a quorum.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair, Pro tem:

I don't think there's any place to get it in other than as it's scheduled. It's scheduled for Monday, Jack. In order to move it to another day, even after that particular date --

Mr. O'Malley:

Point of order. I am going to request that the hearing that I have scheduled for 2:00 on the Business and Labor Commission be cancelled and be scheduled further into the future. So that 2:00 will be open.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Okay, Mike, we still can't advertise in time enough -- The only meeting we have to give direction to right now is the Monday's normal executive hearing of Council. That has to be voted upon. The other ones can be changed during the week here but we have to send out timely notice to cancel them and to reschedule them again. I would like not to do that if at all possible. Hopefully when these requests come in and I think it should be, and someone should make it a permanent resolution of this Council, that when there is a major religious holiday so identify those holidays. Make it as a motion of Council that when it falls on major committee sessions or executive sessions of Council, in fact, I'll put it in myself that this thing will not happen again in the future.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it was an oversight that nobody planned on. I think if Mr. Perry had seen it he would have scheduled it and notified us. It was just a mistake that nobody planned on. It never happened before.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Okay, then Chief Clerk, I'll ask you then to call the President because he'll be back here next week as to what his desires are, Mike, and so inform the other members of Council as to how these hearings are going to be presented next week.

Michelle Madoff:

On another matter, Mr. President. I would like, for the record, to read the press release that was released by the Mayor so it is a matter of permanent record in our Monday minutes with reference to Mr. Norton and I have a comment to make, not on the investigation because that would be inappropriate, but on future hirings of a director. The memo reads, for people who may be listening:

"October 6, 1986

Statement by Mayor Richard S. Caliguiri

This morning, I notified John Norton that I am relieving him of his duties as Director of the Department of Public Safety, effective October 7, 1986. I have designated Deputy Director Glenn Cannon to serve as Acting Director until further notice.

Due to the stress of the last several days, the Director is today under medical care. He will be eligible to receive payment for unused accumulated personal days and to file a claim for the sick leave benefit provided to all City employees which includes a partial salary replacement while unable to work.

Director Norton and I had concluded last week that continuing focus on him, rather than on the public safety program, jeopardized his effectiveness making his departure from City government inevitable. Before asking for his resignation, however, I wanted to give him an opportunity to locate another position.

As the controversy with the IACP unfolded over the last several days, it became apparent to me that prolonging this matter was not in anyone's interest and that Director Norton needed to be away from his duties, both to pursue his next position as well as to defend himself from various charges.

John Norton made a contribution to the modernization of our public safety program and for that he has my gratitude and that of the citizens of Pittsburgh.

Unfortunately, his handling of the relationship with his professional organization along with the accompanying publicity on it and other matters, have rendered his leadership ineffective at a time when it is most needed.

While it is not possible to avoid criticism when you occupy an important public post, the Director of Public Safety must maintain the confidence of the citizens at all times. Unfortunately, Director Norton's judgment has been called into question by the public and the media, thereby, shifting attention to him and away from the goals of the program.

On a personal level, I wish John and his family well. The action I have taken is not an easy one personally nor does it come without consideration for them.

My primary responsibility is to the citizens of Pittsburgh and, in this case, to give them effective, stable direction of the public safety program.

This change should not overshadow the progress we have made in our effort to provide well-managed, well-trained and well-equipped public safety forces.

From the initiation of "first responder" to save more lives, to the establishment of an all service academy, to the investment of millions in new modern automotive, safety and communications equipment, to the upgrading and certifying of building inspectors to the development of an effective river rescue program -- these achievements are only possible, and affordable, due to the coordination of the uniformed forces and the hard work of the dedicated men and women who make up the management team and the ranks.

But the job is not finished.

I have every intention of carrying out the commitment I made to give Pittsburgh the best public safety services possible. If difficult decisions such as the one I am making today are necessary, then I will make them."

Michelle Madoff:

And now I think it is appropriate to make a comment. When this body was called upon to vote for Mr. Norton, many of us, including myself, were very distressed that a decision was made on what procedure was going to take place for the hiring of a safety director and his duties without sitting down with the F.O.P. leadership, the leadership of the fire union, and I do believe they did sit down with the paramedics because Mr. Cannon was the choice of the Mayor initially.

We have a problem today holding fire trucks. Why? Because fire trucks are being purchased without input from the people who use them. We create bad will and I again appeal to the Administration. Let us not be in an adversary role, let us not have this fear with the public. Let the Administration please speak to Councilmembers, keep us informed so we don't read about it in the media, let us know who you're considering before a choice is made and the reasons why, and sit down with the leadership, not the fire chief who is hired by the Mayor, not the paramedic chief who is hired by the Mayor, not anyone who is hired by the Mayor, but a representative for the rank and file who have been of great service to this community; dedicated their lives, put their lives on the line all the time. They know what's best, within certain parameters.

Let's not have labor negotiations based on getting money for proper equipment, meaning suitable uniforms. Firefighters need protection and that should not be an item that is negotiated. It's something that this Council will unanimously vote for and I speak for my colleagues on that. If a firefighter need oxygen and he's going to have it, or she's going to have it. If a certain type of truck is inappropriate for this City in any division of government, this Council wants to know about it before and not after the fact. And I hope in my dealing with Mr. Jacoby of General Services I will have some input in trying to bring the diverse parties together before the fact and not after the fact.

I think we can avoid a long repeat of what we've just been through year which has really worn us to the bone. All of us are depleted; I think we all need vacations because of the trauma. As I said, Council offers its service of scapegoating; it's one of our services that we give. We're always responsible no matter what happens. We have no input in what happens, we have no input in the decision-making process; but if the wrong person is chosen, we're blamed.

I would urge my colleagues to send a letter to the Mayor essentially urging the Administration to sit down with the leadership of the parties involved before a new search committee is made and if indeed Mr. Cannon is going to be appointed permanently let us know that up front knowing the very strong feelings that the police and fire departments have with having one department overseeing all departments. That's been a bone of contention.

I personally think Mr. Cannon is an outstanding dedicated citizen; this is not a critique of him and I am not saying the Mayor should not appoint who he thinks is appropriate. But for God's sake don't work in an adversary role of Council, work with us, and we'll be happy to work with you, Mr. Mayor.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Michelle, to respond to you, the Mayor has been in touch with myself acting as the President of Council. I had received the letter today almost the same time that I received the news release that you just spoke of right there. The Mayor's letter, however, was much more direct and to the point. He addressed it to the Honorable President and Members of Council, dated October 6, 1986.

"Dear President and Members of Council:

Pursuant to Section 210 of the City Charter, I am informing you that I have dismissed Public Safety Director John Norton effective Tuesday, October 7, 1986.

His removal at this time is necessitated by erosion in his effectiveness and deterioration in his ability to lead the department.

Very truly yours,

Richard S. Caliguiri"

Michelle Madoff:

One of the unfortunate things and one of the things we give us as public figures, being leaders in the community, sometimes injustices are committed against us. Sometimes we buy a car that is ineffective; maybe we have work done in our homes where we are unhappy. We cannot really sometimes go out and defend ourselves because we would end up in the public eye with people taking sides. It's a sad right that we give up and I would think that we should not judge Mr. Norton until all the facts are in. That was just one of the points I would like to make.

The Chair, Pro tem:

Jack, do you have something to say?

Mr. Wagner:

In regard to this particular issue, I will make a statement later. But I have not yet determined precisely what, as Chairman of Public Safety.

Mrs. Masloff moved to excuse Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Woods for absence from the meeting.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. O'Malley moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, August 11, 1986; Tuesday, September 2, 1986; and Monday, September 8, 1986.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-FOURTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Tuesday, October 14, 1986

PRESENT:

Mr. DePasquale	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Pollock
Mr. Grabowski	Mr. Wagner
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods (Pres't)

ABSENT:

Mrs. Masloff

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

I'd like to defer from our regular order of business and go with two resolutions.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1609 WHEREAS, the health and welfare of the citizens of Pittsburgh are of primary concern, and our City is fortunate to have individuals and organizations dedicated to the preservation of good health and the rehabilitation of the ailing; and

WHEREAS, the Visiting Nurses Association of Allegheny County began a Stroke Rehabilitation and Education Program in 1961; and in 1963, the Brashear Association joined forces with the Visiting Nurses and became a co-sponsoring agency; and

WHEREAS, Brashear Stroke Group began with one group consisting of approximately 10 "Stroke Victors" and care givers and since that time, the program has expanded to 15 groups throughout the County; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the program is to stimulate the stroke person and family to move from a homebound existence back into the community, to offer families an opportunity to develop relationships with others who face similar problems, and to motivate stroke persons to function at their maximum level; and

WHEREAS, by way of this type of rehabilitation and group interaction, this worthy program helps stroke persons realize that they can still participate in meaningful, productive activities.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby congratulate the Visiting Nurses Association and the Brashear Stroke Rehabilitation and Education Groups on their 25th Anniversary and commend them on the worthy and beneficial work they perform; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wish the Visiting Nurses and the Brashear Association many years of continued success and proclaim October 16, 1986 to be "Brashear Stroke Rehabilitation and Education Groups Day" in Pittsburgh so that all of the residents of our City can join in the celebration of this wonderful milestone.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Joseph Tarasovitch:

I'm glad to be a part of the V.N.A. 25th Anniversary and the Brashear Stroke Group and our group leader, Mrs. Mary Louise Regan. She has done a wonderful job. If you would have seen me seven years ago you wouldn't believe it; I was dead. With her help and the help of the V.N.A. and the Brashear, I was really a success. I guess the Lord didn't want me yet.

I want to thank all of you people and Mary Louise and all the V.N.A. We have a wonderful group, our stroke groups. We have a wonderful time; we associate with everybody and talk to everybody and have a wonderful time.

Mr. Pollock:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to ask several people from the Community Crime Prevention Coalition to please step forward for this resolution. The Chairman, Bill Conway, Vice Chairman Sergeant Burns, and we have two secretaries, Loretta Miller and Bicky Goldzer, and anyone else involved in the Community Crime Prevention Coalition please step forward for this resolution.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1610 WHEREAS, October 13 through October 16, 1986 is National Crime Prevention Week; and,

WHEREAS, decreases in Federal and State funding of social service program will ultimately lead to an increase of crime; and,

WHEREAS, the City must rely on community projects such as the Neighborhood Block Watch Programs to fill the funding void being created; and,

WHEREAS, the Community Crime Prevention Coalition serves as a useful forum for sharing information and ideas, developing priorities and strategies to advocate for community based crime prevention; and,

WHEREAS, the FBI reports that a crime occurs every two seconds, a violent crime every 24 seconds, a property crime every 3 seconds, a murder every 23 minutes, a forcible rape every 6 minutes, robbery every 58 seconds, burglary every 8 seconds, and other crimes all too frequently;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby commend all members of the Community Crime Prevention Coalition for their concern and activities in alerting our citizens to the growing menace and cost of crime, and in stimulating public interest in year round crime prevention activities as we join the nation in proclaiming October 13-16, 1986, "Crime Prevention Week" in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Prior to Bill Conway who is Chairman of the Community Crime Prevention Coalition saying a few words and introducing others that are here that are very actively involved in Block Watch Programs throughout the City of Pittsburgh. I would first like to compliment all of them and everyone else in all of our neighborhoods that participated in the National Night Out going back in August of this year not only for their participation but that the City of Pittsburgh was awarded the Number One rating for the most participation and the highest quality National Night Out of any city in America. Those responsible for that were the Community Crime Prevention people, the Block Watch Programs, the Pittsburgh Police Crime Prevention and many, many Pittsburgh residents.

Prior to introducing Bill, I'd like to say that in addition to celebrating Crime Prevention Week, we have a new poster in the City of Pittsburgh that has been put together by all of those groups and it's the Pittsburgh Crime Watch poster. It is an effort of many government entities, neighborhood groups, and the Pittsburgh Police Department Crime Prevention to put this new poster together. It symbolizes the national symbol of McGruff, take a bite out of crime, the State symbol and the City of Pittsburgh seal. As indicated on it, take a bite out of crime. Criminals beware. In case of suspicious activity we first call the Police immediately at 911; second, call all neighbors; three, prosecute all offenders. At the bottom of the poster is the Pittsburgh Crime Prevention Coalition phone number which is 255-2946. These posters are available through my office, with crime prevention programs and Block Watch programs throughout the City of Pittsburgh.

I can't say enough about how much all these people here have done in their efforts to reduce crime in our city. I'd like to introduce the person that is most responsible, Bill Conway, who is chairman of that group.

Mr. Conway:

Thank you Jack. As Jack stated, October is National Crime Prevention Month throughout the country and our coalition has chosen this week to sponsor special activities to highlight that event. We have done a poster contest in conjunction with a number of schools throughout Pittsburgh and Allegheny County co-sponsored with McDonalds. Those posters were designed by school children around the theme of crime prevention and they will be on display at McDonalds restaurants. Also, some are on display down in the lobby of the City County Building.

In addition to the poster contest, we also are doing a display in the City County Building of different Block Watch groups from throughout the county. The highlight of the week, however, will be on Thursday evening. We will have our seventh annual awards reception at the University of Pittsburgh Student Union.

Everyone is welcome to attend that. We will be honoring neighborhood volunteers who have been very active in Block Watch and in public safety activities throughout Allegheny County.

Coincidentally to Crime Prevention Week, we received word from the National Association of Town Watch that Pittsburgh was chosen the number one City in the country for the neighborhood crime fighting project Night Out. I appeared before Council back in August and a resolution was proclaimed declaring Night Out in Pittsburgh an what happened was, a number of neighborhood groups, not only in the City but throughout the county, organized activities. We have seen Pittsburgh rated number one in football and in baseball, and the most liveable city, and now we can enjoy that kind of number one ranking for neighborhood crime fighting efforts. I'm so proud to share that award with the neighborhood volunteers.

On Thursday afternoon at 1:30 there will be a news conference in the office of Mayor Caligiuri. The officials from the National Association of Town Watch will be in Pittsburgh and they will present us with a plaque and I'm looking forward to that event.

I'd like to acknowledge those who have made all of our activities possible and those who have certainly helped make Pittsburgh number one. That is, the Planning Committee of the Coalition, Loretta Miller from Knoxville, Bicky Goldser from Squirrel Hill, Terry Baltimore from East Liberty. They were all part of the Planning Committee. Other members of the Coalition who are here include Kathy Griffin and the members from the Knoxville Block Watch.

I'd also like to commend the efforts of the Pittsburgh Police Department Community Relations; I think they're now called the Crime Prevention Unit. They're represented today by Sergeant Carroll Byrne. Sergeant Byrne was one of the original founders of the Coalition along with myself back in 1979 and Sergeant Byrne has done more for community relations in the neighborhoods than I can think of in the Public Safety Department. Would you like to say something, Carroll?

Sergeant Byrne:

The check is in the mail, Bill.

For years we have been telling everybody in the City who would listen that the best kept secret in community crime prevention in the country is Pittsburgh. The amount of people that were involved on National Night Out numbered in the thousands. The amount of crime watch groups we have number in the hundreds. Nowhere in the Department of Justice where they have the books on crime prevention will you find a book on Pittsburgh. We don't write about it; we in the Police Department don't try to take credit for it. This is something that the people in the City have done working day in and day out, not one night a year, day in and day out to take back their streets and make them safer. It has worked. The best kept secret in this country in crime prevention is and has been the people in this City, not our crime prevention unit. I thank you for what you've said, we've been a resource, but the people in this City have earned anything that they can get.

Mr. Conway:

Let me just conclude by saying that when Pittsburgh neighborhood volunteers work on a project together, we see what happens. They're number one. Thank you.
